EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

(b)(1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified to such Executive order;

(b)(2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency;

(b)(3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), provided that such statute(A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on issue, or (B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld;

(b)(4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;

(b)(5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;

(b)(6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;

(b)(7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such law enforcement records or information (A) could be reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, (C) could be reasonably expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source, (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law, or (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;

(b)(8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions; or (b)(9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

(d)(5) information compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action proceeding;

(j)(2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to the enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;

(k)(1) information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive order in the interest of the national defense or foreign policy, for example, information involving intelligence sources or methods;

(k)(2) investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes, other than criminal, which did not result in loss of a right, benefit or privilege under Federal programs, or which would identify a source who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;

(k)(3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or any other individual pursuant to the authority of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3056;

(k)(4) required by statute to be maintained and used solely as statistical records;

(k)(5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment or for access to classified information, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;

(k)(6) testing or examination material used to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in Federal Government service the release of which would compromise the testing or examination process;

(k)(7) material used to determine potential for promotion in the armed services, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished the material pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA

Chief of Police ROCKY POMERANCE, Miami Beach Police Department, confidentially advised on June 21, 1971 he has been informed by reliable sources that the Democratic National Convention of 1972 will definitely be held in Miami Beach. The Republicans are expected to hold its convention in San Diego.

In anticipation of this eventuality, the Miami Office is opening a control file for receipt of all information relating to this convention, it being assumed the Bureau will be requested to perform the same type of assistance in security and other matters as occurred in the major political conventions of 1968.

The Bureau will be kept informed of any developments as such information is received relating to the foregoing.

DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION, AUGUST, 1968
INFORMATION CONCERNING (INTERNAL SECURITY)
00:CHICAGO

ReCGlet 5/6/68.

By referenced letter Chicago canvassed each office requesting specific information as to each individual of interest to the Bureau that will be in Chicago at the time of the National Democratic Convention. This information was requested to assist Chicago in the identification of persons should incidents occur as the result of demonstration activity at the time of the Convention.

The Bureau has been advised that only a few offices have responded to this request. In order that Chicago's request is clearly understood, the following guidelines are set forth for each office.

The information requested in referenced letter should be furnished to Chicago regarding all individuals who, because of their background and past activities, could logically be expected to appear in Chicago and engage in disruptive activities during the Convention.

The above is meant to include persons who are leaders or members of any organizational group concerning which the Bureau has an interest whether it be because of subversive, right wing, New Left, black nationalist, civil rights, antiwar or peace activity. You should also advise Chicago accordingly as to any individual who is known to be violence-prone who might be attracted to widely publicized functions, such as a national political convention.

More specifically, you should furnish the requested information to Chicago concerning the following, but not be limited to these groups:

1. All leading activists in the New Left or antiwar and peace activities who have previously engaged in the leadership of demonstrations which resulted in violence or mass arrests.

2. All individuals, regardless of organizational affiliation, who attended planning conferences or meetings concerning plans to demonstrate at the National Democratic Convention. This would include a conference such as the one held at Lake Villa, Illinois, in March, 1968, which was attended by delegates from all over the United States. Each of these delegates should be considered a possible visitor to Chicago in this regard.

3. Any individual who has encouraged other persons or groups to engage in demonstrations at the National Democratic Convention or who has requested, on behalf of his organization, volunteers interested in such activity.

Recent information indicates increased plans for demonstration activity at the National Democratic Convention and there has been, in connection with this information, a degree of secrecy as to who the leaders of this activity will be. In view of this, it is imperative that Chicago be furnished information from all offices making it possible to identify persons leading demonstration activities at the Convention. Each office will, therefore, expeditiously check its files and sources and, thereafter, furnish the material requested to Chicago in the form requested in referenced letter by 8/2/68 without fail. The Bureau will be furnished by each office the communication which submits the information requested to Chicago. It will not be necessary for the Bureau to be furnished the identifying data submitted as enclosures to that communication.

Memorandum

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI (157-8589) DATE: 5/6/68

FROM : SAC, CHICAGO (100-44963)(P)

SUBJECT: DEMCON

Re Bureau airtels dated 2/16/68 and 4/29/68, which authorized Chicago to canvass all offices regarding captioned matter.

Enclosed are one copy each of sample data sheet and characterization sheet.

In connection with the forthcoming Democratic National Convention, August, 1968, at Chicago, allegations have been received by Chicago to the effect that subversives, civil rights and peace activists and anarchists from all sections of the United States are planning to converge on Chicago during the Convention in an effort to disrupt it.

Chicago is currently compiling a loose-leaf album which is composed of data sheets which include a photograph and a brief resume of descriptive and background data of individuals of interest to the Bureau that will be in Chicago. This album will be used as an investigative aid to rapidly identify individuals should any incidents occur during the Convention.

Where information is developed that an individual in which the Bureau has an interest, is traveling to Chicago to participate in any activity during the Convention, that Division should promptly furnish Chicago with photo, background and descriptive data and a current subversive characterization when applicable.

ARMADILLO MAY DAY TRIBE (AMDT)

The AMDT is an organization comprised of representatives from various anti-war groups at Austin, Texas, and individuals from the University of Texas, Austin, Texas (UTAT), Student Community. It was organized primarily to coordinate and direct activities of those demonstrators participating in the May Day activities at Washington, D.C., during May, 1971, sponsored by the People's Coalition for Peace and Justice.

PEOPLE's COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE (PCPJ)

A PCPJ press release dated March 1, 1971, described the PCPJ as being headquartered in Washington, D.C., and consisting of over 100 organizations which are using massive nonviolent civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repression, and war.

VENCEREMOS BRIGADE (VB)

The VB was formed in June, 1969, by a coalition of New Left organizations to encourage American youth to travel to Cuba in defiance of a ban on travel to that country by the United States Department of State. The ostensible purpose of the travel was to assist the Castro regime in the harvesting of sugar cane and other agricultural products and to give young Americans the experience of living in a revolutionary communist country.

The AMDT representatives were subsequently housed at [redacted] This is the residence of [redacted] both of whom are alleged to be [redacted] Also staying at the above address were [redacted] and an individual identified only as [redacted] According to [redacted] attended Kent

State University, Kent, Ohio, during the time of the National Guard incident there which resulted in the deaths of four Kent State students during May, 1970. [redacted] is described as a white male, five feet nine inches, 140 pounds, red hair, and beard.

At the time of the arrival of the AMDT contingent in Atlanta, both a Gay Liberation and Women's Conferences were being conducted. Those males interested in attending the NCAG found little to occupy themselves during this period as all "straight" males were excluded from both of these conferences.

At the conclusion of the Women's Conference, [redacted] contacted [redacted] who had been in attendance. She explained to [redacted] that the Women's Conference had decided to disrupt the NCAG to such an extent as to preclude the passage of proposals. They had resolved that it was much more important for people within the Women's Movement, Gay Movement, and MDC, to relate to each other before a successful national activity could be staged. She would not elaborate on the manner in which the NCAG would be disrupted or other activities conducted at the Women's Conference. [redacted] did indicate, however, that the women from Austin, Texas, would not attend the NCAG but planned to return to Austin. She explained that they were not interested in sitting through six days of argument and interfaction conflict which they expected to happen at the NCAG. [redacted] stated that the Women from Austin would go to any target site and participate in any action planned by the NCAG. [redacted] and the other Austin women were not in favor of the above decisions made by the majority of the women who participated in the Women's Conference.

A self-identified homosexual male from the Purple Star Tribe of Dallas, Texas, known only as [redacted] stated that the Gay Liberation Conference had resolved to boycott the NCAG or to turn it in a new direction. He referred to all "straight" white males as "sexists" and stated that "We must learn to relate to each other before the movements can unite together in a common cause to overthrow the United States Government."

The first major meeting of the NCAG was held on Saturday, August 14, 1971. The meeting was completely unproductive degenerating into an interfactional battle. While presentations were made and various individuals held the floor from time to time, the Gay Liberation representatives succeeded in tying up the conference. It was hung up on the question of sexism. Those attempting to speak were interrupted and shouted down. It was apparent that the strategy which resulted from the Gay Liberation Conference and Women's Conference was being implemented.

[redacted] and other AMDT members left the conference. [redacted] stated that it was apparent that the conference would be frustrated in its efforts to pass proposals concerning the fall action. [redacted] appeared to be more knowledgeable insofar as the conference manipulation was concerned then he would admit.

b6
b7D

[redacted] explained that by design, nothing would be settled at the NCAG until the final session on August 17, 1971. He further explained that [redacted] would formulate the proposal for the fall MDC action which he would present at the final NCAG session. According to [redacted], the [redacted] proposal would be accepted by the NCAG. For this reason, [redacted] and the other AMDT members abandoned the NCAG making only occasional appearances at various meetings.

The following are some of the position papers, statements, and proposals made by the different MDC groups and others during the NCAG. Many were not brought before the NCAG as a result of the Gay Liberation tactics, however, the proposals were circulated among those in attendance:

UPPER NEW YORK STATE MAYDAY PROPOSAL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Upper New York May Day people feel that calling for a national demonstration in Washington only two days after regional actions, as proposed by PCPJ, would be logistically impossible. In addition we feel that it would be politically more effective to have decentralized actions. We support PCPJ's call for mass marches and rallies in major cities on November 6 however, rather than going to Washington on the 7th or 8th, we propose that May Day people remain in their regional target cities and carry out mobil civil disruptions on November 8.

VIETNAM WILL WIN!

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

General Political Statement

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Last Spring's Mayday demonstrations were a big step forward for the movement and the people's struggles in a lot of ways. At Mayday we saw the largest number of people ever get together for civil disobedience. The spirit and courage shown during the actions was certainly something to be applauded. The conscious anti-imperialist politics of Mayday took the anti-war movement to an entirely different and higher level than previous protests. The level of struggle was raised and through the resulting repression the government was exposed. It seems that our movement is becoming more democratic internally and that we are learning to look toward the developing women's and gay movements for leadership.

The Mayday movement has shown the validity and significance of the concept of a Revolutionary Youth Movement as no other movement has been able to do in the past. The movement has shown generally the potential that youth can bring to the struggle for a new society. Increasing numbers of young people, not as committed to the system as their parents, and with greater mobility, have shown a willingness to put themselves on the line.

While recognizing the importance and significance of the Revolutionary Youth Movement generally and the Mayday movement in particular, we must also realize the limitations of these movements. Youth, as youth, is not a critical sector of society or specifically of the economy. While some of the struggles that we have waged (such as the Kent State-Cambodian invasion strikes and the Mayday actions last Spring) have had an effect on national policy, they have not had a decisive effect. We must also realize that when we speak of the youth movement we are talking primarily about a movement made up of students, ex-students, and street people. The Mayday movement has yet to really broaden its base to include working class youth and people in the various communities. Their is a significant lack of Third World leadership in the Mayday movement.

We must consolidate and expand the present youth movement. The primary direction to move in this area is toward the communities and among working class youth generally. We must move from cultural forms of struggle to more political forms of struggle while at the same time retaining and developing the good aspects of youth culture. We must emphasize th importance of Third World, Women's and Gay leadership both in our own movement and in our attitude toward other movements and organizations.

Proposal For Mayday Organizing

As the Mayday movement branches out into other sections of American society all of us must see ourselves as organizers. We must build a Mayday movement and organization from the base up. At this point a rigid national structure would be harmful to the movement. In this period national and regional leaders should serve as coordinators and should think of themselves in terms of being phased out of the leadership when people on the local level build movements of significant size and influence and are able to assume higher leadership positions. We should be organizing ourselves into Serve The People collectives (such as day care groups, food co-ops, free clinics, free clothing centers, people's garages, coffee houses, bookstores, print-shops, people's entertainment groups, etc.) and attempting to link up with the G.I. and Veterans movements, high school organizing projects, and existing progressive community groups.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

We should be engaging in regional actions and community movements to build the movement on a local level. We should be attacking imperialist institutions such as Selective Service, R.O.T.C., and the big corporations; we should be protesting police repression, the prison system, war industry, military and corporate recruiters, inadequate health care, etc. and we should be doing welfare rights organizing, strike support actions and organizing work at the point of production in factories across the country. In all of these activites and projects we [illegible] should build on the best aspects of the present movement and see ourselves expanding to broader sections of the population, especially working class youth. We should have an attitude of learning from the people and serving the people.

The Fall Offensive

The Fall Offensive should take the form of area and regional actions culminating in a national action (or two national actions, one on either coast).

The area and regional actions should serve as tools in building the many-faceted struggle on the basic level and should involve as many people as possible. The national action should serve as an occasional national focus for Mayday activity all across the country. The area and regional actions would be one of the movement's main organizing tools on the local level while the national action would be used to put pressure on the government over issues of national policy. Both types of actions are important; each type can be used to build for and reinforce the second type.

The Mayday movement must attempt to re-define the terms of victory at an action. Victory should not, at this point, be gauged in military but rather political terms. The strength of a political victory ought to be judged in terms of the points made. The Mayday movement should show political and material support for the various liberation struggles being waged inside and outside of the U.S. Our actions should put forward militant anti-imperialist, anti-fascist, anti-racist and anti-sexist politics. Success in our actions should also be judged on the degree to which a real movement, with an increaseingly broader base in the American people, develops out of the actions.

We should recognize the protracted nature of the struggle we are waging. This means that we should refrain from the adventuristic and suicidal actions that we have a tendency to lapse into and that we ought to put a priority on mass work. While recognizing the protracted nature of the struggle we should also attempt to raise the level of militancy, as long as the struggle remains a mass one. We should, at all times, guard against the tendency toward pacifism and should encourage a policy of active self-defense against pig attacks.

Generally our politics should precede us to the site of any national action. If the next national action were to take the form of militant marches through the communities culminating in a demonstration at some imperialist center, for example then intense political work should be done both in the communities and among the workers that would certainly be present at any government or business center. The nature and goals of the action should be explained to anyone who comes into contact with the action, as well as the media, and they should be encouraged to participate.

Dare to fight, dare to win
Fight, fail; fight again, fail again
Fight on to victory

STOP BUSINESS AS USUAL

MORATORIUM OCTOBER 13

WE BELIEVE THE TIME HAS COME WHEN, TO SURVIVE, AMERICA MUST TURN AROUND.

OUR NATION CAN BE DESTROYED BY WAR, POVERTY, RACISM AND POLITICAL REPRESSION. THESE FORCES HAVE DIVIDED OUR PEOPLE MORE DEEPLY THAN AT ANY TIME SINCE THE CIVIL WAR. BUT WE BELIEVE THERE IS THE ENERGY, IMAGINATION AND POWER WITHIN THE PEOPLE TO TURN AMERICA AROUND.

ON OCTOBER 13, AMERICANS IN EVERY TOWN, CITY AND VILLAGE ARE URGED TO STOP WORK, STOP SCHOOL, INTERRUPT OUR NORMAL ROUTINE, STOP BUSINESS AS USUAL, TO TELL THE GOVERNMENT THAT IT MUST END THE WAR NOW AND BEGIN TO MEET THE REAL NEEDS OF ALL PEOPLE-- TO GUARANTEE FULL EMPLOYMENT AND AN ADEQUATE INCOME FOR ALL AND AN END TO POLITICAL REPRESSION.

TWO YEARS AGO IN OCTOBER, THERE WAS THE FIRST NATIONWIDE MORATORIUM. IN THE LAST TWO YEARS, THOUSANDS MORE AMERICANS AND VIETNAMESE HAVE BEEN KILLED, WOUNDED AND MADE HOMELESS, MORE COUNTRYSIDES LAY WASTE AND CULTURES MORE DEVASTATED. THE WAR HAS BEEN WIDENED AND ESCALATED IN CAMBODIA AND LAOS WHILE SATURATION BOMBING CONTINUES THROUGHOUT INDO-CHINA AT A RATE UNPRECIDENTED IN HISTORY.

IN THE LAST TWO YEARS WE HAVE SEEN OUR CITIES CONTINUE TO DETERIORATE. UNEMPLOYMENT AND INFLATION ESCALATE HAND IN HAND. SLUMS AND GHETTOES CONTINUE TO DESTROY THE LIVES OF MANY OF OUR PEOPLE, WHILE NUCLEAR WAR AND THE ECOLOGICAL CRISIS THREATEN US ALL. WE HAVE SEEN AMERICA ENTER ITS MOST REPRESSIVE PERIOD SINCE THE TIME OF JOSEPH MC CARTHY

BUT HOPE IS RISING. PEOPLE ARE COMING TOGETHER.

A MASSIVE MAJORITY OF CITIZENS WANT THE UNITED STATES TO GET OUT OF INDOCHINA NOW. SPECULATIONS ABOUT THE RESULTS OF A US-CHINA SUMMIT MEETING CANNOT BE A REASON FOR ALLOWING THE MURDEROUS WAR IN INDO-CHINA TO GO ON ONE DAY LONGER. WE WANT THE PRESIDENT AND CONGRESS TO SET THE DATE NOW FOR TOTAL WITHDRAWAL OF US FORCES FROM VIETNAM BY THE END OF THIS YEAR, SO THERE CAN BE AN IMMEDIATE CEASE FIRE AND ALL PRISONERS CAN BE HOME BY CHRISTMAS.

SPECULATIONS ABOUT THE RESULTS OF THE US PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS NEXT YEAR CANNOT BE A REASON FOR POST-PONING A NEW BEGINNING IN AMERICA.

WE WANT THE CONGRESS TO SET THE DATE NOW FOR FULL EMPLOYMENT AND A MINIMUM OF $6500 GUARANTEED ADEQUATE INCOME FOR A FAMILY OF FOUR.

BY OUR ACTION ON OCTOBER 13, WE WILL REASSERT THE PRINCIPLES OF THE BILL OF RIGHTS AND WE DEMAND THAT ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS BE SET FREE.

THE PEOPLE HAVE THE POWER TO STOP THE WAR NOW AND TURN AMERICA AROUND. WE KNOW FROM EXPERIENCES THAT UNLESS THE PEOPLE ACT, THE GOVERNMENT WILL ACT TOO LATE AND TOO LITTLE, IF IT ACTS AT ALL.

THE TIME TO ACT IS NOW!

The Peoples Coalition and the Fall Offensive

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Political Perspective: Our ideas for the fall are based on several assumptions about the fall period:

1. In spite of troop withdrawals, which may even be speeded up in the fall, and in spite of Nixon's much talked-about China trip, the U.S. will continue the war in pursuit of the same basic policy objectives: the maintenance of a non-communist client regime in South Vietnam.
2. The Pentagon Papers, the recent peace initiatives by Mme. Binh in Paris, and the likelihood of transparently fraudulent elections in South Vietnam in October, will all contribute to increasing and solidifying majority consensus for the U.S. to get out of Vietnam.
3. In spite of the fact that opposition to the war in the U.S. will be larger than it ever has been before, it is possible that opposition will not be as vociferous or intense as it has been during other periods. Many Americans may fall back to a "wait-and-see" attitude in the fall, hoping that the US.-China summit meeting will bring an end to the war, or focusing their hopes on the Presidential elections in 1972. There are no speculations about the future which can justify allowing this murderous war to go on one day longer.
4. At the same time, the war on poor people and Third World Peoples continues unabated. Unemployment has reached depression proportions in many areas of the country. Among young blacks, Puerto Ricans, and Chicanos, the rate of unemployment is over 50%. At the same time, it looks likely that this fall, the Senate will pass the Nixon-Mills so-called "Family Assistance Plan" which altho advertised as reform is actually a higher level of repression against the poor with forced labor and reduced payments for virtually all welfare recipients. There is an absolute need for those of us who see Vietnam, not as an accident, but as a natural expression of American imperialism, to see the war against poor and Third World peoples as part of that same system - and to continue to link together the struggles against those two wars as was done during the Spring Offensive.

PCPJ's Fall Calendar:

Sep. 8 - local demonstrations at home offices of U.S. Senators to put pressure on them to vote against the repressive Nixon welfare "reform"

Oct. 13 - National Moratorium: Stop Work, Stop School, Stop Business as USual - local anti-war actions.

Oct. 25-29 - Week of massive nonviolent civil disobedience in Washington (plans and ideas outlined below)

Nov. 6 - regional marches and rallies in cooperation with NPAC

Plans for Civil Disobedience actions in Washington:

Each of the elements in this calendar can contribute significantly in the struggle to curb the US war machine at home and abroad. Tactically there is a strong feeling within the Peoples Coalition that altho marches and rallies are significant parts of the peace and justice movements, they should not be considered to be the sole tactic. At the national conference of the Peoples Coalitions for Peace & Justice in Milwaukee in June, there was a unanimous re-affirmation of civil disobedience as being an appropriate mass tactic in the struggle against the war.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CONFIDENTIAL

At present the Peoples Coalitions plans for civil disobedience in Washington are TENTATIVE, including dates. Input from the Mayday and the Clergy and Laymen Concerned conferences are essential before we finalize plans and begin promotional efforts.

What follows are the two plans currently being seriously considered within PCPJ

DAILY DEATH TOLL ACTION: Beginning in early October, groups of 300-400 person, equal to the number of persons being killed in Indochina would come each day to White House. Each group, which would come from different regional or constituency groups, would carry on a fast and vigil (or appropriate tactic) and then at a predetermined time, lie down at the entrance. Each day in Indochina this many persons are killed because Nixon refuses to set the date. All those deaths can be laid dramatically at President Nixon's doorstep. The "death toll" would mount day by day at Nixon's doorstep, just as it mounts literally in Indochina each day he refuses to set the date. If this action were to begin the first week of October, it should be continued at least through Thanksgiving, and possibly to Christmas.

NONVIOLENT SIEGE OF THE WHITE HOUSE PLAN: At present this plan is for a one-day (mayday-like?) action on Tuesday, Oct. 26, though similar actions could be continued for the rest of the week. The proposal is for a massive sit-down around the White House. Participants would converge on the White House from all directions. They might come as individuals, or in small collectives, or as affinity groups, or as members of well-organized marches (from the Pentagon, HEW, the Capitol, the CIA, State, or Justice Depts.). All groups would plan to arrive in the vicinity of the White House at about the same time. Once there, people would sit down. If the sit-down took place, not only would it stop business as usual at the White House, it would probably clog up a good part of downtown Washington. It could only be stopped by Mayday-scale arrests or mass gassings of downtown Washington.

Footnote on Targets and Dates: There has been discussion of the Capitol, or the Supreme Court, or the Pentagon as more relevant targets than the White House. Currently though, most people seem to favor the White House because it focuses on the idea of the imperative for Nixon to set the date. As well, some feel that it would be more effective to have a national civil disobedience action later (after Nov. 6) for two reasons: 1. It is a more natural progression from local (Oct. 13) to regional (Nov. 6) than having a national action before regional actions; and 2. Placing an emphasis on setting the date nearer the Christmas season would have more political impact in this country.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Pakistan and all other wars of aggression perpetrated by the U.S. government, the racism, sexism, environmental destruction and economic oppression are inseparable issues and are an integral part of this capitalist, imperialist society.

CONFIDENTIAL

It is clear that capitalism does not meet the needs of most people. Our cities are rotting, our food, air and water are poisoned and those of us who must work or who wish to work are condemned to machine-like boredom or to unemployment. We have been robbed of our freedom, both personal and political, and our feelings of joy and energy have been twisted into powerlessness and alienation. Worse yet, we have all been made accomplices in genocide and the technological barbarism that dominates the third world. To struggle against one oppression we must struggle against all oppressions.

We recognize that the small ruling class that profits from these policies of exploitation and oppression will never willingly give up its power and privilege as evidenced by their unresponsiveness to the protests by the people against the war in Indochina.

Therefore, we believe that only a revolution aimed at ending the oppression of all peoples will lay the foundation for a new and just society. In order to build a force that will eventually change this society we feel it is essential to act together directly, continually and disruptively against the horrors perpetrated by the Amerikan empire.

ROLE OF MAYDAY

We should realize the importance of the specific role we can play in the anti-imperialist movement. To a large extent we have no choice. We are not the most oppressed people in the world or even in our own society. We're diverse in that some of us work, some of us go to school, some of us hang out but we are not facing immediate extinction or starvation and most of us are not burdened with responsibilities to large families or hung upon material things (homes, cars, etc.) To this extentwe enjoy a greater degree of freedom and mobility and our lives can involve a greater degree of spontaneity, chance, and even danger. This is one aspect of white-skin privilege which can be put to constructive use. If we use that very disgusting privilege to undermine the system in ways which other people cannot we will be living our lives in a more meaningful and constructive way than if we wallow in guilt, trying to be what we are not. To support and show solidarity with black and brown people, poor people, and Vietnamese is absolutely correct and necessary, but it is not the same as being them. The most important role we can play is that of a catalyst for direct and disruptive action.

If 73% of the American people are against the war, if My Lai, the Pentagon Papers, prison riots, and lead-poisoned babies have seeped into their consciousness, even superficially, it is obvious that they either choose to ignore stark reality or remain passive due to feelings of impotence of indecision. That is why our role is not only to educate but to set examples of and provide channels for action. While we are directing our actions against obvious symbols of exploitation we should also be interfering with people's lives (their business as usual) to force them to stop being accomplices in our government's policies. In this sense we should be harbingers of creative and constructive chaos.

CONFIDENTIAL

Women in Mayday

We believe that women can and should play an important role in changing and developing Mayday. Mayday has been criticized for its sexist attitudes and structure and this is a real criticism. But if women involve themselves and thrust their energies into all planning and organizing, this will change. Rather than avoiding confrontation with a sexist man, we believe that women should oppose it and fight it. If sisters support each other in this struggle we will grow stronger and closer to each other and change men at the same time.

We believe that women should be in the leadership and by this we mean natural leadership, not elected presidents etc. We realize that the educational process throughout this society has tracked women into roles of passivity. Nothing will change unless women themselves break this pattern and our brothers must at the same time break their patterns of authoritarian behavior.

The liberation of women must be emphasized as an important part of the revolutionary struggle. Sexism is integrally related to capitalism and racism but we know that forms of socialism do exist without the liberation of women and gay people. To concentrate, however, only on our own oppression as women and to disregard racism and genocide is selfish and destructive. It seems more like the kind of thinking that capitalism breeds, not revolutionary thought-"look out for yourself, take care of your own business"- to this we say , "bullshit". We are involved in an international struggle for the liberation of all people.

We would like to see a women's communication network organized at this conference. This network could function both autonomously from and along with a communications network for all of Mayday.

We would also like to see special attention paid to the needs of Mayday women with children. Never should a woman be unable to attend a meeting or work on an action because she has a child. We should provide childcare in our own communities and for out of town conferences.

Lastly, we believe that Mayday should include actions against specific targets of sexist oppression in its scenario for the fall and thereafter.

STRUCTURE

On one level, Mayday should strive towards building a communications and action-planning network that can create a united front among various Movement groups. By this we mean that contact should be made with all other local and national groups whose goals are substantially similar to ours and whose tactics are not adverse to ours. We should engage in continual dialogue with these groups so that our actions grow organically out of a common understanding of eachother's needs. The spectrum of people we can potentially work with is great (Third World, militant pacifist, anti-sexist, ecology-oriented, etc.).

But, working with other groups is impossible unless we are ourselves organized. In May, Mayday did manage to attract thousands of people to a disruptive action in Washington, but it did not set off a chain of similar actions around the country, as many of us had hoped. N.Y. Mayday did have a local disruptive action, but it was a rarity, made particularly difficult by our lack of organization. It seems that every time the Movement decides to organize an action directed against the empire, it has to organize itself first--even find itself.

willing to get organized and take responsibility, elitism will continue to exist. The time has come to end self-indulgent criticism and to actively start solving our problems. If some of the people that have been trashed for elitism had never ventured to play the roles they did we probably would never have had a Mayday action in the Spring. But, to be in this position can easily make anyone an elitist. We therefore believe that a non-elitist, non-hierarchical national organization is necessary. It should emphasize communication, not a strict party line.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

We have all agreed that the real power of Mayday must stay with its regions. Consequently many of us have had reservations about a national office. It is feared that such a national office, even if it were supposed to confine itself to coordination of the regions, would inevitably grown to make political and strategic decisions. On the other hand, in the interest of efficiency, it seems necessary to centralize such things as newsletter production and coordination of multi-regional actions.

We believe that there is a way for these opposing concerns--the need for centralized organization and the fear of centralized political power--tobe reconciled. That way is to centralize specific organizational functions but to keep each one separate. For instance, we see the need for a newsletter (eventual newspaper) office to coordinate news and other articles sent from the regions and responsible for putting the paper out. Coordinating offices for multi-regional actions are also necessary. But the staff of these offices as well as their locations would change form action to action. Action coordinating offices should be located in the same place as the planned action, where many people are needed. And people from all the regions participating in that action could be represented.

FALL OFFENSIVE

In May we moved against the seat of political power, Washington D.C. The real source of power, however, is corporate capitalism centered in New York city. Stock brokers, war industries, oil companies, banks and advertising agencies all have their executive offices in New York. Such names as Madison Ave., Wall St., and Rockefeller Center are known throughout the world as centers of Amerikan capitalist oppression. But, we have learned from Washington not to spread ourselves too thin. Massive actions at all of these targets would insure that we would be effective at none. And this time it is imperative that we move beyond symbolic action to begin to materially affect the functions of the empire. There is one place where all the oppressors are represented--the New York Stock Exchange. If 20,000 people converge on that one building, committed to preventing anyone from entering or leaving, our threat to shut it down would be more than rhetoric. However, we do not mean to ignore the rest of the city.

An attack on the Stock Exchange is an attack on the hear of corporate capitalism. A massive assault will be necessary to give the Exchange a heart attack. At the same time small, creative affinity group actions, could, without drawing off the Stock Exchange action, cripple the arms, legs, and vital organs of the city. For instance, a stall-in involving 5 or 6 vehicles on a bridge, tunnel or highway would accomplish more disruption than hundreds of people milling around in traffic. Creative interference with the normal functioning of a building housing a major corporation could effectively shut it down (i.e., General Motors Building, buildings in Rockefeller Center). Subway turnstiles glued shut to free the entrances would focus on the oppression of poor people, while disrupting subway exits in the Wall Street area would aid our massive action at the Stock Exchange.

Although we recognize that the Stock Exchange is an agent of all forms of oppression--genocide, racism, sexism, environmental destruction, and economic exploitation--we are aware that the media will automatically label our action as "anti-war". Therefore, we recommend that specific mass actions be aimed at primarily racist and sexist institutions to clearly demonstrate Mayday's true direction.

On Saturday, November 6 NPAC and PCPJ are staging their major regional peace rally in New York city. They are expecting between 50,000 and 100,000 people. This is a perfect opportunity to draw peace marchers into disruptive and direct Mayday actions. A touchstone action on Friday, November 5 is strategically important. It would influence the character of the Saturday rally and inspire many people dissatisfied with the rally to join us on Monday. With the experience we will have gained from Friday and the recruits from Saturday we can have workshops on Sunday that will prepare for the larger action on Monday.

SUGGESTED SCHEDULE OF N.Y. CITY ACTION

Friday, Nov. 5 - 8 A.M. to 3 P.M. Massive action to shut down the the Stock Exchange.
4 P.M. Gathering at the Tombs (Men's House of Detention), a blatantly racist institution, to express solidarity with the prisoners.

Saturday, Nov. 6 - Afternoon. Join the NPAC/PCPJ rally in order to publicize and gain recruits for Monday's action.
Evening. Action against a sexist institution. (If this action is not scheduled instead for Monday).

Sunday, Nov. 7 - Workshops to prepare for Monday's action. These would include planning of tactics and strategy on how to avoid arrests and unnecessary clubbings by cops, discussion of exactly what will be needed to accomplish our aims.

Monday, Nov. 8 - 8 A.M. to 3 P.M. Massive action to shut down the Stock Exchange as well as affinity group actions all around the city.
4 P.M. Anti-sexist action. (If it has not already occurred on Saturday night).

WHY NEW YORK CITY?

Washington D.C. has been the target of most national actions in the past. For this reason, some people believe that to change the location would mean fewer people attracted to a national action. We believe the opposite is true. The predictability of a Washington action is enough to turn off both Movement activists and new people. Both would probably be more attracted to a new target as a sign that the Movement is thinking creatively and trying new approaches. Furthermore, the the population of D.C. is limited to government personnel and ghetto blacks (neither of whom has actively participated with us in the past). The population of New York is more varied, therefore opportunity for larger local participation in the action is greater.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Organizing for an action in N.Y. would also provide increased opportunity for raising the level of political perceptions and analysis of new people.

Though N.Y. has a larger and more brutal police force than Washington we must not view this as a major determining factor in the choice of our location. We choose our target cities based on our politics not the size of their police forces. Otherwise, we would go to a two-cop town and seize power immediately (a wonderful affinity group action). Furthermore, we know from experience that Washington always calls in the National Guard and paratroopers to supplement its police force. Mayor Lindsay and Commissioner Murphy of N.Y. would be most reluctant to tarnish their liberal veneers by calling in the Guard.

With revolutionary love, your sisters and brothers,

REVOLUTIONARY JEWISH CAUCUS PROPOSAL

The Russian Jews, the Vietnamese and all our revolutionary sisters and brothers around the world are waging a struggle for their liberation. We feel that the best way we can materially and spiritually aid our sisters and brothers internationally is to wage a class war at home home to liberate the oppressed masses in America. We sense a prevalent attitude in this conference that denies and ignores the working class in our own country. The shit that just came down from Nixon will ultimately hurt one class -- The working class which is already experiencing massive unemployment faces the actuality of thousands more joining their ranks. The black and third world people will be the first to get vamped on.

As revolutionary Jews we must go first to our own people to organize. In order to work with our people we must be one with them. We must first regain the part of us that we have denied. We must break the myths that Jewish and non-Jewish people have inculcated. The myths that all Jews are rich. The myths that force Jewish women, in self-hate to get nose jobs. We must smash anti-semitism on all fronts. We must fight the lies that the ruling class has perpetuated to pit minority groups against each other which results in Blacks and Jews, Irish and Italians fighting each other rather than the real enemies. In particular, we must fight against the racism inculcated in our people.

We, as Jews have a lot of work to do in our communities. Our work is not only among the young, but also the old, who are one of the most fucked over members of our society, and the middle aged who are made to feel in a state of limbo.

Principally, we, as Jews, must show our people where our real self-interest lies. We feel that this is not inclusive only of Jewish Revolutionries, but that Irish, Italian, Polish, etc. revolutionaries must begin to relate to the needs of their own communities.

As Jewish revolutionaries we feel the need to work with our gay brothers and sisters in dealing with their oppression and to struggle against sexism on all levels. We supportgay men andwomen in their community actions andwill deal with the oppression of Gay people in our Jewish communities andto get rid of gay, sexist, racist and anti-semitic oppression in all communities. As revolutionary ntionalists we recognize the need to eliminate all reactionary aspects of our culture in our own people, and to retain and revive the revolutionary and humanitarian elements of our stolen heritage.

We propose local actions for the fall, as well as a national action to take place in New York. The local actions should attack targets specifically relating to the needs of the particular community. And for the New York action, we propose the Wall Street be a target as prime target of capitalism. Wealso propose that one of the targets be the Russian embassy to free our Jewish sisters and brothers. The oppression of all peoples is the business of the movement.

In New York specifically there is alarge Jewish community that we must start relating to. A right shift tendency on the part of the Jewish populace is due to the fact that the left has systematically ignored our oppression. We must take this fight away from the right wing of JDL, and place it as a priority in the left. We believe the accent should be taken away from emigration to Israel, and be restated that the Jews in Russia are in the vanguard of a revolutionary fight in Imperialist Russia to for their rights of self-determination as a minority group, along with the other oppressed minorities of Russia.

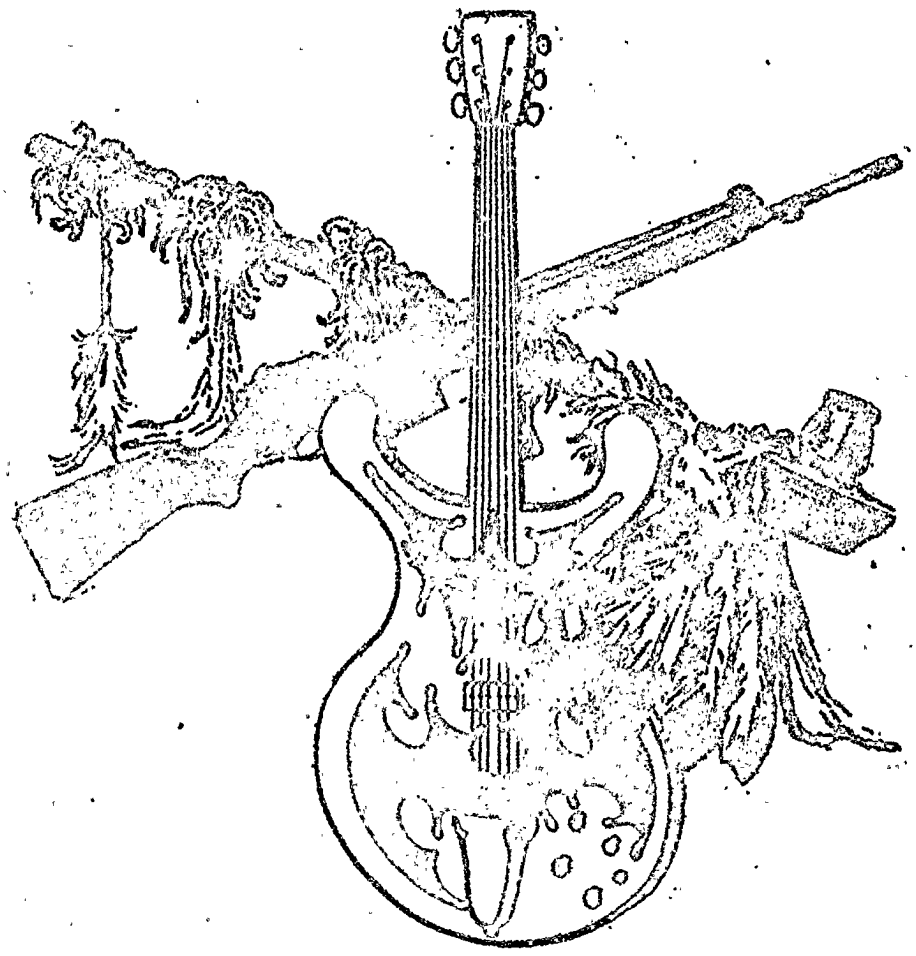
THE TIMES THEY ARE A CHANGIN'



State of the Nation and the Empire

As the economy spirals downward, unemployment rises unprecedentedly in the face of soaring inflation, brutal repression and opression rise to a crescendo both at home and abroad; the bankruptcy of the United States and its imperial economy become increasingly, glaringly clear to ever-greater masses of people worldwide, as the American ruling class at last begins to pay the price for decades of imperial decline, economic stagnation and phony "prosperity" supported by the grim crutch of the war economy.

Faced both with a saturation of internal markets and a declining rate of imperial economic expansion ever since the close of World War I (together giving rise to the Great Depression a decade later), and with a net decline in the empire's scope, power and profitability in the wake of World War II, America and European client states have for more than a decade waxed large on the lucrative "conspicuous waste" of the war economy, which alone pulled this country out of the Great Depression, and momentarily kept it there. Now, the crutch is broken; the war economy, even at the fever-pitch of Vietnam, suffices only to continue inflation in the face of a depression which even bourgeois economists concede may rival that of the thirties.

The imperial wars now raging abroad, especially in Vietnam, are manifestly failing, even in military terms, as the 'greatest power on earth' is gradually forced, inch by inch, from the soil of Asia, Africa, and Latin America. Perhaps more importantly, the imperial effort is flagging socially, as America's rapacious appetite for profits, whipped on in frustration at its military debacles, reveals ever more clearly the true nature of U. S. imperialism, generating an ever-rising level of struggle, both at home and abroad.

Faced with this escalation, the imperialists increasingly drop the 'liberal good-guy' masks of the Kennedy era in their futile desperation to crush liberation struggles and restore their lost dominion and profits by main force. Yet the rise of domestic repression and imperial oppression is being and must always be met, answered and defeated by increased mobilization of the liberation forces.

State of the Movement

Shattered, split, demoralized and confused; the Movement in this country is in an abysmally poor position to offer such a needed answer in kind. The history of the Movement's decline and break-up need not be outlined here, but it is imperative to recognize the need for placing top priority on the building of a new revolutionary vehicle, unlike anything now clearly in sight.

The fractionalization of the U.S. Movement has led us to be manifestly isolated and ineffective, wholly unable to use and build upon the energy generated in the sporadic actions which have marked our recent history; most intolerably, we have even been unable to offer a visible and effective answer to the open murder of our own brothers and sisters at Kent, Jackson State and elsewhere.

Within the Movement, we have proven unable to deal with tendencies which hold back progress and maintain the Movement at its current, low ebb. Primary among such tendencies is the profound lack of political tolerance shown by some of the Movement's professed 'leaders'. These elements have issued formal statements and written manifestoes of such manifest intolerance as even to freely and gratuitously state, on a number of occasions, that brothers and sisters holding views contrary to their own can only be 'agent-provocateurs' (cf. D. C. Mayday Tactical Manual, forward signed by [redacted]). b6 b7C

This viciously sectarian behavior can only prove utterly destructive of the kind of united efforts so desperately needed in this time of opportunity created by imperial crisis, and unfortunately continues to appear in ever more novel forms, most recently in the pages of the Seattle New American Movement paper.

The Future of Mayday

The crisis of our times, and the combined threat and opportunity that this crisis affords to liberation forces worldwide, together demand the creation, development and growth of an ongoing revolutionary vehicle in this country. At the very least, the confusion and disorientation in the Left, and especially among New Left groupings, arises and flourishes precisely out of the absence of such a vehicle; the effort devoted by the ruling class to the piecemeal destruction of similar efforts in the past, is no accident.

Whether this conference attempts to make Mayday into such a continuing force, is up to all of us. An honest desire and determination to struggle openly and sincerely among ourselves for truly revolutionary programs and appropriate actions to implement such programs, together with a firm commitment to follow through on conclusions collectively arrived at, will be an essential precondition to a viable political future for Mayday and the broader Movement.

All points of view must be heard and considered in the tradition of comradeship; we must, after due discussion, adopt all truly progressive programs and conclusively reject those which lead us into reformism and co-optation.

Mayday has never been conceived--by its own members--as anyone's 'youth arm' , and we must resist the dependency which such a definition breeds, in order to chart our own independent revolutionary course, while remaining open to criticism from other parts of the Movement.

As we move ahead, we must take pains to move in directions collectively recognized as progressive and fruitful, while remaining on guard against dogmatic lines put forward for whatever well-intentioned reasons by skilled 'leaders' , polished pens, and anyone's well-financed press.

Disunited organizationally, the revolutionary Movement will eventually perish. Disunited in action, in the face of imperial crisis, it will perish almost immediately. At the same time, the very thought of an ultimate unity of the American Left is inconceivable without a protracted period of unity in action, of developing the common experience of working together. The HABITS of united action, rather than internecine warfare, must be developed through a firm commitment now to greater and greater degrees of interaction, mutual support, and defense; if we are to withstand the increasing ravages of reactionary violence and come to grips with our historic role.

We feel that we have unique contributions to make to the American Revolution; but we make no claim to a monopoly of revolutionary thought, or of revolutionists, nor do we harbor vain 'kiss-of-death' theories about the dangers of contamination by association with other tendencies and groups. We offer the hand of solidarity through the mechanism of the united front, to every serious revolutionary grouping in America, and we are prepared to open discussions now to realize solid working relationships at the earliest possible date.

The STATE OF THE NATION, faced with the grim alternatives of imperial collapse or fascist reaction, provides both the impetus and the opportunity for truly revolutionary action in the present period; the STATE OF THE MOVEMENT, broken and disorganized, makes such action well-nigh impossible without sweeping change in our own ranks. The tremendous energy of MAYDAY, albeit still in its infancy, offers the lone possibility of a real answer to this dilemma. The rest is up to us.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

We feel an immediate need to state concretely our thoughts on the direction the American Movement is taking, especially Mayday. Some of the people we have talked with expressed the idea that Mayday is an ongoing organization; is the answer to our special problems. We feel that Mayday must be placed in its proper historical perspective. This will allow us to gain insight into our present and future needs.

We view Mayday as a vehicle, the purpose of which is to move revolutionary youth to a higher, co-ordinated level of struggle. By co-ordinated, we do not mean a 'party line'. We mean an organization that functions as a united front of revolutionary people whose political goal is a socialist revolution, but whose constituency varies from pacifist to those who have adopted the tactic of armed struggle.

We feel that the majority of the people who are interested in Mayday share the same basic ideas and goals on the issues of racism, sexism, age and power chauvinism. Because of these common bonds, we must make it clear that we are a white revolutionary youth movement with a direction and our own perspective, and not a youth arm of any organization such as PCPJ or SWP. We feel we must strive to point out the dogmatic power structure of the 'legitimate movement', how they have co-opted New Left issues for their own benefit, and expose the revisionist politics of the Old Left, to insure that white revolutionary youth move forward politically.

We feel that the name Mayday carries with it certain limitations which must be denounced if we are to move a revolutionary body, with different ideas on tactics, forward.

Mayday carries with it the stigma of non-violence in the pacifist sense. The power of Mayday is supposed to flow from the bottom up. This was not the practise of the Washington office during the pre-Mayday 1-7 action period. Not only were people with a non-pacifist ideology told to stay away from DC or to labeled a pig but the concept of regional power was at question when Mike Lerner tried to organize a blitzing action to counter the N. Y. tactical manual.

WOMENS STATEMENT

"The Movement is supposed to be for human liberation: how come the condition of women inside is no better than outside?"* We have seen a remarkable lack of consciousness on the part of Mayday as an organization, and some of the people in it to any of the issues that affect women. This must change, but, from the resistance to change that we have felt, it will be a hard fight.

There has been much sexism in the brief history of Mayday, as blatant as any on 42nd Street. What is even more indicative of the overall problem is the (conscious or unconscious) decision to virtually exclude poor and working women from the conference in Atlanta. Poor women do not have the means to travel for seven days- especially with children, and what working woman can get a seven day 'weekend' to go to a conference?

Mayday has not only been sexist in structure, but in its politics to the extent that the politics were unclear in all areas: Mayday failed, for the most part, to relate to poor people, Third World people, workers, gay people and to women. This has, in part, been due to the fact that what was stated to be the politics of Mayday was really tactics and that there was no clear political analysis. We feel that it is important to define our politics and, from that analysis, our short-term and long range goals. Our tactics will flow from this.

In order for us to be a relevant force to a greater constituency, we must analyse and correct the sexism and elitism; the failure to serve many people. There has been elitism felt in the failure to communicate - even among 'Mayday people' and, from this, a failure to reach out to others. With no effective communication, there has been frustration, especially among people who have criticized some of the decisions and actions of Mayday.

We feel that there have been no channels for criticism: the lack of any method of communication, even as basic as an organized contact list, has prevented criticism by people inside Mayday; and the 'false loyalty' which put some Mayday people on the defensive and prevented openness to criticism from 'outside' people. In this way, the individuals in Mayday cut themselves off to growth or change in the area of sexism and in all other areas of struggle.

As women, we feel that a women's contact network must be set up to insure our openness to internal and external criticism and to serve as the means of exchanging skills, ideas and information. This could promote growth on all levels and would make possible coordination of actions.

In order to develop our analysis of our political future, we will need to increase our education. There are many ways of learning; women have had much suc-sess using the tool of small-group consciousness-raising to grow in the struggle against sexism. We feel that this same technique can be expanded and have found it useful in raising our consciousness to the oppression of the whole capitalist system. As women, we have found that we learn more from each other and ourselves than we could if we heard a million experts lecture. In a disciplined, non-elitist setting we have learned alot about communicating with our sisters; and this must continue wherever we are.

While consciousness-raising is vital, it must not be the limit of our activities. We must continue to be action-oriented in such lasting ways as: fund-raising, coming form our position, must be as aggressive as necessary to accomplish what we set out to do. With all of their faults, the May and July actions can teach us many things if we are willing to learn. We cannot, however, hope to learn from any action unless we recognize that we don't have any magic formula that makes us correct automatically. We must have the humility to hear and understand criticism. We have to analyse criticism and, if it is correct, make every effort to change accordingly.

If we develop a clear class analysis, and relate that to women's issues, then it will become possible to organize the most effective kinds of actions in which our sisters will participate in their own interest. On the other hand, if Mayday continues to reach only the university students, then it can never serve the needs of the majority of the poor and working people.

Certainly, we must fight for health care as the right of all people and we must also fight the special oppression of women by the 'disease system'. Women need free abortion on demand and freedom of sexual expression. We need to be treated as human beings by the 'professionals' who are supposed to serve us. We must also fight the class oppression of tracking in the schools, the end to limitation of opportunities for women, and for relevant, real sex education. We must also fight for the end of oppression of women by men in the family structure; i.e., an end to the family structure as we now know it.

These specific examples are an illustration of the fact that there can never be a meaningful change in the lives of women until there is a revolutionary change in the society itself; that the liberation of women will (and must) be a part of the liberation of all people. We cannot agree with those women who say that any man is the enemy and that any woman is at least a potential ally. It is true that men who refuse to struggle against their own sexism or who refuse to recognize the oppressiveness of the traditional male-female roles must be struggled against; not as people, but for their actions. This applies to so called 'movement men' as much as to capitalists. It is also true that while Rockefeller and 'his' wife may be oppressed by their rigid sex roles, they are both still the enemy. We can see that it is possible to have an economic revolution without ending the oppression of women as women. This would be an incomplete revolution. In liberation struggles in the world today, there have been many such incomplete victories. It seems that it is impossible to have a complete revolutionary victory in a world dominated by imperialism.

Therefore, it is necessary to wage a struggle based on revolutionary analysis towards revolutionary goals. It is essential that women take a leading role in defining these in the structure of Mayday. Women will no longer accept the role of cannon (read cannibilism) in the scheme of things. We must be united women, defining our position and, in our solidarity with each other, becoming revolutionary fighters. Our tactics may include all possibilities, from militant pacifism to armed struggle, and must be as aggressive as is necessary to deal with our enemy. We will then unite with all people in struggle on the basis of politics. Only our solidarity will give us the strength we will need.

* Quote from "The Grand Coolie Dam" by Marge Piercy. This is essential reading for anyone who wants to understand the lives of movement women and the problems of movement men.

CLASS ANALYSIS

A recognition of the class nature of American society coupled with an understanding of how to act about it is necessary to real revolutionary change. Without this we become hopelessly mired in the morass of reform and electoral politics.

Our society contains two classes. One which owns the means of production but do not create wealth: the bourgeoisie. The bourgeoisie is divided into two sections. The largest is the corporate monopoly group which owns and controls the majority of the means of production and, therefore, controls many workers. The petit bourgeoisie is the declining group in the present stage of monopoly capitalism, being the small capitalists. The working class is all those who must sell their labor. This does not imply that there are not great divisions in the working class. The working class is divided by the forces of racism, sexism, and the myth of the so-called 'middle class'. This myth implies that there is 'social mobility', an ability to pull yourself up 'by your boot straps' (about as possible literally as figuratively). This idea of one large, middle class has been used to hide the true nature of the class system of the society. It is implied that there is no real ruling class-just 'upper middle class' and a few fortunates. By extension, there is no one to blame for unemployment, repression, imperialism, sexism, racism, and the myriad of other capitalistic inspired plagues that are visited upon the people, except the middle class voter that doesn't turn out. This unbelievable hoax is even perpetrated by ourselves when we refer to the middle class. In the simplest possible terms, a member of the working class is one who sells his/her labor, regardless of what form it takes. There is no reason for the assumption that there is a broad class between two small extremes or that there is any true mobility. In America today, the vast majority of the people sell their labor and are, therefore, working class. The socialization of the ownership and control of the means of production is in the objective self-interest of the working class. Ours is, therefore, a class struggle.

The specific constituency of Mayday is, for the most part, a section of the working class-specifically white youth. Either they are working class up front (in factories, offices, etc.) or they are working class in training (students) or working class in waiting (unemployed). Regardless, we are objectively working class. Further, we are predominantly a white group. This is not as we might wish it to be, but is objectively true. This is so in view of those who worked before, participated in, and have worked after the DC actions.

Specific issues must be dealt with as we move toward a revolutionary society and as we strive to build ourselves into a revolutionary people. The issues of sexism and racism are special types of oppression that grow from the class nature of the society and must be treated as such. We must deal directly with the causes of the oppression and not concentrate on its manifestations. Women will not be liberated when there are women corporate heads. Racism will not be defeated through the channels set up by the capitalists whose interests it serves. We must struggle with ourselves and expand beyond 'the movement' our struggle against Freudian and other analyses that are used by the ruling class to keep people (the working class) divided and thereby secure their own position. These ideas must be dealt with in concrete terms as the manifestations of the class society, enforced to serve the ruling class, that they are.

A class defined struggle is necessary to give the clarity and strength of purpose that is necessary for real revolutionary change. It is the only form of struggle that resists co-option and reformism because of its insight concerning the real source of the problem by which it is confronted. It is the only analysis clear enough to explain the need for constant internal and external struggle to rid us of the cancer that infests us and our society. And it is the only analysis that builds for the ultimate struggle to wrest state power from the blood soaked hands of the capitalists in armed insurrection.

Finally, the class analysis is our link to the international struggle against capitalism. The struggle against the American ruling class is international in scope and class in nature. Our class analysis links us directly to the overall struggle in which American capitalism must ultimately be defeated.

TACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS

It must be first seen that the DC actions represented a step up in the general level of movement struggle. Although there have been smaller vanguard actions in the white movement (Days of Rage), and especially much further advanced struggles in the Third World (the scene in Cairo, Ill.), the general level of struggle can be considered raised by this action due to the size of the militant action, with respect to the type of people that carried them out. The reason for the government to move as strongly as it did during the May actions was not a real fear that we would carry out our threat, in fact, that day; but rather the realization that this type of direct action could become the mode of the next few years. The bureaucratic memory of the fantastic growth of the peace movement (and growth in the size of its marches) is long and the ruling class clearly sees what some of us were slow to recognize-this threat could be carried out in the very near future. Thus, it is for a two-fold reason that Mayday must continually advance the level of the class struggle which it began with in DC. Primarily to present to the people a viable alternative to marches that are ignored and bullshit liberals who talk out of both sides of their mouths and secondly, to strengthen Mayday itself by establishing a support base among the people by our exemplary actions. These reasons are, of course, mutually supportative.

The tactics employed in any given action must be dictated by the nature of the action as it has been politically conceived. Tactics never dictate the nature of the action. Tactics are merely instruments used to achieve the aims of the action. Thus, whatever political reasons dictate the action also dictate the tactics to be used. Tactics, then, must be reasonable within the scope of the action. Thus, for Mayday, there should exist no such thing as the word disobedience. The word implies that the immoral and unjust laws of an illegal government can be valid. The word itself is something of a paradox in this sense. It is impossible to disobey an immoral or unjust law since, by definition, it is not morally possible to obey it. This is more than just a question of semantics, as the use of this particular word implies the acceptance of the justice of a law, in at least a minimum way, whereas the use of the tactic of 'CD', of course, reflects that implication. This stigma of ambivalence towards the non-representative, illegal system should be removed by the substitution of the terminology resistance, disruptive or direct action, where necessary, for the word disobedience and its attendant feelings. In thus redefining our terms, we are also clarifying our intentions and the meaning of our actions. We are no longer disobeying, as would a child on a whim, but have made it clear that we are resisting and disrupting injustice whenever and wherever possible.

Non-violence is another word that has seemed to create some problems for the people of Mayday. First, it must be understood that 'non-violence' was posited as a tactic in Ann Arbor. It was chosen for its effectiveness at the moment in light of our goals, our numbers and our resources. The tactic was also chosen because, at this time, it moves the struggle forward (to stand still is to degenerate and a move to political atrophy) with the least strain on the social fabric while, at the same time, creating the maximum effect on the social order. It should also be pointed out that non-violence encompasses a very wide field of possible actions. By common definition, every action that the Berrigans and their followers took and are taking are non-violent in nature. This brings us to our final point which is: one cannot be 'violent' to a bank, a brick, or any other non-living thing. In short, non-violent civil 'disobedience' was picked not for its inherent virtue, but for its current political effectiveness.

As an adjunct to tactical considerations, we must touch on security. Prime consideration must be given to security in all phases of Mayday's actions, plannings, and operations. Security is no derived solely from physical ability to defend oneself, but, primarily, from the knowledge that one will not have to resort to physical means. This latter form of security is possible only when the organization has a wide base of support among the people. To acquire and maintain such a base of support, the organization must be responsive to the needs of the people. As the pig government is not responsive to these needs, it is imperative that we continue to advance the class struggle in order to raise the people's level of awareness. This has got to be one of our primary objectives if we are not to be cut off from our support and left easy prey to the running dogs of the capitalists.

REJECTION OF REFORM/ELECTORIAL POLITICS

In many ways the DC actions represented a crawl back to consciousness after the fall of SDS. The militant Left came out of its enclaves within the community onto the national scene again and in larger numbers. It became clear to us that Hayden's theory about islands within the mother country lacked power unless they were nationally active and dealt with problems on the scale on which they were really caused. After the coldest winter in the movement for many years, we came forward to be counted. Many confusions have occurred in the political thinking that has gone on during this dark age. One of the most dangerous is the thought that electoral politics and reform throught the existing system can make any meaningful difference.

This error is common but is clearly illustrated by a document first seen by us at the Milwaukee conference of FCPJ earlier this summer. It is entitled New American Movement. Although it touches on many valid points and has many good ideas, it is the type of political thinking that has lead many Old Left organizations down the road of political ineffectiveness to political irrelevance. It is a crucial mistake to assume that the ruling class is so foolish and lax about defending their privilege as to allow for real change within the system that protects this privilege. One does not build a mouse-proof house out of cheese. The American corporate, imperialistic capitalists have hidden behind the mask of 'liberal politics' since the storm of the thirties. They proudly wave the Declaration of Independence and ruthlessly deny independence to others for their own gain. It is a conflict of terms to think of real change 'within the system'. Reform within the system is the method that has been used to keep the blacks oppressed and in line. The only things that are obtained through the 'proper channels' are crumbs from the table-the reason they are called'proper'in the first place is that they were named by those they protect, and to them they are proper. It is a mistake to be duped into believing the myth of 'liberal' reforms that will give anyone what they need; they are historically the tool of co-optation used by a clever ruling class to keep their privilege while pacifying the working class with apparent progress to a heaven under capitalism that does not exist.

POLITICAL TOLERENCE

Our view is clearly different from many that are held by brothers and sisters in Mayday. Our differing political views, and, therefore, tactics, are not, however, of a nature as to be exclusionary, as is the case with some of our comrades in struggle. We see that the tactics of the DC actions were effective and realise that they were so because all parties realised that peacemarches were not enough but had their own alternatives. The type of action that resulted, was an action of a united front. All parties respecting the right of the others to differing tactical approaches to the general thesis-with the exception of a small number of misguided people who tried to characterise those who did not agree as 'agent provocateur'

The divisiveness that this approach breeds does not serve the interests of the people. It rather serves the objective interests of the MAN by driving apart members of the same class who are struggling against him. The objective interest of the working class is served by uniting instruggle to smash the imperialistic system of the twentieth century capitalism in whose belly we live.

We cannot hope to learn together, struggle together, or even begin to resolve our olitical differences in such a poisoned atmosphere. No one is pretending that eal political differences do not exist, especially in light of the Movement's ecent confusion and decentralization; but slamming the door to dialogue among urselves suffices only to perpetuate and concentrate honest differences into ectarian hatreds. We firmly believe that brothers and sisters should openly truggle among themselves to develop solutions to our common problems and raise he Movement from its current decline; but this can never occur if we are pre-ared to reject that struggle in favor of the ideological ease of labelling our pponents traitors, agents or worse.

he projection of a united front is important and does not deny the existence of olitical differences. The united front serves the interests of the people in wo ways. First, it brings us together into a larger and, therefore, stronger roup to effect the necessary action. Secondly, it brings us together with our rothers and sisters with whom we have political difference in an atmosphere hich promotes all-important dialogue. Only through such dialogue can such dif-erences be eliminated and only through such unity can our immediate ends be met nd our long term unity in struggle be promoted.

PROGRAMS – BLOWS AGAINST THE EMPIRE

e realise that the forms and manifestations of capitalism vary somewhat across he country. We do not propose to even outline the problems of the country, let lone supply even an analysis for any given area. We recognise this as the duty nd responsibility of the people working in the areas involved. We do think that he basic thrust should be broader than just anti-war. We believe that the real truggle is with international capitalism and its predatory expansionist arm-imp erialists. It is apparent from the criticisms of the Mayday operation to date hat what is needed is unity of purpose within diversity of action. With that n mind, we are offering below a few of our thoughts for consideration by our rothers and sisters on some of the broader and more obvious areas of capital-stic manifestations.

he history of sexual oppression in our society is largely intertwined with the eligious background of our societal norms. These norms grow largely out of the uritan ethic of 'moral behaviour'. This norm is, to a great extent, still used oday in both the straight and alternate societies.

nder this system, women are forced into roles where they may not express their esires or aspirations except in certain, very limited fashions that are pre-scribed by inhuman codes of 'morality'. Regardless of the absolutes of any gi-en situation, the woman must defer to the judgment of the male. The submissive ole is one which is socialised in from birth and it is socialised into both sex-s. The struggle against these roles must be fought within the Movement as well s in the society in which we are immersed at the time. These struggles must be ought on a personal as well as on a societal basis.

t is our feeling that, although male chauvinism is oppressive to women, men cannot to be held solely responsible. It is our feeling that if women did not play the complementary role to the male chauvinist, he would no longer have reason to play the role, and would be prevented from doing so. This would create mutually supportative revolutionary consciousness on the parts of both sisters and brothers.

CONFIDENTIAL

They must also be seen as a further extension of the 'people as things' orientation of the class society which they serve. In the broadest sense, it is in the objective self-interest of the working class to eliminate these oppressive and useless sexually determined roles.

The question of gay oppression is also bound up in the Puritan ethic. In this view, it is held that sexual preference is not a situation of choice, but one that is decided by forces beyond the control of the individual. It is obvious that this type of bullshit serves only those who seek to stifle the expression of love between the people - the ruling class.

Sexual oppression and the interests that it is designed to serve must be fought. The determination of the exact mode of struggle is, as always, to be determined by the constituency involved.

Concrete efforts must be undertaken in the area of sex education. We must offer the knowledge we have of role-playing, male supremacy, 'natural and un-natural' sex drives and tendencies, contraceptive devices and whose responsibility, and all the available information on how our bodies work.

We must offer our analyses of how the patriarchal society evolved and how it is used by the ruling class to hold us down. An analysis of monogamy must be presented, with a summary of our experiences in collectives and communal living.

Ecology

It must be realized at the outset that the whole reason that pollution has not been stopped long ago-most of the laws have been on the books for almost fifty years-(i.e. Navigable Waters Act of 1869)is that it is not as profitable to the large corporate capitalists to operate in such a manner as to minimize or eliminate pollution (thermal, particulate or chemical). Existing laws cover the vast majority of ecological problems, but are not enforced despite all the 'liberal' support presently evidenced by office and power-hungry politicians. The bankruptcy of the 'legal system' is never more evident than here. The 'Justice Department' would much rather attack the enemies of its corporate bosses than pursue real criminals.

This struggle, like all others, must be fought by the people who realize it is in their objective interest to have clean air and water rather than to line the pockets of the ruling class. If not stopped on this front, the capitalists could well kill us all off, including themselves. Direct actions are clearly necessary, and some are being carried out by our fellow in struggle in Illinois, The Fox. His acts of courage in the face of corporate death-dealers are not well reported in the pig press, but can be read about if looked for carefully. This struggle should be escalated.

Southeast Asian Struggle for Independence

The imperialistic arm of American capitalism lays heavy across the shoulders of our brothers and sisters in struggle in SE Asia. The US has tried everything to stop the struggle of these heroic people for self-determination. They continue to fight on. We must offer them aid, in whatever form they see as best, to stop the slaughter of their people. Direct action can be taken against the transportation of war materiel, direct action can be taken against the production of such materiel, and direct action can be taken to organize civilian and military personnel around the People's Peace Treaty. This logic can be applied to liberation struggles being fought on all fronts against the US oppressor.

The nature of US imperialism has been racist in nature since it was developed from the 'white man's burden' doctrine of imperial England. The view that all other people are somehow inferior still applies as we aid our 'underdeveloped' friends to the south and help our 'gook' allies in SE Asia.

Internal Oppression

The oppressive system continues to move strongly on the home front too. Its department of HEW has been characterized as the department of disease, misinformation and starvation. Aptly enough, it is just that. Health is only necessary to the capitalists to keep his labor requirement filled with operating bodies. His system no more cares about real health care than a gun does about who fires it. Repair the reusable and discard the worn out-just like on the rest of the machinery. Education is another misnomer. Education, to the capitalist, is the process of turning out the skills necessary to increased profits.

The past and present trend of the movement has been to place a major emphasis on college campus oriented organization. We recognize that the university is the system's method of supplying the bureaucratic structure with the administrative lackeys it needs to exist. It is important to continue the struggle on this level.

We feel, however, that the real backbone of the people has been completely ignored, or left to the revisionary SNC. That is to say, we have ignored the peoples of high school and pre-high school age. This lacks historical perspective and smacks of age chauvinism. We are ignoring the proletariat, our sisters and brothers who are destined by their class to be the cannon fodder for imperialism. The people whose manual or technical labor is so totally exploited that, coupled with the mental conditioning we receive, have no chance to live a meaningful life.

The people in this age group are at a time in their lives when they are formulating concrete ideas and perceptions on what direction they will take. We feel it is of the utmost importance to combat the brainwashing that the system is bringing down on our younger sisters and brothers.

The US is suffering defeat on the military front in SE Asia and now relies more on its ability to wage TECHNOLOGICAL warfare. The backbone of a technological society is the working class. The time when these people are most accessible is in the high schools, and at cultural events, such as rock festivals.

These are the people who will be taking our place in the movement. These are the people who will make up the backbone of the Red Army.

Without a program aimed at the people of high school age, our long term goals may be greatly hindered, and we will not see the total defeat of US imperialism. We must also encourage our younger sisters and brothers to move as strongly as possible on the home front. We must point out the fruitless efforts of the past and make it clear that the only way we can change the nature of the oppressor is to wipe it out, via a revolution.

In no part of this dehumanising process is there any chance for self expression or self realization. All the females must be mothers or secretaries or nurses. All the males must be creators of wealth at the lowest possible cost. Welfare is another remote thought in the ruling class.

Welfare does not serve the needs of the people, but is used to give a 'liberal good-guy' front to the people as tools face of capitalism. It has another historical use. It is a balm to the soul of the guilt-ridden oppressor. Neither of these ends help those who really need help.

Those of us who revolt against this inhuman mess-those who are attempting to create a people's culture on a human level- are treated as an invading army (everyone remember the Sunday morning wake-up committee in DC?). Not only do we not fit into useful roles at the present time (a little unemployment is good to keep wage demands in line), but we have the audacity to attempt to recruit others to this plot. People's culture is one of our most effective weapons in the struggle against an inhuman system. That is why the system moves so hard to keep us from expressing ourselves-humanity is infectious.

Within the movement is the cancer of age chauvinism. It is a reflection of our training in the pog system and is designed to keep us from learning from the mistakes of the Old Left. It also prevents us from building bridges between the various stages of the youth culture. Its influence need to be expressed in the statement (half serious),"don't trust anyone over thirty". Although this is laughable today, many of us still do this in effect when we scoff at any and all forms of experience and expertise instead of demanding to be taught what we do not know.

The Third World struggle in this country is part of the international class struggle against American racism. It is the function of racism to keep the working class divided and therefore, ineffective against the ruling class. Our struggle in relation to this one is largely reflexive. We must aid and abet the struggle much the same as we must aid external Third World liberation struggles, by preventing the enemy from moving effectively to hot spots, by creating other hot spots outside the ghetto areas, and by actively impeding the enemy's progress in and out of these areas.

Summary

We feel that in struggle amongst ourselves a revolutionary youth movement can be built that will answer the needs that we feel. We also believe that dialogue is the only way to settle differences among the people and that we will always make every effort, both now and in the future, to keep the lines of communication open to all our brothers and sisters.

We are your brothers and sisters in struggle:

The final session of the NCAG was held on August 17, 1971. The meeting was directed by Finley Campbell of the Indiana Peace and Freedom Party. During the meeting the following proposal for fall action program was introduced by Mike Drobenaire. He did not claim responsibility for preparing the proposal but called it "the off the wall proposal."

PROPOSED FALL ACTION PROGRAM

This proposal is being given to bring about unity between those who favor regional local actions and those who want a national action.

THE CALENDAR

September 29 -- Support demonstration for Angela Davis

October 13 - 14 -- Nationwide moratorium in every town and city across the country there should be actions. The actions should be everything from peaceful marches to student strikes and work stopages to nonviolent direct action. The People's Coalition and SMC will be pushing these dates. It is important that we make sure these demonstrations are unlike former moratorium days but have the militant multi-issue approaches of Mayday. It is important that this moratorium day is a dynamic demonstration, that people all over the country are exposed to an anti-imperialistic, anti-racist, anti-sexist movement. These local demonstrations must be seen as equal to national mobilization in building the movement.

October 25 -- Support for VVAW actions in Washington, D.C.

October 30 - 31 -- People begin to gather at movement centers and universities throughout the city. These days are used for gathering affinity groups and scouting out the financial districts. There will be regional representatives meetings that weekend. There will be no master plan so that regions and affinity groups will be free to make all tactical decisions. The only guideline will be that the actions should be nonviolent. Housing will be all over the city and thus preventing be trapped in one spot.

November 1 -- It will be first day people move out in a massive way. People leave the centers about rush-hour and mingle with regular people going to work. This time is used to explain our actions, get signatures for the peace treaty, and (illegible) to get as much support as possible from the people who work in the financial districts. We must make it clear we are not against the people who work in the financial district but those people who control the financial district, i.e. Rockerfeller, Morgan, Hunt, and Dupont. We must plan our actions to center around the New York Stock Market and American Market. We should concentrate around brokerage houses as Merrill, Lynch, Winston, Bach, and Company, Morgan. Our targets should be hit at full strength around the lunch hour so that any clearing attempt will be impossible to deal with us alone.

CONFIDENTIAL

November 2 -- Tuesday -- Election Day -- the Stock Market is closed. We regather our forces and move on the domestic issue of repression and poverty. Mayday talks of being a multi-issue movement. This sceniro truly allows it. Our emphasis for this day is the Foley Square area. The institutions in this area are Tombs, City Hall, State Office Building, Federal Office Building, Welfare Office, and the Courts in Panther 21 was tried and where Federal Grand Jury in session. Emphasis should be on the cutback in welfare, the unjust treatment of prisoners in the tombs and Grand Jury and Political Prisoner issue. On that day too, we be at full strength at lunch to mingle with the government workers. We will deal with community problems (illegible) unemployment, lack of social services, and drugs (smack). At 5 o'clock we gather at Madison and 42nd Street. We will be there to implement our anti-sexist stand. We will be at Madison Avenue to point out how our lives manipulated into believing that women are proper, gay is bad, and the genocide in Vietnam is good. We move from Madison Avenue is its extension Times Square. The place where the American culture exposes itself. We show exactly how we feel about sex-ploy movies and pornographic bookstores. We move later that night to the gay bars that only exploit its patrons instead of caring for them.

November 3 -- We move back to Wall Street. One difference between us and the Trots is our willingness to engage in sustained actions. Wednesday will prove our commitment to sustained actions. We are asking for Student Strikes throughout the city and their presence at Wall Street for support. Hopefully, by this day the market will be in a two-day log jam. All our forces should be in town rested and ready to go. Our major effort will be in keeping pressure on brokerage houses and stock exchanges. Efforts should be made to jamb phones, call in phoney trades, and block entrances to the market. People are expected to try their most imaginative plan. Straight civil disobedience will not work but all kinds of different direct action will.

November 4 -- On this day we start a new form. Many people will be leaving for local areas. The trouble with most National demonstrations is that most people leave without any idea of what is next. The next two days should be used for establishing communications dealing with movement problems and planning how we deal with the mass marches on Saturday. The day should be used for a more concese and and organized demonstration against SMACK. SMACK is a movement problem and should be dealt with. We should move to St. Mark's and 2nd Avenue, East Village. There have demonstration against the pusher man. It is about time we blow the whistle on the chief pushers as Ky Thieu and Nixon.

November 5 -- Meetings should continue. This day should concern itself with survival. NYC has the worst social services in the country. If we are movement concerned about all people we must show our solidarity with people who must live in NYC. There should be rallies at welfare centers, board of education, Social Security Office, and Belview Hospital. These rallies should be (illegible) with local groups as NWRO, Operation Bread Basket, Young Lords, and the Panthers. It is important on the eve of the Trot march we concern ourselves with the domestic issues.

November 6 -- This is the day of massive peace march. It is our duty to have some kind of psences. Most people who come to mass marches are looking for a real political dynamic. We can supply the politics that are so missing from these events. We can use this time to gather signatures for peace treaty and enlist new people in the movement.

Roles of fall offensive.

National Collective -- 6 to 10 full times members, 20 to 30 regional representatives to work in National Office. The National Office jobs will be logistical role. The National Office will issue no tactical manuals (though maps will be provided) and give no assignments in the action of Wall Street. The regions and affinity groups are given Carte Blanche when it comes to the actions. The National Collective is gather the housing, work out coordination of communication, and publicity. National Collective will rent a movement office and will equip it.

Regional Affinity Groups -- The Region

AMENDMENT TO HEART ATTACK PROPOSAL

Regional Actions

September 27 -- Support demonstration for Angela Davis

October 13 - 14 -- Moratorium nationally coordinated Mayday type action in every town and city across the country

October 25 -- Support for Vietnam Veterans Against the War action in Washington, D.C.

National Action

October 30 - 31 -- People gather in NYC Movement Centers to make plans for coming actions.

November 1 -- People move out to Wall Street to build a peak at 12 o'clock (lunch hour). Stay until 3. Peace treaty implementation set the date.

November 2 -- Election Day. Stock Market closed. 12 p.m. gather in Foley Square. Protest against present system and Grand Jury and welfare cutbacks.

November 2 -- 5 p.m. -- gather at Bryant Park. Move against Madison Avenue -- Times Square. 9 p.m. protest against rip-off gay bars.

November 3 -- People move back to Wall Street. Call for high school strike in support of Wall Street action by their presence.

November 4 -- Reorganization and tactical planning. Anti-SMACK Day -- small affinity group action on the lower east side.

November 5 -- Survival Day -- Affinity group action at Social Services (or lack of them), i.e. Welfare, Social Security, Belview, and Board of Education.

November 6 -- Make visibility of Mayday people at the NPAC rally through banners, guerilla theater, leaflets, and human contact with demonstrations.

November 8 -- Tentative. Move back to Wall Street.

With the acceptance of the above-proposed actions it was decided at the NCAG that the details should be further refined by an interim committee which would gather at the National MDC Headquarters, Washington, D.C. After working the proposals out in detail, the interim committee will travel to New York City in order to handle logistic and tactical problems.

Those appointed to the interim committee are Finley Campbell, Mike Drobenaire, Michael Weber, Lucy Vargas, Carol Kitchens, Melinda R., Dick LeClaire, Mike Wallick, Daria Price, and Wayne Scott. The interim committee is composed of gay men and women as well as straight men and women.

The MDC National Action to be staged in New York City by design has been scheduled to coincide with PCPJ and National Peace Action Coalition (NPAC) activities there but is to maintain its identity as an MDC action.

During the NCAG, Mike Drobenaire made the following statements concerning the impending political conventions to be held in San Diego, California, and Miami, Florida:

> The people are already gathering and moving into San Diego and Miami for the up coming conventions. The San Diego Convention will be primarily the responsibility of people on the West Coast. It is not thought that they will be successful in shutting down the San Diego Convention. The Miami Convention will be handled, however, and everyone should go to Miami. Large masses of people will be there for the convention. "Chicago will look small compared to what Miami will be in the coming convention." MDC will be involved to some extent in Miami but virtually every major activist in this country will participate including Yippies and Weathermen. The people who are now in Miami have acquired a house and are tackeling the problems of housing, medical supplies, food, maps of the city, etc.

During the NCAG the individual organizations represented held workshops, discussion groups, and parties. On one occasion [redacted] gave instructions on how to build a false identity. [redacted] instructed that those people who are now coming up in the organization, which he did not further identify, should build themselves a new identity. He displayed a passport on which was printed his photograph under another name.

b7D

Additionally, he displayed a Birth Certificate, a drivers license, a blood donors card, and a Social Security Card, all with a name which he claimed he would use in the future. According to [redacted] the first step in building a new identity is to visit a State Archives and to research newspapers printed at the time which you are attempting to establish as your birthdate. You are to look for articles announcing the birth of an individual and from these articles, obtain biographical data such as the full name, date of birth, names of the parents and the grandparents, if available. This information is copied and memorized after which a request is made for a duplicate birth certificate at that State's Bureau of Vital Statistics. The information obtained from the newspaper can be transcribed onto the appropriate forms at the Bureau of Vital Statistics. After acquiring the birth certificate it is a simple matter to obtain a Social Security card, a drivers license, and a passport as well as numerous supporting items of identification.

b7D

[redacted] indicated that after establishing ones new identity it should be held in abeyance until needed.

Following the final session of the NCAG on August 17, 1971, the majority of the participants departed Atlanta, Georgia, to return to their respective areas.

PEOPLE'S COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE (PCPJ)

A PCPJ press release dated March 1, 1971, described the PCPJ as being headquartered in Washington, D.C., and consisting of over 100 organizations which are using massive nonviolent civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repression, and war.

NATIONAL PEACE ACTION COALITION (NPAC)

The NPAC was founded in 1970 by members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). Its basic objective is to unite masses of people including labor unions, GI's, and the black community in the struggle to end United States intervention in Southeast Asia through orderly and peaceful tactics. The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960's functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From a stance of "participatory democracy," the SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position. It maintained a national office at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, until February, 1970. Internal factionalism during 1969 produced three main factions: Weatherman, Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), and Worker Student Alliance (WSA). The Weatherman and RYM no longer consider themselves associated with the SDS. The WSA faction continues to use the name SDS.

STUDENT MOBILIZATION COMMITTEE TO END THE WAR IN VIETNAM (SMC)

The SMC is controlled by the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and its youth affiliate, Young Socialist Alliance (YSA). SMC initiates and supports public demonstrations against the war in Southeast Asia.

Enclosed for the Bureau are ten copies of an LHM dated and captioned as above. Dissemination is also being made to all continental offices in the form of at least one information copy. Extensive dissemination is deemed necessary as the details of the LHM indicate that efforts will be made to implement May Day activities throughout the United States during November, 1971.

No local dissemination is being made. San Antonio will maintain extra copies of the LHM in the event additional dissemination is required.

The source mentioned in the LHM is [redacted] and the original location of the information herein contained is [redacted]

The LHM is classified confidential inasmuch as it contains information furnished by the above source, the unauthorized disclosure of which could reasonably result in his identification and thereby adversely affect national defense interests. b7D b7E

Those individuals mentioned in the LHM from Austin, Texas, and the AMDT have been identified regarding status and available background in referenced report, 8/28/71.

Considering the disruptive activities of the MDC in Washington, D.C., during May, 1971, potential exists for continued and increased acts of civil disobedience or violence, possibly resulting in violations of antiriot laws and other Federal statutes. Therefore, all receiving offices are requested to carefully review the enclosed LHM and conduct warranted investigation, WFO should be particularly alert for any information concerning the Interim Committee of the MDC and planed disruptive activities to be staged in New York City during November, 1971.

REPCON

There are set forth herein Miami's observations concerning coverage of REPCON which may be of interest to the Bureau and assistance to Chicago in covering DEMCON. A copy of a chart of the Miami Beach Convention Complex is enclosed. It is noted the whole of the Convention Complex was enclosed by a chain link fence, with two demonstration areas outside in front. This proved to be of inestimable value to the police in maintaining control of demonstrations.

PRE-PLANNING OPERATION

Commencing with a period of a month prior to the official opening of the Republican Convention, a series of briefings were held in Miami Beach, attended by the various law enforcement agencies, Federal and local. At these briefings the problems, both real and possible, were thoroughly analyzed, and every probability considered. Each agency head, and/or person entrusted with the responsibility of the respective agency, was completely oriented as to the problems which might be encountered.

It is absolutely essential that Bureau representatives attend these briefings, not only to become acquainted with the representatives and their problems, but to add to the over-all intelligence of those proceedings.

Several of the suggestions made by BuAgents present in the planning sessions with the Miami Beach PD were adopted by the PD in their security plans. One of these was the forbiding of sticks on demonstrator's signs, in order to prevent their use as weapons in the event the demonstrators got out of control.

Other info which was utilized by the PD was that contained in the Police Instructor's Bulletin of 6/17/68, entitled "Riot Control Pyramid Phasing System," which was adopted per se by the PD. This added a color code of green, yellow, orange and red, which corresponded with the phases set forth in the afore-mentioned publication.

It was found to be essential for the FBI liaison Agents during the planning session to maintain discreet contact with the heads of the various GOP Committees which held meetings prior to the opening of the Convention. Of particular importance was contact with the Head of the Platform or Resolutions Committee, for a complete list of all of the Subcommittee meetings and the various persons of interest to the Bureau who addressed these Committees.

It is also pointed out that daily contact should be made with the Press Room at the Convention site or at the hotel which acts as the Party headquarters, where the schedule of hearings, Convention schedule, schedule of functions and speeches of the various people who appeared before the Subcommittee hearings were available in quantity. It was found that the Press Room was the best source of this type of material, and that also available from this source were maps of the Convention Hall and other useful material.

In regard to maps of the Convention site, large-scale maps of the Convention Complex were extremely useful in planning FBI assignments, and these were obtained from a number of sources, including the PD, the telephone company and the news media pool, who reproduced maps of the Convention Complex to facilitate their planning.

It was noted parking space within the Convention Complex was at a premium and was controlled by DNC security. It is necessary to maintain liaison early in the planning with the head of security in order to assure adequate parking for FBI emergency vehicles is available.

INDICES CHECKS

Starting two weeks prior to and up until the day before the Convention, we received over 5,000 name check requests from Secret Service for employees of the hotels occupied by the four candidates and our headquarters, Grain Ushering and Security Service, and concession personnel.

Reviews of files concerning these persons were conducted mainly by security and racial squad Agents, since they are most familiar with security info dissemination procedures.

The last block of requests, approximating 225, was received at noon on Sunday, immediately preceding the opening of the Convention, and in order to handle this before the close of business that day, it was necessary to call in a number of extra Clerks and Agents.

A separate Sub-file was set up, and memoranda reflecting positive data was hand-delivered daily to a Secret Service Agent who called at the Office.

CONVENTION INFORMATION FILE

The week before the Convention, Miami compiled a Xeroxed informative file, one copy of which was given to the SAC, ASAC, each day Supervisor, night Supervisor, and one was placed on the Bulletin Board. This file contained:

Convention booklet, listing COP officers, delegations, their hotels and telephone numbers

Alphabetical telephone listing of Committee Chairman, news media, officers

Map of Convention Complex and Convention Hall

Map of Miami Beach, listing hotels occupied by various delegations and their addresses

Schedule of Committee hearings preceding Convention

Personnel assigned to Convention, their duties, Convention telephone number, and home telephone number

This was of considerable value in informing all personnel re details of the Convention, particularly Agents who, during the course of the Convention, were required to handle regular investigative assignments and locate delegates and news media personnel for interview.

DISSEMINATION OF DEMONSTRATION INFO RE SECURITY, RACIAL AND NON-POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS

Info re possibly disruptive demonstrations being planned or organized, of course, must be disseminated as received, first orally to Secret Service, Military Intelligence, U.S. Attorney, and PD. The Bureau then must be informed by teletype in form suitable for immediate dissemination if necessary, with no Administrative data in the body, followed immediately by a confirming airtel and LHM. Up until the day the Convention went into session, oral dissemination was handled from the Miami Office.

By the time the Convention started, an FBI Desk had been set up in the Convention Complex. This desk was located in immediate proximity to the Miami Beach Command Post, the Military Intelligence desk, and the Secret Service desk, the latter separate and distinct from, but in immediate communication with the Secret Service Command Post located at another point in the Convention Complex. Immediate dissemination of info collected from all sources was thereafter disseminated to, as well as received from interested agencies at that point.

Upon completion of the demonstrations by the various organizations at the close of business each day, a separate teletype in form suitable for immediate dissemination, with no Administrative info in the body, was sent to the Bureau, followed that day or the next day by an airtel and LHM.

Also, a daily summary teletype, covering all demonstrations and conditions generally, with a cut-off time of 12:00 midnight, was sent every day the Convention was in session. This summary was and should be clear, concise, and without Administrative info in the body, but at the end, in order that immediate dissemination might be made by the Bureau if desired.

PERSONNEL AND ASSIGNMENTS

PROTECTIVE (Secret Service)

Thirty DuAgents, which the Bureau authorized, were used by Secret Service on protective assignments. Eight were used in connection with the protection of the four principal candidates at their Convention residences. Ten were used at the ten gates of the Convention Hall. The remainder, with the exception of three on relief assignments, were used on various surveillance posts within the Hall. Approximately 200 Federal and local agents from the other agencies were utilized within the Convention Complex.

Our men usually were on 12-hour shifts. Their general purpose was to recognize any person who might be a disruptive influence, have a suspicious bulge on his person which might be a firearm, or carrying a package which might be an explosive.

At each of the Convention Hall entrances, there was at least one uniformed Andy Frain Representative, who was responsible for ticket taking and credential examination, a uniformed policeman to handle any obstreperous person against whom the Frain representative would be willing to execute an affidavit to support an arrest, an FBI Agent, and a plainclothes detective from Miami or Miami Beach. In the event of any untoward incident, a Secret Service Agent would be immediately available to follow through in handling, in order that no one would have to leave his post.

OTHER AGENT PERSONNEL

Four agents, including the Security Supervisor, were on duty at the FBI Desk, near the Police Command Post, on two 12-hour shifts, for the purpose of immediate dissemination of information, insuring the protective Agents assigned to Secret Service were fulfilling their responsibilities, and insuring Bureau interests were protected generally by being on the scene and immediately knowledgeable of pertinent information and incidents inside and outside the Convention Complex.

Four Agents, two security and two racial, during the two weeks prior to the Convention were assigned to collect and disseminate information relating to the organizations planning demonstrations.

During the days the Convention was in session, these four men were occupied in bringing their information up-to-date, contacting informants, sources, and assissting in coverage of the demonstrations on the street. They were on duty at least from 10:00 AM to midnight.

Six other Agents, including the Racial Supervisor, were also constantly on the street in the vicinity of COP

Headquarters, and/or the Convention Hall and the candidates hotels, to observe the progress, extent and nature of the demonstrations as they took place. They were assisted at times by other Agents, such as conditions required.

STENOGRAPHER AND TELEPHONE OPERATOR

Three stenographers were assigned to take most of the Convention communications commencing one week before and during the Convention - one during the day, one from 4:00 PM to 12:00 midnight, and one over the week end.

A telephone operator was assigned to keep the switchboard open to 12:00 midnight from the night before, through the Convention.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF SUBVERSIVES

To assist in identifying any subversive who might be a disruptive influence, Secret Service furnished to each officer and Agent a group of 27 photographs of undesirable persons who might be expected to try to enter the Convention Hall. The Miami Office also supplied to each of its own Agents, photographs of local Cuban exiles who have participated in bombings or violent activities, local black nationalists, New Leftists, and persons on the agitator index.

COMMUNICATIONS

In the southwest basement of the Convention Complex, the police set up a room as a Command Post, in which were located representatives of the Miami Beach PD, the Miami PD, the Sheriff's Office, the Florida Highway Patrol, the Florida Conservation Patrol, and Florida National Guard, who were in direct radio and telephone communication with their people inside and surrounding the Convention Complex.

In a large room in close proximity to the Police Command Post, Secret Service, Military Intelligence and the FBI had desks. Several of our Agents, including the Security Supervisor, were in one corner of this room. We were supplied with a direct outside telephone line, a television set tuned to the most pertinent channel of the proceedings on the Convention floor, a portable radio transmitter, and two Keltron miniaturized handy-talkies. These two Keltron Units were used in maintaining contact with our Agents when they were at another point in the Convention Complex. Four Keltron Units were used by the street Agents observing and reporting progress and extent of activities in progress outside the Convention Complex in the areas set aside for demonstrations.

The Keltron Units were particularly effective, being light, handy, inconspicuous and furnished excellent reception over the whole Convention Complex. They were used on several occasions to communicate with the main station at Miami from Miami Beach.

In connection with communications, note that a close liaison was in effect with Southern Bell telephone security officials, who were entrusted with the overall security of the vast and complex television circuits, telephone circuits, etc. These personnel were charged not only with the physical plant security, but were employed to be on the lookout and "sweep" for electronic eavesdropping and/or wiretap attempts. No such attempts were reported.

ASSISTANCE TO CONVENTION OF SCLC MEMBERS

The first day of the Convention, it was learned through CLARENCE TOWNES, Chairman, Division of Minorities, GOP National Committee, contact with whom had already been established by an Agent, that RALPH ABERNATHY of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) had approached him with a request for 50 tickets. TOWNES informed him tickets were practically unobtainable, and that the one who could possibly come up with any at that late date would be RAY BLISS, GOP Chairman. In referring this request to BLISS, TOWNES made the observation that it might be better to have these people cool and quiet in the gallery than demonstrating on the street. Through TOWNES, we were able to learn two hours before the evening session began the next day that 30 tickets, including two box seats, had been obtained by him for ABERNATHY and his followers. The Agent was able to examine the tickets and determine the particular sections in which they were located. This info was immediately furnished to Secret Service and the Miami Beach PD, in order that they could be forewarned and take appropriate action to facilitate their movement into and maintain order when ABERNATHY and his followers subsequently entered and were seated in the Hall. Through TOWNES, it was possible also to obtain the same type info when a lesser number of tickets were furnished upon request to ABERNATHY and his followers the next day.

Chicago may desire to lay the groundwork for receiving similar info during DEMCON.

RACIAL DISTURBANCE IN MIAMI

b7C

On the third day of the Convention, in Liberty City, a black district in Miami, the SCLC had obtained a meeting hall for ABERNATHY to speak at a rally. He, however, did not appear as announced. We had already learned of this, and had informed the interested authorities. Following the rally, which was led by [redacted] former SCLC leader in Miami, racial disturbances began to occur with young blacks throwing bottles and rocks at passing white automobiles. This degenerated into a full-scale riot, for which the Florida National Guard had to be called out to quell and a curfew established.

During the first day, the IDI desk at the Convention Hall was able to fulfill initial dissemination responsibilities with respect to this matter, and to obtain info relative to the situation as it developed. In fact, the Governor visited the Miami Beach Command Post and was briefed by the SO representatives and Florida National Guard representatives who occupied the desk in the Post, prior to deciding to alert and call out the Guard, who were thereafter placed under command of the Sheriff.

The above indicates the desirability of our having a desk near the Police Command Post, as in this case, in order that we can fulfill our own dissemination responsibilities immediately and likewise be in a position of immediately receiving pertinent info during the course of a developing disturbance.

BOMB THREATS - BLUE LIGHT

As a matter of interest, in order to avoid possible panic, the word bomb" is never used by Secret Service in the vicinity of the Convention Hall. A bomb threat is referred to as a blue light signal. If at any time during the course of the Convention a bomb threat was received, a number of inconspicuous blue lights would be turned on in the ceiling. Thereafter, all protective personnel would search assigned areas for the bomb. Only one false report was received during the course of the Convention. In the event any actual bomb or suspected bomb had been discovered, Secret Service, whose main responsibility is the candidates, would have made the decision to move them out. It would have been the decision of the Convention Security Office, and/or ultimately the GOP Chairman, to evacuate the hall otherwise. This, of course, did not happen.

IDENTIFICATION

Secret Service issued to each of the 30 protective Agents and the Command Post Agents, plastic lapel tags, the size of a quarter, blue and white, containing the letter "S" and an issue number. This tag entitled the wearer to proceed into and to any point whatsoever in the Convention Complex. It was necessary on a number of occasions for street Agents to enter the Complex to confer with control Agents. Although the street Agents had been issued temporary security passes, it was found they could have moved about more freely if they had had the lapel tag. In connection with the lapel tags, and the necessity for additional Agent personnel to utilize them, it is noted numerous requests for investigation came in during REPCON. These requests and/or complaints ranged from threats to delegates to Impersonation matters and Special Inquiry type interviews. These investigations required immediate attention, and the lack of lapel badges assigned to Agent personnel not directly concerned with REPCON security required that these Agents spend additional time to gain entrance to the facilities of the Convention.

CONCLUSION

The set-up previously described worked very efficiently. The only disruption was the last-minute name check requests, for which we had to call in clerical and Agent personnel on Sunday. Chicago may anticipate such last-minute requests and make every effort to have Secret Service submit them at the earliest possible moment.

It might have been some improvement to have had an additional stenographer on duty from 4:00 PM to 12:00 midnight during the dates of the Convention being in session, since it was necessary for the one stenographer on duty on two particularly busy nights to stay until 2:00 A.M. to complete the necessary work, although she turned out over 60 pages on those nights.

Depending upon the set-up at Chicago, and if it appears it will be necessary for street Agents to move quickly into the Convention Complex at any time, it may be well to endeavor to obtain from Secret Service extra lapel tags to facilitate their movement into and about the Convention Complex.

Dear [redacted]

United Press International will again in 1972, as it has for all the major political conventions starting in 1948, operate a special wire for the Democratic Convention in Miami Beach and the Republican Convention in San Diego.

The wire will be patterned on the WCNS wire and run by [redacted] and his staff.

The circuit -- a 24-hour operation -- will begin its daily cycle at 8:00 a.m., opening with a calendar of convention events such as press conferences, caucuses, the schedules of the various candidates, etc. Following will be the main convention story, sidebars on related developments, accounts of candidates' activities, items on significant state delegations, demonstrations, statements and activities of pressure groups, and so forth. Additionally, of course, all major news stories will be covered on a running basis.

Correspondents advisories will be carried frequently to let those on the circuit know, for example, that the text of the platform is ready, that the convention program will be available at noon, that two candidates plan to meet in a hotel at 2:30 p.m., of upcoming news conferences, rescheduled caucuses, etc.

The wire will open one week ahead of the convention for those who plan to cover meetings of the platform, resolutions, credentials and other committees. It will close after the convention adjourns and the new national committee meets.

As you can imagine, setting up this circuit is a major undertaking, requiring involved arrangements with the telephone company for circuits and teleprinter reservations. It would be a great deal of help if you would signify your interest at the earliest time. The rate for a single installation for one convention is $450.00. The rate for a single installation at both conventions is $850.00. The rate for a second installation at either or both conventions is $400.00 per installation.

During 1972, for the first time, the convention wire will be available all over the United States. The service will be available from the last week in June to the first week in September at $1,000.00. No partial service will be accepted as the installation line and equipment costs are such that there is practically no saving on a partial service.

Enclosed are forms for ordering this circuit at one or both conventions. Upon receipt of the order form we will reserve a printer or printers for you at the locations you designate. Billing will be done later to you or to whomever you indicate.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely,

THE YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY, ALSO KNOWN AS YIPPIES, IS A LOSSELY KNIT, ANTI-ESTABLISHMENT, REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH ORGANIZATION FORMED IN NEW YORK CITY JANUARY, NINETEEN SIXTY EIGHT.

SOURCE SAID THE RELEASE WAS OFFICALLY GIVEN TO THE MEDIA, READ BY [redacted] A MADISON UNDERGROUND NEWSPAPER; TOM FORCASE, AN EAST COAST YIP ACTIVIST (WASHINGTON, D.C. OR NYC); AND AN UNDREGROUND FEMALE RESIDING OUT OF STATE. TIS RELEASE WAS GIVEN OVER PERIOD ELEVEN AM TO ELEVEN THIRTY AM JANUARY TEN LAST IN THE STATE CAPITOL BUILDING ROTUNDA, MADISON, TO REPRESENTATIVES FROM WISCONSIN STATE NEWSPAPERS AND TELEVISION STATIONS, THE ASSOCIATED PRESS AND THE UNDERGROUND PRESS SYNDICATE.

THE PRESS RELEASE, IN PART, ADVISED AS FOLLOWS;

IT SAID THE MADISON "PRE CONFERENCE" WAS A SECRET NATIONAL PLANNING CONFERENCE ATTENDED BY YIP DELEGATES FROM THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY. THE FOLLOWING FUTURE YIP FUNCTIONS WERE REPORTEDLY AGREED TO AT THIS CONFERENCE:

ONE. MARCH EIGHTEEN THROUGH TWENTY SIX, SEVENTY-TWO - "SPRING FREEK WEEK," CONSISTING OF NATION WIDE STATE REGIONAL PLANNING MEETINGS AND VOTER REGISTRATION DRIVE.

TWO. MAY ONE, SEVENTY -TWO - "J DAY," CONSISTING OF MARIJUANA SMOKE-IN, IN EACH STATE CAPITOL, ALONG WITH MARCHES TO LOCAL AREAS PRISONS.

THREE. MAY ONE THROUGH TWO, SEVENTY -TWO - "SPRING PLANT-IN," CONSISTING OF NATIONAL MARIJUANA SEEED PLANTING CEREMONIES.

FOUR. JULY ONE THROUGH THREE, SEVENTY - TWO. "NATIONAL TRIBAL CONFERENCE," TO BE HELD IN WASHINGTON, D.C., FEATURING HIGH LEVEL DISCUSSIONS BY VARIOUS NATIONAL YIP LEADERS.

FIEV. JULY FOUR, SEVENTY- TWO - " THIRD ANNUAL REEFER SMOKE-IN FOR WASHINGTON, D.C., (WASHINGTON MONUMENT) WITH "ANTI - CIA-HEROIN" MARCH TO STEPS OF U. S. CAPITOL.

SIX. JULY TUENTY SEVEN, SEVENTY-TUO - "NATIONAL CHE GUEVERRA APPRECIATION DAY," MIAMI BEACH, FLRUDIA, TO SHOU SOLIDARITY UITH CUBAN STRUGGLE FOR LIBERATION.

SEVEN. JULY TUENTY SEVEN THROUGH THIRTY ONE, SEVENTY-ONE - "ZIPPIE PARTY FREEK CIRCUS," MIAMI, FLORDIA, A FOUR-DAY PARTY FEATURING AN ASSEMBLY OF YOUNG VOTERS CALLED TOGETHER TO SHOU POLITICIANS THAT UNLESS THE DEMANDS OF YOUTH ARE MET, THE SEVENTY TUO PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION UILL BE BOYCOTTED.

EIGHT. AUGUST ONE THROUGH TUENTY, SEVENTY-TUO - "GRAPES OF WRATH CARAVAN," TO SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA.

NINE. AUGUST TUENTY ONE THROUGH TUENTY FOUR, SEVENTY-TUO - "SMOKE GRASS AND KICK ASS," SAN DIEGO ACTION.

REGARDING THE MIAMI PROTEST TACTICS THE RELEASE SAID YIP REPRESENTATIVES FROM EACH STATE UILL BRING A "ROCK" TO THE CITY. TUO "ROCK" ARE THEN TO BE CHOSEN TO REPRESENT THE "ZIP-YIP" NATIONAL SLATE FOR PRESIDENTIAL OFFICE. YIPS UILL THEN BE URGED TO "CAST YOUR VOTE FOR A ROCK IN SEVENTY TUO," AND TO "MAKE SEVENTY TUO

ONE BIG ROCK FESTIVAL" AND "CATAPULT" OUR ROCK INTO THE WHITE HOUSE."

EMPHASIS WAS PLACED ON THE FACT THAT JERRY RUBIN AND ABBOTT HOFFMAN, INDIVIDUALS WHO HAVE PREVIOUSLY EXECUTED CONSIDERABLE LEADERSHIP EFFECT IN YIP MAATERS, HAVE BY THEIR OWN RECENT DISCRIMINATIVE ELITIST ACTIVITIES, REMOVED THEMSELVES FROM YIP MEMBERSHIP. THE MADISON YIP CONFERENCE, ACCORDING TO THE RELEASE, IS AN EVENT TO REORGANIZE THE YIP AND GIVE THIS PARTY NEW DYNAMIC LEADERSHIP FOR SEVENTY TWO.

THE RELEASE ENDED ON SAYING THAT YIPS ARE URGING ACCEPTANCE OF THE FOLLOWING OEN POINT PROGRAM FOR SEVENTY TWO: "UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER OF UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT. U.S. OUT OF AMERICA NOW."

JANUARY 7-9, 1972
MADISON, WISCONSIN

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY

The Youth International Party (YIP), also known as Yippies, is a loosely knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

Invitations to the Conference were sent to approximately 50 YIP leaders throughout the country, names and residences unknown to source; and it was expected that most of these individuals would attend.

First source advised that the tentative purpose of the Conference was to plan the following:

(1) Establishment of a national YIP Office, either in Miami, Florida; Washington, D. C.; New York City; or Madison, Wisconsin.

(2) Establishment of a national YIP communications network.

(3) Setting of dates for the National YIP Conference in Madison for the Summer of 1972 wherein the YIP protest tactics for the Miami Democratic Convention will be finalized.

Source further advised that no efforts would be made to establish an agenda for this Conference until Tom Forcade, a YIP activist from the East Coast, arrived in Madison on either January 3 or 4, 1972.

(1) Discussing organization of a "joint day" demonstration tactics for May 1, 1972, to be held by YIP activists in state capitals throughout the United States. The purpose of this day would be to show protest against alleged discriminatory state laws prohibiting the use of marijuana.

(2) Discussing protest tactics for the Miami Democratic National Convention. (The Republican National Convention in San Diego, California, was not to be discussed as YIP leaders on the West Coast have reportedly already agreed on tactics for that gathering.) The Miami action, according to the agenda, would include discussing means of obtaining support for Miami protest plans among YIP people and among outsiders.

(3) Discussing the topic of establishing a communications network to implement the Miami action.

Source said the release was officially given to the media, read by [redacted] a staff member of "Take Over"; Tom Forcade; and an unidentified female, residing out of state. This release was given over the period 11 to 11:30 a.m., January 10th, in the State Capitol Building Rotunda, Madison, to representatives from Wisconsin State newspapers and television stations, the Associated Press, and the Underground Press Syndicate.

The press release, in part, advised as follows:

It said the Madison "Pre-Conference" was a secret national planning conference attended by YIP delegates from throughout the country.

The following future YIP functions were reportedly agreed to at this Conference:

(1) March 18-26, 1972 - "Spring Freak Week," consisting of nation-wide state regional planning meetings and voter registration drives.

(2) May 1, 1972 - "J Day," consisting of marijuana smoke-in, in each state capitol, along with marches to local area prisons.

(3) May 1-2, 1972 - "Spring Plant-In," consisting of national marijuana seed planting ceremonies.

(4) July 1-3, 1972 - "National Tribal Conference," to be held in Washington, D. C., featuring high level discussions by various national YIP leaders.

(5) July 4, 1972 - "Third Annual Reefer Smoke-In" at the Washington Monument with an "Anti-CIA-Heroin" march to the steps of the United States Capitol.

(6) July 27, 1972 - "National Che Gueverra Appreciation Day," to be held at Miami Beach, Florida, to show solidarity with Cuban struggle for liberation.

(7) July 27-31, 1972 - "Zippie Party Freek Circus," at Miami, Florida, which is to be a four-day party featuring an assembly of young voters called together to show politicians that unless the demands of youth are met, the 1972 Presidential Election will be boycotted.

(8) August 1-20, 1972 - "Grapes of Wrath Caravan" to San Diego, California.

(9) August 21-24, 1972 - "Smoke Grass and Kick Ass," which will be part of the San Diego action.

Regarding the Miami protest tactics, the release said YIP representatives from each state will bring a "rock" to the city. Two "rocks" are then to be chosen to represent the "ZIP-YIP" national slate for presidential office. YIPS will then be urged to "Cast Your Vote for a Rock in 1972," and to "make 1972 one big rock festival" and catapult our rock into the White House."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY

Emphasis was placed on the fact that Jerry Rubin and Abbott Hoffman, individuals who have previously exercised considerable leadership effect in YIP matters, have, by their own recent discriminative elitist activities, removed themselves from YIP membership. The Madison YIP Conference, according to the release, is an event to reorganize the YIP and give this party new dynamic leadership for 1972.

The release ended by saying that YIPs are urging acceptance of the following program for 1972:

"Unconditional Surrender of United States Government"

"U.S. Out of America Now"

Source stated that although the release mentioned San Diego, the entire "Pre-Conference" at Madison concerned tactics planning the Miami action.

Source advised that following the press conference, the remaining conference attendees left Madison to return home.

"The Capital Times," a Madison daily newspaper, in its issue dated January 10, 1972, carried an article captioned, "Yippies Huddle Here--Have Plans for National Convention Circuses."

This article, in part, advised as follows:

It was noted at the press release given by YIPs in the State Capitol Building on January 10, 1972, that YIP plans a non-violent counter-convention to be held in Miami at the same time as the Democratic National Convention.

The spokesman who issued the release said, "In Chicago in 1968, we exposed the Government; in Miami in 1972, we will expose ourselves and our alternative culture." The spokesman also said YIP hopes to "expose the positive aspects of what we're doing rather than the negative aspects of what they (Democratic and Government officials) are doing."

The spokesman also stated, "Hippies are gone and Yippies are passe. So we're calling ourselves Zippies because we've got lots of zip."

One YIP Conference delegate, according to the article, advised, after the Conference, that his movement has been quiet too long. He said the Madison Conference was decided, in part, to "get at moving again."

Second source advised on January 13, 1972, that the official Conference attendees made up a list showing their names and addresses and causes which they represented. This list will be used as a ready-reference by the attendees for the purpose of communicating with one another and to insure that their organizing efforts for the Miami action are progressing satisfactorily. The attendees hope to be a driving force behind a successful Miami turn-out.

A third source, who has provided reliable information in the past, advised on January 4, 1972, that the meeting scheduled to take place at the First Baptist Church, 911 E. Ogden Street, on January 9, 1972, had been changed to take place at the Jewish Community Center, 1400 North Prospect Avenue, Milwaukee.

First source advised that the National Conference of the War Tax Resistance and the War Resisters League commenced at approximately 7:30 p.m., January 7, 1972, at the First Baptist Church, 911 E. Ogden Street, Milwaukee. Approximately 36 individuals were in attendance, which included representatives from the following areas:

New York City, New York
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
Kansas City, Missouri
Chicago, Illinois
Syracuse, New York
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

First source further advised that [redacted] from [redacted] Source advised that [redacted] passed out a leaflet which read as follows:

Is the war in Indochina winding down?? Pres. Nixon would have us think so. The escalated bombing of North Vietnam has clearly demonstrated to us that the American government (as many of us already knew) has been waging a new type of war - an AIR WAR -- directed by complex electronic systems.

Protest has increasingly grown over the past ten years to such an extent that the government realized it had to make a move to quiet the American people. It began withdrawing American troops so that fewer American men would die. A new phase of the war began -- Vietnamization. Asians are being paid and armed by our government to fight their Asian brothers and sisters. 160,000 Americans still remain in Indochina and if we are to believe our Pres., about 30,000-60,000 will remain in Indochina for some time. In order to show the "enemy" that we weren't winding down the war (while telling us differently) our government has stepped up the AIR WAR. Every day thousands of bombs fall on the people of Indochina. Recently, there was a five-day escalation of the bombings over North Vietnam. Pres. Nixon has made it clear that as soon as it looks as though the "enemy" is getting out of line the bombings will be escalated.

While the nature of the war in Indochina has been changing, there have also been new developments within the anti-war movement. Many people are convinced that more local actions are needed rather than putting a lot of time and money trying to organize a mass rally once every four to six months. Many people believe that the anti-war movement should be more decentralized. Many people believe that the anti-war movement should relate more to what caused the war in Indochina; to what causes the Arms Race; to what causes the American government to support dictatorships (like the Pakistan gov't. dictatorship); and also to what causes the problems that exist in this country.

War Tax Resistance began two years with the idea that the anti-war movement must go beyond protest and move into non-cooperation and at the same time start building something new. Gradually our ranks have grown. As the movement has grown, so have we. We realized that we must do more than suggest that people stop paying war taxes. We realized that people must start using their refused taxes for local community needs. So we suggested that war tax refusers join together and start Alternative Funds.

War Tax Resistance now has the organizational framework (over 190 WTR Centers) to grow into a mass movement. The AIR WAR and confusion within the anti-war movement as to what tactics to take now should cause war tax resistance to spread. However, how are we going to build a real mass movement?? How do we get massive publicity and still be decentralized and build a movement??

I think we can build war tax resistance rallies all across the country on April 15th. Focus of these rallies should be on the AIR WAR and resistance - noncooperation with the death machine and most important - the use of the refused war taxes for life serving purposes. To build these rallies will require a lot of hard work in the next few months. This work should begin immediately all across the country with: meetings, literature tables, street theatre, interviews, vigils, information tables at IRS, press conferences, etc. These small actions should be leading towards bigger actions on April 15th. People who are already resisting could come forward at press conferences or other public actions and call on their fellow citizens to join them. Alternative Funds could be started. Every organization which is involved in the movement for social change should be strongly encouraged to join this campaign and to participate actively in it. The Catholic Peace Fellowship has already joined WTR in this campaign.

The type of campaign I an envisioning must begin as soon as possible and continue throughout February and March and into April, culminating on April 15th in actions of resistance all across the country. These actions must be more than protests but actions of resistance that show a road towards a new society. This movement, if it is grass-roots, will have the momentum (at least it should) to keep on going after April 15th. Dr. George Wald said that there are now thousands resisting war taxes but if we are really serious about being effective we must be hundreds and even millions of people openly resisting. That means that all of us must work hard and convince others to work hard.

Besides the actions I suggested above we could also begin tours of the country. We should have two or more people traveling by the first of February in every region of the country. It would be better if these people lived in the region they were traveling in but people from National WTR are willing to go anyplace people feel they are needed. These travelers should visit every peace center they can and get commitments from them to work on the WTR campaign. They should help get WTR Centers started, help existing WTR Centers get more support, and help start Alternative Funds. They should have lots of literature with them.

Advertisements should be taken out in major newspapers and magazines calling for a moratorium of war taxes in 1972. These ads could be sponsored by a long list of organizations and people. We could also encourage our Sponsors of WTR to write articles in publications. We should be promoting the new WTR book, AIN'T GONNA PAY FOR WAR NO MORE". We should have NEW buttons, stickers and posters promoting APRIL 15 - MORATORIUM ON WAR TAXES DAY (or whatever we decide to call it). We should get these out as soon as possible so people will be talking about it for some time.

All of the things I an talking about for promoting the campaign will costs lots of money. National WTR already has a debt of over $6,000. We need to cut this out completely and raise lots of money. Maybe this could be done through concerts around the country and other benefits for WTR. We should raise enough money so that we can help other WTR Centers start campaigns in their town, cities. We need to raise enough money so that we can print thousands of leaflets and other promotions such as the buttons, stickers and posters I mention above. We need brainstorming how we are going to raise this money.

I have written this ????(whatever you want to call it) to give some direction to the conference this weekend. I hope that when we leave this weekend we will all be going back to our communities ready to work. Hopefully, this document you have just finished reading will help.

WAR TAX RESISTANCE;
WAR RESISTERS LEAGUE

Second source advised that this meeting began with a dinner and was followed by short organizational meetings to discuss what would take place during the conference.

Third source advised that the main theme of Friday evenings events was the formulation of plans for the participants to be able to return to local areas to establish actions to withhold taxes to oppose the war in Southeast Asia. Source advised that the Friday evening session ended at approximately 8:45 p.m.

Fourth source, who has provided reliable information in the past, advised on January 8, 1972, that the conference reconvened at 10:15 a.m. at the First Baptist Church, 911 E. Ogden Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Approximately 40 individuals were in attendance which included the following areas being represented:

New York City, New York
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
Columbus, Ohio
Chicago, Illinois
Cleveland, Ohio

Among those observed in attendance were [redacted] b6 b7C from Milwaukee, [redacted] of the WTR from New York City; and [redacted] acted as group discussion leaders, as well as [redacted] during the workshop period.

All sources advised on January 8, 1972, that the conference broke into several workshop groups during the Saturday morning conference and the general discussion was on local organizing throughout the U. S. and possible future plans of the War Tax Resistance were as follows:

1. In Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, plan to disrupt air force bases with the disruption being attempts to prevent individuals from entering and leaving the various air force bases.

   Also, the dropping of leaflets from airplanes and tall buildings urging tax resistance.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

2. At McGuire Air Force Base in New Jersey, some sort of action on either April 15 or 17, 1972, in connection with tax resistance.

3. Disruption of Internal Revenue Service Offices in Cleveland, Ohio, on April 15 or 17, 1972.

4. During the course of the Republican Convention to be held in San Diego, California, during the latter part of summer of 1972, a setting up of a sort of "reserection city" based on the similar reserection city which was set up in Washington, D. C., during the poor peoples' march on Washington.

5. The Harrisburg Defense Committee is attempting to set up marches at various cities in the immediate vicinity of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on January 17, 1972, and from these cities march to Harrisburg. The participants, while en route to Harrisburg, are to stop in the various towns and talk with people about resisting through taxes.

6. On April 22, 1972, a national action throughout the United States regarding tax resistance. In this connection, on a local level, various demonstrations or actions should be held on April 15 or 17, with respect to tax resistance.

7. Articles should be placed in various newspapers throughout the U. S., urging people to resist through the withholding of taxes.

All sources reported on January 8, 1972, that brief mention was made concerning the WTR participation in the San Diego Republican Convention where anti-war activists and other people will be setting up a revolutionary city. It was pointed out that this would be a good opportunity to educate the masses concerning war tax resistance and let people know the alternatives to taxes that will be used to finance a war.

It was also pointed out that the possibility exists that this same type revolutionary or resurection city would be set up in Miami during the Democratic National Convention and that future consideration should be given to having WTR people in these revolutionary or reserection cities to try and influence the other anti-war groups to get behind the War Tax Resistance.

All sources reported that during the afternoon session held at the Baptist Church, 911 E. Ogden, some of the topics discussed were ways to disrupt the Internal Revenue Service, one of these being that individuals should take money from their savings accounts and put it into safety deposit boxes so that when taxes are withheld the Internal Revenue Service can not attach your bank accounts and that the banks can not use the interest earned to help fund the United States in their possible war related activities.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Another item to disrupt the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) was to fill out W-4 forms and claim more dependants than you actually have and when confronted by IRS fill out further W-4 forms and tie them up in a mound of paper work.

Other proposals set forth were to set up tables in front of the IRS Offices and pass out War Tax Resistance literature and to confront employees of the IRS before, during, and after work and attempt to furnish them with tax resistance literature. Attempt to pursuade individuals to send letters to IRS stating they will not pay taxes unless they can be guaranteed money will not be used for war purposes. Will attempt to elicit support for Harrisburg Defense Committee, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, through organized marches to Harrisburg from nearby cities. During marches stops will be made en route to Harrisburg Police Department and speeches given concerning WTR movement.

Attempt to establish action at main post offices in major cities throughout the United States at the time of deadline for filing income taxes. Advise individuals to refuse to pay their telephone bills which the Government uses to support the war.

Sources also advised on January 8, 1972, that the evening session of Saturday's conference consisted of an informal folk concert which ended at approximately 10:30 p.m.

Fourth source advised on January 9, 1972, that the War Tax Resistance (WTR) and War Resisters League (WRL) National Conference reconvened at approximately 10:30 a.m. at the Jewish Community Center, 1400 North Prospect, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, with approximately 28 individuals in attendance.

Source advised that a breakfast was held prior to this meeting at the Jewish Community Center from 9:30 until 10:30.

First source advised that from 10:30 to 12:30, short workshops were held to make recommendations and evaluations concerning what was discussed during Saturday's workshops. Source advised that the main theme of the conference was to organize at your own local level and that participants should return to their local areas in an effort to organize demonstrations at the Internal Revenue Centers and major cities on either April 15 or 17, 1972, and that when the date is finalized the day should be known as "R-Day," for resist, refuse and reform.

WAR TAX RESISTANCE;
WAR RESISTERS LEAGUE

Second source advised on January 9, 1972, that participants again indicated efforts should be made to establish a "revolutionary city" at the Republican National Convention, San Diego, California, along the same lines as resurection city which was established in Washington, D. C. during the poor peoples' march on Washington.

Third source advised on January 9, 1972, that participants indicated efforts would be made to centralize the tax resisters movement by taking control from the local level in order to establish and organize more national actions on the local level.

Third source further indicated that attempts would be made to establish pickets at the H & R Block Companies throughout the major U.S. cities as H & R Block Company prepares tax returns for millions of Americans.

First source advised that in conclusion, [redacted] stated that the War Tax Resistance organization was approximately $6,000 in debt and efforts will be made in the near future to collect pledges from members throughout the country. Source advised that [redacted] the meeting on Sunday, and he stated in closing that a detailed mailing list of all in attendance would be furnished in the near future and that this mailing list should be used to keep in better touch and to coordinate WTR activities for April of 1972.

ReBuairtel 11/2/71, captioned "Demonstrations During the Forthcoming Political Campaign."

The Youth International Party (YIP) at a "Pre Conference," held 1/7-9/72, at Madison, Wisconsin, discussed plans for protest tactics at the Democratic National Convention, Miami, Florida, 7/~~24-31~~/72. This activity includes a "National Che Guevara Appreciation Day" on 7/27/72 and a "Zippie Party Freak Circus," on 7/27-31/72.

In addition to the YIP, other protest groups may possibly attempt to create disturbances at the convention.

In view of these developments, all recipients are to be continuously alert for plans of the YIP and other dissident groups regarding protest activity at the Democratic National Convention.

All offices promptly alert sources for information relating to efforts by militant groups or individuals to create disturbances or organize demonstrations at the convention.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL ~~PARTY~~

"DON'T TAKE YOUTH FOR GRANITE"

In a series of meetings in Madison, Wisconsin, January 7-9, the Youth International Party (better known as the Yippies) planned marijuana smoking demonstrations, discussed a forthcoming "tribal council" meeting, deliberated on activities targeted against the 1972 Democratic Party National Convention, and revealed their "candidate" for President of the United States. Approximately 30 Yippie regional leaders attended the sessions. ~~(CONFIDENTIAL)~~ (u)

Attendees set May 1, 1972, as "Joint Day," when Yippies will conduct demonstrations in various state capitals to protest state laws prohibiting the use of marijuana. (In contemporary slang, a marijuana cigarette is known as a "joint.") It was also decided that a Yippie "tribal council" would be conducted in Washington, D. C., July 1-4, 1972, during which a marijuana "smoke-in" would be held to further protest antimarijuana legislation. ~~(CONFIDENTIAL)~~ (u)

Programs concerning demonstrations at the 1972 Democratic Party National Convention in Miami, Florida, were discussed. To kick off the action, the Yippies have designated the convention's opening day (July 10) as "Che Guevara Day" to display their support of the communist revolution in Cuba. This will be the first of a five-day sideshow to be known as "Zippie Party Freek Circus," an action aimed at drawing large numbers of young people to Miami as a show of political strength. Yippie representatives from each state will bring a rock to Miami, where a mock convention will nominate one of these stones for President of the United States. The 1972 Yippie political slogan: "Don't take youth for granite." ~~(CONFIDENTIAL)~~ (u)

The official Yippie banner for the Miami demonstrations will portray a youth clenching a rock in his hand, over the caption "Cast Your Vote." Yippies will identify themselves by sporting red headbands bearing a black letter "Z" (not "Y"). It was decided that to "confuse the Establishment" the Yippies would refer to themselves as Hippies and Zippies (perhaps explaining the letter "Z"). (~~CONFIDENTIAL~~)(U)

REMOVAL OF RUBIN AND HOFFMAN

The Madison conference accused Yippie leaders Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman of "discriminative elitism," and the two were reported to have been stripped of their party membership. Since neither of these zany protest veterans was present at the meetings to defend himself against the charges of falling victim to his own publicity and of lording himself over others, their membership status and leadership capacities remain uncertain. YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

NATIONAL CONVENTION HIGHLIGHTS

The Music Hall in Houston, Texas, was the setting December 28 - January 1 for the eleventh national convention of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA), youth arm of the communist Socialist Workers Party (SWP) (Volume I, Number 36). The 1,240 registrants included 694 YSA members and 128 SWP members. Also attending were 11 guestsfrom England. Sweden, Japan, New Zealand, and Czechoslovakia. (~~CONFIDENTIAL~~)(U)

In the international report presented at the opening session of the convention, YSA announced a soon-to-be initiated campaign to work for the freeing of political prisoners in Latin American and South American countries, particularly Argentina. To implement this program, YSA is organizing the United States Latin American Justice Committee, with chapters to be formed in each local branch of YSA. Recruitment of new members for YSA will also be a goal for this committee. (~~CONFIDENTIAL~~)(U)

Subsequent sessions revealed YSA plans concerning:

Political Activity. The Young Socialists for [redacted] (YSJP) will concentrate on gaining the college vote for SWP Presidential and Vice Presidential nominees [redacted] and [redacted] by sending YSJP promotional teams to the Nation's campuses. b6 b7C

Chicano Problems. YSA will intensify its efforts to assist Chicano students and migrant farm workers. The Chicanos will be encouraged to discard their allegiance to the two-party electoral system in favor of seeking a political voice through the YSA and SWP.

Black Problems. YSA members were urged to work with the black element in prisons. Formation of a Black Task Force was discussed, with New York City, Detroit, Chicago, and Los Angeles selected as target cities for a campaign to organize blacks along YSA political lines. ~~(CONFIDENTIAL)~~ (U)

YSA and SWP are operating in the black, according to a financial report given at the convention. During the past 18 months, the SWP fund drive raised $350,000. A goal of $100,000 has been set by SWP for the next six months, with pledges of $4,000 already received. YSA announced that about half of its funds come from sources other than YSA members. The report revealed that during 1971 over $13,000 had been raised through fees paid to YSA speakers. College honoraria were cited as an important source of YSA funds. ~~(CONFIDENTIAL)~~ (U)

On the final day of the convention a secret election was held to select the national officers of YSA. A subsequent public announcement identified the winners as: [redacted] b6 b7C

CONFERENCE RESULTS

During December, 1971, a Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), National Industrial Conference was held in Chicago, Illinois, with approximately 80 delegates from throughout the United States in attendance. The economic situation in the Nation and the political activities of the CPUSA were highlighted. ~~(CONFIDENTIAL)~~ (U)

Phases I and II of the Administration's current economic policy were attacked, and it was reported that President Nixon would probably announce a Phase III, outlawing strikes by labor unions. This was projected as an attempt by the President to destroy organized labor. CPUSA members were told to strive to produce work stoppages in industry as a means of protesting the current limitations on salary increases. Delegates were also urged to support the promotion of CPUSA rank-and-file members into union leadership positions through the establishment of the CPUSA-organized National Coordinating Committee for Trade Union Action and Democracy in every shop possible. (~~CONFIDENTIAL~~)

CPUSA National Committee member Danny Rubin reported that the auto, steel, electrical, and transportation industries have been selected by the CPUSA as concentration points for recruitment for party membership. Each CPUSA district and industrial club was ordered to formulate plans for recruitment activities for 1972. (~~CONFIDENTIAL~~)

Pomerance Predicts Quiet Convention

By FRED BARGER
Herald Staff Writer

Significant political reforms and well-trained police officers should keep July's Democratic National convention in Miami Beach smooth-running and peaceful, Police Chief Rocky Pomerance predicted Thursday.

The beefy Beach lawman, speaking before the Miami Beach Chamber of Commerce at the Delano Hotel, said he is convinced that "political" violence as a tool has kind of peaked. It's become kind of counter-productive, to use this year's Washington word."

Pomerance, veteran of the trouble-free 1968 Republican National Convention and designated by Gov. Reubin Askew as chief law enforcement official at the July 9-15 Democrat conclave, said there is little chance of a repeat of the violence that marred the Democrats' 1968 convention in Chicago.

HE SAID that reforms such as giving 18-year-olds the right to vote and making Florida Marine Patrol offi- the delegate selection process more democratic should help calm emotions for the convention. The Democrats also are not the incumbent party this election, and Pomerance said dissent usually is directed at the party in power.

He said that the more than $500,000 in federal and local money being spent to train and equip his 250-man force plus some Metro, Miami, Florida Highway Patrol and ~~cers~~ would produce law officers able to bring off "effective and humane policing of the convention."

He said each man will receive 90 to 100 hours of classes, conducted by Florida International University, to learn "an attitude of psychological evaluation of crowd control," with about half the training devoted to behavioral psychology.

Pomerance, who repeatedly has said delegates will be treated like VIPs since "they're all VIPs, otherwise they wouldn't be there," called for other police departments in the state to join his force in being especially courteous during the convention.

"IN THIS particular convention, I would say that some youngster with hair down to his shoulders and barefoot may be a delegate," Pomerance said.

"I would hate for our officers to look at every youngster in sandals and long hair and see a potential bomb thrower."

Pomerance said that some of the sophisticated communications and surveillance equipment to be purchased with the convention grant will be used to watch people from a distance and avoid any unnecessary personal inconvenience in screening persons entering the Convention Hall area.

Beach Chief Sees Smooth Convention

By BONNIE GRANAT

Rocky Pomerance, Beach police chief and head of security for the Democratic National Convention this summer, told the Miami Beach Chamber of Commerce yesterday he didn't like having to be a part of a political convention.

"It's sad that the police have to have so active a part in a political convention" Pomerance said.

"I hope that four years from now police won't have to be so security conscious," he added.

But since they must be, the Miami Beach police Department is preparing for the convention like no other police force has prepared for anything before.

Pattern for preparation is the method the department used in 1968 Republican National Convention held in Miami Beach.

Police met with dissident groups before the convention and planned security precautions carefully.

This time, however, Miami Beach has additional help in the form of a federal grant to help give police the training needed for preparation for the convention.

Almost $400,000 was granted to the city for convention preparations.

Rocky Pomerance

Only one per cent of the funds are for armaments, Pomerance pointed out.

Members of the Beach police force are attending classes, seminars and workshops throughout the nation.

They're studying crowd control, the psychology of the political dissidents and are learning ways to cope with potential disorder without confrontation.

"The mere fact that police activity and security arrangements are such a conventions is discouraging to me," Pomerance said.

"But we'll be ready, and we're hopeful that things go as smoothly as they did in 1968," he added.

Pomerance said that the vital factor at political 18-year-old vote, the non-incumbency of the Democratic party and the recent delegate selection advances within the Democratic Party were other factors that could help the Convention go off without a snag.

JACK ROBERTS

Rocky is planning smooth convention

July is a long way off but I asked Rocky Pomerance this question: What are your men going to do if 5,000 people throwing rocks and swinging clubs try to break up the Democratic National Convention?

The Miami Beach police chief took a deep breath and said he'd rather take a positive approach. A lot of things have changed since Chicago, said Pomerance — the Democratic Party has changed, the method of selecting delegates has changed and there's a wider representation of people in the party than ever before.

In short, Pomerance was trying to say that the elements which caused the horrendous riot at the Democratic Convention in Chicago don't exist at the moment.

I said I'd buy that, but what if things change between now and July 9th? What if the young people find themselves a new underdog champion and sic 5,000 people on Convention Hall?

Well, said Pomerance, starting next month he's sending almost all of his 300-person force, including civilians, to school. They'll undergo 90 hours of physical and psychological training under the direction of Florida International University professors. So will key middle-management people from other police forces in Dade that are being asked to help in policing the convention.

Won't give figure on troop strength

How many men does Rocky expect to have at the convention? He'd rather not say. "If I release a figure that sounds high it will be an irritant," said Pomerance. "If it sounds too low, they (the would-be rioters) will say we can take that." The closest Pomerance would come to committing himself was to say that he required "several hundred" outside men to help police the Republican convention here in 1968.

I kept trying to get back to my hypothetical 5,000 rioters, but Pomerance kept knocking me off balance with reasonable answers. He said that a policeman attacked would do whatever police have historically done.

Did that mean they'll start cracking heads with nightsticks? "No," said Pomerance, "I'm not going to be drawn into that. They'll use whatever defensive techniques are available.

One study block in the 90-hour police training course, which is being paid for out of a $400,000 federal grant, is devoted to studies of people who have used violent protest in the past and why they protested. Pomerance believes that if police understand the people they're dealing with that violence is less likely.

Where will protestors be allowed to demonstrate? "Right in front of Convention Hall," said Pomerance. "Right next to the lovely hibiscus trellis." (The flowers, however, will be entwined in a chain link fence — hence the use of the word trellis).

Men will receive college credits

Pomerance said he thinks his men will be grateful for the training they get, especially when it's determined that they'll receive college credits for their work.

"We've handled plenty of big conventions," said Pomerance. "What makes this different from the others is the press. Everyone will be on camera. The men learned this four years ago and I think they're in the right frame of mind. I'm very lucky. I have so many men who gained a lot of expertise working the Republican convention. They'll be directing things this time."

During the 1968 Republican convention in Miami Beach, a riot broke out in Miami's Liberty City area — a riot blamed largely on the fact that national TV cameras were already on hand to record the scene. I didn't discuss this with Pomerance, however. That's not his affair.

The Miami Beach police chief, an amiable bear of a man, is handling himself quite well. He has made his plans and will reinforce those plans with special training. He doesn't brag about his plans because his whole idea is to maintain a low profile . . . a difficult task for a man Pomerance's size.

I'm happy he thinks we won't have trouble. I just hope he's right.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION - 1972
MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA
JULY 10-14, 1972

On 1/21/72, a planning meeting was held at Miami Beach Convention Hall for the purpose of developing ideas for the curriculum for the training of officers who will be on duty during the upcoming convention.

The following individuals were in attendance:

ROCKY POMERANCE, Chief of Police, Miami Beach Police Department;

Major [redacted] Miami Beach Police Department;

Captain [redacted] (NA), Miami Beach Police Department - Assistant Project Director;

Captain [redacted] Training Officer, Miami Beach Police Department;

The meeting was a general planning session with discussion and ideas leading towards method and content with the main idea in mind of trying to indoctrinate the officers who will attend the proposed training to alternate responses other than the use of force and violence.

The meeting was definitely worthwhile as a basis for continued preparation of a curriculum, however, it appears that there is a great deal more work to be done before the proposed training plan will be ready to go into operation.

Plans under way at savings and loan building

Demos open convention headquarters at Beach

By LOUIS SALOME
Miami News Politics Writer

The Democratic Party opened its national convention headquarters today in Miami Beach at the Washington Federal Savings and Loan Association building, 1701 Meridian Ave., and at the Bermuda Apartments next door.

The buildings are located behind the convention center where the Democrats will nominate a presidential candidate during the July 9-14 convention.

Richard Murphy, convention director, said there will be six or seven persons working permanently from the headquarters and that he will be here about three days every week.

He said headquarters will move to the Fontainebleau Hotel one month before the convention, but that the present space will be retained during that time.

Murphy said the planning and financing of this convention is better at this point than during other Democratic Convention in recent years.

He said full-page ads for a national convention program now are being sold at $10,000 each.

George Bristol, convention finance director said 60 ads already have been sold and 75 to 30 ads are expected to be sold. "We expect to net $500,000 to $600,000 from it, if we're lucky."

Bristol said money raised from this advertising must be used for convention activity, not to pay the party's huge deficit or for campaigning.

Murphy said the party intends to pay its convention bills in full.

At previous conventions, a number of people were authorized to spend money and debts piled up, he explained. Only he and the convention controller, Andrew Shea, can authorize spending for this convention, however.

Murphy said construction plans for inside the hall are being made. He said all state delegations will be assigned to hotels by Feb. 24 and convention officers will be announced by Feb. 15.

In the past, most of his planning was not done until two or three months before the convention. The faster pace is due to reformed party and convention rules, he said.

"To make it (the convention) more democratic takes longer and costs more money."

Murphy said he expects at least 50,000 people to come to Miami Beach for the convention or convention — related activities. This includes 7,200 newsmen.

He said press access to the floor of the convention will be more restricted than before to avoid confusion and distractions.

The number of aides to governors, presidential candidates and state party chairmen also will be limited in their access to the floor.

He said the real problem on the floor has been with the lights and back-up men usually accompanying television and radio reporters, and not with newspaper reporters. He said the aim of the restrictions is not to limit coverage but to avoid confusion.

Each convention session will run from 7 p.m. to midnight. If necessary, Murphy said, business will be conducted in the afternoons, but these generally will be left open.

Buy U.S. Savings Bonds Regularly on the Payroll Savings Plan

As you have indicated in your write-up, New Left activity in the Miami Division peaked sometime in May, 1970, yet the Miami area poses a potential for outbreak of serious violence under the direction of radical New Left organizations in the near future. The target for such activity would be your college and university campuses in the area, the summer White House at Key Biscayne, and the Democratic National Convention (DNC) to be held in Miami Beach in July, 1972. The instruments for such activity would include the Student Mobilization Committee (SMC) at Miami-Dade Junior College, South Florida Peace Action Coalition, and the two underground publications in the Miami area. Additional stimulants could possibly come from developing organizations within Florida and already established New Left organizations outside of Florida, such as the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), the Weatherman organization, and the Youth International Party (YIPPIES).

General indications of stepped-up agitation on the campuses by New Left organizations have been stimulated by the opening of school last Fall and the extension of voting rights to persons aged 18. Another factor that may influence campus unrest is the publication of the "Pentagon Papers" and the indictments growing out of the theft of these documents. Militants and radicals will attempt to justify their increased anti-war activity and stepped-up violent revolutionary activity in the United States through these papers.

The Weatherman group has gone underground, and there are a number of Weatherman members who are Bureau fugities. Instructions set forth in Bureau airtel to all offices, dated 5/13/70, captioned "NEW LEFT MOVEMENT - VIOLENCE, IS - MISCELLANEOUS (WEATHERMAN)" and 10/1/70, and 6/15/71, captioned "NEW LEFT MOVEMENT - VIOLENCE, IS - MISCELLANEOUS (EXTREMIST)" must be closely adhered to with respect to the investigation of organizations and individuals that may be organized within your division and follow the Weatherman ideology.

each office of the new format for the monthly airtel to the Bureau which is to contain the identities and locations of communes, total number of origin cases on individual extremists, informant coverage, programs against New Left-oriented communes and organizations, and local or Federal prosecutive action initiated against New Left extremists. A review of your files indicates these instructions are being complied with. A review of your files and communications to the Bureau in this regard indicates that there are no communes, organizations, or individuals adhering to the Weatherman or New Left extremist ideologies within your division. It is felt that the Miami area offers a haven for the New Left extremists and in view of the forthcoming DNC, you should instruct all Agents to be alert for the formation of communes and Weatherman-oriented organizations and institute aggressive investigation in compliance with current Bureau instructions.

New Left-oriented communes are known to be havens for revolutionary, violence-prone individuals, including Weatherman fugitives and other New Left fugitives. Therefore, any indication that individuals are living in communal existence within your territory should be immediately investigated, in accordance with instructions contained in Bureau teletype to all offices, dated 4/17/70, and Bureau airtel to all offices, dated 5/13/70, both captioned "NEW LEFT MOVEMENT - VIOLENCE".

In this regard, as you are aware, a series of demonstrations were held in April and early May, 1971, in Washington, D. C., which included many students and other individuals from all over the country who vowed to shut down the Nation's capital. Despite their lack of success, leaders of the New Left stated they would return to Washington, D. C., in the near future, with violence in mind, and plans for such activity were formulated and executed in the Fall of 1971. You should stay alert to developing sources among activist students who have a propensity for violence and who would, in all probability, participate in demonstrations throughout the country and specifically in the Nation's capital. Such sources are vital to insure that the Miami Office is aware of each situation and in a position to advise the Bureau of extremist activities and plans before they actually occur.

Concerning the Student Mobilization Committee, Miami-Dade Junior College, North (SMC-MDJC) (MM 100-16495), your file indicates that a news article was published in the campus paper, dated 11/24/71, leaving the anti-war activists one choice - the SMC on the campus. This file further indicates one of the leaders in this organization to be a member of the Young Socialist Alliance, the youth organization of the Socialist Workers Party, which has been cited by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In view of this information, you should immediately request Bureau authority to conduct an investigation of this organization, in accordance with existing instructions, and upon receipt of such authority, you should fully develop all information concerning the true character of this organization, in accordance with Section 87B, page 12, of the Manual of Instructions.

You have indicated that you have investigations pending concerning two New Left underground-type publications. These are "The Daily Planet" and the "Free Press". A review of the file concerning these publications indicates the papers are being reviewed for New Left activity and copies forwarded to the Bureau, at their request.

You should continue your review of these publications for New Left activity within your division, as well as indications of New Left activity elsewhere, and initiate investigation or inform appropriate field divisions where indicated.

In addition to your reviewing these publications and submitting copies to the Bureau, you should intensify your investigation to develop information concerning the nature of the publications, location of publishing facilities, ascertain circulations, source of funds, identities of leading activists, connection with New Left organizations, and extent of domestic or foreign subversive influences.

A communication suitable for dissemination, containing the above facts, should be submitted to the Bureau for each publication. This communication should contain your recommendation for further investigation as warranted, pursuant to the provisions set forth in Section 87B of the Manual of Instructions.

As you are aware, the underground press are the propaganda outlets of the New Left and frequently contain information regarding future plans of organizations connected with the movement. While such information does not in any way supplant that available from live informants, it has provided vital information to aid in the targeting of developing Potential Security Informants (PSIs) and sources.

During your investigation of these two publications, you must be most discreet and conduct no investigation which would reflect adversely upon the FBI. All sources contacted by you should thoroughly understand that the Bureau's interest is in underground publications which advocate civil disobedience, violence, or other extremist activity, and that the Bureau's interest does not constitute an infringement upon the freedom of the press.

In your letter to the Bureau, dated 10/15/71, captioned "NEW LEFT MOVEMENT, INTERNAL SECURITY - NEW LEFT", you advised that New Left organizations within your territory no longer exist and that since commencement of the Fall, 1971, school term, previous groups failed to reorganize.

In view of the former New Left activity in your territory and in view of the forthcoming DNC and indications of disruptive activities during this convention, you must closely follow these matters and insure that cases are opened on new groups; Bureau authority secured to conduct investigations; and information developed concerning identities of members, aims and objectives, and activities of each organization. It is imperative that member-informants be developed in any developing groups so that the Bureau is completely knowledgeable regarding their activities.

Information has been received indicating that a fifth contingent of the Venceremos Brigade (VB) is being formulated with expected departure in February or March, 1972. Accordingly, you should expend every effort to identify those VB members within your territory to insure that investigations are promptly instituted regarding these individuals, in accordance with instructions contained in Bureau airtels to all offices dated 5/15/70, and 3/11/71, captioned "VENCEREMOS BRIGADE, INTERNAL SECURITY - NEW LEFT". It is noted that there are only two pending VB cases [redacted] and [redacted] within your division. In handling these cases as well as future VB investigations, you should utilize the general guide set forth in Bureau airtel to all offices, dated 12/10/71, captioned "VENCEREMOS BRIGADE, INTERNAL SECURITY - NEW LEFT", when considering subjects, whose main activity has been connected with the VB, for the ADEX. Development of informants during investigations of VB members must receive high priority. There is an urgent need for informants who can provide information regarding the VB on a national policy-making level and to place individuals with possible future contingents of the VB.

INFORMANT PROGRAM - NEW LEFT AND RELATED REVOLUTIONARY ORGANIZATIONS

The Bureau's involvement in the security field is primarily that of an intelligence-gathering organization. As such, it is essential that a core of quality informants capable of providing, in advance, pertinent timely information be available. Without such quality informant coverage, we cannot hope to fulfill our responsibities in this most vital area of the Bureau's operation.

Personnel of your office engaged in security-type investigations must be fully cognizant of their responsibilities in this regard and each must participate fully in the development of quality-producing informants.

At the time of the last inspection, you were handling one Security Informant (SI) and two PSIs in this area of New Left investigations. At the time of this inspection, you continued to operate the same SI but have reduced your number of PSIs to one. You have one source under development who is furnishing information on New Left activity and possesses considerable potential. Your SI has been rated excellent and the one Bureau-approved PSI is rated good. It has been noted in your write-up concerning your New Left investigations, your SI and PSI are affording coverage of the organizations' activities but are not members of the respective groups. In addition, you are receiving excellent intelligence from confidential sources reporting on New Left activities on various campuses. This indicates a need for the development of more PSIs capable of becoming members and reporting on the New Left movement and student agitation within these organizations and on your college campuses

[redacted] b6 b7C b7D b7E

[redacted] You should point out to the Agents handling security matters the constant need for additional SI coverage that can provide information of an intelligence nature that can be disseminated to responsible agencies, in advance of such agitation. The acquisition of additional SI coverage in all phases of your security operations should be accented upon and stressed at all times. All informants developed by your office to cope with your investigative responsibilities in the security field should be the best available and all development should be in accordance with existing Bureau policy. Special emphasis should be paid to the development of SIs and PSIs who will be in a position to provide information concerning any dissident groups coming to the Miami area to encourage any disruptive activities during the DNC. In this regard, you should make contacts at various hotels and motels, where such individuals are staying while in the Miami area, who can help you in keeping you informed of their movements. Additional informants should be developed among area youth leaders, automobile rental agencies, and with the "Miami Switchboard", a New Left communication center which is further discussed hereinafter, to be specifically targeted toward the obtaining of additional information concerning the disruptive activities of New Left groups.

Administrative Handling

A review of the files maintained on your informants and confidential sources furnishing information on New Left activities, indicates these sources are productive and producing valuable information.

You should instruct responsible personnel to complete this form at the earliest possible date, which should be initialed by the Agent and supervisor upon its completion. b7D b7E

With respect to [redacted] you should complete your investigation in this matter and promptly request Bureau authority to designate this individual as an approved PSI.

Continue to insure that justification letters (FD-401), relating to informants, are submitted two weeks prior to the expiration date, in accordance with the Manual of Instructions, Section 107, page 15.

You should also continue to insure that personnel handling SIs reporting on New Left activity are complying with instructions contained in SAC Letter 71-9(C), dated 5/4/71, and in Bureau letter to all offices, dated 6/30/71, captioned "INFORMANT DESIGNATIONS - SECURITY OF RESIDENT AGENCIES". In particular, background investigation such as addresses, etc., which would in itself tend to compromise an informant or source, should not be put in a communication unless it is a secure teletype. It is noted that prior to these instructions, the FD-401 required that certain background changes be reported therein. You should instruct your personnel that informants and/or sources should be afforded a symbol number designation from the time any attempt is made to develop them regardless of status of development. The Bureau must be advised of the symbol number designations for record-keeping purposes.

INSTRUCTIONS

Planned Activity to Disrupt the DNC, July, 1972, Miami Beach, Florida

The Miami Beach Police Department has been granted LEAA funds in excess of $400,000 in preparation of security responsibility surrounding the DNC scheduled to be held at Miami Beach, July 10-14, 1972. You are aware that the YIPPIES held a secret planning conference on January 7-9, 1972, at Madison, Wisconsin, to lay plans for disruptive maneuvers at the DNC in Miami Beach. You are also aware that information has been received that the May Day Collective were to meet in East Lansing, Michigan, 1/14-16/72, to draw up plans for their disruptive activities at the DNC.

Heretofore the majority of disruptive tactics by the New Left have been directed at the national convention of the political party in office at the time of that convention. This would, of course, refer to the Republican National Convention to be held in San Diego, California, in August, 1972. While New Left activists have indicated that disruptive activities would be held in San Diego, intelligence concerning these activities is in the formative stages at this time.

In view of the obvious direction of radical New Left groups to move on the DNC for disruptive purposes, the Bureau has a paramount responsibility of obtaining, in advance, all plans for disruptive activities at either convention and bringing them to the attention of Federal and local authorities, as well as presenting possible Federal criminal violations to appropriate U. S. Attorneys. The Bureau has advised that highlights of the plans thus far developed have been disseminated to The White House, the Vice President, the Attorney General, Secret Service, and the Defense Intelligence Agency. As the office covering the location of the DNC, it will be your responsibility to insure that prompt and logical investigation is conducted when information is received concerning planned disruptive activity.

To enable your office to operate at maximum efficiency between now and the time of the DNC, you should immediately consider implementing the following:

1. Obtain Bureau authority to assign a code name to correspondence relating to disruptive activities surrounding the DNC. This will prove helpful in saving stenographic time and prompt submission of expeditious teletypes. In this communication you should request Bureau authority to conduct necessary surveys to establish lookouts and observation posts for adequate photographic surveillances at the convention site, if deemed necessary.

Done "MIDEM"

Being Handled by Portion

2. Commence the preparation of photographic albums containing descriptive and subversive characterizations of individuals who can logically be expected to attend and who are identified as activists in the New Left movement. The use of these albums will prove advantageous to the Agents of your office in identifying individuals observed during surveillances as well as provide appropriate characterizations in submitting teletype summaries to the Bureau and eliminate the need for having auxiliary offices submit appropriate characterizations. Done

3. Insure that all local law enforcement offices and military agencies have established appropriate channels to expeditiously handle information furnished them by the Bureau concerning planned disruptive activities of New Left militants. Done

Conversely, insure that all information obtained from local authorities is verified for authenticity prior to reporting to the Bureau. In some instances, this will require within-the-hour verification. Being done

4. You should insure that sufficient copies of the Bureau printed form containing the photographs and identities of New Left fugitives are in the hands of all law enforcement personnel in the area. It is believed that this will prove beneficial to local law enforcement on the streets during the convention and will assist in identifying these individuals who could logically be expected to attend as well as agitate disruption during this convention. Being done

5. Instruct major field offices having New Left activity to alert informants and instruct their Agent personnel to promptly report to the Bureau and Miami any information developed regarding disruptive plans being made for the DNC or identities of New Left activists planning to Done attend. They should be instructed to forward descriptive and subversive characterizations to Miami for incorporation in your album.

6. Instruct appropriate offices to be alert for quality informants who can logically attend any scheduled activity in Miami, who are in a position to furnish valuable intelligence. Insure that individuals recommended can contribute measurably concerning intelligence on disruptive activity and are not merely recommended for the future value such attendance could prove to the informant in the division from which he is sent. In considering an informant's attendance at the DNC, submit recommendations to the Bureau and Miami for authorization. Done

7. Instruct appropriate offices that while a majority of the Bureau's responsibility will be of an intelligence nature, it behooves them to be alert to the possibility of emerging criminal violations during their intelligence investigations concerning any support for disruption at the DNC. It is imperative where possible criminal violations are indicated, such as antiriot laws and civil rights violation, that necessary investigation be conducted to develop pertinent facts, to find witnesses capable to testify regarding such facts, and to obtain pertinent physical evidence, such as tape recordings of speeches, transcripts of news conferences, photographs, etc. Done

During the intelligence-gathering phase, Agents must be particularly alert for the identity of witnesses present during planning sessions who can testify regarding the details of such plans, overt acts, individual suspects involved, and pertinent specific statements made by each subject involved. Recording of such information should be handled in accordance with current Bureau instructions where it appears the information received may be used as testimony. Such information should be obtained in addition to that received from SIs of continuing value thereby alleviating the Bureau of the need to unnecessarily exposing these valuable sources.

8. Where information is developed indicating a possible violation of a criminal statute, a separate case should be opened under the appropriate classification, and the Bureau advised immediately by teletype.

Your indices fails to contain any information identifiable with [redacted]

Inasmuch as the "Miami Switchboard" represents an ideal point for gathering radicals of the New Left during the DNC, you should immediately reopen your investigation of this organization to determine its true character, source of funds, and connection with the New Left. Advise the Bureau of your findings by letterhead memorandum along with your recommendations regarding the possible utilization of the "Miami Switchboard" as a possible contact point by those New Left radicals.

You should also institute investigation of [redacted] to determine his background and activity and submit the results to the Bureau along with your recommendations for further investigation. b6 b7C

You should not consider the above suggestions to be all-inclusive. As the time draws close to the convention date, additional procedures should be placed in effect to insure the Bureau discharges its responsibility in this most important area.

It is not intended that the Bureau is presenting an alarmist viewpoint concerning possible disruptions at the DNC. It will be your responsibility to carefully evaluate all intelligence developed from various offices throughout the country and present them to the responsible local agencies to enable them to handle their security consistent with available intelligence. In this regard, it is pointed out that the disruptions at the 1968 DNC in Chicago, Illinois, were first announced by the YIP organization as a peaceful "Festival of Life" while, in fact, evidence was obtained from Bureau offices throughout the country indicating many of the demonstrators came to Chicago with only one thing in mind -- violent confrontation.

General Instructions

While there is little reported New Left activity within your division at the present time, Agents working security matters in your office must be instructed that the Bureau must be immediately advised of any outbreak of demonstrations or proposed demonstrations within your division. In this regard, you should make certain that all employees of your office are aware that such activities which transpire during late evening are brought to the attention of the Bureau prior to the opening of business at the Seat of Government the following morning. This is extremely important as The White House, the Attorney General, and interested Government agencies rely heavily upon the Bureau to keep them apprised of all extremist and radical New Left activities throughout the United States.

order to develop effective coverage of militant individuals from this group who might come to the convention, efforts should be initiated by receiving offices to develop informants who will be able to travel to San Diego.

The Bureau has instructed that recommendations concerning informants' attendance at the convention should be submitted to the Bureau and San Diego. Specific comments should be made concerning each informant's position in the organization or New Left Movement, code name, mode of travel, and a concise breakdown of estimated expenses. Also include in recommendation estimated number of individuals, including delegates, who will attend convention from informant's immediate area. Recommendations should be submitted as soon as possible in order for the Bureau to evaluate each recommendation.

Convention Draws NAACP Warning

By The Associated Press

A Florida NAACP leader Monday sent a telegram to Democratic National Chairman Lawrence O'Brien warning of a Chicago-like situation at the party's July convention unless Democrats force Miami Beach hotel and motel owners to hire blacks.

Marvin Davies predicted that $500,000 being spent to prepare the city's police force for the convention will not do "one damn bit of good" unless more blacks were hired.

He said the work force in the city's tourist industry should be 15 per cent black before the convention convenes otherwise "I can see another situation like Chicago."

DAVIES, field secretary of the Florida National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, called for spending another $500,000 on "hiring minority employes . . . not just Cubans" who he charged were shutting blacks out of available jobs.

"I'm saying for the cause of peace they better hire some minorities and not just Cubans," he added.

But Edwin Dean, executive director of the Southern Florida Hotel and Motel Association, said the problem was that blacks didn't want to work on Miami Beach.

"BLACKS are fairly fully employed," said Dean. "We have worked with the Urban League to try and hire more blacks but the fact is few are available for employment in hotels.

"We would welcome any assistance the NAACP could give us in recruitment of blacks," Dean said.

Davies said he would ask all the Democratic presidential candidates to support the demands he made in his telegram to O'Brien.

"Lawrence O'Brien must use his leverage to improve minority employment or the $500,000 they spend to beef up the Miami Beach police force is not going to do one damn bit of good," he said.

TALLAHASSEE — Florida Gov. Reubin Askew probably will emphasize the need for national unity rather than make a bitter partisan attack on the Nixon administration when he gives the keynote address at the 1972 Democratic National Convention next July.

Askew's selection as keynote speaker was announced in Washington yesterday by Democratic Party chairman Lawrence O'Brien. The convention is scheduled to open July 9 in Miami Beach.

Askew has never spouted a strident party line. In his 1970 campaign against Republican Gov. Claude Kirk, the dark-horse, 43-year-old candidate from Pensacola won by discussing tax reform issues rather than by making personal attacks.

In announcing the choice, O'Brien said Askew "typifies the high quality of Democratic governors" across the nation.

"In his keynote address, he will be setting the scene for the most open and democratic political convention in history," O'Brien asserted.

Askew's press secretary Don Pride, said that when the governor was informed of his selection, he expressed pleasure and said he "feels it is an honor for himself and for Florida to be assigned this role after only one year in office."

Recently, the man dubbed by some Democratic presidential hopefuls as one of the "new breed" of Dixie leaders spoke at a "New South" symposium in Tampa.

In that speech, he urged southern politicians to stop playing on the fears and prejudices of their constituents. Instead, he said, they should help them overcome those feelings.

In one of his best-known speeches, he discussed the busing of school pupils to achieve racial desegregation. Askew said the way to end busing was to bring about the desegregation of neighborhoods and end "community apartheid."

Every major Democratic presidential hopeful except Alabama Gov. George Wallace has praised the speech. Frontrunning Sen. Edmund Muskie of Maine even wrote for a copy of it. And last Friday night in Ocala, Sen. Edward Kennedy (D-Mass.) quoted extensively from it and said senators who will soon vote in Washington on desegregation issues should take heed of its content.

Askew got the first inkling that he might be selected as keynoter last week when he received a telephone call from Robert Strauss, Democratic Party treasurer.

Strauss once remarked to Askew aides that he viewed the wavy-haired governor as "a man of destiny."

Askew received confirmation of his selection last night as he conferred with aides over the final draft of an address to be made today when the 1972 legislative session convenes here.

Speculation that the teatotaling former state senator would be selected as a vice presidential running-mate immediately ran wild in the state capital when the choice became known.

Askew has endorsed no one for the Democratic presidential nomination, but it had been expected he would do so after Florida's second-in-the-nation presidential primary March 14.

However, informed sources said last night that Askew's selection as keynoter means he will not take sides prior to the July 9-13 convention.

Askew's selection as keynoter also saves him from one possible embarrassment — that he would be a delegate pledged to Wallace. Wallace currently is running ahead of other Democrats in the hot Florida primary campaign. As an at-large delegate, Askew would have been pledged to vote for the winner of the primary on the first ballot.

But now, as keynoter, chances are Askew will not be a delegate.

In recent speeches before Democratic fund-raising dinners in Miami and Jacksonville, Askew has stressed national unity as a higher goal than Democratic party unity.

Aides said that in his keynote address Askew could be expected to emphasize the positive aspects of the campaign rather than mount an attack on the Nixon administration.

Convention To Spotlight Miami

By JOHN PENNEKAMP

FLORIDA has not been in the spotlight of a national Democratic political convention, such as is shaping up for Miami Beach, for 12 years.

That earlier one was in Los Angeles, yet Florida was in the center of the action right through the clean sweep nomination of John F. Kennedy and his acceptance of Lyndon B. Johnson as his running mate.

Pennekamp

Johnson had come to the convention seeking the Presidential nomination. Florida had a favorite son — former Sen. George Smathers. The state's governor, LeRoy Collins, was the convention's permanent chairman.

Interest was added to the complexities by the fact that Smathers was a close friend and protege of his mentor, Johnson, and was regarded as in an excellent trading position: civil rights was to be a major plank in the party's platform and the state held two strongly divided viewpoints — both negative — as to Paul Butler, national Democratic chairman and an arch foe of Smathers.

The dispute centered around whether the state's delegation by resolution should be sharply critical of Butler for preliminary handling of the convention, or soften its attack on him.

CONVENTION followers also looked to Collins as a potential Vice Presidential candidate, given propulsion by his steady exposure as the convention's chairman and his aptness as a speaker. He would make an early address to the convention.

His position was analogous to that into which Gov. Reubin Askew finds himself after selection as the keynoter of this year's convention.

Both were popular throughout the state and had attracted national attention for their performances as governor. As with Collins, Askew has been mentioned for the Vice Presidential nomination since his election, a possibility that was enlarged when he won substantial voter approval of his corporate tax espousal.

HIS PROSPECTS could run into similar complications. In 1960, as now, there were a number of other Presidential candidates looking for an impasse between Kennedy and Johnson that might turn the lightning their way, among them Stuart Symington, Adlai Stevenson and Mike Monroney, not unlike the conglomerate in Florida's upcoming Presidential primary.

It is unlikely that this year's convention will be confronted with the sleek, professional, preliminary planning displayed by the Kennedy faction in 1960.

All of the also-rans-to-be held hopes that Kennedy, whose substantial headstart was conceded, could be stopped. When his formidable number of pledged delegates made it apparent that he would be nominated early, a strenuous effort was made to delay the balloting overnight to give the others an opportunity to work on the delegates.

That failed, and overnight came the decision that Johnson would be nominated for the Vice Presidency. In this he was abetted by his staunch Texas political friend and political marshal, Sam Rayburn, House speaker.

JOHNSON'S decision to accept the second post — which led to his becoming President with the assassination of Kennedy — was a considerable surprise, as was Kennedy's inclusion of him on his ticket.

Johnson, whose senatorial stature was great, was believed to be a No.1 spot man only. Nor was he highly regarded in the Kennedy ranks, especially by the President's brother, Robert F., later to become U.S. attorney general. The quickly remedied schism had found much of its stimulation in the campaign for the top nomination.

THE COLLINS and Smathers prospects faded in the overnight trading.

Said Smathers:

"We learned a lesson.

"If you want to be President, don't wait until the last minute to start making your bid. Lyndon Johnson didn't make up his mind until about six weeks ago. Stuart Symington, Stevenson and Johnson all were 'reluctant' candidates.

"Kennedy went out and fought for it. He won it the hard way. You can win if you fight hard enough."

Want to be a delegate to the Democratic National convention at Miami Beach?

Dade Democratic Chairman Ted Cohen outlined Wednesday the procedures under which 81 delegates will be selected to represent the State of Florida.

Of those, at least 18 will come from the three congressional districts serving the Greater Miami area.

Persons wishing to qualify as a candidate for a delegate seat must file their intentions before Feb. 17 with a member of the Delegate Coordinating Committee.

District caucuses will be held Feb. 26 or March 25, depending on whether the presidential candidate wishes his delegates named before or after the March 14 preference primary for president.

Candidates for delegate seats will be required to specify whom they are backing.

Cohen said all registered Democrats are eligible. However, to serve as a delegate from a specific congressional district — Florida now has 12 districts — the individual must reside in the district he seeks to represent.

A total of 61 delegates will be named to represent the congressional districts. Representation is based on the population of the district. Thus, the 10th district (North Dade and South Broward) will have seven delegates and three alternates; the 11th (Miami Beach-Hialeah) six delegates and four alternates; and the 12th (mid-town Miami to Key West) five delegates and three alternates.

Members of the Democratic Delegate Coordinating committee include (10th District) G. M. (Mack) Davis, Mrs. Ann M. Cramer and Robert Curtis, all of Broward county, and Mrs. Mal (Sophie) Englander and Cohen, for Dade; (11th District) Mrs. Englander and Cohen; (12th District) Harry F. Knight, Mrs. Mary S. Spottswood and Enouch H. Walker, all of Key West; and Mrs. Englander and Cohen.

A total of 20 delegates will be selected statewide, with the presidential candidate polling the most votes winning the group. The congressional delegates will go to the candidate scoring highest in the respective district.

Persons interested in running may obtain a qualifying form from Cohen's office, 1 Lincoln Road, Miami Beach, or by calling 532-3463.

'Operation Snowplow' On the Way

Warning that more than 10,000 young people may be coming, a volunteer group with the unlikely name Operation Snowplow asked for help Wednesday in keeping this July's Democratic National convention peaceful.

"We need to make plans before the convention," Lynn Slavitt, leader of the group, told members of the Dade Community Relations Board.

She said the group — made up mainly of local youth, women, members of the Gay Liberation Front and representatives of other dissident groups — took the name Operation Snowplow "because it's a name you won't forget."

Mrs. Slavitt said the group hopes to work with local government and police to eliminate the conditions that led up to violence at the 1968 convention in Chicago.

She said the young people particularly will need some place to stay — probably outdoors — food, health care and possibly day-care facilities.

Demo spokesman urges Beach hotels to hire more blacks

A spokesman for the Democratic National Committee yesterday urged Miami Beach hotel and motel owners to employ "a reasonable number of blacks — hopefully in visible positions" during the Democratic National Convention here in July.

Richard Murphy, convention manager for the Democratic Party, said in Washington that he is prepared to speak personally with the hotel and motel owners "to make our position known."

"I obviously have no control over hiring practices at the motels, and I frankly don't know what the situation is at the hotels," he said.

Murphy's comments came after a spokesman for the Florida NAACP charged in a telegram to the Democratic National Committee that Miami Beach motels and hotels have engaged in "racist, bigoted" hiring practices.

The telegram, written by Marvin Davies, field secretary of the Florida NAACP, urged the Democratic Party to support improved hiring practices for minorities before the Democratic National Convention convenes July 9.

THE FLORIDA PRIMARY

Specifically, the telegram, addressed to Democratic National Chairman Lawrence O'Brien, said the work force in the hotel industry should be 15 per cent black by the time the Democrats arrive.

Murphy said he did not know if Davies' charges are true, but he said he had talked with black community leaders in Miami and they told him "the Negroes are not in a very good position."

On Monday, Edwin Dean, the executive secretary of the Southern Florida Hotel and Motel Association, issued a strong denial of Davies' allegations.

☐ Being Investigated

By ROBERT B. STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

The leader of a newly formed coalition of liberal groups in Miami predicted today that at least 10,000 protesters, observers and other non-delegates will visit Dade County during the Democratic National Convention this summer.

In an interview with The Miami News, Lynn Slavitt — head of the coalition, the "Miami Snowplow Company," said it is "inconceivable to me" that the convention will not draw at least that many outsiders.

"We are expecting young people, minorities, women and Third World people,' she declared. "Some will be here to protest overtly. Others will come to protest by their presence.

"Of course, the numbers game is very tricky right now . . . I've heard estimates ranging from 10,000 to 100,000," she said. "But the factors indicate that there will be kids here, and it would be insane for Snowplow to pretend that no one's going to be here."

The "Snowplow Company," a coalition of 22 local organizations, was set up late last month to arrange accommodations for the protesters and other non-delegates.

The group, which is made up primarily of organizations from Miami's counter-culture, is hoping to arrange for housing, food, child care, medical care and legal aid.

Ms. Slavitt, an associate director of the Center for Dialogue, 2175 NW 26th St., explained that the group chose the name "Miami Snowplow" because "we were looking for a name that was cheerful, youthful and apolitical."

She said the organization wanted a name that people would remember. "We figured that 'Miami Snowplow' would be the sort of name that someone in the middle of Kansas could never forget," she said.

Ms. Slavitt, who founded Miami Snowplow, explained that the group was formed because many members of the counter-culture here were concerned that no arrangements were being made to accommodate non-delegates.

She said her group is hoping to help city and county officials prepare for the influx of protesters and other non-delegates, and thereby reduce the chance of "unnecessary or stupid confrontations."

"It seems to me that there will indeed be a large group of people coming down here," she said, "and we want to be able to accommodate anyone who needs our assistance.

"If there is no planning or organizing done, though, there could be a catastrophe. We want to create a climate down here that will cause this thing to be peaceful."

Ms. Slavitt said her prediction that thousands will come here is based on discussions she has had with New Left sources in the Miami area and elsewhere.

She said members of Snowplow have been monitoring the underground press around the country for several months, and have concluded that "perhaps now the Movement is finally coming out of the doldrums."

"There is beginning to be a kind of stirring around the country," Ms. Slavitt said. "People are saying, 'Hey, the conventions are coming this year and the first one's going to be in Miami.' "

"Assuming the Republican convention in San Diego will be an ego trip for Nixon, and the protests there will not really change anything," she said, "it is possible people — especially those on the East Coast — will come to Miami, where their protests might make a difference."

Ms. Slavitt predicted that there will be a number of issues which could draw protesters to the Miami Beach convention. The most volatile issue, she said, could be delegate representation at the convention.

This year, she said, there will be a number of dissidents — women, young people and minorities — who will try to gain seats at the Convention. And, unless the "old warhorses in the Democratic Party" grant them more than token representation, she said, "there will be a lot of angry people."

In addition, she said, there could be substantial discontent among campaign workers for some of the liberal democratic presidential hopefuls — Sen. George McGovern, Rep.

Shirley Chisholm, former Sen. Eugene McCarthy and the like.

"We'll have women for Shirley, McGovern Democrats, people who want to protest on the Beach," she said. "And then there'll be people who'll just feel that their presence will make a difference one way or the other."

People's Party plans convention

In addition, she said, "it is likely" there will be political protests planned by black activist groups. But "the blacks are not together yet on what they're going to do," she said.

Ms. Slavitt noted that one national liberal organization, the People's Party, is planning to hold its own convention in the Miami Beach Convention Hall after the Democratic convention ends there in mid-July.

She said that the convention probably will attract hundreds of delegates from all over the country, adding to the crowds of young people and activists already expected to be here.

Thus far, no national anti-war organization or civil rights group has announced formal plans to sponsor a demonstration of any sort in the Miami area.

But she said that one group — a splinter group of the Youth International Party, the "Yippies," — has said that it will hold "an alternate convention" in Miami at the same time the Democrats are meeting at the Beach.

The Yippie faction, called the "Zippies," held a meeting in Madison, Wisc., three weeks ago, she said, and drew up plans to stage a parody of the Democratic parley.

She said the Zippies are apparently planning "deeply political moves in Miami — like filling up swimming pools with jello and that sort of thing."

According to New Left sources in New York City, the Zippies are distributing an elaborate poster in several Northern cities, inviting people to attend their "party" in Miami this summer.

"This will be no ordinary party," the poster says. "This party will make the Shah of Iran's look like brunch."

It is not known how serious the Zippies' intentions are, or if the organization has any following.

Ms. Slavitt emphasized that her group has not invited the Zippies or any other group here, but instead has simply begun to make arrangements for protesters and other non-delegates.

She said that the Mami Snowplow Company is strictly "neutral" and "nonpolitical," and does not intend to endorse or condemn any protest here.

A statement released by the Snowplow Company last week emphasized the same point, saying, "We endorse or support no position taken by any local or national group."

Two basic goals of Snowplow

The statement said the group has been formed to carry out two basic goals:

"1) To provide services, i.e., housing, medical, legal, child care for young and minority visitors to Dade County;

(2) To facilitate the efforts of any group or groups who wish to make their ideas or protests known in an orderly and peaceful manner."

Ms. Slavitt also said Snowplow hopes any protests here will be orderly and nonviolent.

"We would like to see the city standing after it's over," she said, adding that Snowplow would like to avoid the sort of confrontation between protesters and police that took place at the 1968 Democratic convention in Chicago.

Ms. Slavitt said civic leaders here should realize that a major confrontation between protesters and police could have disastrous consequences for the area.

Her view was echoed by Hal Spaet, who is chairman of the County Youth Relations Board and is an active member of Snowplow.

In an interview with The News, Spaet said he has also talked with civic leaders in Miami and has found that "right now, people don't want to hear us. They just don't want to worry about us."

"It's funny," he said, "when it comes to having a convention here, all the businessmen and civic leaders love the idea. In fact, they love the idea enough to put up $1 million to get the convention here.

"But when it comes time to pay the price of having a convention here — like taking care of the young people who'll be coming down — it seems that no one wants to take the responsibility for that."

Businessmen urged to help out

Spaet said he hopes that businessmen in Miami will recognize their responsibility to help accommodate visitors to the convention, and will offer their cooperation to Snowplow before it is too late to prevent major problems.

"I just have a feeling that the people here are waiting for an emergency," Spaet said. "Maybe when 10,000 to 20,000 people are standing around Biscayne Boulevard with nowhere to go, the people will finally do something."

Both Spaet and Ms. Slavitt said they are hoping to enlist the cooperation of business and government leaders to help them resolve their first matter of business: finding a site for the expected crowds of protesters and non-delegates.

Spaet said that Snowplow is considering five potential sites where the crowds could stay — Watson Island, Interama, Virginia Key, Bayfront Park and Gratigny Park (located near Miami Dade Junior College, north campus).

According to Spaet, Snowplow is hoping to receive permission to use either Watson Park or Interama as campsites for the expected thousands of out-of-town visitors.

Spaet said Snowplow favors those two sites because they are large enough to handle the expected crowds, and are close enough to the Beach so that non-delegates could visit the site of the convention.

Spokesmen for the Miami Beach police have said they will permit non-delegates to visit — and protest —at the Beach, so long as they are peaceful and do not disrupt the business of the convention.

'Never thought of restricting people'

Capt. Ozzie Kruidenier, officer in charge of tactical police planning for the convention, said Beach police have "Never thought about restricting people from coming over here."

Kruidenier said that, so far, Beach police have had no indication that demonstrations will take place at Miami Beach. But he said that if large groups of protesters show up, the police will be prepared to handle the crowds.

Ms. Slavitt and other Snowplow leaders are planning to meet with Beach police on a regular basis between now and the July convention.

Snowplow leaders are planning to meet with other civic groups and agencies as well. In fact, Ms. Slavitt was scheduled to meet with the Community Relations Board today.

Aside from the Center for Dialogue and the Youth Relations Board, the other organizations represented in Snowplow are:

Switchboard; Free Medical Clinic; National Organization for Women; American Civil Liberties Union; Florida International University's Police Training Project (training Miami Beach for the Convention); Young Socialist Alliance; Underground Radio Network; Radio Station WBUS; The Daily Planet; The Free Press; University of Miami Chaplains; The Women's Center; People's Party; Miami Liberation Front; Christian Community Leadership Conference; Southern Christian Leadership Conference; Gay Liberation Front; Interfaith Council for Social Justice; Free Counseling Clinic and New Community School.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY

On January 22, 1972, a first source made available a circular which was distributed on that date on the street in the vicinity of the 2400 block of North Lincoln Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. The circular contained the following information:

"ZIPPIE - Vote Rock in 72

The new ZEITGEIST INTERNATIONAL PARTY, the political wing of the Youth International Party, will nominate a rock for president in 1972. Each state will hold a convention to decide a favorite IT candidate. The National ZIP convention will be held in Miami, the same time as the democratic convention. ZIPPIE, a firm believer in party politics, will hold a five day party during the nomination.

The rock will then switch parties (taking John Lindsay's place as a Republican.) This change will be announced in San Diego during the republican convention. The Illinois nominating convention will take place on January 23rd in Chicago. All are welcome to submit candidates. The convention location will be the IWW hall 2440 North Lincoln Avenue in Chicago.

Although the convention will be held in Chicago, we are pledged to resist interference from the Mayor's office. We will not let Daley choose our rock!

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY

The Youth International Party, also known as Yippies, is a loosely knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

On January 24, 1972, a second source, a third source, and a fourth source, [redacted] advised a meeting was held, as advertised by the circular, during the afternoon of January 23, 1972, in the hall at 2440 North Lincoln Avenue, Chicago. Approximately twenty persons were in attendance at this affair. [redacted] b6 b7C b7D [redacted] 2550 North Halsted, phone 525-3776, Chicago, Illinois, which address is to be used as the temporary ZIPPIE headquarters in Chicago, until an appropriate store front location can be obtained. It was noted ZIPPIE is to be the designation for YIP participation in the 1972 Presidential electoral process.

During this affair it was stressed neither [redacted] or anyone else is an official spokesman for YIP or ZIPPIE and there is no formal YIP or ZIPPIE organization either on local or national levels which requires officers, spokesmen, or individual members.

Everyone is potentially a YIP or ZIPPIE and all are qualified to participate, regardless of age, in YIP or ZIPPIE activities. Anyone who desires to express themselves or associate with others in the trend of the current youth culture in the country, will be welcomed. YIP and ZIPPIE events will just occur, notice of "happenings" will appear in future circulars or in the underground press. When such events are announced, everyone is to spontaneously show up, be happy and not be grim or closely allied with any specific political line.

It was announced a Presidential candidate is to be selected from each state in the nation by YIP-ZIPPIE. These candidates are to be referred to as "IT" candidates instead of "favorite son" candidates since the term "favorite son" has been discarded in view of sex connotation because "IT" candidates may be male or female. Each state "IT" candidate is to be known as the state's "Rock." All state "Rock" Presidential candidates will appear at a ZIPPIE convention to be called "National Freak Show Exhibition," to elect the ZIPPIE "Rock" from the state "Rock" candidates, for the ZIPPIE 1972 national Presidential candidate. The National Freak Show Exhibition is to occur July 9 - 15, 1972, at Miami, Florida, during the Democratic National Convention. The ZIPPIE national "Rock" candidate for President, after completion of the Democratic National Convention, will campaign across the country to the 1972 Republican National Convention to be held August, 1972, in San Diego, California. At the Republican National Convention, the ZIPPIE national "Rock" candidate will switch parties, like Mayor John Lindsay, to seek the Republican party nomination.

The following were announced as the YIP-ZIPPIE calendar of events, it being again emphasized that these activities are only tentative and a close watch should be maintained for announcements of events as they are to occur:

February 22, 1972 - Chicago, demonstration at American Broadcasting Company (ABC), 190 North State. The network will refuse a one-minute "equal" TV time for the ZIPPIE Illinois "Rock" candidate to respond to other Presidential candidates. Will call ABC prior to demonstration time asking for the equal political time. When refused, will demonstrate against discrimination.

March 3, 1972 - Chicago, ZIPPIE bands to perform at either the IWW hall, 2440 Lincoln Avenue, or Young Lords Church on Armitage Avenue.

March 4, 1972 - Milwaukee, Wisconsin - ZIPPIE bands to perform March 5, 1972 - Madison, Wisconsin - ZIPPIE bands to perform.

April 1, 1972 - Chicago, ZIPPIE marijuana "smoke-in" in Lincoln Park to express opposition to marijuana laws.

April 15, 1972 - Springfield, Illinois -"ZIPCOMETAX" meeting to plan for Illinois statewide marijuana "smoke-in".

April 15, 1972 - Springfield, Illinois - statewide "smoke-in" to protest anti-marijuana laws.

May 1, 1972 - Nationwide-"Joint Day" protest against marijuana laws.

June 2 - 4, 1972 - Madison, Wisconsin - Midwest regional ZIPPIE meeting.

July 1 - 3, 1972 - Washington, D. C. - "Gathering of Tribes."

July 4, 1972 - Washington, D. C. - Third national annual marijuana "smoke-in" protest against anti-marijuana laws.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

July 9 - 15, 1972 -	Miami, Florida - Democratic National Convention, holding of ZIPPIE National Freak Show Exhibition.
August, 1972 -	San Diego, California - Republican National Convention where ZIPPIE "Rock" Presidential candidate will switch parties.

Miami News Reporter

Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance today announced that police will set aside two large lots outside the Miami Beach Convention Hall for protesters wishing to demonstrate at the Democratic National Convention this summer.

Speaking at the monthly forum of the Community Relations Board, Pomerance said the two lots will accommodate about "a thousand to two thousand" protesters each.

Asked at the meeting what police will do if additional protesters arrive at the Beach, the police chief said, "We'll have to worry about it at the time, but we'll have additional plans to fall back to."

He declined to say what sort of "additional plans" the Beach police have made, but he said the security forces for the convention will be prepared for large numbers of demonstrators.

Pomerance made his remarks after two speakers told the CRB that at least 10,000 protesters, observers and other non-delegates are expected to visit Dade County during the convention this July.

The speakers, Lynn Slavitt of the Center for Dialogue and Hal Spaet of the Youth Relations Board, addressed the CRB as representatives of "The Miami Snowplow Company" — a newly formed coalition of liberal groups in Miami set up last month to arrange accommodations for the thousands of non-delegates.

The Snowplow Company, which is made up of 22 organizations in Miami, is trying to arrange for food, housing and medical and legal aid for the expected crowd of non-delegates.

The group, which consists primarily of representatives from Miami's counter-culture, is trying to enlist the cooperation of the CRB and other local service groups in its effort.

At yesterday's meeting, Ms. Slavitt, founder of Snowplow, told the CRB that between 10,000 and 50,000 young people, women, minorities and other non-delegates are expected to be here during the convention.

She said that if the CRB and other groups in the city make preparation for the influx, Miami will be able to avoid any "unnecessary confrontation."

"No one here needs to be told what happened in Chicago," Ms. Slavitt said, referring to the 1968 Democratic Convention in Chicago, which was the scene of violent confrontations between protesters and police.

"What happened in Chicago happened because there was no planning beforehand," Ms. Slavitt said, adding, "If there is proper planning here, Miami can come out of this looking like a terrific city."

In his remarks, Chief Pomerance echoed Ms. Slavitt's statement about the convention, saying he also is hoping to avoid any friction with non-delegates here.

He said the Beach police have already begun special training courses at Florida International University to learn how to deal with large crowds of protesters, in the event that they should arrive.

"We're trying to give the officers an intelligent appraisal of their own role," the police chief said. "We want to show the police officer why he is there and what the community is expecting of him."

In addition, he said, the FIU training program is geared to helping the police "better understand the dissenter." To this end, he said, the police are being trained not only in crowd control tactics, but in "behavioral attitudes" and in the history of dissent in this country.

Pomerance told the audience of 100 that the police will try to "stay in the background" at the convention and "will try to maintain a supportive role" throughout the event.

He said that one of his primary goals at the convention will be to "remove the abrasive role of the police as a factor."

The federally appointed Walker Commission, which studied the 1968 confrontations in Chicago, concluded that abrasive police action was largely responsible for what it termed "a police riot" in that city.

Pomerance told the CRB that he has written a letter to the Greater Miami Coalition suggesting that they initiate a study of problems concerning the convention.

The Youth International Party (YIP), also known as Yippies, is a loosely-knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

A first source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 26, 1972, that a flyer was publicly distributed in the Madison, Wisconsin, area on or about January 22, 1972, bearing the caption, "Zippie--Vote Rock in '72".

This flyer, in part, reads as follows:

"The new Zeitgeist International Party, the political wing of the YIP will nominate a rock for President in 1972. Each state will hold a convention to decide a favorite IT candidate. The National ZIP Convention will be held in Miami the same time as the Democratic Convention...

"The Illinois nominating convention will take place on January 23rd in Chicago. All are welcome to submit candidates. The convention location will be the IWW Hall, 2440 North Lincoln Avenue in Chicago.

In addition to agreeing on pre-Miami YIP functions in Illinois, other YIP functions out of state were tentatively mentioned. These functions are as follows:

March 5, 1972.....Milwaukee rock group benefit.

April 15, 1972.....Madison "Zipcome Tax Day". Regional pre-Miami ZIP Conference.

A representative at the Conference from the Midwest Dope Dealers Association said that his group would provide marijuana at wholesale prices for all of the YIP "smoke-ins"; however, the money for this commodity would have to be obtained in advance.

Tom Forcade, a YIP activist from the East Coast, is scheduled to provide the music for the rock group benefits. These benefits will hopefully raise the necessary funds needed for the YIP functions. Forcase was not at the Chicago Convention.

By DAVID S. BRODER
Of The Washington Post

THE Democratic nomination battle is off to a good start, with enough contradictory signals from Arizona, Iowa, Florida and New Hampshire to confuse the commentators and to create the pleasantly tingling sense of anticipation that the contest will, indeed, build to a climax in Miami Beach in July.

Broder

If that proves to be the case, then it might be well to keep your eye on Lawrence F. O'Brien. The Democratic national chairman will be right in the middle of the action in Miami if this convention, which he insists will be his last hurrah at the party helm, turns out to be the wingding it promises to be.

O'Brien is determined to do everything possible to see that the Democrats emerge from the 1972 convention without the damage to their morale and unity they suffered in Chicago in 1968. That is a tall order, but if there is anyone in the party who can bring the Democrats through Miami in one piece O'Brien is the man.

DERIDED by some liberals for his 1968 flip-flops on candidates and issues, distrusted by some party reformers, and denounced by George Wallace, the old pro from Springfield, Mass., appears to be enjoying his place at the center of the Democratic storm.

It is his decidedly old-fashioned notion that one of the things the country needs in this election year is a return to two-party politics — a chance for the winning candidate to gain a genuine majority, instead of the wobbly plurality with which Mr. Nixon has been attempting to govern.

As a partisan, O'Brien is persuaded, of course, that the Democrats have the best chance of winning that majority. But whoever wins, he says he'd rather take his chances in a straight-out test between the major parties than in a contest clouded by Wallace and perhaps some champion of a left-wing fourth party as well.

Believing this, O'Brien has somewhat grudgingly accepted the necessity of dealing in Miami with every breed of Democrat from Wallace to Eugene J. McCarthy.

HE HAS backed off from his challenge to Wallace's right to call himself a Democrat and has accepted the Alabama governor's promise that his delegates would sign the party loyalty oath.

To satisfy the McCarthy reformers on the opposite flank, he is trying to prove the openness of the convention by flooding the country with detailed how-to-do-it kits instructing would-be delegates how they can enter the pre-convention battles in their own states.

While opening the doors to all self-proclaimed Democrats, however obstreperous, O'Brien is doing his best to keep control of the vital power centers of the convention. His former Post Office Department deputy, Richard J. Murphy, is the convention manager — which means O'Brien will control the logistics, the schedule and the communications network in Miami Beach.

He has his personal choice, Patricia Roberts Harris, running the credentials committee, having engineered her election by the national committee over Sen. Harold E. Hughes in a stiff struggle that pitted his power against that of most of the major Presidential contenders.

VERY shortly now, he will exercise his option to name the temporary chairman of the platform committee. He is silent on the rumors that he has his eye on a Southern-accented young progressive for that post, but it's safe to say that whoever O'Brien picks, there will be complaints.

As the chairman realizes full well, the Democratic convention cannot be tranquil. There will be open battles over everything from the seating of the delegations to the drafting and ratification of the platform to the choice of the Presidential nominee. O'Brien expects a number of floor nominations for Vice President, even if the Presidential candidate exercises his right to "recommend" a running-mate.

But O'Brien's boast is that he will see to it that whatever the outcome of these fights, every "reasonable" Democrat is going to feel he's had a fair shake. That fair-play pledge is his hope for preventing, or minimizing, the party split that could bring a three-party or four-party election.

By boldly asserting his prerogatives as chairman in organizing the convention, O'Brien has taken on a heavy responsibility for bringing the majority party into the election in strong enough condition to make an effective challenge to Mr. Nixon.

There was no way, probably, he could avoid being on that spot, but O'Brien seems to be reveling in the role. If he can make the convention one that strengthens the Democrats, rather than splintering them, he will have capped a quarter-century of unbroken labors for his party with a feat that will merit every Democrat's appreciation.

Interama invites Snowplow for talks

By ROBERT STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

The executive director of the Interama Authority has invited leaders of a coalition of liberal groups here to discuss plans to use Interama as a campsite for non-delegates expected during the July Democratic National Convention.

George Headley, director of the seven-man state authority, extended the invitation this week in a letter to the Miami Snowplow Company, a loosely-knit coalition of 22 groups formed last month to arrange accommodations for the expected crowd of non-delegates.

Snowplow Co., made up primarily of organizations drawn from Miami's counterculture, is expecting at least 10,000 and perhaps as many as 100,000 protesters and other non-delegates to be in Dade County during the convention.

About two weeks ago, Hal Spaet, chairman of the Youth Relations Board and a member of Snowplow, wrote a letter to the Interama Authority requesting an opportunity to meet with the board to discuss the use of Interama in North Dade as a campsite.

Yesterday, Spaet disclosed that Headley, writing on behalf of the authority, this week replied to his letter, inviting Snowplow leaders to meet with the authority Feb. 18 or 21.

Spaet said that Headley explained in his letter that the Interama Authority would not be able to take up the matter formally until March.

But he said that the Interama director stated that he, along with other members of the authority, were interested in the proposal and were willing to discuss the details of the plan at a special "preliminary meeting."

Spaet said that Headley explained in the letter: "The authority will require a closed meeting first . . . at which time it can be determined whether or not Interama can offer suitable space, accommodations, safety, security and control, and also under what conditions, whose responsibility, and whose expense the project will be handled."

He said Headley wrote that "I am of the opinion that it would be possible to do what you have in mind," but added, "I would have to work out most of the details with you before making my recommendation to the authority."

Headley's comments about the Snowplow proposal are similar to those expressed last week by Dr. Elton Gissendanner, chairman of the Interama Authority, who told The Miami News that he would "wholeheartedly support" the project if "the thing's going to be handled right."

Gissendanner said that he is in favor of using Interama as a campsite if the details can be worked out satisfactorily. But he said that since Interama is state property, "I will lean heavily on the Governor's office for guidance in this matter."

Gissendanner was scheduled to meet with advisers to Gov. Reubin Asked today to discuss a number of matters pertaining to Interama. Gissendanner said yesterday that he will probably mention the Snowplow proposal to them during his discussions.

posal, the Interama site, located on about 600 dredged and filled acres of the sprawling Graves tract in North Dade, would be converted into an open-air campsite for the out-of-town visitors.

Snowplow leaders have said they are hoping portable toilets can be installed on the site and attached to existing sewage pipes there. They have said they would also like to set up portable field kitchens on the site for the crowds.

Spokesmen for Snowplow have said that they would like to secure Interama or Watson Island for use during the convention primarily because both should be large enough to handle the expected crowds and are fairly close to Miami Beach Convention Hall, site of the Democratic convention.

Other sites being considered by the group are Virginia Key, Bayfront Park and Gratigny Park (located near Miami-Dade Junior College, north campus).

Interama Campsite During Convention Up to Gov. Askew

It will be up to Gov. Reubin Askew to decide whether the state will permit a few thousand "non-delegates" to the Democratic National Convention to camp on Interama land, Dr. Elton Gissendanner said Friday.

"I'm not opposed to the principle of the idea," the Interama Authority chairman said; "but certainly there would have to be many, many details worked out before we could turn the 600 or so acres over to campers."

The suggestion that some 10,000-20,000 youthful visitors here for the July 9 convention be accommodated on the vacant property in North Miami came from Harold Spaet, chairman of Dade County's Youth Relations Board.

"Once we get Spaet's complete proposal," Gissendanner said, "we'll pass it on to the governor's office. There are questions like security — inside and out — and the costs of cleaning up afterward."

"Anything we can do to prevent a confrontation such as I witnessed in Chicago in 1968 should be done," the chairman said. "We might even go so far as to find some down-the-bay water transportation from Interama to Convention Hall, just to keep them off the streets."

Activities - February 4, 1972:

The first meeting began at 9:00 a.m., and was conducted by [redacted] Almost the entire morning was spent discussing why the meeting was changed from the Virgin Islands to Washington, D. C. After much discussion and confusion, it was announced that the change was apparently effected as many thought it would be too expensive to attend in the Virgin Island. The meeting was adjourned for lunch with nothing accomplished.

At 1:30 p.m., in the afternoon, February 4, 1972, the session was conducted by [redacted] She discussed the duties of a member of the National Coordinating Committee and the overall structure of the NWRO. Then [redacted] who was on the NWRO staff, gave a brief outline of the current bill that is soon to be passed by Congress concerning the Family Assistance Plan (FAP). This session terminated at 5:30 p.m.

On the evening of February 4, 1972, the various regions represented, central, eastern, western and southern, each held separate meetings to discuss a proposal for a Children's March to be held in Washington, D. C., on March 25, 1972.

Activities - February 5, 1972:

On the morning of February 5, 1972, the meeting consisted of two parts. One was preparing a letterhead memorandum regarding the Children's March under the chairmanship of [redacted] The second session was conducted by [redacted] and he was critical of the groups' failure to get down to business and outline a calendar for the next session's activities. He noted that on March 16, or March 17, 1972, there would be a "children's hearing" regarding welfare before Congress. He wanted the Children's March to be held on March 25, 1972, at Washington, D. C., and the marchers would consist of children of welfare mothers.

Saturday afternoon, February 5, 1972, consisted of primarily reports from the regional meetings that were held on the previous evening.

The eastern region reported that they feel most of the children for the Children's March will come from their area due to their proximity to Washington, D. C., and they feel accordingly, they should be responsible for arranging transportation to get the children to Washington from surrounding areas. The central region reported that they fully support the march and were considering a similar program in their areas.

NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS
ORGANIZATION

The southern region indicated that they supported the Children's March and would discuss it further at a Southern Regional Meeting to be held at the Town and Tourist Motel in Columbia, South Carolina, during February 17 - 20, 1972.

The western region said they also would support the Children's March and would be doing something "at home" the same time the march would be going on in Washington, D. C. Source noted that the regional representative for the western region who made this report was from California, city not known.

Saturday's meeting broke up around 6:00 p.m., following which there was a staff and Executive Board meeting, following which a party was planned for 9:00 p.m. The Executive Board meeting did not go very well because [redacted] from [redacted] got into a fight with [redacted] The fight involved quite a bit of pushing and shoving; however, it was broken up before it was necessary to call the police.

Activities - February 6, 1972

A meeting was held on Sunday under chairmanship of [redacted] from Newport News, Virginia. The Executive Board presented a proposal that the summer conference of NWRO would be held in Miami, Florida, and that a main event at this conference would be some type of disruptive action in connection with the Democratic Convention to be held in Miami in July, 1972. This proposal was agreed upon by all those present at this meeting which was under the chairmanship of [redacted] It was announced there would possibly be more details regarding this possible disruption of the Democratic Convention in forthcoming months.

ORGANIZATION

Source noted that it was evident throughout the weekend that the NWRO, as an organization, is experiencing serious internal and financial problems. There was a considerable amount of internal dissension and fighting throughout the meeting and it was difficult for anything to be accomplished. It was announced that the National Staff Officers would probably not be paid for the current week due to lack of funds. Delegates from New York were very vocal in stating that they have been the primary support financially of the NWRO. Due to their disagreement with national officers on several key issues, they are considering withdrawing any financial support for operating the NWRO nationally. Source noted that NWRO newspaper, the Welfare Fighter is still published but only very infrequently, apparently due to a lack of funds.

Source stated that the general consensus is that no one knows what to expect when going to a NWRO meeting and at these meetings everyone wants to "be the leader." Source noted that there was no extremist activities or any known national extremists observed in attendance at any of the functions of this meeting.

The next National Coordinating Committee meeting is to be held in May, 1972, at a presently unknown location.

Special Police Training Program Begins Here Monday for Convention

Monday, an innovative law enforcement project to provide special training for police officers for the 1972 Democratic National Convention will begin here. The project is a joint effort of the Miami Beach Police Department and Florida International University.

Planning of the training project has been under way since last November, when the Police Department, under the command of Police Chief Rocky Pomerance, received a grant of $395,424 to prepare police officers for the July convention.

Commenting on the grant, Chief Pomerance said that "90 per cent of the grant is devoted to education and training, and innovative communication techniques."

The grant—the first of its kind—was approved November 5, 1971, by the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration of the U.S. Department of Justice.

The opening session will begin at 9 a.m., Monday, February 14, in the Cypress Room of Convention Hall. Scheduled to speak are Dr. Charles E. Perry, President of Florida International, Chief Pomerance, and other city and county officials.

Professor Wayne B. Hanewicz, of Florida International's Criminal Justice Program, will direct the project. Hanewicz, who holds a B.S. degree in police administration and M.S. in criminal justice administration from Michigan State University, and has done doctoral work in political philosophy, formerly directed the criminal justice program at Montana State University.

He also served as Planning Director of the Southwestern Wisconsin Regional Law Enforcement Planning Commission and as Research Analyst for the Wisconsin Council on Criminal Justice.

Dr. James ~~R. LeGrande~~ is Chairman of the Criminal Justice Program, which is a part of the School of Health and Social Services at Florida International.

This University, which will open for approximately 5,000 students this September, has been involved in community service and off-campus educational programs for over a year.

Pointing to this theme, Dr. Perry said the current project "will link teaching with service and bring the classroom where the need is."

Before the estimated 15,000 Democrats and convention delegates arrive in the summer, Hanewicz—working with Chief Pomerance's command staff, which provided law enforcement services to the 1968 National Republican Convention at Miami Beach—will have trained the officers in crowd psychology, philosophy of dissent, and conflict management.

Hanewicz said he plans to prepare the officers for a wide variety of experiences. His emphasis will be upon the preventive and protective roles officers must assume.

Commenting upon his assignment, Professor Hanewicz said that "we're concerned with the preservation of the basic rights of freedom.

"One of these rights is that of the delegates to assemble and select a candidate, a right that is critical to our democratic and political processes.

"This requires informed and sensitive law enforcement. That is the goal of our program."

Speaking of the program and its aims, Chief Pomerance said it will help "provide for effective and humane policing on the highest level."

Regular weekly classes in behavior, legal and technical training will begin Saturday, February 19. Attending the 96 hours of classroom work will be the 250-person Miami Beach police force, and key middle-management officers from various other Dade County Police Departments.

The classroom work will be held each weekend in three four-hour sessions through Sunday, June 18, as follows: Saturday—8 a.m. to 12 noon, and 4 p.m. to 8 p.m.; Sunday—11 a.m. to 2 p.m. The staggered sessions will allow regular police shifts to continue.

In preparing the project, various planning sessions have been held. The last session, on January 21, was attended by behavioral scientists, educators, law enforcement representatives and others from around the nation. They included:

Professor Robert Shellow, Center for Urban Studies, Carnegie-Mellon Iustitute, Pittsburgh; Dr. Harvey Longett, Assistant Professor Psychiatry, University of Florida; John Angell, administrative assistant to the Chief of Police, Dayton, Ohio; John Kirsh of the Research and Planning Unit Federal Bureau of Investifation Training Division, Washington; John P. Adams, Director, Department of Law, Justice and Community Relation, United Methodist Fellowship; Jack O. Cassiday, Minister of Metropolitan Mission, United Church of Christ; Dr. Leonard Haber, psychologist; Dr. Park Fitzhugh, Director, Law Enforcement Program, Center for Urban Studies, University of Miami; Miss Dorothy Blakely and Mrs. Colleen Ericson, Instructors in the School of Education, Florida International; Seymour Gelber, Administrative Assistant to State Attorney Richard Gerstein; and Joan Gross, Christian Community Service Agency.

After the convention is over, there will be intensive post evaluation sessions, which will include an evaluation of the methodology utilized and publication of appropriate material, according to Professor Hanewicz.

Police plan: demonstrations by appointment

A spokesman for the Miami Beach Police Department said today Beach police are hoping to arrange "demonstrations by appointment" for dissident groups expected during the Democratic National Convention this summer.

In an interview with the Miami News, Capt. Ozzie Kruidenier, the officer in charge of security arrangements for the July convention, said his office would like to be able "to plan to some degree" where and when demonstrations will be held.

"We will have a space set aside outside the Convention Hall to handle large numbers of demonstrators," Kruidenier said, "and we'll have cameras, platforms and all set up right by the demonstration site so the protests will get exposure."

"We're just hoping that we can keep lines of communications open with these groups," he said. "We hope they'll tell us about their plans . . . We can help them plan it."

Kruidenier said last week that Beach police will set aside two lots "each the size of a football field" in front of the Beach Convention Hall for demonstrations.

But he said Beach police will not attempt to break up spontaneous protests, or limit the number of participants.

"We wouldn't stop a spontaneous demonstration, but would try to help them, escort them," the captain said.

Kruidenier said he believes that most demonstrators intend to do so in a non-violent manner.

"These people are not coming down to fight police," he said. "They're coming down to make a point; to make their presence felt . . . We're not going to keep these people from coming over."

Kruidenier made his comments after attending a meeting of the Miami Snowplow Co., a newly-formed coalition of liberal groups set up to arrange accommodations for protesters and other non-delegates expected during the convention.

Representatives of Miami Snowplow have predicted that from 10,000 to 100,000 out-of-town visitors will come to Miami in July.

Rubin Sees Convention Protests

Yippie Leader Jerry Rubin told University of Miami students Monday it would be possible to get as many as 50,000 people to demonstrate in Miami during the Democratic convention this summer and "then go all the way to San Diego."

Rubin, leader of the Youth International Party, told 350 UM students they could make history in many ways "by having the Democratic convention in your city."

He said he enjoyed being in Florida and "would like to organize the (Yippie) party here."

Found guilty in February 1970 of inciting to riot at the 1968 Democratic National Convention, Rubin blasted the U.S. political, economic and educational systems and said the only candidate for president he could support is Shirley Chisholm.

Last October, Rubin said Yippie protesters would "defeat Nixon in 1972 like we helped defeat Humphrey in 1968." He later vowed that the Republican National Convention will be the scene of the biggest demonstration in a decade but will be peaceful.

Metro Turns Down Protester Aid

By FRED TASKER
Herald Staff Writer

A request by Metro Youth Relations Board Chairman Hal Spaet for $6,500 to set up an office to coordinate housing, food and crowd control help for youthful "non delegates" to the July Democratic National Convention was turned down by Metro commissioners Tuesday.

"We're probably going to have a great deal of young people here to demonstrate in some way," Spaet told the commissioners.

"SOMEHOW, we've got to prepare the area for the coming of these people. We've got to make sure their activities, as long as they're lawful, are as harmonious as possible with the community," he said.

"I appreciate your motives," Commissioner Harvey Reiseman said. "But undue publicity in the press as to what you're doing to feed, dress and give medical care to these people seems to me to imply an invitation to have great numbers of non-delegates here."

Hal Spaet
...loses bid

Spaet made the request on behalf of Operation Miami Snowplow, an association of 35 local civic and governmental groups preparing for a youthful invasion during the convention.

"If we make a mistake in criminal investigation we lose the case. If you make one mistake in the area of human relations you can lose a city."

—Paul Rundle,
Head of convention Secret Service force

Miami Beach and Greater Miami police began a pre-convention training program Monday amid warnings that "one mistake in the area of human relations, and you can lose a city."

The federally funded $395,424 program is designed to prepare the officers for an onslaught of more than 50,000 persons gathering for the July 9 Democratic nominating convention.

And some of those coming, a party official said, "may not be wishing us well."

TRAINING DURING the 96 hours of classroom work, which will be conducted over the next 18 weekends will be in the hands of Florida International University professors and will be aimed at bringing "the much needed understanding that is required between the policeman and the average, and not-so-average citizen," according to FIU president Charles E. Perry.

Paul Rundle, who will head the government's Secret Service force here during the convention period, told officers at the introductory session at Miami Beach Convention Hall:

"If we make a mistake in criminal investigation we lose the case. If you make one mistake in the area of human relations, you can lose a city."

Richard J. Murphy, the Democrats' convention manager and chairman of arrangements, said the party was determined not to have a repeat of the disruptive and violent demonstrations which marred its 1968 meeting at Chicago.

Briefing the officers as to what they can expect in the way of crowds, Murphy said:

"There will be 3,000 delegates and 2,000 alternates; more than 7,200 members of the news media; 50 senators, 30 governors and over 200 congressmen, plus a multitude of officials from the 50 states.

"AND ONLY 15,000," he said, "can get in Convention Hall. There will be many more thousands of visitors coming to the Beach just for the fun of it, and some demonstrating groups — many of them not wishing us well."

Rundle told the police the Secret Service would be on hand "to guard the bodies" of the major candidates during the convention, "but law and order at the convention complex and throughout the city is in your hands."

Murphy said the Democrats were coming to Miami Beach with three major convention objectives.

"First, we want peace and tranquility in the city; second, an orderly convention by the delegates themselves so that we may seriously deliberate the matters before us, and third, we want to permit every group and every person to express his views, including peaceful dissent, so that we may protect our civil liberties."

Recognizing that only a limited number of persons coming to Miami Beach can be admitted to the actual proceedings, Murphy said the Democrats were planning a diversified program of morning entertainment and meetings at the Convention Hall which only "nondelegates" can attend.

THERE WILL BE programs for women, labor union representatives, the blacks and the Latins — even rock music concerts and dances for the young people," Murphy said.

Herewith submitted is a revised application for the Grant of Discretionary funds under the project titled "National Political Convention Law Enforcement Services Project."

Our original Grant application was submitted to the Florida State Planning Agency in April 1971. A series of modifications and resubmissions have ensued. Precious time has been consumed during this process and we are now faced with a time factor which demands accelerated action in all areas of this undertaking.

The initially enormous responsibilities in providing security for the Democratic National Political Convention, the Platform Hearings, and related meetings of some 5,000 official delegates and representatives continues to burgeon with added demands for police services of the most sophisticated sort.

This proposal has within its compass, not only the highly necessary training of participating police officers but also meaningful research, equipping evaluation and documentation with regard to the most contemporary methodology and the application of police services.

The complex law enforcement problems which will be encountered will present the most difficult of challenges under circumstances having great national and international significance.

10. Project Summary- - -Summarize, in approximately 200 words, the most important parts of the statement of project plan presented in application item 22 (page 6), briefly covering project goals and program methods, impact, scope, and evaluation.

The purpose of this proposal is to train and equip law enforcement officers in the handling of a National Political Convention.

This project will research and document requirements for law enforcement services during National Political conventions. It will concern itself with the recognition, evaluation and control of individuals and groups who pose a threat to the orderly conduct of convention proceedings, the general welfare of the community and the personal safety of delegates and candidates.

Key personnel and operational procedures of agencies providing services during prior political conventions will be consulted. Innovative techniques in conflict management developed by police departments will be analyzed.

Emphasis will also be given to evaluation and acquisition of on-site communications, non-lethal control systems, surveillance and identification procedures, and equipment.

(see continuation sheet)

Following the research and documentation set forth above, in-depth training curricula will be developed and implemented to upgrade the abilities of all local law enforcement personnel who will participate in providing convention security. Equipment which has been acquired will be introduced into local operational convention procedures, in accordance with the most effective and promising methodology developed by our research.

The final phase of this project will document and review all preceding stages, up to and including law enforcement services performed during the 1972 National Political Convention. Dissemination of the documents generated, will be made in accordance with LEAA recommendation.

12. BUDGET NARRATIVE

Begin below and add as many continuation pages (3a, 3b, etc.) as may be necessary to relate the items budgeted to project activities, and complete the required justification and explanation of the project budget.

Budget Narrative

A. Personnel (Employees)

(1) Salaries

Project Director 15 months (100%) at $20,000. per annum (LEAA Support $25,000.) (To be selected)
A full-time Project Director will be necessary for this program. Qualifications required of the Director include a background in law enforcement or related government service, at the executive or administrative level. Successful experience in the areas of research, advanced and vocational education, and operational planning will be expected. The ability to make in depth evaluation and full documentation will be required.

Assistant Project Director (2) 15 months (100%) at $21,504 and $20,544. per annum respectively each. (Grantee Contribution $42,048.)
Full-time Assistant Project Directors will be needed to maximize the opportunity for research and operational planning contained within the terms of this project. The Assistant Project Directors will be Police Captains who will be detached for 100% project utilization. One will be selected on the basis of field operational experience in Uniform and Patrol functions; the other by virtue of investigative and intelligence background, thus providing an input to the Project Director concerning specialized local law enforcement expertise in the major areas of operations.
The Assistant Project Directors will have a five-fold role:

(a) To assist the Project Director.
(b) To conduct field interviews and research under the guidance of the Director.
(c) To relate findings to local resources and problems.
(d) To assist the Director in drafting operational plans and training curricula.
(e) To assist the Director in the evaluation and documentation of research products, training and execution of operational planning generated within the project.

Secretarial

One (1) (100%) 15 months at $9,276. per annum - $12,384.

One (1) 15 weeks @ $378. bi-weekly - $2,835.

For secretarial, clerical, receptionist and stenographic work, a full-time secretary is necessary. Local labor market cost of $9,276. is quoted. This individual will handle the dictation, typing, filing, telephone answering, and other routine administrative clerical duties.

A part-time secretary will be needed for three (3) five-week periods at a cost of $378. bi-weekly. This person will assist in the stenographic and duplicating work necessary to produce the initial research reporting, lesson plans and training outlines, operational guides and final project documentation.

200 Officers x 96 hours @ $5.65 - 40 Officers x 48 hours @ $5.65

($84,328. LEAA Support - $35,000. Grantee Contribution)

Compensation will be paid to 200 local off-duty police personnel at their regular hourly rate which averages $5.65 per hour. The following sets forth hourly pay ranges for Captains, Lieutenants, Sergeants and Patrolmen:

Captain	$8.02	Sergeant	$6.39
Lieutenant	7.00	Patrolman	5.34

In our "pyramided" rank structure, Patrolmen are most numerous and exist in an approximate 6 to 1 ratio to Sergeants. Sergeants exist in a 4 to 1 ratio to Lieutenants, etc.

For an"average" class of 36 persons (1 Captain, 2 Lieutenants, 5 Sergeants, 28 Patrolmen) the overall hourly rate per person equals $5.65.

An additional 100 police officers, deputy sheriffs and other "mutual aid" law enforcement personnel employed by nearby governments will not be compensated with project funds while attending classes.

Off duty training of police officers is necessary due to a continuing shortage of personnel, and the growing demand for police services. (Our officers are routinely required to work 1,200 hours of overtime each month at a cost of $72,000. per year to the city).

The basic curriculum, for 300 officers, subject to modification based upon the results of project research, is as follows:

Crowd Psychology	32 hours
Intelligence Operations	16 hours
Equipment, familiarization and use	16 hours
Management of Conflict	16 hours
Personal Defense	16 hours

Special Tactical Force Training in the amount of 48 class hours will also be given to each of 140 selected officers.

Forty of these officers will be attending classes during off duty hours and will be compensated at the average rate of $5.65 per hour.

Project funds will not be used as compensation for the remaining 100 officers who are employed by "mutual aid" agencies.

The Special Tactical Force Training will encompass Crowd Movement Formations, Squad Operations with Specialized Devices, Counter-guerilla Tactics and related subject matter.

A (2) Fica, Retirements, etc.

No FICA costs for the Project Director are included as he will be a contractual employee.

Retirement and insurance subsidies incurred with regard to the Assistant Project Directors and secretarial personnel total $24,121.

These pension costs are computed at 28.2% of salary for Police Officers and at 25.35% for clerical employees. Insurance subsidies furnished by the Grantee city currently are $26.34 per month for each police officer and $24.54 per month for other employees. This amount may increase due to renegotiations of insurance contracts during January 1972.

Total Police Personnel salaries (Training Sessions) equal $119,328., multiplied by retirement costs of 28.2% equals $33,650. Grantee Contribution in the aggregate amount of $57,771. will be provided.

B. Professional Services

Instructors $15. per hour (average)	759 hours ---	$11,385.
Consultants $100. per day	46 days ---	4,600.

In this project, instructors will be utilized in the presentation of 759 hours of training materials. It is expected that qualified local personnel will handle 185 hours of this total at no cost to the project, by virtue of cooperative agreement with local government agencies.

Salary cost of instructional services varies from $12.00 to $17.50 per hour in the local area, so an average is set forth above.

Consultants having full professional status in Psychology, Sociology and Law will be utilized in several phases of this project. Initially it is contemplated they will assist in evaluation of field research products in the amount of 10 consultant/days. They will be also utilized in the construction of the training curricular with reference to content validity and emphasis in their own specialized area. An additional 28 consultant/days will be necessarily expended in course instruction. We plan to utilize the remaining 8 consultant/days in review and commentary on the final project documentation.

C. Travel (Transportation and Subsistence)

Total	$15,568.
LEAA Support	9,568.
Grantee Contribution	6,000.

Research Team Travel LEAA Support $4,243.

The Project Director and both Assistant Directors will initially function as a field "Research Team" and will engage in a total of nineteen (19) individual three-day trips to seven major cities whose police agencies have functioned to provide security for national political conventions and/or are recognized as being the locale of massive dissident activity. Selected cities and current economy class round trip air fares are as follows:

Atlantic City, New Jersey	$190.00	(2 persons)	$380.00
Chicago, Illinois	$178.00	(3 persons)	$534.00
New York City, New York	$166.00	(2 persons)	$332.00
Washington, D.C.	$146.00	(3 persons)	$438.00
San Francisco, California	$334.00	(3 persons)	$1002.00
Research trips to Los Angeles, Berkeley and San Francisco will be combined in order to conserve east-west travel costs. This inter-city travel is computed to be $132.00			$132.00
			$2818.00
Subsistence funds at $25. per person ($25. x 57 days)			$1425.00

Instructors Travel — LEAA Support $3,000.00

It is anticipated that travel funds will be required to bring approximately ten (10) instructors from other areas at an average air fare of $225., economy class. Each instructor will be expected to teach for a period of approximately three to five days if traveling to our city. Air fares (225 x 10) $2,250.00

Subsistence (25x10x3) 750.00

Consultants Travel — LEAA Support $2,325.00

While the utilization of local Consultants will be maximized in the interest of prudent fiscal management, it is expected that certain particularly well qualified professionals will require transportation from other areas. Expenditure for such travel and subsistence will be held to eight round-trip air fares at an average cost of $225. Subsistence costs is anticipated to be $25. per day for a total of twenty-one (21) days.

Travel	$1,800.
Subsistence	525.
LEAA Support	$2,325.

Local Travel — Grantee Contribution $6,000.00

Project Director and two Assistants

A minimum of two standard automobiles will be required by the Project Director and his two Assistants in order to accomplish local travel and transportation needs related to the project, particularly in reference to liaison between the several "Mutual Aid" enforcement agencies who have agreed to assist in providing manpower resources for convention security. The automobiles will permit a savings and convenience not possible if taxis, public busses, and messenger services were to be relied upon.

Equipment "D" LEAA Support $228,408.00

The National Political Convention Law Enforcement Services Project encompasses research regarding innovative techniques and the development, execution and evaluation of operational planning.

To be fully meaningful, a variety of operational equipment is budgeted for acquisition. Otherwise unavailable devices will thus be made a part of our research effort and will also be of benefit to local police agencies in the accomplishment of police services.

Previous experience with a National Political Convention in 1968 has tended to focus our attention specifically upon the items listed below. Each grouping will be commented upon with regard to the Project.

Photographic Equipment		$ 3,684.00
(1)	Three Pose mugging camera This camera simultaneously takes a full face, profile and standing photograph of a subject. It is expected to facilitate rapid identification procedures in multiple arrest situations and reduce film costs in that all images are made on one negative.	950.00
(1)	Movie Camera 16 mm Canon "Scoopic 16" with	$ 1,250.00
(1)	Wide Angle Lens and	400.00
(1)	Fitted field case and tripod	250.00
(1)	Film Processing Tank	100.00

The subject camera combines the capability of relative low-level illumination picture taking with "zoom-lens" magnification and range. Documentation of crowd conduct is coupled with the ability to zero-in on targets of attack and individual leaders.

This device holds considerable promise as a method of gaining intelligence and evidence concerning concerted group activities.

(12)	Polaroid cameras @ $28.50 each	$ 345.00
(125)	Pkgs. Polaroid film @ $3.11 each	389.00

The twelve (12) Polaroid cameras will be utilized to photograph events at the convention site and arrested persons, along with the arresting officers and any evidentiary items connected with a particular event. The ease of use, and rapid development of a finished photo, will permit accurate means of identification during any possible mass arrest situation. Film in the amount of 125 packs of eight (8) exposures each at $3.11 per pack is required for anticipated coverage.

Armory & Protective Equipment		$ 4,585.00
(40)	Face Shields, for helmets	400.00

The above protective devices will be furnished to members of the Special Tactical forces who will operate in three squads of forty (40) men each. These squads are expected to be deployed in the event of severe physical confrontation.

(120)	"Gas Hopper" grenades	$ 600.00
(20)	Launchers for above	700.00

The "Gas Hopper" grenades are indicated to be a modernized and effective variation of a previously well-known tear gas device. While older grenades could be "thrown back" at police officers, the "Gas Hopper" variety, once ignited, continue to move rapidly about, defeating attempts to capture until the contents have been depleted.

(5)	Gas Dispensers, Federal "on/off Aerotrol" or similar.	475.00
(10)	Gas Dispenser Refills for above	400.00

These units permit a continuous smoke or gas dispersing capability with a high degree of portability and rapid initial activation. Inclusion in the project will permit field comparison with other gas dispensing apparatus and an objective evaluation of recently developed equipment.

(1)	Gas and Smoke Generator (Pepper Fogger Type)	375.00

This continuous emission generator will be deployed for use as necessary by selected and trained sub-units of the Special Tactical forces. It is considered to be a necessary adjunct to other equipment and represents a capability in non-lethal weaponry which is not duplicated by other devices employing "single shot" delivery systems such as have been relied upon in the past.

(1)	Metal Detection Sweeper, with Amplifier	$ 200.00
(2)	Metal Detection "friskers" hand held	595.00

Proper and adequate searching for weapons and other metalic devices concealed upon the person of individuals who must be rapidly processed into custodial facilities can best be accomplished by Metal Detection Equipment. Additional utility is gained in the search of premises for pipe bombs or other explosive devices having metal parts. Prior experience during the 1968 convention indicates that bomb threats requiring rapid and discreet searches will occur, not only in the assembly areas but in the hotel facilities occupied by candidates, delegates and party officials.

(2000)	Plastic Retaining Cuffs, disposable nylon plastic	$ 800.00
(20)	Marking Pens, for nylon cuffs	40.00

The use of standard metal ratchet-locking handcuffs during periods of rapid multiple prisoner processing poses serious problems of equipment accountability and the continued capability of the officer to restrain a second or third prisoner. Disposable plastic cuffs may be carried by individual officers in sufficient quantity for twenty-five prisoners or more. They may be marked with the arresting officer's name, a case number or the code section under which the arrest was made, thereby facilitating booking and identification procedures.

Night Vision & Optical Equipment		$ 19,138.00
(4)	Sylvania Model 221 Night Viewing Devices @ $2,995.00 each	11,980.00
(2)	T V Adapters @ $250.00 each	500.00
(2)	Camera Adapters @ $250.00 each	500.00
(2)	Binocular Viewers @ $600.00 each	1,200.00
(2)	28 mm Lens @ $157.00 each	314.00
(2)	50 mm Lens @ $119.95 each	240.00
(2)	100 mm Lens @ $149.00 each	298.00
(2)	300 mm Lens @ $485.00 each	970.00
(4)	Carrying Cases @ $52.60 each	211.00
(1)	Zoom Lens 25mm - 100mm	515.00
(1)	Zoom Lens 15mm - 145mm	750.00

These electro-optical devices require no independent light source such as Infra-red. The unit amplifies any existing light and displays an image similar to a television picture. Using these units, convention complex security officers could observe any night-time activity that may be of an immediate threat.

(2) Mitralux High Intensity Lights, with portable 110 volt alternating current generators $ 1,660.00

These lighting devices are extremely powerful, portable light sources capable of illuminating an area equal to one city block to an extent that conventional photography is possible. Contemplated applications during the national political convention are numerous and include nighttime emergencies, crowd control, and situations where adequate lighting will enhance the security of crucial locations.

Portable Field Fingerprinting Kit 290.00

Kit contains inks, rollers, plates, cards, magnifiers and related cleaning equipment for portable field usage.

Gym and Physical Conditioning Equipment $ 5,000.00

(1) Universal 15 position mini-gym 2,600.00

(1) 20'x20' Resilite Mat 800.00

Labor and materials to construct outdoor obstacle course. 1,600.00

This equipment is required to condition and train police personnel with regard to physical demands which are most likely to occur during convention related events and crowd control. Conditioning is particularly important with regard to minimizing fatigue factors and psychological enhancement toward predictable confrontation.

Radio and Communications Equipment

LEAA SUPPORT $178,486.00

(45) Portable Radio Transmitter Receiver Units, $50,700.00
5 Channel, transistorized F.M., rechargeable at $1,060.00 each $ 47,700.00

(45) Batteries, spares @ $50.00 each 2,250.00

(5) Battery chargers, six unit for above (to afford twenty-four (24) hour capability),@$150.00 each 750.00

The above described "walkie-talkie" type units are highly necessary for field deployed operations as command communications equipment and also as intermediate links between command officers and sub-units or individual officers who are selectively deployed. The five channel capability permits flexible and timely inter-network coordination between "mutual aid" enforcement agency commanders and compatibly permits communication flow among subordinate units attached to any of several "independent" agencies.

1. We presently have twenty-four (24) 2-channel portable radios which are crystalled for routine police operations. These units are between 2 and 8 years old.

2. Severe limitations in overall capability were experienced during the 1968 Political Convention.

   A. Timely communications were impossible because of incompatible borrowed equipment; equipment was unfamiliar to our men; design incompatible between our equipment and that which was provided by Department of Defense; impossible to effectively relay information between diverse cooperating police agencies, necessitating radios with five (5) or more frequencies which were unavailable.

3. The minimal number of five (5) channel sets is requested and can be expected to serve twenty (20) Field or Squad Supervisors while the existing twenty-four (24) 2-channel sets are committed to convention and non-convention activities.

4. Assurance can be given that all 5 channels can be used in conjunction with the diverse cooperating agencies.

5. This choice of channels will prevent possible total jamming of all communications with Command Personnel. Spare batteries and battery chargers are necessary to provide continuous operational capability for the portable radio units.

Radio Crystals 200 sets @ $30.00 each $ 6,000.00

Frequencies used in transmitting and receiving are determined by specially fabricated crystals. In order to provide inter-unit and interdepartmental cross communication, two hundred crystals at $30.00 per set of two are needed.

Helmet Radios, microphone and speaker, transistorized, two-way		$ 7,950.00
(35)	Units, single speaker @ $150.00 each	5,250.00
(15)	Units, two speaker @ $180.00 each	2,700.00

In recent years the proliferation of "required items" which a police officer must wear or carry has resulted in a situation tending to deprive him of the full use of both arms. Most portable radio transmitter units in current use require the hand manipulation of the entire instrument, or at least a microphone and switch, in order to engage in transmission.

When the need to use the radio coincides with the physical requirements of arrest or search, or in subduing an unruly prisoner, either the business at hand or the radio message must wait until the officer can afford to free at least one arm.

An innovative modification holding promise in this regard is the Helmet Radio listed above. One speaker (or two for use in high noise areas) are placed within a police helmet in close proximity to the wearer's ear. A bone-conduction microphone is mounted in the upper inside portion of the helmet. Thus equipped, an officer confronted with responsibilities requiring full use of both arms is not jeopardized because of the need to actuate a radio.

1. The 50 units would serve all diverse cooperating agencies.
2. Experience has proven that:
   A. Both arms must be free in crowd control.
   B. Military clip-on types have been used unsuccessfully.
      (1) Attachment devices are designed for military steel helmets and frequently fell off.
      (2) Frequencies were military and incompatible with existing equipment.
      (3) Wires running from officer's belt to his head-set interferred with his ability to function in crowd control.
      (4) Transmitter tied up one hand during use.
      (5) Receiver was unintelligible in high noise areas.
3. Maintenance and retention of this unique item would provide a continuing capability with regard to frequent situations occurring in connection with arrests, searches, crowd control, et. within this region where complete freedom of both arms and hands are necessary by officers.
4. These units will enhance the communications capability during the time of greatest need and experience has shown that this method approaches a minimum acceptable standard.
5. These units will provide dependable audio reception in areas of high ambient noise.

6. These units have automatic voice actuated transmitters requiring no manual manipulation.

Radio Paging System, complete		$ 15,600.00
(1)	Basic System	7,011.00
(23)	Pagers	7,830.00
(3)	5 unit chargers	360.00
(5)	1 unit chargers	100.00
(23)	Batteries	299.00

This system is necessary to provide the ability to reach key command or technical personnel whose duties do not require two-way radio capability. Persons in this category are those who may be field deployed but who need to respond by telephone or in person based upon a general call.

Mobile Command Van		$ 42,300.00
(1)	Van, customized, with portable 110V. AC generator and air-conditioning	35,000.00
(3)	Mobile Relay Units, 2 channel, 100 watts	6,400.00
(4)	Antennas, for above	900.00

Deployed Field Command communication capability is of utmost importance when dealing with either massed or skirmish-like disorder situations. Usual police emergency radio dispatch centers are engineered to provide effective communications in a generally acceptable but limited spectrum of situations. Routinely, individual units assigned to defined zones deal with a predictable range of police service situations which we have learned to codify with "Q signals" and "Standard Operating Procedures."

Extensively dissimilar radio capabilities become mandatory as new tactical groupings are adopted in response to needs best met by massed platoon or squad effort.

The physical separation of field command communications from the usual police dispatch center (while maintaining secure radio links between both) permits "close in" advantages to the Field Commander while maintaining the operational integrity of the basic radio system.

1. Experience has shown that proximity to the scene of events requiring police services is mandatory for effective command control. Communications are the heart of field command operations and as such, they must be in immediate and dependable readiness at all times during this convention.
2. Experience with borrowed equipment in 1968 resulted in its loss during a most crucial period.
3. Adapting borrowed equipment of such complexity to serve the convention needs requires:
    A. Planning and command documentation
    B. Deployment of personnel
    C. Training of personnel to familiarize them with this resource.

D. Compatibility of communications equipment.

E. Liability on part of borrower.

F. Time frame of required availability prior to and during the convention makes rental or loan impractical.

4. Critical events requiring presence of command personnel occur in diverse areas throughout the entire city thus resulting in the need for the mobility that this equipment would provide. These occurrences are only in part predictable requiring great flexibility of movement and rapid implementation of command procedures.

5. Routine municipal police services must be maintained in all operational aspects without overload or disruption from convention generated activities. Particularly in the area of communication this equipment will provide the necessary cross-communication link.

Radio Scrambler System $ 22,621.00

(1) Radio Speech Scrambler, Base station unit at 466.00

~~(60)~~ 70 Radio Scramblers, mobile units at $297.00 each ~~17,820.00~~ 20,790.00

~~(60)~~ 70 Connecting Cables @ $5.00 each ~~300.00~~ 350.00

~~(60)~~ 70 Scrambler Modules @ $14.50 ~~870.00~~ 1015.00

Police radio communications are effective only to the extent that they are secure from unauthorized interception by persons who would capitalize on the information transmitted.

1. This equipment will permit this department to maintain the integrity of its command communications with regard to unauthorized interception by disruptive groups which, past experience has shown, desire to embarrass or defeat law enforcement agencies in providing security services during the convention.
2. This department is currently without any of this equipment and attempts to rent and borrow have been futile.
3. Past occurrences within the City of Miami Beach have proven beyond any doubt that clandestine monitoring has and will continue to occur. Availability of this equipment now will be of significant benefit in insuring the protection of the dignitaries and candidates frequenting this city from now and thru the convention's many events.

Closed Circuit Television Equipment	$33,315.00
(2) Cameras "Low-light level" with remote pan, tilt and zoom lens at $5085. each	$10,170.00
(4) Cameras, Standard with lens at $1495. each	$ 5,980.00
(8) Monitors at $320. each	$ 2,560.00
(5) Microphones at $70. each	$ 350.00
(4) Microphone Boom Stands at $45. each	$ 180.00
(1) Sound Mixer	$ 650.00
(1) Synchronizing Generator	$ 1,100.00
Lighting Equipment	$ 1,200.00
(100) Video Recording Tapes at $42. each	$ 4,200.00

(1) Video Tape Recorder at $2,600.	$ 2,600.00
Spare Parts	$ 1,850.00
Cabling	$ 425.00
(6) Desk Stands at $25. each	$ 150.00
Tripods, Pan Heads, Switching Equipment, Field Test Instruments and Accessories.	$ 1,900.00

1. To provide a capability for observation of those crucial areas which are not practically surveilled, i.e.: the rear of the speaker platform; crowded spectator areas, points of ingress and egress, demonstration areas, (both designated and spontaneous), areas adjacent to platform and credential meetings, caucauses, and other critical events generated throughout the convention.
2. All indications lead us to believe that it would be impractical to rent or lease this equipment. This analogy can be made because:
   A. The required training for maximum utilization.
   B. Planning for conceptual utilization requires through knowledge of equipment capability, and factors of mobility and dependability.
   C. Placement, operations and maintenance must be done by in-house personnel to prevent possible compromise.
3. Past experience has proven that evidence recorded in this method is admissible in court for prosecution provided that the custodial chain of evidence has been maintained.

4. Manpower resources, otherwise encumbered in surveillance may be re-allocated to other demands.
5. Actual observation by the commander provides more efficient and accurate information for decision making and response.
6. The proposed equipment has been selected because of its flexibility and effectiveness in various levels and kinds of ambient light, and due to need for portability and speed of installation and application.

Mini Bus, 22 Passenger $14,500.00

The need for a medium sized wholly controlled vehicle of this type was generated from prior experience in 1968 during the Republican National Political Convention.

The transport of police personnel in Task Force or Tactical squad size is made possible with such a vehicle. Bulky equipment is also moved about as field problems require. The same vehicle is particularly useful for prisoner transport in multiple arrest situations. Leasing or rental of similar equipment was impossible during the previous convention due to the demands placed upon public and private transportation companies.

Graphic Status Display Devices	$2,725.00
(1) B7 (4' x 6') Charcoal Gray, Magnetic Board	$ 185.00
(1) B3 (3' x 5') " " " "	$ 94.50
(6) SP3 (3' x 5') Solid Gray, Magnetic Board $169. each	$1,014.00
(1) Wall Bracket	$ 140.00
Card Holders, Inserts, Adhesive Stickers, Tape Acetate, Magnets, Rubber Chart Liners and Storage Boxes	$1,291.50

Graphic Status Display Devices

The magnetic boards, charts, indicator devices and related accessories are necessary for utilization in Command Post and radio dispatching centers for the purpose of tactical deployment planning and organizational control of the several diverse but cooperating police agencies which will provide police manpower.

E. Supplies and Other Operating Expenses

TOTAL	$54,410.00
LEAA Support	$32,135.00

16. STANDARD GRANT CONDITIONS Applicant understands and agrees that any grant received, directly or through its State law enforcement planning agency designated under P. L. 90-351, as a result of this application shall be subject to and incorporate the following grant conditions

(1) Reports. The grantee shall submit, at such times and in such form as may be prescribed, such reports as the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration may reasonably require, including quarterly financial reports and periodic progress reports and final financial and narrative reports.

(2) Copyrights. Where activities supported by this grant produce original books, manuals, films, or other copyrightable material, the grantee may copyright such, but LEAA reserves a royalty-free, non exclusive and irrevocable license to produce, publish, and use such materials, and to authorize others to do so.

(3) Patents. If any discovery or invention arises or is developed in the course of or as a result of work performed under this grant, by any level of implementing grantee, subgrantee, or contractor, the grantee shall refer the discovery or invention to LEAA, which will determine whether or not patent protection will be sought, how any rights therein, including patent rights, will be disposed of and administered, and the necessity of other action required to protect the public interest in work supported with Federal funds, all in accordance with the Presidential Memorandum of October 10, 1963, on Government Patent Policy. The grantee in his final narrative report (see (1) above) shall identify any discovery or invention arising under or developed in the course of or as a result of work performed under this grant or shall certify that there are no such inventions or discoveries.

(4) Discrimination Prohibited. No person shall, on the grounds of race, creed, color or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be refused the benefits of, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination under grants awarded pursuant to P. L. 90-351 or any project, program, activity, or subgrant supported by such grants. Grantees must comply with the provisions and requirements of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and regulations issued by the Department of Justice thereunder as a condition of award of Federal funds and continued grant support. Grantees further must comply with the Justice Department equal employment opportunity regulation in Federally assisted programs, to the end that discrimination in employment practices of State planning agencies, law enforcement agencies and other agencies or offices administering, conducting or participating in any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance, on the grounds of race, color, creed, or national origin, be eliminated. This grant condition shall not be interpreted to require the imposition in State plans or planning agency subgrant programs of any percentage ratio, quota system, or other program to achieve racial balance or eliminate racial imbalance in a law enforcement agency. The United States reserves the right to seek judicial enforcement of this condition.

(5) Termination of Aid. This grant may be terminated or fund payments discontinued by LEAA where it finds a substantial failure to comply with the provisions of P. L. 90-351 or regulations promulgated thereunder, including these grant conditions or application obligations, but only after notice and hearing and pursuant to all procedures set forth in Sections 510 and 511 of P. L. 90-351.

(6) Inspection and Audit. The Administration and the Comptroller General of the United States, or any of their duly authorized representatives, shall have access for purposes of audit and examinations to any books, documents, papers, and records of the grantee, and to relevant books and records of subgrantees and contractors, as provided in Section 521 of P. L. 90-351. A notice to this effect shall appear in all subgrants and other arrangements for implementation of this project.

APPLICATION FOR GRANT--DISCRETIONARY FUNDS

16. STANDARD GRANT CONDITIONS--(Cont'd)

(7) Maintenance of Records. All required records shall be maintained until an audit by LEAA or its representatives is completed and all questions arising therefrom are resolved, or for three years after final payment is made on the grant, subgrant, contract, or subcontract under which this project is being implemented, whichever is sooner.

(8) Utilization and Payment of Funds. Funds awarded may be expended only for purposes and activities covered by grantee's approved project plan and budget. Project funds may be made available through a letter of credit system pursuant to rules and procedures as to establishment, withdrawals, etc., issued by the Administration and with which grantees must comply. Where grant awards are not sufficiently large to require this system, payments will be made on the basis of periodic requests and estimates of fund needs submitted by the grantee. Payments will be adjusted to correct previous overpayments or underpayments and disallowances resulting from audit. Letters of credit may be revoked for failure to comply with requirements pertaining thereto.

(9) Allowable Costs. The allowability of costs incurred under any grant shall be determined in accordance with the general principles of allowability and standards for selected cost items set forth in Bureau of Budget Circular No. A-87, "Principles for Determining Costs Applicable to Grants and Contracts with States and Local Governments," as further defined and delimited in conditions 10 and 11 below, and in the LEAA Financial Guide for Administration of Planning and Action Grants.

(10) Expenses Not Allowable. Grant funds may not be expended for (a) items not part of the approved budget or separately approved by LEAA; (b) purchase or construction of land and buildings or improvements thereon, or payment of real estate mortgages or taxes, unless specifically provided for in the grant agreement; (c) dues to organizations or federations; (d) entertainment, amusements, or social activities, and incidental costs related thereto; (e) purchase of automobiles or other automotive vehicles unless provided for in the grant agreement, or (f) indirect (overhead) costs, where the grantee does not have an indirect expense allocation system and rate acceptable to LEAA. Expenditure of funds in excess of the submitted total cost estimate for any major budget category will be permitted only with LEAA approval where this involves an increase of more than 10 percent in the total category cost estimate. Such increases will be deemed, in effect, to constitute an amendment of the grant application and award requiring grantor concurrence. In certain cases, grantees which are State law enforcement planning agencies may extend these approvals on behalf of LEAA for their subgrantees.

(11) Written Approval of Changes. Grantees must obtain prior written approval from LEAA for major project changes. These include (a) changes of substance in project activities, designs, or research plans set forth in the approved application; (b) changes in the project director or key professional personnel identified in the approved application; and (c) changes in the approved project budget as specified in the preceding condition.

(12) Project Income. All interest or other income earned by the grantee with respect to grant funds or as a result of conduct of the grant project (sale of publications registration fees, service charges on fees, etc.) must be accounted for. Interest on grant funds must be returned to LEAA by check payable to the United States Treasury, and other income should be applied to project purposes or in reduction of project costs; provided, however, that if the grantee is a unit of government, the grantee shall not be accountable for interest earned on grant funds pending their disbursement or actual application for project purposes.

(13) Title to Property. Title to property acquired in whole or in part with grant funds in accordance with approved budgets shall vest in the grantee, subject to divestment at the option of LEAA (to the extent of LEAA contribution toward the purchase thereof) exercisable only upon notice within 120 days after the end of the grant period or termination of the grant. Grantees shall exercise due care in the use, maintenance, protection and preservation of such property during the period of project use.

(14) Publications. The grantee may publish, at its own expense, the results of grant activity without prior review by LEAA provided that any publication (written, visual, or sound) contains an acknowledgement of LEAA grant support. At least 25 copies of any such publication must be furnished to LEAA but only 10 copies of training materials (where used in grant project) must be supplied, except as otherwise requested or approved by LEAA. Publication of documents or reports with grant funds beyond quantities required to meet standard report requirements must be provided for in approved project plans or budgets or otherwise approved by LEAA and, for large quantity publication, manuscripts must be submitted in advance to LEAA.

(15) Third Party Participation. No contract or agreement may be entered into by the grantee for execution of project activities or provision of services to a grant project (other than purchase of supplies or standard commercial or maintenance services) which is not incorporated in the approved proposal or approved in advance by LEAA. Any such arrangements shall provide that the grantee will retain ultimate control and responsibility for the grant project and that the contractor or subgrantee shall be bound by these grant conditions and any other requirements applicable to the grantee in the conduct of the project.

(16) Obligation of Grant Funds. Grant funds may not, without advance written approval by LEAA, be obligated prior to the effective date or subsequent to the termination date of the grant period. Obligations outstanding as of the termination date shall be liquidated within 90 days. Such obligations must be related to goods or services provided and utilized within the grant period.

(17) Fiscal Regulations. The fiscal administration of grants shall be subject to such further rules, regulations, and policies, concerning accounting and records, payment of funds, cost allowability, submission of financial reports, etc., as may be prescribed by LEAA, including those set forth in the LEAA Guide for Discretionary Grant Programs and those specified as applicable to discretionary grants in the LEAA Financial Guide for Administration of Planning and Action Grants.

17. ASSURANCE OF COMPLIANCE WITH CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964. The grantee hereby assures that it will comply with and will insure compliance by its subgrantees and contractors with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and all requirements imposed by or pursuant to regulations of the Department of Justice (28 C.F.R. Part 42) issued pursuant to that title, to the end that no person shall, on the grounds of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program or activity for which the applicant receives Federal financial assistance from the Department of Justice. The grantee further will comply with and insure compliance by its subgrantees and contractors with Justice Department equal employment regulation in federally assisted programs (28 C.F.R. Part 42, subpart D) to the end that employment discrimination in such programs on the grounds of race, color, creed or national origin, shall be eliminated. The grantee recognizes the right of the United States to seek judicial enforcement of the foregoing covenants against discrimination, and will include a similar covenant assuring the right of the United States to seek judicial enforcement in its subgrants or contracts.

22. PROJECT PLAN AND SUPPORTING DATA

Please state clearly and in detail, within ten pages if possible, the aims of the project, precisely what will be done, who will be involved and what is expected to result. Use the following major headings:

P. I. Goals
P. II. Impact and Results
P. III. Methods and Timetable
P. IV. Evaluation
P. V. Resources.

Number subsequent pages consecutively, i.e., Application Page 7, Application Page 8, etc. See page 6 instructions for future guidance.

If this is a continuation application, a detailed report of project accomplishments and status, current to within 60 days of termination of grant period, must be incorporated in or appended to the application.

Please see continuing pages #6 through #13.

PROJECT PLAN AND SUPPORTING DATA

Part I GOALS

The primary goal of this proposal is to enhance local police capabilities in providing effective law enforcement services for, and during National Political Conventions.

Contained within the primary Goal are six subordinate goals which must be achieved in order to fully accomplish our objective. These subordinate goals are as follows:

1. To comprehensively research and document problems and solutions with regard to police service during National Political Conventions.

2. To draw operational and tactical plans for implementation of police services.

3. To train police personnel to function effectively with regard to the demands placed upon them.

4. To equip this department with certain devices in augmentation of local resources so as to enhance present capabilities.

5. To effectively implement our plans with trained and equipped police personnel during National Political Conventions.

6. To fully and objectively document the results and relative effectiveness of our initial research, planning, training, equipping and operational execution of police services.

Part II IMPACT AND RESULTS

This project has vital significance in many distinct areas.

The awesome responsibility of law enforcement to uphold the Constitutional Guarantees of freedom of speech and of assembly is never greater than when these fundamental rights are exercised within our political system to select candidates for our highest public office.

Past experience has demonstrated that those Americans who represent our electors, and the host community itself, are most likely to be placed in the shadow of intimidation by the disaffected within our society who would escalate the right of dissent into public disruption.

It is no exaggeration to say that the eyes and ears of the world are focused upon the host community and its highly visible law enforcement resources during this enactment of contemporary history.

It is clear that the highest degree of professional competence and sophistication is most urgently needed to meet so serious a challenge.

Further, it is inescapable that ours is the front-line agency most fundamentally and directly responsible for maintaining the safety of delegates, party officials, candidates for the office of President, and the entire community under conditions which are exceedingly critical and complex.

The impact of our program includes, but also goes far beyond law enforcement. Both positive and negative implications occur.

As an example, should local law enforcement fail to function adequately in this context, it is most probable our system for selecting candidates for our nation's highest office will of necessity be drastically modified.

In a positive sense, of course, we seek to achieve resounding success in providing police services for the convention to the credit of all law enforcement and of our Nation. Concretely, our initial research and documentation will bring together and clarify matters which currently are matters of mere empirical evaluation and conjecture.

We will generate planning documents for the deployment of men and resources, operationally and tactically, to meet a wide variety of conflict situations.

Our training curricul with constituent lecture presentations will represent a systematic body of knowledge regarding the needs and solutions to major problems of vital concern to law enforcement throughout our nation. Subject areas will necessarily include:

Crowd Psychology

Management of Conflict

Intelligence Operations

Equipment Familiarization and Use

Personal Defense

Special Tactical Force Training

It is not expected that the above listing may be considered complete, as our research will undoubtedly generate insight into additional training requirements.

The final documentation will result from evaluation and comment concerning all preceding stages. Our approach will be law enforcement oriented and concerned primarily with the question of operational effectiveness of our planning, training, equipping and deployment.

Additionally, by virtue of the inclusion of professional consultants we seek to document germain psychological and sociological overtones to the main law enforcement effort.

We propose to generate three volumes of documentation of fifty (50) copies each for dissemination to law enforcement agencies generally. These will be tntitled as follows:

Volume I Requirements for Police Services during National Political Conventions

Volume II Training and equipping Police for National Political Convention Service

Volume III Police Operational Planning and Execution, National Political Convention.

Part III METHODS AND TIMETABLE

Methodology with regard to the implementation of this program is contained within five discernible and inter-relating stages, as follows:

I	Research	III	Training and Equipping
II	Operational Planning	IV	Execution of Police Services
		V	Evaluation and Documentation

Timetable

The total duration of this project will encompass a period of fifteen (15) months. It must be recognized that while the several phases are described in terms of a particular time frame, the various stages must "telescope" and operate both sequentially and simultaneously.

I Research

During the first three (3) month period immediately following grant approval we will employ a Project Director, who, with two Assistant Project Directors, will engage in research of existing resources.

This will be done by the acquisition of literature and text materials on the subjects of Conflict Management, Dissident Groups and Individuals, Intelligence Production, Tactical Communications and related subject areas.

Research effort will also focus upon interviews with key police personnel of seven other cities which have provided police services to National Political Conventions or are recognized to be the location of incipient public demonstration and disorder. Acquisition of previous planning efforts and operational procedures will also be accomplished in those cities.

II Operational Planning

Operational Planning will be undertaken in light of the previous research and evaluation. It is anticipated that approximately six (6) months will be required to develop planning required for the following categories of accomplishment:

General Field Operations and Security Plans

Tactical Operations Plans

Contingency Planning

Training Plans, Guides and Outlines

Resources and Equipment acquisition Planning

III Training and Equipping

Training and Equipping will require a period of approximately five (5) months for accomplishment. This time frame projection is based upon factors of student availability due to shift work, irregular days off, court appearance requirements, and also because our forces will consist of personnel employed by at least five separate law enforcement agencies, i.e.

Miami Beach Police Department

Metropolitan Department of Public Safety

Florida Highway Patrol

Miami Police Department

Florida Department of Natural Resources - Enforcement Personnel

IV Execution of Police Services

This phase will involve a time span of approximately six weeks by virtue of Platform Hearings, Convention Committee Meetings and the Convention Meetings in chief.

V Evaluation and Documentation

The final stage, that of Evaluation and Documentation, is expected to be accomplished in two and one-half months and will be the responsibility of the Project Director, Assistant Project Directors and consultants in the area of criminology, psychology and sociology.

Part IV EVALUATION

Evaluation of our project will be accomplished within the documentation generated during the final phase above. It is proposed to have the Project Director and his assistants perform the major portion of this effort with reference to operational and tactical efficiency of planning, equipment usage and pre-convention training. It is recommended that professional consultants in the fields of sociology, psychology, criminology and the law also participate in post-convention evaluation. It is expected that meaningful contributions would be generated with regard to the impact and duration upon police personnel of the complex experiences involved.

N.B. We would solicit the direct involvement of LEAA in the evaluation of the project by virtue of its scope, complexity, and potential for impact upon many related police problems.

Part V RESOURCES

Personnel:

Project Director (To be selected)

This person will be employed on the basis of extensive law enforcement or related experience in an executive or administrative position. Demonstrated ability to manage personnel, resources and funds, to conduct research and produce evaluative reporting and plans will be essential.

Assistant Project Directors:

The Project Director will be supported by two (2) Captains of Police who are currently members of the grantee police department. Each have had considerable and increasingly more responsible experience in numerous specialized and generalassignments. Educational backgrounds include the FBI National Academy, Southern Police Institute (long course) and a variety of police management and administration courses.

Captain B.D. Kruidenier has been a member of this department for over sixteen years and has had prior law enforcement experience of over seven years in our local area and Cedar Rapids, Iowa. He is currently Commander of Intelligence and Vice Division and for over four years was Executive Assistant to the Chief of Police. Prior assignments include supervisory responsibilities in investigation and police patrol.

Captain Konrad vonEiff has been continuously employed by this department since 1958. He has achieved outstanding success in every aspect of uniformed police services including Patrol Commander, Special Events Management, and Supervisor of Traffic Enforcement.

Consultants to be employed in furtherance of project guidance, training and evaluation will be professionals whose attributes combine extensive related experience with full academic credentials in Criminology, Law, Psychology and Sociology. Travel and subsistence funds have been requested to permit nationally recognized experts to participate in our program.

Instructors who will be utilized in the training portion of this project will be the most competent available. It is contemplated that certain areas of instruction will be conducted by the professional consultants described above. Selected personnel of our own department and other local "mutual aid" agencies will provide additional resources in this area.

The grantee police department employs approximately two hundred fifty (250) sworn officers and an additional ninety (90) civilian personnel. Selection and academic standards are high, with some forty percent of sworn personnel currently possessing associate, bachelor or graduate degrees.

The City of Miami Beach is a vacation resort area located in sub-tropical south Florida. Land area is comprised of approximately 9.5 square miles. Current permanent residential population is 86,000. Our principal industry is tourism and conventions. It is reliably estimated that over two hundred thousand visitors temporarily reside within our city at all times.

Unique crime problems occur because of the highly transitory nature of the great majority of persons who are present within our city at any one period of time. While crimes of force and violence are relatively rare, offenses involving larceny and burglary are more numerous, primarily because of the relative wealth of many residents and visitors.

This city achieved considerable recognition as a result of the highly successful Republican National Political Convention of 1968, an undertaking in which several of our local police departments were totally involved. Most of the police officers who provided law enforcement in 1968 are still employed in our organizations.

We look forward to the experiences 1972 may bring us.

Democrats Confident Of Beach Security

By MIKE WEINSTEIN
Sun-Reporter Staff Writer

Call it optimism or a belief that after the last time matters must improve.

But whatever — Democratic party officials and convention security planners said yesterday they will be ready and able to handle law enforcement procedures when Democrats gather in Miami Beach in July.

The occasion was an informational session marking the beginning of a four-month training program for Beach police leading to the convention.

Richard Murphy, the party's convention coordinator, said the extensive 96-hour project (96 hours for each police officer) combined with Miami Beach's "successful experience" of handling the '68 Republican convention, will nearly assure the most well-prepared security force and allow the party to meet its three primary objectives:

—Peace and tranquility in Miami Beach during the convention.

—Orderly and deliberative convention so delegates can make rational decisions about party platform and vital choice of a Democratic candidate for president.

—The right of every person to express his point of view or dissent with knowledge that his civil liberties will be protected., He added that disturbances which rocked the '68 Democratic convention taught the party many lessons and necessitated an overhaul in policies.

"Chicago may have produced a failure at the ballot box; but was successful in that it brought about reforms in convention security procedures and methods of electing delegates," Murphy pointed out.

"We learned how to handle dissent consturctively and with the expertise of the Miami Beach police, we foresee meeting the party's three goals."

But Murphy warned police officials to beware of the possibility that dissidents may resort to tactics which "besieged" the '68 affair.

"Following this training I'm confident security units will be ready, but I can't say what adversaries they might face because for others I cannot speak," Murphy commented.

Paul Rundle, the convention's Security Service coordinator, told the gathering in the Cypress Room of Covention Hall that his department would cooperate in every way possible to guarantee an orderly convention but said Security Service must stick to its designated function — protection of presidential and vice presidential candidates.

Charles Perry, president of Florida International University, which is conducting the project in conjunction with Beach police, said training will include study of Constitutional and statutory laws dealing with dissent and demonstration; use of sophisticated communications equipment and the safest ways of preventing disorders.

He added the program would not only bring stability to the convention but also benefit Miami Beach in the future by "allowing for the development of persons who truly understand the problem today's society places upon our police officers."

Convention To Be 'Circus'

Miami Beach will be hosting more than a Democratic National Convention in July. In fact, the city will more closely resemble a three-ring circus with numerous on-going events tied to the convention.

At yesterday's first day session of the police security training program, convention coordinator Richard Murphy gave a brief description of the non-stop activity which will accompany the big event.

While night hours will be occupied by activity at Convention Hall, morning and daytime hours will consist of rock concerts, fashion shows and, according to Murphy, "a little something for everybody."

Murphy cited several reasons for the diverse entertainment being planned but focused on the new breed of convention delegates.

"In the past, convention delegates were mostly wealthy people and were not representative of the populace as a whole," he said. "But this year the 3,000 delegates and 2,000 alternates will include more women, blacks, young people and other minority groups than ever before and its our duty to schedule a wide range of events and make Miami Beach a place they'll remember."

An estimated 7,200 members of the press will also be on hand.

While visitors will not be at a loss for things to do outside Convention Hall, those unfortunates who can't obtain tickets will probably wonder what goes on inside the hall when Democrats meet.

Murphy compared the upcoming convention to 1968 and said it will be livelier and less orderly in convention procedure due to the vast changes in party policy and noisier because of greater influx of people.

But he soothed the fears of those who recall 1968's debacle by saying the party learned "a great deal" from that experience and "we will not have a repeat of it this year."

"Operation Snowplow" Center for Dialogue
Miami, Florida

"Operation Snowplow" is a non-political coalition of Miami organizations whose purpose is to provide food, shelter and medical services to non-delegate youth groups who will come to Miami for the Democratic National Convention.

[redacted]

A meeting of "Operation Snowplow" was held on [redacted] at the Center for Dialogue, Miami, Florida. b6 b7C b7D Approximately fifty persons were present. Law enforcement agencies were invited to discuss problems that may be encountered during the National Democratic Convention. A discussion of these matters took place.

Toward the end of the session, [redacted] introduced himself and commented on what "The Movement" people might be expected to do during the forthcoming Democratic National Convention.

[redacted] stated that the tentative plan was to establish a statewide coalition sometime in [redacted] in Tampa, Florida. The coalition would then develop a statewide network. [redacted] would function as the coordinator. Meetings would be held to discuss a political platform with the organizations within the coalition.

CONFIDENTIAL

RE: [redacted] b6 b7C

When the statewide coalition has been established, a concert would be held in Tampa, Florida to raise funds. The tentative date for the concert is March 4, 1972. "The Movement" performers and speakers would take part. The highpoint would be the appearance of JOHN LENNON of "Beatles" fame. The concert would be a quick, clean affair to project the image of a "good guy" approach.

The concert in Tampa would again be staged the following day in Miami Beach, Florida, and would be referred to as a political rally for youth. It would be directed toward the problems of old age and aimed particularly at the elderly of Miami Beach. JOHN LENNON again would entertain. Contacts would be made to solidify the aged with the youth movement. The theme would be that some 20,000 "freaks" from Miami would raise money for the elderly.

The purpose of these concerts and its theme would be to establish an effective relationship between the coalition and the elderly political forces on Miami Beach. Every effort would be made to maintain a non-violent, non-political atmosphere in order to protect the relationship established between the youth culture and the elderly. No revolutionary rhetoric would be espoused. Discussions would concern the war and its effect on the aged.

The overall purpose is to establish an image necessary to insure that an area can be obtained for a third rally to be staged during the convention. By building a political base with the elderly on Miami Beach, it might follow that they would initiate the pressures for such an area at that time.

[redacted] commented that the Interama site mentioned as a staging area for "Movement" people during the Democratic National Convention was unsatisfactory. It was too far from the convention site, had too many trees, and the terrain was too rocky. b6 b7C

[redacted] remarked that having developed influence and respect from the elderly on Miami Beach, the third rally or "Festival of Life" could be staged. It was important that the first concert not develop into a rock festival with its image of a following from the drug culture but, rather, as a concert of famous artists.

[redacted] stated that the statewide coalition is to be established as a political pressure group. It would not become a supply or service function for demonstrators who may come to Miami. It would not get bogged down in administrative details. It would not be a part of the problems characteristic of "Algonquin Peace Park" or the "Festival of Life;" specifically, the service problems of food, medical service, housing required, overdoses, and the mud which only create a bad image. "Operation Snowplow" could assume that function. The only service that the statewide coalition might partake in is the marshaling of its own actions. b6 b7C

[redacted] also inferred that if they experienced difficulty in obtaining a rally site, the "big guns" might be brought in for confrontation. DAVIS said they will not be brought in for direct action but for negotiation. He related that the inertia stemming from the 1968 Democratic Convention was more than enough to carry this out without direct action or confrontation with the Establishment in the Miami area. It was the inference of [redacted] that a situation of hysteria would arise as the Democrats do not want another confrontation as happened in Chicago. He remarked, however, that if worse came to worse, the program would be initiated and quite easily carried out, hopefully because of the political base that had already been established with the elderly on Miami Beach.

[redacted] advised those present that it was important for "Operation Snowplow" to establish a political unity. He remarked that the politics of a demonstration determine the tactics of a demonstration and that, in turn, this establishes the direction of the service project. He b6 b7C cautioned "Operation Snowplow" not to fall into the danger point of establishing an exaggerated view of the numerical strength of people who might come to Miami during the time of the convention. He advised that a confusion in their defined role, whether services or political, must be resolved. He informed those present that the political question of an action, meaning the politics of that action, is manifested even in the manner such as the location of a camp site. The selection of such a site is in itself a political statement. [redacted] said it was premature and counterproductive to select the campsites now as groups coming in should have that decision and "Operation Snowplow" would have to interact with them at that time. Another political question that must be considered, stated [redacted] was that of marshals who must be able to interact with the police, as well as their own people.

b7D

[redacted] closed by stating the demonstrations which are not planned to be violent could last anywhere from one to three days at convention time. The worst he could envision would be "Movement" people marching on the Convention Hall to present a proclamation and he doubted this would occur.

[redacted]

[redacted] and local activists, following the meeting of "Operation Snowplow," met at his uncle's residence in Coral Gables, Florida. The discussion hinged on "the day after" which they referred to as TDA. By that, they meant that positive actions and demands were to be made the day after inauguration, at which time the President should immediately call for an end to the war in Vietnam, if it still continued to be waged at that time.

The people in prison should be set free.

The U.S. is built on a system of private gain which causes greed instead of emphasis on social need.

The power of the people is to get together . . . . people are now feeling themselves and wondering what is happening and what needs to be done. This new consciousness of the country could take a giant leap forward. Groups should get together to create. . . . those who feel the situation is important to change. b6 b7C

The country is in deep danger . . . . the leadership has to change.

SHIRLEY CHISHOLM, Democratic presidential candidate, speaks to women, to the blacks and to the poor. She should receive support. By coming together, in a gentle way, we will lift people up all around us and say "Yes, this is right."

[redacted] continued by stating there is a need for a substance of understanding. We must speak and educate in new ways.

People are returning to the country . . . . This is a good thing . . . . getting back to nature. We should have "private and full understanding under full skies."

People need to take themselves more seriously. All kinds of resources are needed for the transformation.

[redacted] in his remarks, also attacked the Texas oilmen who, he stated, exploited the natural resources for their own gain.

He commented also that people have a right to defend themselves if attacked. That's what the Black Panther Party has done. If people get together, they can win and not be subverted. There is a great need for leadership as presently there prevails an anti-leadership syndrome.

MR. NIXON'S PLAN IS NOT NEW

Last night, President Nixon presented to the American people a plan to end the war in Indochina--a plan he claimed could end the war now and,lead to, "the speedy return of all the prisoners of war to their homes". In reality, Mr. Nixon's plan can accomplish neither of these ends.

The People's Coalition for Peace and Justice, organizers of every major national demonstration against the war in Indochina including the Mayday demonstrations in Washington last Spring, finds no new elements in Mr. Nixon's proposal which might lead to a political settlement and a return of P.O.W.'s to their families. Speaking on behalf of the Executive Committee of the People's Coalition for Peace and Justice, Susan Miller and George Vickers (Executive Co-Secretaries of the coalition) made the following remarks:

"President Nixon has proposed an eight point 'peace' plan to end the war in Indochina. He claims that this plan has been offered to the North Vietnamese in private meetings,' and that they have ignored it. He also claims that this plan shows that the United States has offered to set a date for the withdrawal of all U.S. forces from Indochina and the return of P.O.W.'s, and that the North Vietnamese have deceived the American people by speaking publicly of peace while they privately refuse the terms on which peace is possible.

"We say that Mr. Nixon's plan is a fraud which does not satisfy the desire of the American people for an end to the killing, for the return of our troops, and for the release of the prisoners of war. Ever since Mr. Nixon took office, the war movement has put forth consistently the necessary tions for peace in Indochina and for a return of all

.W.'s. Those conditions have not been met by last night's ch, and we repeat them today:

1. Set the Date, Mr. President--The Nixon Administration must set a date certain for the total withdrawal of all U.S. forces and equipment from Indochina. Only after that date is set can a political settlement be reached to free all P.O.W.'s. Mr. Nixon's 'new' proposal only repeats the position he has taken for over a year that the U.S. will set a date after a political settlement is achieved.

2. Stop the Bombing, Mr. President--The Nixon Administrati must stop the massive air war against the peoples of Laos, Cambodia, and Vietnam. Mr. Nixon's 'new' plan says nothing of the B52 raids which are staged from bases in Thailand and Guam, and nothing of the daily jet strikes from aircraft carriers in the Indochina sea. Instead he calls for a cease fire throughout Indochina which would leave in power client regimes of the U.S., and at the same time leave us free to continue the air war.

3. End Support for the Thieu Regime, Mr. President--The Nixon Administration must end its political, military, and financial support for the Thieu government in order that a coalition government can be formed to bring a political settlement to South Vietnam. Mr. Nixon's 'new' plan calls for a new election within the political framework of the Thieu regime. How can there be free elections in South Vietnam so long as all the opposition forces in the South are jailed by General Thieu? Leaders of this opposition such as Truong Dinh Dzu, Mme. Ngo Ba Thanh, and Huynh Tan Mam--along with hundreds of their followers--remain in jail. Others, like Ngo Cong Duc, are hunted by the police, and the National Liberation Front remains outlawed. Opposition newspapers have been closed down, and General Thieu maintains a national police force of 120,000 men under his command to suppress political dissent.

In reality, Mr. Nixon's proposal for an independent election body to supervise the elections is the same as the proposal for a mixed electoral commission that President Thieu has made for the last two years. It is a body which would exist under, and be a creature of, the existing political and administrative framework of the Thieu regime. Thieu's resignation one month before the election would not affect his control of the outcome.

"This eight point proposal of President Nixon only reemphasizes what has been obvious to the American people--the bankruptcy of the 'Vietnamization' policy. After all the rhetoric about 'fairness' and the pursuit of peace through every channel, what emerges from Mr. Nixon's speech most clearly is his unwillingnes. to make a genuine offer for peace because he realizes that the Thieu regime continues to survive only through the massive support of the United States. While he accuses the antiwar movement in this country of being misled by the North Vietnamese, the record which he himself admitted to last night shows that it is Mr. Nixon who is misleading the American people.

"The way to peace in Indochina and to the return of American P.O.W.'s remains what it has been since the day Mr. Nixon took office--Setting a date for the complete withdrawal of all U.S. forces and equipment from Indochina, an end to Vietnamization and the bombing, and an end to U.S. support for the Thieu regime. Only then can we truly achieve, "a peace that can last" "

Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam (CALCAV)

CALCAV is a publicly acclaimed group of clergy and laymen concerned about the war in Vietnam.

Cora Weiss read parts of a press statement issued by the PCPJ which was an answer to the speech of President Richard M. Nixon on January 25, 1972, on peace initiatives of the United States Government to bring a negotiated settlement to end the war in Vietnam. Weiss stated that the eight points presented by the President contained nothing new and that in order to obtain peace the President must set a certain date for total withdrawal of all United States forces and equipment from Indochina. Weiss emphasized that only after the date is set can a political settlement be reached in Vietnam. Weiss also stated that other necessary conditions for peace are that the United States must immediately stop the bombing in Indochina and must withdraw its support of the regime of President Thieu of South Vietnam.

Professor Richard Falk spoke. He stated that the so-called new peace initiatives were nothing new, that they are a re-hash of proposals that go back to the time of President Lyndon B. Johnson in that they would continue in power the current government of South Vietnam. The new proposals contain "no power sharing formula after a cease-fire". A search for a settlement must include a sharing of power and it is only after that is agreed upon can there be talk of a cease-fire. This demand of the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam has not been met. Falk stated that the Vietnamization of the war policy of the Nixon regime has failed in Vietnam although it has to some extent pacified the minds of the American people.

George Vickers announced the following "actions" planned by the "peace forces" in its continuance of the struggle for peace.

> February 11-13, 1972: A large number of Americans will participate in the World Peace Conference in Paris, France.
> February 20, 1972: A demonstration at the airport from which President Nixon will depart for Peking, Peoples Republic of China.
> April 2-4, 1972: "Peace forces" in the East will converge on Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, to demonstrate on behalf of the "Harrisburg Eight" defendants.
> April 15, 1972: Local demonstrations will be held throughout the United States to protest the use of tax payers dollars to continue the war in Vietnam.

Early May, 1972: A series of decentralized demonstrations will be held against United States corporations producing weapons for war which will culminate in a large non-violent civil disobedience type demonstration at a place and date as yet undecided.

July and August, 1972: Demonstrations will take place at the Democratic Party National Convention, Miami, Florida, and the Republican Party National Convention, San Diego, California.

Al Hubbard spoke. He stated that the speech of President Nixon presupposed that the United States had a right to intervene in the war in Vietnam. Also, the president's speech showed the effect that the peace movement has had on his actions as he appeared to be on the defensive. The PCPJ will during the next few months present a solid scenario of information on the war that the President is trying to keep secret.

Hubbard mentioned that repression of the anti-war forces in the United States continues, as illustrated by the recent arrest in Florida of a regional coordinator of the VVAW on trumped-up charges of kidnapping and extortion.

Rita Handman who mentioned she was from the WSP spoke. She stated that the WSP had met on the previous day and agreed to present a paper pointing out that President Nixon is stalling on the peace issue. She mentioned that thirteen members of the WSP would participate on the World Peace Conference in Paris.

Paul Mayer spoke. He stated that President Nixon's war politicies parallel the increase of repression in the United States. He complemented the President on his ability to make "non-issues" out of real issues such as the war through the clever use of Madison Avenue rhetoric. Mayer accused the United States Government of attempting to discredit the peace movement, particularly the "Catholic Left" by making it appear that those in the movement are terrorists.

Richard Fernandez spoke. He stated that the peace movement deserves credit for drawing attention to the lack of credibility of the Nixon administration. He pointed out the exposures of the "Anderson Papers" as the latest example of this lack of credibility. Fernandez stated that the American people are lied to daily by the government and as a result many people do not trust their government or institutions.

The press conference eneded at 11:50 a.m. No incidents were noted.

FINGERPRINT MATTER

On February 18, 1972, Chief of Police ROCKY POMERANCE, Miami Beach Police Department, advised that his Identification Section has a backlog of some 6,000 civilian registration fingerprints which have been taken of persons working on Miami Beach. These fingerprints have been taken based on a City Ordinance passed in 1935 which permits the Miami Beach Police Department to take fingerprints of persons employed on Miami Beach. He stated since July, 1971, as the Bureau is aware, the Miami Beach Police Department has been unable to submit these fingerprints to the Identification Division due to a ruling by U. S. District Judge GERHARD GESELL, which prohibited the FBI from disseminating Identification Records outside the Federal Government. POMERANCE pointed out that the greater majority of persons fingerprinted are employees of hotels and restaurants on Miami Beach. He stated he is very much concerned with the fact that these fingerprints have not been processed through the Identification Division inasmuch as many of these persons will be employed during the coming Democratic National Convention. He stated that any one of them could be a security risk to the various nominees and delegates and that it would be tragic if anything occurs and it develops that the individual involved has a prior criminal record. Chief POMERANCE pointed out that he has been appointed Director of Security for the Democratic National Convention by Governor REUBIN ASKEW. POMERANCE stated he would like to urgently request the FBI, Miami, to do whatever it could to have instant fingerprints processed through the Identification Division. He stated he has conferred with U. S. Secret Service regarding this problem and they agree with him.'

On February 18, 1972, Special Agent in Charge ROBERT NEWBRAND, U. S. Secret Service, Miami, advised that his office and the security detail for the Democratic National Convention [redacted] are greatly interested in having fingerprints of employees of restaurants and hotels on Miami Beach fingerprinted so that their prints may be checked through the Identification Division for prior criminal record. He stated this would be extremely important to U. S. Secret Service and their protective assignment.

On February 18, 1972, Captain [redacted] Identification Division, Miami Beach Police Department, advised that his department's authority for fingerprinting civilian registrants is based on a City Ordinance passed in 1935 and as far as he knows there is no state statute which permits such fingerprinting.

On February 22, 1972, Assistant Special Agent in Charge JAMES O'CONNOR, Jacksonville FBI, telephonically advised that his office had checked with the office of Florida State Attorney General ROBERT SHEVIN regarding current Florida Statutes regarding fingerprints. None of them cover the fingerprinting of hotel and restaurant employees in a local municipality. He stated the only possibility might be in Section 561 of the Florida Statute which states that any person, firm or corporation involved in the manufacturing, bottling, distribution, selling or in any way dealing with alcoholic beverages must be fingerprinted. O'CONNOR stated information regarding current Florida Statutes regarding fingerprinting was furnished the Bureau by Jacksonville airtel dated February 16, 1972, captioned "Non-Federal Applicant Fingerprint Cards".

Bureau is requested to advise if they can accept fingerprint cards from Miami Beach Police Department in accordance with the wishes of Chief POMERANCE in view of the security needs with respect to the coming Democratic National Convention.

Convention aid

Miami Police seek U.S. grant

A Miami police spokesman today disclosed that the department has applied for a $160,140 federal grant to pay for riot control weapons and training which might be needed during the Democratic National Convention this summer.

The spokesman, a top ranking aide to Miami Police Chief Bernard Garmire, said the department applied for the grant Feb. 11 in a letter to the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration of the U.S. Department of Justice.

The application, he said, requested $131,140 to establish workshops for Miami police which would "focus on the application of psycho-social skills and understandings to prevent an escalation (of confrontations) to violence."

In addition, he said, the grant asked for $29,000 worth of sophisticated, non-lethal riot control hardware, including tear gas grenades, tear gas launchers, "stun guns," and elongated wooden truncheons.

CHIEF GARMIRE

The police spokesman said the department explained in its application that it needs federal funds to prepare for an influx of "liberal-oriented political groups intending to demonstrate and protest" during the convention from July 9 to 14.

The police, he explained, were concerned that "the liberal-oriented groups" would stage protests in the city limits, and "we felt that we should be prepared to protect the city of Miami."

The spokesman pointed out that the police on Miami Beach have received a half-million dollar grant from the LEAA to prepare themselves for large-scale protests.

The spokesman, who asked that he not be identified, said Miami police are not now well trained in controlling a crowd in a peaceful, non-violent manner.

In their application to LEAA, he said, the police said "we have little experience in control of unlawful conduct with minimal force using non-deadly skills and weapons" and added that the proposed police training program would teach "the application of non-deadly response methods in the event of violent and unlawful behavior."

A part of the grant, the spokesman continued, would be used to purchase a small arsenal of riot control equipment and to train policemen in the use of these devices.

Among the weapons he said were requested are: 75 wooden batons, ranging from 24 to 36 inches in length, 150 "flame-proof dust CS gas grenades," and 20 gas grenade launchers.

Other weapons requested include: flack vests, gas masks, a smoke generator and 1,000 plastic handcuffs, as well as 10 "stun guns" which fire bean bags and, according to the spokesman, "hit with the force of a fast-pitch baseball."

Besides the weapons, the police also requested several other items, the spokesman said, including photographic equipment, which, he said, would be used "to film problem areas and that sort of thing."

In addition, he said, police asked for several "training films" to show at their proposed workshops. The films depict scenes from the civil disorders in Watts in 1965, in Detroit in 1967 and in Chicago in 1968, the spokesman noted.

The type of LEAA grant which the city police are requesting is a partial matching grant, the police spokesman said, and the police have told the LEAA that they are prepared to put up $69,149 of their own money for the training projects and weapons purchases.

Chief Rocky Pomerance

Convention a big job for big cop

By MILT SOSIN
Miami News Reporter

Rocky Pomerance:
Heavy set, affable.
Police chief of Miami Beach.

In July, he will be catapulted for a week into position as one of the most important men in the nation.

His career was launched 22 years ago as a young officer walking a beat on Lincoln Road and wearing an arm band proclaiming "Hablo Espanol."

It will be Rocky Pomerance's job this summer to guard the convention complex, to insure the safety of the delegates and visitors and to make sure that any confrontations stay within prescribed limits.

(It is primarily the job of the Secret Service to guard the candidates. Beach police will augment the Service Service if requested.)

Pomerance already is devoting by his estimate "a half of every day to the Democratic convention."

The man with the twinkling eyes was born May 20, 1927, in the Bronx, N.Y., as Arnold Pomerance, son of a waiter.

"It was the kind of tough neighborhood," Pomerance says today, "where you just didn't grow up — you survived." It was then he became known as "Rocky" to playmates and street gang adversaries because of his ability to handle his fists.

Rocky was the youngest of three children. A brother, Manny, is a baker living in Newark, N.J. A sister, Mrs. Lillian Kahn, lives with her mother at the Forte Towers, Miami Beach.

The father died when Rocky was 5 years old. It was the height of the depression in 1932 and Austrian-born Mollie Pomerance was left practically penniless with three children.

"There was insurance, I've been told," reminisced Pomerance, "but it was the kind where payments were made weekly. And if you missed a couple of weeks, the policy was canceled.

"When my father became ill, he missed the payments — and that was that."

Manny, then 15, and 17-year-old Lillian went to work. Their mother saw to the children's moral and character development.

"Maybe the fact that I became a policeman came from the deep sense of respect for the law which our mother always instilled in all of us kids," says Pomerance.

Momma's straight and narrow view probably went a long way to keep young Rocky's nose in the books, too. He graduated valedictorian from Public School 6 in the Bronx and then went to Evander Childs High School, working after school and weekends in a machine shop.

He made A's in school

He was straight "A" all the way and graduated from high school in three and one-half years at the age of 16.

Those were the war years and, by 1943, Manny Pomerance was in the Navy in the North Atlantic. Lillian was married and living in Homestead where her husband had an orange grove.

It was then Momma Pomerance picked up her remaining child and moved to the Miami area to be near her daughter.

Rocky was 16 and trying to make the days go faster to his 17th birthday and enlistment in the Naval Air Corps.

He didn't quite make it.

In 1944 Pomerance signed up and passed every physical and mental test with flying colors — almost. Color perception flunked him out.

But it was the Merchant Marine for the adventuresome young man the next day. Within a month he was aboard a high-octane tanker in the Pacific.

The end of the war found Pomerance in Saipan. He returned home and within a few months joined the Army. He was stationed stateside and a year later was honorably discharged.

Boxing was hobby in the Army

While in the Army, Pomerance, using his "Rocky" nickname, boxed in inter-company and inter-battalion prize fights.

"The prize," he recalls, "was a steak dinner and a three-day pass to the nearest town."

After discharge from the Army, Pomerance worked as a mailman in Miami Beach until he joined the police force on Jan. 1, 1950, and was given the armband which advertised his ability to speak Spanish.

He studied Spanish in high school, but is the first to admit now that it was his time in the Merchant Marine, with its periods ashore in such ports as Panama — with its "recreational" facilities — that sharpened his idiom in the vernacular.

In his first stint with the police department, Pomerance stayed six and one-half years, rising to the grade of detective. Then he resigned to run for constable in District 5, embracing Miami Beach and the ocean-front communities and unincorporated areas reaching to the Broward line. He won.

It was at this time that he became "Rocky" legally.

When he qualified to run for office he was told that nicknames were not permitted on the ballot. So he went to court and obtained an order — and "Arnold" quietly disappeared.

Now he's "Rocky" to everyone — except to his 84-year-old mother, who still calls him "Arnold."

Running for re-election as constable four years later, he had no opposition. It was the first time in the history of the district that the incumbent was not faced with opposition for reelection.

Mike Fox, who had been in the drapery business, was then Miami Beach chief of police, a post to which he was named by the then-City Manager Claude Renshaw.

He was pushed for new post

In some quarters it was felt that Miami Beach should have a "professional" law enforcement officer at the top of its force and Pomerance, who by this time had achieved considerable political "clout," was pushed for the post.

In the middle of his second term as constable, in 1963, Pomerance was named chief of police despite opposition of City Manger O. M. (Jim) Pushkin, who had succeeded Renshaw.

Upon his appointment as chief, Pomerance resigned his constable's job in the middle of his second term. Gov. Farris Bryant named to the post Leonard Weinstein, who is now a Miami Beach city councilman and thus, nominally, one of Pomerance's bosses.

While still the "cop on the beat" on Lincoln Road, Pomerance married Hope Marie Nason, a clerk in a Lincoln Road shop.

They have three children, — Ken, 18; Jimmy, 16, and Victoria, 11. Name changing apparently runs in the Pomerance family. Victoria actually was named Vicky on her birth certificate and she was happily Vicky until she was seven years old.

Then she told her parents, in the precocious manner of some 7-year-olds that "Vicky" was not a proper name and it should be "Victoria." Her parents obligingly wrote to the school authorities and Vicky became Victoria in much the same manner as Arnold became Rocky.

The Pomerances live comfortably at 4423 Alton Rd. in a rambling nine-room stucco home. The two-story house is "Spanish Mediterranian" of the style popular in Miami Beach boom times.

Sharing the home is Patrick, a German shepherd born in 1970 on St. Patrick's Day.

"We bought the house a few years ago," Hope Pomerance related, "when you couldn't give them away. We've added to it and rooms go off in every direction, as you can see. We made the garage into a room for the boys."

The house is furnished in what Mrs. Pomerance calls "early attic" period. "Some of the pieces are old and some are new. All we require is that they be comfortable."

The Pomerances are a close-knit family. Very few people know (because they're not up that early) that sometimes Victoria and her father steal out of the house in the early morning hours, when it's still dark, and go to the 46th Street oceanfront just to watch the sun rise over the Atlantic.

Washington commuter

Although it's rough these days, while maintaining practically a regular commuter schedule to Washington to consult with the officials concerned with the convention, Pomerance tries to spend every possible minute with his wife and children when he's in Miami Beach.

On two recent visits to Washington, he took Ken on one trip and Jimmy on the second. Victoria's turn is next. In recent weeks, Pomerance has averaged three trips a month to the nation's capital.

Because of his reluctance to spend time away from his family, he sometimes takes an 8:30 a.m. flight to Washington and returns home on a 5:30 p.m. flight the same day.

And, while convention preparations have affected the entire family, Mrs. Pomerance finds time along with household duties to do television commercials — a food wrap product, a northern telephone company, a bank in Milwaukee and a fried chicken chain among others.

About the convention itself?

As a professional, Chief Pomerance is taking precautions and has his fingers crossed. "The voice of dissent usually is directed at the party in power," he says. "Thus, it was directed at the Democrats in Chicago in 1968 while we in Miami Beach had a relatively calm Republican convention.

"Now that a Republican is the incumbent of the White House, San Diego (GOP convention site) probably will be the scene of dissent."

If velvet-gloved security can prevent it, Miami Beach never will become another Chicago when the Democrats swarm here July 9-14 four years after their 1968 convention ordeal by riot.

From the "city of broad shoulders," the convention switches to the city of sun-tanned shoulders and Police Chief Rocky Pomerance intends to preserve that image.

Pomerance is overseeing the spending of $575,737 on convention security, the great bulk of it on training and communications rather than armament.

And he is seeking to erect his security in "low profile" consistent with the broad, open avenues around the Miami Beach Convention Hall complex, a setting suggesting peace, not conflict.

Like Chicago, Miami Beach has a Michigan Avenue. That lakefront boulevard was the scene of some of the worst rioting at the Chicago convention. In contrast to the bristling police defenses thrown up by Chicago's Mayor Richard Daley, hardly a billy club will be seen on Miami Beach's Michigan Avenue or other streets near the Convention Hall. Not that the necessary men with weapons won't be available on short notice.

Won't reveal strategy

"Police will be placed in places where we think they'll be needed in as low a profile as possible," Pomerance explains. "But I'm just not going to reveal them and draw a map."

Much as this area needs the Democrats and the millions they will pump into the economy, nobody knows more than Pomerance that the Beach must emerge from the spending spree untarnished.

It did so with the Republican convention in 1968 despite the Liberty City riots across the Bay. Only two persons were arrested on the Beach side during the convention. The Rev. Ralph Abernathy's mule train" proceeded without incident.

Other local police officials believe that trouble, if it comes during the Democrats' session, again will develop on the mainland side. But Miami and Dade County police also are undergoing more sophisticated training in the science of crowd psychology, partly under the convention security program.

Miami and Metro police units will be officially attached to Pomerance's mobile convention force.

So will units of the Florida Highway Patrol. The Democratic Party itself will provide security inside the Convention Hall, employing a private guard firm.

And the U.S. Secret Service will guard the various Democratic standard-bearer hopefuls. How many will be in the running at convention time is anybody's guess but 14 are on the ballot for the March 14 Florida preferential primary.

Pomerance's security strategy falls into two phases, first preventive and, second, a program of action when and if trouble starts.

The husky police chief has one great built-in ally — the geography of Miami Beach. Any mass of unruly humanity can be bottled up by bridges across the bay, preventing import of reinforcements or export of the trouble.

Seven different routes lead to Miami Beach but everyone is controlled by a bridge or bridges. The bridges could be opened in an emergency or, more simply, roadblocks could be set up that could only be circumvented by water.

Six of the routes run across causeways from the mainland. The seventh, Highway A1A, from the north, has to cross Bakers Haulover cut via a Bascule bridge.

Isolation possible

With all the drawbridges open, Miami Beach would stand isolated like a castle behind a moat.

Pomerance's other plans, in the event of an emergency, are secret. But money for security is being spent on a far greater scale than in 1968, when only $81,000 was used from an available special fund of $400,000.

The Beach was not lulled by the comparative peace of the 1968 meeting. For one thing, Chicago happened after the GOP convention on the Beach.

The biggest job this time, Pomerance said, is "preparing and educating the community and the country.

"As I see our role, it's supportive and helpful rather than repressive," he said. "I would like to present low-key, low-profile policing.

"I think the key to this department's attitude is the insignia on our police cars: 'We protect, we serve.' Our theme is the effective and humane policing of a political convention.

"We must allow delegates to attain their objectives peacefully. Police will direct, guide and assist, not impede.

"Our role also is to protect demonstrators. We are very conscious of the First Amendment rights of demonstrators. And we must protect the community."

The last task includes maintaining an even flow of traffic in a city where traffic is never very simple. It also includes providing housing for the hundreds or perhaps thousands of people who will be drawn to the convention scene although they are not actually a part of it.

If these people cannot find places to stay in Miami Beach, Pomerance fears, that issue alone might produce a touchy confrontation. In that connection, he is trying to involve Dade County agencies such as the Greater Miami Coalition in obtaining rooming houses or small hotels for such lodging.

Large crowds may pour in Persistent reports have seeped into the Miami area that a heavy influx of active young people including blacks, feminists, Chicanos (Mexican-Americans) and Cubans will come with the convention. Pomerance said his intelligence reports do not support these predictions although the Democrats' more open rules may bring more minority and militant group members to the convention than ever before.

But in 1968, when Chicago had its trouble, the Democrats was the party in power and the natural target of protest, Pomerance pointed out.

"Politically, the thrust is not against the Democrats, and many of the frustrations have been removed over the last three years," Pomerance said. These pressures could be expected to shift to the Republicans, who meet in San Diego in August, he pointed out.

All of Pomerance's 240-man force and special units from other agencies start to school this month at a university that hasn't even opened yet to the public — Florida International.

Prof. Wayne Hanewicz of FIU is conducting the course which will include the background of political conventions, behavioral and sociological studies and the psychology of crowd control.

In the process, the Beach policemen and higher ranks from the Metro, Miami and Highway Patrol forces will earn between 90 and 100 hours of accredited college training. To prepare for this training, Prof. Hanewicz and Pomerance went around the country researching police training curricula.

Funds total broken down

Of the total $573,737 set up for convention security, the federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration provided $395,424 and the City of Miami $178,313. Police education and training was assigned $119,328 and $228,408 was alloted for equipment. Of the latter, $178,486 was spent on communications. Only $4,585 of the remaining expenditures come under "armory and protective equipment."

The communications setup is truly elaborate. It includes a closed-circuit TV system, a radio scrambler, mobile command van, radio paging system and portable two-way radio packs.

The small but select assortment of armor includes face shields for helmets, gas "hopper" grenades that can't be picked up and hurled back at police, grenade launchers, gas dispensers and refills, gas and smoke generators, metal detection "friskers" and disposable plastic handcuffs.

But again, Pomerance emphasizes that the keynote is prevention.

"We feel that we will be able to cope with whatever problems arise," he said. "But by concentrating on the trouble aspect, it may easily become a self-fulfilling prophecy.

"It is my belief this convention will come and go as all conventions here. We've had larger conventions. The difference with the political kind is that they are important to the public and the fact that the news media focus heavily on the affair."

but also helps communities to achieve the kind of progress which will enable them to avoid racial upheavals. Its goal is to help bring about rapid and orderly progress toward securing a life of justice, equal opportunity, and human dignity for all American citizens.

ORGANIZATION.—The Service is organized into three main divisions to accomplish its mission:

Division of National Services supervises all national program activities and projects that extend beyond individual regional boundaries. The Division initially is comprised of two sections: Private Organizations Liaison and Special Projects.

Division of Field Services maintains regional and field offices which provide immediate assistance to local communities through activities designed to eliminate racial disparities and injustices.

Division of Support Services provides technical services and assistance to the field representatives and to indigenous groups, news media representatives, and public and private officials on projects and programs dealing with community and economic development, housing, education, police-minority relations, and communications between groups.

ACTIVITIES.—Among the activities of the Service are: helping communities to identify their social problems that are more apparent from an objective, outside perspective; aiding communities in developing and applying their resources for rapid, orderly social and economic change in minority communities; helping to speed delivery to communities of Federal programs and

SUBJECT: COMMUNITY RELATIONS SERVICE (FEDERAL)

On February 3, 1972 a meeting was conducted in Chief Pomerance's office with representatives of the Community Relations Service of the Department of Justice, Washington, D. C. In attendance were Chief Pomerance, Colonel [redacted] Major [redacted] and Captain [redacted] of this Department and [redacted] and [redacted] of CRS.

Chief Pomerance assured the CRS members that he welcomed any assistance they might offer. They advised that their information indicated little need for their services here including the time during the People's Party Convention in that they had conversed with key people involved with the Party planning.

[redacted] stated that their group is proficient in two categories: b6 b7C

(1) Long-run crisis prevention, and
(2) Crisis resolution.

They claimed to have considerable experience in working with blacks, Puerto Ricans and Chicanos. However, upon Chief Pomerance's inquiry, admitted little or no experience with the Cuban polulace.

[redacted] theorises that they might be able to assist with the media and via "pipelines" to minority groups. Chief Pomerance again b6 b7C encouraged their participation. We discussed the need for a rumor control center and that "Switchboard" intended to serve in this capacity. [redacted] advised that their organization includes numerous competent field representatives that could be of assistance and, inasmuch as we had requested aid, he would assign some of them in this area, including a media specialist. [redacted] who works out of Washington, D. C., stated that he would be in a position to communicate with all groups on the national level and keep us advised.

We discussed the potential of seeking rumor control aid by way of PTA groups and of grograms for training marshalls (from past experience there is usually one marshall for every 20 participants. Potential trouble-makers frequently qualify as excellent marshalls.) Yippies planning nonviolence here

Jerry Rubin, leader of the Youth International Party and a co-defendant in the "Chicago 8" conspiracy trial, announced in Miami Beach today that his organization plans to sponsor nonviolent demonstrations here during the Democratic National Convention this summer.

Speaking to reporters outside the Miami Beach Convention Hall, Rubin said his group, the Yippies, intends to invite young people from all over the country to join them at the Beach during the convention July 9-14.

Rubin would not speculate on exactly what sort of activities the Yippies would hold at the Beach during the convention, saying that his group has not yet discussed detailed plans.

But he said the Yippies intend to practice non-violence in any protest they might stage, and are hoping to avoid any unnecessary confrontations with police.

Rubin was one of the key organizers of the demonstrations that rocked the 1968 Democratic National Convention in Chicago. He later was indicted in federal court for allegedly crossing state lines with intent to incite a riot in Chicago.

Rubin said today the Yippies do not plan to stage repeat of the Chicago demonstrations here.

2 days at Demo convention

New coalition to sponsor protests

By ROBERT STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

A spokesman for a new coalition of activist groups in Florida announced today that his organization will sponsor two days of nonviolent protests in Miami Beach during the July Democratic National Convention.

The announcement was made here by Jack Lamont, a leading member of the new group, the Florida People's Platform Coalition.

In an interview with The News, Lamont, news director of radio station WBUS-FM in Miami Beach, said that the new coalition will meet upstate this weekend to begin planning the protests, which will be held outside the Miami Beach Convention Hall on two successive days the second week in July.

Lamont said that the new coalition of liberal and radical activists from across the state plans to invite people from across the country to attend the demonstrations.

He said that the group is hoping the two days of protest this summer will be orderly and nonviolent.

"The demonstrations will consist of a peaceful legal rally and march sequence lasting no more than two days," LaMont said. "The events will surround the date that the presidential candidate is nominated."

"The primary focus of the strategy is to move the issue of the war and the need for immediate total withdrawal (from Vietnam) back into the campaign."

Lamont said several domestic issues will also be stressed during the protests.

Until now, only two national organizations — the Yippies and the Zippies — have announced plans to protest at the convention, and New Left sources have said neither group has the following necessary to draw large numbers.

Lamont said he is confident that his organization will be able to draw significant numbers of demonstrators to the convention — though he declined to estimate how many.

He said the new coalition has been in touch with several large national protest groups in the North, and there is a good chance that the organizations, including the Vietnam Veterans Against the War, in Washington, D.C., will help organize the Beach protests.

In the coming months, Lamont said, his group, which he described as "anti-sexist, anti-racist and anti-imperialist," plans to mount an intensive publicity campaign throughout the country to attract demonstrators — especially those living on the East Coast — to Miami Beach this summer.

Lamont said the publicity campaign will be similar in scope to the one being organized by a West Coast coalition making plans for demonstrations at the Republican National Convention in San Diego in August. But he said that he does not expect as many demonstrators to come here as are expected in San Diego.

Observers on the West Coast have predicted in recent weeks that at least 500,000 people will travel to San Diego to stage nonviolent protests there in August.

In Miami, police and liberal organizers have predicted that at least 10,000 protesters and other non-delegates will be at the convention. Some estimates have ranged as high as 50,000 to 100,000.

Re: JERRY CLYDE RUBIN

The February 13, 1972 issue of "The Miami Herald" contained an article entitled "Registrars Swamped on Final Day--Jerry Rubin Pops Up as Republican". This article concerned the newly qualified to vote as the result of a decision by a panel of Federal judges in Orlando, Florida, who "threw out the state's residency requirements for voters".

According to the article, WILLARD MILLER, Acting Supervisor of Elections, disapproved of the Federal court decision predicting it could lead to widespread voter fraud.

The article continued by stating Chicago 7 defendant JERRY RUBIN, who arrived in town late Saturday, popped into a department store and added his name to the books registering as a Republican. According to the article, the radical activist RUBIN said he wanted to "mystify and disorient the party system and...to vote against NIXON".

February 14, 1972

JERRY RUBIN reportedly was under the influence of a narcotic described as MDA. He was attempting to ward off its effects in order that he might be able to appear at the UM that evening as scheduled.

MM T-1 [redacted] b7D

JERRY RUBIN spoke at the UM on the evening of February 14, 1972. Approximately 400 were in attendance. He commenced at 8:30 P.M. and spoke for an hour. No incidents occurred.

RUBIN, in his remarks, lacked a continuity. He stated he had something the day before (inferring narcotics) and did not know what was going on or what day it was. He forgot his subject matter. His talk was geared to be humorous. He mentioned the forthcoming Democratic National Convention and stated the UM students, who are in Miami, should lead the way. They should build an organization in Miami that would facilitate helping of outside agitators coming to Miami. The UM students know the streets where actions could take place. Agitators, thus organized, could then go from Miami to San Diego.

RUBIN mentioned he registered to vote as a Republican but that he supported presidential candidate SHIRLEY CHISHOLM.

He mentioned presidential candidate GEORGE MC GOVERN, who is concerned it appears with the blacks and the poor and that if he is so interested, he ought to be pushing SHIRLEY CHISHOLM. He stated MC GOVERN was chauvinistic and recently presented his wife as his valentine. MC GOVERN takes a position on marijuana that penalties should be reduced for users but increased heavily for pushers and dealers. If that is the case, who is going to deal, and so this is an example of MC GOVERN's double standard.

After speaking at the UM, RUBIN met with a small group in the Coconut Grove area of Miami to discuss the forthcoming political conventions.

February 15, 1972

JERRY RUBIN was a guest on a talk show broadcast by radio station WBUS-FM, Miami Beach, Florida on the late evening of February 15, 1972. On the program he announced he would hold a news conference the following day in front of the Miami Beach Convention Hall, the site of the forthcoming Democratic National Convention. RUBIN answered questions phoned in by the listening audience, but was interrupted when a bomb threat was received at the radio station.

2/21/72

JERRY RUBIN and STU ALBERT were guests on a talk show broadcast over radio station WBUS on the late evening of February 15, 1972. The program consisted of music with a counter-culture theme.

RUBIN indicated he and ALBERT had recently been in Chile which he described as having more political freedom than the United States.

Both fielded a number of questions from the listening audience. In response to one, RUBIN commented that every FBI Agent is a potential defector from the FBI; that the FBI should be abolished.

He stated that today he probably would not perform some of his more bizarre acts as he had in the past, such as appearing on a television show in judicial robes, then doffing the robes and trampling on them. He remarked that political protest by the youth culture is currently muted but far from dead.

At several points in the program he expressed contempt for the Democratic presidential candidates with the exception of SHIRLEY CHISHOLM.

When a caller requested support of RUBIN for "Operation Snowplow" he stated he had no knowledge of the project. When it was explained to him that it was a nonpartisan effort to feed, house and transport youthful demonstrators who may come to the National Democratic Convention, he said that he would support the concept. Shortly after midnight while still on the air, a bomb threat was received at the radio station.

Re: JERRY CLYDE RUBIN ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"Operation Snowplow" is a non-political coalition of Miami organizations whose purpose is to provide food, shelter and medical service to non-delegate youth groups who may come to Miami for the Democratic National Convention.

MM T-1

February 16, 1972

JERRY RUBIN held a press conference on February 16, b7D
1972 in front of the Miami Beach Convention Hall, the site of the forthcoming Democratic National Convention. Because of the bomb threat received during his broadcast the previous night, RUBIN was apprehensive that unfriendly elements might disrupt the press conference. He requested a local activist to be present and to serve as his bodyguard.

MM T-1

RUBIN during the press conference, stated he and STU ALBERT knew people in Miami who have planned demonstrations during the Democratic National Convention in July, 1972. He remarked all probably remember what happened four years ago and that he thought the Yippies along with the people in the streets defeated the Democratic Party and that Yippies from all over the country will be coming to Miami.

There will be 10,000 Yippies marching naked in front of the convention hall . . . . there is going to be marijuana smoked everywhere . . . . we will not tolerate the nomination of HUMPHREY, MUSKIE, JACKSON or WALLACE.

RUBIN said he hopes its peaceful. There will be no point for violence. He heard the police are taking sensitivity training classes and that is good. It was the police who made it violent in Chicago. If there is any violence, it will cost the Democrats the election. RUBIN said they are coming in numbers to make their presence felt and express themselves and if the police attack or do not give a permit, then all the bombs are their responsibility.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

From Miami we're going to march to San Diego . . . . there will be a million people in San Diego who will surround the Republican National Convention and make it totally impossible for RICHARD M. NIXON to be re-elected.

RUBIN stated that every kid is going to want to spend their summer in Miami and San Diego and though campuses are quiet all kinds of high school kids and college kids will come to those cities . . . . Miami will probably have the biggest demonstrations it has ever had . . . . we're on a speaking tour throughout Florida . . . . we will stay here to work with local people in making it happen.

RUBIN was asked concerning Chief of Police (Miami Beach) POMERANCE's statement that the minute they break the law they will be thrown in jail. RUBIN responded by saying the moment he breaks the law we'll throw him in jail. He'll be the lawbreaker not us . . . . he'll have the heaviest artillery but we'll have moral, spiritual power on our side.

RUBIN stated they were planning a non-violent celebration . . . . the Democrats paid a big price in 1968 . . . . they don't want to repay that price in 1972 . . . . they do not want violence . . . . they can avoid this by giving us march permits and a place to assemble.

RUBIN stated there will be enough food for everyone, housing and dope . . . . we hope the person the Democrats nominate for president comes out on to this lawn and gets stoned with us . . . . everyone smokes dope now . . . . the delegates will be smoking dope . . . . some of the candidates smoke dope. Check out the odor in the smoke-filled rooms.

RUBIN remarked that his base of operations will be Miami Beach, Florida, but admitted he does not have an office as yet.

Re: JERRY CLYDE RUBIN

RUBIN was asked if he was committed to a non-violent protest and he said yes. He stated to him violence is capitalism.

RUBIN stated that SHIRLEY CHISHOLM was a most acceptable political candidate for the presidency. She represents black people, women, poor people, ghetto people and people on the bottom. She has no chance because she is not acceptable to the middle-aged male politicians that are going to dominate the convention and produce probably MUSKIE who is just another version of RICHARD NIXON.

RUBIN stated that the Brooklyn Liberation Front will be down . . . . people from Brooklyn usually create a stir . . . . they're not quiet and soft-spoken . . . . so we imagine Miami is going to look a little like Brooklyn.

RUBIN again remarked he expected 20,000 to march naked and he has a commitment from JOHN LINDSAY and HUBERT HUMPHREY to join the march.

When asked if he would wear a NIXON button, RUBIN responded by saying RICHARD NIXON is helping the cause of communism by going to China . . . . he is helping Chinese influence throughout the world . . . . he is influencing communism throughout America. He has been anti-communist all his life, but just to get re-elected he will do anything . . . . he'll go to China to sell the whole country to communism . . . . RUBIN stated he would put on a NIXON button because NIXON is a secret member of the Communist Party and in China he is going to say that he has been a Marxist-Leninist all his life.

When questioned concerning Chief of Police POMERANCE's statement that they would go to jail if they break the law, RUBIN responded by stating Mayor DALEY (Chicago, Illinois) said that and was very foolish . . . . POMERANCE does not want to be another Mayor DALEY . . . .

STU ALBERT then spoke and stated that the Democrats are different from the Republicans, but they will have to prove it . . . . the only way they can do that is by setting a date . . . . NIXON has not set a date and that is why the war is continuing . . . . we're going to demand that the Democrats set a date . . . . that their candidate for the presidency sets a date and lets the American people know what that date is before the election.

ALBERT remarked they're going to bring as many people as they can to Miami to force the Democratic Party and their candidate to set the date. b7D

February 19, 1972

The February 20, 1972 issue of "The Miami Herald" contained an article entitled "Sunshine Special Streaks Into Miami". This article concerned a campaign train of Senator EDMUND MUSKIE that traveled from Jacksonville to Miami with the senator aboard.

The article stated that JERRY RUBIN had boarded the train in West Palm Beach with press credentials apparently obtained from a Rolling Stone's Washington correspondent. Yippie activist JERRY RUBIN interrupted the senator repeatedly and heckled his remarks at the various whistle stops. MUSKIE ultimately wound up scolding RUBIN and cut short his remarks after snapping at RUBIN, "You don't want to hear what I think; you don't want to dialogue. You're just here to disrupt the meeting".

February 20, 1972

JERRY RUBIN had scheduled a meeting of the Miami Liberation Front to take place February 23, 1972 at the UM to discuss plans for the forthcoming Democratic National Convention. RUBIN was advised that he was premature and the meeting was cancelled. He remarked "I don't understand".

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY

The Youth International Party, also known as Yippies, is a loosely knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

On February 22, 1972 [redacted] supra, advised he had contacted the legal office of ABC-TV, New York City, and was advised if a group appeared as scheduled to receive a spokesman from the group to determine what specific demands of ABC-TV were being made. The demands on being determined were to then be relayed to the legal office in New York City. If demands were legitimate in nature, appropriate consideration would be given concerning them. [redacted] advised ABC-TV had not been contacted by anyone representing a protest group for any reason or concerning equal TV time in behalf of a candidate for elective office sponsored by such a group.

On February 22, 1972, SAs of the FBI observed approximately 12 young adults, all caucasians, including three women, gather at about 11:30 a.m. in front of the ABC-TV building, 190 North State Street, Chicago, Illinois. The group formed a circle on the sidewalk in front of the building and began to chant as they marched carrying signs with their words of their chant. Slogans of the chant and on the signs included "ZIPPIE", "Free Howard Hughes", "Hey, Hey ABC, Put Our Rock on TV", "Youth Can't Be Taken For Granite", "U.S. Out of North America" and "Vote Rock in '72".

Several demonstration participants spoke to passerbys telling them ABC had refused to allow their presidential candidate equal campaign time on the network. On gaining any interest from a passerby, demonstrators would call one of the demonstration participants who carried a red, white and blue towel, with white stars on it, draped on a pillow on which a rock was placed. The demonstrators would tell the passerby that the rock was their candidate. The demonstration participants all appeared to be good natured and the entire affair was conducted in a carnival manner. The demonstrators were frequently heard telling people to be "happy". No effort was made to enter the ABC-TV building, contact ABC officials or impede building or sidewalk traffic. The demonstrators sold a single sheet centerfold newspaper called "JOY" for five cents a copy and handed out leaflets announcing the ABC-TV demonstration that was in progress. The leaflet passed out was the one obtained by source one and set out above.

The demonstration group voluntarily disbanded at 1:15 p.m. without incident and no arrests were made. No representatives of the TV or news media were observed on the scene at anytime during this activity. During the entire incident uniform officers of the Chicago Police Department were on the scene.

Among those identified by an SA of the FBI who observed the demonstration were [redacted] also called [redacted] and [redacted] all self-identified New Left street activists in Chicago.

b7C

On February 22, 1972, [redacted] supra, ABC-TV, Chicago, advised no representative of the demonstrating group made or attempted to make contact with ABC-TV, Chicago, management prior to, during or on completion of the demonstration activity. [redacted] stated ABC-TV, Chicago, did not cover the activity professionally for airing as a news item and official policy of ABC-TV was to ignore the entire incident.

On February 22, 1972, source one, who was a passive participant in the ABC-TV, Chicago, demonstration, made available a copy of the single sheet centerfold newspaper captioned "JOY" which was sold for five cents a copy during the demonstration. The following is a reproduction of that publication.

GOOD TIMES

We call ourselves ZIPPIES because what our scene has lacked for the past four years is ZIP. ZIPPIES have ZIP. We're past hippies, and beyond yippies. After Y comes Z. We're Zippies. Our program is simple—Peace Now, Freedom Now. We believe in good times for all. We feel if we are going to achieve Utopia, somebody has to get the ball rolling.

SUNNY MIAMI

Just broadcasting our interest to go will change the drift of the primaries, as regular Dems wake up & see we're not going to let 'em con anybody. The conventions are the solar plexus of the system. The outlines of San Diego have already become clear. But, we are much more into Miami because we're from the eastern end of the country & be-cause it'll be different from either San. Diego or ChiTown '68. The governor there is a Lindsayite Democrat. The regular Dems are anxious not to screw up their new youthful image. They will welcome youth & try to channel us into rock concerts & meaningless workshops. Their object will be to make us into window dressing for the same old shit. Our goal will be to expose it.

In '72 YIP and ZIP represents & speaks for all the people--not just freeks, not just youths. In '72, we're for the human being. Every state will bring a rock to Miami, & 2 rocks will be chosen as the YIP-ZIP "slate" for office. We're going to show that the youth vote can't be taken for granite, we're gonna rock the boat in '72. We want to catapult our rock into the White House. Make '72 one big rock festival

Cast your vote with the rock.

MIAMI

The Zippies are going to Miami. Nixon visits Mao in China. Huey Newton tells the panthers to put down the gun and pick up a hammer. Gloria Steinem dates Henry Kissinger. Jerry Rubin tells kids to bring their parents to San Diego. And the Zippies are going to Miami.

The Zeitgeist International party was formed in a smoke-filled room in Madison Wisconsin. There, about 35 former hippies, yippies, weatherpeople and other assorted freeks, met to discuss the future of the american cultural-political movement.

The meeting began with a mass cry-in, where everyone expressed thier grief over the death of joy. The culture had been taken over by hip-rip-offs like Rolling Stone magazine (Rolling Stone is owned by the Kinny Leasure Time Co. These same people own 75% of the record companies, and are responsible for record price increases you have been noticing lately). There was much crying over the death music of James Taylor and Cat Stevens, which had gotten thousands of young people off of the $2 dance floors into the $5 concert seats.

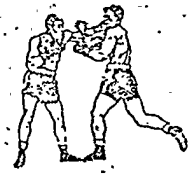
The Movement didn't look a whole lot better. It seemed that no one was smiling very much any more. People were split into little groups, and none of them were doing much of anything except writing books. Also there were a lot of super-stars running around, and people waited for them to do things rather than doing them for themselves.

CONFIDENTIAL

We wanted something that would put the Zip back in the youth-culture and back in the movement. We wanted to ressurect those bodies that had been zombified by the Jesus Freaks. So the Zippies were born.

There would be no Zippie superstars, no hardline Zippie ideology, no Zippie ripoffs. We were going to Miami to have an alternate convention. A five day party to show the rest of the country and the world that our party is the only real party. The Democrats, Republicans, Communists? You call those parties? I've had more fun at a Wake.

We know that there is no choice between Nixon and Muskie. Each party talks about the youth vote.
We are running a rock for president.
We don't want your vote.



There will be no youth vote. Muskie was booed off the Univ. of Wisconsin speakers platform, and everybody hates Nixon. The real power is not in the ballot or the bullet, but in the body. It is the power to have a good time when the rest of the world is trying to destroy you. There is no defense against joy.

Women like Bernadine Dohrn and Angela Davis gave many the will and need to fight for freedom and joy.

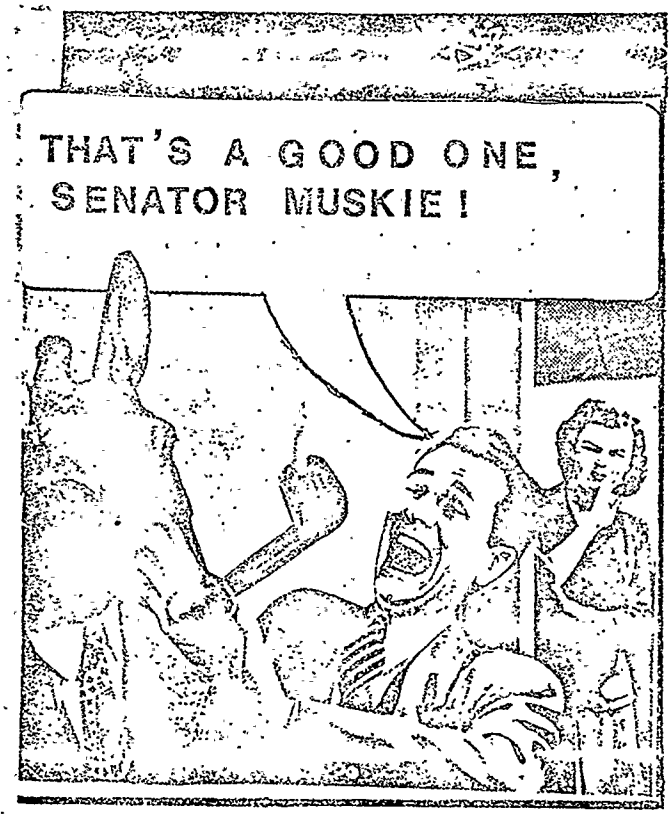
Now it is time for us to act on our own. We can't rely on Bernadine or Abbie or Jerry or Angela. We must begin to do things ourselves. Saying 'Right On' to what others are doing isn't any good any more. Each of us must become her own superstar.

TWO WORDS

A Word About Superstars: Men like the conspiracy seven have done a lot for the movement. They were oganizors and inspirations for large numbers of american youth.

A Word About The ROCK: The Zippies nominated a rock for president so that we could avoid superstars. Who could idolize a rock? Also, rock (of...and Roll fame) is part of the Zippie culture. Finally, the rock will never be able to give a serious answer to a question. It will be permanately stoned.

CONFIDENTIAL



THAT'S A GOOD ONE, SENATOR MUSKIE!

What a trip!

CONFIDENTIAL

SAN DIEGO

The Zippies are going to San Diego. Leslie Bacon is in jail. William Rehnquist is in the Supreme Court. May-day people are in concentration camps in Washington. And the Zippies are going to San Diego.

ROCK, who will have declared his candidacy for president in Miami, will switch parties, taking John Lindsey's place as a Republican.

There will be a cross country caravan from Miami to San Diego. The Rock will make whistle-stops all along its path to S.D. On this trip Rock will pick up thousands of supporters and they will all arrive in San Diego together.

Unlike Miami, San Diego will have people from groups other than the Zippies. The May Day Tribe, Student Mobilization, and various assorted Trots, Peace Creeps, Stalinoids, and Subversives. The Zippies will join them bring joy.

Zippie activities, however will aim to please only the warped Zippie minds. There will be no street marches, only street dances.

There will be no sneers on angry faces, only tears of joy and happiness. No one will be up against the wall. The wall will be torn down.

Most important we will refuse to be manipulated by parade marshells, or group spokesmen, or demonstration planners or any one else. We will be ourselves. The Spirit of the times, coming to haunt Nixon and his ghosts of wartimes past.

Yes, it will truely be a confrontation of souls this time-- Not bodies, they have bigger and better guns than we have--but of spirits, life verses death, good verses evil. And, if you've read your bible or your Marvel Comics, you know who will be the winner.

[redacted] told source, during the demonstration, that the purpose of the event was a "put on" of the lack of sincerity of both constituted society and self-identified New Left leadership. [redacted] observed society and self-designated liberal leadership have become so involved with self-perpetuation in constituted images that their avowed idealistic dedication to the problems of society at large have been lost or completely overlooked and the leadership of each element is now indistinguishable. [redacted] compared the presidential "rock candidate" spoof to the same type of "put on" the YIP pulled in having a "pig" who was called Pigusis for a presidential candidate during the 1968 presidential elections.

Source further advised [redacted]

b6
b7D

On February 22, 1972, a fourth source, who is in a position to know, but who has furnished insufficient information to establish reliability, advised [redacted] phone [redacted] ZIPPIES are members of the "Zeitgeist International Party", the political arm of YIP. ZIPPIES are the free youth spirit of the nation's culture with no leadership element, rules or binding allegiance. Constituted leadership within organizational framework, as represented by Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman, original founders of YIP, have been totally rejected. Rubin and Hoffman have completely degenerated into elitist personalities who have lost the prospective of YIP movement freedom and are continuing struggling, no longer for the movement, but to manipulate and exploit the movement for self-identification as spokemen and leaders. Complete freedom is the objective of ZIPPIES as set out in the ten point program published in the "JOY" publication which was distributed at the ABC-TV demonstration.

[redacted] stated YIP-ZIPPIE plans to be present at both the Democratic and Republican conventions during the summer of 1972. A New York City branch of YIP, not further identified, has been in contact with city officials at Miami, Florida, and negotiations are underway to provide for YIP-ZIPPIE activities during the July, 1972 Democratic National Convention in Miami. [redacted] assured absolutely no violence of any nature is advocated by YIP-ZIPPIE during any of their activities. He explained their complete approach to everything is absolute freedom, joy and love. They will express this thought during the summer of 1972 at both of the national political conventions.

[redacted] related the demonstration conducted at ABC-TV, Chicago, was conducted in the "JOY" manner to advocate the election of a "Rock" for president of the United States and to seek time for the "Rock" candidate on TV in the same manner of "put on" initiated by YIP in nominating a pig, who was called Pigusis, as their presidential candidate during the 1968 presidential elections. The complete approach is a "spoof" to put some fun in the political election process, to spread joy and to laugh instead of becoming a part of a deadly serious process in the continuation of a bland society dedicated to misery, poverty and war. b6 b7C

In regard to the ABC-TV demonstration of February 22, 1972, in Chicago, Board stated YIP-ZIPPIE did not have any specific reason or animosity in selecting ABC-TV as the target for discrimination against their Rock presidential candidate. [redacted] stated any TV station would have been acceptable, but "ABC was the first TV station listed in the Chicago phone book so it was selected for the demonstration".

[redacted] stated a rock music festival is planned March 31, 1972, at the IWW Hall, 2440 North Lincoln, Chicago, Illinois for the purpose of raising funds for YIP-ZIPPIE to be present at the 1972 Miami and San Diego national political conventions. [redacted] observed other events will also be announced in the future for the purpose of raising funds and to continue stimulation of interest in their activities. b6 b7C

Source stated as a result of this conversation with [redacted] it is obvious YIP-ZIPPIE is not a functioning entity but at the most is only an idea of a few would-be self-styled spokemen of an old theme that has been "palmed-off" in the past as a meaningful expression of youth. YIP-ZIPPIE at the present is at the most a mass confusion without substance, a membership or even an identity support by any element of society. YIP-ZIPPIE influence will possibly be present at the 1972 political conventions. Unquestionably, students, youth derelicts and the curious, who have nothing else to do during the summer of 1972, will gravitate to the political convention sites. They will appear because of the excitement of those events, in a word "where the action is", to observe or participate in the carnival atmosphere of rock music festivals, marijuana and other drugs, as well as promiscuous sex that will be advanced as being available during these events. The people of this description who appear at the convention sites will be there because they want to be and not because they are a part of a plan or have been organized for mass disruptive activity. In this atmosphere, however, if there should be a confrontation incident, the self-styled leadership and their claques, such as YIP-ZIPPIE, could fan an incident into a nasty affair and claim credit for disruption as the result of an imagined or an actual grievance of the masses. Such occurrances are absolutely essential for the perpetuation of the megalomania of such proclaimed leadership and people of this nature will be alert for incidents to utilize for their own personal notoriety.

Convention

Snowplow is denied Metro aid

By ROBERT STULBERG

Miami News Reporter

County Manager Ray Goode yesterday rejected a request for county funds from a coalition of liberal groups planning to assist protesters and other non-delegates expected during the Democratic National Convention in Miami Beach in July.

Goode told The News that the county will not provide $6,500 requested last week by the coalition, the Miami Snowplow Company.

"The question of whether the county has a financial responsibility in this case has been pretty much resolved," Goode said. "The county will not be giving money to this organization."

Snowplow representatives sought the funds at a Metro Commission meeting Feb. 16. The funds, they said, would be used to defray basic operating costs of the organization.

At that meeting, a number of commissioners expressed opposition to the request but left the decision up to Goode.

Goode explained he denied the request partly because Snowplow is a private organization and the county, by law, cannot fund such a group.

In addition, he said he believes the county — not Snowplow — can best provide services for the thousands of non-delegates expected at the convention.

"We feel strongly that we would like to cooperate to help make this a peaceful convention for everyone here," said Goode. "But we feel that services of this sort should be provided through the manager's office."

Goode said that in the past Dade has been able to provide housing and other emergency services during hurricanes "and other natural disasters," so it ought to be able to provide adequate services for non-delegates at the convention.

He said Metro has an "ongoing plan" to handle a large influx of non-delegates but that he did not care to describe details of the arrangement.

"We have a planning process under way," Goode said, "one that will continue until the Democratic Convention and one that will not receive a good deal of publicity."

Re memo of ASAC FREDERICK F. FOX, 2/18/72, with regard to a possible televised interview of Constable IVAN NACHMAN on that date.

The ABC News Program on Channel 10, from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m., 2/18/72, was monitored and no interview of NACHMAN appeared on this program. However, on the 11 o'clock newscast of PRESCOTT ROBINSON, Channel 4, a short interview of NACHMAN was conducted by a Channel 4 Newsman during which time NACHMAN alleged that he had received information from his "undercover agents" to the effect that two groups in Miami are planning demonstrations during the Democratic National Convention which could well errupt into violence. According to NACHMAN, one of his "undercover agents" had observed weapons in possession of these men.

ReBuairtel to Albany, 11/2/71, captioned "Demonstrations During the Forthcoming Political Campaign" and Buairtel to Albany, 1/19/72, captioned "Demonstrations During the Democratic National Convention."

Referenced communications instructed that information developed concerning demonstrations at the national conventions of the major political parties should be submitted using the code words "CALREP" and "MIDEM."

It appears that some field offices have misconstrued these instructions. On an increasing number of occasions, communications have been received at the Bureau under one or the other above captions (CALREP or MIDEM) which do not directly relate to demonstrations at the conventions. Such communications should have been carried under substantive case titles even though the organizations or individuals involved were in some way connected with demonstrations at the conventions.

Where the communication relates mainly to an organization or individual but where there is also a collateral interest in CALREP or MIDEM, communications should carry dual captions; the substantive caption carried first and the CALREP or MIDEM caption carried secondly. Of course, this applies only to intra-Bureau communications. Letterhead memoranda and reports intended for dissemination should carry only the substantive title or in case of information relating only to CALREP or MIDEM, the caption should read "Demonstrations During the Republican National Convention, San Diego, California, August, 1972," or "Demonstrations During the Democratic National Convention, Miami, Florida, July, 1972."

STU ALPERT

Jerry Rubin and Stu Alpert spoke at the University of Miami, Friday, February 11, 1972. Rubin announced that they were "organizing something big here for the convention". Said his information indicated some 15,000 people, predominatly yippies and zippies would commute here from Chicago, California, New York and New Jersey. He commented that there would be enough marijuana on hand for all. b6 b7C

Stu Alpert claimed to be responsible for motivating the yippies and zippies for coming to Miami Beach.

He warned that long-haired scientists who had previously worked for the government were now disenchanted with the establishment and were endeavoring in basements to concoct chemicals similar to LSD to dump in the water systems causing everyone in Miami to "blow their minds".

They advised that some 3,000 "gay people" intended to march down the streets of Miami Beach kissing one another.

At the conclusion, Stu Alpert appologized for his speech delivery explaining that he had been "tripping" for a couple of days and consequently was not himself.

St. Louis Gets Party Convention

National People's Party officials announced in Washington Monday that they have rejected Miami Beach and accepted St. Louis site for their nominating convention in July.

The surprise announcement came after a two-day policy meeting and 8-3 vote of the party's national steering committee.

Miami Beach officials agreed last month to give the party use of the Miami Beach Convention Hall for four days following the Democratic National Convention.

PEOPLE'S PARTY national chairman Charles Briody said committee members felt that the "Miami Beach atmosphere in July will be that of a circus and fiasco, not conducive to formation of a reasonable new radical electoral alternative."

Kunst said People's Party members will demonstrate at the Democratic Convention July 9-15 before retiring to St. Louis for their own nominating conclave during the last week of July.

The Party's Florida State Convention is set for March 18 in Orlando.

People's Party presidential candidate Dr. Benjamin Spock arrives in Miami today for speeches at: 10 a.m. at Miami-Dade Junior College South Campus; 11:30 a.m. at the North Campus and at 12:30 p.m. at Tiger Bay political club.

to be held on February 22, 1972, against the American Broadcasting Corporation (ABC), 190 North State Street, Chicago. The purpose of this demonstration was to demand of ABC "equal time for our candidate, the Rock." YIP activists were going to show the "Rock" to ABC so that this candidate could be introduced to the rest of the country via the news media. The demonstration consisted of parading on the sidewalk in front of ABC in a picket line manner carrying the "Rock" on a pillow. The demonstrators convinced passers by to touch the "Rock" and to give their support to it for the forthcoming YIP Miami Convention. Source said that a few unidentified individuals in the crowd who were observing the demonstration joined the picket line. There were no apparent arrests or incidents and at approximately 1:15 p.m. the Madison people left the area and proceeded back to Madison.

Source said, according to information available to him, the demonstrators were not successful in meeting with ABC personnel nor was any entry made into the ABC building in an attempt for a meeting. It is not known whether ABC will give publicity to the YIP "Rock."

Source learned that YIP activists in Chicago are using the address of 950 West Wrightwood Street (second floor, telephone 353-3776).

The "Rock" displayed at ABC will allegedly be taken to Miami to be run as the YIP candidate for the Illinois YIP Chapters.

San Diego may be lagging in its payments toward the 1972 Republican National Convention, but Democratic Party officials say Florida money is rolling in on schedule for their July 9-13 conclave in Miami Beach.

Andy Shea assistant to Robert Strauss, the party's national treasurer, said Democrats are "very well satisfied" with Florida fund raising efforts.

HE SAID local pledges of about $950,000 in cash, goods and services are being fulfilled satisfactorily.

Earlier, it was disclosed that San Diego, the host city for the Republicans' convention in August, is $300,000 behind in payments to the party. Party officials said that only $100,000 in cash has been paid by the San Diego Convention and Visitors Bureau.

A $200,000 payment due Jan. 1 has not been received, and a final payment of $200,000 is due April 1.

Shea said, however, that the Democratic coffers are being filled to the tune of:

● $250,000 from the Tourist Development Authority — the largest single cash donation. Of this, $100,000 due in January has been paid. The TDA budgeted the other $150,000 over the next three years, but it has sent a promissory note to the party, and the party is selling the note "to a financial institution for a discount."

The party will end up with something less than $250,000, the TDA will pay the rest of the money to whatever institution purchases the note.

● $100,000 from a fund-raising committee organized by Gov. Reubin Askew, the money coming mostly from large corporations and businessmen. A check for that amount was handed to party officials when the convention contract was signed last Sept. 10 in Miami Beach.

● An estimated $100,000 from Beach hotels. Shea said that by agreement with the hotels, the party's housing committee is handling room reservations for the convention and is collecting $1 per room for each night from the $50-a-room deposits that are being mailed to party headquarters in Washington.

Shea said the total should reach $100,000 and might exceed it.

THE BALANCE about $500,000, is "very hard to evaluate," Shea said. It comes in the form of goods and services, half from the City of Miami Beach and the other half from Metro and Dade and Broward municipalities.

Shea said the services will include such things as construction within the Convention Hall, shuttle bus service and off-duty policemen, and he anticipates no hitches in the pledges' being fulfilled.

Another $25,000 had been pledged by the Florida Democratic Party, but Shea said state party officials have decided instead to supply a local staff to coordinate convention preparations, "so we're well satisfied."

Convention Protesters Get 2 Areas

Directly In Front Of Hall

By SAM JACOBS
Herald Staff Writer

Demonstrators coming to Miami Beach for the 1972 Democratic Convention July 9-15 will have places reserved for them — right in front of the convention hall.

"We'll have two areas, one between 19th and 20th streets and the other between 18th and 19th," Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance, who is in charge of security planning, said Monday. "One of our objectives was to accommodate opposing demonstrations that might occur at the same time."

Pomerance said that keeping the demonstrators in specified areas on the convention hall lawn would allow them to get their message across to delegates and network TV cameras without interfering with the convention itself.

BOTH POMERANCE and Gov. Reubin Askew, who ~~was questioned about con-~~ on nationwide television Sunday, said they doubt the convention will draw the large number of protesters that came to the 1968 convention in Chicago.

They pointed out that the Democrats, who were in power in 1968, are now out of power. In addition, they said, the times seem to have changed.

"I don't really feel that the Democratic convention may be subject to the same pressures that the Republican convention would be subject to and I think maybe the mood of the country is not completely the same," Askew said on TV.

But they both said it is necessary to plan just in case.

Pomerance said much of the emphasis this year is on training police officers to face problems that might be created by the presence of demonstrators.

Pomerance said he has not made direct contact with any groups that might be planning to come. But he said his men have been working with Operation Miami Snowplow, a group of local residents that has been in contact with dissident groups.

PARADISE NOW!

"Rome fiddles while Nero burns"

TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE PRESS:

A secret national planning conference in Madison, Wis., concluded last evening. The meeting was attended by over 40 delegates from chapters of Yippies and the newly-formed Zippies (a band of Yippie renegades) from around the country, as well as a special envoy from the city of Miami, Robert Hintz.

The meeting was held to plan massive ZIPed up YIP actions in conjunction with the '72 elections. In Chicago '68 we exposed the government; in Miami '72 we will expose ourselves -- and our alternative culture.

The scenario of events:

March 18-26 -- Spring Freek Week. Statewide meetings of YIP and ZIP chapters in 50 states to get high and raise legions of young people for '72. Also colossal YIP-ZIP voter registration drive to put a freek in office today. Hang a jury real soon.

May 1 -- May Day is J-Day. Reefer smoke-ins in every state capitol, followed by marches to the prisons. Light up a joint on May Day. Free Dana Beal. Free almost everybody.

May 1-2 -- Spring Plant-In. Plant seeds -- lower prices. Buy American.

July 1-3 -- National Tribal Congress in Washington, D.C. An assembly of tribes of the Free Nation.

July 4 -- Third annual reefer smoke-in at the Washington Monument and anti-CIA/heroin march to the steps of the U.S. Capitol. The traditional cross-country toke-down and junk stomp as per usual.

July 26 -- Che Guevara Appreciation Day. Appreciation of the Cuban struggle for liberation. Miami Beach.

July 27-31 -- Zippie Party Freek Circus -- Alternate Culture Convention in Miami. Zip-off Miami in '72. An assembly of young voters to boycott the '72 elections unless our demands are met. Fifty million young voters are declaring, "A plague on both your houses." This will be a four-day party that will make the Shah of Iran's look like a brunch.

Aug. 1-20 -- Grapes of Wrath caravan to California. Junked busses, stolen motorcycles, bathtubs on wheels, bicycles, ZIPelins, dune-buggies, roller skates and the Boraxo 20-mule team will head into the sunset for High Noon in San Diego.

Aug. 21-24 -- San Diego: smoke grass and kick ass; we've got Dick Nixon to kick around again. Yippie-ti-yi-yo-yi-yay.

The Youth International Party has been completely reorganized for '72. Abbie Hoffman and Jerry Rubin have removed themselves as leaders. Hoffman is in self-imposed exile in the Virgin Islands, and Jerry is no longer into the party. Like Jerry always said, "Never trust anyone over 30."

In '72, YIP and ZIP represents and speaks for all the people -- not just freeks, not just youths. In '72, we're for the human being.

Every state will bring a rock to Miami, and two rocks will be chosen as the YIP-ZIP "slate" for office. Get yer rocks off in '72; our candidate will be too stoned to know. We're going to show that the youth vote can't be taken for granite; we're gonna rock the boat in '72. We want to catapult our rock into the White House. Make '72 one big rock festival. Cast your vote with the rock.

In '72 youth will take control of their own lives. The youth vote will not be manipulated or delivered to any candidate who doesn't support the demands made by youth as a power group. We have a simple one-point program -- Unconditional surrender of the U.S. government. U.S. out of America now.

[redacted] advised that the Miami Liberation Front, [redacted] actively working with New Left activists in Greater Miami, is the local affiliate of the Florida Peoples Platform Coalition and has made plans for the Democratic National Convention. b7D

According to the source, the Miami Liberation Front is a local coalition of students, women, and young workers who share in a common opposition to racism, sexism, and imperialism. This coalition is organized around the consensus that there must be coordinated non-violent opposition and confrontation to the Democratic Convention to be held on Miami Beach during July 1972. In the coming weeks the MLF will meet with other groups and individuals with the goal of forming a broad base coalition to insure that an effective, authentic, alternative voice will be heard by the Democrats and the rest of the world this July.

FLORIDA PEOPLES PLATFORM COALITION (FPPC)

[redacted] speaking at a meeting of "Operation Snowplow" on February 10, 1972 at the Center for Dialogue, Miami, Florida, advised that the tentative plan was to establish a Florida state-wide coalition sometime in February, 1972 in Tampa, Florida. The coalition would then establish a state-wide network. [redacted] would act as the coordinator. Meetings would be held to discuss a political platform with the organizations within the coalition. [redacted] stated the state-wide coalition is to be established as a political pressure group.

TP T-1

[redacted] found guilty of anti-riot law violations that arose from activities during the Democratic National Convention at Chicago, Illinois, in August, 1968. Pending an appeal, he was released on bond by the U. S. Court of Appeals, Chicago, Illinois.

TP T-2 [redacted]

The Youth International Party, also known as Yippies, is a loosely knit, antiestablishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

The Student Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam (SMC) is controlled by the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and its youth affiliate, Young Socialist Alliance. SMC initiates and supports public demonstrations against the war in Southeast Asia.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

As the youth organization of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP), the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) serves as the main source of recruitment into that organization. The YSA is described in the masthead of its official publication, "The Young Socialist Organizer", as "A multinational revolutionary socialist youth organization".

In October, 1970, the Radical Action Coalition (RAC) received recognition as an approved organization at the University of South Florida (USF), Tampa, Florida. RAC is made up of radical leftists and liberal peace groups at USF who want to build a movement in the Tampa Bay area.

[redacted]

Source further advised that the February 23, 1972 issued of the "Miami News", a local daily newspaper in Miami, Florida, stated the FPPC will sponsor two days of non-violent protests in Miami Beach during the July Democratic National Convention. The primary focus of this strategy was to move the issue of the war and the need for total withdrawal from Vietnam back into the campaign. The FPPC was described as "anti-sexist, anti-racist, and anti-imperialist".

The People's Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ) has described itself as being headquartered at 1029 Vermont Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., and as consisting of over 100 organizations which are using massive civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repression, and war.

The Election Year Strategy Information Center (EYSIC) was set up by members of PCPJ and the May Day Collective (MDC) to coordinate New Left movement activities throughout the United States to culminate with demonstrations at the Republican National Convention, San Diego, California.

May Day Collective (MDC) is self-described as a multi-issue organization which formed as a result of the May, 1971 activities in Washington, D. C.

[redacted] will leave New York City on February 25, 1972, to travel to Tampa, Florida, for the purpose of meeting with members of a once active May Day Collective from throughout the Southeast United States. The meeting will be to make plans for demonstrations by peace groups at the Democratic National Convention in Miami. b6 b7C b7D

On February 26-27, 1972, a meeting of a group known as the Florida People's Coalition was held at the USF, Tampa. The Florida People's Coalition is a loose confederation of radical groups which is being formed to plan for demonstrations during the Democratic Convention in Miami later this year. The meeting was very secret and was billed as the "Mission of the New Life". There were approximately 40 persons present and it was announced that all who registered would receive a copy of the registration in the mail.

Saturday session lasted from 9:00 AM to 11:00 PM and Sunday session from 9:00 AM until about 1:00 PM. The main points made were that the Florida People's Coalition was not going to act as grand master of the demonstrations but only as a guiding force to get the demonstrations moving. It was mentioned that the Socialist Workers Party and Young Socialist Alliance were specifically being excluded because of their tendencies to try and run the whole show. It was made clear that although plans called for acts of non-violent civil disobedience, if any group or organization decided to go further, no attempt would be made by the Florida People's Coalition to stop them. Marshals for the mass demonstrations are to be supplied by the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW). A group of doctors and lawyers in the Miami area are being formed to furnish legal and medical assistance to the demonstrators under the name "Operation Snowplow".

One of the speakers at the meetings was [redacted] who stressed the need to continue to show dissatisfaction with the present government. It was also mentioned that [redacted] would probably be coming to Florida for a two-week speaking tour this week or next.

FLORIDA PEOPLES PLATFORM COALITION (FPPC)

It was mentioned that a similar organization has been set up in San Diego to plan for the Republication Convention under the name Saturday Coalition and that the Florida People's Coalition would work closely with them to share ideas. It was also pointed out that because of the extreme secrecy imposed on the meetings, many "radicals" had not even received word of the meeting and better representation would be attempted at the next meeting. No date was set for the next meeting, but indications are that it will be held in Miami.

TP T-6 [redacted] b7D

The Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) is a national veterans organization with a national office located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate dessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina".

A three-day conference of the Florida People's Coalition, formerly known as the Florida Peoples Platform Coalition, took place in a religious center on campus at the University of South Florida, Tampa, Florida, February 25 through the 27th, 1972.

Approximately 40 were in attendance from such areas as Tallahassee, Tampa, St. Petersburg, Gainesville, Jacksonville, and Miami.

On Friday, February 25, the delegates registered and secured housing. Short, informal discussions took place.

On Saturday, February 26, 1972, the delegates met on campus to plan an agenda. The agenda was never followed, and the conference did not accomplish anything and was actually a failure.

FLORIDA PEOPLES PLATFORM COALITION (FPPC)

[redacted] talked about the formation of an anti-war union.

Mention was made of obtaining a citizens action pledge and a three-point program for peace in Indo-China was distributed. The citizens pledge was to get people, as well as candidates in the forthcoming Presidential election, to sign the pledge before the Florida primaries.

The conference turned into a defensiveness by the Tampa people who feared other groups, such as from Miami, might preempt their plans for the forthcoming Democratic National Convention. b6 b7C b7D

Nothing concrete was developed at this conference with the possible exception that the Miami contingent noticed the obvious weakness of the up-state movement and decided they themselves might take control of activities that should take place in Miami at the forthcoming Democratic National Convention.

TP T-1 [redacted]

On [redacted] TP T-7 advised that the following material was received from the FPPC by mail. Source was not aware if the list of names which appears thereon consisted of attendees at the conference or contacts for the obtaining of further information.

Summary of Statewide Meeting for Fla. People's Coalition

The conference seemed to have gone really well, and it turned out that we got more accomplished thansome people thought that we did. We established a newsletter to co-ordinate our activities of which this is the first (we'll get a bulk rate postage permit as soon as possible).....

The cost of the meeting (for food, rent for the building, paper, projector, etc.) came out to $73.65, and we brought in from the $2.00fees and donations a total of $75.40---- that means we actually came out $1.75 ahead.....

The organizational structure that we arrived at provided for a coordinating body to act as a communicating and directing agent for the actions of local bodies on a statewide level. Ameeting of the Co-ordinating body will be announced and should be sometime in early March, probably the 12th or the 19th. We need to know the names of 2 representatives from each region. We will establish a state office and a Miami office as soon as funds and personnel are available. WE would also like to try to send two representatives to the Santa Barbara "People's Platform" meeting March 16th-19th.

We should began to reach to the various groups and organizations around the state (Women, peace--anti-war, workers, blacks, and student groups), to begin to build our own people's Platform and to build for the Convention.....

Outline of Demonstrations at Democratic National Convention, Miami Beach, July 9-14:

- Massive, legal, peaceful (conservative expectation of 25-30 thou)
- No more than 2 days
- Rally-March-Demonstrations at the convention site; preceded by teach-ins, guerilla theatre, rallys, slides-films, mobile display teams, and other educational actions--large posters of NAMBIC
- Not a rock and roll "festival of life"
- Make a clear political statement: that we are independent of the Democratic party, we do not support a liberal candidate, that we must "evict nixon", that we must have an end to the US involvement in SE Asia,.... that we use the 3point peace proposal and the citizens action pledge to clarify the positions of the candidates and to develop a MDA capability..... and that we force the candidates to speak to the issue of the war, as well as the domestic issues of the People's Platform.... the MMRO platform is enclosed....

In build our organization and the demonstrations in July, we have set up a speaking tour:

Tentative schdule:

Mon-March 6-- Pensacola- University of West Fla.
Jacksonville-, Jacksonville University?
Tue-March 7--Gainesville- Uof F
Tallahassee- FSU
Wed-March 8-- Tampa- USF
St. Pete- St. Pete JC
Thurs- March 9--Sarasota-New College---- Ft. Meyers?
Ft. Lauderdale- Broward JC
Fri- March 10-- Miami- Uof Miami
Miami Dade JC

Speakers; Rennie Davis, Susan Gregory, Jay Craven, Carol Kitchens, Carol Cullum, and some of FPC folks.....

General Plan: Afternoon-- Large rally--national speakers, FPC speaker, local moderator-speaker- outdoor displays and maybe music Evening-- smaller group teach-in sessions (under 500) to allow for close interaction with FPC-Nat'l folks NAMBIC slides and movies.....

Schedule should include press conferences, talk shows (radio-tv), plenty of publicity, leaflets, posters, etc.....
Must have transportation fee and/or honorariums and permission to ask for donations... We're hurtin' for cash.....we should be incopporated soon to eliminate most of the book work.....Carol said she got really great feelings from our group and that she sends her love to everyone.... let's get it on..... yours in struggle,

THE THREE POINT PROGRAM FOR PEACE IN INDO-CHINA

1972 is the twenty-seventh year of the Indo-China War and the eleventh anniversary of the first American killed in that war. It is also an election year in the United States. In the last two elections the American People have voted overwhelmingly for peace and got only talk and endless war.

In 1972 the American people refuse to be fooled again. Any candidate for public office in 1972 has a responsibility to the American people, and particularly to the soldiers who have been sent to die in Indo-China, to the veterans, to the prisoners of war and their families, as well as to the men, women, and children of Indo-China, to pledge herself/himself to the policies that will in fact end the war. The American tragedy in Vietnam cannot be resolved by slick advertising or propaganda circuses.

The following program is both just and practical. It will end the war. It will bring the American prisoners of war home. It will stop the killing. It will permit the people of Indo-China to settle their own affairs in peace. No candidate who refuses to pledge herself/himself to such a program for peace deserves support.

1. Within twenty-four hours of the Inauguration the next President will end all air, ground and naval operations in Indo-China.

The way to stop the killing is to cease all military operations.

2. Upon taking office, the next President will announce a date not later than April 20, 1973 by which the withdrawal from Indo-China of all remaining U. S. personnel will be completed. The process of withdrawal will begin immediately and will be phased with the return of U.S. Prisoners.

The way to free our prisoners is to convince those who hold them that the U. S. no longer intends to impose governments on Indo-China.

3. The next President will announce on Inauguration Day that the United States will no longer finance any government in Saigon that keeps tens of thousands of political prisoners in jail, suppresses opposition newspapers, harasses political meetings or engages in other forms of repression which makes a peaceful political accomodation in South Vietnam impossible. All aid to the Thieu government which enables it to carry on the war against the Vietnamese people will be terminated on February 20, 1973. All economic and military aid to the military regimes of Laos and Cambodia will be similarly terminated.

There can be no political accomodation in Indo-China as long as the U.S. finances war and props up dictators who have vowed they will never make peace.

NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION POOR PEOPLE'S PLATFORM

I. The Family Assistance Plan as proposed in HR-1 must be defeated. No patchwork amendments can change its repressive character and anti-poor intent. HR-1 and its accompanying amendments constitute a brutal attack upon the children of this country and must be stopped.

II. All Americans must be guaranteed the right to an adequate income (calculated by the Department of Labor Bureau of Labor Statistics at $6500 for a family of four) as proposed in the NWRO adequate income plan. Every child must have the right to a decent home, an adequate diet, clothing, health care and the other basic necessities of life. Every child must be assured at least the minimal protections of a guaranteed adequate income.

III. Poor people must be represented in the national nominating conventions in proportion to their number in the general population. All candidates must be committed to taking every affirmative action possible to insure that their delegate slates are so balanced. The Democratic Party must extend the new guidelines guaranteeing "previously discriminated against groups" (enimerated therein as "women, young people, and minorities") proportional representation to specifically include poor people.

IV. All Americans should have their economic security assured through a comprehensive program which includes broadening of the minimum wage requirements, creation of meaningful public service jobs, institution of a system of supplementary payments for those whose wages do not provide an adequate income and provision for payment of an adequate income for all those unable to work.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ //

V. All American children must be assured creative and continuing child-welfare programs designed to support and supplement every aspect of a child's life: a nutritious diet, a decent home adequate clothing, quality medical treatment, preventative health care, dental care and the benefits of life within a family structure.

VI. Co-operation with organized groups of poor people must be recognized as the legitimate means of involving poor communities. Political parties, candidates, and the government institutions at all levels must be committed to working with and supporting poor people's organizations and end the tokenism and co-optation that has characterized past dealings.

VII. The myths about poor people and welfare must actively be exposed and combatted. Those who wish the support of poor people and their friends must begin leading the fight against such slanders as that the reason for welfare is that some people simply do not wish to work; that most welfare recipients are black people who have moved to urban areas in order to draw welfare; that all welfare mothers do is have illegitimate children; that welfare is the good life of color TV's and cadillacs; that most welfare recipients are cheaters; or that most of the tax revenues go to welfare. These lies must be shown for what they are, and the truth told: that the welfare system is a cruel hoax that helps perpetuate the misery of poor people and guarantees that the children forced to rely on it will never have a chance in life.

CONFIDENTIAL

CITIZEN'S ACTION PLEDGE

Candidate's Pledge

THE PRESIDENT of the United States must immediatesly stop the bombing and all other military operations in Indochina.

Simultaneously, the President must immediately set a date for the compl withdrawal within three months of U.S. personnel and military equipment and end all support for the Thieu regime in Saigon and t e milibary regimes of Laos and Cambodia.

THE CONGRESS of the United States must cut off all funds for U.S. milit involvement and support for the military regimes in Indochina.

Tens of billions of dollars now appropriated for war and militarism should be redirected to meet the urgent human needs of people for jobs, adequate income, housing, health care and education.

We believe that all candidates for office and delegates to the Democrat and Republican conventions should commit themselves to this Candidate's Pledge.

MIDEM

With regard to advance planning by Miami Office for the Democratic National Convention (DNC), to be held in Miami July 10 - 14, 1972, Miami is preparing photographic albums containing descriptive and subversive characterizations of individuals who can logically be expected to travel to Miami and who have been identified as activists in the New Left Movement. The use of these albums should prove advantageous to agents of this office in identifying individuals observed during surveillances, as well as providing appropriate characterizations in submitting teletype summaries to the Bureau, thus eliminating the need for having auxiliary offices submit these characterizations. One of these albums will be maintained by the Miami Office, one furnished to U. S. Secret Service, and another, containing only photographs and descriptions, will be made available for use during the convention to the Miami Beach Police Department, who has the specific responsibility for security at the convention site.

In connection with the preparation of these albums, the Bureau is requested to consider canvassing all offices, or to authorize Miami to do so, furnishing a copy of the Bureau approved form utilized during previous conventions, a copy of which is enclosed. These offices should be instructed to furnish Miami three copies each of a photograph, descriptive data, and brief subversive characterization of each individual who, because of his background and past activities, can logically be expected to appear in Miami and engage in disruptive activities during the convention. This should include persons who are leaders or members of any organization in which the Bureau has an interest, whether it be because of subversive, right wing, New Left, black nationalist, civil rights, antiwar, or peace activities. It should also include any individual who is known to be violence prone and who might be attracted to widely publicized functions such as a national political convention.

More specifically, all offices should furnish the requested information to Miami concerning the following, which is not meant to be all inclusive:

1. All leading activists in the New Left or anti-war or peace activities who have previously engaged in the leadership of demonstrations which resulted in violence or mass arrests. This would include the Weatherman underground organization and New Left fugitives.

2. All individuals, regardless of organizational affiliation, who attended planning conferences or meetings concerning specific plans to demonstrate at the DNC. This would include recent conferences of YIP, PCPJ, NWRO, War Tax Resistance, War Resisters League, and White Panther Party.

3. Any individual who has encouraged others to engage in demonstrations at the DNC or who has requested, on behalf of some organization, volunteers interested in such activities.

Additionally, it is felt it would be appropriate at this time for the Bureau to remind each office that any information developed relating to disruptive activities and violence discussed during the planning sessions of organizations intending to attend the convention, statements of leaders, key activists, etc. should be recorded in form suitable for testimony at a later date. This would be vital to successful prosecution of any anti-riot cases which may develop incidental to the convention.

The Bureau may wish at this time to also consider similar instructions to all offices with regard to the Republican National Convention in San Diego.

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, MIAMI BEACH,
FLORIDA, JULY, 1972

Origin - Purpose

The Miami Snowplow Company, sometimes referred to as "Operation Snowplow" or simply "Snowplow", is a coalition of 22 organizations founded in Miami, Florida, in January, 1972. Its purpose is to provide such services as housing, food, legal aid, medical aid and a communications network for the expected influx of young protestors, observors, and non-delegates who come to Miami Beach for the Democratic National Convention. "Snowplow's" stated purpose is to work toward a peaceful convention and to protect the rights of protestors. It is a non-political group that intends to provide services for anyone in need.

MM T-1 [redacted]

The name "Miami Snowplow" was chosen since the coalition wanted the sort of name that someone in the middle of Kansas would not forget.

Operations

Food

"Operation Snowplow" has considered approaching local restaurants to determine if they would cooperate in furnishing two low-cost meals a day. They would then be listed in a pamphlet which would be distributed to youth groups who come to Miami. The volume, that would be generated, is expected to guarantee a profit.

"Operation Snowplow" has also considered the use of school cafeterias (recessed during July) and obtaining bulk food from state or government agencies who have such staples warehoused.

Shelter

"Operation Snowplow" has considered a number of locations such as parks and race tracks as possible shelter locations.

Medical

"Operation Snowplow" has considered the suggestion to contact the Dade County Medical Association to solicite volunteer doctors to man a proposed hospital tent

A representative of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War attended a meeting of "Operation Snowplow" and stated his organization would set up and supply security for a medical tent area to be located somewhere between 10th and 15th Streets on Miami Beach. The United States Air Force at Homestead, Florida, was to be contacted to determine if they would provide a helicopter to evacuate seriously injured or sick patients to local hospitals.

Attendees

The Underground Wire Service, claiming some 400 progressive radio stations, plan to utilize this network to request those planning to attend the Democratic Convention to fill out a questionnaire. Since "Operation Snowplow" request for funds has been denied, this plan has been abandoned.

Miami Herald-Los Angeles Times Wire

WASHINGTON — Republican National Chairman Robert J. Dole called Friday for a three-pronged investigation of the financial relations between the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. and the Democratic Party.

Dole charged that AT&T had agreed to extend telephone service on credit to the 1972 Democratic National Convention in Miami Beach after making "no serious effort to collect" a $1.5-million bill from the 1968 Democratic Convention.

Dole, a Kansas senator, called for an investigation by the Justice Department, the Federal Communications Commission and Congress.

Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien accused Dole of laying a smokescreen.

"It is very obvious the Republican national chairman is attempting to divert public attention from a major scandal that is reaching right into the White House," O'Brien said through a spokesman.

THE CHARGES and countercharges by the two party chairmen grew out of the investigation by the Senate Judiciary Committee into charges by newspaper columnist Jack Anderson that the International Telephone and Telegraph Co. agreed to help underwrite the 1972 Republican Convention in exchange for favorable handling of an anti-trust case.

—United Press International Telephoto

Sen. Dole Questions Demos' Phone Bill
. . . he's Republican national chairman

Sen. Barry Goldwater (R., Ariz.) Friday assailed both the Judiciary Committee hearings and Anderson.

"Decent men are being smeared in the public eye," Goldwater said in a statement in defense of his fellow Arizonan, acting Attorney General Richard Kleindienst, the central figure in the committee hearings. AT&T and the Democrats disputed the charges by Dole.

AN AT&T spokesman said in a press statement that "telephone service at the Democratic National Convention will be on a cash basis — stricly a business transaction." He said the Democrats will "pay administrative and engineering costs to AT&T in the next few days, and the balance of the estimated telephone bill will be paid before the convention opens." The convention convenes July 10.

Richard J. Murphy, manager of the Democratic Convention, said the convention committee "has contracted to pay all telephone installation and service costs on a schedule that will assure that payment before the convention opens."

Neither AT&T nor Murphy mentioned the $1.5 million which Dole said is still owed AT&T from the 1968 Democratic Convention. The Democrats still have debts reportedly totaling $9 million from the 1968 campaign.

Dole said AT&T's credit agreement with the Democrats, on top of the 1968 debt, could be a violation of the federal law that prohibits political contributions by corporations.

"CARRYING a $1.5-million debt for four years and then consenting to increase the size of the debt with no assurance of repayment must be considered at the very least a loan, if not an outright gift," Dole said.

"This unaccountable continued extension of credit to the Democratic Party would normally be considered a most unorthodox business risk. If it is not considered such by AT&T, the country is entitled to know why not."

Under questioning, Dole said there was no parallel between the AT&T credit agreement with the Democrats and the ITT agreement to help underwrite the Republican Convention in San Diego in August. Dole said the ITT agreement was with a San Diego civic committee and not with the Republican National Convention.

CENTER FOR DIALOGUE OFFERS SERVICES DURING DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

The Center for Dialogue has announced its commitment to two propositions concerning youth and minorities for the interim of the 1972 Democratic Convention in Miami. The first is to provide services such as medical, housing, child care, and legal aid for young and minority visitors to Dade County. The second is to facilitate the efforts of any groups that wish to make their opinions known in an orderly and legal manner. The Center intends to form a non-political coalition with other local organizations for establishment of these services.

TO: PARTICIPANTS IN DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION TRAINING PROGRAM

Those officers successfully completing the training program developed by Professor Hanewicz may receive four academic credits at Florida International University. The following procedure is applicable.

1. When a program participant applies to and is accepted as a regular student at Florida International University, he should advise the Chairman of Criminal Justice that he completed the training program.

2. After verification, the Chairman will instruct the student to enroll in CRJ 395 "Contemporary Issue In Criminal Justice" for four credits. The enrollment will be processed in the standard form prescribed by the University.

3. No additional work will be required of the student. At the end of the term the Chairman will process the appropriate forms for four credits.

Florida International University is extremely pleased to have the opportunity to be of service to Miami Beach police officers. Hopefully, this may be the beginning of a long, fruitful relationship.

Regarding [redacted] she provided the following information:

[redacted]

b6
b7D

During of of their first dates she mentioned that there were two guys in her building who were writing letters to their friends requesting that they come to Miami for the Democratic National Convention. At this time [redacted] request3d that she introduce him to these people. She took him to her apartment building and introduced him [redacted] The two guys were immediately suspicious of his identity and would not reveal any information to him. As far as she knows this in the only contact [redacted] has had with the two individuals.

[redacted]

She described the two individuals residing in her apartment building as:

[redacted] b7D

1. [redacted] white male, age [redacted] He is [redacted] He is a "Super Hippie" and has a lot of strange friends.

2. [redacted] LNU who is a Negro male approximately [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

She described the above mentioned individuals' activities as follows:

Her belief is that they were writing letters to their personal friends advising them that should they come to Miami for the convention housing would be available. She stated this housing was to be in the apartments and houses of other friends already living in the Miami area. She was also approached to let them utilize her apartment for lodging space.

She had typed a couple of letters for the individuals which began with " Dear ....., We have room for you to come and stay if you want to come to the national convention, and bring your friends." The letters usually continued with personal statements not related to the convention. She never saw a letter which contained any plans for violence, disruption, or civil disobedience.

Although she only had a few contacts with the two individuals, they had told her the purpose of attending the convention was to "see what's going on." She recalled they did have some discussions as to methods of reaching the convention site should the Miami Beach Police Department prohibit them from using the crossways. She explained that the crossways (bridges) were the only access to Miami Beach where the convention was to be held. It was decided that should these crossways be blockaded they would travel to the site utilizing boats. She could not recall any other planning which they discussed with her.

She stated in her opinion, the two individuals mentioned above were not violent or disruptive by nature or purpose, but that they had some weird friends meeting at the apartment who she was unable to characterize.

She characterized [redacted] and gathered that he was doing things which he was not supposed to be. She further described him as having a paranoiac personality based on the fact that he continually "blows things out of proportion." She recalls that while going out with him she would mention the two individuals in her apartment building and he would let the word go around that he was investigating a dangerous Communist group who was planning the destruction and disruption of the Democratic National Convention and at times even mentioned bombing. As far as she knows the only information he has regarding the above individuals is that which she has given him and this information in no way involved violence or civil disturbances.

[redacted] advised that she is presently in contact with [redacted] She stated that should she learn of any information regarding the possibility of violence during the Democratic National Convention she would immediately notify the FBI Office [redacted]

Memorandum

TO :SAC, Miami

DATE: 3/14/72

PERSONAL ATTENTION

FROM :Director, FBI

SUBJECT: MIDEM
BUDED: 3/24/72

ReBuairtel to Albany, dated 1/19/72, captioned "Demonstrations During the Democratic National Convention."

In view of the fact that several groups have indicated plans to organize demonstrations during the Democratic National Convention, you are instructed to commence the preparation of summary letterhead memoranda incorporating in detail all information developed concerning possible demonstrations at the convention, as well as information relating to plans of individuals or groups to take part in the demonstrations. The first letterhead memorandum incorporating all previous information developed should reach the Bureau on or before Friday, March 24, 1972. Bi-weekly memoranda are to be submitted thereafter. An original and seven copies are to be submitted under the caption "Demonstrations at the Democratic National Convention, Miami Beach, Florida," by cover airtel using the Midem caption. The memoranda are to be organized under appropriate substantive captions such as "Threats of Violence," "Permits," "Statements by Protest Leaders," and so forth. The afore-mentioned captions are only suggestions and more appropriate ones may be used as the need arises. However, one specific caption, "Possibility of Disturbances in the Ethnic Communities During the Convention," should be included in the memoranda.

As these memoranda will be disseminated at the Bureau and are the subject of intense interest to outside agencies, they must be prepared in a clear, concise, readable, and professional manner. Any administrative information should be submitted in the cover airtels. Of course, any information of an urgent nature should not be held for a bi-weekly summary but should be submitted by teletype or other more expeditious means as may be appropriate.

Letter to Miami
Re: Midem
Buded: 3/24/72

Bear in mind that the Bureau must be able to answer inquiries from high Government officials concerning developments in Miami Beach and to do this, the Seat of Government must be knowledgeable concerning the day-to-day plans of individuals and groups planning demonstrations or other disruptions during the convention.

In addition to the above, it is desired that by separate airtel you submit an outline of the steps you have taken in preparation for the increased activity expected to take place in Miami Beach this summer. Specifically, you should comment on such items as the liaison you have developed with other agencies, the results of surveys taken into areas where violence may be expected and where lookouts and special equipment may be needed, estimates of any additional technical or communications equipment that might be needed, personnel reassignments that have been made or are contemplated to meet the increased demands during these demonstrations, and any other steps you have taken to meet the Bureau's responsibility for coverage of anticipated activity during the convention. You should specifically comment on the procedures that you have instituted to assure that you are apprised of all activity of dissidents and violence-prone groups between now and the time the convention commences.

(V) The results of this survey should also reach the Bureau by the close of business, ~~3/24/72.~~ ~~Thereafter~~, on a continuing basis, you should advise by airtel of the steps that you are taking of an administrative nature to effect coverage of the demonstrations.

This latter airtel should be captioned "Midem" and should be directed to the attention of the Domestic Intelligence Division.

Re Milwaukee airtel to Bureau, 1/14/72.

The referenced communication concerned a National Tax Resisters Conference held in Milwaukee January 7-9, 1972. On page 8 it was mentioned that the possibility exists that a revolutionary or resurrection city would be set up in Miami during the Democratic National Convention and that future consideration should be given to having WTR people in this city to try and influence the other anti-war groups to get behind the War Tax Resistance.

Memorandum

TO : ALL AGENTS DATE: 3/21/72

FROM : SAC, MIAMI (66-2782)

SUBJECT: PROTECTION OF THE PRESIDENT AND PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES

The Bureau, by teletype March 20, 1972, advised as follows:

"U. S. Secret Service Headquarters, Washington, D. C., today advised that HUBERT H. HUMPHREY (Senator - Minnesota), GEORGE S. MC GOVERN (Senator - South Dakota), EDMUND S. MUSKIE (Senator - Maine), HENRY M. JACKSON (Senator - Washington), and GEORGE C. WALLACE (Former Governor of Alabama), are the presidential candidates whose protection is to be provided by U. S. Secret Service and which is effective 12:01 a.m., March 20, 1972."

Since the majority of these candidates are members of Congress, you are reminded that to assault, attempt and/or conspire to kill, or kidnap, a member of Congress is a violation of the Congressional Assassination Statute, which is within our jurisdiction, Classification 89. Threats, as such, are not included in the Congressional Assassination Statute.

When information concerning threats against any of these candidates are received, prompt notification must be made to the Bureau, the candidate's office, appropriate local authorities, and Secret Service locally and Washington, D. C. This action must be taken whether or not a violation over which we have jurisdiction exists.

Follow-up LHM confirming oral notification of the threats must be promptly prepared and dissiminated to the agencies involved. LHM should be furnished to the Bureau for dissemination at headquarters.

Comments:

We fully realize that 5 hours per session is unlikely. That is why we have stated staggered assigning. This permits us to build our staff starting approximately 2 1/2 hours before each session and peaking at 1 1/2 hours before scheduled session time. This gives us coverage when and where we need it and keeps costs in line. We also realize that with the exception of control personnel, security personnel and supervision that a force reduction is possible as the session progresses. Since there is no way of knowing the length of any session we are giving our best and most realistic estimate based on previous experience.* We will, however, be able to give running estimates to your designee so that these quoted costs remain reasonably accurate.

On [redacted] the Atlanta Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) held its regular weekly meeting at the "Militant Bookstore" 68 Peachtree Street, Atlanta Georgia. The meeting, which commenced at approximately 4:30 PM, was marked by unusually high absenteeism. The following persons were observed present:

[redacted]

b7D

[redacted] was selected chairman. Reading of the previous meeting's minutes was dispensed with inasmuch as [redacted] was absent.

b6
b7D

[redacted] noted that [redacted] has been added to the Regional Committee; [redacted] is in Miami, Florida, on a leave of absence; a man named [redacted]

[redacted] not further identified, is currently under transfer from the San Francisco area to Atlanta YSA and is expected to arrive in approximately one week. [redacted] described [redacted] furnished a Women's fraction report noting that a regional meeting for Women was scheduled for the weekend of 3/18/72 in Atlanta. The purpose of this meeting is discussion concerning a projected women's action for 4/1/72 and 4/6/72. She gave no indication as to plans for 4/6/72; however, she indicated that the projected 4/1/72 action calls for a "March of Women" beginning at the Georgia State Capitol in Atlanta, followed by a march through the streets of Atlanta passing Grady Hospital and ending at Hurt Park near Georgia State University in Atlanta.

b6
b7D

[redacted] furnished the financial report stating that Atlanta YSA is "holding its own," however their checking account is overdrawn. [redacted] wrote a check for $179.06

b6

(4)

with only $109 in the account. He wrote the check in order to rent the complete and unabridged version of the motion picture "KING KONG" which Atlanta YSA will show at Emory University in Atlanta, and the University of Georgia at Athens. He noted that the deficit would be made up by sustainer income. In this regard, he advised that the Atlanta YSA Sustainer base has gone up to about $70.00 per week which is approximately $10.00 per week more than previous weeks. He pointed out that $40.00 was made the previous week in showing films.

b6
b7D

[redacted] then passed around a National Office Fund Drive report with a cover letter by [redacted] of the National Office. This report reflected YSA locals in the Southeastern Region expected to participate and listed them as follows: Miami; Tallahassee; Tampa-St. Petersburg; Nashville; Knoxville; and Atlanta. The report showed that Atlanta sent $170 to the National Office for February 1972, which was the only local in the Southeast Region to give any money for the fund drive. [redacted] gave an Educationals Report stating that sessions would begin soon and would most probably be held weekly on Thursday nights about 8:30PM. He instructed comrades to secure the publication entitled "Socialism on Trial" for the first lesson. [redacted] attacked [redacted] charging that the Educationals Committee was so poorly organized that it had met only once in the past five weeks. [redacted] and [redacted] defended [redacted] noting how busy they were in other areas.

b6
b7D

In view of [redacted] absence, no sales report for "The Militant" or "International Socialist Review" was given, however, [redacted] advised that about 100 copies of "The Militant" were sold the previous week and that [redacted] sold some subscriptions.

[redacted] in his Campaign Report, suggested that the Democratic National Convention to be held in Miami, would be an excellent opportunity to get out the Socialist message and felt it would be easy to draw crowds of people into political discussion.

[redacted]

[redacted] gave a brief Regional Report only noting that the deadline for submitting articles for the Regional Newsletter would be in the next few days.

After a brief recess for payment of dues and sustainers, comrades listened to a taped educational by [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

During the course of conversation at the above meeting, the following information was also learned: [redacted] is no longer in the Atlanta area and was transferred to a unknown Northern local. No YSA local has been established at Athens, Georgia, and [redacted] has been the only person, in the recent past, to have been associated with YSA at Athens.

RE: MIDEM

ReBureau monograph entitled "New Left Underground Newspapers: The Tie That Binds", dated 2/18/72.

As noted in this memorandum, underground newspapers in the United States proliferate. They also function as a communications tie between various areas of the country and enable "movement" people to stay abreast of issues of the moment. Additionally, they afford a semblance of unity of action to the movement, and by their method of reporting, undoubtedly suggest to many that they attempt activities similar to those reported.

Of particular interest is the section under heading "Protest", on pages 23 to 27. As noted therein, in connection with the Mayday Demonstrations in Washington, D. C. in 1971, underground newspapers printed strategy and tactics to be used, as well as targets where demonstrations would take place, in an effort to "shut down the Government". This type of reporting undoubtedly added to the numbers of dissidents who proceeded to Washington for these demonstrations and provided some organization to these activities.

With the approach of the Democratic and Republican National Conventions, in July and August, 1972, printed matter in the underground papers concerning planning sessions, protest activities, setting up resurrection type cities, rock festivals, pooling of automobiles for travel to convention sites, and other items having a direct bearing on security of the conventions, will undoubtedly increase in volume. It is felt this material should be read, sorted, and analyzed as quickly as possible, and furnished to the appropriate authorities, both at the Seat of Government and at the convention sites, in order that these authorities will have the benefit of this information on a timely basis.

Inasmuch as the Bureau's Research Section regularly receives and analyzes material from all of these publications on a nation-wide basis, it is suggested:

(1) The Bureau consider preparing a periodic memorandum for dissemination, containing information gleaned from underground press, solely with respect to pre-convention plans and activities of dissident groups and "movement" people.

It is suggested such memoranda could be issued, at present, on a monthly basis, and as the conventions approach, on a more frequent basis.

Since this information would be extracted from public source material, it is felt it could be readily disseminated to Secret Service and local law enforcement agencies directly responsible for convention security.

(2) If this suggestion is adopted, the Bureau may wish to canvass all offices, instructing that they obtain and forward to the Research Section immediately upon publication, all underground newspapers in the United States by the most expeditious means, in order that the disseminated memoranda would be completely current.

Seminar Explores Clergy's Role in Convention

BY ADON TAFT
Herald Religion Editor

When a delegate to the Democratic National Convention checks into the Miami Beach Convention Hall for the first session July 10, the guy checking his credentials and showing him to a seat may very well be a Miami clergyman.

If a "Yippie" comes here to demonstrate, a young Christian trained at "Explo '72" may sit down to rap with him in the park and then seek out a clergyman standing by to provide him with a place to sleep and something to eat.

Those were some of the possibilities which emerged from the "awareness seminar" sponsored this week by the Religious and Community Leaders Concerned with the Democratic National Convention.

THE POSSIBILITY of clergymen serving as part of the security force handling the admittance to and traffic within the convention hall was raised by Wesely Pomeroy, director of safety and development for the University of Minnesota. He has been involved in preparing local law enforcement officials and others for problems that might crop up at the convention.

The "one on one" program of Christian young people and clergymen working with the "Yippies" or other protest groups was suggested by Miami Police Chief Bernard Garmire. He said he had been approached by leaders of "Explo" about carrying on such a program and endorsed it as "perhaps the most helpful thing" the religious community could do to avoid the possibility of any tragedy here such as happened during the political conventions of 1968.

Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance suggested that churches might provide trained march marshals or "peace monitors" for demonstrations which will be given official sanction.

DADE Public Safety Director Wilson Purdy asked for the help of the religious leaders in overcoming fear in the community about what might happen at the convention.

All the police officials, convention chairman Richard Murphy, and city fathers expressed gratitude for the interest of the religious community and the willingness of the clergy and lay leaders to be involved.

THE REV. Jack Cassidy, director of Urban ministries for the United Church of Christ in the Miami area and staff coordinator for the Inter-Religious Coordinating Center established by the committee of concerned for the convention, said he was pleased that 150 persons registered at the seminar. Two thirds of them volunteered their services for any of the activities which might be considered helpful in keeping the community peaceful during the convention and in assuring that every interested group will be heard.

One of the functions of the center will be to work with convention officials so that they get the opportunity to meet with minority or special interest groups who come here without knowledge of the legitimate ways to get their views before the convention, the Rev. Mr. Cassidy explained.

THE CLERGY committee also will provide chaplaincy services in a meditation room in the convention hall itself, and have representatives in various areas throughout the county to spot problems related to the convention and take steps to iron them out through the proper governmental and community agencies.

Everybody present was convinced that such preparations will avoid any serious confrontations come July.

SEVERAL hundred Miami teenagers are expected to be among the 100,000 young people who are planning to converge on Dallas June 12-17 for the International Student Congress on Evangelism (Explo '72).

One of the principal speakers for the daily rallies in the Cotton Bowl will be Dr. Larry Poland, president of Miami Christian University. Other speakers will include Billy Graham and Bill Bright, president of the sponsoring Campus Crusade for Christ.

Coordinator for Explo is Paul Eshleman, son of the Rev. Ira Eshleman who founded Bibletown U.S.A., in Boca Raton.

MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA
JULY, 1972

PREDICATION

On February 17, 1972, [redacted] Miami, telephonically reported that he had received information from an "undercover agent" to the effect that a meeting for a group of homosexuals was recently held in Miami, at which time they discussed the possibility of committing violence at the Democratic National Convention to be held at Miami Beach, Florida in July, 1972 [redacted] said that the individuals present at this meeting were reportedly armed with handguns. [redacted] declined at this time to identify his source but stated that he would attempt to obtain additional information. He said that this group which he identified as being the Gay Activist Alliance (GAA) is a branch of a New York organization of homosexuals and that the newly formed branch in Miami had already succeeded in attracting ten members locally. b6 b7C b7D

By letter dated February 18, 1972, [redacted] advised that the GAA meets on Mondays and Thursdays at [redacted] which is the residence of [redacted]

RE: GAY ACTIVIST ALLIANCE

Examination of records of the Dade County Public Safety Department reflect a record dated September 8, 1970, on [redacted]

On March 6, 1972, [redacted] Miami, advised that he is personally acquainted with [redacted] an acknowledged homosexual who is a member of the GAA. Reverend [redacted] said that the Metropolitan Community Church is a church frequented by homosexuals and that he himself is active in attempting, through legal channels, to obtain greater equality and rights for homosexuals. He said that approximately a week previously he had a conversation with [redacted] who inquired as to whether or not the Metropolitan Community Church would be willing to house members of the GAA who would be coming to Miami to be present at the time of the Democratic National Convention in July, 1972. [redacted] said that it had come to his attention that several members of the GAA from New York had recently been in Miami to assist in organizing a local branch of the GAA.

[redacted] said that during the course of his talks with [redacted] as well as with the visitors from New York, and other members of the GAA, he had seen no evidence whatsoever that any form of violence is planned by the GAA for the convention. He expressed the opinion that any form of violence would be in direct conflict with the very nature of most homosexuals, who are preaceful by nature and avoid violence. [redacted] offered to make further inquiry in order to obtain more specific information concerning plans of the GAA for the convention.

"Gay Activists Association which meets Monday, Thursday, and Friday nights at They're planning violent actions at the convention with firearms, I should say 12 handguns, two automatic rifles, various kinds of mace which are very damaging to facial structures. Uh, there's approximately 60 - 80 members now, by convention time they expect 300 to 400 people. Uh, from 50 states there will be approximately 24,000 people together in this association so they can be striving for their point for homosexual votes."

said that He described as being a clever but devious character who has furnished "reliable information" to but who is also a "kook and nut". He expressed the opinion that said that despite has furnished him with some reliable information which he then modified by stating that at least a portion of the information furnished by would prove to be true. b6 b7C b7D

About 40 to 65 men were present. [redacted] was in the apartment for no more than five minutes. He claimed that during this time he observed a collection of weapons on a table. These weapons included ten or twelve handguns, two rifles and four cans of mace, which he said had been placed there by some of those in attendance at the meeting. While standing outside the apartment he overheard a man inside the apartment whom he described as being the President of the GAA from New York City, talk about sending representatives of the GAA to various colleges in order to determine their attitude toward the GAA. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] said that he saw a copy of the constitution of the GAA and that the Ninth Amendment to this constitution advocated violence.

He said that he also overheard various members present make references to the Democratic National Convention scheduled for Miami Beach in the Summer of 1972. Someone stated that approximately 2,500 GAA members from New York were expected to come to Miami. He said that the GAA members from New York City are promoting attendance at the convention.

[redacted] was unable to relate that any specific remarks had been made during this meeting where violence was advocated by the GAA during the convention but he assumed that this could have been so due to the presence of weapons and due to the violence advocated in the Ninth Amendment of the GAA constitution.

He also claimed that he went past [redacted] on subsequent occasions when meetings were being held there and saw a great many cars parked there which lead him to believe that the size of the meetings had been increasing, however, he did not attend any subsequent meetings. b6 b7C b7D [redacted] said that he is now living [redacted] but he declined to furnish his address because he did not want to be contacted there at any time in the future.

[redacted] was again interviewed. [redacted] said that subsequent to the first interview of March 6, 1972, he had had a long talk with [redacted] concerning the GAA and the forthcoming Democratic National Convention. [redacted] said that [redacted] emphatically denied that the GAA or any individuals that he himself is associated with have any intention whatsoever of engaging in any form of violence at the convention [redacted] told [redacted] that he, as a member of the GAA, is interested in developing only a service type organization and believes the GAA should obtain its goals by legal means.

[redacted] said that he himself has reliable contacts who are associated with the GAA and that he feels positive that the GAA intends no form of violence at the convention. He asserted that he himself would be the first to publically denounce the GAA if he found out that it did have any plans for violence. He reiterated that violence is abhorrent to the very nature of homosexuals, but that his Metropolitan Community Church and other organizations with which homosexuals are affiliated are attempting, through peaceful and legal means, to obtain greater rights and recognition for homosexuals as individuals and citizens.

of the Gay Activist Alliance (GAA) in Miami. On or about February 4, 1972, a meeting of approximately eight individuals was held in his apartment. This meeting resulted from an appeal by the GAA in New York City to the Metropolitan Community Church for the purpose of organizing a chapter of the GAA in Miami. During this meeting discussions related to what the GAA is, its purposes and aims, and that the primary cause for its existence is "Gay Rights". Those in attendance were primarily of the college student category.

[redacted] stated that at no time at this or any other meeting held in his apartment were any weapons in evidence or exhibited by any of those present. He asserted that at no time was the use of weapons discussed and that to do so would have been completely out of the question since neither he nor other members of the GAA have any intention whatsoever of engaging in any form of violence or to use weapons for any purpose.

He asserted that at no time was any form of violence advocated or suggested by any of those present at the February 4, 1972, meeting or at any meeting of the GAA.

[redacted] stated that the GAA is deeply concerned about obtaining "Gay" rights through legal channels. He asserted that it is absolutely untrue that any form of violence is advocated or intended by the GAA with which he is associated.

Mr. SPAWN produced a copy of the "Constitution and Bylaws of the Gay Activists Alliance", the pertinent portions of which are set forth below:

"PREAMBLE:

"WE AS LIBERATED HOMOSEXUAL ACTIVISTS demand the freedom for expression of our dignity and value as human beings through confrontation with and disarmament of all mechanisms which unjustly inhibit us: economic, social, and political. Before the public conscience, we demand an immediate end to all opression of homosexuals and the immediate unconditional recognition of these basic rights:

"THE RIGHT TO OUR OWN FEELINGS. This is the right to feel attracted to the beauty of members of our own sex and to embrace those feelings as truly our own, free from any question or challenge whatsoever by any other person, institution, or 'moral authority.'

"THE RIGHT TO LOVE. This is the right to express out feelings in action, the right to make love with anyone, anyway, anytime, provided only that such action be freely chosen by the individuals concerned.

"THE RIGHT TO OUR OWN BODIES. This is the right to treat and express our bodies as we will, to nurture, display, and embellish them solely in the manner we ourselves determine independent of any external control whatsoever.

"THE RIGHT TO BE PERSONS. This is the right freely express our own individuality under the gogvernance of laws justly made and executed, and to be the bearers of social and political rights which are guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights, enjoined upon all legislative bodies and courts, and grounded in the fact of our common humanity.

"To secure these rights, we hereby institute the GAY ACTIVISTS ALLIANCE, which shall be completely and soley dedicated to their implementation and maintenance, repudiating, at the same time, violence (Except for the right of self-defense) as unworthy of social protest, disdaining all ideologies whether political or social, and forebearing alliance with any group except for those whose concrete actions are likewise so specifically dedicated.

"It is finally to the imagination of oppressed homosecuals themselves that we commend the consideration of these rights, upon whose actions alone depends all hope for the prospect of their lasting procurement.----------

"BY-LAWS

"Article I. The Gay Activists Alliance will not endorse, ally with, or otherwise support any political party, candidate for public office, and/or any organization not directly related to the homosexual cause. The Gay Activists Alliance will not align itself with any organization that advocates the use of violence (except in self-defense)."

[redacted] pointed out that the constitution of the GAA does not have a Ninth Amendment and he reiterated that the constitution most certainly does not advocate violence.

Re Bureau letter to Miami, 3/14/72.

There follows a summary of preparations of the Miami Office for the Democratic National Convention (DNC), to be held in Miami Beach, Florida, July 9 - 14, 1972:

CONVENTION SITE

The 1972 DNC will be held from July 9 - 14, 1972, at the Miami Beach Convention Hall, located in the central area of Miami Beach. The regular convention sessions are scheduled from 7:00 P.M. to midnight, but it is anticipated that unscheduled afternoon sessions will also be held.

The convention director is [redacted] The National Convention Headquarters has been opened in the Washington Federal Savings and Loan Association Building, located behind the convention hall. Approximately one month before the convention opens, this headquarters will be moved to the Fontainebleau Hotel.

The convention hall complex, which includes the Miami Beach Auditorium and other smaller buildings, is bounded by Washington Avenue on the east, Meridian Court on the west, Collins Canal on the north, and 17th Street on the south.

(2) - Miami (Info) (RM)
KWW/JCB/mel

80-1353-153

This entire area is to be surrounded by a 6' chain-link fence during the convention. A chart of the convention hall complex is enclosed for Bureau's perusal.

LIAISON WITH OTHER AGENCIES

Miami Office established liaison with the following federal and local agencies in preparation for the convention:

Miami Beach Police Department (MBPD)
Miami Police Department
Dade County Department of Public Safety
Florida Highway Patrol
Florida State Beverage Department
Florida State Attorney's Office
U. S. Secret Service

Close liaison with these agencies has been effected through a series of weekly planning sessions held at the Miami Beach convention center, at which the Miami Office has been represented. These sessions, held each Friday, are conducted by Miami Beach Police Chief ROCKY POMERANCE. All phases of planning with regard to security and protective responsibilities are discussed. All possibilities are considered concerning problems which might be encountered, and methods of precluding or minimizing these problems.

COMMUNICATIONS

In the southwest corner of the basement of the convention complex, the MBPD has designated a large room to be used as a Command Post. In this room will be located the main communications center, through which constant contact will be maintained with various patrols and guards, inside and outside the complex, the convention floor itself, and with police headquarters. Adjacent to the communications center, areas have been partitioned off for use of other official support agencies, including the FBI and Secret Service.

The enclosed chart of the convention complex contains a number of stations designated by red numerals where telephone receivers and transmitters are located throughout the complex, which are connected directly to the main communications center.

The FBI Desk will be manned by two Special Agents on 12-hour shifts, which will conform with the shifts of the local police and other agencies. These shifts run from 10:00 A.M. to 10:00 P.M., when peak activity is expected, and from 10:00 P.M. to 10:00 A.M. During the first shift the FBI Desk will be staffed by the Security Supervisor and the Extremist Supervisor. During the second shift it will be manned by another Supervisor and an Agent.

Equipment within the FBI Command Post area will consist of a desk and several chairs, a TV set tuned for convention coverage, a portable radio transmitter, two telephones, and two miniaturized radio transceivers. One of the telephones furnished will be a direct line to the Miami FBI Office. The portable radio will be in constant contact with the Miami Office, the FBI photographic site, and with Special Agents on the street covering the demonstration area.

Additionally, the Miami Beach Police Department has secured a number of Xerox telecopiers, and is furnishing two of these units to each agency for use during the convention. It is anticipated one of these units will be maintained at the Command Post and the other will be at the Miami Office. These units operate on a regular telephone circuit, and can be used, if necessary, for the rapid transmission of photographs, fingerprints, and other documents.

SECURITY RESPONSIBILITY

Security of the convention hall complex and surrounding area is the responsibility of the MBPD, with Chief ROCKY POMERANCE in charge. During the convention and two weeks prior thereto, other police agencies, including the Miami Police Department, Dade County Public Safety Department, Florida Highway Patrol, and Florida State Beverage Department, will provide sufficient manpower to MBPD to enable this agency to handle its responsibilities.

During the convention sessions, the MBPD will assume responsibility for the fenced area to the north and the area to the east of the convention hall, where most of the protest activity is expected to occur. Miami Police Department will man the fenced areas to the south and west; officers of the Dade County Department of Public Safety will be used as a backup force inside the fenced area in the event they are needed; and officers of the Florida Highway Patrol will be paired with local police for patrols of the surrounding area. All police personnel will be on 12-hour shifts during the convention.

The "sergeant-at-arms" responsibility inside the convention hall itself will be assumed by the Andy Frain Agency, a private security service which has been deputized by the Democratic National Committee for this purpose. This agency will be responsible for administrative policies effected within the convention hall, in an effort to avoid disruption of the convention proceedings. Its responsibility is to maintain sufficient order to permit a smooth operation of convention business, as opposed to actual physical protection of the premises and other routine police functions. Any arrests inside the convention hall during the convention will be effected by local police only upon the execution of an affidavit by an Andy Frain representative.

PROTECTIVE ASSIGNMENTS

U. S. Secret Service has advised that this agency assumed responsibility on March 20, 1972, for protection of the following five Democratic candidates. The hotel following each name below is the one at which the candidate has indicated he will be staying in Miami:

Senator HUBERT H. HUMPHREY, Carillon Hotel
Senator EDMUND S. MUSKIE, Americana Hotel
Senator GEORGE MC GOVERN, Doral Beach Hotel
Governor GEORGE WALLACE, DuPont Plaza Hotel
Senator HENRY JACKSON, Montmartre Hotel

b6
b7C

Bureau will recall that during the 1968 convention the three Florida FBI offices supplied men to assist Secret Service in its protective assignments. Secret Service Agent [redacted] who will be in charge of this detail, has indicated he feels no such assistance will be required from the FBI during the 1972 Democratic Convention, as the Treasury Department is furnishing sufficient manpower for this purpose.

POLICE TRAINING

Grants of approximately $400,000 have been received from LEAA by Miami Beach for preparation, research, training, equipment, and the necessary services in connection with the convention. A training program of approximately 100 hours duration for all police personnel assigned to the convention is in progress at Florida International University (FIU), Miami. This program is under direction of [redacted] b6 b7C

A major portion of this training is being devoted to Behavioral Sciences, Psychology of Political Dissidents, and Humane Crowd Control. The main purpose of this training is to teach methods of coping with potential disorder without violent confrontation. Part of this training "Sensitivity Sessions" is being held, at which leaders of local dissident groups are invited for "rock confrontations" with the police and for discussions as to methods of avoiding violence.

Chief POMERANCE has continually emphasized that his directives will be "effective but humane" in controlling the masses of protesters, and although the police will use whatever defensive measures are necessary, their emphasis will be on maintaining a peaceful convention.

PERSONNEL ASSIGNMENTS

In absence of any violent activity, convention will be handled by the two squads handling security and extremist matters in the Miami Office, without the necessity for reassignment of Agents from other squads. Annual Leave for Miami Office Agents is not being approved during the week of the convention, except under unusual circumstances which might work a hardship on the Agent. Since we will thus have a full complement of Agents, we will be in a position to utilize Agents from other squads for any necessary last minute reassignments.

SURVEILLANCE OF AREAS WHERE VIOLENCE CAN BE ANTICIPATED

The only area where violence can be anticipated as a result of possible confrontation, is the north area, directly in front of the convention hall. This has been divided into two areas, separated by the entrance gate. These areas have been specifically designated by the police for demonstration purposes. Results of a complete survey of this area, including photographs of possible look-out sites and of the demonstration areas, have been submitted this date by separate airtel.

PHOTOGRAPHIC INSTANT RECOGNITION CLASSES

In the recent past, Miami Police Department has had effective results from a series of classes for its officers regarding recognition of known criminals, such as burglars and dope pushers. These classes consist of the repeated showing of 35 mm slides, depicting a certain individual, until the officers are thoroughly familiar with them.

In connection with the convention coverage, it is felt the ability by patroling officers to recognize known leaders and agitators would be highly advantageous, and Miami Office is presently cooperating with the Miami Police Department in preparing slides for these classes. We are in the process of furnishing photographs of leading national leaders and key activists to the Miami Police Department, who will convert them to slides to be used in this class. Miami Police Department has also agreed, at our suggestion, to include the Bureau's "Weatherman" subjects in these slides.

TECHNICAL EQUIPMENT NEEDED

Communications Equipment

The Miami Office presently has six Kelcom Transceivers with charging equipment. We have on order from the Laboratory six GE PR-33 Transceivers. We would like the Lab to ensure that these latter transceivers with appropriate recharge equipment will be sent to us before convention time.

In addition, the Laboratory is requested to send one GE Master Executive (Suitcase) 30-watt radio unit, for use during the convention. This unit will be needed for a possible look-out which we may obtain in the area of the demonstration site. Although we presently have two of these units, one is kept in reserve specifically for use in aircraft hijackings. The other will be used at the FBI Command Post.

Photographic Equipment

In the event a photographic lookout is used, the Miami Office will have most of the equipment needed for photographic coverage. The following additional equipment will be necessary:

(1) The Singer Night Photographic System

(2) Additional 250 exposure cassette for the Topcon Camera

(3) A 1,000 mm lens with tele-extension

(4) The Hulcher 70 mm camera with lenses

(5) Teleconverter for the Bolleau 16 mm movie camera, to permit utilization of Topcon lenses

Additionally, in the event a photographic lookout is used, it is requested that prior to the convention someone from the Photographic Section be sent to Miami to instruct Miami Agents in the use of the Singer Night Photographic System.

STEPS TAKEN TO ASSURE ADVANCE KNOWLEDGE OF PROTEST ACTIVITIES

All Offices have been advised to alert informants and sources concerning planned activities in connection with the convention. These offices have been instructed to immediately furnish Miami and the Bureau in a form suitable for dissemination, all information with respect to possible disruptive activities.

The Bureau Research Section has been requested to consider preparation of monthly or bi-weekly memorandum reporting and analyzing information appearing in various underground newspapers throughout the country with regard to plans by dissident groups and individuals with respect to the Democratic and Republican National Conventions.

A. PEOPLE'S COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE (PCPJ)

The PCPJ is self described as an organization consisting of over 100 organizations using massive civil disobedience to combat war, racism, poverty and repression. Its National Office is located at Room 527, 156 5th Avenue, New York City.

The PCPJ held a press conference in the first floor auditorium at 345 East 46th Street, New York City, on January 27, 1972, between 11:10 and 11:50 A.M. Approximately 25 persons attended. Speeches were made by representatives of various organizations within the PCPJ. An announcement was made regarding future "actions" planned by "peace forces" in the continuing struggle for peace. Included in these "actions" was the following:

July and August, 1972, demonstrations will take place at the Democratic Party National Convention, Miami, Florida, and the Republican Party National Convention, San Diego, California.

B. YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

The Zeigtgeist International Party (Zippies), political wing of the YIP, has circulated a pamphlet stating that they will nominate a "Rock" (referring to mineral matter) for president, with each state to hold a convention to decide the favorite Rock candidate to attend the Zippie convention in Miami, Florida, in time to coincide with the Democratic National Convention during July, 1972.

MM T-2

JERRY RUBIN held a press conference on February 16, 1972, in front of the Miami Beach Convention Hall, the site of the forthcoming National Convention. b7D

MM T-3

JERRY CLYDE RUBIN, on February 18, 1970, was found guilty of Anti-Riot Law violations that arose from activities during the Democratic National Convention, Chicago, Illinois, August, 1968. Pending an appeal, he was released on bond by the U. S. Court of Appeals, Chicago.

RUBIN, during the press conference, stated that he knew people in Miami who had planned demonstrations during the Democratic National Convention in July, 1972. He remarked that everyone probably remembered what happened four years ago and that he thought that the Yippies, along with the people in the streets, defeated the Democratic Party and that Yippies from all over the country would be coming to Miami.

There will be 10,000 Yippies marching naked in front of the convention hall...there is going to be marijuana smoked everywhere...they will not tolerate the nomination of HUMPHREY, MUSKIE, JACKSON or WALLACE.

RUBIN said he hopes it's peaceful. There will be no point for violence. He heard the police are taking sensitivity training classes and that is good. It was the police who made it violent in Chicago. If there is any violence, it will cost the Democrats the election. RUBIN said they are coming in numbers to make their presence felt and express themselves and if the police attack or do not give a permit, then all the bombs are their responsibility.

RUBIN was asked concerning Chief of Police (Miami Beach) POMERANCE's statement that the minute they break the law they will be thrown in jail. RUBIN responded by saying the moment he breaks the law, we'll throw him in jail. He'll be the lawbreaker not us...he'll have the heaviest artillery but we'll have moral, spiritual power on our side.

RUBIN stated they were planning a nonviolent celebration...the Democrats paid a big price in 1968...they don't want to repay the price in 1972...they do not want violence...they can avoid this by giving us march permits and a place to assemble.

RUBIN stated there will be enough food for everyone, housing and dope...we hope the person the Democrats nominate for president comes out on to this lawn and gets stoned with us...everyone smokes dope now...the delegates will be smoking dope...some of the candidates smoke dope. Check out the odor in the smoke-filled rooms.

RUBIN remarked that his base of operations will be Miami Beach, Florida, but admitted he does not have an office as yet.

When questioned concerning Chief of Police POMERANCE's statement that they would go to jail if they break the law, RUBIN responded by stating Mayor DALEY (Chicago, Illinois) said that and was very foolish. POMERANCE does not want to be another Mayor DALEY.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

STU ALBERT also spoke and remarked that an attempt would be made to bring as many people as possible to Miami to force the Democratic Party to set a date when the war in Vietnam would end.

C. FLORIDA PEOPLE'S PLATFORM COALITION FPPC)

FPPC is a loose confederation of radical groups which is being formed to plan for demonstrations during the Democratic National Convention.

The FPPC will sponsor two days of nonviolent protests in Miami Beach during the July Democratic National Convention. The primary focus of this strategy will be to move the issue of the war and the need for total withdrawal from Vietnam back into the campaign. The FPPC was described as "anti-sexist, anti-racist and anti-imperialist".

The meeting will be to make plans for demonstrations by peace groups at the Democratic National Convention in Miami.

The People's Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ) has described itself as being headquartered at 1029 Vermont Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C., and as consisting of over 100 organizations which are using massive civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repression and war.

The Election Year Strategy Information Center (EYSIC) was set up by members of PCPJ and the May Day Collective (MDC) to coordinate New Left movement activities throughout the United States to culminate with demonstrations at the Republican National Convention, San Diego, California.

May Day Collective (MDC) is self described as a multi-issue organization which formed as a result of the May, 1971, activities in Washington, D. C.

The EYSIC has connections with the FPPC which has rented Post Office Box 17521 in Tampa, 33612, for purposes of receiving correspondence from other groups which will take part in the Democratic National Convention.

MM T-4 b7D

On February 26 and 27, 1972, the FPPC held a meeting in Tampa, Florida. Main points made at the session on February 26, 1972, were that the FPPC was not going to act as grand master of the demonstrations at the Democratic National Convention, but only as a guiding force to get the demonstrations moving. It was made clear that although plans call for acts of nonviolent civil disobedience, if any group or organization decided to go further, no attempt would be made by the FPPC to stop them. Marshals for the mass demonstrations are to be supplied by the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW). A group of doctors and lawyers in the Miami area are being formed to furnish legal and medical assistance to the demonstrators under the name "Operation Snowplow".

MM T-5

The Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) is a national veterans organization with a national office located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina".

"Operation Snowplow" is a nonpolitical coalition of Miami organizations whose purpose is to provide food, shelter and medical services to nondelegate youth groups who will come to Miami for the Democratic National Convention. b7D

D. WHITE PANTHER PARTY (WPP)

The White Panther Party (WPP) is a national white, hippie-oriented revolutionary organization which was founded essentially to afford support to the Black Panther Party (BPP). It has advocated the published ten-point program of the BPP and has added a ten-point program of its own, all of which call for the unbridled personal freedom of the individual.

The Black Panther Party (BPP) is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the U. S. Government.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

During the summer of 1971, informal discussions were held with the leadership of the WPP at the organization's headquarters in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Among the individuals present was a Negro male known as [redacted] who stated that the organization's future plans included as a next major target the 1972 Democratic National Convention where the WPP would be "seen in full force".

MM T-6 [redacted]

The WPP leadership is increasingly involved in planning a proposed demonstration at the Republican National Convention in San Diego, California; however, contrary to the above, there has been no reference by the organization's leadership to the Democratic National Convention in Miami Beach, Florida.

A. WAR TAX RESISTANCE (WTR) AND WAR RESISTERS LEAGUE (WRL)

The WRL has been publicly described as the American section of the War Resisters International, a worldwide pacifist movement founded in 1923. The WTR is a New York-based organization closely affiliated with the WRL.

On January 8, 1972, at a National Conference of the WTR and WRL, which actually commenced on the previous day in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, it was mentioned that the possibility exists that some type of revolutionary or resurrection city would be set up in Miami during the Democratic National Convention and that future consideration should be given to having WTR people in these revolutionary or resurrection cities to try and influence the other anti-war groups to get behind the War Tax Resistance.

III. THREATS OF POSSIBLE VIOLENCE OR DISRUPTIVE ACTIVITIES

A meeting of the Executive Board and National Coordinating Committee of the National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO) was held at the Dodge House Hotel in Washington, D. C., during the period between February 4-6, 1972. On February 6, 1972, at a meeting held under the chairmanship of [redacted] of the organization from Newport News, Virginia, a proposal was presented that the summer conference of the NWRO would be held in Miami, Florida, and that a main event at this conference would be some type of disruptive action in connection with the Democratic Convention to be held in Miami in July, 1972. This proposal was agreed upon by all present at the meeting and it was announced that there would possibly be more details regarding this possible disruption of the Democratic Convention. b6 b7C b7D

MM T-9 [redacted]

The NWRO, in the past, has described itself as a private organization with national headquarters in Washington, D. C., and having chapters in ghetto areas of approximately 100 cities in 45 states. Its membership is composed of whites, Negroes, Mexican-Americans, and Indians. The self-stated purpose of the organization is to seek favorable welfare legislation and related benefits for individuals on welfare. The NWRO, in the past, has sponsored protest marches and demonstrations, some of which have resulted in arrest of membership and leaders.

A meeting of "Operation Snowplow" was held on February 10, 1972, at the Center for Dialogue, Miami, Florida. Approximately 50 persons were present. Law enforcement agencies were invited to discuss problems that may be encountered during the Democratic National Convention. A discussion of these matters took place.

Toward the end of the session, [redacted] introduced himself and commented on what "The Movement" people might be expected to do during the forthcoming Democratic National Convention.

[redacted] stated that the tentative plan was to establish a statewide coalition sometime in February, 1972, in Tampa, Florida. The coalition would then develop a statewide network. [redacted] would function as the coordinator. Meetings would be held to discuss a political platform with the organizations within the coalition.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

When the statewide coalition has been established, a concert would be held in Tampa, Florida, to raise funds. The tentative date for the concert is March 4, 1972. "The Movement" performers and speakers would take part. The high point would be the appearance of JOHN LENNON of "Beatles" fame. The concert would be a quick, clean affair to project the image of a "good guy" approach.

The concert in Tampa would again be staged the following day in Miami Beach, Florida, and would be referred to as a political rally for youth. It would be directed toward the problems of old age and aimed particularly at the elderly of Miami Beach. JOHN LENNON again would entertain. Contacts would be made to solidify the aged with the youth movement. The theme would be that some 20,000 "freaks" from Miami would raise money for the elderly.

The overall purpose is to establish an image necessary to insure that an area can be obtained for a third rally to be staged during the convention. By building a political base with the elderly on Miami Beach, it might follow that they would initiate the pressures for such an area at that time.

[redacted] commented that the Interama site, an area in North Miami, mentioned as a staging area for "Movement" people during the Democratic National Convention, was unsatisfactory. It was too far from the convention site, had too many trees and the terrain was too rocky.

[redacted] also inferred that if they experienced difficulty in obtaining a rally site, the "big guns" might be brought in for confrontation. [redacted] said they will not be brought in for direct action but for negotiation. He related that the inertia stemming from the 1968 Democratic Convention was more than enough to carry this out without direct action or confrontation with the Establishment in the Miami area. It was the inference of [redacted] that a situation of hysteria would arise as the Democrats do not want another confrontation as happened in Chicago. He remarked, however, that if worse came to worse, the program would be initiated and quite easily carried out, hopefully because of the political base that had already been established with the elderly on Miami Beach.

[redacted] closed by stating the demonstrations which are not planned to be violent could last anywhere from one to three days at convention time. The worst he could envision would be "Movement" people marching on the Convention Hall to present a proclamation and he doubted this would occur.

JERRY RUBIN was a guest on a telephone talk show broadcast by Radio Station WBUS, Miami, Florida, during the evening of February 15, 1972.

When a caller requested support of RUBIN for "Operation Snowplow", he stated he had no knowledge of the project. When it was explained to him that it was a non-partisan effort to feed, house and transport youthful demonstrators who may come to the Democratic National Convention, he said that he would support the concept. Shortly after midnight while still on the air, a bomb threat was received at the radio station.

February 16, 1972

JERRY RUBIN spoke at the University of Miami (U of M), Coral Gables, Florida, during the evening of February 14, 1972. In his remarks, he mentioned the forthcoming Democratic National Convention and stated the U of M students, who are in Miami, should lead the way. They should build an organization in Miami that would facilitate helping of outside agitators coming to Miami. The U of M students know the streets where actions could take place. Agitators, thus organized, could then go from Miami to San Diego.

[redacted] attended the meeting as an observer on March 19, 1972, and is not considered a member of the SRC. All other individuals are considered members of the SRC.

March 18, 1972

The conference opened on morning of March 18, 1972, with a survey of the electoral situation in the southern states. [redacted] stated that the Alabama CP had great success in obtaining signatures to get a candidate on the ballot. They received excellent coverage from the television and press. [redacted] added that several CP members came from New York to help collect signatures. These CP members were very enthusiastic regarding the reception they received from the people in Birmingham. BAINES added that over fifty copies of the "Daily World" are being sold in Birmingham alone and they expect to increase this to 100 in the near future. He said the Party is receiving a good reception in the black community.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT then stated that the Party would like to have a more analytical survey of the black vote in the south as to class composition, number of youth, women and rural individuals involved. He stated the Party must maintain contact with persons who sign petitions and organize to visit them.

[redacted] from Louisville, Kentucky, stated that in his state 1,460 signatures had been filed and 1,000 more were needed to get the Party on the ballot. The Kentucky CP wants [redacted] and [redacted], the CP candidates for president and vice president, to speak in Kentucky.

b6

[redacted] from Tennessee, advised that 36,000 signatures were needed to get on the ballot in Tennessee and this would be impossible.

[redacted] from Florida, stated that 28,000 signatures are needed in this state before August 15, 1972 and this, too, was impossible.

[redacted] gave a lengthy analysis of the North Carolina economic and political situation and stated that they were anxious to put the Party on the ballot there, but needed help. She criticized the National Committee to Win the War in Indochina, as a bunch of liberals who do not wish any demonstrations.

[redacted] from Texas, stated nothing had been done there to put the CP on the ballot and youth participation in CP affairs was practically non-existent.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

RE: SOUTHERN REGIONAL COMMITTEE (SRC)
COMMUNIST PARTY - USA
~~INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST~~

[redacted] added Chicanos are active in the La Raza Unida and are doing good work in Texas. He said the Party in Texas needs help in collecting signatures and this must be done from May 6 to June 2, 1972.

After a lengthy discussion, it was agreed that the CP should concentrate in trying to get the Party on the ballot in North Carolina, Louisiana, Virginia, Texas, and Florida. After the above discussion, officers of the Southern Region Commission of the SRC were elected. [redacted] and [redacted] were elected co-chairmen of the SRC. It was decided that [redacted] would be the active chairman, since [redacted] will devote full time as the southern organizer of the YWLL. [redacted] was elected [redacted] (Last Name Unknown) will serve on the Executive Committee. All those present were considered members of the SRC.

March 19, 1972

The first part of the session on Sunday, March 19, 1972, dealt mainly with the manifesto the SRC is preparing to issue. The discussion was inconclusive and all the notes from the discussion were given to [redacted] who will go over the notes with [redacted] who will spend the next week in North Carolina with [redacted] The first draft of the manifesto is to be sent to members of the SRC for final approval and the resulting draft will be mailed to the National Office for final editing by mid-April.

A discussion was then held on building the Party in the various districts and all agreed there was considerable work to be done.

It was also agreed that there was a lot of right opportunism in various Party groups, that decisions are not followed up and there is unconscious white chauvinism. It was agreed that classes are needed to strengthen Party ideology since practically all members in the new areas are young and have no Party experience.

RE: SOUTHERN REGIONAL COMMITTEE (SRC)

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT said the CP must do many things to help old members who can teach, such as WILLIAM WEINSTONE, since they are available and can be sent to the south for several weeks to teach.

ROSCOE PROCTOR, from the CP National Office, is scheduled to go to Nashville, Tennessee on April 21 to April 23, 1972, to teach classes there and he will attempt to see if Memphis and Louisiana can be included in his trip.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT plans to come to various areas in the south in early October to speak about his book. Included in these areas will be North Carolina and Georgia.

It is further planned that a big election meeting will be held for [redacted] in Birminghmam. In addition, plans are being made for selected candidates to go to New York for cadre classes. CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT stated if these new candidates cannot go to New York, the Party would arrange to have classes taught in the southern region. b6 b7C

LIGHTFOOT stated that it is hoped that there will be a special concentration in Florida for signature collections inasmuch as the Democratic Party Convention is being held in Miami. He stated that he believes a full-time paid organizer is needed in Florida.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT stated that this SRC meeting was the most productive he has attended. He was gratified to see so many youthful members present, but stated more blacks should be involved.

The meeting agreed that particular concentration in organizing the Party should occur in Virginia, South Carolina, and Mississippi but present areas must be strengthened especially if there is any possibility for doing so.

[redacted] plans to go to the Virginia area in May for a coordinated effort to organize a Party and put it on the ballot. b6 b7C

RE: SOUTHERN REGIONAL COMMITTEE (SRC)
COMMUNIST PARTY - USA
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

[redacted] then stated that there is white sectarianism in Birmingham and [redacted] said the same is also true of the Party in North Carolina. The next meeting of the SRC is scheduled to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, on June 10 and 11, 1972. The agenda will be: 1) a report on youth with emphasis on the YWLL, 2) a report on the Southern Conference Educational Fund (SCEF) and its relationship to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). [redacted] indicated she plans to go to Atlanta to see what is going on with respect to the SCLC and she stated that the SCLC would like her to be on their national staff. 3) Report on progress on 1972 Signature Campaign. (Efforts of CP to get on state ballots). b6 b7C

[redacted] (Last Name Unknown) urged those present to send representatives to Memphis on April 8, 1972 to organize a Southern Regional Conference to Free ANGELA DAVIS. She stated a meeting would be held on that day with [redacted], and possibly [redacted] Persons present were urged to contact the Southern Regional Conference to Free ANGELA DAVIS, Post Office Box 4643, Memphis, Tennessee, telephone number 278-3046.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT appealed to the delegates to raise funds for GUS HALL's presidential campaign. He said the National Office of the CP has never been as low on money as they are at the present time.

APPENDIX TO DRAFT RESOLUTION OF ACTION COMMISSION

April 1. During Holy Week, the week in which Martin Luther King Jr was assassinated, there will be regional actions at Harisburg, Pennsylvaniz (the site of the Berrigan trial) and at San Jose, California (The Angela Davis trial) against repression of anti-war and radical movement and individuals in the US.

April 15. Nation-wide local actions against the costs of the war, including resistance to tax-payments for the war.

April 22. National mass actions in New York and Los ANgeles to demand an unconditional end to US involvement in the war in Indochina.

May 1-15. A series of local actions including rallies, lobbies, and civil disobedience at the centers of the war machine, at Federal buildings, at corporations manufacturing for the war, and support for active duty GIs who refuse to participate in the air war.

This campaign will lead up to the Democratic Party Conventino at Miami on July 9 and the Republican Convention in San Diego on August 21.

It is essential that this American campaign be coordinated with the entire international war movement so that the full wieght of international outrage can be brought to bear on Nixon and his policies.

MIDEM

At the regular weekly planning session regarding the Democratic Convention held in Miami Beach on 3/23/72, the session was addressed by [redacted] Conflict Resolutions Unit, Community Relations Service (CRS), U.S. Department of Justice, Atlanta, Georgia and by [redacted] Communications expert, CRS, Washington, D.C.

b6
b7C

CRS is an official U.S. Government agency in the U.S. Department of Justice created under the authority of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 for the purpose of assisting local communities in avoiding racial conflicts and upheavals.

[redacted] and [redacted] outlined a proposal to assist in establishing a rumor control center, or as they prefer to call it, an information coordination center, in the Miami area during the period of the Democratic Convention.

Types of information to be coordinated would fall into four categories:

1) Rumor

2) Crank calls or anxiety-generated calls

3) "Information giving" calls

4) "Information requesting" calls

3 - Bureau (RM)
1 - Miami
JCB/fp
(6)

2 - San Diego (100-CALREP) (RM)

80-1353-160

The center would be set up by local people, possibly religious or civic groups and would be "law-enforcement oriented", although it would go beyond law enforcement responsibilities by attempting to coordinate and control rumors to the benefit of the community.

Local authorities have indicated a favorable initial response to the CRS proposal, and they will give it further consideration. They will probably hold additional discussions with CRS representatives regarding this matter.

Above is set forth for information of the Bureau and San Diego.

Lib group cries exploitation on Demo hostesses

By BILL GJEBRE
Miami News Reporter

The Dade chapter of the National Organization of Women (NOW) today charged that women are being exploited in the recruitment of 100 hostesses for the party's national convention on Miami Beach this summer.

"We are deeply disturbed that age, physical measurements and features of women are the primary criteria to be used for promoting the image of the Democratic Party," said Mrs. Elaine Gordon, a spokeswoman for the women's rights organization.

"The party should be recruiting Democrats and not bunnies," she said.

But Ted Cohen, co-chairman of the Florida Hospitality and Hostess Committee, denied there was any attempt to expolit women. "We are looking for the young wholesome type and not the sex image type," Cohen said.

At the center of the controversy is a one-page leaflet announcing a drive to recruit hostesses. Those interested were asked to fill out the bottom of the leaflet and send it to Cohen at 1 Lincoln Rd., Miami Beach.

Cohen and Ann Cramer, vice chairman of the Florida Democratic Party, were appointed by Gov. Reubin Askew as co-chairman of the hospitality committee. The governor made the appointments in his capacity as head of the Florida Host Committee for the convention.

The text of the leaflet states that women applying for hostess should be between the ages of 18 and 28, attractive and "hopefully partial to the Democratic Party."

They will be outfitted in a "distinctive uniform identifying them as 'Official Convention hostesses,'" the leaflet said. They will also attend "celebrity affairs and official convention meetings," it said.

The portion of the leaflet to be clipped on a dotted line, filled out and sent to Cohen asks the applicant her marital status, height, weight and measurements.

It also asks the girl if she would be willing to participate in a "convention Queen" contest. Cohen said this idea has since been dropped completely.

The ages were set from 18 to 28, Cohen said, because the job of the hostess will be demanding. However, he said that there will be some chosen who will be under 18 and some over 28 and they will be both married and single.

Measurements were asked for, Cohen added, because in planning the uniforms its hoped that two or three basic sizes can be made to fit the women. This would save costs, he indicated.

He also said that it was not limited to Democrats because it might be unfair to young girls who hadn't yet registered to vote who would therefore be exluded.

Mrs. Cramer said she was not fully aware of what was being done in regard to the recruitment of hostesses. And, she added, that she probably wouldn't have approved of any release or leaflet asking for the physical measurement of women.

But, she said, Cohen's explanation seems to justify the request.

She said she felt the NOW criticisms were unfair particularly in regard to herself. She explained that she's been for the rights of women and that she herself became the first state chairman of the Florida Democratic Party in 1970.

An official NOW protest was sent to Gov. Reubin Askew. Part of a letter to Askew said, "The criteria as specified on the application (leaflet) discriminates against loyal, active members of the party, particularly since party membership is not a requirement for the designation, 'Official Convention Hostess.'"

Miami Police Department (MPD) has had effective results from a series of classes for its officers regarding recognition of known local criminals, such as burglars and dope pushers. These classes have consisted of the repeated showing of 35mm slides depicting the subjects until the officers are thoroughly familiar with them.

In connection with plans for the Democratic National Convention (DNC) to be held in Miami Beach in July, 1972, it is felt the ability by patrolling officers to recognize known leaders and agitators would be highly advantageous and in this connection the Miami Office has contacted Captain [redacted] MPD, who has agreed to b6 b7C conduct a series of such "instant recognition classes" for these officers prior to the convention. Captain [redacted] will convert glossy photographs furnished by the Bureau to 35mm slides to be used in the classes. b6 b7C

It is felt such slides should be limited to the leaders and leading activists of various anti-establishment groups who would possibly demonstrate at the Convention, as well as the Bureau's Weatherman fugitives and Ten Most Wanted fugitives. Those in the first category above would basically be those subjects currently included in the Key Activist Album.

Miami is currently preparing these photographs for Captain [redacted] each of which will be mounted on a blank sheet of paper containing only subject's name, organizational affiliation, and fugitive status, if applicable.

Miami has glossy prints of each of the Ten Most Wanted fugitives and Weatherman fugitives. However, a review of the Key Activist Album reveals most of these photographs are unsuitable for reproduction.

It is also felt that many offices may have new organizational leaders and activists not included in the Key Activist Album, who have expressed an intention to lead a Convention demonstration.

Miami notes that leaders of the Youth International Party, New York and Milwaukee; National Welfare Rights Organization, Washington, D.C.; White Panther Party, Ann Arbor, Michigan; and Florida Peoples Platform Coalition, Tampa, Florida, all of which have expressed an intention of demonstrating at Miami, are not included in the Key Activist Album.

LEADS

DETROIT, MILWAUKEE, NEW YORK, TAMPA AND WASHINGTON FIELD OFFICE

Will furnish Miami with most recent glossy photos of leaders of above-named groups who may lead a demonstration at the DNC.

MM 80-1353

REQUEST OF BUREAU

Bureau is requested to furnish Miami one glossy print of each subject in the Key Activist Album, if these are readily available, and to comment on the desirability of including other photographs in these instant recognition classes. Bureau may wish to consider a letter instructing all offices to submit current photos of leading activists who would logically be expected, due to their backgrounds or stated intentions, to lead protest demonstrations at the DNC. It is believed these photos to be effective should be limited in number.

These recognition classes will be held as near as practicable to the beginning date of the Convention on July 10, 1972 in order to be fresh in the minds of the officers.

SOURCE STATED THAT THE THEME OF THE RALLY WILL BE "ORGANIZING AGAINST THE WAR."

THE FPPC IS A STATEWIDE COALITION ESTABLISHED AS A PRESSURE GROUP TO DEMONSTRATE AT THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION IN MIAMI, FLA. IN JULY, SEVENTYTWO. THE YIP, ALSO KNOWN AS YIPPIES, IS A LOOSELY KNIT, ANTIESTABLISHMENT, REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH ORGANIZATION FORMED IN NEW YORK CITY IN JANUARY, NINETEEN SIXTYEIGHT.

ON MARCH EIGHT, SEVENTYTWO, A SECOND SOURCE, WHO HAS FURNISHED RELIABLE INFORMATION IN THE PAST, ADVISED THAT AN ANTIWAR RALLY WAS HELD ON THE MALL OF USF, TAMPA, FLA. AT TWO P.M., MARCH EIGHT, SEVENTYTWO. APPROXIMATELY TWO HUNDRED PERSONS ATTENDED THE RALLY. EDWARD DEATON ACTED AS MASTER OF CEREMONIES. DEATON, WHILE A STUDENT

END PAGE TWO

AT USF, WAS A MEMBER OF THE YIP, AND PAST PRESIDENT OF THE STUDENT MOBILIZATION COMMITTEE THAT IS CONTROLED BY THE SOCIALIST WORKERS PART (SWP) AND ITS YOUTH AFFILIATE, THE YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE (YSA). THE SWP HAS BEEN DESIGNATED PURSUANT TO EXECUTIVE ORDER ONE ZERO FOUR FIVE ZERO.

THE MAIN SPEAKER WAS RENNIE DAVIS, WHO WAS CONVICTED OF ANTI - RIOT LAW VIOLATIONS DURING THE NINETEEN SIXTYEIGHT DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION. DAVIS DISCUSSED THE "AUTOMATED AIR WAR" BEING PRACTICED AGAINST THE POPULATION OF NORTH VIETNAM BY THE AMERICAN MILITARY THROUGH THE USE OF HEAT DETECTING SENSORS WHICH AUTOMATICALLY CALLS FOR AIRCRAFT BOMBING WHEN A TEMPERATURE CHANGE IS DETECTED BY THE SENSOR. SUPPOSEDLY THE HEAT CHANGE IS CAUSED BY PERSONS PASSING NEAR THE SENSOR, WHICH HAD PREVIOUSLY BEEN PLACED THROUGH THE ENTIRE COUNTRY SIDE BY AMERICAN AIRCRAFT.

DAVIS ALSO ADVISED THE AMERICAN MILITARY USES BOMBS, GUIDED BY LASER BEAMS WHICH LOCK ONTO HUMAN HEAT OR FAMILY FIREPLACES IN AN EFFORT TO EXTERMINATE THE NORTH VIETNAMESE POPULATION. DAVIS ADVISED THE ASSEMBLED CROWD TO WORK TO DEFEAT PRESIDENT NIXON AND ELECT A PEACE CANDIDATE WHO WOULD IMMEDIATELY WITHDRAW ALL U.S. FORCES FROM INDOCHINA AND CEASE THE BACKING OF THE SAIGON GOVERNMENT. DAVIS' SPEECH ENDED AT TWO FORTY FIVE P.M. AND APPROXIMATELY HALF THE CROWD LEFT AT THAT TIME.

SOURCE STATED THE SECOND SPEAKER WAS SUSAN GREGORY, WHO WAS INTRODUCED BY DEATON AS BEING FROM THE ANTIWAR UNION, NEW YORK, N.Y. GREGORY ADVISED SHE WORKED MAINLY IN THE WOMEN'S LIBERATION FIELD, BUT WANTED TO PRESENT A THREE POINT PEACE PLAN TO THE CROWD WHICH SHE SAID WAS BACKED BY THE FPPC. SHE SAID EACH CANDIDATE RUNNING IN THE FLORIDA PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY SHOULD BE CONFRONTED WITH THE PLAN AND ASKED IF THEY SUPPORTED THE PLAN. ONLY YES OR NO ANSWERS WOULD BE ACCEPTED. SHE READ THE PLAN, WHICH STATED IN PART, (ONE), WITHIN TWENTYFOUR HOURS AFTER INAUGURATION, THE PRESIDENT MUST IMMEDIATELY STOP THE BOMBING AND ALL OTHER MILITARY OPERATIONS IN INDOCHINA. (TWO), THE PRESIDENT MUST IMMEDIATELY SET A DATE FOR THE COMPLETE WITHDRAWAL

WITHIN THREE MONTHS OF U.S. PERSONNEL AND EQUIPMENT FROM INDOCHINA.

(THREE), THE U.S. GOVERNMENT MUST END ALL SUPPORT FOR THE THIEU REGIME IN SAIGON AND THE MILITARY REGIMES OF LAOS AND CAMBODIA.

DEATON URGED ALL PRESENT TO SIGN THE CITIZENS PLEDGE WHICH WAS FURNISHED AND WHICH STATED THAT THE SIGNERS WOULD ASK CANDIDATES TO ENDORSE THE THREE POINT PEACE PLAN AND NOT SUPPORT ANY CANDIDATE WHO REFUSED TO ENDORSE THE PLAN. ALSO TO ASK FIVE OTHER PERSONS TO SIGN THE CITIZENS PLEDGE.

THE RALLY ENDED AT THREE TWENTY P.M. THERE WERE NO INCIDENTS OF VIOLENCE, NO ARRESTS, OR PROPERTY DAMAGE DURING THE RALLY.

ON MARCH NINE, SEVENTY TWO, SOURCE THREE, WHO HAS FURNISHED RELIABLE INFORMATION IN THE PAST, ADVISED THAT AT FOUR P.M., MARCH EIGHT, SEVENTYTWO, A MOVIE WAS SHOWN AT THE UNIVERSITY CENTER, USF, ON THE "AUTOMATED AIR WAR", WHICH DAVIS HAD PREVIOUSLY DESCRIBED. IN ADDITION, PROPOSALS OF THE FPPC AS TO THE THREE POINT PEACE PLAN WERE DISCUSSED. SOURCE ALSO ADVISED THAT AT SEVEN THIRTY P.. A TEACH-IN WAS HELD AT THE UNIVERSITY CENTER, SUSAN GREGORY PRESIDING. SOURCE SAID WOMEN'S LIBERATION WAS THE MAIN TOPIC IN THAT WOMEN HAVE TO GET TOGETHER TO PLAY MAJOR ROLES IN THE NEW LEFT. ALSO, THE ASSEMBLED PERSONS WERE ADVISED TO VOTE DEMOCRATIC IN THE UPCOMING ELECTION TO GET RID OF PRESIDENT NIXON AND HIS AUTOMATED WAR. IT WAS DETERMINED THAT THE JOB OF THE FPCC WAS TO FIND A CANDIDATE IN THE DEMOCRATIC PART WHO WOULD BACK THE THREE POINT PROGRAM.

At 15 Weeks and Counting, Beach Already Is Gearing for Convention

By FRED BARGER
Herald Staff Writer

A 15-week countdown has begun toward the Democratic National Convention, promising hundreds of persons scurrying around Miami Beach doing everything from rounding up a church choir to sing the Star Spangled Banner to finding accommodations for an expected 50,000 visitors.

Between now and the opening of the convention on July 10, a veritable city will be built with a temporary population the size of Coral Gables. In it, the Democratic Party faithful hope to nominate the next president of the United States.

That is precisely what happened inside the mammoth Beach Convention Hall four years ago, but this time the cast of characters will be different and the entire spectacle larger.

During the next three months, don't be too surprised if you see:

- A telephone worker from Montana asking directions to where the 7,000 telephones are supposed to be installed.
- Convention Hall North, two weeks before the Democratic Convention, almost all set up and being used by 30,000 members of the Church of the Nazarene.
- A $62,000 security fence, partially hidden by hibiscus bushes, completely encircle the convention complex — and then be taken down by workers as soon as the convention closes.
- Almost 400 policemen going to classes every weekend to learn all about dissent — and about a cache of sophisticated weapons, communications equipment and hardware bought with federal funds, just in case.
- A group of demonstrators being politely given directions by policemen to an area in front of the convention hall reserved for their protests.
- A group of volunteers trying to find tents, legal aid and medical assistance for what they estimate will be 10,000 to 50,000 youthful visitors, whom they call "nondelegates."
- Another group of 200 to 400 volunteers tooling around party VIPs in rented automobiles during the week of the convention.

It is shaping up as that kind of convention. And, perhaps as never before, convention planners are not really certain just how many visitors to expect.

"Nobody knows how many interested people — curiosity seekers, street people, vacationers — will just come into town, be there, because of the convention," says Ed Cubberly, assistant to the Democrats' Convention Manager Richard Murphy.

Added to its other features will be the fact that this convention will be the first under newly drawn reform rules that are designed to streamline convention business and to make delegates more representative.

THERE WILL be more women, more blacks and other minority groups and more delegates pledged to vote for a specific candidate for a certain number of ballots.

Delegate selection changes mean there will be fewer of the familiar convention faces — senators, congressmen, state and county office-holders and veteran party workers — and more "grassroots" Democrats.

Gone will be the familiar, old roll-call of the states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, the Canal Zone and Guam, alphabetically, and in its place, a roll-call determined by the drawing of numbers.

Most of the platform already will be written when the convention opens, and much of the hoopla — including the so-called demonstrations by supporters of candidates when they are nominated — also will be changed.

THERE WILL be a 15-minute time limit to nominate a candidate and have all the seconding speeches, and any "demonstrations" will be deducted from that 15 minutes.

With all this in mind, preparations are getting more far-flung each week to house, feed and transport delegates and other visitors and to get the city's convention complex ready for what probably will be its biggest challenge.

"By the time the convention opens, we'll be living here," says Norman Litz, acting manager of the Convention Hall. Litz, like most other key Beach officials, is a veteran of the 1968 Republican conclave that was the city's first venture into being host to a national political convention.

The 1968 convention on the Beach followed by days a Democratic convention in Chicago that was marred by violence, and it was held in a convention complex that was not only new but being finished practically up to the opening session.

THE FACT that it all came off without a major hitch gives Litz, Police Chief Rocky Pomerance and others a certain boost in self-confidence, but it does not diminish the myriad of preparations that will, in a few weeks, become feverish.

Southern Bell Telephone Co., for example, already has more than five dozen employes working fulltime on convention preparations that will include installing between 6,000 and 7,000 new telephones. Most of them will be in the convention complex, where a delegate will be able to pick up a phone and dial another delegate or his wife back in Nebraska.

IN ABOUT two months, more than 600 employes of nine Bell systems from as far as Montana will arrive to help write 10,000 service orders, man 40 switchboards and install 5,000 lines, 335 teletype machines, 40 video and 200 audio channels and 300 pay telephones in and around the hall.

Officials figure that keeping the convention in touch with the world through more than 7,000 members of the working press and an international satellite-assisted television audience will require more than 423-million feet of wire already in the ground.

So far, the only major alteration in the hall has been the shell of a wooden structure the size of a small house. Tucked in a corner of the 108,000-square-foot South Hall, it will be the nerve center of all communications.

BEFORE LONG, it will be joined by television studios, to be built by the major networks, and anchor booths from which the TV commentators will cover the events.

There are two major twists in all the expensive alterations that must be done.

One is that less than a month before the convention begins, all heavy work in the hall must stop for two weeks to allow the 30,000 Church of the Nazarene conventioneers to hold their meetings. That convention already was booked into the hall when the city began courting the Democrats, and both sides are having to compromise so both conventions can be held.

The other irony is that, within a few weeks after the Democrats close their conclave July 14, workmen will pull up the $23,000 security fence, replace a wall that is being knocked out between the North and South Halls, take apart the $62,000 rostrum, remove all the equipment and, in short, restore the building to a condition that will make it almost impossible to believe that the convention ever was there in the first place.

IT COST $950,000 in pledges to get the Democrats to hold their convention in the Beach, and the city of Miami Beach estimates it is providing more than $500,000 in goods and services.

Almost half that — an estimated $243,000 — is for allowing the party to use almost every nook and cranny of the North and South Halls, the auditorium, meeting rooms and offices, much of it for the better part of three months and all of it free of rent.

Other large items include $55,000 that the city will have to pay into its parking fund in lieu of parking meter fees it will not collect in the convention hall area. Another $25,000 each is being budgeted for the electric bill and for extra security personnel.

With the bitter memories of Chicago — and the satisfaction of one peaceful convention — still fresh, Pomerance, assisted by almost $400,000 of federal money, is heading a security force whose goal is what he calls "the effective and humane policing" of the convention.

TOWARD THAT end, he is using the federal money to send his 250-man force, plus about 100 other officers from Metro, the city of Miami, Florida Highway and Marine Patrols and State Beverage Department, to the classroom.

With instructors from Florida International University and classrooms donated by Miami Beach High School, three classes a weekend are being held so that officers assigned to all shifts can attend.

Subjects include crowd psychology, intelligence operations, personal defense, tactical training and familiarization with the sophisticated weapons, communications equipment and other hardware also purchased with the federal funds.

Pomerance says he does not expect violence at the convention, but officials admit they are preparing for the worst and hoping for the best.

"If we find out a group wants to demonstrate peacefully," says one high-ranking officer, "we'll even help them."

IN FACT, two areas right in front of the convention hall have even been reserved for demonstrators, a move Pomerance feels will allow them to express themselves in areas where TV cameras can record their dissent, but without interfering with the operation of the convention.

One local group already is organizing in an effort to minister to the needs of the 10,000 to 50,000 "non-delegates" it estimates will come for the convention.

"Our goal is a peaceful time in the city," says Lynn Slavitt, coordinator of the Miami Snowplow Co. — a name the group chose so people would remember it.

"We feel that the problem of dealing with these people is the whole community's problem," says Mrs. Slavitt. "We know what happened in Chicago, and most of that happened because there was no planning and there was no organization ahead of time."

WORKING OUT of the Center for Dialogue at 2175 NW 26th St., the group has interested several dozen volunteers, but so far, it has had little success in getting financial support to help get tents, medical and legal aid; portable toilets and other help for the expected youthful visitors.

In addition, the group is planning to begin first-aid training next month for interested volunteers who request it.

Coordinating the huge list of physical preparations for the convention is the job of a group of party officials and volunteer workers who have set up an office in the Washington Federal Savings and Loan building at 1701 Meridian Ave.

Working closely with national party officials who are spending most of their time in the Beach, a Florida Host Committee, appointed by Gov. Reubin Askew, is handling about 20 different chores, ranging from lining up red, white and blue decorations for the North Hall to finding a 123-voice choir to sing the National Anthem and help conductor Sammy Spear with the musical interludes.

IN ADDITION, they must screen 2,000 names of prospective volunteers to find the 1,000 or so they will need to perform a variety of tasks, such as the 200 to 400 who will be needed to chauffeur VIPs for most of a week.

A separate group is searching for low-cost housing for youthful delegates, visitors and anyone coming to the convention who will not be able to pay the hotel rates.

The Democratic National Committee in Washington is handling the 20,000-plus hotel reservations for delegates, candidates and party officials, but the local office already has sent applications for low-cost housing to 10,000 who requested them.

Most of the housing already found is in University of Miami dormitories, but committee members say they need much more than has been promised.

Somehow, Democrats hope all this pre-convention madness will jell by the time the gavel-banging begins, when Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien has forecast "an orderly, sensible and successful — if hotly contested — national convention" featuring "one of the most exciting and hard-fought competitions for the presidential nomination on record."

Maybe that will be, but somehow, getting there must seem like half the fun.

At the January, 1972, Illinois Zippie nominating convention, the calendar of events indicated the Zippie International Freek show would be held in Miami, Florida July 9-15, 1972, which coincides with the DNC. No mention, however, was made of the "Che Guevara Day".

A "Che Guevara Appreciation Day" very likely would result in a serious confrontation by Cuban elements in Greater Miami. Cuban exiles, numbering some quarter of a million in this area, have in the past exhibited their volatile nature in similar provocative situations.

As an example, there is presently in Miami a Russian research ship. This has provoked the Cubans who have staged aggressive demonstrations resulting in arrests, the receipt of bomb threats against the vessel and an overflight during which paint was dropped near the vessel.

In order that Miami might anticipate such demonstrations occurring during the DNC, the following leads are set forth:

LEADS

MILWAUKEE, CHICAGO AND NEW YORK:

1. Determine if dates of announced activities in Miami have been corrected to coincide with the DNC.

2. Determine if the "Che Guevara"Appreciation Day" is still a planned function.

3. Determine the number expected to participate in activities during the DNC.

Information developed should be placed in an LHM suitable for dissemination, with copy for Secret Service, Miami. A copy should also be directed to Miami file 80-1353 (MIDEM), a control for anticipated demonstrations during the forthcoming convention.

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, MIAMI, FLORIDA, JULY, 1972

A confidential source, who has provided reliable information in the past, advised that during the [redacted] b6 b7C b7D stated that the Young Workers Liberation League (YWLL) plans to join with other "movement" groups and demonstrate during the Democratic National Convention. Black further advised that the YWLL plans have not yet been finalized and it is unknown as to the YWLL's specific plans and number of participants.

The Young Workers Liberation League (YWLL) is a front organization of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA). It was formed as a Marxist-Leninist youth group in February, 1970.

Carolyn Black was elected to the Central Committee of the YWLL in Chicago, Illinois on February 8, 1970.

b7D

The following items were discussed as possible activities by FPC:

A "telephone tree" is to be organized. This is a list of persons who will be alert for information pertinent to the organization. This information will be passed from group to group and attempts made to organize demonstrations against events not to the liking of the FPC.

Contact is to be made with a [redacted] (PH) in [redacted] who is with [redacted] and can aid FPC in obtaining [redacted] Contact is also to be made with a [redacted] (PH) with [redacted] who it is felt can aid the FPC in obtaining [redacted]

A week prior to the convention a week of education will start to help finalize the plans for the FPC demonstrations. Handbills and leaflets will be made.

Short rallies were discussed and plans were discussed for having marshals to police the FPC demonstration. [redacted]

Senior citizens in various Florida cities are to be contacted for money donations; liberal teachers and professors in various schools are to be contacted to obtain their backing and publicity for the FPC demonstrations.

[redacted] "Three Point Program" will be presented to candidates and attempts made to obtain their comments for approval. These points are as follows:

The President of the U. S. must immediately stop the bombing and all other military operations in Indochina.

Simultaneously, the President must immediately set a date for the complete withdrawal within three months of U. S. personnel and military equipment and end all support for the Thieu regime in Saigon and the military regimes of Laos and Cambodia.

The Congress of the U. S. must cut off all funds for U.S. military involvement and support for the military regimes in Indochina.

Tens of billions of dollars now appropriated for war and militarism should be redirected to meet the urgent human needs of people for jobs, adequate income, housing, health care and education.

b6
b7D

We believe that all candidates for office and delegates to the Democratic and Republican conventions should commit themselves to this Candidate's Pledge.

On 7/13/72 leaflets and handbills are to be passed out and short rallies are to be had followed by a marche to the convention hall starting about 6:00 PM.

Vietnam Veterans Against The War

The Vietnam Veterans Against The War (VVAW) is a national veterans organization with a National Clearinghouse located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City (NYC). Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina".

On March 24, 1972, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following information concerning activities at the National Clearinghouse of the VVAW in NYC during March, 1972.

The VVAW no longer has a National Office or a National Executive Committee. The fourth floor at 25 West 26th Street, NYC, which formerly housed the National Office and the office of the New York Region currently is used as the office of the National Clearinghouse and the New York Region.

The National Clearinghouse was created at the National Steering Committee meeting in Denver, Colorado, during February 18-21, 1972, and its functions are to publish the VVAW paper, "First Casualty" and a VVAW newsletter.

The following individuals are currently operating the National Clearinghouse of the VVAW:

It was learned [redacted] was at that time in Japan, apparantly working on sending VVAW members to Hanoi, North Vietnam, during the Spring of 1972.

The main activity at the National Clearinghouse during March, 1972, was the preparation of a new edition of "First Casualty". It is ready for the printers, but has not been printed inasmuch as over $1000 is needed for the job.

A National Steering Committee meeting of the VVAW will be held at Houston, Texas, during April 7-11, 1972. The location in Houston is not known. The purposes of the Houston meeting are as follows:

1. To determine the new location of the National Clearinghouse. Those persons currently working at the National Clearinghouse desire to move it to the mid-West or possibly Denver, Colorado.

2. To choose those members of the VVAW who are to travel to North Vietnam during the Spring of 1972. Each region of the VVAW have been requested to furnish the National Clearinghouse with names of two VVAW members as possible travelers to North Vietnam for the VVAW.

3. To determine the future political activities of the VVAW.

4. To determine the extent of the participation of the VVAW at demonstrations at the Republican and Democratic National Conventions at San Diego, California, and Miami, Florida, respectively, and at other demonstrations during the spring and summer of 1972.

On March 28, 1972, source furnished copies of VVAW Newsletter, dated March 14, 1972, and a list of the Regional Coordinators of the VVAW as of March 7, 1972. Copies of these documents follow.

NEWSLETTER of March 14, 1972

1. From Wisconsin. "The Wisconsin Region hereby proposes: 1) That a National Speakers Bureau be set up for fund-raising and publicity. This will enable the former New York Office personnel, (i.e. Al Hubbard, Joe Urgo, Larry Rottman, Jon Birch, and others who qualify), to continue their travelling and speaking activities for VVAW. In this way, the Clearinghouse will easily be able to set dates, so they aren't confused--and the people who ask for specific speakers by name, can get what they expect. 2) That the objectives be changed to include the two new objectives proposed by the WashColoOrg Regions: 'To show Americans that their society is structured by a sexism which promotes inferior status upon women, reducing them to subservient sexual objects of men. This institutionalized sexism channels women into unfulfilling, lower paying jobs which are servile in nature and purpose; it exploits their bodies for sex and profit and it degrades and dehumanizes them by a double standard wholly dependent on the myth of male supremacy. This sexism is explicitly exploited by the military, officially defining servicewomen as subordinate and thoroughly subjagating them to nothing more than sexual objects.' and 'To demand there be no distinctions as to types of discharges and that a single type of discharge be issued, and that this be retroactive. We also demand all veterans receive all rights and benefits under the VA; and compensation for disabilities be based solely on the degrees of disability for veterans and their families, whether or not service connected, and without regard to sex, race, rank, or length of service.' The Wisconsin region also wants to add: 'That we must work to educate the American people about the horrors of the Automated Battlefield, due to the complexion of the war in Indochina.'"
*Clearinghouse note: The objectives quoted above are from Washington-California-Oregon, and not Colorado.

2. From Washington State. In the planning stages still is an action to be sponsored by VVAW Washington-Alaska in Vancouver, British Columbia. According to Mike Dedrick, "it would revolve around re-patriation and would involve probably guerrilla theatre, speaking, film showing, and a conference, at which we could issue a joint statement on so-called "amnesty". It is expected that conscientious objectors who have served their two years alternative service and draft resisters who fled into exile will join our brothers in Vancouver.

3. From New York. Ed Damato proposes that regions not able to submit their proposals in time for the three-week deadline prior to the Houston steering committee meeting should submit a copy of each proposal to each regional coordinator on the first day of the meeting.

4. From Florida. Scott Camil will be going on trial soon and will need all the financial help we can give him. One way in which he can raise money is by speaking. If you can book an engagement for him at a local college or organization contact the National Clearinghouse or Scott.

5. From Indiana. There will be an action at Terre Haute, Indiana in which VVAW will participate. It will start at Indiana State University at 8 AM, April 7 and go to the CRANE Depot. At CRANE, a rally will be held and testimonies on the air war will be given. For further information call Rich Bedard, 232-6311 ext. 2804, or 235-7151.

6. From Louisiana. It is suggested that all regions nominating delegates to Hanoi send to the Clearinghouse as soon as possible, the names and brief biography of each nominee. Include in the nominations their language capabilities and fluency, travels, present profession, units and areas served in Vietnam, etc.

7. From Eastern Pennsylvania. The brothers who took over the Betsy Ross House during "Operation: Peace on Earth" have had their trials. Five were fined $10.00 each, and the charges on the remaining 20 were dropped.

8. From 1st Casualty Press. Larry Rottman says that the first volume ov WINNING HEARTS AND MINDS will be available April 5, 1972 to VVAW members at a special rate of $1.25 per copy. Attached is an order form for your region.

9. From National Clearinghouse. Michael McCain left for his trial in Los Angeles on March 12. He has with him a copy of the film DEWEY CANYON III and numerous material pertaining to VVAW. He is available for speaking upon request from regional coordinators. His itinerary is: March 12-16 Los Angeles (213) 984-0804/787-7385/785-3527
17-19 Santa Barbara.
20-?? Hitch-hiking through Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Tennessee, Kentucky, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey, back to New York.

10. From NARMIC. The NARMIC Automated Air War Slide Show is available to regional coordinators for $25.00, according to Marilyn McNabb of NARMIC. The blank form is for your use.

11. From the Farm Workers. The farmworkers are in serious trouble. They've asked for our help. The enclosed letter should explain what is happening. If the government is successful in stopping the farmworkers then they will move on to different areas. Try to get this information to all members soon because the deadline for the appeal of the ruling is April 6.

12. From the VA. Here is a telegram sent by the VA to all VA hospitals on September 24, 1971. "DM&S CIRCULAR 10-71-221. ADMISSION FOR TREATMENT OF DRUG DEPENDENCE THE PURPOSE OF THIS CIRCULAR IS TO RE-EMPHASIZE THAT ALL ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS FOR HOSPITALIZATION BECAUSE OF DRUG DEPENDENCE WILL BE CLASSIFIED AS MEDICAL EMERGENCIES AND ADMITTED AT ONCE. NON AVAILABILITY OF A SUITABLE BED IS NOT AN ACCEPTABLE REASON FOR REFUSING ADMISSION. ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS WHO INQUIRE ABOUT TREATMENT FOR DRUG DEPENDENCE WILL BE ENCOURAGED TO ACCEPT HOSPITALIZATION. IF A PATIENT, AFTER ADMISSION, REQUIRES SERVICES NOT AVAILABLE AT THE ADMITTING STATION, PROMPT ARRANGEMENTS WILL BE MADE FOR TRANSFER TO A VA STATION WHICH CAN PROVIDE THE NEEDED CARE. ANY DIFFICULTY IN EFFECTING TRANSFER WILL BE REPORTED TO THE APPROPRIATE REGIONAL MEDICAL DIRECTOR BY TELEPHONE. USUAL ASMRO PROCEDURES REMAIN IN EFFECT. THIS CIRCULAR EXPIRES SEPTEMBER 24, 1972."

13. From Italy. The G.I. movement in the Italian Army is growing. They face the same oppression that G.I.s around the world face. The present trend is towards coffeehouses similar to those organized in this country several years ago.

14. From U.S. Army Intelligence Command. On April 23, 1969, the U.S. Army Intelligence Command at Fort Holabird, Md., issued a secret "Information Collection Plan", directing agents from 300 MI offices in the U.S. to intensify surveillance of civilian activity. Agents were specifically ordered to place under surveillance all strikes and labor disputes, all antiwar and antidraft activities, all demonstrations, rallies, parades, marches, conventions, conferences and picketing activities. Extensive photo-coverage of all activities, including the use of telephoto lens, will be made. Identification are to be made of all personalities involved, or expected to become involved in protest activities and to obtain information on the extent of overt and/or covert financing. The reports must include the identification of participating organizations, number of people each can mobilize, details concerning transportation arrangements and housing facilities for non-local visiting demonstrators, any indication of foreign influence, and any extremist whose background indicated military training in guerrilla warfare, counterinsurgency or use of explosives and demolitions. This document is available at the U.S. Army Investigative Records Repository or at your local underground newspaper.

RE: MIDEM

It is responsibility of Miami to keep Secret Service and local authorities apprised of plans of dissident groups and individuals for protest activity in connection with the Democratic National Convention in July. To a great extent, local authorities, who have the task of maintaining order at the convention site, and Secret Service, with its protective responsibilities, are dependent upon information developed by the Bureau in the successful discharge of their specific duties. It is, therefore, imperative that all pertinent information relating to the convention be developed and appropriately reported as rapidly as possible.

DISSEMINATION

Certain recipient offices have submitted information in the recent past with regard to plans for activity at the convention. This information has been appropriately disseminated as received. Additionally, it has been, and will be, up until convention time, summarized in a bi-weekly LHM, the first of which was submitted 3/23/72. These LHM's must be prepared in clear, concise, readable, and professional form.

In many cases, activities for the Democratic National Convention are at this time only in the planning stages. It is important, however, that we keep abreast of such plans, and that all information developed be disseminated promptly. Recipient offices are, therefore, requested to re-alert investigative personnel to the necessity for immediate dissemination of all pertinent information relating to convention plans. Information developed should be submitted to the Bureau and Miami in a form suitable for dissemination with appropriate characterizations of organizations involved. Merely designating an informant report to the Miami MIDEM file is not sufficient, since the Miami Office is frequently not in a position to characterize the organization or individuals involved. LHMs should be submitted under the dual caption of the organization and MIDEM.

INFORMANTS

If information is developed indicating a demonstration is planned by a subversive group in which the office has no coverage or insufficient coverage, every effort should be made to effect immediate coverage and to fully develop this information.

Also, at this time, each recipient office should give consideration to its coverage of protest activities by local organizations at the convention site and should begin the selection of informants who are able and willing to travel to Miami with their local contingent. This should be borne in mind as new plans develop or as additional groups are organized for this purpose. It is expected each contingent of any size will be accompanied by one or more sources of the home office. It is also expected the office will be selective in this process and will send informants who have demonstrated their capability to develop and relate pertinent, factual information. Bureau authority should be obtained.

Following the selection of an informant for this purpose, Bureau and Miami should be advised specifically of the following:

1) Office file number.

2) Informant's symbol number.

3) Informant's code name.

4) Name of group and position of informant in group.

5) Size of contingent expecting to travel to Miami.

6) Other coverage of this contingent.

7) Anticipated payments to informant for services and expenses.

After an informant's travel has been approved by the Bureau, the home office should assure he is provided with sufficient funds for the round trip without the necessity for personal contact with Miami Agents for such funds. Informant should be instructed to contact the Miami Office by telephone as soon as possible after his arrival consistent with security. Of course, he should never contact the Miami Office in person and should maintain frequent telephone contact with this office during the convention, no less than once a day. He can locate the Miami Office telephone number on the inside cover of any local telephone directory and for security reasons, he should be specifically instructed to make no written notation of this number. When telephoning the office, informant should ask for [redacted] Miami Office switchboard will be issued instructions to immediately connect these callers with agents specifically designated to accept these calls on a 24-hour basis. An FD-306 concerning each call will be submitted to the appropriate office for completion of its file. b7D b7E

NOTE FOR SECURITY AND EXTREMIST AGENTS - If info received from any office re organization making plans for Midem not in form suitable for dissemination, submirtel promptly requesting this be done.

On 3/31/72 Miami Beach Police Department (MBPD) furnished a copy of a memo prepared by MBPD Sgt. [redacted] regarding a meeting of "Operation Snowplow" held in Miami on 3/9/72. Snow-Plow is a newly founded service organization formed to furnish food and shelter for demonstrators at the Democratic National Convention (DNC) in July, 1972. According to the memo [redacted] Viet Nam Veterans Against The War (VVAW), stated the National Convention of VVAW would be held in Dallas, Texas, from 4/11-15/72, and at that time it would be decided as to how many VVAW members will come to the DNC and what their role will be.

In view of information in Denver LHM of 3/17/72 regarding VVAW, above information is believed to be in error. The next steering committee meeting which is open to all members was set for Houston, Texas, on 4/7-11/72.

Houston is requested to be alert for VVAW plans for demonstrations at the DNC and to report any information developed by LHM under dual caption of "VVAW" and "MIDEM" per instructions in Bureau airtel to Albany dated 2/22/72 captioned "CALREP" and "MIDEM".

Closed-Circuit TV to Bring Convention Into Hotels

By FRED BARGER
Herald Staff Writer

Many of the estimated 35,000 visitors who will not be able to get into the Miami Beach Convention Hall during the Democratic National Convention in July will be able to watch the affair over closed circuit television in their hotel rooms.

The Democratic National Committee reached an agreement Tuesday with officials of the Trans-World Productions Division of Columbia Pictures to beam live, all-day coverage of convention activities to major hotels.

RICHARD J. MURPHY, the party's convention manager, said it is not yet certain how many hotels will receive the telecast, but he said plans are to include those as far north as the Diplomat in Hollywood and as far west as the Doral Country Club.

"It won't cost us anything," said Murphy. "What we're doing is, we're permitting them to sell the advertisements and get the profits."

Murphy said the party "will control the network. We will control the editorial content." He said such control would be necessary to ensure equal treatment of all presidential candidates.

Closed-circuit telecast was tried on a limited basis to a few hotels during the 1968 convention in Chicago, but Murphy said party officials are making a greater effort to provide a way for those who can't get into the 15,000 seats in the convention hall to participate somehow in the July conclave.

THE COVERAGE will begin at 9 a.m. daily during the July 10-14 convention and end when the final session is completed, Murphy said. He said there would be coverage of convention-related press conferences and caucuses before the actual convention sessions begin in the afternoons.

"We would have our own producer — likely somebody from the committee — and we would implement a totally impartial situation," said Ed Cubberley, Murphy's assistant. "It wouldn't be credible otherwise."

On 3/31/72, Alexandria source mentioned in referenced letter who has furnished reliable information in the past concerning the WPP and who has been characterized by the Detroit Office on the basis of information furnished as "a competent observer and an efficient interviewer who obtained very factual and significant information" advised as follows: b6 b7C b7D

On [redacted] told source that he had been recently contacted by one [redacted] who is allegedly [redacted] and who allegedly had some connection with the People's Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ) in 1968, and who was said to have taken part in planning Youth International Party (YIP) demonstrations at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago.

[redacted] told source that [redacted] related to him that he had been in contact in the recent past with individuals who were planning disruptive activities directed towards the Republican National Convention in San Diego, California, in August, 1972.

[redacted] stated that there would be no organized effort to disrupt the Democratic National Convention scheduled for Miami, Florida, in July, 1972, by this group as the Democrats are currently destroying themselves and will need no assistance from anyone to disrupt their own convention. However, "there will be a lot of trouble at the Republic National Convention in San Diego" and plans are currently being discussed but not implemented as how to best achieve this disruption. One of the primary reasons according to [redacted] as to why no active efforts have been made to implement these plans is a lack of funds at the present time. This group consists, according to [redacted] of people who were formerly affiliated with the PCPJ and YIP, and who have some funds left over from prior campaigns of these organizations.

told that many former leaders of the PCPJ and YIP have been discredited in the eyes of "rank and file " activists of these organizations as they feel that former leaders such as JERRY RUBIN have "become self-made superstars" and are only interested in obtaining fame and publicity for themselves rather than in the past stated goals of YIP and other related groups.

Leadership of PCPJ and YIP, according to , is currently fragmented and the task of "picking up the pieces" and putting together an effective organization has been assumed by and a former member of the Beatles singing group, JOHN LENNON. LENNON and are said to be working together and devised the following plan to obtain funds to finance activities against the Republican Convention:

A series of "rock concerts" featuring big-name established stars in the musical field as headliners and backed up with lesser known individuals and groups will be put on throughout the country. LENNON is said to have the know-how and the connections to achieve the above. These performances will provide the main source of funds needed by LENNON and to carry out the disruptive tactics in San Diego.

The first such concert, according to source, is to be held in the Chrysler Arena, Ann Arbor, Michigan, in the near future. This will be, according to "the opening gun of the campaign."

Alexandria source again advised that reminde him that he desired no direct contact with the Federal Bureau of Investigation but would furnish information only to him. Additionally, for the information of the Bureau, Alexandria (Bureau refer to Alexandria airtel to Director, 3/10/72.)

The SCLC is a civil rights organization, primarily of black membership, headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia, formerly led by the late Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING.

b7C

On March 8, 1972, and April 4, 1972, MM T-1 advised that [redacted] a local Miami, Florida representative of the SCLC, recently stated that the SCLC had no formal active organization in the Miami-Dade County, Florida area. [redacted] mentioned, however, that there were two field representatives of the SCLC from Atlanta, Georgia who were operating in the Miami area from time to time. [redacted] did not identify these representatives.

MM T-1 stated that [redacted] volunteered that the SCLC had no intention of disrupting the forthcoming July, 1972 Democratic National Convention at Miami Beach, Florida and to the contrary the SCLC hoped to act as a stabilizing influence upon some of the extreme groups which might possibly participate in demonstrations at the Democratic National Convention. [redacted] said the SCLC intended to offer its services in a "liaison capacity" between the demonstrating groups and local police authorities. She said that in furtherance of this intent, she, [redacted] and another representative of the SCLC, had already contacted the Miami Beach Police Department and had offered their assistance in this regard.

The EYSIC had connections with the Florida Peoples Platform Coalition. (See item I,B. below)

The EYSIC, formed to direct New Left protest activities during the 1972 election year, ceased to exist around the first of March, 1972. RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

An anti-war rally was held on the mall at the University of South Florida (USF), Tampa, Florida, on March 8, 1972, by a group of individuals affiliated with the FPPC, including RENNARD C. DAVIS and SUSAN GREGORY from New York. Although it was an FPPC function, it was officially sponsored at USF by the Youth International Party (YIP), a campus-approved organization.

> YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely knit, anti-Establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

At the rally, which was attended by about 200 persons, ED DEATON of the FPPC acted as master of ceremonies. The main speaker was RENNIE DAVIS, who was convicted of Antiriot Law violations during the 1968 Democratic National Convention. DEATON's discussion concerned the "automated air war" being practiced by the American military against the population of North Vietnam. He exhorted those present to work to defeat President NIXON and to elect a "peace candidate" who would immediately withdraw all United States forces from Indochina and cease the backing of the Saigon Government.

The second speaker, SUSAN GREGORY, introduced as a member of the "Antiwar Union", New York City, presented a three-point peace plan backed by the FPPC. This plan was to be presented to each candidate in the Florida Presidential Primary. All persons present were asked to sign the FPPC "citizen's pledge", asking the candidates to endorse the three-point peace plan and stating support would be withdrawn from those who refused to endorse the plan. The three point plan is as follows:

1. Within 24 hours after inauguration, the President will immediately stop the bombing and all other military operations in Indochina.

2. The President will immediately set a date for the complete withdrawal within three months of United States personnel and equipment from Indochina.

3. The United States Government will end all support for the THIEU regime in Saigon.

and the military regimes of Laos and Cambodia.

March 8, 1972

The FPPC held a statewide steering committee meeting March 25 and 26, 1972, at the Wesley Foundation, University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida.

During the first session, the discussion concerned FPPC organizational structure, the problem of finances, the establishment of a communications network and the actions that should be taken during and at the site of the Democratic National Convention. The meeting was dominated by the Miami contingent, who vetoed strong actions and civil disobedience, which were suggested, and insisted all demonstrations at the site of the Democratic National Convention be peaceful and non-violent.

With respect to the Democratic National Convention, a two-day action was tentatively decided upon. On July 12, 1972, from 10:00 A.M. to noon, a rally would be staged at Bayfront Park in downtown Miami. The gathered group would then disperse throughout the city to hold "teach-ins" and to distribute literature door-to-door in the community. On July 13, 1972, the group at 12:00 noon would again congregate in Bayfront Park. At 3:00 P.M., following a short rally, they would march to the site of the Democratic National Convention on Miami Beach, Florida. At 6:00 P.M. another rally that would include speeches, music and the distribution of food would take place. When the Democratic candidate is announced, they will seek to have him come from the convention hall, at which time they will confront him with their demands. They hoped at least 15,000 would participate and stated $20,000.00 would be needed for the planned activities.

On the second day of the steering committee meeting, informal discussions on organizational structure took place. Nothing was clearly resolved. In the afternoon, the group visited various areas in Miami and Miami Beach, Florida, which could be used as possible camp sites during the forthcoming Democratic National Convention. Watson Island was the one preferred. The group also visited the Miami Beach Convention Hall, the site of the forthcoming Democratic National Convention.

Elements of the FPPC from North Florida are expected in Miami during the first week of April, 1972, to rent a house which they will occupy until the convention and from which they will promote demonstrations to take place at the convention. Reportedly they are to receive $5,000.00 from [redacted] an [redacted] to finance their venture.

D. RED BALLOON COLLECTIVE

The March 5, 1972, issue of the "New York Times" contained an article relating to a meeting of a new group called the Red Balloon Collective at Stony Brook, Long Island, New York, on March 3-4, 1972. The article referred to the possibility that members of this group may come to Miami for the Democratic National Convention.

Chief ROCKY POMERANCE
Miami Beach Police Department
Miami Beach, Florida

The Red Balloon Collective is a New Left group founded in New York in early 1972 for the purpose of bringing elements of the shattered New Left under strong centralized leadership. Its initial conference was held on March 3 to 5, 1972, at the State University of New York, Stony Brook, New York, for the avowed purpose of forming a "mass-based radical left organization".

The affair was reported to be poorly organized, and the Red Balloon Collective did not realize its primary objective, the formation of a new radical left group. The discussions of the conference generally dealt with methods that persons and groups could employ to defeat President NIXON in his bid for reelection this year.

During the conference, a representative of a coalition from Tampa, Florida, concerned with the Democratic National Convention, furnished the address of this coalition as P. O. Box 17521, Tampa, Florida, zip code 33612 (address of FPPC). However, it was admitted during the conference that Miami is socially and geographically ill-suited for a mass action and that demonstrations there would be, at best, a "side show". No plans were made for any such demonstrations by this group.

F. YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

Miami memorandum dated March 23, 1972, disclosed that the Zeigtgeist International Party (Zippies), the political wing of the YIP, had circulated a pamphlet stating they will nominate a "rock" (referring to mineral matter) for President, with each state to hold a convention to decide their favorite "rock" candidate to attend the Zippie convention in Miami, timed to coincide with the Democratic National Convention in July, 1972.

On February 22, 1972, source made available a leaflet distributed at a YIP-Zippie demonstration at Chicago, Illinois, on that date. The demonstration was held in front of the ABC-TV building, 190 North State Street, to protest the refusal of ABC-TV to allow their "rock" candidate equal time. The calendar of events in this leaflet stated that on July 9-15, 1972, a "Zippie freek circus" would be held in Miami and referred to details on another page of the leaflet (See next page).

GOOD TIMES

We call ourselves ZIPPIES because what our scene has lacked for the past four years is ZIP. ZIPPIES have ZIP. We're past hippies, and beyond yippies. After Y comes Z. We're Zippies. Our program is simple—Peace Now, Freedom Now. We believe in good times for all. We feel if we are going to achieve Utopia, somebody has to get the ball rolling.

SUNNY MIAMI

Just broadcasting our interest to go will change the drift of the primaries, as regular Dems wake up & see we're not going to let 'em con anybody. The conventions are the solar plexus of the system. The outlines of San Diego have already become clear. But, we are much more into Miami because we're from the eastern end of the country & because it'll be different from either San Diego or ChiTown '68. The governor there is a Lindsayite Democrat. The regular Dems are anxious not to screw up their new youthful image. They will welcome youth & try to channel us into rock concerts & meaningless workshops. Their object will be to make us into window dressing for the same old shit. Our goal will be to expose it.

In '72 YIP and ZIP represents & speaks for all the people--not just freeks, not just youths. In '72, we're for the human being. Every state will bring a rock to Miami, & 2 rocks will be chosen as the YIP-ZIP "slate" for office. We're going to show that the youth vote can't be taken for granite; we're gonna rock the boat in '72. We want to catapult our rock into the White House. Make '72 one big rock festival

Cast your vote with the rock.

II. ORGANIZATIONS PLANNING ATTENDANCE OF DELEGATES OR MEMBERS

A. MIAMI SNOWPLOW COMPANY

The Miami Snowplow Company, sometimes referred to as "Operation Snowplow" or simply "Snowplow", is a coalition of 22 organizations founded in Miami, Florida, in January, 1972. Its purpose is to provide such services as housing, food, legal aid, medical aid, and a communications network for the expected influx of young protesters, observers, and non-delegates to Miami Beach for the Democratic National Convention. "Snowplow's" stated purpose is to work toward a peaceful convention and to protect the rights of protesters. It is a nonpolitical service group that intends to provide services for anyone in need.

MM T-3
March 2, 1972

"Snowplow" meets weekly at the Center for Dialogue, St. John's Lutheran Church, 2175 N.W. 26th Street, Miami. Its meetings are normally chaired by its coordinator, LYNN SLAVITT, and are attended, on invitation, by various law enforcement representatives in the area. The meetings are generally concerned with overall plans for servicing dissidents expected to arrive in Miami at convention time.

Recent meetings of "Snowplow" have been principally concerned with efforts to obtain funds for the organization. At the March 31, 1972, meeting, it was announced that the United Fund of Dade County had agreed to underwrite the budget of "Snowplow" and that Dade County Manager RAY GOODE had committed Dade County to support "Snowplow" in the areas of food and medicine.

These cards may be obtained voluntarily at the Miami Police Department Identification Section. Once they are issued these cards with their photographs, the young people would not likely be subject to arrest as transients in case they are questioned by local police officials during convention activities.

On March 15, 1972, [redacted] was located and interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI. He said a meeting of the GAA was held at 5024 N.E. 2nd Avenue, Miami, about the first week of February, 1972, and about 40 to 65 men, all homosexuals, were present. On a table in the center of the room, he observed 10 or 12 handguns, 2 rifles, and 4 cans of mace. He also saw a copy of the GAA constitution, the ninth amendment of which advocated violence. He overheard various members present make references to the Democratic National Convention, and one of them stated about 2,500 GAA members from New York were expected to come to Miami for the convention. [redacted] claimed he was at this meeting [redacted] and that he was unable to recall any specific remarks made during this meeting relating to violence. He assumed violence was planned due to the presence of weapons and the reference to violence in the ninth amendment to their constitution. He declined to furnish his own address as he did not want to be contacted there at any time in the future.

On March 15, 1972 [redacted] advised Special Agents of the FBI as follows:

[redacted] The Miami group is a chapter of the national GAA which is headquartered in New York City. About February 4, 1972, the initial meeting of approximately eight individuals was held in his apartment at which the Miami chapter of GAA was formed.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

Discussions at this meeting concerned only the purposes and aims of GAA, that is, that it is a group devoted only to one issue,"gay rights". Those in attendance were primarily college students. At no time at this meeting or in subsequent meetings were any weapons in evidence or exhibited by any of those present. At no time was any form of violence suggested, discussed, or in any way referred to even by implication. The organization is strongly opposed to violence in any form. [redacted] produced a copy of the GAA constitution, which contains a clause specifically repudiating violence as "unworthy of social protest". It was noted this constitution has no ninth article or amendment. [redacted] stated the GAA in Miami has 13 members and at present neither the Miami chapter nor the national group has any plans to conduct demonstrations at the Democratic National Convention. b6 b7C b7D

IV. POSSIBILITY OF DISTURBANCE IN THE ETHNIC COMMUNITIES DURING THE CONVENTION

During March and April, 1972, contacts with sources in a position to be aware of possible plans for violence or disruption among members of ethnic and minority communities in the Greater Miami area have produced no indication of planned violence or disturbances to take place during the time of the Democratic National Convention.

ReBuairtel dated 11/2/71 captioned "Demonstrations During the Forthcoming Political Campaign," and Bureau airtel dated 1/19/72 captioned "Demonstrations During the Democratic National Convention."

Referenced communications promulgated instructions to all offices concerning the reporting of disruptive activity during the Democratic and Republican National Conventions this summer.

It is anticipated that these two events will draw extremists and other violence-prone activists to Miami Beach, Florida, and San Diego, California. The Miami Office and the San Diego Office will have a definite interest in the presence of such individuals in their territories. Secret Service in these cities will be charged with protecting the candidates, as well as other Government officials, and therefore, should be aware of their identities. The Miami Beach and San Diego Police Departments should also be aware of their presence and identities.

Effective immediately and continuing until the Conventions are completed, each office, on developing information that an extremist or other violence-prone individual is traveling to either Miami Beach or San Diego, will be expected to promptly alert the Miami or San Diego Office to the travel.

As a means of alerting these offices, the following procedure is to be followed:

Prepare a letterhead memorandum reporting the travel and containing a short, concise statement of the individual's organizational affiliation, if any, plus any history of violence.

A separate page is to be attached to this memorandum as an enclosure. The enclosure is to contain a photograph, a complete physical description, any information relating to the carrying of weapons, past convictions for acts of violence, FBI number, and any other data that can be used for identification purposes, such as a local arrest record or FBI identification record which may be appended to it. The enclosure should not contain any subversive information from Bureau sources.

On receipt, Miami or San Diego will furnish one copy of the complete memorandum with enclosure to Secret Service. The enclosure only will be removed from one copy of the letterhead memorandum and furnished to the police department having responsibility for policing the Convention.

The letterhead memoranda are to be prepared in accordance with existing instructions. Where photographs are not immediately available, reasonable efforts should be made to obtain them prior to submitting the memoranda.

The Miami and San Diego Offices should be furnished at least four copies of these communications. Five copies should be sent to the Bureau.

Those offices that are origin in the investigations of key activists, key black extremists, and subjects included in the Extremist Bureau Fugitive List should furnish the above material on these individuals promptly to the Bureau and both Miami and San Diego. In these cases, since no travel plans are known, a reference should be made in the memorandum to the effect that these individuals, because of their background, may travel to San Diego or Miami Beach.

Each office is to remain alert for information indicating that individuals of this nature will be traveling to the Convention sites and will be expected to continue to alert their sources for information regarding the activity of extremists during the Conventions.

During the build-up to these Conventions all offices should be alert to the possibility of criminal violations occurring within the Bureau's jurisdiction. Past experience indicates that activity prior to and during demonstrations of this nature is conducive to violations of Federal anti-riot statutes. You should also be alert for possible violations of Federal criminal statutes within this Bureau's jurisdiction, particularly the Presidential and Congressional Assassination Statutes, Crime Aboard Aircraft, and bombing and gun law statutes, together with our responsibilities under threats to the President. You are reminded that information coming to your attention during the coverage of Convention activity, which concerns possible criminal violations, may subsequently be utilized as evidence in a prosecutive proceeding and should, therefore, be developed and preserved accordingly.

In view of our responsibilities concerning the President and Congressional figures, San Diego and Miami should set up separate control files or folders on the President and Vice President and the candidates for the Presidency under protective custody of the U. S. Secret Service. Upon receipt of instant communication, each office hereafter should furnish a copy of pertinent communications concerning threats to the President, Vice President, or the candidates for the Presidency to either San Diego or Miami, depending upon the political party involved.

Where information is developed of a possible criminal violation within the Bureau's jurisdiction, you should immediately institute an investigation in accordance with existing instructions and notify the Bureau under appropriate separate caption.

It is an established fact that the underground press acts as a communication tie between New Left groups and dissident elements across the Nation.

The forthcoming political Conventions in Miami Beach on July 9-13 and San Diego on August 21-24 will, increasingly, become the subject of comment in this press. Through articles and announcements, it can be anticipated that the sponsors of demonstrations and key leaders will attempt to draw large crowds to these cities. Through this means they will also outline specific actions which they hope will be taken during the Conventions.

The Bureau feels that a careful collation and analysis of this material will not only help to reveal the nature of plans being made by these groups but will show the extent of their efforts to advertise these plans and to draw support for their endeavors.

In order to do this each office is instructed to begin promptly to review the underground press in its territory for articles relating to protest activities prior to or during the Conventions. This review is to continue until the Conventions are concluded.

Copies of articles relating to these Conventions should be forwarded to the Bureau by airtel Attention: Domestic Intelligence Division; Research Section and captioned either Calrep - Underground Press or Midem - Underground Press.

In connection with your suggestion in referenced letter of 3/13/72, it is noted that instructions have been issued to all field offices concerning travel of violence-prone activists to Miami and San Diego. Also included under these instructions are key activists, key black activists and subjects included on the Extremist Bureau Fugitive List. It is felt that these instructions sufficiently cover those individuals likely to travel to Miami or San Diego for disruptive purposes.

With regard to your suggestion concerning the making of 35mm slides for "instant recognition classes," it is felt that such a procedure, which would include leaders and leading activists of antiestablishment groups, is too broad in scope. In addition, you suggest that photographs of leaders and leading activists of anti-establishment group be accompanied by information concerning their organizational affiliation. To do this Bureau sources would be involved. This is a situation which might result in the Bureau becoming embroiled in legal action at a later date.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

Reference is made to previous communications dated January 25 and February 24, 1972, at Chicago, Illinois, under the above caption.

A First and Second source, who have furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 3, 1972, and a Third source, a representative of a local Government Agency that conducts security type investigations in the Chicago area, advised on April 4, 1972, the prior announced Youth International Party (YIP) - Zippie activity called "Zippie Party Freak Circus," identified in referenced Chicago communications, were intended to coincide with the activity of the July 9-15, 1972, Democratic National Convention (DNC) in Miami, Florida, as is all generally referred to YIP - Zippie activity during the summer of 1972, at Miami. This assertion was made by sources regardless of specific dates announced for YIP - Zippie activity designated for the summer of 1972, at Miami. The purpose of YIP activity scheduled for Miami was to take advantage of the DNC as an international interest event to attempt, in such circumstances, to gain international attention for YIP during the DNC.

These sources advised in regard to the "National Che Guevara Appreciation Day" announced by YIP as an event to be held on July 27, 1972, at Miami Beach, Florida, apparently YIP was misinformed, at the time YIP event announcements were made, as to the actual dates the 1972 DNC was to be held in Miami. As observed previously by sources, the "Che Guevara Day" announced by YIP, as was all of YIP activity designated for Miami during the summer of 1972, intended to occur during the 1972 DNC in Miami. Sources stated no further mention of this specific event in any aspect has ever been mentioned by YIP or any other element known to sources in the Chicago area.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

These sources further observed specific YIP - Zippie events previously announced, as set forth in referenced Chicago communications, to take place in Chicago, such as Zippie Rock Band performances on March 3, 1972, in Chicago, on March 4, 1972, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and on March 5, 1972, in Madison, Wisconsin; the "Spring Freak Week," March 18-26, 1972, to register voters; a Marajuana Smoke-In and Rock Music Concert, March 31 and April 1-2, 1972, in Chicago and Milwaukee, were all cancelled. These events were cancelled because of a general lack of interest, support, and planning. It was the opinion of these sources that identified events publicly announced by YIP - Zippie to date, identified as their exclusive activities through the summer of 1972, will not be successfully achieved and most of them will never occur. At the most, only token YIP - Zippie representation will be present at any of the announced events that may occur with the hope other dissident elements may appear in an attempt to take advantage of any confrontation situation that may develop so a leadership can be instituted for an acclaimed YIP membership that does not, in fact, exist. Sources stated the alleged YIP - Zippie movement does not, in fact, exist at the present and from all appearances, never materialized, has no membership body or importance and does not influence any of the dissident elements in the Chicago area.

Sources stated, under circumstances as they currently exist, there is no indication any organized contingent of YIP (since a YIP membership does not, in fact, exist) or any other dissident group in Chicago will proceed to Miami to participate, as a group, in activities during the 1972 DNC. Sources concluded in regard to YIP influence in Chicago, there are possibly four or five individuals, self-professed local YIP spokesmen, who may proceed individually to the DNC in Miami. Unquestionably, there will be others from the Chicago area who will also proceed on an individual basis to Miami. No information has been developed to date, however, identifying any specific individual who is committed to participate in activity at the DNC in Miami.

National Office of the Young Workers Liberation League (YWLL) and CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, National Office of CP, USA, arrived in Birmingham, Alabama by plane during the evening of Friday, March 17, 1972. took to the apartment of Birmingham, where was to stay during her time in Birmingham. It was not known where CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT stayed while in Birmingham.

had asked to stay in apartment and answer the telephone telling the people arriving in Birmingham where the meeting was to be held the next day. told he did not have a key at that time for apartment so went to apartment and picked up.

Saturday, March 18, 1972, a meeting of the Southern Regional Committee (SRC) was held at Street West, Birmingham. The meeting began at approximately 9:30 AM and continued until 2:00 PM when a lunch break was taken. The meeting reconvened at 3:30 PM and broke up at 6:00 PM. During the lunch break, everyone went to Mac's, a little grill on Fourth Avenue North between 16th and 17th Street. It was apparent that knew fairly well.

Those eating at Mac's were introduced by first names only by Those attending were recognized or introduced as follows:

Unknown white male, North Carolina; described as 5' 8" to 5' 9" and heavy set.

The people from North Carolina were believed to have come to Birmingham in a white Toyota.

These individuals returned to the location of the SRC meeting where a party ensued. The party began at approximately 8:00 PM and lasted until at least 2:30 AM the next morning with many people drinking heavily. left during the party to pick up a white female named (LNU) described as heavy set, having long hair and arriving in Birmingham via bus from Memphis, Tennessee. also brought his new girl friend, to the party. During the party the female accompanying stated that was not working now.

During her stay in Birmingham, [redacted] mentioned that there were two purposes for her being in Alabama tonight with the SRC:

1. To prepare everyone for the YWLL convention forthcoming in April, 1972, and

2. To coordinate petition drives to include the CP, USA on the state ballots.

[redacted] mentioned two states, Ohio and one other, have previously held a petition drive for the CP, USA and both were successful in getting the CP on their ballots. She continued that Alabama had gotten the necessary signatures but the state of Alabama had turned the petition down. [redacted] considered the CP in Alabama was successful in its efforts because the necessary signatures had been obtained.

[redacted] stated that she planned leaving Birmingham on Monday, March 20, 1972 with [redacted] in his car and traveling to North Carolina where a petition drive would be conducted. She stated she and [redacted] would return to Birmingham on March 27, 1972 and then possibly proceed to Louisiana with [redacted] There had been discussion earlier that the state of Louisiana required only one thousand signatures for their petition to include the CP, USA on the ballot and that with such a small number of signatures required the Louisiana CP members themselves should be able to accomplish the petition.

[redacted] stated she had to be in Memphis and Nashville, Tennessee during the first week of April for YWLL business. April 11 through 14, 1972 [redacted] stated she would be on her own (not required for YWLL or CP, USA business) and then she must return to New York City. [redacted] also mentioned that petitioning plans will include the states of Texas and Florida but did not specifiy when.

[redacted] mentioned that the YWLL has plans to join with other groups in Miami, Florida during the Democratic National Convention for demonstrations. She did not comment further about the Miami plans. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] has resigned [redacted] stated this would give [redacted] more time to do what she wanted to do. Nothing was learned of [redacted]

[redacted] commented on Friday, March 18, 1972 concerning an article appearing in the "Birmingham News" that day on the Alabama CP Club saying: 1. the article was not anti-CP, USA, 2. the "News" could have printed a better picture of he and [redacted] and 3. that he hoped he had enough money in his checking account to cover the check he wrote to the Tutwiler Hotel, Birmingham, for the rental press conference room.

ReBuairtel to SAC, Albany, dated 11/2/71 captioned "Demonstrations During the Forthcoming Political Campaign," copies to all offices.

Reairtel called attention to the possibility of the occurrence of violations of the Federal antiriot statutes in connection with demonstrations held during the current election year. The following instructions have been furnished to you in connection with previous demonstrations and are being restated for emphasis in view of the importance of captioned matters.

During the intelligence-gathering phase as well as during actual demonstrations which may be held, Agents must be particularly alert to identify witnesses present during planning sessions who will be qualified and available to testify to the nature of pertinent plans and overt acts, and who can identify individual subjects and attribute specific statements to each subject involved. At the outset, explore all available avenues for obtaining testimony from individuals willing to testify if prosecutive action should follow. Bear in mind that if the only available testimony is in the possession of informants, consideration must be given to disclosing their identities as witnesses before a grand jury or at a trial, if such testimony is considered vital to successful prosecution by the Department. 80-1353-216

When information is received indicating a substantive violation, a separate case should be opened and the Bureau immediately advised by teletype summarizing complete details. Appropriate FD-302's (interview report forms) are to be prepared in all instances where it appears the information received may subsequently become testimony. Investigations opened are to be given close supervision and aggressive daily attention until brought to a logical conclusion. Use criminal rules of reporting and limit the content of such reporting to establishing the substantive violation involved. Submit informant information by LHM.

In addition to antiriot violations, the following criminal violations appear to be most prominent among those likely to occur: Assaulting or Killing a Federal Officer; Desecration of the Flag; Destruction of Government Property; Federal Gun Laws; Sabotage; and Sedition.

Agents handling captioned matters should familiarize themselves with pertinent statutes and should be alert for possible violations.

The need for prompt and thorough handling of criminal violations arising out of captioned matters is obvious and the above instructions should be brought to the attention of all supervisory and investigative personnel of your office immediately.

July Convention gaining importance

Only two months ago, when I checked on security arrangements for the Democratic National Convention in July, it seemed so sweetly reasonable that little violence a la Chicago could be expected.

My how times change! Only two months ago a great number of people regarded President Nixon as unbeatable. The Democratic convention, they said, was simply window dressing for eventual defeat.

That was before the ITT memos scandal, the revelation that the Republicans had favored bigwigs under investigation in San Diego and the awesome offensive unleashed by the Communists in Vietnam.

If the presidential election were tomorrow, Nixon might be beaten on economic issues alone. A rotten paycheck coupled with increasing inflation doesn't make a happy electorate.

Nixon may turn minus to plus

President Nixon, of course, has a way of turning a minus into a plus, so a lot of things can happen between now and election time. But as of this moment the Democratic National Convention in Miami Beach is much more important than it was two months ago.

I didn't think two months ago that George Wallace could be a serious contender for the presidency under the Democratic banner, and said as much in this column.

How wrong can a man be? Wallace took this state going away and went on to finish a strong second in Wisconsin. He has a good chance in Pennsylvania and an even better chance in Michigan. Wallace today is a well-established candidate and people don't have to be reticent about saying they're Wallace backers. Wallace has become the symbol of discontent with the status quo. Busing is just one of his issues.

You will concede, I'm sure, that the new Wallace, even with his more moderate approaches, is still a basic right-winger. And who's his closest rival, as of the moment? George McGovern, the Democrat from the left.

If both men come to the convention with a lot of delegate votes tucked under their belts it is not unreasonable to expect some head-knocking out in the streets.

If the Democratic bosses — what's left of them — gang up on Wallace, you could logically expect strong resentment from Wallace backers.

Violence from left also a possibility

At Chicago, however, the violence came from the left. Young backers of Eugene McCarthy went to Chicago knowing their man would be beaten and were steamed up to show their resentment. So, it would be logical to assume that George McGovern might be the Eugene McCarthy of 1972.

Now, bear with me a moment and assume that neither McGovern nor Wallace can get the nomination. You'd have both the left and the right kicking up a ruckus in Miami Beach.

This is the sort of thing that no one, from Gov. Reubin Askew on down, wants to discuss. And rightfully so. Florida is the host state and Askew the keynote speaker. The last thing the convention planners want to do is invite demonstrations!

I don't either. I'm just being realistic.

Miami Beach has a couple of things going for it as a convention site. Traffic jams alone could frustrate any plan for a large-scale demonstration. How can you demonstrate if you can't get to the seat of power?

More importantly, the Democratic Party is trying to discard the image of fat-cat political bosses selecting a presidential candidate. The delegates at this convention will be vastly different from those at the Chicago meeting. They are supposed to be representative of the age, race and sex patterns of their home states. If they really are, people will have more faith in the convention.

Lastly, the use of riots as political weapons seems to be dying out nationally. I hope it stays that way — at least through July.

Anti-war vets gear up for conventions

By CONNIE STANDISH
Miami News Reporter

Vietnam Veterans Against the War will make plans this weekend for demonstrations at the Republican and Democratic national conventions this summer.

The anti-war group, holding its national convention in Houston, also will discuss the sending of delegates to Hanoi to talk to the North Vietnamese.

Scott Camil, 24, regional director of VVAW for Florida, Georgia and Alabama, will represent Florida at the convention.

Camil, the son of a Miami police identification officer, graduated from Hialeah High School in 1964 and enlisted in the Marine Corps.

During his 20 months in Vietnam he earned two Purple Hearts, the Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry with Silver Star and other decorations.

He tossed them all onto the steps of the U.S. Capitol during demonstrations of VVAW a year ago.

Last January he was charged with two counts of kidnaping and now is free under $10,000 bond. Camil terms the charges, lodged in the Gainesville area where he is a University of Florida senior, "harassment" because of his political views. He claims he was 125 miles away in St. Petersburg with a former senator from Alaska, Ernest Gruening, when the alleged kidnaping of two youths took place. No trial date has been set.

Camil told The Miami News yesterday the VVAW feels the San Diego Republican convention in August is more important to its cause than the July Democratic convention here. "Although," he said, "VVAW will attend both in force."

He said, "Nixon is bad and there is no hope for our country with him whatsoever. We must get this across to the American people."

He said there is some hope for the country with some who are seeking the presidential nomination in the Democratic Party. He said two of the candidates, George McGovern and Shirley Chisholm most nearly meet the requirements of VVAW.

Camil has applied for camping permits at either Flamingo Park or Lumus Beach for VVAW protestors expected in Miami Jyly 9 to 14 at the Democratic convention.

Camil said he had talked to Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance about plans and described the chief as "a really good person."

He also has discussed the VVAW mission to Miami with a representative of the Miami Police Department and said Camil, found it accepts the fact VVAW will be at the convention.

The San Diego convention coalition of VVAW is planning a four day non-violent opposition and confrontation at the Republican convention Aug. 21 to 24.

A release from the San Diego VVAW states, "Because we view the Nixon doctrine, politically and militarily, at home and abroad, as a supreme threat to all peoples of the world, we believe that massive opposition to Nixon's policies must be demonstrated here in San Diego."

The FPPC is a statewide organization established as a pressure group to demonstrate at the Democratic National Convention (DNC), Miami Beach, Florida, July, 1972. Its overall purpose is to seek an end to the Vietnam War and the adoption by National candidates of the "Peoples Platform".

The FPPC held a statewide Steering Committee meeting, March 25-26, 1972, at the Wesley Foundation, University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida. Approximately 16, representing such areas as Tampa, Tallahassee, Jacksonville, St. Petersburg, Gainesville and Miami, attended. Organizational structure, finances, a communications network, as well as actions to be taken during the forthcoming DNC were discussed.

The meeting was dominated by the Miami contingent. They vetoed strong actions and civil disobedience that was suggested and insisted all demonstrations at the DNC be peaceful and non-violent.

It was tentatively agreed that mobile teach-ins should be held throughout the state prior to the DNC and that a strong "Peoples Platform" for the state of Florida be developed.

With respect to the DNC, the following 2-day course of action was tentatively agreed upon:

At 6:00 PM, a rally with speeches, music and food would be staged. When the Democratic Presidential Candidate is announced he will be invited from the Convention Hall and confronted with their demands.

Their demands included:

(1) That the President of the U.S. must immediately stop the bombing and all other military operations in Indochina.

(2) Simultaneously he must set a date for the complete withdrawal within 3 months of U.S. personnel and military equipment and end all support for the THIEU Regime in Saigon and the military regimes of Laos and Cambodia.

(3) The Congress of the United States must cut off all funds for U.S. military involvement and support for the military regimes in Indochina.

(4) Tens of billions of dollars now appropriated for war and militarism should be redirected to meet the urgent human needs of people for jobs, adequate income, housing, health care and education.

The FPPC hopes to have 15,000 participants and stated $20,000 will have to be raised for the planned activities.

A discussion was also held on the necessity for publicizing the FPPC and its program. This discussion concerned the distribution of organizational pamphlets, posters, buttons and bumper stickers. It was also mentioned that a rapport with the local and national media had to be established.

SCOTT CAMIL, Florida Coordinator of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War, was present. He gave a vague commitment of support for the FPPC.

> The VVAW is a veterans' organization with a national clearing house located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City, New York. Its first published objective was "to demand an immediate cessation of the fighting and withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina."

On the final day of the Steering Committee meeting, in which nothing was clearly resolved, the group visited various sites in Miami and Miami Beach, Florida, which possibly could be used by campers during the DNC. Watson Island, Miami, Florida, was the one preferred. The group also visited the Miami Beach Convention Hall, the site of the forthcoming DNC.

The Republican National Convention, and to a lesser degree, the Democratic National Convention, have become the major focus of protest actions planned by antiestablishment forces. This year, coalitions have also sprung up which have as their sole purpose the organization of demonstrations in Miami and San Diego. This document is the first in a series which will summarize information developed by the FBI on the potential for disruptions at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions. Current and continuing plans, activities, and objectives of these groups will be reported on a regular basis through the Conventions.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

b6
b7C

STATEMENTS OF PROTEST LEADERS

[redacted]

On February 10, 1972, [redacted] toured the Miami Beach, Florida, area. He commented that the Interama Site, an area in North Miami, mentioned as a staging area for demonstrators during the Convention, was unsatisfactory since it was too far from the Convention site, had too many trees and the terrain was too rocky. He implied that if difficulty was experienced in obtaining a rally site, "big guns" might be brought in for confrontation. He said they would not be brought in for direct action, but for negotiations. He pointed out that the Democratic Party would be in a position of near hysteria, since it did not want another confrontation as happened in Chicago in 1968. He concluded by stating the demonstrations which are planned to be nonviolent, could last anywhere from one to three days and the worst he could envision would be a march on the Convention Hall by demonstrators to present a proclamation but doubted this would occur.

At St. Petersburg Junior College, St. Petersburg, Florida, on March 9, 1972, [redacted] said he would be in Miami for the Democratic National Convention, but would not personally head up any groups during the Convention.

Jerry Clyde Rubin

Rubin, also convicted in the so-called Chicago Seven trial, spoke at the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida, on February 14, 1972. He urged the students to lead the way with regard to demonstrations at the Democratic National Convention. He told them to build an organization in Miami that would aid "outside agitators" who are coming to Miami and added, "Every kid is going to want to spend their summer in Miami and San Diego."

In a press conference on February 16, 1972, in front of the Miami Beach Convention Hall, the site of the forthcoming Democratic National Convention, Rubin stated that there will be ten thousand Yippies (members of the Youth International Party) marching naked in front of the Convention Hall. He also stated marijuana would be smoked everywhere and that the nominations of Humphrey, Muskie, Jackson or Wallace would not be tolerated. He added that he hoped all actions would be peaceful since there would be no point in violence. Rubin commented that nonviolent actions are planned and it was the police who brought about the violence in Chicago in 1968. This cost the Democrats the election and is a price they will not want to pay in 1972.

FLORIDA PEOPLES PLATFORM COALITION (FPPC)

FPPC, also known as the Florida Peoples Coalition, was established in February, 1972, as a statewide coalition to engage in nonviolent protests during the Democratic National Convention.

At a meeting held on February 26-27, 1972, at Tampa, Florida, with approximately 40 individuals present, it was resolved that the FPPC would not act as "grand master" of the demonstrations at the Convention, but only as a guiding force to get them moving. It was also agreed that although plans call for acts of nonviolent civil disobedience, if any group or organization decides to go further, no attempt will be made by the FPPC to stop them.

A meeting of [redacted] FPPC was held [redacted] on [redacted] Their discussions centered around organizational structure, finances, a communications network and action to be taken during the Convention. The meeting was dominated by the Miami contingent which vetoed any strong disruptions or civil disobedience and insisted all protests at the Convention be peaceful and nonviolent. It was tentatively decided that on July 12, 1972, from 10 a.m. to noon, a rally will be held at Bayfront Park, in downtown Miami. Thereafter, participants will disperse throughout the city to hold teach-ins and to distribute literature door-to-door. On July 13, 1972, a rally will be held at Bayfront Park, from noon until 3 p.m., at which time demonstrators will march to the Convention site at Miami Beach, where at 6 p.m. another rally including speeches, music, and distribution of food will take place. When the Democratic candidate is announced in the Convention Hall, attempts will be made to have him appear at the rally where he will be confronted with the demands of the FPPC. These demands include total withdrawal of U. S. forces from Southeast Asia, the cessation of all economic aid to the military regimes of Laos, Cambodia and South Vietnam, and the redirection of these tens of billions of dollars to meet the urgent human needs of people for jobs, adequate income, housing, health care and education.

MIAMI LIBERATION FRONT (MLF)

The Miami Liberation Front is a recently formed coalition of students, women, and young workers who describe themselves as sharing in a common opposition to racism, sexism and imperialism. MLF is organized around the consensus that there must be coordinated nonviolent opposition to the Democratic National Convention.

On March 10, 1972, members of the MLF and the Florida Peoples Platform Coalition met to resolve which group will be the lead organization for demonstrations during the Convention. Present was Rennard Cordon Davis, who suggested the Florida Peoples Platform Coalition be the directing organization; however, MLF members did not accede to this, fearing that in doing so, MLF would lose its identity. This matter was not resolved and further meetings in this regard are to be held at a later date.

MIAMI SNOWPLOW COMPANY

The Miami Snowplow Company, sometimes referred to as "Operation Snowplow" or simply "Snowplow," is a coalition of 22 organizations formed in Miami, Florida, during January, 1972. Its purpose is to provide housing, food, legal and medical aid, and a communications network for protestors and nondelegates who will visit Miami Beach during the Democratic National Convention. It describes itself as a nonpolitical group that will provide services for anyone in need and work toward a peaceful Convention. Members stated the organization plans to work with Government and police agencies to eliminate the conditions that led to the violence during the 1968 Democratic Convention in Chicago, Illinois, and local law enforcement officials have attended its weekly meetings. In order to carry out its objectives, "Snowplow" has sought financial aid from various Government agencies and participating organizations; however, to date, these efforts have met with little success.

During a meeting on February 10, 1972, [redacted] suggested that "Snowplow," in order to raise funds, must become politically oriented. Members at the meeting rejected this, however, insisting that the organization must remain nonpolitical.

b7C

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

In late January, 1972, representatives of the YIP, commonly referred to as Yippies, met in Chicago, Illinois, where they formed a political wing known as the Zippies in order to coordinate planning for demonstrations at the national political conventions.

On February 22, 1972, in Chicago, Zippies gathered at the American Broadcasting Company studios to nominate "The Rock," a common stone, as the Zippy candidate for President. A Zippy spokesman indicated "The Rock" will travel to both the Democratic and Republican National Conventions to emphasize the slogan, "Don't take youth for granite," and that a Zippy "freak circus" will be held in Miami on July 9-15, 1972. He stated Zippies will use "disruptive tactics, but not violence," at Miami. These tactics will include smoke-ins, guerrilla theater, and "selective trashing" of specific targets.

NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO)

At a meeting of the Executive Board and National Coordinating Committee of the NWRO in Washington, D. C., on February 4-6, 1972, agreement was reached that the summer conference of the NWRO would be held in Miami, Florida, and a feature of this conference would be some type of disruptive action taken in connection with the Democratic National Convention.

PEOPLES COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE (PCPJ)

PCPJ is self-described as a coalition, headquartered in New York City, of more than one hundred groups formed to combat war, racism, poverty and repression.

At a press conference on January 27, 1972, the PCPJ announced that among other antiwar protests, it planned to conduct demonstrations at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions during 1972.

[redacted] supra, made a speech at Catholic University, Washington, D. C., on October 20, 1971, during which he stated that antiwar forces would direct considerable effort toward demonstrating in all states which have presidential primary elections. He indicated that this action would culminate with "a million freaks showing up at San Diego, California, for the Republican National Convention." Next day, at the University of Maryland, he stated, "Obviously, one demonstration that will take place will be at the time of the San Diego Republican National Convention when one million people will demand the evacuation of Richard Milhous Nixon from political office."

Jerry Clyde Rubin

A San Diego daily newspaper, on November 5, 1971, quoted Rubin, supra, as stating the Republican National Convention will witness "the largest mass demonstration in a decade, a replay of Chicago in 1968, but peaceful. Very peaceful. A million people will show their outrage at Nixon and if there is a riot, it will be by the police." Rubin stated he had come to San Diego to see the area near the Sports Arena where the Convention will take place and see"where we can sleep and be and live and stay during the three months the 500,000 people will be here." During a speech at the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida, in February, 1972, Rubin stated, "A million people will surround the Republican National Convention and make it totally impossible for Nixon to be reelected." He added, "Every kid is going to want to spend their summer in Miami and San Diego."

Reverend James Groppi

Groppi is a Catholic priest and civil rights activist from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. On November 6, 1971, speaking to approximately 1,200 individuals at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Groppi stated the antiwar movement must have one million people camped in the hills of San Diego at the time of the Republican National Convention to say they want President Nixon out of the White House.

[redacted] In an interview appearing in a daily Washington, D. C., newspaper on November 7, 1971, [redacted] was quoted as saying a huge turnout at the Republican National Convention would show the President that he really hasn't fooled the people with regard to the war. [redacted] indicated the principal focus of protest activity would be in San Diego and not at the Democratic National Convention in Miami, Florida.

SAN DIEGO CONVENTION COALITION (SDCC)

The SDCC was organized in San Diego in October, 1971, and in its initial stages was known as the Saturday Afternoon Coalition or The Coalition. It became the SDCC on December 10, 1971. It is a local coalition with members from various antiwar groups and its purpose appears to be to not only conduct but control all demonstrations planned during the Republican National Convention.

On December 20, 1971, the SDCC held a news conference at which time its spokesmen announced "massive, legal, nonviolent, dignified demonstrations would occur during the Republican National Convention aimed at criticizing Government policies and challenging the nomination of President Nixon."

In December, 1971, a Steering Committee report was adopted which set forth the following goals:

(1) A massive petition to be signed by over 100,000 San Diego residents protesting the presence of the Republican National Convention in that city;

(2) The formation of a "People's Platform" which will include "planks" demanding total withdrawal of U.S. forces from Indochina, revitalization of the economy, and reversal of internal repression, racism, and sexism;

(3) Massive demonstrations during the Republican National Convention; and

(4) An "Expose '72" consisting of exhibits regarding the war, economy, minority movements, and foreign affairs. Workshops, teach-ins, panel discussions, and entertainment such as movies, rock music concerts, and theater performances would also be held.

Nationally known protest leaders such as [redacted] Jerry Clyde Rubin, and [redacted] visited San Diego in late 1971 and conferred with SDCC leaders. The SDCC has made it clear that it will vigorously oppose any attempt by nationally known protest leaders to take over the movement in San Diego. To further affirm its position, shortly after the visit of these individuals to San Diego, the SDCC mailed letters to the so-called "Chicago Seven" advising them that they would be welcome to join in the activities planned during the Republican National Convention, but warning them that it, the SDCC, would retain all control of any protest activity.

b7C

Representatives of the SDCC have traveled to Chicago, Illinois, to contact members of the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice and the May Day Collective; to Ann Arbor, Michigan, to elicit support of various local protest groups; and to New York City to raise funds. In early March, 1972, [redacted] of the SDCC met in New York City with representatives of the Washington Square Methodist Church, New York Revolutionary Committee, Revolutionary Union, and other groups in order to obtain their support. [redacted] and coordinator of past May Day protests, was named coordinator to effect liaison between various groups on the Eastern Seaboard and the SDCC.

Gary Lee Aufdenspring of the SDCC appeared on a local television program in San Diego on March 1, 1972, during which he stated demonstrations are planned at the Republican National Convention, particularly on the first day when a massive demonstration will be held in front of the Sports Arena. According to Aufdenspring, the SDCC expects 250,000 to 500,000 participants in these demonstrations. He commented that national protest leaders such as Jerry Rubin have been contacted by the SDCC and it has been agreed that the SDCC will be the principal organizer of demonstrations. He added that the SDCC has continually professed nonviolence and wishes to show a nonviolent position throughout the duration of the Republican National Convention.

The SDCC held a Western Regional Conference on March 17-19, 1972, at Santa Barbara, California. Overall registration at the conference was approximately 340 persons, most of whom were young adult Caucasians. Reportedly, there were delegates in attendance from California, Oregon, Washington, and at least eight other states west of the Mississippi River as well as from the District of Columbia and Connecticut. The conference was disorganized and little was accomplished with the exception of the adoption of the following guidelines:

(1) Participants in the SDCC will not initiate violence; however, nonviolent civil disobedience is acceptable and it will be permissible to defend oneself from attacks by police.

(2) During the Convention no demonstrators will be allowed to endorse anyone as a presidential candidate.

(3) A demand will be made for an immediate end to U.S. aggression in Vietnam and support of the seven-point peace proposal put forth at the Paris Peace Talks by the Provisional Revolutionary Government of South Vietnam.

(4) Opposition to President Nixon's policy of "imperialism and repression" will be expressed.

(5) Interference in the internal affairs of other countries will be opposed.

(6) No interference will be permitted in the leadership of groups participating in the SDCC alliance by other groups within the alliance.

(7) Emphasis will be placed on combating racism in the white community.

In late March, 1972, the SDCC began to experience serious internal problems caused by lack of sufficient financial support and in-fighting among its membership. Attendance at its meetings has dropped considerably and one committee, the Labor Support Committee, issued a paper called "Against A Political Woodstock" recommending the SDCC be reorganized to better relate to black people, brown people, working people, people on welfare and women. This paper triggered a bitter feud within the SDCC. At a March 25, 1972, meeting the women's caucus group introduced another paper charging the male members of SDCC with sexism and discrimination against women. This second paper has further intensified the bickering and hostility between various factions in the organization.

COMMUNITY CONGRESS OF SAN DIEGO (CCSD)

Lonnie L. Rowell, self-identified leader of the CCSD, appeared on March 1, 1972, on a local television program in San Diego. He stated the CCSD originated as an antidrug coalition a few years ago and consists of representatives of about forty groups which work in the fields of human rights, civil rights, women's liberation and others. He stated the CCSD has become involved in the Republican National Convention through a desire to furnish to visitors free services, such as food, medical aid and housing. He said through planned programs and events CCSD plans to raise issues which will force the Republican Party to state priorities in its political platform, particularly those dealing with health care and welfare. Rowell advised CCSD plans to take a strong nonviolent approach in its demonstrations and other activities and will not encourage violence.

The CCSD has indicated it does not wish to follow the direction or plans formulated by the San Diego Convention Coalition as it desires to maintain its own planning directed primarily to taking care of the social needs of visitors to San Diego during the Republican National Convention. At a recent meeting of the CCSD on March 12, 1972, however, it was agreed by the approximately 125 individuals in attendance that the CCSD will stage protests but violence at any level will be discouraged.

NON-VIOLENT ACTION (NVA)

NVA was organized early in 1971 to protest the departure of the aircraft carrier, U.S.S. Constellation, from San Diego to duty off Vietnam. Subsequently, it sponsored protest action against the sailing of the aircraft carrier, U.S.S. Kittyhawk, to similar duty.

At an NVA meeting on February 21, 1972, it was announced that Vice President Agnew plans to rent a cottage at Delmar, California, during the Republican National Convention. It was suggested that plans be made to harass the Vice President, specifically, by marching, chanting, and possibly having nude individuals appear on the beach in front of his residence.

PEOPLES COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE (PCPJ)

PCPJ is self-described as a coalition, headquartered in New York City, of more than one hundred groups formed to combat war, racism, poverty and repression.

In an effort to elicit the support of the PCPJ, a representative of the San Diego Convention Coalition spoke at a national meeting of the PCPJ which was held in Chicago, Illinois, on November 26-28, 1971. Subsequently, during this meeting, a split occurred between factions within the PCPJ. One faction advocated disruptive activities at the Republican National Convention and the Democratic National Convention, while the other faction, led by David Dellinger, another convicted defendant in the Chicago Seven trial, opposed this plan on the grounds that PCPJ would lose the support it enjoys from various religious and pacifist organizations.

On Janurary 7-8, 1972, a meeting of the Midwest Regional PCPJ was held in South Bend, Indiana. During this meeting a position paper was adopted concerning the strategy to be taken with regard to the Republican National Convention. This paper proposed that PCPJ sponsor demonstrations during the Republican National Convention; that PCPJ cooperate with the San Diego Convention Coalition and form a working relationship with it; and that all actions be nonviolent. It was further proposed that targets such as military installations and war corporations be considered for protest actions; that tactics be very carefully chosen to avoid voter backlash in the November election; that Fiesta Island not be accepted as a camping site; and that PCPJ set up a task force out of its National Office for the distribution of information with regard to actions at the Republican National Convention.

At a press conference held on January 27, 1972, the PCPJ announced that among other antiwar protests, it planned to conduct demonstrations at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions during 1972.

ELECTION YEAR STRATEGY INFORMATION CENTER (EYSIC)

This group, originally known as the Allamuchy Tribe, was formed during meetings held at the Peter Stuyvesant Farm, Allamuchy, New Jersey, during December, 1971. It is headed by [redacted] and was organized for the purpose of directing protest activities during Election Year 1972, culminating with demonstrations at the Republican National Convention. John Winston Lennon, former member of the Beatles music group, reportedly donated $75,000 to aid the formation of EYSIC shortly after his arrival in the U.S. in early 1972. b6 b7C

During January, 1972, Jerry Clyde Rubin and other individuals formerly associated with the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ) became involved in the functions of EYSIC and an office was opened in New York City. Project Yes was formulated by Davis and Lennon as a video tape arm of EYSIC with the idea of making video tapes and films, and staging entertainment events in order to raise money to finance EYSIC activities.

On March 1, 1972, Lennon and his wife were served notice by the Immigration and Naturalization Service that their visitor's visas had been recalled and they were ordered to depart from the U.S. by March 15, 1972. They subsequently have obtained a delay in their departure date to April 18, 1972, when there will be a Show Cause Hearing. The basis for recalling their visas is the fact Lennon has been convicted for possessing marijuana in England and his wife is involved in legal proceedings over a child custody matter.

In late March, 1972, EYSIC abandoned the premises it was utilizing as an office, and it appears to be no longer functioning as an organization.

PEACE ACTION COUNCIL (PAC)

PAC is a local Los Angeles, California, umbrella-type organization formed for the purpose of coordinating demonstrations and other forms of protest against United States involvement in Southeast Asia.

On February 9, 1972, a meeting was held in Los Angeles by paid staff members of PAC for individuals interested in participating in demonstrations at the Republican National Convention. Approximately 30 individuals attended and a three-fold resolution was adopted unanimously. This resolution proposed that the demonstrations have an anti-imperialist character protesting war, aggression, and chauvinism of all kinds; that they be broad based; and that they take a militant form. The latter point was stressed as being the most important.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

During a West Coast National Interim Meeting of the SDS-Worker Student Alliance on December 18, 1971, it was tentatively decided that a regional SDS convention would be held in San Diego just prior to the Republican National Convention, at which time plans would be made for nonviolent action during the Convention.

UNITED FARM WORKERS

On March 13, 1972, Cesar Chavez, leader of the United Farm Workers, stated he intended to lead a delegation of 25,000 Mexican-American farm workers to San Diego during the Republican National Convention to protest the policies of the administration of President Nixon.

VENCEREMOS ORGANIZATION (VO)

The VO, also known as Venceremos, is a militant Marxist-Leninist-Maoist organization composed of third world and white revolutionaries operating in the San Francisco Peninsula area. Its stated goal is the overthrow of the U. S. Government by force and violence, armed struggle and urban guerrilla warfare.

According to a member of the VO, that organization is presently making plans to send members from each Venceremos collective to San Diego for the purpose of "trashing" and demonstrating during the Republican National Convention.

WAR TAX RESISTANCE (WTR)

WAR RESISTERS LEAGUE (WRL)

The WTR and WRL are pacifist organizations. During their National Convention in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on January 8, 1972, representatives of the WRL and WTR devoted a portion of their discussions to the Republican National Convention and it was decided an effort would be made to establish a "Resurrection City" or "Revolutionary City" at San Diego during the Convention.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

On August 6, 1971, a representative of the YIP appeared at the San Diego Police Department and advised he was handling advanced plans for YIP demonstrations during the Republican National Convention. He stated he was desirous of obtaining permits to set up a camp in either Presidio or Balboa Parks. His request was denied.

On January 10, 1972, representatives of the YIP, commonly referred to as Yippies, held a press conference at Madison, Wisconsin, during which they announced a "Grapes of Wrath Caravan" would be organized in August, 1972, followed by demonstrations in San Diego during the Republican National Convention. In late January, 1972, at a meeting of the Yippies in Chicago, Illinois, it was decided to organize a political wing known as the Zippies in order to coordinate plans for demonstrations at the national political conventions.

On February 22, 1972, Zippies gathered in Chicago at the American Broadcasting Company studios to nominate "The Rock," an ordinary stone, as their presidential candidate. A spokesman indicated that "The Rock" will travel to both the Democratic and Republican National Conventions to emphasize the slogan "Don't Take Youth for Granite."

NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD

A group of lawyers in the Los Angeles, California, area, associated with the National Lawyers Guild, have established an office in San Diego with the intent of representing persons arrested during demonstration activities at the Republican National Convention.

GOP CONVENTION BAIL FUND

A group headed by San Diego State College Professor Leon Nower reportedly has collected more than $12,000 for use as bail during the Republican National Convention.

SECRET ARMY ORGANIZATION

The Secret Army Organization (SAO) is composed of a small group of individuals whose political philosophy is somewhat nebulous and in the formative stage. Some of them are former members of the Minutemen, a paramilitary group organized in 1960 to resist the spread of communism in the U. S. by use of guerrilla tactics. During a meeting of the SAO in Phoenix, Arizona, on February 25-26, 1972, members discussed the possibility of having a training session sometime before the Republican National Convention for the purpose of preparing to control and counter dissident elements in the event disruptions should get out of hand during the Convention.

The paper is published eight times a year, according to the subscription advertisement.

The article, which is in three parts, deals with:

(a) Convention Demonstrations in general, attempting to answer the "why" of demonstrating.

(b) Miami - The plans thus far associated with MIDEM involving such organizations as Vietnam Veterans Against The War, National Welfare Rights Organization, and The Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

(c) San Diego - The article calls attention to the large concentration of military installations in San Diego and the plans to attempt to involve the military in radical actions against the convention.

Re Boston letter to Bureau dated 3/9/72.

[redacted] advised 4/5/72 that there was no YIP activity in the Greater Boston area in the past month. Contacts during this same period with [redacted] tend to confirm this statement.

[redacted] and none of their reports show any activity on the part of any YIP members to either attempt to infiltrate or promote the YIP during this convention. There has been a noticeable absence of YIP members and/or promotion on the part of YIP at other gatherings in the Boston area during this period, the most noticeable being the anti-Marine recruiting demonstration held at Boston University (BU), Boston, Massachusetts, on 3/27/72.

As the Bureau is aware [redacted] YIP activist, is presently associated with a group whose intentions and purpose is yet to be determined, at [redacted] Cambridge. As the Bureau is further aware, the Boston Office has this address under surveillance with Bureau authority under the WEATHFUG caption. who in the past have been identified with the YIP either locally or nationally, neither has there been any literature, etc., emanating from this address. b7D [redacted] particularly advised that there has been little or no discussion among the New Left in Greater Boston relative to any activities on the part of YIP being planned for either the Miami or San Diego Conventions in the summer of 1972. He further advised that there has been little or no discussion on the part of any New Left members relative to their wanting to travel to either convention for the purpose of causing disruptions.

All security and racial informants have been alerted to report any information, however insignificant it may appear to them, that would indicate any activity aimed at disrupting either convention this summer. The above-mentioned informants have been particularly alerted and it appears at this time that most of the above will be in a position to travel to either one or both of the conventions should their services be needed.

Contacts during the past thirty-day period with members of the intelligence units of the Massachusetts State Police and Cambridge and Boston Police Departments failed to reveal any significant activity being planned by either the YIPS or any other group to disrupt either the convention at Miami or at San Diego. These departments have been alerted to immediately advise the Bureau of any information coming to their attention relative to any disruption.

The Boston Division will immediately furnish to the Bureau any information coming to its attention and per Bureau instructions will report monthly on any information relative to captioned organization's plans for travel and/or disruption for either convention.

RE: DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA

I. ORGANIZATIONS PLANNING PROTEST DEMONSTRATIONS

A. YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely-knit, anti-Establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968. The Zeigtgeist International Party (Zippies) is the political wing of YIP.

The YIP held a "pre-conference" at Madison, Wisconsin, January 7-9, 1972. A press release was issued that included the following activities:

(1) July 27, 1972 - "International 'Che' Guevara Appreciation Day", to be held at Miami Beach, Florida, to show solidarity with the Cuban struggle for liberation.

(2) July 27-31, 1972 - "Zippie Party Freak Circus" at Miami, Florida. This is to be a four-day party, featuring an assembly of young voters called together to show politicians that unless the demands of youth are met, the 1972 Presidential election will be boycotted.

MM T-1
January 10, 1972

YIP activities agreed on at the "pre-conference" were intended to coincide with the Democratic National Convention (July 10-14, 1972), although the wrong dates were used in the press release. The activities were purposely scheduled to take advantage of the Democratic National Convention, an international event of interest, in order to gain international attention for the YIP.

The "pre-conference" press release also announced YIP-ZIP events to take place in such cities as Chicago and Milwaukee during March and April, 1972. All were cancelled because of a general lack of planning and support. It is anticipated future events planned will not be successful and will not occur. At most, only token YIP-ZIP representatives will be present. Under circumstances as they currently exist, there is no indication any organized contingent of YIP will proceed to Miami to participate as a group in activities during the 1972 Democratic National Convention, although self-professed YIP spokesmen may proceed individually to the Democratic National Convention in Miami.

With respect to the announced "'Che' Guevara Appreciation Day", no further mention has been made by YIP leaders, and it is not anticipated this activity will be held.

At a YIP Presidential nominating convention, Chicago, Illinois, January 23, 1972, it was announced "Zipcon Tax Day", billed as a regional pre-Miami ZIP conference, would be held in Madison, Wisconsin, on April 15, 1972. No subsequent efforts were made by Wisconsin YIPs for staging the event, and the activity did not take place.

B. FLORIDA PEOPLE'S PLATFORM COALITION (FPPC)

FPPC, also known as the Florida People's Coalition (FPC), is a statewide organization established as a pressure group to demonstrate at the Democratic National Convention in Miami Beach, Florida, July, 1972.

A meeting of the state steering committee of the FPPC was held in Tallahassee, Florida, April 15 through 16, 1972. Sixteen persons attended, three from Miami, two from Tampa, and the remainder from Tallahassee. The purpose of the meeting was to continue planning for demonstrations during the Miami Democratic Convention.

Definite plans to date include workshops on the Vietnam War and domestic issues, continuous presence at the convention center through picketing and theatrical presentations, a war crimes tribunal, and a mass march and rally at the convention center to coincide with the Presidential nomination.

The largest statewide fund raiser was to be a concert tour by former "Beatles" musician JOHN LENNON and his wife, YOKO ONO, but the latest information indicates they will not appear. The FPPC is desperately seeking an alternative.

Great concern was also expressed regarding possible adverse reaction to demonstrations by the Miami Cuban refugee population. FPPC delegates were urged to secure substantial media coverage prior to the convention to educate the public on FPPC's peaceful goals. The peaceful and legal nature of all proposed activities was again stressed.

II. ORGANIZATIONS PLANNING ATTENDANCE OF DELEGATES OR MEMBERS

A. VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

VVAW is a national veterans organization with a national clearinghouse located at 25 West

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

26th Street, New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina".

Plans for demonstrations at the Republican and Democratic National Conventions in 1972 will be made by the VVAW at the VVAW national convention in Houston, Texas, during the week of April 9, 1972. [redacted] of VVAW for Florida, will represent the state of Florida at this convention. b6 b7C [redacted] has stated the VVAW feels the Republican National Convention in San Diego is more important to its cause than the Democratic National Convention in Miami Beach, but the VVAW will attend both conventions "in force".

"Miami News"
April 7, 1972

Local VVAW leaders have recently announced that VVAW will be represented at the Democratic National Convention and that it is hoped as many as 9,000 members will be present.

B. MIAMI SNOWPLOW COMPANY

The Miami Snowplow Company, sometimes referred to as "Operation Snowplow" or simply "Snowplow", is a non-political coalition of local organizations founded in Miami in January, 1972. Its purpose is to provide such services as housing, food, legal aid, medical aid, and a communications network for the expected influx of young protesters, observers, and non-delegates to the Democratic National Convention.

Recent meetings of "Snowplow" were concerned principally with the preparation of a "position paper" for the coalition. The "position paper", which has been kept general in nature, will be issued in the near future.

"Snowplow" has established a medical committee, and the response received from drug self-help agencies has been good, particularly from Atlanta and Chicago. Numerous volunteers will be available. Attempts are being made to locate two child-care sites in the vicinity of the Convention Hall that will be staffed primarily by high school volunteers.

"Snowplow" has also established a legal committee, and reportedly some forty attorneys have agreed to provide their services during the convention. A "bust book", to contain information on what to do if arrested, is being prepared. The National Lawyers Guild and students from the University of Miami Law School are expected to contribute assistance.

A communications committee has also been established by "Snowplow". Their primary communications system will be telephones. No money is available for a radio system. Meager finances prevent the installation of a back-up telephone system. Attempts will be made to locate an alternate site with a bank of rotary telephone numbers already installed, such as a church or business establishment, where operations can be moved to should the need arise.

III. THREATS OF POSSIBLE VIOLENCE OR DISRUPTIVE ACTIVITIES

A. GAY ACTIVIST ALLIANCE (GAA)

Miami memorandum of April 6, 1972, reported the formation of a Miami chapter of GAA, a homosexual group headquartered in New York City whose purpose is the promoting of "gay rights". A leader of the Miami GAA chapter stated no plans have been formulated for demonstrations at the Democratic National Convention.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

The GAA in Miami meets each Tuesday at the Center for Dialogue, St. John's Lutheran Church. At a recent meeting, plans were discussed for a series of "zaps" in the Miami area during the Democratic National Convention, designed to draw attention to, and sympathy for, the GAA cause. Possibilities discussed for these "zaps" were a "wedding" between two homosexuals and a dance for persons of the same sex. Both of these actions are believed to be illegal, and the official action taken against the GAA by the authorities would hopefully bring about a situation which would create sympathy for their struggle. Plans for these "zaps" are still in the formative stage and have not been finalized.

IV. POSSIBILITY OF DISTURBANCE IN THE ETHNIC COMMUNITIES DURING THE CONVENTION

During April, 1972, continued contacts with sources in a position to be aware of possible plans for violence or disruption among members of the ethnic communities in the Greater Miami area have produced no indication of planned violence to take place during the time of the Democratic National Convention.

An advance look at the convention

On July 10, the Democrats will convene at Miami Beach to nominate candidates for president and vice president.

Thousands of persons — delegates, politicians, protestors, onlookers — are expected to jam the community during the convention, which is scheduled to end on Thursday, July 13. Many will arrive earlier for preliminary functions.

What are the arrangements for the convention? How will parking, and traffic, and security be handled? What Floridians will play prominent parts? Where will the delegations stay? Where will they — and others — be seated on the convention floor?

The Miami News, in this Special Report today by Politics Writer Louis Salome, provides a convention directory that answers most of these and other questions pertaining to the convention.

Schedule

PRE-CONVENTION

Before the convention opens, important convention-related work will be done by the Platform, Rules and Credentials committees of the Democratic Party.

The Platform Committee will hold seven regional meetings throughout the country in late May and early June. The full committee will meet in Washington from June 22 through June 26.

The final hearing must be held two weeks before the convention and the committee's report must be mailed to all delegates 10 days before the convention.

The Credentials Committee will hold preliminary hearings to hear challenges to delegations. These will be held by a hearing officer in the states where the challenges are recorded.

The full credentials committee must meet in Washington no later than two weeks before the convention. This committee is tentatively scheduled to meet June 25-29 to make decisions and issue reports on the findings made up the various hearing officers.

The Rules Committee is tentatively scheduled to meet June 21-24 in Washington. The report on rules will be mailed to delegates for action at the convention.

SATURDAY, JULY 8

A group of prominent Floridians, known as the Florida Committee of 100, will sponsor a "Welcome to Florida" evening entertainment show at the Convention Hall.

Also, beginning at 10 a.m., and ending at 6 p.m. July 9, there will be a political telethon. This is a television entertainment show, designed to raise money much the same as do telethons for charities.

The telethon will originate at the Deauville Hotel for the eastern half of the country, and from Los Angeles for the western half.

SUNDAY, JULY 9

Official arrival day at the hotels for most of the convention-goers. A party is also planned this day for persons who have contributed $72 a month for one year to the party.

MONDAY, JULY 10

The official opening day of the convention.

There will be welcoming speeches, plus discussions and action on reports by the rules and credentials committees.

The official hours of the convention, are from 7 p.m. to midnight, although these could be extended.

During each day, there will be special events, such as concerts, ethnic festivals, workshops, in addition to caucuses related to the convention. There will be special activities for women, senior citizens, young people, minority and ethnic groups.

If committee reports are rejected the committees would have to meet in the afternoons. If the convention falls behind schedule, afternoon sessions beginning at 2 p.m. would be held.

TUESDAY, JULY 11

Keynote address by Florida Gov. Reubin Askew, plus discussion and action on the Platform Committee's report.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 12

Nominations for president and the balloting for the presidential nomination.

THURSDAY, JULY 13

Nominations and voting for vice president, plus acceptance speeches for president and vice president.

If there is a deadlock for president or vice president, the convention could last through July 14 or 15.

Democratic convention committees

The Democratic National Committee has assigned a 16-member staff to direct and coordinate convention activities.

Besides this staff of individuals with various assignments, three major committees are working under the National Committee and the convention staff.

These are the Arrangements Committee, the Security Advisory Committee and the Florida Host Committee.

Information from the Arrangements and Security committees and from the convention staff can be requested by calling the convention headquarters at Miami Beach, 538-5375, or at national party headquarters, in Washington, (202) 333-8750.

Information about Host Committee activities may be requested at either of these two numbers or by calling the chairmen of the various subcommittees of the Host Committee whose names and telephone numbers are listed below.

The 16-member convention staff:

Richard Murphy, convention manager and director of convention activities; Mel Ferber, executive producer for radio and television; Kenneth Fulton, managing editor of the convention program; Ed Cubberley, assistant convention manager; Brian Butler, assistant to Murphy for transportation; James Teague, assistant to Murphy in charge of coordinating all Host Committee activities; Malcolm Diggs, assistant to Murphy in charge of housing.

Also, Harold Gordon, lawyer for Murphy; Loudell Insley, Murphy's administrative assistant; Marcy Wilkob, secretary to Cubberley; Celeste York, research assistant; Andrew Shea, comptroller; Carol Carlyle, assistant to the party treasurer for the convention; Steve Winn of the Balmoral Hotel, Florida state coordinator; Robert Moss, special events coordinator; and John Stewart, director of communications.

Members of the Arrangements Committee:

Lawrence O'Brien, head of the Democratic National Committee, chairman; Mary Lou Burg, vice chairman; Dorothy Bush, secretary of the national committee; Robert S. Strauss, national treasurer; Jacob M. Arvey, national committeeman from Illinois and senior member of the executive committee; Mrs. Beatrice Rosenthal, national committeewoman from Connecticut and senior female member of the executive committee.

Also, Gov. Reubin Askew; Mrs. Caroline Wilkins, Oregon state chairman; Robert S. Vance, Alabama state chairman; Sen. Philip A. Hart of Michigan, U.S. Rep. Edward P. Boland of Massachusetts, Mrs. C. DeLores Tucker, secretary of state in Pennsylvania; Mrs. Barbara Jordan, a Texas state senator; Mrs. Waldo S. Benavidez, state representative from Colorado; Gwendolyn R. Mink, University of Chicago, representing youth.

All of the above are voting members.

Non-voting members of the Arrangements Committee: Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, House Speaker Carl Albert of Oklahoma, Severin M. Beliveau of Maine, president of the Democratic state chairmen's association; Gov. Marvin Mandel of Maryland, representing the Democratic Governors' Conference; Robert Allen, president of the Young Democratic Clubs of America; Henry Maier of Milwaukee, Wis., representing Democratic mayors; and representatives of each of the presidential and vice presidential candidates.

Members of the Security Advisory Committee: Wesley Pomeroy, director of the Department of Safety and Development at the University of Minnesota, chairman; Cliff Cassidy, chief of the Department of Public Safety for the State of Texas; James E. Bassett III, president of Keeneland Race Track in Kentucky and former chief of the Kentucky state police; James Ahearn, former police chief of New Haven, Conn., and former member of the President's Committee on the Causes of Violence.

Also, Floyd Boring, former inspector with the U.S. Secret Service; Henry Montague, former chief postal inspector for the U.S. Post Office; Howard Baugh, superintendent of the Atlanta Police Department's crime prevention division; Paul G. Bower, formerly with the national advisory commission on civil disorders; and Sidney H. Cates III, deputy chief of police in New Orleans.

The Florida Host Committee has as its chairman Gov. Reubin Askew. Honorary chairman is Sen. Lawton Chiles. Vice chairmen are U.S. Rep. Claude Pepper, host congressman, and Democratic state committee chairman Jon Moyle.

Executive assistant of the Host Committee is Bernie Parrish, special assistant to Askew. Florida Convention coordinator is Steve Winn, of the Balmoral Hotel, son of State Rep. Sherman Winn.

Host Committee treasurer is Robert Morgan, deputy treasurer is William McAbee, and host committee attorney is David Walters.

These are subcommittees of the Host Committee:

Groups assisting unofficial visitors

A number of community-based groups have been organized unofficially to help accommodate the thousands of people who are expected to be drawn to the convention but are not part of it.

Among the local groups is "The Miami Snowplow Company" founded by Lynn Slavitt, an associate director of the Center for Dialogue at 2175 N.W. 26th St.

A coalition of 22 local organizations, Snowplow is working with young people, women, Third World people, black people, the gay liberation movement, veterans, peace groups and "anyone connected with dissent."

Ms. Slavitt says her group is trying to bring the world of the convention establishment together peacefully with the world of dissent so each can play its own part.

Anyone interested in working with Snowplow or obtaining information may call 634-8931 or 633-7507.

Another community-based organization is "Religious Leaders Concerned with the 1972 Democratic National Convention."

Miss Joan I. Gross, executive vice president of the Christian Community Service Agency, is chairman of this committee. The Rev. Jack Cassidy, minister of Metropolitan Mission, United Church of Christ, is staff coordinator.

There are 33 members of the committee of religious leaders. An interfaith organization, the committee is working to preserve community peace and stability during the convention, and also to preserve the public's right to fully exercise its freedom of speech and petition.

The committee hopes to establish an information and communications center for the entire community, and be a liaison between the community and its involved organizations and the convention.

Information about the committee can be obtained by calling 538-3657 at the Inter-Religious Coordinating Center, in Miami Beach.

The Greater Miami Coalition also is involved in community-convention planning. Carl McKenry, executive vice president of the coalition, said his group is watching plans being made by other community groups, but is not itself involved in the delivery of services.

McKenry described the coalition's role as "low profile, low visibility." The coalition is trying to make sure the necessary things are done to prepare the community for the convention, McKenry said.

Dade County's various departments, under the leadership and coordination of County Manager Ray Goode, also are preparing for the convention.

Metro's Public Safety, Traffic and Transportation, Public Works and Community Relations departments will play a major role in the county's planning for the convention.

Anyone interested in acquiring information about Metro's plans may call the county manager's office, 377-5311.

The City of Miami, especially its police force, is working with Miami Beach police. City Manager Melvin Reese said the city also is preparing for a large influx of people, but Reese would not release any details.

Some information about Miami's plans for the convention may be requested by calling 445-4461.

Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance is head of over-all security for the convention. His office is working with Miami and Metro police, with the Florida Highway and Marine patrols and with the state Beverage Department to provide security outside the hall.

The U.S. Secret Service is in charge of candidate security, while the Andy Frain guard service is in charge of security inside the convention hall.

Information about security matters can be requested by calling the City of Miami Beach 534-7511 and asking for Capt. Ozzie Kruidenier.

Want tickets?

Guest tickets to the convention will be given out by the chairman of each state delegation. The Florida Host Committee also will have tickets to distribute, as will the National Committee, party officials said.

It has not been determined yet how many guest tickets each state will have, convention officials said.

Miami Beach Police said all streets in the city will be open to regular traffic flow during the convention. Possibly buses, but not cars, will be rerouted to keep them away from streets near the hall, police said.

Regular on-street parking will be permitted, and municipal parking lots will be open to the public. In addition, two areas for demonstrators to protest will be available in front of the Convention Hall. Use of Convention Hall parking lots is controlled by the Democratic Party.

GOV. HUGHES

She's Demo rules lady

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON — Patricia Roberts Harris, the likely arbitrator of rights over who gets seated at the Democratic National Convention, says she'll call the shots by the rules and not by her personal beliefs.

"If people obey the rules — even though the results aren't what I want — I have to admit they obeyed the rules," she said recently.

Mrs. Harris currently is temporary chairman of the pivotal Credentials Committee and probably will be chosen permanent chairman at the start of the convention July 10.

Already a handful of challenges have been filed against state delegations. Mrs. Harris and her committee will hear the first, brought by the National Woman's Political Caucus against the Arizona delegation, in Phoenix early next month.

The issue in that state is whether the delegate selections meet reform guidelines that call for a so-called representative selection process and also for a state delegation with proportionate numbers of women, youth and minorities.

Voters in Arizona chose greater than ever numbers of minorities and young people as delegates but only 30 per cent of the delegates selected were women, in contrast to their 51 per cent share of the state population.

Although Mrs. Harris is a Negro, she was opposed for the credentials post by nearly every black politician in Congress.

Most of the blacks supported Sen. Harold Hughes (D-Iowa) who helped draft the reforms later adopted by the Democratic party. The party regulars and labor opposed Hughes and endorsed Mrs. Harris.

One black congressman, Rep. John Conyers (D-Mich.) called her 72-31 victory "the opening shot of the '72 convention" and said it could lead to political chaos.

"It was a sheer piece of political finesse for Democratic Committee Chairman Lawrence O'Brien to come up with a woman and a black at that," Conyers said.

Mrs. Harris, a former Howard University law school dean and ambassador to Luxembourg, says she brings a willingness "to look at facts in terms of the facts and to make a judgment about these . . ." to her new job.

Nearly 15,000 people, including delegates, alternates, members of the press and special guests, will be jammed into the North Hall of the Miami Beach Convention center in July for the Democratic National Convention. A proposed floor plan for accommodating the crowd has been drafted and it probably will undergo only minor changes before it is made official. According to convention architect Edward Grafton of Miami, there is space for 14,804 people. This includes 3,292 seats for delegates, 2,100 seats for delegate alternates, 1,252 box seats for distinguished guests, 7,010 seats for other guests, and 1,150 seats for the press. The artist's rendering above shows the seating arrangements, with labels, and also the locations of the state delegations on the floor which were determined by drawing numbers. The plan shown is still subject to final approval of the convention's Arrangement Committee.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY

The Youth International Party (YIP), also known as Yippies, is a loosely-knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

First source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on March 28, 1972, that local YIP activists, Madison, Wisconsin, lead by [redacted] have made no overt efforts to set in motion the YIP functions mentioned at the Madison "Pre-Conference." For this reason the front function designated for period of March 18-26, 1972, as YIP "Spring Freak Week," to consist of regional planning meetings and voter registration drives, was never held in Wisconsin.

Source said he cannot explain the reason of inactivity on part of Wisconsin YIPs. He summarized that these individuals are now realizing that organizing and getting support for major events requires more time, effort, and dedication than they or their followers are willing to put forth.

Therefore, due to lack of dedication on behalf of YIP, the rock group benefits to raise support for the Miami YIP Presidential Nominating Convention were also not held as scheduled. These benefits were originally agreed to at the Illinois YIP Presidential Nominating Convention held January 23, 1972, at Chicago, and were for the dates of March 3, 1972, in Chicago; March 4, 1972, in Madison; and, March 5, 1972, in Milwaukee.

Source said the next YIP pre-Miami function in Wisconsin will be the April 15, 1972, Madison "Zipcome Tax Day," designated as a regional pre-Miami Zip Conference.

"The Capital Times," a Madison daily newspaper, in issue dated April 11, 1972, carried an article, which, in part, advised as follows:

This article said that a group of Madison "Zippies," jokingly describing themselves as "dope pushers, pornographers, street scum, welfare loafers, dropouts, and professional revolutionaries," are planning to hold an April 29, 1972, Madison "smoke-in" and "spring plant-in."

The event, said the article, is to be part of a nation-wide celebration called "J-Day" which was planned by "pot-lovers" who claim that it is time to show their dislike against anti-marijuana legislation.

The Madison action will begin at James Madison Park at 12 noon followed by a march to the State Capitol Building, stopping there for a "ceremonial toke up and planting of cannabis seedlings." Participants will then parade through the Mifflin Street area of Madison to Brittingham Park for music, song and dance, and "consumption of the killer weed."

"The Capital Times," in issue dated April 12, 1972, carried an article which, in part, advised as follows:

This article said that Shirley Jane Hopper and John Mattes and others were responsible for organizing the April 29, 1972 - April 30, 1972 "smoke-in" scheduled for Madison and states throughout the country.

It was noted that efforts of the Madison YIP activists were part of a nation-wide YIP "refoliation project" of planning the "forbidden weed" wherever possible. Through this project YIP anticipates that marijuana will be literally within the reach of everyone.

Hopper, according to the article, said that YIPs will be at the Democratic National Convention (DNC) in Miami "to provide an alternative to bored young people and to have a counter convention that's relevant to our lives. It will be peaceful, unless the police decide to attack."

Hopper said that in addition to showing their opposition to the Vietnam War, YIPs, when in Miami, hope to make legitimate issues of anti-abortion laws, anti-marjuana laws, discrimination against homosexuals, and victimless crimes.

The article said that Irving Dana Beal, described as a YIP theoretician, was just released from the Dane County Jail where he was serving a sentence for dealing in sale of narcotics. Beal will reportedly assist Wisconsin YIPs in their planning efforts to obtain support for the Miami YIP Convention.

"The Daily Cardinal," a University of Wisconsin (UW) Madison student newspaper, in issue dated April 12, 1972, carried an article on the plans for the Madison "smoke-in." It was noted that other Madison community groups hope to work with "Zippies" regarding the April 29, 1972, demonstration as they feel the event should be used to also show opposition to the war in Southeast Asia and opposition to other matters that greatly affect this country.

Second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 14, 1972, that no overt efforts have been put forth by Wisconsin YIPs for the holding of an April 15, 1972, Madison "Zipcome Tax Day." Therefore, this event will not take place.

Source said the next event tentatively agreed to by Wisconsin YIP in their efforts to gain support for the Miami YIP Presidential Nominating Convention in July, 1972, is "J-Day, Spring Plant In." This event will consist of "marijuana seed planting ceremonies" and a "marijuana smoke-in" on the Madison State Capitol grounds and in two Madison parks.

The above event was originally set for May 1-2, 1972, however, it will now be held on April 29, 1972.

Source anticipates that the Madison activities will consist of speeches against legislation which prohibits use and possession of marijuana, along with efforts to actually plant marijuana seeds. Marijuana will undoubtedly be smoked and it is believed there will be dancing to live music in a picnic-type atmosphere.

Source said people at the Madison "Pre-Conference" hoped that people participating in the "J-Day," May 1, 1972, could, in addition to other activities, march to local area prisons to show their hate for these institutions. No mention of any march of this nature has been made by Wisconsin YIPs in planning the April 29, 1972, Madison action and accordingly source feels that the prison issue has been discarded.

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE
JULY, 1972 - MIAMI, FLORIDA

Second source advised on April 17, 1972, that on this date he received a pamphlet, (undated), from the Volvox YIP Chapter, Box 221, Elmhurst, Illinois, bearing captioned, "Miami - Here We Come!, July 8-15." This pamphlet, in part, contains the following information:

Regarding the Madison "Pre-Conference" the following was noted:

"..."

"The conference got started in the afternoon. Everybody agreed on the need for action in Miami. Everyone else is concentrating on San Diego, getting Nixon out in 72. That's great, but if Nixon goes out who's coming in? The Republicans don't care about the youth vote, they've made that clear; the Democrats do. We will have leverage in Miami that couldn't be bought in San Diego. The Democrats will be bending over backwards to get the kids to vote for them; we're gonna be there to call them on their slick maneuvers. There's another thing too: The Democrats can't afford a rerun of Chicago and we don't want one..."

"There was a little disagreement on the scenario for Miami. Most people agreed on the idea of a giant party and freek show..."

"Volvox tribe are working on communications, tying together the people who are working in various places. The Chicago people have already held a state-wide conference... People are building local groups that will hopefully have a more lasting impact on youth culture than the earlier Yippie myth."

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE
DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
JULY, 1972 - MIAMI, FLORIDA

A calendar of events for future YIP action shows July 8, 1972, as National Che Guevara Appreciation Day, Miami Beach; July 9, 1972, as the Third Annual National Independence Smoke-In, Miami Beach; and, July 10-15, as the Miami YIP Presidential Nominating Convention. No mention is made of the July 1-3, 1972, "National Tribal Conference" or the July 4, 1972, "Third Annual Reefer Smoke-In" and "Anti-CIA-Heroin March," all agreed to at the Madison "Pre-Conference" for Washington, D.C.

The pamphlet advised that the "smoke-ins" and the "plant-ins" scheduled for the latter part of April and first part of May throughout the country were being held for the following reasons:

"..."

"While Nixon's telling the world how he is winding down the war, we've been trying to hide from the world the fact that, yes, Virginia, there is a YIPPIE! Che-Day is the opportunity to define ourselves and is the key to our whole strategy. If we can get key individuals in those states to form a defacto YIP organization and materialize 1,000 people at their state capitol on J-Day, our grass-roots organization for Miami will be accomplished. We can push Miami at the smoke-ins (big banners: POT PARTY IN MIAMI JULY 10!) and a sense of national movement will be created towards the Florida actions. People have to have concrete proof Miami is gonna happen, like a nice big smoke-in in their own state."

"J-Day's surface importance is to confront laws which deny us the use of our sacrament. It is important, therefore, that the smoke-ins take place in state capitols to confront local legislatures."

"..."

~~"Confidential"~~

The pamphlet concluded by setting forth the following statement:

"..."

"What we hope is that the Zippie Party in Miami, which will last as long as the Demo Convention lasts, will completely overshadow their farce. At this time, the Demos feel no need to have a 'youth' or 'radical' strategy. They are still into things like the labor strategy or the southern strategy... We have to use them for our own purposes."

Second source said that when the Madison "Pre-Conference" was held people attending were not too sure the exact dates of the DNC and therefore they mistakenly scheduled certain functions which they erroneously believed would coincide with the DNC.

The schedule noted in the above pamphlet shows the current YIP plans for the Miami area. Source said no information is currently available regarding the identities of or the number of YIP people from Wisconsin that plan to go to Miami. The reason for this is that YIPs are basically a spontaneous type of people who lack the ability to organize. People who go to Miami from Wisconsin will probably not make this decision until several days before their intended departure.

Source one advised on April 17, 1972, that according to his recollection several national YIP leaders, including Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman, were severely criticized at the Madison "Pre-Conference" for their lack of contact with rank and file Yippies. It was proposed that they be replaced if this condition continued to exist. According to information available to source, both Rubin and Hoffman have not changed their attitude toward YIP nor have they made any effort to get back into the good graces of the YIP leadership that came to Madison. It is believed that individuals such as [redacted], who did a considerable amount of national YIP organizing throughout the country before his being placed in jail in Madison, and Tom Forcade, a YIP leader from the East Coast, who was one of the leaders at the Madison Conference, will take charge and lead YIPs in Miami if individuals like Rubin and Hoffman continue their current "male chauvinist, elitist attitude."

Source feels that by watching the activities of [redacted] and Forcade one will be able to determine whether YIP activists are planning to follow people such as Rubin and Hoffman during activities of the YIP Presidential Nominating Convention. [redacted] and Forcade will undoubtedly begin to give directions and "take charge" no later than the latter part of June, 1972, should it appear to their constituents that "dead wood" leadership, exemplified by Rubin and Hoffman, is continuing its same course.

Source also said that according to his recollection Forcade, at the Madison Conference, indicated that one of the reasons he was unhappy with Rubin was that Rubin had reportedly set himself up as the go-between from John Lennon, (formerly of the Beatles singing group), and Lennon's wife, Yoko, to rank and file YIP leadership. Source has been told that the Lennons are pro-YIP in their thinking, however, it is rumored that the Lennons participate in YIP functions only through the donating of money. The extent to which donations have been made and specific instances involved are unknown to source.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE
DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
JULY, 1972 - MIAMI, FLORIDA

Source, through his contacts with Wisconsin YIPs, was lead to believe that these individuals think the Lennons, if they are still in the United States when the YIP Presidential Nominating Convention is held, will donate their money for this occasion if called on to do so. If Rubin is still the go-between from the Lennons and if he is ousted from control by individuals such as Beal and Forcade, there is the possibility, (even if YIP needs money from the Lennons), that the means for communicating the need will not exist and source will be unavailable.

It is believed that the Lennons reside in New York City.

(Information regarding the above activities scheduled for Madison, April 29, 1972, has been disseminated to Madison area law enforcement authorities and military intelligence agencies and United States Secret Service, at Milwaukee.)

Enclosed for the Bureau are an original and eleven copies, for information of Chicago and New York two copies each, and for Miami, four copies, of a letterhead memorandum dated as above and captioned, "Youth International Party (YIP)," and "Demonstrations During the Democratic National Convention - July, 1972, Miami, Florida."

Enclosed LHM is classified ~~"Confidential"~~ as it contains information furnished by confidential sources of continuing value, the unauthorized disclosure of whose identities may compromise them, thereby possibly having an adverse effect on the defense interests of this country.

The YIP "Pre-Conference" held at Madison, Wisconsin, 1/7-9/72, outlined a series of YIP sponsored functions to be held over the next six months. Bureau by airtel to New York, Et Al, 2/8/72, bearing YIP caption, and Miami, by airtel to Director, 3/28/72, bearing MIDEM caption, set forth questions regarding the YIP functions agreed to at Madison. Enclosed LHM sets forth all information ascertained by Milwaukee to date regarding Bureau and Miami questions and general Wisconsin YIP planning in preparation for the National YIP Convention in Miami.

Information copies of enclosed LHM are being furnished to Chicago and New York in view of their investigative interest.

Individuals concealed in enclosed LHM are identified as follows:

Second source is [redacted]

Milwaukee will follow YIP activities planned by Wisconsin YIP activists and insure that the Bureau and interested governmental agencies are advised on a timely basis of pertinent information ascertained.

It is noted that "National Che Guevara Appreciation Day," for Miami Beach, is now tentatively set for 7/8/72, and the "Zippie Party Freek Circus," the YIP Presidential Nominating Convention, will be held in Miami, 7/10-15/72. Dates for these events were changed to coincide with the dates of the Democratic National Convention (DNC).

'72 Demo Convention

Establishment Prepares for Street People

What are Dade County and Miami Beach doing about "The Other Convention" — the street people who may turn up in numbers for the Democratic National Convention July 10? Herald staff writer Rob Elder answers the question in the first in a series of periodic reports on convention planning.

BY ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

The woman from the Miami Snowplow Co. and the woman from the Florida Host Committee were discussing plans for the Democratic National Convention.

Snowplow had a question:

"What are you going to do with three-year-old Johnny when his parents get busted during a demonstration?"

The lady from the Host Committee smiled sweetly.

"I'll just send him to Rocky Pomerance," she said.

Pomerance, the Miami Beach police chief and top policeman for the convention, did not smile when the remark was relayed to him. He looked pained. Rocky Pomerance is not talking — at least not in public — about busting anybody.

"OUR POLICE," he said, "are going to understand the counterculture."

What Pomerance and the Miami Snowplow Co. and the politician-planners all have in common is the possibility that hippies, Yippies, anti-war vets, gay activists, women's libbers and other anti-establishment folk may far outnumber the official convention delegates who come to town this summer.

SOME OF THE street people, it is anticipated, will come to demonstrate; others, merely for the sheer groove of it all. Leaders of the 1968 Chicago convention protest are predicting 50,000 followers for Miami Beach. Some public officials think 5,000 is a better guess, but nobody knows how many will come.

Until now, the comforting consolation for Miami's convention planners has been the belief that most of the serious protest would be aimed at the Republican National Convention in San Diego. But if the GOP convention comes here, nondelegate protesters could come with it.

All along, a lot of Miami's planning has been concerned with the unaccredited side of the convention picture:

● The Democrats have designated demonstration areas right outside the convention hall. In addition, there will be a "free speech" area, and a computer loaded with information on low-cost housing for people who come without hotel reservations.

● Private volunteers, choosing the unlikely but hard-to-ignore title, Miami Snowplow Co., have set themselves up as a social service agency to meet the needs of nondelegates.

So far, Snowplow's attempts to raise money for this purpose have had little success. But weekly meetings have brought together such unaccustomed partners in planning as the police and potential protesters.

● Miami Beach policemen are receiving college-level training under a federal grant. Some of the money has gone for crowd-control hardware, but the emphasis is on avoiding confrontation.

● Behind closed doors, city and county officials and local business leaders are making their own plans. And there is growing debate about how much of all this will be publicized before the convention, and how much will be kept secret.

The planning — and the philosophy that has shaped it so far — began when the Democratic Party decided to hold its 1972 convention in Miami Beach — and vowed not to repeat the trouble that marred its last meeting in Chicago in 1968.

Richard Murphy, the man in charge of this year's convention arrangements, is determined that Chicago isn't going to happen here.

FROM BEHIND square-rimmed spectacles in a borrowed Miami Beach office, Murphy, 42, former bright young man for John Kennedy and now a professional management consultant, extols a philosophy of openness:

"We're taking every possible precaution to avoid confrontation and to give everyone the opportunity to present his point of view."

Murphy's precise, Chapel Hill Phi Beta Kappa voice counts off the party reforms — delegates more dramatically chosen, building dissent right into the convention itself by giving minorities a bigger voice; a party platform drafted in 25 open meetings around the nation to ensure grass-roots input; a special calendar of events for the crowd outside the hall — a mass of humanity that Murphy expects to outnumber those inside by more than two to one.

THE SCHEDULE of special events has been Murphy's personal dream for a dozen years, since he began staffing Democratic national conventions in 1960.

Now, as head man for the 1972 planning, he'll finally have a chance to try it: and it will include everything from a black caucus to a country music festival.

At the Di Lido Hotel, not far from the convention hall, there will be display space for nonparty organizations. "Any group that wants to set up a booth and makes proper application will be given the opportunity, free of charge."

THERE WILL BE a youth center at Ocean Front Auditorium. People who arrive without advance arrangements can go there for computerized information on where to find low-cost housing and inexpensive meals.

In expectation that there will be more talking than eating and sleeping, a microphone will be set up on a softball field in Flamingo Park, designated as a "free speech area" open to anyone who reserves talk time.

For the record, Murphy is sanguine about avoiding conflict. Some people may come to Miami Beach "without goodwill," he says, "but I don't know of any organized group with the stated intention of busting the convention."

IN CASE of trouble, Miami lawyers and clergymen are being recruited to move in the streets as ombudsmen and trained observers.

The lawyers are being organized by the Florida Host Committee under Miami attorney Allan Milledge.

A volunteer group, Religious Leaders Concerned With the Democratic Convention, is signing up the clergy. The priests and preachers and rabbis won't be working for the Democratic Party as such. But they'll be there with Dick Murphy's blessing.

There is about all this planning an urgency as unmistakable as the scarlet carpet Murphy has ordered for the convention hall floor. No one has forgotten that the last time the Democrats nominated a candidate, it was behind police barricades.

MURPHY'S Miami Beach office was loaned by a big-game hunter whose trophy heads line the paneled walls. They include rhino and kudu and wart hog, and Murphy is working very hard to avoid adding a donkey to the baleful dead who stare down at his borrowed desk.

If the party has a stake in avoiding confrontation, the city has no less an interest in the same goal.

At every level, local officials are stressing goodwill. Talk to Miami Beach City Manager Clifford O'Key. Everyone, he'll tell you, is invited. Well, practically everyone:

"I don't mean I'm going to turn the democratic process over to the street fighters," O'Key explains. "But the length of one's hair doesn't determine his welcome."

SEVEN FLOORS above the Brooklynesque bustle of Washington Avenue, O'Key's office is deliberately un-air-conditioned. Orchids and begonias bloom in the warm humidity. The city manager toys with his glasses and chooses his words with great care, and one might be sitting in an Episcopal rectory, listening to a kindly old priest counsel tolerance:

"I believe that a little more attention to what they're saying and a little less concern over how they're saying it would do us all some good," O'Key says of America's youth.

"We are certainly not going to turn loose the constabulary on these people."

THE CONSTABULARY is personified by Rocky Pomerance, who of all local police chiefs in the nation has now emerged with a double dose of one of the most sensitive, tricky tasks in all law enforcement. He's got to keep law and order — without provoking the very violence his men are there to prevent.

With one convention under his belt, Pomerance so far is batting 1,000. When the Republicans held their 1968 convention in Miami Beach, there was rioting across the bay in Miami — but virtually no trouble on the Beach itself.

In 1968, the Pomerance approach mixed tight discipline with common sense. "What if they spit on us?" patrolmen asked. "A lot depends on how they spit on you," a lieutenant answered. A police journal later listed Pomerance's 15-point plan. Last item: "Pray for rain."

AGAIN IN 1972, Pomerance and his patrolmen are out to keep a "low profile," as the chief puts it. There is irony in hearing that particular phrase from a man of Rocky Pomerance's physique — he admits to being "about six feet tall and over 250 pounds," clearly a very conservative statement of the dimensions.

But when Pomerance talks about "low profile," he's referring to a philosophy as well as a posture. That's not a chain-link fence around the convention hall; it's a hibiscus trellis. The $395,424 grant from the federal Law Enforcement Assistance Association is paying for plastic handcuffs and night-vision devices and gas grenades, among other sophisticated devices. But what Pomerance talks about are the weekend courses in psychology of crowd motivation.

IT IS EVEN laughingly predicted at Miami Beach police headquarters that if Jerry Rubin carries out his promise to march 10,000 nude Yippies down Collins Avenue, the big police chief will be right up front, leading the parade.

Pomerance will not say how many men will make up the security force. The point of the vagueness, of course, is that Pomerance already is working to accomplish his goal: "to make sure the police are not an abrasive factor."

On the opposite side of Biscayne Bay, similar words echo from the office of Sheriff E. Wilson Purdy, whose Public Safety Department will be in charge of keeping convention-time peace in the rest of Dade County.

"WE WOULD like to take this whole convention out of the emergency category," Purdy says.

The secret, according to him, is preplanning.

Nobody believes more in preplanning than the Miami-Snowplow Co., whose physical and spiritual home is the Center for Dialogue, 2175 NW 26th St. Housed in St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, the center shelters a free medical clinic, abortion counseling, drug rescue switchboard and other nonestablishment social services aimed at Miami's youth culture.

SNOWPLOW is an extension of all this in response to the expected convention crowds. Specifically, Snowplow considers its constituency to include three groups: organized nonviolent demonstrators; nonaffiliated youths who drift in from around the country; and Dade and Broward youths who flock to the scene of the action.

The idea, according to spokesmen Lynn Slavitt and Hal Spaet, is to form a "conduit" through which the host community can cope with the special needs of "the movement."

Those special needs would include: treatment for drug overdoses, and street medics to tend to tear gas victims if trouble develops.

ALTHOUGH Snowplow works with various long-hair organizations, it endorses none of their political platforms. Its own leadership is self-appointed — and far from radical.

Lynn Slavitt, the chairman, is a 36-year-old Vassar graduate. The mother of three, she taught school and supported her family when her husband quit a job with Newsweek and began writing books. Now she doesn't need to work — David Slavitt is an established author, better known under the nom de plume Henry Sutton.

In addition to contributing his wife, Slavitt named Snowplow. "We wanted something people would remember," Lynn explains. "And Miami Snowplow Co. had so many levels of meaning. We can always say we're doing a great job, since you don't see much snow on the streets of Miami."

SNOWPLOW'S other principal spokesman is Hal Spaet, 27-year-old Miami Beach native, attorney, and chairman of the Metro Youth Relations Board, a body he says has no staff and little influence.

To Snowplow's weekly meetings come such informal partners in planning as the police, who sit on one side of the room, and people like Vietnam Veterans Against the War, who sit on the other.

All of which prompted a police captain who stood on the church steps after one meeting to say: "At least they're talking to us."

BUT SNOWPLOW'S leaders think that perhaps no one's listening. Dade County, the City of Miami Beach, the Tourist Development Authority and the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce all turned down their requests for money.

Public officials say they are making plans, but they refuse to disclose them publicly. The reason: if nondelegates know there are plans to feed and house them, they will surely come, or come in greater numbers.

Without tipping his hand, County Manager Ray Goode makes it clear that "plans will evolve."

THERE ARE indications that business leaders are being asked to raise money, which could be used, for example, to rent portable toilets for the flocks of youths who may come. And there are hints that Snowplow will get money for its programs such as the drug overdose tent.

The critical disagreement is over secrecy.

For instance, the Metro Community Relations Board recently went on record in favor of a visible task force with broad citizen advisory input and urged that all plans be made public at least 30 days before the convention. The CRB report goes to the Metro Commission May 2.

MEANWHILE, a private coalition of civic groups called the Dade County Alliance for Safer Cities meets Friday to look at the convention-connected roles of the police, Snowplow, the clergy and such civic civilian agencies as the county manager's office.

And meanwhile the calendar moves towards July 10, the date Miami Beach becomes host city to both mainstream and the movement, with their contrasting life-styles — and with global television instantaneously zapping the encounter around the world for all the world to witness.

FLORIDA PEOPLES PLATFORM COALITION

On [redacted] Source One advised that a meeting of [redacted] Florida Peoples Platform Coalition (FPPC) had been held in [redacted]

The FPPC is a statewide organization established as a pressure group to demonstrate at the Democratic National Convention (DNC), Miami Beach, Florida, July, 1972. Its overall purpose is to seek an end to the Vietnam War and the adoption by National candidates of the "Peoples Platform".

[redacted] is affiliated with Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) in Miami.

VVAW is an anti-war organization organized in 1967 and headquartered in New York City. Its published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and the withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina." VVAW has participated in several demonstrations, including massive demonstrations in Washington, D.C., April 19-23, 1971.

The meetings were conducted on a very informal basis with no real agenda or chairman. Those present agreed that dues of $3.00 per person should be assessed against all FPPC members, with $1.00 going to the State organization in Tampa and $2.00 to the regional group. This had been discussed at the previous meeting in Miami.

The State leadership had planned on a concert tour by John Lennon and Yoko Ono to provide most of their funds, but apparently they will not be able to perform due to some passport difficulties. State FPPC is looking for a replacement, possibly Joan Baez or Pete Seegar. Each regional group is encouraged to run its own fund drives.

The Tallahassee regional is expected to do almost all of the printed material, such as posters, pamphlets, buttons, and T-shirts bearing the FPPC symbol. This has not been firmly adopted but it will probably consist of a flying eagle clutching a Southeast Asian child in its talons or beak, with the eagle itself made up of bullets, shells, and bombs.

The current plan calls for the following activities during the Democratic National Convention:

1. Workshops dealing with the war and domestic issues conducted by FPPC members to which convention delegates will be invited.

2. Continuous presence at the Convention Center through pickets and guerrilla theatre activities.

3. A mass march and rally at the Convention Center to coincide with nomination of a presidential candidate.

4. A "War Crimes Tribunal" dealing with both military and corporate "war criminals", probably on July 12.

5. Small groups to leaflet and attempt to enter into on-the-street dialogues in many parts of the city.

Also in the talking stage is creation of a "Resurrection City II" in Miami. Also, Lou Anchill from Tallahassee is looking into the possibility of a live telephone hookup with North Vietnamese officials in either Paris or Hanoi to be broadcast over loudspeakers, probably during the rally at the Convention Center.

The only other organizations which have indicated they will support FPPC are the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ), VVAW, and the National Welfare Rights Organization.

> The Peoples Coaliton for Peace and Justice (PCPJ) has described itself as being headquartered at 1029 Vermont Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C., and as consisting of over 100 organizations which are using massive civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repression, and war.

PCPJ lawyers will do the negotiating with Miami officials, probably beginning in early May. It was agreed that support from other radical groups and labor organizations should be sought, as long as these groups realize that FPPC is running the show.

It was also pointed out that regionals should assure extensive contact with the media prior to the convention in order to educate the public as to the purpose for the demonstrations, namely, to force convention delegates to appreciate the massive public support for an end to the Vietnam War, welfare economic reforms, and environmental cleanup.

It was again stressed that FPPC desired all demonstrations and activities to be peaceful and legal, but that they would not attempt to enforce their wishes on individual organizations who might be participating. FPPC is particularly concerned about the possibility of strong adverse reaction by the Miami Cuban refugee community and is trying to think of a means of achieving some kind of understanding with them before the convention.

No indication was given of the time and place for the next FPPC meeting.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

Reference is made to previous communications dated January 25, January 24, and April 7, 1972, at Chicago, Illinois, under the above caption.

On April 3, 1972, a first source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised a benefit rock music dance was held during the evening of April 1, 1972, at the IWW Hall, 2440 North Lincoln Avenue, Chicago, to raise funds for the community poverty projects of a local community action organization active on the near northwest side of Chicago. A group of three or four persons, including Michael Board, who has been a self-designated Youth International Party (YIP)-ZIPPIE spokesman in Chicago, attended this affair. Zippie was previously identified by Board and the few persons associated with him in Chicago, as the "Zeitgeist International Party," the alleged free youth spirit political arm of YIP.

The Youth International Party, also known as Yippies, is a loosely knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

On this occasions Board and his group told others attending this affair that the YIP-Zippies in Chicago will break up and participate in other street movement activities in the area, such as community action groups, unless something happens to stimulate a membership support, that has never developed, of YIP-Zippie activity in Chicago.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

On April 18, 1972, source two, who has furnished reliable information in the past, made available a copy of Vol. I, No. 2, dated March, 1972, of "Zippie Joy," the Chicago YIP-Zippie underground newspaper, sold at $.05 a copy on the near northwest side of Chicago. This issue contained the following featured article:

"New York Zippies and the Rock Liberation Front had promised us the date of March 31st for a Chicago benefit. We booked the IWW Hall and printed over a hundred posters, like the one at left (except bigger and in different colors). On March 21, ten days before the scheduled date, we were told that the concert was off. Many hours of time, not to mention about 60 dollars in publicity, was lost.

This evidently was the fault of no individual, just a "falure of communication." David Peel instead of being in Chicago, will be in Puerto Rico, playing at a rock festival.

Because of this wasted energy and money, the JOY staff will no longer take part in organizing Zippie functions, although it will support those organized by others.

Also, because of the recent SEED conflict, the editors feel the Chicago needs a culture-political--freek--dope--happiness paper. It should be more than a spokespaper for one group, but should be the scream of all Chicago's crazy people.

Zippie Joy, after this issue will be just Joy! Right now the paper is being put together by two people and distributed by twice that. We need money, articles, a decent printer, etc. Please help out. Address all correspondance to Joy at the P. O. Box listed elsewhere in this paper. Zippie mail should be addressed to Volvox Box 221, Elmhurst, Illinois 60126. The phone number there is 312-833-1074. The Joy number remains the same at 312-525-3776.

Please help us put. Or March Issue is coming out at the beginning of April, we are in debt, and we've just broke with our only support. And besides, Hanrahan won the primary, wo we probably will loose our CIA subsity and liberal guilt money. Chicago Needs Joy! Please help.

--Ted People

 ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

NOTE: This does not mean that we will no longer publish Zippie news, only that we will do that and more!"

On April 18, 1972, source three, a representative of a local government agency that conducts security-type investigations in the Chicago area, advised in regard to the reference in the article to the "SEED," principal underground newspaper published in Chicago, that the YIP-Zippie spokesman element in Chicago wanted to direct the policy of the "SEED" and was totally rejected by the "SEED" editorial staff. Source stated that "Volvox" Box 221, Elmhurst, Illinois, referred to in the article, was an insignificant underground-type publication, no longer in existence, formerly distributed by Ronald Dale Lichty and Lee Albin Swanson from Elmhurst, a suburb of Chicago, Illinois. Source revealed the Illinois Bell Telephone Company Information Service, Chicago, Illinois, advised on April 18, 1972, phone 312-833-1074 listed for "Volvox" in the article has been disconnected.

The third source further advised [redacted] b6 b7C b7D resides and has attempted to get a YIP-Zippie organization established in Chicago. Source reported [redacted] has recently circulated a mailing address for this activity as "YIP P. O. Box 11234, Chicago, Illinois 60611." Source related [redacted]

The third source concluded to date the attempt to initiate a YIP-Zippie organization in Chicago has been a complete failure. No success is anticipated by this element unless some issue presents itself that the dissident youth street element as a unit can identify with. If such a circumstance presents itself, it is possible new life could be generated by YIP as a leadership influence in dissident activity on both local and national levels.

RE: MIDEM

Re Honolulu letter to Bureau, 4/19/72, enclosing LHMs re [redacted] both IO fugitives.

Copies of LHMs have been disseminated locally to U. S. Secret Service; however, attachments to LHMs, which were to contain photographs and descriptions for dissemination to local authorities do not conform with instructions in Bureau letter to Albany and all offices 4/4/72, captioned "CALREP; MIDEM". For your information, glossy prints of these fugitives are needed for these attachments, since these prints are to be transferred by local police to slides to be used in "instant recognition" classes for officers at the convention.

Honolulu is requested to forward glossy prints of fugitives [redacted] to Miami for this purpose. Miami is withholding dissemination of above attachments to local authorities pending receipt of these photographs.

SM - PLP

Title formerly carried as (FNU) [redacted] identified as captioned subject.

On [redacted] advised that a (FNU) [redacted] who lives in Miami and who is friendly to the Progressive Labor Party (PLP), helped the advanced PLP group with information about residences where they might stay during the PLP demonstration at the AFL-CIO Convention, Americana Hotel, Bal Harbor, Florida, 11/18-21/71. This informant also reported that (FNU) [redacted] gave a speech before the PLP group and others at the Center for Dialogue concerning the formation of an organization primarily in the black community for housing and economic improvements. Informant did not believe [redacted] was to be involved in this organizational effort. b6 b7C b7D

This informant also advised that 2 PLP members stayed at an address believed to be [redacted] owner or occupant of residence not known.

Numerous Miami indices references were reviewed. One reference indicated that in 1967 information was received from the Boston Office concerning a [redacted] born [redacted] at [redacted], who admitted PLP membership in 1967, presumably in the Boston area. The current Miami area city directory lists a [redacted] residing at this address.

Miami has a main case file, 100-1210, on a [redacted] then residing at [redacted], occupation [redacted] who was interviewed by Miami Agents in 8/51 and admitted membership in the Young Communist League from 1934 in New York City to 1940, and then CP membership, 1940-42, at Jacksonville, Florida. His wife was also a CP member in Jacksonville.

On 1/26/72, IC [redacted] determined that the Miami Beach Police Department had a civilian registration number, [redacted] dated 7/10/68, on [redacted] white male, born [redacted] New York City, 5'7", 175 lbs., brown hair, blue eyes, Social Security [redacted] local address [redacted] employed as [redacted]

b7C

This record also reflects [redacted] has [redacted] for being arrested on 6/23/48, on a felonious assault charge by the New York City Police Department. Subject was going by the name [redacted] at that time. He was fined $10.00.

The Dade County Public Safety Department, Miami Municipal Court and Miami Police Department had no record for [redacted]

A credit record for subject and wife [redacted] reflected they have resided at [redacted] since 2/65, and he has been employed as [redacted] with [redacted] since 10/50.

The description of (FNU) [redacted] furnished by the aforementioned Newark informant on 2/29/72, is similar in many respects to the above [redacted]

On 4/14/72, it was determined from inquiry with [redacted] that subject is no longer employed by them.

b6
b7C

On 4/14/72, [redacted] was personally contacted at this residence and she advised she knew nothing about the PLP or any PLP people staying at her residence. She said her husband is no longer with [redacted] but is self-employed as [redacted] She said she would inform him that the FBI was interested in talking to him and she suggested he be telephonically contacted sometime during the evening hours as he did not always get home at the same time.

During the evening of 4/17/72, [redacted] was telephonically contacted to arrange for a personal interview. [redacted] said that any FBI matter concerning him could be discussed on the phone.

[redacted] said that during the period of the AFL-CIO Convention at the Americana Hotel, he was asked by a friend, whose identity he said was not important, to arrange for housing for some rank and file delegates to the AFL-CIO Convention who were coming here from outside of Florida.

He found out later when they were demonstrating outside the convention that some of the people he arranged housing for were members of the PLP.

He said he did not know any of these young people before they came to Miami and was not going into any detail concerning what he did for them or where they stayed.

In reference to the PLP, [redacted] said these "kids" are trying to change the present capitalist system in the United States peaceably and he is personally in agreement with some of their aims such as 40 hours pay for 30 hours work.

He said he was in agreement also with the PLP demonstration at the AFL-CIO Convention because the leaders in the various unions have become "fat cats", drawing down enormous salaries and living it up in plush convention quarters all of which is paid for by the working man.

[redacted] said he told the "kids" he thought they should have stayed home and demonstrated before their local unions although they did get newspaper and TV coverage here which was their principal aim in coming.

[redacted] said he believed the demonstration by the PLP was actually the viewpoint of the majority of the trade union rank and file people toward this convention.

[redacted] was asked about any other activity he engaged in other than arranging housing, specifically any transportation or speeches, and he again stated he did not want to go into any other details.

He said while he admired what these "kids" are trying to do and they have started sending him "Challenge", the PLP newspaper, to read he is frankly "bald and tired" and hopes they do not come back for the Democratic National Convention. b6 b7C

When asked whether he would object to being contacted prior to and during the Democratic National Convention concerning the PLP he said he would not and would be willing to furnish information about any PLP group that he became aware of, however, he did not think he would be involved this time if the PLP came here.

Although [redacted] obviously was not fully cooperative and his claim that he did not know he was arranging housing for PLP people merits some skepticism, his total activity in this matter along with his background does not warrant his inclusion in any category of the ADEX and his case is being closed.

In view of [redacted] statement that he thought he was arranging housing for rank and file delegates to the AFL-CIO Convention, copies of this memo are being designated for the case files of other individuals who provided housing for the PLP group.

A copy of this memo is designated for the MIDEM file in view of [redacted] apparent willingness to furnish information about any PLP group he becomes aware of at the Democratic National Convention.

[redacted] previously advised that the act of placing bombs in safe-deposit boxes by [redacted] was a myth of terror rather than an act of terror. [redacted] based this judgment on the fact [redacted] disclosed the location of the bombs in his letters to news media representatives. [redacted] stated the next act of [redacted] could feasibly be an act of terror if society did not place any emphasis on the myth of terror.

Intensive world-wide investigation has failed to disclose the whereabouts of [redacted] and the possibility exists that he may be planning an "act of terror" in the future. In this regard, the Democratic and Republican Conventions would appear to be excellent vehicles for [redacted] to utilize if he is seeking maximum publicity in plotting "an act of terror."

San Diego and Miami should insure that the possibility that [redacted] may emerge in your respective territories is not overlooked, during your investigations conducted prior to and during the conventions. PART I

ASSESSMENT

PART I

ASSESSMENT

Until the beginning of 1972, the consensus among some law enforcement, political, and news media sources was that there was little threat of disorders at the DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION. This consensus was based on the belief that more attention would be given by activists to the party in power, that many activists would be represented through party delegates, and that dissident activity had waned during the past year.

However, intelligence developed since January 1972, suggests that there will be more movement by activist groups, both black and white, than was originally assumed.

From the information available, the biggest threat to the convention is the FLORIDA PEOPLE'S COALITION (FPC). This group has local, state, and national support from other organizations which have the ability to mobilize great numbers of followers.

Several black organizations can be expected to take part in some demonstrative action. These include the NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS, FLORIDA BLACK CAUCUS, NAACP, and some disillusioned voter groups such as ACTION '72.

Governor GEORGE WALLACE'S emergence as a strong contender for the Democratic nomination could precipitate disorder. Although WALLACE made a strong showing in the Florida primary, he is opposed by black and liberal (especially student) groups. In addition, he is champion of the anti-busing cause which is a highly emotional issue in this election year.

At this time it is impossible to give an accurate estimation of how many nondelegates, intent on activism, will attend the convention. Certainly, with the FPC having state and national contacts and support, there is an excellent chance that several thousand protestors (up to 30,000 according to FPC informant) will take part in demonstrations. Relatedly, a law enforcement source has given an estimation of between 10,000 to 50,000 nondelegates.

There is definitely indication of a potential for massive demonstrations and even disruptions. Increased and continued attention needs to be given to organizations and persons known to be actively preparing for the Convention.

PART II

SUMMARY

PART II

SUMMARY

This is the first of a series of monthly reports concerned with the possibility of disruptions and activities by activist groups during the DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION in Miami Beach, Florida, beginning July 9, 1972.

In November 1971, Miami Beach Police Chief ROCKY POMERANCE indicated to Florida Department of Law Enforcement agents that he did not anticipate much problem with dissenting groups during the DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION. The Miami Beach Police Department is coordinating security for the Convention.

The 1968 DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION in Chicago, Illinois, was plagued with confrontations between police and demonstrators. These demonstrators were primarily YIPPIES (YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY) led by such notorious leaders as ABBIE HOFFMAN, JERRY RUBIN, and [redacted] b6 b7C

HOFFMAN announced in November 1971, that YIPPIES would boycott the DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION and concentrate their acitivities on the REPUBLICAN CONVENTION to be held in San Diego, California. He stated that one reason his group would not be attending was that there would be enough other protest groups picketing that conclave.

However, JERRY RUBIN, who is now a resident and registered voter of Dade County, related in an interview on the CBS Evening News, February 2, 1972, that he would be active -- although non-violently-- at the DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION. Furthermore, additional information has given support to the possibility of YIPPIE activity at the Convention. Recently, during the arrest of six "hippie-type" persons by Fort Lauderdale Police, one of the apprehended persons stated that "things would be different when JERRY RUBIN got things organized down here." The person also said it would take "15,000 police officers just to contain the crowd that was going to be on the beach."

A confidential informant advised the Florida Department of Law Enforcement in January 1972, that [redacted] is planning demonstrations at both Conventions, but primarily the Republican. In San Diego, he hoped to gather one million persons and create disturbances simultaneously throughout the city. Those attending this Convention would be asked to equip themselves with gas masks, helmets, bulletproof vests, and other protective devices.

b6
b7C

[redacted] however, is considered by other activists and this Department to be very erratic and is capable of going from one extreme to another in his actions. It appears that the plans [redacted] had to organize at San Diego have been abandoned, and his attention is now turned toward the DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION in Miami. b6 b7C

* * * * * *

In January 1972, MARVIN DAVIES, the NAACP field secretary for Florida, demanded that the Democratic Party force the hiring of blacks by Miami Beach hotel and motel owners so that the work force in the tourism industry would be 15 percent black before the Convention convenes.

Unless this hiring was done, DAVIES predicted "another situation like Chicago" and stated that "for the cause of peace they better hire some minorities and not just Cubans." It is unknown to this Department what the ratio of black workers is in Miami Beach or if any attempts have been made to meet DAVIES' demands.

* * * * * *

There is the possibility of activism, both organized and spontaneous, by various black groups from Florida and the nation.

ANDREW C. MUSE, Minorities Division Director of the DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, presented four workshops in Florida to attempt to assure blacks of full participation in the convention prior to the election of Florida delegates April 1, 1972.

Despite this attempt to make blacks participants in the Convention, some blacks are apparently making separate plans.

* * * * * *

[redacted] of the JUNTA OF MILITANT ORGANIZATIONS (JOMO), conducted a meeting in St. Petersburg, on February 26 for the purpose of organizing the FLORIDA BLACK CAUCUS and preparing for AFRICAN LIBERATION DAY, May 27, in Washington, D.C. About 100 to 150 persons attended this initial meeting; a second gathering is scheduled for April 15 in St. Petersburg. (NOTE: This is the date of the DEMOCRATIC UNITY DINNER in Tampa. Governor REUBIN ASKEW and several key state democrats will be in attendance).

[redacted] who has had the ability to gain support of most Florida black groups in the past, is having trouble getting the CAUCUS off the ground. All that is presently known about this CAUCUS is that it is politically oriented, and there is a strong indication that it is planning activities for the Convention.

During the conference ideas were presented by the participants regarding possible coalition activity at the DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION. The TAMPA COLLECTIVE, the sponsoring group, drew up a "Citizen's Action Program." This is a program by which a Democratic candidate would be given an opportunity to sign a candidate's pledge to curb big business and government and implement a major national social welfare program. A three-point program for peace in Indo-China was also proposed.

Certain demands are to be made by the COALITION of the Democratic Party. If concessions are not made within 24 hours, demonstrations will begin.

The FPC is planning to keep activity at the convention low key. In other words, attempts will be made to have an atmosphere conducive to non-violent civil disobedience. One tactic discussed was if the bridges are raised to the Beach as a march is in progress from Miami to Miami Beach, the marchers will lie down in the street, lock arms and hands, and begin singing. (This strategy is similar to that used by demonstrators at the MAY DAY disorders.) However, the COALITION decided not to govern or force any group to take any action that the groups or individuals do not want to do. There is to be ample time between planned demonstrations and teach-ins for individuals or groups to do as they wish, and if this means violent disruptive activities, the COALITION will not intercede.

Law enforcement encounters many problems with the type of demonstrations planned by the FPC. As seen in Washington D.C. at MAY DAY, the arrests of large numbers of individuals poses several problems. Police are hampered in making orderly and legal arrests, court calendars become overcrowded, and facilities inadequate for detention must be used to detain those arrested.

The COALITION will obtain the necessary permits and hold various teach-ins. Approximately 30,000 demonstrators are expected to participate for two or three days, but not for the entire Convention.

b6
b7C

In order to promote the FPC and gain support for demonstrations in July, a speaking tour featuring [redacted] was arranged. The tour began March 6, 1972, in Pensacola and continued the remainder of that week at different locations throughout the state, mostly on university campuses or in the black community. However, support was very small (never over 100), and not all planned speeches were held.

* * * * * *

The right-wing groups support GOVERNOR GEORGE WALLACE. In fact, ROBERT SHELTON of the UKA has said the KLAN would campaign for the Alabama governor. (WALLACE, however, has not officially or publicly supported the KLAN). There is always the possibility of a clash between these groups and black or left organizations.

During the weekend of March 24 several crosses were burned throughout the State of Florida, one site being in the Miami area. According to a law enforcement source, this activity was carried out by the KLAN. It indicates that the KLAN is indeed active. Needless to say, a KLAN crusade could easily be helping gain the Democratic nomination for their candidate - WALLACE. It can be assumed that KLAN members will be at the Convention.

* * * * * *

Consideration needs to be directed towards the activities of the large population of Cubans and Jewish persons residing in the Miami area. Recently, both groups were active in protesting the appearance and docking of a Russian ship in Miami and the entertainment of Russian scientists by certain Miami residents. These groups may want to pressure the Democrats to take a favorable position on several of their causes.

* * * * * *

On February 26 and 27, 1972, an activist meeting concerning the Democratic Convention was held in Tampa, Florida; the gathering was called by a group known as the TAMPA COLLECTIVE. All radical groups and individuals in the State of Florida were invited to attend with the exception of the SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY and its youth organization, the YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE.

The name of the statewide organization established at this conference was the FLORIDA PEOPLE'S PLATFORM COALITION, which has since been renamed the FLORIDA PEOPLE'S COALITION (FPC).

On Saturday, February 26, 1972, the first meeting was held at the UNIVERSITY MINISTRY CHAPEL, UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH FLORIDA, with 35 to 40 people in attendance. Most of the individuals present have been involved in previous demonstrations, such as the MAY DAY demonstrations in Washington, May 1, 1971, the NATIONAL WAR MORATORIUMS of 1969. and 1970, and the 1968 Chicago and Miami political conventions.

Tampa has been designated as the site for the State FPC headquarters. Plans have been made to have a Miami office but one has not yet been opened.

On Friday, March 24, 1972, [redacted] of the TAMPA COLLECTIVE, received a call at FPC headquarters requesting that a delegation from the FLORIDA PEOPLE'S COALITION be in Washington, D.C. by 5 PM, to talk with [redacted] and members and attorneys of the PEOPLES COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE (PCPJ) about the 1972 DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION. [redacted] (last name unknown), and a third unidentified person left for Washington, D.C. Upon returning from Washington, D.C., [redacted] advised [redacted] of Tallahassee, that money would soon be available. JOHN LENNON, formerly of the BEATLES, will be giving performances in Florida from which proceeds will go to the FPC. Money and other support will be received from the PCPJ. b6 b7C

The PCPJ was a major organizer of MAY DAY 1971, and is a front for the Communist Party. It has the ability to gather great numbers of people.

On March 25, 1972, the second organizational meeting of the coordinating body of the FPC met at the UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI, Wesley Foundation Building, Coral Gables, Florida. Only 19 people were present.

The chairmanship began with [redacted] and then rotated among the other members. There was not much consensus within the group, and many points were tabled until a later date when more members could participate. The "Children's March" (sponsored by the NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION) in Jacksonville, prevented many from attending. If any plans were made at this meeting concerning activity at the DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION, they are unknown.

* * * * * * *

The SAN DIEGO CONVENTION COALITION (SDCC) (also known as the SATURDAY COALITION) for several months has been planning and organizing mass demonstrations for the REPUBLICAN CONVENTION (August 21 - 24). Because many of this COALITION'S plans and philosophies coincide with those of the FPC, an awareness of this group is necessary.

The VIETNAM COMMITTEE FOR SOLIDARITY WITH THE AMERICAN PEOPLE, of Hanoi, has given its support to the SDCC. The goal of the coalition is to join with minority groups (especially blacks who, they believe, are the most politically advanced segment in the U. S. and the biggest threat to President NIXON), radicals, and workers; the Convention is the ideal place for producing such a solidarity.

Because President NIXON and the Republicans are in power, they are the primary target but this does not mean that the SDCC supports the Democrats. This group may also present a "PEOPLE'S PLATFORM" to both parties on which it hopes to "force" candidates to take a stand.

A very thorough manual was printed by the SDCC (a copy is on file with DAI) and relates the make-up, goals, and plans of the organization. According to the booklet the SDCC is planning one massive, legal demonstration. However, the SDCC is stressing non-violence and urging a sense of social responsibility among demonstrators. The massive demonstration is to shatter the illusion of domestic pacification "essential to NIXON'S program."

Since San Diego is a major military center, the SDCC is using this opportunity to develop resistance in the armed forces. (In relation to the Florida Convention and potential activism, it should be noted that the large military complex at Homestead, Florida, is in close proximity to Miami Beach)

* * * * * * *

In February 1972, a volunteer group called OPERATION SNOWPLOW -- a group made up mainly of local youth, women, Gay Liberation and other activists -- asked for help from the Dade County Community Relations Board to keep the DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION peaceful. The group, led by [redacted] hoped to work with local government and police to eliminate the conditions that caused the 1968 Chicago violence. The group warned the Board that 10,000 young people, may be coming to Miami Beach. b6 b7C

[redacted] a member of the FLORIDA PEOPLE'S COALITION who privately claims to have been a security guard for the WEATHERMAN (a group that advocates and uses bombings to make their impact on society), is also a member of OPERATION SNOWPLOW.

The Dade Board declined financial support for OPERATION SNOWPLOW. However, MBPD Chief POMERANCE has been working with this group which allegedly has had contact with dissenting organizations.

* * * * * * *

The NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION, a predominantly black organization, reportedly has been giving strong support to the FLORIDA PEOPLE'S COALITION. At the MAY DAY demonstrations in Washington last year -- where thousands of demonstrators were arrested and attempts were made by activists to "shut down" the government -- the WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION was a supporter of the massive action.

In Washington, D. C. on March 25, 1972, this organization and 44 other individuals and groups co-sponsored the National CHILDREN'S MARCH FOR SURVIVAL. Thousands of persons, predominantly blacks, attended. An extention of the Washington march on March 25, 1972, was held in Jacksonville. Five hundred persons were expected to participate in Jacksonville, but the turnout was very small, and no problems developed.

Of great importance to note is that the NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS will be holding its Convention on Miami Beach at the same time the Democrats will conduct theirs. GEORGE WILEY is the head of this organization.

* * * * * * * *

During March 10 through 12, 1972, the first black political convention was held in Gary, Indiana. The convention was organized and supported by several black persons and groups, notably the U.S. Congress's BLACK CAUCUS. Plans for this gathering were to crystalize strategies for maximum political unity in the national participation of blacks at the two national party conventions. However, there were no strategies formalized due to dissention among participants at this convention.

* * * * * * * *

Recognized by Miami-Dade Junior College as a campus organization, the MIAMI LIBERATION FRONT, is "organized around the consensus that there must be coordinated non-violent opposition and confrontation to the DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION..." (The WEATHER REPORT, MIAMI LIBERATION FRONT, week of March 3, 1972) The group is a local coalition of students, women, and young workers opposed to "racism, sexism, and imperialism." The extent of membership is unknown.

According to its publication THE WEATHER REPORT, the group in the coming weeks plans to meet with other groups and persons to form a coalition to insure that "an effective, authentic voice will be heard by the Democrats, and the rest of the world, this July." (This coalition is the FPC) Furthermore, the Miami groups claim they will be responsible for coordinating events and demonstrations within a non-violent framework, logistics, negotiations with various local government agencies, and carrying out local educational projects.

This group believes that their power must extend beyond the ballot box, and they must confront the Democrats and their presidential nominee at Miami Beach. To reach this goal the MLF says it is working with other local, state, and national groups to develop a "People's Platform" and a "Citizen's Action Pledge."

[redacted] of Miami, who has been attending the FPC meetings, is a member of MLF, and appears to be the link between these two groups.

* * * * * * * *

The VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR were represented at both the February and March FPC meetings. At the first organizational meeting in Tampa, two VVAW representatives from Miami offered the services of the VVAW as marshals at the DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION. However, it was decided that marshals were not needed to handle the demonstrators. b6 b7C

At the second FPC meeting in Miami [redacted] VVAW, again offered the services of the VVAW as marshals. This time the offer was accepted.

[redacted] is an extreme activist [redacted] The VVAW headquarters in Gainesville, Florida, has been reported to be fortified for any attack and to be receiving a large number of stolen weapons. [redacted] is presently out on bond on kidnapping charges.

* * * * * * * *

In Pensacola on March 25, 1972, about 40 black leaders, calling their organization ACTION '72, voted to challenge Governor WALLACE'S Florida delegation to the DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION unless blacks are in the group from the First Congressional District. Nine other groups in Florida have also challenged the WALLACE delegation.

* * * * * * * *

A black group calling itself the ELIMINATORS has emerged in the Miami area. This group claims that if a police officer who has been charged with brutality is not convicted and given a jail sentence, they will kill that officer. A departmental source has advised that this group is not expected to use any overt activity until the time of the DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

* * * * * * * *

Another group, and one of a militant nature, which needs to be recognized as a potential force is the farm laborers. The UNITED FARM WORKERS (UFW), led by CESAR CHAVEZ, has been very active in Florida during the past months. They have a strong cause and may seek to gain support on the Democratic platform.

* * * * * * * *

Race related disorders are always a potential threat with the "long, hot summer" syndrome - urban disorders precipitated by the frustration of blacks and the summer heat. There has been a shift in the latest race related disorders from the Northern to the Southern Atlantic States, and the shift and racial composition of cities are apparently related. Florida, however, does not appear to have the largest percentage of this shift.

Nevertheless, Miami has had a history of racial tensions, and there is a likelihood that such problems will continue into this summer. Blacks are concentrated in small, run-down areas, and the alleviation of social problems has not been pushed. Besides the Convention, the busing issue, the heat, lack of recreation, and boredom may spur disorders. Such activities of local blacks presently are not being organized but could be spontaneous when the Convention convenes.

The Democratic Party and the MBPD have each taken pre-Convention action to thwart disenchantment and disorderly demonstrations. The Democrats made an attempt to organize black representation but the development of a black caucus and warnings of retaliation by the NAACP indicate that the party has not been able to incorporate all black groups, particularly the liberal and radical. These groups are planning to present their own demands if the occasion arises.

Miami Beach Chief of Police POMERANCE has announced that demonstrators at the convention will have places "reserved" for them in front of the convention hall. Two areas have been indicated for demonstrations--between 19th and 20th Street and between 18th and 19th Streets. POMERANCE still publicly doubts the Convention will draw as great a number of protestors as did the 1968 Chicago meeting.

Presently, all 250 Miami Beach policemen are enrolled in a special training program, financed by LEAA, to prepare for any disturbances that might arise. Emphasis is on the psychological aspects of crowd control. Others from the Miami Police Department, Metro, Coral Gables and Florida Highway Patrol, who will be under POMERANCE'S supervision at the Convention, will also take the course.

City of Miami Police Chief BERNARD GARMIRE, although he is not in charge of convention security, made a request for a federal grant of $160,000 to train and equip his officers to handle any situation which might spread from the beach to the city. (During the 1968 REPUBLICAN CONVENTION sporadic rioting broke out in Miami--miles from the Miami Beach Convention site.)

Part of the money GARMIRE requested would be spent on "non-lethal" riot control weapons -- tear gas grenades and launchers, disposable plastic handcuffs, "stun guns," flak vests, gas masks, smoke generators, and king-size billy clubs up to 36 inches long.

GARMIRE in February estimated that 10,000 to 50,000 young non-delegates would attend the convention.

It is not known if GARMIRE'S request for LEAA assistance was granted.

CV T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, traveled to Fort Lauderdale, Florida during the period March 17 through March 25, 1972, in order to take part in the spring break, migration of students and young people to Florida. While there he mingled with some of the New Left movement groups as they met in apparently unplanned get togethers on the beaches of Fort Lauderdale. Source advised of a very guarded and secretive atmosphere among persons he talked to, noting that often not even first names were used by the participants. Some of these individuals with whom source had contact were using numbers to identify themselves, and source could not be sure if there were any organizational structure or assignment plan in effect among those who identified themselves by number. Source stated that there was talk of a meeting to have been held on Grand Bahama Island on or about March 25, 1972, at which unidentified participants were to make plans for Spring and Summer actions by the various New Left Movement groups to culminate in the disruption of both National political conventions in the Summer of 1972. The source was unable to attend the meeting on Grand Bahama Island.

On March 20, March 21, and March 22, 1972 CV T-1 had several meetings with a caucasian male named [redacted] or [redacted] who was accompanied by an apparent associate, one [redacted] Source stated that although neither [redacted] nor [redacted] identified themselves to him with their true names, source was able to observe identification cards they produced for door personnel at the Button Hole Night Club in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, where he met them on one occasion.

PSI orally reported that he attended [redacted] He was accompanied by [redacted] who was [redacted]

PSI advised the following items were discussed by the 65 - 75 Regional Coordinators and/or their alternates present at the meeting:

1. A political alliance with the political aims of the AFL - CIO was discussed and approved.

2. A fear of being closed out of existence by older organizations involved in opposition to the Vietnam war.

3. A general discussion of the lack of funds available for the programs of the VVAW.

4. An explicit determination not to affiliate in any way with any Trotskite organizations, such as the Progressive Labor Party or the Young Socialist League.

5. A discussion specifically with [redacted] a Negro representative, who appeared to be the strongest voice at the meeting regarding the setting up of a counterintelligence unit within the VVAW to detect police informants and publicize their connections effecting removal of them from VVAW activities.

6. [redacted] discussed allying with the People's Coalition for Peace and Justice of which he claimed to be a director, for the purpose of coordinating the activities of the two organizations. [redacted] appeared to have close alliance with the persons of [redacted] and one [redacted] (phonetic).

[redacted] advised that in a recent trip to Hanoi a portion of his air travel and his hotel accommodations were paid by the Soviet Peace Commission. Further, when he entered the United States, four canisters of film given him by the Hanoi Government were seized by the Bureau of Customs. [redacted] claimed the Soviet Peace Commission thereafter volunteered to introduce into the United States in diplomatic mail any items [redacted] thought might be seized. [redacted] showed a roll of film allegedly produced by a French film company showing current scenes from North Vietnam. Copies of this film will be made by VVAW for distribution. [redacted] disclaimed a desire to return to Vietnam with the next group of VVAW representatives. b6 b7C b7D

7. Sponsorship of drug addiction treatment centers was approved. The American Ortho Psychiatric Association allegedly is and will furnish money to maintain these centers.

8. The Florida representative claimed VVAW is actively working with the Miami PD to maintain a stable and peaceful atmosphere in Miami when the Democratic National Convention meets there.

9. There was a discussion regarding the lack of cooperation between the VVAW and authorities at San Diego, California, and some discussion, but no conclusion, as to affiliation of VVAW with other activist organizations for demonstrations at the Republican National Convention at San Diego.

10. [redacted] mentioned his interest in having VVAW cooperate with Black Panther Party (BPP) members, particularly those on the east coast of the United States. He also mentioned having a knowledge of financial angels, including one [redacted] not further identified, who could be relied on for funds in an emergency.

11. During the course of the meeting [redacted] the resumption of bombing in North Vietnam resulted in press inquiries. The Regional Coordinators telephonically contacted their constituents from Houston for information. Many of these constituents are allegedly active military duty personnel, who furnished the VVAW Coordinators up-to-the-minute advice as to the units alerted and the movement of ships. It was alleged that 12% of the members of the VVAW are on active duty.

There were no coordinators representing Georgia or New Jersey.

12. The New England representatives acted as observers only. The quarrel between VVAW and the New England representatives apparently revolves around the number of votes this region will have. New England wanted 15 votes and the [redacted] was inclined to give them no more than ten. It was decided the VVAW will remain incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, but headquarters will be Washington, D. C.

13. [redacted] a representative from Chicago, allegedly runs an underground to Canada, assisting in spirting deserters and draft dodgers into Canada. [redacted] is allegedly working with the BP of Chicago in this project and claimed to know almost all the Chicago PD Red Squad and to have photographs of 75 of them. b6 b7C b7D

14. An unidentified member of the representatives furnished a number that could be used to make toll free calls from Houston to any other place in the United States and this was used extensively by the representatives.

The Informant will make a written report of his activities.

PEOPLES COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE (PCPJ)
ANTI-WAR CONFERENCE
WASHINGTON, D. C.
APRIL 16, 1972

PCPJ is self-described as consisting of over 100 organizations that are using massive nonviolent civil disobediance to combat racism, proverty, repression and war.

On April 16, 1972, a reliable source advised as follows:

1) PCPJ sponsored a National Anti-War Conference on April 16, 1972, at the Ward's Circle Building, American University, Washington, D. C. Approximately 250 people were present, the majority of which were white. The conference started at 10:00 a.m.. 3) Workshops were held on War Tax Resistance, Armed Forces Day, Three Point Program, General Electric and Honeywell Stockholders Meetings, Local Actions, Democratic and Republican Conventions, The Air War and a Struggle in Ireland.

2) The purpose of the conference was to plan Anti-War activities in response to the escalation of the war in Indochina.

A second reliable source advised that among the persons present were the following:

IPS has been publicly described as "Think Tank of the New Left".

Project Air War has been publicly described as a group formed to publicize the escalation of the Air War in South East Asia.

Communist Party has been cited by Attorney General as a subversive organization.

(P 4) According to the first source, the workshop on the Democratic and Republican Conventions was attended by approximately 40 persons. A white male identifying himself as Ed Peach from the Florida Peoples Coalition, Tampa, Florida, discussed plans for demonstrations at the Democratic Convention. A leaflet was handed out which is attached. Peach mentioned the Three Point Program for peace in Indochina which is a condensed version of the points brought up by the Peoples Peace Treaty, which have been accepted by the Provisional Revolutionary Government of North Vietnam.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Peoples Peace Treaty was negotiated between the United States students and the Provisional Revolutionary Government (PRG) of North Vietnam in 1970 and efforts to gain support were one of the points surrounding the May, 1971, demonstrations in Washington, D. C.

A white female, who identified herself as a member of the Enraged Ones from New York City, also discussed plans for the Democratic Convention. A publication of this group, which is self-explanatory, is attached. She spoke of plans which were being made to train people in self-defense and confrontation tactics. Distributed leaflets generally setting forth plans for demonstrations at the D & R conventions & asking for assistance of workers.

[redacted] who was associated with a nonviolent training and action center in Washington, discussed plans for the Republican National Convention to be held in San Diego. He said the role of the demonstrators coming to the convention would be to inform the people of the United States as to what is wrong with the system and what people can do to change it. He said that massive demonstrations will probably be planned but that decentralized actions by various groups would also occur, such as at Naval Bases in the area. He mentioned the work of the San Diego Convention Coalition, which is made up of various groups to plan protests at San Diego.

It was also mentioned that a six week Peoples Caravan would begin July 14, 1972, from Miami and end August 21, 1972, in San Diego. The purpose is to inform people along the way as to what is going on politically.

[redacted] who is associated with the Anti-War Union, a Washington, D. C. organization planning Anti-War demonstrations, discussed plans for the conventions and getting people to participate in demonstrations. She mentioned the Massive Anti-War Demonstration to be held April 22, 1972, in New York City.

A third reliable source advised that a workshop was also held on a May Day Moratorium, about 25 people attended this workshop including [redacted] of the Anti-War Union, [redacted] all of the Anti-War Union; and [redacted] of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW).

VVAW has demonstrated in the past against the war in Vietnam.

b6
b7C

May 1, 1972, was discussed as a date for a Moratorium to be held throughout the country against the war; however, it was finally determined to hold this on May 3, 1972 - May 4, 1972, in order to allow campus organizers time to work on college campuses. This Moratorium was called for people to stop work from 12:00 noon to 1:00 p.m. on May 4, 1972, and go to nearby Federal Buildings or Military Installations and protest the war in Indochina.

The workshop concluded at approximately noon and at 12:30 p.m. a plenary conference bagan.

According to the first source, [redacted] discussed the importance of Massive Demonstrations in the Anti-War movement. A schedule of actions in this regard was handed out which is enclosed as an attachment.

[redacted] discussed extensively the escalation of the bombing in Vietnam. He cited some statistics which were received from the Ad Hoc Military Build-Up Committee in Cambridge, Massachusetts. These statistics are attached.

Other announcements were made regarding up-coming demonstrations including a Protest March on the Pentagon, April 20, 1972, and actions on military bases throughout the country, May 8, 1972. The VVAW also announced that they were attemtping to recruit support for a continuing demonstration at the United States Capitol until Congress acts to end the war. They called their operation "Rolling Thunder III". The Southern Christian Leadership Conference hopes to have a resurrection city type encampment.

The conference concluded at approximately 3:15 p.m.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION DEMONSTRATIONS

Miami Beach July 9-14

Events Planned:

(1) Convention Delegate Workshops on the War and Domestic Issues throughout the convention week

(2) Continuous Presence at the Convention Center (pickets, guerilla theater, constituency actions, etc.)

(3) Mass March and Rally at Convention Center to coincide with the nomination of the presidential candidate (probably July 13th)

(4) War Crimes ~~Tribunal~~ Investigation (military and corporate) on July 12th

(5) Events planned by various groups such as NWRO, SCLC, etc. will be announced as details become available

We are working to provide a site and services for the week of the convention (we're working with other local groups to do this). Negotiations with the city will begin early in May.

All actions planned are of a "peaceful and legal" nature. We'd like to make clear statements about the war and domestic issues unmuddied by "police riots" or angry counter demonstrations. (There is a large, well organized and mobile reactionary Cuban population-- Miami's "southern" police force just received about $700 thousand to equip themselves--)

We'd like to work with all groups planning actions around the convention to create/coordinate the most coherent, forceful series of actions possible. A coordinating meeting of representatives of those groups is being called for early May.

...As we join together we make a powerful fist.

MEMORANDUM ON SAN DIEGO CONVENTION COALITION

The booklet from the San Diego Convention Coalition asks for ideas and reactions for activities and actions around the Republican National Convention in San Diego this summer. This memo is reactions and ideas in a number of areas for consideration by the convention coalition and at the west coast conference March 17 19 and also more broadly within the movement. Such things are necessary for ideas reactions and continuing discussion in developing the style actions and community in San Diego.

These ideas supplement and complement those in the SDCC published material particularly the recent 24 page booklet and some of the ideas that came out of a National Conference of Nonviolent Trainers Dec. 13-16 1971. in Washington DC. All these ideas and material needs at some point soon to be put into a total project outline and organization with a project organizational development schedule and dead lines. It is hoped that this memo might further that process, as we are working on a new form of national actions---a local group developing and calling the actions more like Birmingham and Selma than anything since. We are also struggling with how to fit into and enhance local organizing around the country as well as in San Diego. This action should not be viewed as something separate but as part of local organizing projected into national level and attention. I hope ideas in this memo further that development.

GOAL

Under the present formulation the goal is stated something like: to communicate to the people in the USA that things are not going well and quite under Nixon that things are getting worse and that problems are not getting solved the economy is going down and unemployment up ordinare people are getting worse off in the USA and Indo China, while the war continues to kill thousands and profits only a few.

We should expand that to include to stimulate people around the country to get into real motion and unity on those issues. Perahps we could even expand the goal of the actions to get so many people in motion that a real social/economic/political/moral crisis is created in this country to make shange rather than just our protest.

SOME ASPECTS OF THE PROJECT

1. PETITION

Depending on the support and number of signers of this petition, actions could be organized at each of the Republican National Committee meetings until convention time and then attempting to keep the convention from being held in San Diego because that was the will of the people.

2. PEOPLES PLATFORM There should be a major convention or conference, in late spring--May or June--on the national scale to develop and accept such a platform and work out ways for its use until and after conventions.

3. MASSIVE DEMONSTRATIONS Massive demonstrations could be planned, perhaps one as mentioned by SDCC. Such massive le gal demonstrations can show our strength, but are generally so difuse in focus that it leaves most of the demonstrators rather frustrated, but is useful for educational purposes and for new people getting int demonstrating. It would seem ahat the energy could be better spent in various constituency actions and targets, see below.

4. CONSTITUENCY ACTONS AND TARGETS The idea of this is so that what is done in San Diego can fit more directly into what people are going back home. It would provide various types of organizers from around the country to work and act together. It would makre the actions more decentralized and democratic. Some locations would be NAVY BASES for those people working on GI organizing and sanctuary, and attack carriers. It might even be possible to close one of the bases for a period of time if we got enough people there.

COORPORATIONS for those people working on the airwar back home by focusing on coorporations could conduct actions at General Dynamics, General Electric, or any of the other airwar contractors there UFWOC current emphasis. With large numbers of people in San Diego, it might be possible to clean up the whole city and county on the current boycott at that time.

LOCAL POWER STRUCTURE find places around the city which will focus on the injustices perpetrated within San Diego and to maximize the current differences and antagonizims between elements of that power structure rather than forcing them together more by our actions.

CONVENTION for those people into local political stuff and not working on specific things locally who came particularily to relate to the convention happenings and the delegates.

HOUSING AND LAND to work on the current take over in Ocean Beach of low cost housing and bulldozing it tinto new middle class apartments and breaking up the youth counter culture community.

ALTERNATIVE LIFE STYLES AND INSTITUTIONS There could be some confrontations growing out of the alternative society we will be creating in San Diego over the summer. Take transportation for example--if we were to provide some kind of free transportation, we could take our cars into the taxi lines to carry delegates aroundtown--this could easily provide confrontation with the taxi company owner who also happens to be one of the richest most powerful people in San Diego and very close to Nixon. It could also provide some direct conversation with delegates. Another example is with our alternative health food would be to carry good healthy meals into restaurants where delegates are eating to give them a meal that costs 30 cents rather than $10.00. While boycotting any food stores because of the farm workers, we could develop food buying cooperatives or conspiracies. There could be numerous possibilities if we were to do brainstorming about new and creative ideas like those above. Much of our food for the people during the summer might be able to come from the Peoples Union cooperative farm near Fresno--Contact Joe Crampton, 8734 W. Maning Ave, Fresno.

5. EXPOSE 72

as outlined, booths, educational programs, and displays of liberation movements within the USA and around the world and the results of oppression and repression and injustice as well. In addition various workshops could be held. But the current outline could be expaned into the next idea.

6. ALTERNATIVE SOCIETY

Developing among us in San Diego for the summer the kind of society we want and are trying to build--a positive approach of what we are for rather than against. Cooperative and ecologically sound efforts for food, transportation, recreation and sports, physical wirk, service to others, auto repair, 'law and order', internal organization and work habits and relationships. We could also hold workshops to train people how to creat those alternative institutions back in their own localities. Also peoples art.

7. GETTING SAN DIEGO IN MOTION DURING THE SUMMER

Rather than focusing only on the convention and organizing the logistics and action around that, serious consideration should be given to expending a large portion of energy into getting people in San Diego in motion on issues important to them---racism, poverty, unemployment, militarism, the war, economic problems, union organizing, land, blacks, women, UFWOC. Also building the alternative institutions not just for us coming in, but also for the San Diegians--food buying coops, free schoools, free clinics, cooperative day care centers, coop garages and auto repair. This organization and effort would include various forms of demonstration and direct action.

This would help build local organization, action experience, competence, and confidence for greater assurance that the convention actions would fit into San Diegians concept and control rather than being taken over by the outside masses and more experienced people. It would provide momentum, ongoing actions, activity, and organizations for outsiders to fit into. Trainers and organizers would develop out of the local people. More San Diegians would get in motion and increase the potential of a greater movement in San Diego after the convention. It would increase the likelyhood of local control during the mass actions and during the potential crisis building state of actions around the convention time. It could more resemble the modle presented by SCLC in Birmingham and Selma in the mid 1960's, which was powerful in getting the nation in motion for a bit on civil rights and racism. Such an approach would also provide test confrontation with the local power structure to maximize the difference and suspicions present rather than forcing it to ban together agains us, but rather finding ways to devide it as it is not monolithic.

8. HOUSING AND LIVING

It would seem that as much of this as possible should be decentralized and spread out around the city rather than having us all in one location near the convention site, which would tend to isolate us from the local population. Some of the arguments for decentralization are as follows. The power structure evidently seems some advantage in a centralized living site and is offering something close to the convention hall--perhaps we would be easier to control all together! Decentralized living would put us in closer touch and communication with the people in San Diego. It would be easier to share information, ideas, and developing organizations and educational programs among them. Having people all over Washington DC last spring after the establishment forced us out of West Potomac Park and the decentralized actions of May Day were important in wining the local DC population to our side during those actions. It also made it difficult for the authorities to estimate our strength.

We could centralize in the evening for displays, festival, communication and energy. There could be some kind of centralized uncooked food pick-up point. With large numbers of people, it would be probably necessary to centralize some living, but serious consideration should be givin to maximizing decentralized living. Communication problems would be maximized, but internal order would me minimized. We would need wo work on rumor stopping and agent provocateurs. We could have an AM station for our communication. We whould be thinking of ways to mobilize San Diegians for some of the actions and not just us from the outside. Perahps we could use churches, parks, and houses throughout the city. More leadership, resources, responcibility would develop, and would fit more into our concept for the future of decentralized person controlled authority and responsibility.

9. PRESS OFFICE

Much of the energy of the Peoples Coalition and Mayday last spring in Washington went missinterpreted because there was an inadaquate press office organized with inadaquate concept, personnel and equipment. We might look to the office of the Poor Peoples Campaign of SCLC in 1968 for a potential good model. It would be necessary to have atleast 20 and perhaps 40 competent people working on press.

PRESS RELEASE WRITERS--getting our plans and past actions and politics and rationale into press releases.
PHOTOGRAPHERS--for getting some pictures of actions not covered to the press.
VIDEO TAPING--getting things to TV outlets and educational channels.
INTERVIEWERS AND SPEECH RECORDERS--who with tape recorders, tape speeches and interviews we make, edit them, and then call local radio stations around the country with one and two minute news stories that then can tape over the phone and use in their news programs rather than having only the network stuff.
PRESS RELATIONS PEOPLE--who persue personal contacts with the press so they know each of the reporters and how to get them to do better coverage of the issues and our actions.
EQUIPMENT--atleast the following: one or two watts lines; 10 tape recorders; five portable video tape cameras; 10 typewriters, two mimeograph machines; the big Xerox machine

lo. ORIENTATION AND TRAINING

There are a number of trainin g centers and programs around the country for nonviolent action which have developed various people and skills and tools which can be used to help people (1) get ideas for actions and develop them (2) test action ideas and alter them and improve on them before hitting the streets , and evaluation of those ideas (3) when actions are set, to get people prepared nd understand the potential dynamics of that action and possible responces.

These techniques and experiences are airmd at people developin g their own responces to potential difficult action situations rather than the trainers laying a heavy trip on the people . This style of orientation and training has proven to be a way to maximize democratic decision making with a group (small or lar g e) going to participate in an action. These have been used for thousainds of local actions around the country and for past national actons--Nov. 69 mobilization, May 70, PCPJ and Mayday spring 71, and Nixon Eviction fall 71. These orientation experiences around the country have brought effective. groups together, espanded peoples confidence in themselves, in otheres for group actions, and expanded the range and depth of actions they would be willing to participate in. The various training tools are described in the training manual writen for the spring 1971 actions in Washington for PCPJ and Mayday and include role plays, strategy games, action analysis, quick decisions, guerrilla theater, and street spaaking.

A program should be set up to train people in San Diego in these skills as well as bringing in people from around the country throughout the summer to fit into planns as they develop by SDCC. So over the summer would develpa an orientation-training organization in San Diego which might be 20 people in June, over 100 in July, and about 1000 in August. Some trainers would be an integral part of the decision making process of SDCC. Many would become street organizers for the actions.

There would be regional conferences for trainers in April and May around the country--already scheduled, April 7-10 near Detriot for the mid-west; end of April or early May on the west coast near San Diego (a tentative date of April 17-19 had ben set, but will likely have to be changed to a weekend later); and sometime in May in Atlanta. These conferences will focus on what and why of San Diego, what are the really creative and movement building potential, training tools and skills and programs relevant to San Diego, and development of a training schedule at various localities around the country between the conference and the convention. In addition, in June, July, and August, there should be a day long meeting and consultation among trainers on the west coast about things developing in San Diego, how training is going, what is turning people on. Training programs around the country would be helping local organizations develop as well as builing for the convention. Such orientation and training would be a definite part of the ongoing San Diego building process and reflect the politics and style of actions coming out of the SDCC.

11. LOCAL ORGANIZING

Some of the things that local organizations could be doing is working on the normal things locally, but come to San Diego as a way to project those issues beyond the local scene into combined concerted actions for nationa attention. This is experimenting with a new form of nationa action trying to build much more on local organizations and strengthening them both aroudn the country as well as in San Diego. Local groups can form collectives and affinity groups and do some actions at home while sending one person from that group atleast a month or more ahead of time to San Diego. Such a person from a local group would help organize in San Diego, communicate with the group back home, and provide a trusting context into which the group would fit when it came to San Diego close to the convention.

12. SAN DIEGO MANUAL

A comprehensive manual about the politics, actions, local organizing, and training for the Republican Convention, similar, but expanded, to the one used for the spring 1971 actions. There is a separate memo outlining a potential manual for this action.

13. COMMUNICATION AND PUBLICATIONS

Currently there is the excellent introductory booklet which came out in Feburary. In addition there should be the organizing-training manual out in May. There also needs to be a bi-weekly paper sent out around the country to a wide mailing list to keep people informed about what is developing, ongoing actions and thought in San Diego, to be distributed widely in the San Diego-Los Angeles areas.

LIFE OF CONVENTIONEERS

There should be some description about the kind of life the confentioneers might lead when in San Diego from past conventions. Where they stay, dine, drink, recreate--so we can be there and develop effective shadowing programs which can send reports back to their localities about how they are voting and living. That coould also attempt to communicate with them and have moral pressure on them about what they are doing inside the hall.

15. COMMON UNDERSTANDINGS

There are some commonly understood problems by millions and millions of people in our society. If only we could find a way to get millions of people in motion expressing some of themrather than hiding behind the American myth, then we might really get some change. These are

1. The economy has real problems--inflation continues and real incomes decrease.

2. Unemployment is too too thigh and increasing. Jobs are being eliminated.

3. Centralization and big burocracy in coorporations and government is inefficient, allienating, and wasteful.

4. Neither the Domocrats or the Repbulicans are going to deal with the real problems of our society because both are controlled by BIG business, Big military, Big labor, Big money, and not the people. Both parties acto for those interests.

5. The real people on welfare are not the poor, but the rich big men in the coorporations and agra-business through big defense contracts and tax write-offs.

6. The war in Indo-China continues to esculate and cause inflation and the economic-job crisis at home.

Because this is generally understood by the masses of people, but they are affraid to act on that information. Instead they mouth the American myth. Perhaps focusing on one or more of these issues, we might be able to get masses of people in motion. We would also have to move beyond the youth-freak radicals for our actions to large demonstrations of unemployed, or welfare people, or workers, or middle class.

ELEMENTS OF A CAMPAIGN

There are a number of necessary ingredients and activities necessary in developing a campaign. They are

1. A COMMON UNDERSTANDING OF MAN--like he is going to be more human, creative, and rational in relationships of love, life, openness, truth, and forgiveness; with cooperative, democratic, consensus and decentralized organization and decision making; emphasis on means and life enhancing actions; condern for all of humanity; and acceptance of suffering for positive change. These should be our understanding rather than the opposite so prevelant in our society.

2. COMMON UNDERSTANDING OF THE SOCIAL-ECONOMIC-POLITICAL STRUCTURE--of exploitation, imperialism, racism, sexism, elitism.

3. RESEARCH INTO ALL OF THE ABOVE for percise understanding and knowled

4. Information and EDUCATION on the above through newspapers, discussions, conferences, some actions, and press coverage.

5. NEGOTIATING with the opposition to attempt rational change, but that generally doesnot work as people don't give up power willingly.

6. ALLIES--building bridges and communication with significant elements of the society which you expect to be sympathetic and get in motion with us and through the normal channels.

7. ALTERNATIVE INSTITUTIONS AND LIFE STYLE--building our society of the future today.

8. CONSTRUCTIVE PROGRAM AND SERVICES--taking those alternative human institutions to the broader community.

9. TRAINING--getting prepared for organizing and direct action.

10. DISCIPLINE--a common understood and consensus arrived at discipline and style of org nization, work, and action.

11. DEMONSTRATIONS--moving into the streets with legal efforts to test our strength and org nization and for public education.

12. CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE--cintinuing to move in the streets and developing the crisis stage of the campaign.

13. RECONCILIATION--our actions and relationships with the opponent need to be human and loving both during the actions and after. We need to develop the oneness of all humanity.

TACTICS FOR NONVIOLENT DIRECT ACTION

There are enumerable tactics that can be used. New ones will develop during the sampaign. Some of the more orthodox tactics are listed below. All are relevant to a campaign and used during and toward building the necessary social/economic/political/moral crisis. But each should be chosen thoughtfully to accomplish specific things at specifid times in the campaign.

DEMONSTRATIONS: usually used fror protest, public education, and for testing our organization, people, and strength.

March	Poster Walk	Leafletting
Walk	Rally	Guerrilla Theater
Picket	Vigil	Street Speaking

Usually these are legal, but depending on how threatened the establishment might be, they might not want such demonstrations to take place and make them illegal and make arrests--like in Birmingham, Selma, and Chicago convention.

NONCOOPERATION: moving beyond the general legal forms into personal and organized non-support and non-cooperation with the system until it changes. Most frequently civil disobiedence.

Tax Resistance	Boycott	Reverse Strike (doing
Draft Resistance	Strike	necessary work not
AWOL, Desertion, Sanctuary	Returning Honors	permitted)

INTERVENTION: Actively placing your bodies in the way of the machinery of injustice. Almost always civil disobiedence.

Sit-ins and various forms like pray-ins, lie-ins
Draft, FBI, Military, Cooporation record taking-disruption-burning Assault--taking over offices, institutions, buildings
Conversion--changing distructive institution into human one
Dismantling--taking apart some machinery or institution of injustice

Then there are a couple which are hard to catorgize
Fasting--withdrawing and noncooperation, but interjecting your moral power into a situation.
Shadowing--following someone perpetrating injustice to his work, play, home, etc. to be moral presence on him.

When we move into the civil disobiedence and particularily any intervention actions (like Mayday) we can see how important training and preparation of all the participants is to carrying out those actions as intended.

IN CLOSING

This memo grew out of general background and experience in the movement locally in Chicago and nationally related to the national Mobilization, PCPJ, Mayday actions, and some plans not carried out and evaluation of those actions and training related to them. But it particularily grows out of varius discussions with Nancy Smedley, George Katsiafrias, and John Kent when they were east; Pam Cole when I was out west (those are people actively organizing in San Diego), the National Nonviolent Trainers Strategy Conference in Washington DC Dec. 13-16, 1971; West Coast Trainers Meeting Jan. 17-18, 1972; and in San Diego during the SDCC retreat Jan. 15-16; and other movement people in the east and west. This memo is to stimulate discussion, planning, and organization. It was writen by

JULY 10-14
AUG. 21-24

Election year 1972 is a challenge. It is an opportunity to make a militant, political response that will raise the level of dissatisfaction with the government and with the electoral process; and will contribute toward building a mass movement against the American ruling class in the years to come. By focusing on the election year — the candidates, the primaries, the issues, the conventions, and the elections — we can expose the fact that the American electoral system is rigged; that the only real winners every four years are IT&T and General Motors; and that the American people do not have any real control over their own lives. We recognize that we are part of a struggle that is being waged on many fronts and, through our work, we will add fuel to the work that is continuing in the schools, in communities, in factories and jungles all over the world.

Election time is time for us to campaign; to rap to the people canvas door-to-door; give out leaflets in offices, factories, schools and on the streets; and to open storefronts.

Election time is also an important time for mass demonstrations in the streets. The 1968 demonstrations in Chicago helped kick the party in power out of office; they upset the status quo, exposed the brutality of the democratic party machine and gave expression to anti-war feelings. This summer there are demonstrations planned for both the Democratic National Convention in Miami and the Republican National Convention in San Diego.

There are those who will inevitably argue that national actions are a dead end and that people should stay away from Miami and San Diego. But while Mayday did not stop the government and the Festival of Life did not stop Humphrey from being nominated in Chicago, these actions were victories — expressions of a national spirit of resistance. Miami and San Diego will not end rigged elections, but they will remind America that our Movement is nationwide and strong.

National conventions are closed and reek of backroom deals and death. Our conventions are in the streets — they are open and full of life. We invite the American people to join us, to make real demands and talk about issues that affect our lives, not the fake issues which both parties parade before us. We have no faith in party politics. We've had promises before and no changes. We're going to Miami and San Diego with tens of thousands of people to demand an end to the war in Indochina, an end to repression at home, and a reorganization in the power relationships of American Imperialism that would return to people control of their own lives. We're going to San Diego and Miami as an act of solidarity with the people of Indochina. The convention gives us an opportunity to express our commitments to life, love and peace, and our opposition to politicians of hate and generals of war.

This spring, there will be a presidential primary in New York on June 20. In addition, the Democratic National Convention will be held in Miami Beach, Florida on July 9th-13th and the Republican National Convention will take place on August 21st-24th in San Diego California.

This pamphlet is an attempt to outline what's happening this Spring and Summer regarding the primaries, Miami and San Diego.

WHERE HAVE WE BEEN?

Thesis

At the end of W.W. II the United States, which had been spared the ravages of war, was the most powerful nation in the world. This position has become increasingly challenged over the past quarter century by an overall shift in the alignment of world forces. The industrial strength of Western Europe and Japan has put the U.S. on the defensive commercially. The United States no longer has a monopoly on nuclear power. Most importantly, increasingly successful liberation movements have grown up in countries that have suffered greatly from U.S. exploitation. Nevertheless, the rape of the resources and people of other nations by the U.S. is far from ended. Six per cent of the world's population still controls over 50% of the world's resources.

The ruling class, currently represented by Nixon, recognizes the change in the world situation. The U.S. is growing to rely on a series of "junior partners" to help it control the globe. Germany and Japan are primarily commercial junior partners. Their industries can penetrate African and Asian markets more easily than those of the United States, but U.S. corporations own heavy concentrations of stock in both these countries.

Other less industrialized countries are military junior partners. The lesson learned in Vietnam is to use highly trained, superbly equipped armies of puppet countries such as South Korea, Iran, Portugal and the Phillipines to fight its counterinsurgency wars. The ruling class hopes that by withdrawing U.S. ground troops, cutting U.S. casualties to almost zero and relying on technology and foreign troops, peace sentiment in this country can be undercut.

But imperialism is a system, and weakness at one point is matched by weakness elsewhere. The U.S. is not only in an international crisis; it faces a series of domestic crises as well. The gradual erosion of U.S. economic and military domination means that less money can be ripped off from underdeveloped nations to placate dissident elements at home. In addition, the apparatus of technological warfare and support for foreign mercenaries to maintain the empire is expensive, which means that tighter controls must be placed on the lives of the people at home. This is behind the government's approach to welfare and wage controls, and its attacks on the right to strike and bargain collectively.

In the meantime, while crises take up the energy of the government, basic problems in the society deepen. The basic fabric of the society remains racist, sexist, authoritarian, oppressive to poor and working people, and generally unresponsive. The gap between the wealthy few and the rest of the people continues to widen. The urban and natural environments deteriorate from abuse and neglect.

BLACKS FIGHTING FOR CONSTRUCTION JOBS, PITTSBURGH, 1969

Antithesis

Since the freedom rides and sit-ins, the Movement in the U.S. has walked a long and often painful road. We've come from civil rights to Black Power, Brown Power, Red Power, Women's Liberation and Gay Liberation. Anti-war and liberal politics have grown into anti-imperialism, anti-capitalism and demands for worker's control of production and a guaranteed annual income. Students and street people have begun to struggle for their own needs at places like People's Park, Collier Park and Columbia.

Yet, instead of a reallocation of wealth which would meet the needs of the people, the banner of law and order is used to justify repression of dissent. There is increased illegal surveillance of those elements of society that are most actively resisting. There is increased use of terror tactics in prisons while college campuses and poor communities are being flooded with heroin.

We must understand imperialism as a system with domestic and foriegn faces. The ruling elite may have changed their tactics in an attempt to cope with changing realities of power in the world, but their goals have not changed. They remain the insurance of U.S. access to foreign resources and markets, the maintenance of the U.S. position as the dominant world power, and the suppression of all world movements for self-determination, whether domestic or foreign.

Step-by-step, each gain in awareness has been forced on us by the refusal of the establishment to respond to even the most elementary demads for justice. Almost against our will, we learned that it's useless to petition those in power.

There are those who say that the Movement in 1972 is weak, fragmented, isolated, out of touch with the American people, if not dead. We believe that many of these criticisms stem from a misunderstanding about the nature of the Movement and the way it has changed in the past few years. We feel that in many ways the Movement is stronger than any time since W.W. II. Although less people are marching publicly and we appear to be leaderless and directionless, we have found that more work than ever before is being done on local and community levels. More and more, energy is being focused upon tenants groups, co-ops, workers caucuses, storefronts, newspapers and other organizing projects. Out of this will develop actions and organizations that do more than just grind out marches and rallys, but that truly speak for the needs of the people.

In addition, the newly imposed hardships that are being placed on poor and working people have raised the level of dissatisfaction with the system and the government. More people than any time since World War II are open to the Left. We feel that the strategy of the election year gives us a vehicle to reach out to new constituencies and to experiment with new modes of relating to each other.

This is not to say that the Movement does not have any problems. Rather we feel that this year we have the opportunity to deal seriously with many of the problems that have divided us from ourselves and, in some cases, separated us from the American people, and move forward.

OPPORTUNITY OF THE ELECTION YEAR

The election year affords us a great opportunity: an opportunity to devise new modes of relating to both the American people and ourselves. In Miami, we must expose the democrats and demonstrate our belief that People's Power is not made in back rooms and over expensive lunches by "power brokers," no matter what party or whose interests they claim to represent. And in San Diego, we must confront the republicans and demonstrate our intention to stop the genocide, exploitation, and oppression that the U.S. government is committing in the name of the American people in this country and all over the world. In addition, during the primaries we must show that we will not allow these "champions of the people" to roam through our communities with false promises and phony platforms without being confronted by the very people they claim to serve.

We will make available reams of information and research, designed to expose exactly who the candidates are — where they get their money — what interests they represent — and how they have acted in the past. Further, we are working on collecting and disseminating information about the air war and the automated battlefield in Indochina, as well as information about health, housing, transportation and other issues that affect people's day to day lives. We hope to use this information in conjunction with scores of local groups all over the City and State in an effort to make demonstrations and actions during the primaries and at the conventions relevant to people's lives and to ongoing work.

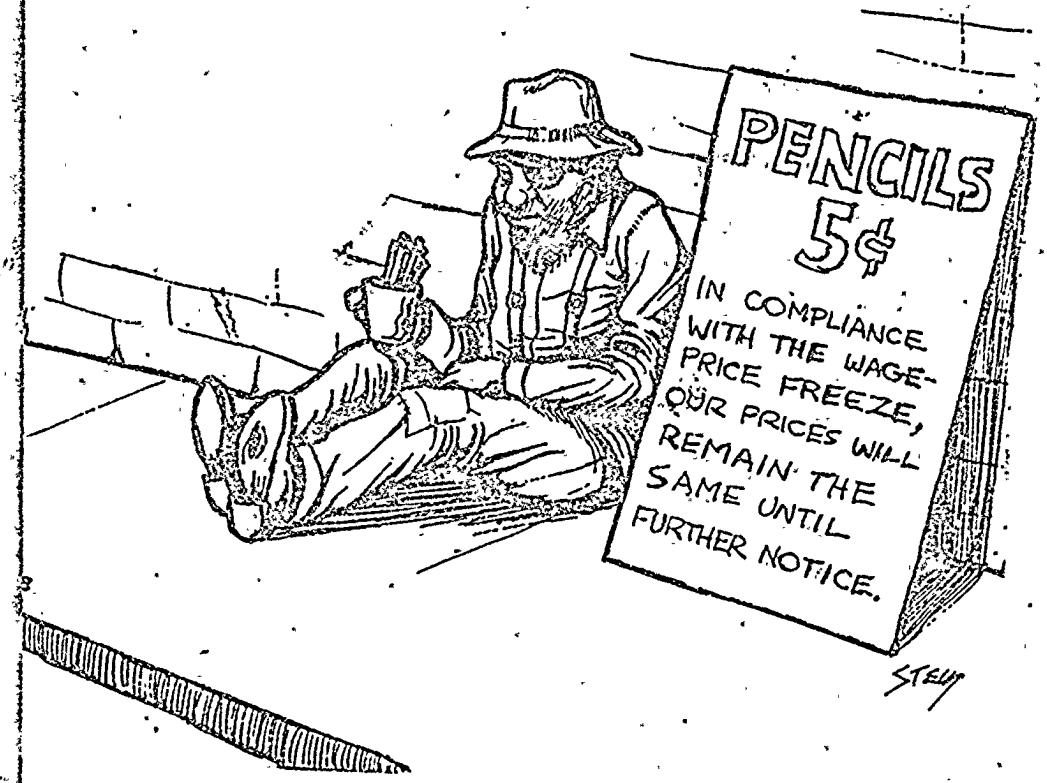
Ithaca Conference

The last weekend in April there will be a regional conference at Cornell University in Ithaca, N.Y. The purposes of this conference are:

1. New York Primary. We hope to develop a network that would enable mass militant demonstrations to be held in New York in June during the primary campaign. We must be there to confront the candidates every time they speak and to expose that fact that these politicians do not speak for the people.

2. New York People's Platform. We hope to put together a unifying poltical statement for the Spring and Summer actions. The People's Platform has been talked about all over the country as a general "unity document." It would draw together demands for action against imperialism, racism, sexism, exploitation of labor, police and judicial repression, and poverty. Like the People's Peace Treaty, in which local groups were urged to write their own introduction, the People's Platform would allow local groups and organizations to write their own planks within the general framework and politics adopted in Ithaca.

The People's Platform is seen as an organizing tool that can be used all over the state. Nationally, it can be combined with other People's Platforms from other states to pull together demands for the demonstrations in Miami and San Diego. The purpose is to raise the basic issues and to force the candidates, the media and the American public to deal with our issues, instead of inventing issues, like bussing, to confuse and divide the American people.



3. Miami and San Diego. Representatives from the San Diego Convention Coalition (SDCC) and the Florida People's Coalition (FPC) will be present. Reports of work that has been done and plans to mobilize as many people from New York as possible will be made. In addition, at both conventions there is time set aside for regional and constituency group actions and plans for them will be made then.

4. Finally, it will be discussed what plans can be made for the vast majority of people who cannot just get up and leave for six weeks in the middle of Summer to go to Miami and San Diego. We must address ourselves to what kind of response should be made in New York in support of the actions that will happen at the conventions.

THIS SPRING

The New York Primary

The New York Primary is June 20. It is the last primary in the nation and the large amount of delegates that will be selected demands that every major candidate campaign in New York this June. We must take advantage of this opportunity to reach large numbers of people by being there every time a candidate appears to speak, and by confronting him (or her) with the facts, with the issues, with the People's Platform, and with our demands. In this way we can build for the summer and take advantage of a ready-made arena for expressing our ideas.

We will coordinate and distribute information and research about when and where candidates will be campaigning in New York; we will provide local groups with information and research about each candidate; and we will disseminate news and plans for demonstrations and actions when candidates appear. In addition, the latest information about Miami and San Diego will be made available.

Workshops

A series of workshops will be held to train people in street medicine, self-defense, confrontation tactics, affinity groups, equipment, etc. . . The purpose of these workshops is to make every group of people that goes to Miami and to San Diego as well informed and as well equipped as possible.

Regional Expose '72

Demonstrating dissent is just one part of the spring and summer actions. We also want to create a setting in which people can learn from each other about the specific nature of our country and the world we live in.

In San Diego, the week before the convention, there will be a humanized People's World's Fair, called Expose '72. This will be a large exposition about the victims of oppression and their liberation struggles; the institutions and ideas which perpetuate this injustice; and some visionary but practical alternatives to the system.

Groups and individuals coming to San Diego are invited to send their ideas for Expose '72, and to bring films, programs, exhibits, etc., with them. There should be exhibits by Black, Chicanos, Native Americans, Asians, gay people, women, youth, and poor and working people in this country, as well as international exhibits on China, Cuba, Vietnam, Palestine, Africa, and Latin America. We will have workshops, films and a video network.

Sometime in late May or early June there will be a Regional Expose in New York's Central Park. This will be a preview of the Expose that will be held in San Diego in August, and all groups are invited to participate.

MIAMI BEACH, JULY 9-14

The Florida People's Coalition

The Florida People's Coalition (FPC) is an organization of local groups and individuals who are accepting the responsibility for coordinating demonstrations and activities. They will provide local services such as housing, medical aid, food, etc. FPC is already working with NWRO, SCLC, and VVAW, all of whom plan to be in Miami Beach to demonstrate during the convention. They will be providing us with information and will serve to coordinate any regional actions we may plan.

FPC is already doing work around the state with the Three-Point Program for Peace in Indochina. The Three-Point Program is a condensed version of the People's Peace Treaty and has been accepted by the Provisional Revolutionary Government (P.R.G.). It calls for an end to all military operations in Indochina, the setting of a date for withdrawal which will be matched by the release of the POW's, and an end of all aid to the Thieu regime.

FPC has also endorsed the concept of a People's Platform. They hope to see several drafts develop in different regions all over the country. FPC sees either a nationwide People's Platform or a collection of regional platforms as the unifying document for the demonstrations. For more information contact us, or write:

The Convention

So far demonstrations have only been planned for the last two days of the convention, July 13-14. The first of these is seen as a day of teach-ins, guerilla theater, displays, and regional or constituency group actions. The second, which is the last day of the convention, will begin with a rally in downtown Miami and a march on the convention center in Miami Beach with the Three-Point Program and the People's Platform.

PEOPLE'S CARAVANS

It's six weeks from July 14, the last day of the Democratic National Convention, to August 21, the opening of the Republican Convention. During that time, we plan to visit America. We will put together a series of caravans — cars, vans, bikes, VW's, skates, etc. — which will stop at state and national parks, beaches, community centers, and small towns along the way. We will traverse the continent with leaflets, music, movies, slide shows, guerilla theater and life. And we will bring all of America with us to San Diego.

SAN DIEGO, AUGUST 21-24

The San Diego Convention Coalition (SDCC) is made up of people from a wide variety of local community groups, including G.I.'s, students, anti-war groups, professionals and underground newspapers. Like the FPC, they have accepted responsibility for coordinating demonstrations and activities. Their political goals in confronting Nixon and the G.O.P. are:

1. To demand an immediate end to all aspects of the war in Indochina. Specifically, to expose and stop the barbaric technological air war and to demand acceptance of the P.R.G.'s Three-Point Peace Plan.

2. To expose and struggle against the increasingly unpopular domestic policies forced upon the American people by the existing economic and political structure.

3. To mobilize a massive array of people, united in their opposition to the war and determined to take control of their own lives.

4. To accelerate the growth of ongoing movements capable of leading and sustaining people's struggles both locally and nationally.

SDCC has been making plans for many months now, and they have managed to gather a great deal of support from the surrounding community. Their plans are quite extensive and very flexible, so as to incorporate a broad spectrum of radical politics. However, although they have taken the responsibility for logistics (permits, child care, sanitation, etc...), each contingent will have to find its own ways of governing itself, leading itself and expressing [illegible]

Demonstrations

Current plans call for a variety of different demonstrations. There will be one massive, legal demonstration past the Sports Arena, which is the convention site. People will march in contingents with floats and banners that demonstrate the diversity of opposition. This will probably take place on the first day.

The second day is reserved for regional, constituency group, or special interest actions. San Diego provides a variety of targets from the U.S. land headquarters of the air war to the welfare centers and Banks of America. Each contingent has been urged to select a site (or to join with an already selected site) for demonstrations on this day.

The final day coincides with the renomination of Nixon and the close of the convention. While plans are still up in the air about what kind of action is appropriate for this day, it does seem fairly certain that there will be an important anti-Nixon demonstration. More will be known as the Spring and Summer progress, as feedback is measured, and as the succes of the primary and Miami actions become known.

Expose '72

San Diego is where the idea originated from, and it is here that a national People's World's Fair will be held. People with ideas should contact us or write:

NEW YORK, SUMMER '72

We see the demonstrations in Miami and San Diego this summer as only one example of the range of activities that the Movement should undertake at this time. Too often in the past, national demonstrations have pre-empted local efforts and ignored people whose economic circumstances do not permit them to travel hundreds of miles to demonstrate. Our actions this Spring and Summer must be relevant to these people — we must enhance, not hinder, local organizing efforts. In this light we see the following goals:

1. Our People's Platform will be a document designed by local groups for use as an organizing tool in local work.
2. We will address ourselves to the problem of demonstrations in New York at the same time as the Miami and San Diego conventions.
3. All of the work for Miami and San Diego will be done by already existing local projects, except in places where such groups do not exist.

We hope that the election year will provide a vehicle through which different groups and organizations can work together. We say this with an eye toward the future — beyond the Summer, when we shall all still have to work together.

GETTING IT TOGETHER

We feel that the election year strategy represents a creative effort to arrive at a new model for relating to local organizing and national action. We have travelled around in the past few months, talking with many different people. We do not expect the Spring and Summer actions to be one-shot actions detrimental to local organizing efforts. Rather, we think that an overall program of local initiative combined with tools like the People's Platform can aid people's organizing efforts wherever they are. The coming of the elections has given us the incentive to reach out and unify our Movement.

We need people to work with us for the period between now and the Summer — and hopefully beyond. It would be ideal if groups and collectives could designate one person now, to work with us and create links with their communities.

If you are interested in moving now, get in touch with us. We need all your creative ideas, your innovative skills, as well as cars, money typewriters and other tools. Most of all, let us know:

— Your comments on this pamphlet.
— Your name if you want it to be on our mailing list.
— If you will diststribute literature and posters.
— If you can help us financially.
(25¢, $1, $5, $100, stamps. . .)
— If you can assume responsibility as a local contact. This means you will do educational and publicity work and bring people to demonstrations around the primaries and the conventions.

This is a crucial historical period. The job is great, but so are the possibilities.

MEMO TO WASHINGTON ACTION CONFERENCE, APRIL 15, 16, 1972

From: David Reynolds for Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice

The May Calendar

For the past several years the movement has concentrated on major national demonstrations, sometimes in Washington D.C., sometimes in New York and in a single city on the West Coast. Enormous amounts of money go into transporting people to these demonstrations, and a great deal of time is spent taking people out of their own communities and moving them to Washington or New York, to San Francisco or Los Angeles. There is no doubt that these demonstrations have been necessary to give the movement national visibility, and that they have been effective on placing limits on how far the government could go in escalating the war.

Yet increasingly local and regional groups have resisted these calls to a single national rallying point, urging instead that actions be local or regional in nature. The Peoples Coalition, with a number of regional leaders or representatives present, determined several months ago that it would emphasize local and regional actions in May, with special emphasis on nonviolent direct action or "pacific militance".

The Peoples Coalition, of course, gave full support to the April 1 Harrisburg demonstration, co-sponsoring it. It is, this weekend, responsible for the emergency action here in Washington - an action that was "imposed on our calendar" by the unexpected and major crisis that has arisen in Indochina. And it is supporting the April 22nd mass demonstrations in New York, Los Angeles, and San Francisco, even though those are organized by a group with which we have disagreements - the National Peace Action Coalition. But our main national action this year is not in any single point, but will be across the nation during May.

Two time-periods

The May actions break into two time periods. The first is May 6-13, which allows local and regional groups to choose either a weekend or a weekday that fits their own schedule best. (New York City, for example, has chosen May 10th, the same date as the ITT Stockholders Conference). The second is May 20, Armed Forces Day, and is a date for action at or near military bases, particularly Air Force Bases. Local groups which are near such bases will almost certainly not be able to mount two actions only a week apart and should concentrate on the May 20th date, giving support to G.I. activists and veterans groups, which are taking on the main burden of organizing those events.

But large parts of the country are not near a military base and should plan to concentrate on May 6-13.

Do not expect extensive coverage from the media - they have adopted a policy of refusing coverage to the peace movement. Our strength does not come from the number of inches of publicity we can get, but from the number of people who are willing to be committed to radical, nonviolent action. Choose your own target in your own area; assured that others across the country are also doing so. Even though isolated by geography, we shall be moving together in a major national campaign!

Scenario, May 6-13

The targets for this series of demonstrations are either government buildings that relate directly to war and repression (IRS offices, FBI offices, Selective Service, Induction Centers, Federal Buildings) or the offices or outlets of the war-related corporations on which the Peoples Coalition is concentrating attention (Honeywell, ITT, Standard Oil). In the case of corporations, most of which will not have offices in your town, you can concentrate on their outlets - i.e., virtually every camera store carries Honeywell products (The Pentax camera is theirs as well as various Honeywell electronic flash units), most markets carry Wonder Bread, a product of ITT, many cities have Sheraton Hotels, run by ITT, and there are ten ITT-owned restaurants in Chicago.

Having decided on the target in your community where you want to focus attention in your effort to "make peace the job of this community", you need to organize those tactics that will be most effective in your situation.

Tactics depend on where you are, who is involved locally, etc. In some cities or towns a simple vigil or a very orthodox pacifist civil disobediance action is considered very radical. In other areas such tactics may be considered too conservative, people may want to use the kind of mobile tactics from May Day last year. This memo does not pass any judgement - it seeks only to list the things which can be done. Remember, last year in Washington we combined three different approaches to meet the needs of three different constituencies. We had the 'Peoples Lobby' from April 25 to April 29 for traditional pacifists (and a thousand were arrested), we had the drama of mobile tactics on May 3; and more orthodox marches and sit-downs on May 3rd, 4th, and 5th.

These are some of the things you can do.

1. Daily Death Toll. Your group can move toward the target area (a government building or a war-related corporation) and fall to the ground, lying down without moving, while others hand out leaflets explaining that the fallen demonstrators represent the Indochinese dead. Such demonstrations - in fact, all demonstrations, - are more effective if Vietnam Veterans are taking part in handing out leaflets and trying to explain to people what the action means.

2. Sit-downs. As many demonstrators as possible simply move as close to the target area as they can get and sit down, blocking the doors and/or street. Arrests must be expected.

3. Mobile Tactics. Your group may move in, close down an office, a store, or a street; and then get up and move on when the police arrive, moving on to a second target, repeating mobile tactics, then to a third target, etc. There is always a danger that such a tactic may irritate the police because it is hard for them to control or deal with. Remember, whatever their action, our basic tactic is nonviolence.

4. Guerilla Theater. Your group may want to dress in white cloth and masks or with white paint, symbolizing the dead, and simply march in front of the target area, or on a long walk through the town or city, handing out leaflets that explains the action.

5. Vigils are considered very moderate actions in most cities, but if your town has never had any public demonstration, a simple vigil may be effective, and may make it possible to involve local churches in giving public witness to their opposition to the war.

Improvise

Within the context of nonviolence, and recognizing that nonviolent direct action has more impact than simply legal demonstrations, improvise to fit your situation. You may want to have a legal public rally first in a central part of town, with a smaller group, prepared for arrest, taking part in the nonviolent action afterwards. Ten years of movement activity have taught people how to improvise, to find ways in which drama can be increased. Look to the Vietnam Veterans for their sense of drama - in their seizure of the Statue of Liberty - along with their sense of humor and also of responsibility (they cleaned up after themselves so the press couldn't accuse them of messing up a national shrine). You know your own situation, your own people, your own area - choose your targets, and your tactics.

Keep in Touch

Some groups have special materials available. The War Resisters League has a whole scenario for its "simulated bombing" of downtown Manhattan on May 10th - write 339 Lafayette Street, NYC 10012 for a copy. Clergy and Laymen Concerned have a complete packet of materials on how to relate to the Honeywell Project - write them at 475 Riverside Drive, New York City 10027. Both Women Strike (1 Union Square West, New York City) and Womens International League for Peace and Freedom (1 North 13th Street, New York City 10012) have information on ITT and the Wonder Bread Boycott. The Fellowship of Reconciliation has full material on how to run a Daily Death Toll project - write Box 271, Nyack, New York 10960.

Most important, keep in touch with the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice, 156 Fifth Ave., New York City 10010 for information on plans as they develop, for copies of Movin' Together, and to let us know what you are planning so we can pass that on to other groups.

TABULATION OF MOVEMENT OF MEN AND MATERIEL, INDOCHINA WAR BUILD-UP

The following tabulation represents an analysis of the information received by the Ad Hoc Military Build-up Committee on movements of men and materiel all over the country in a build-up of the Indochina war. The material has been received from GI Projects around this country and overseas who are in direct contact with active duty servicemen on the bases concerned. The summaries represent minimum estimates. They are broken down by service.

While in New York [redacted] also attended a Zippie party which according to the source, was attended by the "elite" of the radical left. According to the source, Jerry Rubin was in attendance and while at the party, "begged" [redacted] to let him be a Zippie. According to the source, [redacted] advised Rubin that the Zippies would have to iron out a few differences first, and she agreed to meet with Rubin at a later date.

Source further advised that [redacted] attended many business meetings with Zippie representatives while in New York. The business meetings were mainly concerned with finalizing plans for the Yippie - Zippie marijuana smoke-ins which were apparently going to take place in twenty states and five foreign countries, including England, Netherlands, France, Germany, and New Zealand. While attending the business meetings, [redacted] also made contact with a girl named [redacted] from Toronto, Ontario, Canada, who is a member of the "Toronto Guerilla." After the business meetings, according to the source, [redacted] visited Jerry Rubin at his home, 156 Prince Street, New York City. Also at Rubin's home was [redacted] According to the source, Rubin complained to [redacted] that the "bad press the Zippies were giving him had hurt him politically." Rubin stated "he would be finished in politics unless things were patched up." Rubin stated that "Abby was coming back next month and that he would not let the Yippies kick him around." [redacted] stated that the Yippies were also going to meet Abby at the airport and throw him out of the party. Rubin became very upset, physically and mentally, and begged [redacted] to negotiate with him. [redacted] gave Rubin the following list of faults which she felt were Rubin's main problem:

b6

b6
b7C

His superstar ego which enables him to lead the Yippies while he does none of the work but yet attains all the credit;

Financial deals that have netted him money in the past that he made in the name of Yippies but then used for himself;

His personal bad habits;

His feud with [redacted] and other Zippie people.

According to the source, Rubin stated that he would do anything the Yippies wanted him to do in order to stay in "good graces." Source stated that [redacted] told him they would make no interferences in his affairs, politically or otherwise, as long as he did not claim leadership in the Yippie - Zippie movement. [redacted] also stated the Yippies did not want Rubin to have any power in making decisions. [redacted] further stated the Yippies wanted Rubin and Hoffman to earn responsibilities in the new party like everyone else has earned. Source further advised that the Yippie - Zippie people feel that Rubin and Hoffman are superstars and can get coverage of their appearance at all events but this does not impress the present Yippie - Zippie members. According to [redacted] Rubin and Hoffman have "turned too many people off." Source further advised that [redacted] stated that she feels Jerry Rubin was losing the friendship of John Lennon. According to the source, Lennon had thought that he was the center of radical politics and by throwing him out, the Yippie - Zippie people felt that Lennon would think perhaps Jerry Rubin was "washed up." Source further advised that according to [redacted] John Lennon had a message delivered to the Yippie - Zippie people at the Stony Brook conference that Lennon would do an "Armstrong benefit" if the Yippie - Zippie people did not "let it out" that he was coming.

RE: DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA

I. ORGANIZATIONS PLANNING PROTEST DEMONSTRATIONS

A. YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely-knit, anti-Establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968. The Zeigtgeist International Party (Zippies) is the political wing of the YIP.

"The Capital Times", Madison, Wisconsin, in an issue dated April 12, 1972, carried an article by a YIP spokesman which, in part, stated the YIPs will be at the Democratic National Convention in Miami "to provide an alternative to bored young people and to make a counter convention that is relevant to our lives. It will be peaceful, unless the police decide to attack."

The article stated that in addition to showing their opposition to the Vietnam War, the YIPs, when in Miami, hope to make legitimate issues of anti-abortion laws, anti-marijuana laws, discrimination against homosexuals, and victimless crimes.

The article also said that IRVING DANA BEAL, a YIP theoretician, had just been released from the Dane County Jail where he was serving a sentence for dealing in sale of narcotics. BEAL reportedly will assist the Wisconsin YIPs in their planning efforts to obtain support for the Miami YIP Convention.

A pamphlet, undated, received by source by mail on April 17, 1972, indicating its origin as the "Volvox" YIP Chapter, Box 221, Elmhurst, Illinois, bearing the caption "Miami - Here We Come!, July 8-15", stated, in part, as follows:

"Everybody agreed on the need for action in Miami. Everyone else is concentrating on San Diego, getting Nixon out in 72. That's great, but if Nixon goes out who's coming in? The Republicans don't care about the youth vote, they've made that clear; the Democrats do. We will have leverage in Miami that couldn't be bought in San Diego. The Democrats will be bending over backwards to get the kids to vote for them; we're gonna be there to call them on their slick maneuvers. There's another thing too: The Democrats can't afford a rerun of Chicago and we don't want one..."

"There was a little disagreement on the scenario for Miami. Most people agreed on the idea of a giant party and freek show..."

"Volvox tribe are working on communications, tying together the people who are working in various places. The Chicago people have already held a state-wide conference... People are building local groups that will hopefully have a more lasting impact on youth culture than the earlier Yippie myth."

A calendar of events for future YIP action shows July 8, 1972, as National Che Guevara Appreciation Day, Miami Beach; July 9, 1972, as the Third Annual National Independence Smoke-In, Miami Beach; and July 10 to 15, as the Miami YIP Presidential Nominating Convention.

The pamphlet also stated "While Nixon's telling the world how he is winding down the war, we've been trying to hide from the world the fact that, yes, Virginia, there is a YIPPIE!

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

Che-Day is the opportunity to define ourselves and is the key to our whole strategy. If we can get key individuals in those states to form a de facto YIP organization and materialize 1,000 people at their state capitol on J-Day, our grass-roots organization for Miami will be accomplished. We can push Miami at the smoke-ins (big banners: POT PARTY IN MIAMI JULY 10!) and a sense of national movement will be created towards the Florida actions. People have to have concrete proof Miami is gonna happen, like a nice big smoke-in in their own state."

The pamphlet concluded by stating "What we hope is that the Zippie Party in Miami, which will last as long as the Democratic Convention lasts, will completely overshadow their farce. At this time, the Demos feel no need to have a 'youth' or 'radical' strategy. They are still into things like the labor strategy or the southern strategy...we have to use them for our purposes."

The source said that although the above schedule shows the current YIP plans for the Miami area, no information is currently available regarding the identities of or the number of YIP people from Wisconsin who plan to go to Miami. The reason for this is that the YIPs are basically a spontaneous type of people who lack the ability to organize. People who go to Miami from Wisconsin will probably not make this decision until several days before their intended departure.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

IRVING DANA BEAL, YIP leader from Madison, Wisconsin, and TOM FORCADE, YIP leader from the East Coast, will probably take charge and lead the YIPs in Miami.

MM T-3
April 17, 1972

ABBIE HOFFMAN and JERRY CLYDE RUBIN, on February 18, 1970, were found guilty of Antiriot Law violations that arose from activities during the Democratic National Convention, Chicago, Illinois, August, 1968. Pending an appeal, they were released on bond by the U. S. Court of Appeals, Chicago.

THOMAS KING FORCADE, a member of the Underground Press Syndicate in New York and a member of the U. S. House and Senate Corps of Reporters, was trying to obtain White House press credentials and said if he was able to enter the White House, he would conceal a gun in his camera and shoot the President.

MM T-4
January 20, 1972

The Madison, Wisconsin YIP, in their efforts to gain support for the "YIP Presidential Nominating Convention", staged an action publicly billed as "J-Day, Spring Plant-In" on April 29, 1972, at Madison, Wisconsin. Some one thousand participated. Speeches were made and marijuana was allegedly planted. The audience was asked to support YIP actions during the Democratic National Convention at Miami, Florida, and donations were solicited for the Miami action. The "YIP Presidential Nominating Convention" at Miami Beach, Florida, has been scheduled to coincide with the Democratic National Convention.

National YIP leader, JERRY RUBIN, participated in the activities at Madison, Wisconsin. He attended for the purpose of "mending fences", to get himself back in the good graces of local YIP leaders planning Miami strategy.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

RUBIN was partly successful in convincing Madison YIPs that he had not deserted the Party and that he is still a "YIP at heart". He made it clear he would be in Miami to participate in YIP convention activities to be held during the same time as the Democratic National Convention.

B. STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY - WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE (SDS/WSA)

SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy", SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position, with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. Internal factionalism produced a split during the SDS National Convention in June, 1969, which resulted in the following three factions: Weatherman; Worker Student Alliance (WSA); and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The Weatherman and RYM are no longer affiliated with SDS. The WSA continues to use the name SDS and maintains its national headquarters in Chicago, Illinois.

WSA, a faction of SDS, was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Boston, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and in February 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois. SDS/WSA currently shares office space with the PLP in Chicago.

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, United States of America, for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and MAO Tse-tung thought.

The SDS/WSA held its national convention on March 30 to April 4, 1972, at Cambridge, Massachusetts. At this convention, which was characterized by confusion, some short-range planning for demonstration activities was approved. It was agreed that the SDS/WSA would join with other groups in Los Angeles, Seattle, and Washington, D. C., on April 29 and 30, 1972, to counteract Loyalty Day activities and to highlight May Day celebrations. Agreement was also reached on the participation of SDS/WSA in demonstrations at the upcoming Republican and Democratic National Conventions.

C. WORKERS ACTION MOVEMENT (WAM)

The WAM is a front group of the PLP, formed in February, 1972, for the purpose of recruiting PLP members from the nation's labor force.

The WAM was recently formed by the PLP in an effort to recruit members from the nation's labor force. This PLP front group has as its major issue the establishment of a shorter workweek with higher pay - 30 hours work for 40 hours pay. At its founding convention in February, WAM ratified three "action" proposals for upcoming events, one of which was to conduct demonstrations at the Republican and Democratic National Conventions this summer, with the main stress to be on the "30 for 40" issue.

D. PEOPLE'S COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE (PCPJ)

The PCPJ is self described as consisting of over 100 organizations which are using massive, nonviolent civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repression, and war.

The PCPJ sponsored a National Anti-War Conference on April 16, 1972, at Washington, D. C. Approximately 250 people were present, the majority of whom were white. The purpose of the conference was to plan anti-war activities in response to the escalation of the war in Indochina.

At the conference, various workshops were held on issues related to the PCPJ program. One of these workshops concerned the Democratic and Republican National Conventions, and this workshop was attended by approximately 40 persons. A white male, identifying himself as ED PEACH from the Florida People's Coalition (FPC), Tampa, Florida, discussed plans for demonstrations at the Democratic National Convention. PEACH distributed an FPC leaflet which contained general FPC plans regarding demonstrations at the convention. This leaflet called for workshops on the war and domestic issues throughout the convention week, continuous presence at the convention center through pickets and other activities, a war crimes tribunal, and a mass march and rally at the convention center to coincide with the nomination of the Presidential candidate.

The FPC, also known as the Florida People's Platform Coalition, is a statewide organization established as a pressure group to demonstrate at the Democratic National Convention in Miami Beach, Florida, in July, 1972.

At the above workshop, a white female, identifying herself as a member of "The Enraged Ones" from New York City, discussed plans for the Democratic Convention. Among the plans she mentioned were the training of people in self-defense and confrontation tactics. She distributed a publication of her group, generally setting forth plans for demonstrations at the Democratic and Republican Conventions, and exhorting the reader to join in these demonstrations. The address on the leaflet was:

"The Enraged Ones" is a New York group which is presently coordinating New Left groups and individuals for demonstrations at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions.

II. ORGANIZATIONS PLANNING ATTENDANCE OF DELEGATES OR MEMBERS

A. VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

The VVAW is a national veterans organization with a national clearinghouse located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina".

VVAW representatives regularly attended meetings of "Snowplow" at Miami during April, 1972. They stated they were attempting to arrange for campgrounds and open lots in the Miami area where the veterans can camp out during the convention. They indicated they are maintaining contact with the Hialeah and Miami Springs Police Departments in an effort to make arrangements for such campgrounds.

MM T-9
April 12, 1972

The Miami Snowplow Company, sometimes referred to as "Operation Snowplow" or simply "Snowplow", is a nonpolitical coalition of local organizations founded in Miami in January, 1972. Its purpose is to provide such services as housing, food, legal aid, medical aid, and a communications network for the expected influx of young protesters, observers, and non-delegates to the Democratic National Convention.

During discussions at the National Steering Committee meeting of the VVAW held at Houston, Texas, from April 7 through 11, 1972, the Florida representative claimed the VVAW was actively working with the Miami Police Department in an effort to maintain a stable and peaceful atmosphere in Miami during the Democratic National Convention.

MM T-10
April 15, 1972

A VVAW representative, who has been attending "Snowplow" meetings, stated that the VVAW would leave "Snowplow" at the end of April, 1972, apparently because of "Snowplow's" opposition to political activities during the Democratic National Convention.

III. THREATS OF VIOLENCE OR DISRUPTIVE ACTIVITY

[redacted] also known as [redacted]

During the period March 17 to March 25, 1972, groups of students gathered on beaches at Fort Lauderdale, Florida. There was frequent talk among these students of another meeting to be held at Grand Bahama Island on about March 25, 1972, at which participants were to plan for spring and summer actions by the "movement" to culminate in disruptions of both the national political conventions at San Diego and Miami. b6 b7C b7D

IV. POSSIBILITY OF DISTURBANCE IN THE ETHNIC COMMUNITIES DURING THE CONVENTION

During April and May, 1972, continued contacts with sources in a position to be aware of possible plans for violence or disruption among members of the ethnic communities in the Greater Miami area have produced no indication of planned violence to take place during the time of the Democratic National Convention.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION PLANNING SUMMARY
APRIL 27, 1972

b6
b7C

Chief Pomerance introduced [redacted] Assistant to Larry O'Brian and youth organization liaison for the DNC. [redacted] addressed the Planning Session and related some note-worthy information pertaining to anticipated activities during the convention(s).

(1) He advised that sources indicate that a "smoke-in" will be undertaken wherein large numbers of demonstrators will blatantly smoke pot directly in front of the Convention Hall.

(2) [redacted] has information that mass marches similar to the Washington May Day incident are anticipated.

(3) Certain hotels as well as the Convention Hall, may be target for demonstrators.

(4) Limited numbers of youth, etc., authorized inside the Hall may stage pot smoking and disrobing demonstrations during the sessions actually in the Hall on Tuesday and/or Wednesday nights in particular.

(5) Efforts may be made to shut down or evacuate the Hall by the use of tear gas canisters, stink bombs, etc.

(6) [redacted] advised that there is a need for muster areas preferably at or near the Beach High parking lot to accommodate demonstrators and also an alternate place in which to move masses of people into.

(7) In the event this city hosts both conventions, [redacted] anticipates approximately 100,000 non-invited potential demonstrators.

OLD BUSINESS	REQUIRED ACTION OR ACTION TAKEN
1. ~~Arrest forms~~	Captain [redacted] reported on progress. A copy of the Washington, D. C. Prisoner Control Handbook was distributed to each agency. Field Arrest forms are being altered to best fit our needs. A processing site has been selected.
2. Legal matters. Miami P.D. arrest authority, etc.	[redacted] reported on progress of Criminal Justice procedures committee. There will be no criminal cases scheduled during the convention (how about traffic cases?) Ordinance package being completed. Need for alternate plan, in the event of more numerous arrests than anticipated being researched.

More than six-week gap separates two conventions

By LOUIS J. SALOME
Miami News Politics Writer

The Democratic and Republican national conventions at Miami Beach this summer will be six weeks apart, but they will be separated by much more than time.

For the Republicans, gathering Aug. 21-23, the renomination of President Nixon will be as routine as the waves lapping the shores of Biscayne Bay.

The Grand Old Party hardly needs a three-day convention to renominate an incumbent who wants to be president again. Already "Re-Elect the President" headquarters have sprung up around the nation.

The GOP's only excitement inside the Beach Convention Hall could come over the choice of Nixon's running mate.

Vice President Spiro Agnew seems to have the edge for renomination now, but Nixon's romancing of Treasury Secretary John Connally has not cooled. Republican sources in Florida say liberal voices close to Nixon are touting New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

More problems for Republicans undoubtedly will come from outside the hall than from within.

As the incumbent party, Republicans face the greatest possibility of protest and demonstrations. A cooling down of the Vietnam bombing, and an upsurge in the economy at convention time, would do much to ease the level of dissent that is expected to echo in GOP ears.

The Democrats' situation is totally different from the Republicans in almost every respect. In numbers for example, the July 10-13 Democratic gathering will have 3,292 delegates seated on the convention hall floor, along with 2,100 alternates.

Republicans will have 1,347 delegates and the same number of alternates.

A free-wheeling, wide-open convention is expected by Democrats. New rules for selecting delegates should give women, young people and minorities much more representation than they've ever had at a national political convention.

It is this broad spectrum of representation that some observers feel will create widespread dissension inside the hall, while outside the Democrats might not have to look into the eye teeth of too many protesters.

And the scramble for the Democratic presidential nomination today is wide open.

George McGovern and Hubert Humphrey are leading the pack now, with George Wallace sniffing at their heels. But as it looks now, no one probably will have it all wrapped up by the convention.

Talk of a dark horse running away with the nomination in case of a deadlock is also brewing, and that is a real possibility.

With men like Wallace muddling the presidential minds of regular Democrats, very few are paying much attention to the second spot.

FD-350 (Rev. 7-16-63)

(Mount Clipping In Space Below)

More than 5,000 will pack for 'democratized' hall convention

More than 5,000 people will have access to the floor of the Democratic National Convention in Miami Beach Convention Hall despite arrangement committee efforts to hold down swarming confusion during the proceedings.

Dick Murphy, arrangements chairman for the Democrats, today listed the number of floor access credentials for representatives of the media, workmen, committee staffs and assorted political figures for the July 10-13 convention.

For the first time, alternate delegates will be allowed the same freedom of the floor as delegates. This change, following recommendations of a commission aiming to further democratize the conventions, doubled the number of people who could have access to the floor in previous conventions.

All credentials to so-called perimeter areas, meaning press and staff work areas of the convention, will be issued for the full term of the convention. But credentials for admission to the floor itself, for delegates, press and work forces, will be issued each day.

Murphy said the policy conforms with recommendations of security advisers and is designed to increase control of access to the convention proceedings.

Requests from the daily newspapers, radio-TV photographers, magazines and weekly newspapers were cut in half by the committee. In all, Murphy said, the committees received requests for 6,643 floor access passes and will issue 5,392, including those to delegates and alternates.

The approved list, not including delegates and alternates:

Press	100
Radio-TV	100
Photographers	100
Periodicals	100
College press	15
Weekly papers	40
Candidates	50
Committees	6
Politicans	50
Networks	50

Additionally, access passes will be issued to 325 general workers; 200 ushers (security personnel); 83 persons on camera stands; 35 in the TV pool; 25 to Southern Bell requests to "clear the aisles" his credentials will be withdrawn and the cancellation of all floor passes considered.

The convention hall holds workers.

Murphy said the final tally means 680 people will be authorized to be in the convention aisles at any given time.

The national committee will imprint on the floor passes a warning that if the holder fails to comply with 14,500 people for the convention.

ON [redacted] THE MAIN PORTION OF THE STATEWIDE MEETING WAS HELD [redacted] APPROXIMATELY EIGHTEEN TO TWENTY INDIVIDUALS FROM TALLAHASSEE, FLA., MIAMI, AND TAMPA, AS WELL AS ONE INDIVIDUAL FROM NEW YORK CITY, WERE PRESENT AT THIS MEETING.

THE PRIMARY PURPOSE OF THIS MEETING WAS TO PLAN FOR THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC AND REPUBLICAN CONVENTIONS SCHEDULED TO BE HELD IN MIAMI.

IT WAS DECIDED THAT THE FPPC WOULD PREPARE A THREE POINT PEACE PLAN AND TO PRESENT THIS PLAN TO THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES TO SIGN. FPPC DOES NOT INTEND TO SUPPORT ANY PARTICULAR CANDIDATE HOWEVER, THEY DECIDED THEY WOULD NOT DO ANYTHING TO DISCREDIT PREDIDENTIAL CANDIDATE GEORGE MCGOVERN.

A PROJECTED BUDGET OF THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS WAS PLANNED AND MONIES WERE TO BE RAISED THROUGH RALLIES, DEMONSTRATIONS, AND BENEFITS. A RALLY, DEMONSTRATION, AND BENEFIT IS SCHEDULED TO BE HELD IN TAMPA ON FIVE TWENTY SEVENTYTWO AND THEY PLAN TO GET A BIG NAME CELEBRITY TO APPEAR AT THIS BENEFIT.

IT WAS DECIDED THAT THE MAIN FORM OF ACTION FOR THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION WILL BE LOW KEY EDUCATIONAL TYPE DEMONSTRATIONS AND RALLIES. NO CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE IS PLANNED AND ALL ACTIVITIES WILL BE LEGAL AND PEACEFUL. WITH REGARD TO THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION, IT WAS DECIDED TO HAVE LEGAL AND PEACEFUL DEMONSTRATIONS, HOWEVER IT WAS REALIZED THAT WITH OTHER OUTSIDE INDIVIDUALS AND GROUPS

IN MIAMI THAT CONTROL WOULD BE DIFFICULT IN MAINTAINING THESE ACTIVITIES IN A PEACEFUL NONCIVIL DISOBEDIENT MANNER. IF ANY INCIDENTS OCCUR BY OUTSIDE FORCES, FPPC PLAN TO USE THESE INCIDENTS TO THIER ADVANTAGE.

IT WAS ANNOUNCED THATTHREE UNION OFFICIALS FROM ST. LOUIS RECENTLY TRAVELED TO NORTH VIETNAM WHERE THEY CONFERED WITH VIET CONG REPRESENTATIVES. A MEETING IS SCHEDULED TO BE HELD IN ST. LOUIS ON FIVE NINE SEVENTYTWO REGARDING THIS TRIP AND VARIOUS GROUPS WILL BE SENDING DELEGATES TO THIS MEETING. TWO INDIVIDUALS FROM TALLAHASSEE WILL REPRESENT THE FLORIDA GROUP AT THIS MEETING. IT WAS DECIDED THAT ANY FURTHER PLANS BY FPPC REGARDING THE REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC CONVENTIONS WOUD BE HELD IN ABEYENCE, PENDING A REPORT FORM THE ST. LOUIS MEETING.

THE GROUP IN MIAMI IS PLANNING ON OPENING TWO OFFICES. b6 b7C ONE IS PRESENTLY BEING OPERATED BY [redacted] LAST NAMES UNKNOWN, AT TELEPHONE NUMBER FOUR FOUR FOUR DASH ZERO NINE SIX TWO, ADRESS NOT FURNISHED. Demo parley to be 'wild'

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON — U.S. Sen. Jim Allen predicted today the Democratic National Convention at Miami Beach will be "another wild and wooly" affair, but less violent than the 1968 session in Chicago.

In a prepared statement, the Alabama Democrat also said he was convinced that Sen. Edward Kennedy (D-Mass.) does not want the nomination this year "mainly because he doesn't think he can win in 1972."

Allen predicted that Kennedy, who has said he is not a candidate but who has been touted as a convention dark horse, "will make his move in 1976."

Allen said the presidential primaries so far "accurately mirror dissatisfaction of the rank-and-file citizen with conditions in national government."

He said they have shown people expressing greater freedom of political action and thought "resulting in a breakdown of old party lines and party loyalties."

With more than half the primaries now over, Allen said, "I look for another wild and wooly Democratic convention with stormy sessions, with differing political views just as strongly held and just as strongly stated as in 1968, but with less violence."

POLITICS IN FLORIDA

GOP Convention Will Be the Target

By JOHN McDERMOTT
Herald Political Writer

Politically, the Democratic National Convention at Miami Beach in July is shaping up to be a sizzler. It's now a three-way battle among Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey, George McGovern and Gov. George Wallace.

The Republican convention five weeks later looks like a dud. President Nixon has no serious opposition.

From the standpoint of fireworks, however, the situation is reversed. At this stage, nobody can be sure what will happen. But there is ample reason for concern on the part of law enforcement officials and party leaders.

A FEW DAYS ago, a bearded young man who admitted being a self-styled "revolutionary," came here from San Diego. In a frank discussion, he outlined to Miami Beach officials, representatives of Operation Snowplow and this reporter plans which the youth coalition have to demonstrate at the conventions.

They begin on a planned peaceful note with President Nixon and the war in Vietnam the chief targets. But with 50,000 or more demonstrators — "It makes little difference how many after you pass the 50,000 mark" — odds are against the peaceful aspects remaining long.

This will be especially true when the demonstrators find themselves blocked from getting at their primary target, the President, and perhaps being hungry, and frustrated under a scorching, mid-summer sun. The spokesman, who has been organizing in San Diego for eight months prior to the decision to switch the GOP convention here, warned that the demonstrators will start arriving for the Democratic convention, stay here afterwards until the Republicans arrive, and build up to a grand finale during the GOP convention.

A BOOKLET which they have distributed to the underground youth newspapers around the country gives a graphic insight to their thinking. In reading, one gets the impression it could have been written in Moscow. Here are some of its observations or phrases:

"The ruling class currently represented by Nixon . . . The basic fabric of the (U.S.) society remains racist, sexist, authoritarian, oppressive to poor people and generally unresponsive . . . The Coalition isn't planning demonstrations at the Republican Convention just so we can have a liberal Democrat for president . . . We're moving against Nixon and the Republicans because they are the present guardians of the interests of the American establishment. They are the most visible, tangible proponents of U.S. imperialism, sexism and racism, and of the repression that underlies all that."

WHEN ASKED if the demonstrations would be dropped should the war in Vietnam end, the youth laughed. He said the war was only the first of their objections — that he and countless other young people simply didn't like "the electoral politics of this country and we're going to bring about a change." The leaders also play up "the white power structure" and "police brutality" to fan the flames of their cause.

The one saving attribute in their propaganda — designed for San Diego but now focused on Miami Beach — is that the leaders feel violence will set back their cause. Public reaction across the nation to violence, they feel, would prove counter-productive.

Well and good if this prevails, but in the tense situations sure to develop, the danger of serious trouble is magnified.

TOUCHING BASES: Look for an early announcement that former state Sen. Elmer Friday, now secretary of the Florida Senate, will run for Congress in the new 10th District. Friday has been strong in that general area, which includes his home town, Fort Myers, the southwest Gulf Coast, lake region, north Palm Beach County and Fort Pierce . . . A big $100-a-plate dinner for Republican Congressman Lou Frey in Orlando May 25 is expected to attract some surprising supporters. Ostensibly, the fund-raising will be for Frey's reelection campaign. However, it is no secret the young Republican has his eye on Sen. Ed Gurney's seat which comes up for grabs in 1974. So, of course, does former Rep. Bill Cramer, GOP national committeeman from Florida and chairman of rules for the 1972 Republican Convention. At the moment, Cramer is "seriously considering" running this fall in the new Fifth Congressional District which spans Central Florida. However, his law practice is reportedly so good he can't afford to put it aside for a political race now.

Sen. Gerald Lewis (D., Miami) accuses the Public Service Commission of playing "monopoly" with the big utility companies thereby costing consumers higher rates. This apparently will be Lewis' prime issue when he opposes Commissioner Jess Yarborough in September . . . discount reports Mayor Chuck Hall will be running for Congress. "No chance," says the Miami Beach mayor. "I like being mayor." At some future date, Hall admits he may get other thoughts . . .

Sen. George McGovern has picked up new backing in Miami from Dan Paul, a supporter of Mayor John Lindsay, and Rep. Marshall Harris . . . Former Municipal Judge Harold Braynon running in House District 104 . . . Miami City Judge Dan Satin bidding for Circuit Judge Marshall Wiseheart's planned vacancy . . . Judge Al Harum of the Industrial Claims Court will go for one of the new county judgeships . . . Word is that State Rep. Louis Wolfson positively will announce for Congress soon in the North Dade District 13.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS) WAS FOUNDED DURING JUNE, NINETEEN SIXTYTWO, AT PORT HURON, MICHIGAN, AND IN THE NINETEEN SIXTIES, FUNCTIONED AS THE LEADING NEW LEFT CAMPUS BASED STUDENT ORGANIZATION IN THE UNITED STATES. FROM AN INITIAL POSTURE OF " PARTICIPATORY DEMOCRACY," SDS MOVED TO A RADICAL REVOLUTIARPOSITION, WITH DEBATE CENTERING ON HOW BEST TO CREATE A REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT. INTERNAL FACTIONALISM PRODUCED A SPLIT DURING THE SDS NATIONAL CONVENTION IN JUNE NINETEEN SIXTYNINE, WHICH RESULTED IN THE FOLLOWING THREE FACTIONS: WEATHERMAN; WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE (WSA); AND REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT (RYM). THE WEATHERMAN AND RYM ARE NO LONGER AFFILIATED WITH SDS. THE WSA CONTINUES TO USE THE NAME SDS AND MAINTAINS ITS NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS IN CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

WSA, A FACTION OF SDS, WAS EXPELLED FROM SDS IN JUNE, NINETEEN SIXTYNINE, BY THE THEN DOMINANT WEATHERMAN FACTION, BUT CONTINUED TO USE THE NAME SDS AND OPENED AN OFFICE IN CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS. WSA ALIGNED IDEOLOGICALLY WITH THE PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP) AND, IN FEBRUARY NINETEEN SEVENTYONE, MOVED TO CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, WHERE IT OPENED THE SDS NATIONAL OFFICE AT ONE TWO TWO FIVE SOUTH WABASH STREET.

THE PLP WAS FOUNDED IN NINETEEN SIXTYTWO BY INDIVIDUALS EXPELLED FROM THE COMMUNITY PARTY, USA, FOR FOLLOWING THE CHINESE COMMUNIST LINE. ITS OBJECTIVE IS THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A MILITANT WORKING CLASS MOVEMENT BASED ON MARXISM LENINISM AND MAO TSE TUNG THOUGHT.

RE: SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC)
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, MIAMI, FLORIDA JULY, 1972

The SCLC is a civil rights organization, primarily of black membership, headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia, formerly led by the late Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING.

On May 8, 1972, MM T-1 advised that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) has opened a branch office at 5908 N.W. 7th Avenue, Miami, Florida. At the present time it is believed that this office will remain open only for the duration of the Democratic and Republican Conventions, scheduled at Miami Beach, Florida, during 1972. The head of the SCLC in Miami, Florida, is [redacted] who has assumed the title of Secretary of the State of Florida. [redacted] continues to be a member of the Board of the SCLC. At this time it is not clear whether the local Miami office of the SCLC will be headed by [redacted] or [redacted] following the termination of the Republican National Convention.

b7C

MM T-1 stated two members of the Atlanta headquarters of the SCLC are scheduled to arrive in the Miami, Florida, area on or about May 11, 1972. It is believed that these two representatives will be [redacted] a member of the SCLC executive staff and [redacted] believed to be a member of the national staff of the SCLC. These tentative representatives will meet at a "peace center" in Miami, Florida, for a three day planning meeting for the Poor Peoples Convention scheduled for Miami Beach, Florida, at the same period of time as the Democratic National Convention. This planning meeting will be held May 12 through 14, 1972, inclusive. During that

Convention To Have Its Own Bus System

By HELEN BUCKNER
Sun-Reporter Staff Writer

Third In a Series

Transportation for the delegates, delegate alternates and press will include express bus service prior to the start of each convention session, return each evening to their hotels, airport pick-up shuttle service between hotels and a charter pool of buses.

Approximately 122 buses will be utilized to move delegates, alternates and press about the city.

A shuttle bus service — beginning approximately at 9 a.m. and running until about two hours after the conclusion of each convention session — will provide transportation to and from delegate hotels and to the Democratic Party's headquarters at the Fontainebleau Hotel.

Democratic Party headquarters for the convention is the Fontainebleau Hotel. Shuttle bus service will connect all the hotels with the headquarters and Convention Hall. (Sun-Reporter photo by Tom Gura)

An express shuttle bus service — beginning two hours before each convention session and lasting until two hours after each session — will convey delegates and alternates inside the compound to convention hall. Only the nearly 5,000 delegates and alternates will be allowed on the express buses. To enter the express bus a delegate will be issued a special pass and it will be checked at the gates.

After each session delegates will board buses at six zones established in front of the convention center complex. Buses will pick up delegates going to the hotel area designated for each zone.

The three key gathering points for the press will be at the Doral Country Club, Key Biscayne and the Diplomat Hotel.

Cost of special bus tickets is $2 for eight trips to and from the hall (25 cents each) or unlimited bus use for $5.

Bus service from Miami International Airport will be provided on July 9 — the day before the convention officially opens — at 30-minute intervals.

Warren Binder is coordinator of bus transportation for the convention bus system.

SUBJECT: MIDEM

At approximately 4:20 p.m., this date, [redacted] Miami, Fla., phone [redacted] telephonically contacted this office and advised as follows:

b6
b7C

At approximately 3:45 p.m., four white males were on his bridge observing the operations and timing of the draw bridge for approximately thirty minutes. [redacted] advised that one individual described as w/m, 175 lbs., light brown medium cut hair, 23-25 years old, wearing yellow sweatshirt and dark trousers, confronted him and inquired as to the time length involved for the draw bridge to be raised and lowered. This individual also inquired as to whether or not there was any set time for the bridge to be operated. [redacted] stated that this individual stated that he was a teacher at the University of Miami and that the other individuals were his students and that they were conducting a study of all the bridges in Miami.

[redacted] did not see any automobile use by these persons and could not furnish any more information concerning the other individuals.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION - JULY, 1972, MIAMI, FLORIDA

First source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on April 28, 1972, furnished a flyer that was being distributed throughout Madison on this date by individuals active in the Madison YIP Chapter. This flyer, announcing the April 29, 1972, Madison marijuana, smoke-in, in part, advised as follows:

"...Wisconsin Youth International Party is proud to announce that its shock brigade, the Zippies, have organized the first annual state Spring Smoke-out & Plant-in.

"Under the slogan 'May Day is J Day' Zippies throughout the nation have scheduled state Smoke-outs in order to emphasize the Nixon appointed Presidential Commision's findings that cannabis consumption is not harmful and should not be made a criminal act. As a counterpart to the government's domestic defoliation program, the Zippies/Y.I.P. are launching a massive REFOLIATION campaign-the Plant Your Seeds Drive.

"The aim of this campaign is to provide enough good-quality domestic smoking weed to bring a lid within the reach of every family and single person in the U.S. by early July. Save Your Seeds!

"Then they will be able to light up and live, and join us in the spirit, if not the flesh, at the beach-blanket party of the century--the Giant Miami Beach Convention Party 72!! (We're supplying the Party; the Democrats are supplying the Convention!) It promises to be the social event of the season. Everybody who is anybody will be there!..."

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION - JULY, 1972, MIAMI, FLORIDA

FBI Agents observed the following Madison, Wisconsin, activities, April 29, 1972, publicly billed as "J - Day, Spring Plant-In," sponsored by the Wisconsin YIP in their effort to gain support for YIP Presidential Nominating Convention during July of 1972, in Miami:

From about 12 noon to 1:30 PM, individuals congregated in James Madison Park where a live band played music. The crowd, estimated about about 700, then marched five blocks to the State Capitol Building following individuals carrying a YIP banner and a "Free Karl Armstrong" banner. [redacted] were identified as two of the people marching in front of the crowd.

[redacted] is in custody, Canada, awaiting extradition to Wisconsin to be tried for the August, 1970 bombing of Sterling Hall, (Army Mathematical Research Center), University of Wisconsin (UW) campus, Madison.

b6

[redacted]

First source advised on April 29, 1972, that [redacted] are Madison YIP activists.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION - JULY, 1972, MIAMI, FLORIDA

The crowd grew to about 1,000 upon reaching the State Capitol grounds. From about 1:45 PM to 2:05 PM, speakers using public address system covered the following points:

They said governmental agencies - Federal and State, have used marijuana legislation as a means of suppressing legitimate dissent of America's youth on all major protest issues. The "illegal and immoral" Vietnam War, in addition to being fostered for imperialistic purposes, it was said, is being used by the FBI, CIA, and others to keep open the channel for hard drugs. These drugs, such as heroin, are coming into this country in a rapid rate and when used by the New Left (NL) are hurting minds of people who have potential for changing wrongs currently existing in America. Marijuana, they say, is no more harmful than alcohol and possession of it should be lawful. People were further told that Federal and State authorities are using Armstrong as a scapegoat for the Sterling Hall bombing.

Some of the individuals identified as speaking at the State Capitol grounds were [redacted]

[redacted]

b6
b7C

First source advised on April 29, 1972, that [redacted] are Madison YIP activists.

The gathering broke when Beal urged the audience to support YIP action during the Democratic Presidential National Convention in Miami this summer.

Several alleged marijuana plants were then planted in the Capitol ground's grass as a symbolic gesture at liberating the NL Movement from dictates of marijuana laws.

During the above events at the State Capitol, [redacted] moved throughout the crowd photographing individuals suspected of being undercover policemen. b6 b7C

[redacted]

First source advised on April 29, 1972, that [redacted] is a UW NL activist.

People then marched about ten blocks through the radical UW student housing area on Mifflin Street, to Brittingham Park, arriving about 2:30 PM. The crowd, now estimated at about 1,300, according to a voice over park loudspeaker, would spend remainder of the day listening and dancing to live music.

Inspector [redacted] Madison Police Department, Madison, advised on April 29, 1972, that no incidents or arrests occurred during today's YIP events. Participants were allowed to march in streets after leaving James Madison Park as a lawful parade permit was obtained beforehand. [redacted] said as of 5:00 PM, the group was still at Brittingham Park where it was expected to remain until dark, then dispersing peacefully.

b6

[redacted] said he was told donations were solicited from the Brittingham Park crowd for the purpose of financing YIP events in Miami.

Second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 29, 1972, that National YIP leader Jerry Rubin, from New York City, participated in the April 29, 1972, Madison YIP activities. He came for the purpose of "mending fences" to get himself back in good graces of local YIP leaders planning Miami strategy. Madison YIPs had previously advised Rubin that he was not welcome in Madison; however, he came on his own and at his own expense. It is believed Rubin will stay in Madison, (address unknown), throughout the weekend, returning by plane to New York City.

Wisconsin YIPs feel that Rubin, by his alleged unilateral elitist attitude, has deserted his followers and that allowing him to lead in the future would result in the failure of all future YIP actions.

"The Capital Times," a Madison daily newspaper, in issue dated May 1, 1972, carried an article captioned, "Pot Celebration Draws 2,500; Police Smell Nothing Amiss." This article, in part, advised that Jerry Rubin was on hand for the April 29, 1972, Madison YIP demonstration; however, he did not speak to the crowd. Organizers advised that Rubin was in Madison to discuss plans for the Democratic National Convention.

Second source advised on May 1, 1972, that Rubin, when in Madison on April 29, 1972, indicated that he had changed his mind about the importance of being active in YIP action scheduled for Miami. Rubin plans to back Senator George Mc Govern for the presidency as he believes that if President Nixon is not re-elected, the Democrats will more than likely be in the White House and Rubin thinks Mc Govern is the best that the Democrats have to offer.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION - JULY, 1972, MIAMI, FLORIDA

Rubin believes the YIP Chapters throughout the country now have shown that they are united behind common goals and that their plans for Miami will be successful.

Rubin further said that he has been experiencing some difficulty with Tom Forcade, an activist in YIP matters in New York City. Forcade told Rubin before he came to Madison that Wisconsin YIPs were against Rubin and that they would not let him participate in the Madison events.

Source two said that although Forcade was not able to come to Madison, he sent [redacted] a former Milwaukee YIP Chapter activist, who now lives in New York City. [redacted] came with the purpose of convincing people in Madison that they should not listen to Rubin as a leader and that Rubin was still acting like he was during the period that the Madison YIP "Pre-Conference" was held.

People in Madison listened to [redacted] however, they also appeared to warmly receive Rubin.

Rubin spent the evening of April 29, 1972, at 334 West Wilson Street, Madison, where several Madison YIP Chapter activists reside. b6 b7C

Source two said Rubin stayed in Madison throughout the day of April 30, 1972, meeting with people regarding Miami plans. He indicated that he was going to spend the night in the country near Madison.

First source advised on May 1, 1972, that Rubin spent the night of April 30, 1972, at a small farm located near Madison, rented by one [redacted] has in the past, shown an interest in Madison YIP activities.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION - JULY, 1972, MIAMI, FLORIDA

Rubin, in his discussions with people at Madison, April 29-30, 1972, emphasized that he definitely wants to be accepted as a YIP leader again. Rubin said Forcade is a "Hip Capitalist" and not a true YIP.

Rubin said he will go to Miami in the near future to work on setting up facilities there for the YIP Convention. He believes that Yippies will be able to operate better from the beach area and therefore he plans to try to acquire beach property for their headquarters. If he is successful in this endeavor, the area will be called "Yippie Land."

First source advised on May 1, 1972, that Rubin departed Madison on this date, believed during the early morning hours, by airplane enroute to Oklahoma City. He plans to participate in a "Senator George Mc Govern for President" function there. Rubin indicated he would be in Oklahoma City until probably May 2, 1972, then go to California before returning home to New York. His specific destination in California and his reason for travel there is unknown.

Rubin was partly successful in convincing Wisconsin Yippies that he has not deserted the party and that he is still a "YIP at heart." He made it clear he would be in Miami to participate in YIP Convention activities, (whatever they may be), to be held during the same time as the Democratic Presidential Nominating Convention.

(Referenced Milwaukee memorandum, dated January 14, 1972, outlined a series of YIP sponsored functions agreed to at the Madison "Pre-Conference" to be held over the next six months for purpose of gaining support for the Miami action. Two of these functions, for Washington, D.C., were identified as July 1-3, 1972, "National Tribal Conference," and July 4, 1972, "Third Annual Reefer Smoke-In" and "Anti-CIA-Heroin" march.)

Second source advised on May 1, 1972, that the above activities planned for Washington, D.C., have been cancelled and re-scheduled for Miami. The Miami actions are to be called the "Youth International Party National Congress," for May 26-28, 1972, and the "Third Annual Independence Day Smoke-In," for July 9, 1972.

The purpose of the National Congress Meeting, it is assumed by source, will be to bring together YIP leaders from throughout the country for high-level discussions to outline specific tactics to be used during the YIP Convention.

Second source furnished a flyer captioned, "YIP Confab, May 26-28," which he said was being distributed in Madison. This flyer, in part, advises as follows:

"The '72 Youth International Party national congress has now been finally set for the weekend of May 26-28 in Miami. The Center for Dialogue, a youth community service institution, has been secured as a meeting place.

"..."

"The opening tokedown session will be Friday evening, May 26. The center is located at 2175 N.W. 26 St. in Miami.

A Zippie office will be opening in Miami shortly after Mayday. People interested in moving to Miami to work on convention preparations are especially encouraged to come to the May meeting to check the situation out.

Operation Snowplow, a Miami community service coalition, has formed to prepare for the major legal and physical needs of the 'non-delegates' planning to come to Miami. Snowplow operates from the Center for Dialogue. They can be contacted at (305) 634-8931 or (305) 634-7741."

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION - JULY, 1972, MIAMI, FLORIDA

Second source furnished other literature which speaks about the YIP plans for Miami and which is being distributed in the Madison area. Regarding activities discussed by YIP for the convention, the following is noted:

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION - JULY, 1972, MIAMI, FLORIDA

Friends, this party is not without cost - it'll take some bread. Everyone will be asked to donate $10 for which will be issued a ZIPPIE button, a ZIPPIE poster, and a ZIPPIE tee shirt (which will serve as your ticket of admission).

Some of the events are as follows:

Underground film screenings. Classics from Europe and America.

Videotape showings. Continous experiments and TV shows from all over.

Record party hop. Make it or break it. Thousands of discs will spin and the crowd will turn thumbs up or down. Each person gets a turn with the sledge hammer. (Featuring recent releases from the record industry.)

Pajama party. Every night.

Poetry readings.

Music. Yes, the inevitable rock bands will be there, but since many of us will puke if we hear any more rock, there will also be honky tonk, Dixieland, opera, rags, jazz, country, bop and rebop, classical, bluegrass, red grass, gold grass, sufi dancing, gypsy violinists, etc., all live!

Super slide. 20 greased feet into a plastic pool filled with jello. All flavors.

Kissing booth. Male and female, gay and straight. Upon special request, dogs, sheep, and chickens will be available.

Pie time. Five hundred whipped cream pies and a yen for revenge.

Freek show. Freeks will be judged by categories. Red hair, tall, short, most ugly, loudest mouth, etc.

There will be no workshops, only playshops - humor playshop, joke playshop, stoned playshop, foreplay shop, etc.

There is more to be announced.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION - JULY, 1972, MIAMI, FLORIDA

Regarding current activity in Miami for setting up the YIP Convention, the following is noted:

"Things look good in Miami. An organization called Miami Snowplow has been set up to provide food, legal, medical, communications, housing, and other such help to the Zippies and their cohorts who will be coming to the Unconvention Party. Miami Snowplow has about a half-dozen people on the staff.

"..."

"The Miami Snowplow people are working on the necessary permits as well, and we'll be giving progress reports in future issues of ZIPPIE! So far, it looks like there will be no problem. Miami doesn't want to ruin its image as a tourist town. They don't want a Chicago image."

The literature furnished by second source advised that should YIP Chapters need bands to play for pre-Miami benefits, the New York bands of Teenage Lust; David Peel & the Lower East Side; and, Evil are available. These bands can be reserved by contacting New York City Telephone No. 212-242-3888.

b6

First source advised on May 4, 1972, he has learned Jerry Rubin came to Madison after being contacted by [redacted] told Rubin that he could not invite him "officially"; however, he said there were many people in Madison who would like to talk to Rubin.

Source said he is not able to give a current evaluation as to who, (Forcade or Rubin), is winning in their fight for control of YIP leadership. It is possible that Beal may "takeover" leadership of YIP if the others "knock each other off." [redacted] is a self-proclaimed YIP theoretician and organizer and claims to have many contacts among rank and file movement people.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

b6
b7C

As an example of the factionalism between Rubin and Forcade, source learned that during the evening hours of May 3, 1972, Forcade, [redacted] and an associate by the first name of [redacted] went to Rubin's apartment, (156 Prince Street, Apartment D, New York City), and confronted Rubin. They accused Rubin of stealing the manuscript to be a book that Beal was writing. Rubin, who had been given the manuscript when in Madison by [redacted] for the purpose of proofreading, in order to avoid the conflict with Forcade and his associates turned it over to them.

Several windows in Rubin's apartment were broken by Forcade and his associates during the confrontation.

Second source advised on May 4, 1972, that [redacted] referred to above, is [redacted].

First source and second source advised on May 8, 1972, that none of the individuals active in Wisconsin YIP have yet committed themselves in going to Miami to participate in YIP activities there. It is felt that decisions in this regard will not be made until several weeks before the YIP Convention. People, if any, going to the YIP National Congress will probably not show their intentions until a week or so before this event.

The YIP "Pre-Conference," held at Madison, 1/7-9/72, outlined a series of YIP sponsored functions to be held over the next six months. Two of these functions, scheduled for Washington, D.C., were identified as the July 1-3, 1972, "National Tribal Conference," and the July 4, 1972, "Third Annual Reefer Smoke-In," and the "Anti-CIA-Heroin" march.

Recipient offices were furnished an LHM by Milwaukee regarding the "Pre-Conference" identifying individuals who attended and pertinent decisions that resulted regarding plans for the YIP National Convention to be held to coincide with the Democratic Presidential Nominating Convention in Miami.

It is noted that the above Washington, D.C. activities have been cancelled and re-scheduled for Miami. The Miami actions are to be called the "Youth International Party National Congress," May 26-28, 1972, and the "Third Annual Independence Day Smoke-In," 7/9/72.

Both Miami and WFO should advise local law enforcement authorities of the above re-scheduling of events for their respective areas.

Milwaukee will follow YIP activities planned by Wisconsin YIP activists and insure that the Bureau and interested governmental agencies are advised on a timely basis of pertinent information ascertained.

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960's functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From a stance of "participatory democracy," the SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position. It maintained a national office at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, until February, 1970. Internal factionalism during 1969 produced three main factions: Weatherman, Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), and Worker Student Alliance (WSA). The Weatherman and RYM no longer consider themselves associated with the SDS. The WSA faction continues to use the name SDS.

WSA, a faction of SDS, was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically

II. March to Boston University
Boston, Massachusetts

At 1:00 p.m. on March 30, 1972, about six hundred people participated in a march to Boston University (BU) to demand the resignation of President John Silber and to support thirty-three students who were arrested on March 27, 1972, during a demonstration against Marine Corps recruitment on that campus. [redacted] from H-R SDS led the march. After picketing around the office of the President, the demonstration broke up with no incidents or arrests.

The march to BU included representatives from the Spartacist League (SPL), Revolutionary Communist Youth (RCY), Youth Against War and Fascism (YAWF), PLP, and SDS.

BS T-8
March 30, 1972

The SPL was founded in 1964 by former members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). The objective of SPL is to destroy the capitalist system and create a working-class system.

The SWP has been designated pursuent to Executive Order 10450.

RCY is the youth affiliate of the SPL. It was formerly known as the Revolutionary Marxist Caucus.

YAWF is the youth group of the Workers World Party (WWP).

The WWP was founded in 1959 by individuals who disagreed with policies of SWP. The WWP dissidents advocate unconditional support of the Soviet Union and the building of a revolutionary party geared to the overthrow of capitalism. More recently, the WWP has called for peaceful solutions to Sino-Soviet border disputes; however, the WWP generally supports the Peoples Republic of China in its ideological differences with the Soviet Union.

III. Opening Meeting

There were approximately 1,800 persons present for the preliminary plenary session of the SDS National Convention. The chairman was a Negro whose identity was not determined.

Banners were observed from Walla Walla, Washington; Vancouver, British Columbia; London, Ontario; Toronto, Canada; San Diego, California; and Puerto Rico. Martie Riefe, SDS National Secretary; K. K. Washington from Minnesota; and a Puerto Rican SDS member spoke during the course of the evening. All denounced Harvard Professor Richard Herrnstein as a racist and H-R University as a racist institution. Literature tables were set up in Austin Hall and pamphlets were handed out for the following groups: National Caucus of Labor Committees, University Action Group (UAG), YAWF, SPL, RCY, PLP, and SDS.

A leaflet concerning the planning of a demonstration to be sponsored by SDS/WSA and by the UAG in Washington, D. C., on August 21, 1971, described UAG as follows: "An organization of graduate students and faculty which allies with workers to fight against racism, imperialist wars and lay-offs, particularly on university campuses."

Esther John chaired the opening meeting of the convention. Kathy Moos read a resolution that the press be admitted to the convention. Chester Lee made an announcement about resolutions. A representative of the George Jackson faction of the Black Panther Party (BPP) from Roxbury, Massachusetts, spoke in favor of separatism and black nationalism.

The BPP is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

Eddie Egelman from Boston PLP spoke regarding the BU demonstration and arrests on March 27, 1972. K. K. Washington spoke regarding the action against Herrnstein in Iowa and the necessity for revolution. Claire King advised during a speech that the Hermstein issue should not be permitted to die and demanded that H-R give up their interests in Gulf Oil in Angola. A representative from the Canadian Party of Labor also spoke.

Martie Riefe then gave her National Secretary's report. She advised that she was now the "International Secretary" since SDS had opened chapters in Canada. Others who spoke included Professor Hilary Putnam, H-R University; Debbie Taylor; Jared Israel; and two employees of General Electric (GE) in Lynn, Massachusetts--Charlie Murray and Kevin Moore (or Mahr). The PLP controlled the meeting, and they were not afraid to show it. The individuals who appeared to be in control, making the decisions, and being the most worried when opposing ideas were being expressed were Jared Israel, Hilary Putnam, Ira Helfand, Jon Campbell, Leslie Davidson, Eddie Egelman, and Ginger Neaher.

At 11:00 a.m. on March 31, 1972, workshops were assigned to various individuals but did not get under way until after a demonstration at the John F. Kennedy Building. The workshops were basically discussion groups dealing with one general topic and usually lasted two to three hours. Each workshop was responsible for writing resolutions for presentation to the general assembly (plenary session) if those in the workshops felt the discussion and the topic warranted such action. The workshop entitled "The Republican Convention in San Diego and What We Can Do About It" met for two hours. Seventy people were present and the gathering was chaired by Donna Borie of San Diego. III. Plenary Session

The afternoon of March 31, 1972, was divided into two panel discussions on general topics followed by a main plenary session. A member of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) from San Francisco, California, spoke of the Billy Smith case. Smith is charged with "fragging" a lieutenant in Vietnam. The SDS crowd cheered repeatedly as the VVAW member described the fragging and the burning of buildings at Fort Ord, California. The group from San Francisco vowed to continue the pressure until Smith is freed. John Hess of Boston SDS spoke briefly concerning the automated battlefield in Vietnam.

The VVAW is a veterans' organization with a national office at 25 West 26th Street, New York, New York. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and the withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina." VVAW has participated in several demonstrations including a massive demonstration in Washington, D. C., during the period April 19-23, 1971.

The plenary scheduled for 3:00 p.m. was delayed an hour and commenced at 4:00 p.m. in Sanders Theater on the H-R campus. Several people spoke, including a Vietnam veteran against the war concerning Billy Dean Smith, who is being court-martialed and charged with the murder of an Army lieutenant in Vietnam. Bill Schabus, Toronto SDS, spoke concerning the planned demonstration against President Nixon by Canadian SDS members when he visits Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau. Schabus said: "We're going to give him the welcome he should have gotten in Peking."

On the afternoon of Friday, March 31, 1972, the convention held a plenary session attended by approximately one thousand persons. The session consisted of two panel discussions: the first "How to Build the Worker-Student Alliance" and the second "How to Build International Solidarity." During the "Worker-Student Alliance" panel discussion, a white welfare worker from Chicago spoke and discussed the need for SDS to organize and work with workers, students, and welfare mothers. During the discussion on "International Solidarity," Gino Faella, a Vietnam veteran against the war from Boston, spoke and advised he was one of a group coming to trial on April 3, 1972, to face charges relating to protest activities at a draft board in Dorchester, Massachusetts. He requested support from all in attendance at his trial. Alley Shalli (phonetic) also spoke. He expressed his thanks for the crowd at the John F. Kennedy Building supporting the Ethiopian student earlier in the day. He urged all to attend planned demonstrations at Ethopian Consulates across the country.

A VVAW member identified only as Scott from California spoke and asked for money and support for Billy Dean Smith, a soldier charged with murder in Vietnam. Bill Shabus, Toronto SDS, spoke concerning the planned demonstrations against President Nixon's visit to Canada. At this point, a group of forty to fifty individuals began interrupting the proceedings calling for panel discussions to be discontinued and that a full plenary session be held so that the resolutions could be presented and discussed by the entire assembly. The groups later identified as participating in these interruptions were the SPL, the National Caucus of Labor Committees, and the RCY.

IV. PLP Forum

After the plenary sessions on the afternoon of March 31, 1972, people broke for dinner and met one-half hour later for a forum presented by the PLP. Six hundred people attended the forum which lasted for four hours. The forum was called to introduce PLP members to the audience and answer questions people might have regarding PLP. Items discussed were the need for revolution, what is gained by socialism, why racism is reactionary, and the need for international struggle.

After all resolutions were written in the various workshops, the general assembly met at Sanders Auditorium to vote on all resolutions. The resolutions were divided into four groups: racism, anti-imperialism, prison reform, and general strategy. At least twenty of the resolutions presented dealt with racism. Most resolutions passed without problems. At this point, the National Caucus of Labor Committees presented a proposal calling for an alliance with SDS. It also stated that PLP was leading SDS to the right and was becoming a liberal organization. Minor arguments broke when the resolution unanimously failed and the National Caucus of Labor Committees marched out of the convention chanting "Fight Socialism, Smash Liberalism" while the rest of the convention applauded their departure.

At 10:30 a.m., a plenary session was held at Sanders Theater. Many resolutions read the day before were read again and passed unanimously without debate. It was announced that the West Coast people still need $1,000 for their return airplane fare. Contributions were requested from all in attendance. The debate on the SDS constitution was held, and the rough draft was approved. Officers were elected, and it was voted to move the National Headquarters (NH) of SDS to Boston, Massachusetts.

Two individuals carrying signs in support of the Jewish Defense League (JDL) appeared at the final plenary session and were physically attacked and roughed-up by SDS members who were shouting "JDL Go to Hell." The JDL, founded in 1968, is composed primarily of young Jewish militants who consider themselves as defenders of "Jewish rights." Demonstrations attempting to dramatize the Jewish problem in Russia and similar demonstrations against Arab establishments have often resulted in violence. Rabbi Meir Kahane, founder and national director, has stated publicly on many occasions that violence is sometimes necessary to accomplish the aims of JDL.

It started out with about nine hundred people present; but by 12:00 noon, there were only 750 and by 2:00 p.m., only five hundred people were in attendance. It was during this meeting that the following resolutions were proposed and passed:

1. An end to psychosurgery and its uses.

2. To plan a strategy for the 1972 political elections.

3. To fight ROTC (Reserve Officers' Training Corps) and military recruiters.

4. To fight the ideas of Herrnstein, Shockly, and Jensen.

5. To fight preferential hiring.

6. To support May Day and fight for thirty hours' work for forty hours' pay.

7. To fight the racist beast at Willowbrook (Krugman).

8. To fight the United States Government which plans and supports racism.

By 2:00 p.m., the meeting was still going on; but a bomb threat forced the meeting from Memorial Hall to Lowell Lecture Hall across the street. It was in Lowell Lecture Hall that the election of officers took place. The chairman of the final plenary was Greg Pilton (phonetic). It was voted to move the NH from Chicago to Boston effective immediately. The following were voted to positions of National Secretaries of SDS:

Literature/graphics; high priority-each region to send in ideas/designs for buttons, stickers and posters-tobe in state ofc. by April 23rd. However once again the Republican convention move could entirely change the focus of slogans, designs, etc. 3 pt. program/CAP's are still available at $5 per 1000. The Tampa collective has come up with an alternate proposal about an informational leaflet talking about FPC, who we are what we're about-condensing the analysis prologuing the 3 pt./CAP and begin with the info about FrC--this way the blank page is used up, we save money and get both messages out at once. Let us know immediately how your area responds to this.
Media: need people to cover actions prior to and during the convention-all those interested in media or those who have an abundance of supplies and are willing to share them, contact: John Buckley 122 S. Franklin Blvd. Tallahassee (904) 224-4243.
Research materials: a call for sharing of names of research materials through newsletters-the air war packets are excellent as reference material especially for informational leaflets and graphics-we'll be placing an order soon so let us know if your area needs some($1.15 each if bulk)
Women's Caucus: decision concerning the site and date still under consideration-meanwhile send names of individuals and groups in your area and throughout the state who would be interested in participating to: Barn, Pat, Barbara, Helen... 610 W. Pensacola Tallahassee. The conference would be to establish a communication network and to plan for a women's plank of demands/needs to present at the Demo Convention.
Quincy 5-Malcomb X Front: Both need money immediately for defense/bail. For more info write to either Tallahassee address included above. One possibility for raising money might be through honorariums for speakers for the Quincy 5, for example.

It was requested that future meetings be held in Tampa(central location) except as the Convention time nears the meetings would be in Miami.

Also the weekend of the 15th, an emergency anti-war demonstration took place in Wash., D.C.; the following day's agenda included a national anti-war conference with workshops which included both conventions, Anti-war Union, 3 pt.program, Moratorium... A sense of urgency enveloped the entire week-end--everyone felt the level of activity in Indochina was at an all-time high, the consensus being that everyone must in whatever way possible in as continuous manner as possible respond to what's happening.

A nation-wide moratorium was called for May 4th. Instead of people converging on Wash., D.C., it was proposed that citizens gather at a major Federal bldg. or installation in their cities from 12noon to 1 p.m..(there might be a focus on an INS ofc., Air Force recruitment station, war materials producer, etc.) It should be made clear that the peoples of Indochina are not our enemies, that the U.S. people don't support this war, that our government must immediatedly re-enter the Paris Peace talks, stop all bombing, set a date for early withdrawal of all American military personnel from S.E. Asia and end support of dictatorships. The noon hour meetings will be orderly, peaceful and legal taking various forms(rallies, vigils, telegrams, etc.) More info can be gotten from: the Mayday Moratorium Committee 1808 Wyoming Ave. NW Washington, D.C. 20036 (202) 785-1535.

We in Tampa will be receiving small amounts of posters and other literature from this office--we'll send it out asap. We'll also be sending out copies of University Review to regional centers and to individuals requesting copies...the paper includes articles on FrC and the San Diego Conv. Coalition, the Anti-war Union, 3 pt. program/Car and its use, Nixon's vietnamization program and its failure.

The National Student Association has called for another strike on April 28th--if you don't feel there is a potential for a strike at your school, business or whatever plan for other activities--teach-ins, vigils, rallies, guerilla theater, etc.

Everything we do now must thought of in a new context if the Republican Convention move materializes--a telegram has been sent to San Diego Conv. Cltn. inviting them and others to Miami for the summer-The people in San Diego view the possible change as a victory for the people; energy is higher than ever--by combining our energy we can create one of the clearest and most powerful statements possible at both Conventions.

As we join together we make a powerful fist.

In struggle,

for Tampa Collective/F

Telegram to SDCC:

Sisters and Brothers,

Just as Vietnamization failed in Indochina, Nixon's domestic pacification has failed in San Diego. The Republican Convention move must be seen as a victory over the government and a party that would deceive and forcibly control the world.

The opportunity exists to confront both parties with the strongest possible demands to stop the war and solve pressing problems at home. We invite the San Diego Convention Coalition and all peoples who seek peace and justice to come to Miami for a summer of struggle.

With love and solicarity

Dear folks,

With things changing so rapidly from day to day, it's difficult to write an up to date newsletter--because of the immediacy of much that is happening, quite often telephone calls to FPC regional offices play a large part in communication. A great deal of this information is never filtered out to other key contacts as well as those on a general mailing list. Regional newsletters as well as more frequent local communications would increase the spread of news. Because of rapidly changing needs/events we'll talk briefly about happenings since the last newsletter and instead willfocus on things to be done.

A FPC state coordinating meeting took place on April 15/16 in Tallahassee with the regions of Tallahassee, Miami and Tampa represented. Topics discussed and decisions made/postponed were as follows:
Organizational structure: discussion carried over from last coordinating meeting-included membership/dues, outreach to individuals/groups, FPC chapters, ongoing coalitions and those specifically related to the convention-decision: each region would meet, consider proposals and alternatives, then would send concrete regional proposal to state ofc. no later than April 26th--these would be compiled and sent out for approval.
Finances: desperate need for money locally and state-wide-suggestions for fund-raising included: state convention fund drive, various special interest groups including Citizens' Committees(remember to send in names from each region for a state-wide mailing list), from individuals, benefits including cultural events, tables with literature/graphics, slide showings, 3 pt.programs/C.U. donations, films, etc. Materials(paper, stencils, stamps, mimeo) needed, too. A breakdown of financial needs(ongoing and specific) was requested--we're holding off on a complete monetary breakdown now as we feel the possible Convention move could drastically alter the itemization. Meanwhile, here are some of the money needs-state ofc. in Tampa(including phone), convention ofc.(house) in Miami(phone rent, subsistence funds to full-time workers), literature and graphics(informational leaflets, buttons, stickers, posters, etc.), research materials, traveling expenses, conference/convention expenses and soforth.
Miami Beach Demo Convention: legal, non-violent demonstrations centering on 2 days(massive actions) but with smaller educational activities throughout the week-felt when speaking of demonstrations, emphasis should be placed on make-up of Miami, for example large well organized and mobile reactionary Cuban population. With the possibility of the Republican Convention move, the entire focus could change--perhaps to a "come to stay" idea.

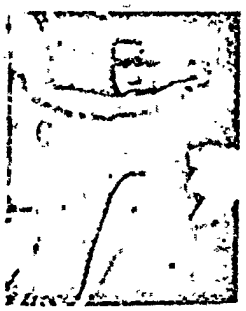
EMERGENCY NATIONWIDE MORATORIUM

MAY 4



PRESIDENT NIXON HAS CREATED A NATIONAL EMERGENCY

Reacting to the collapse of his "Vietnamization" policy, President Nixon has resorted to obliteration bombing of parts of South Vietnam and reckless attacks on the North Vietnamese cities of Hanoi and Haiphong.

In response to this emergency, we join in calling an EMERGENCY NATIONWIDE MORATORIUM DAY for Thursday, May 4th.

We urge that all Americans who are appalled and angered by our government's conduct in Indochina gather on May 4th, from noon to 1:00 p.m. at a major Federal building or installation in their own town or city. These gatherings might focus on such targets as local IRS offices, Air Force recruitment stations, Congressional home offices, induction centers, or major Air War military contractors.

All of these gatherings will be peaceful and legal meetings. They might take such varied forms as rallies, silent vigils or prayer meetings. In addition, we expect that local groups will sponsor other meetings, demonstrations, and acts of conscience during the rest of the day and evening of May 4th. We ask that all of them reflect our commitment to nonviolence.

The EMERGENCY NATIONWIDE MORATORIUM will demand that the President and Congress act to end the war. This can be done at once if the United States will:

1. Stop all bombing throughout Indochina;
2. Set a specific date for the early withdrawal of all American forces from Indochina;
3. End all American support and economic aid for the Thieu government;
4. Return to the Paris Peace Talks.

The President can do these things at once. But he shows no signs of wanting to do so, and will not act unless an overwhelming statement by the American people demands it.

The Congress could also do these things by cutting off all money for carrying on the war, as pending legislation such as the Gravel/Drinan Bills (S.3049 / H.R.14055), is designed to do. But Congress also needs a clear, unequivocal statement of the public will. To this end we would welcome the continuous presence of committed Americans on Capitol Hill and in the home offices of all Senators and Rrepresentatives, beginning May 5th.

In the spirit of the first MORATORIUM of October 15, 1969, we are saying NO BUSINESS AS USUAL so long as the war continues. We hope that students, workers, soldiers, churches and synagogues, businessmen a and professionals, will stop their ordinary pursuits to take up the first business of an American citizen --- how to end America's war in Indochina!

EMERGENCY NATIONWIDE MAY 4 MORATORIUM
1404 M STREET N.W. / WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005 / (202) 785-1535

April 20, 1972

CALL FOR AN EMERGENCY NATIONWIDE MORATORIUM MAY 4

There is now a national emergency in the United States. It has been precipitated by President Nixon's re-escalation of the American attacks on North and South Vietnam. Mr. Nixon, in response to the collapse of his "Vietnamization" policy, has resorted to obliteration bombing of parts of South Vietnam and attacks on the cities and civilians of North Vietnam. He has done so without regard to international law, the constitutional authority of Congress, and the clear will of the American people. He has thus created a crisis of moral collapse, a crisis of political recklessness, a crisis of military absurdity.

In response to this emergency created by the President, we join in calling an Emergency Nationwide Moratorium Day for May 4. We urge that all Americans who are appalled and angered by our government's behavior in Indochina should gather on May 4, from Noon to 1 PM at a major Federal building or installation in their own town or city. These gatherings might focus on the local IRS office, Air Force recruitment station, Congressional home offices, induction centers, a major Air War military contractor, etc.

All of these gatherings will be peaceful and legal expressions of the will of the great majority of Americans to end the Indochina war at once. Depending on the desires of the people of each community, they might take such varied forms as rallies, silent vigils, prayer meetings, etc.

In addition to the noon-time gatherings, we expect that local groups will sponsor other meetings, actions, and demonstrations during the rest of the day and evening of May 4. We ask that all of them reflect our commitment to nonviolence. In the spirit of the First Moratorium of October 15, 1969, we are saying no business as usual so long as this war continues. We hope that students, workers, soldiers, churches and synagogues, businessmen, professionals, will stop their ordinary pursuits to take up the first business of an American Citizen: how to end the Indochina War. These discussions should work out plans for the next few months: May 4 is a new beginning, not an end.

The Emergency Moratorium will demand of the President and of Congress that they act to end the war. This can be done at once if the U.S. will

1- Stop all bombing throughout Indochina;
2- Set a specific date for the early withdrawal of all American forces from Indochina;
3- End all American support for the Thieu government in Saigon, accomplishing a true vietnamization in which the Vietnamese people make their own decisions about their future;
4- Return to the Paris Peace Talks.

The President can do these things at once. But he shows no signs of wanting to do so, and will not act unless an overwhelming statement by the American people demands it. The Congress could also do these things by cutting off all money for carrying on the war, as a number of bills - for example, the Gravel-Mondale/Drinan Bills, S. 3409/H.R. 14055 - would do. But Congress also needs a clear, unequivocal statement of the public will.

This bill, or one like it, could be passed by June 1, and would then end the war by July 1, if the people of the United States made known to Congress in an absolutely unmistakable way their intention to have it passed. To this end we would welcome the continuous presence of committed Americans on Capitol Hill and in the home offices of all Senators and Congressmen.

Judge FULTON stated he had called the meeting to discuss possible problems that might arise during the two coming National Conventions. His main concern was the security of the Main Post Office Building in which the Federal Courtrooms and Chambers are located. He engaged in a lengthy discussion with Postal Inspectors, US Marshals and Security Guards regarding security of the Main Post Office Building and methods that could be used to sereen individuals coming into the building. This discussion assumed about 90 per cent of the meeting. Judge FULTON then asked if it was anticipated that there would be any great increase of court cases during the Conventions. US Attorney ROBERT RUST and Magistrate MICHAEL J. OSMAN, who was also present at the meeting, stated they did not anticipate any problems inasmuch as the great majority of expected violations would be of a local nature.

Judge FULTON thanked all present for their cooperation. He was advised that SAC WHITTAKER was conducting a law enforcement conference at the same time as the meeting and could not be present. He stated he appreciated this fact and thanked us for our participation.

Dear Mr. Whittaker:

The Organized Crime Bureau of the Public Safety Department is currently involved in gathering and disseminating intelligence information regarding the up-coming political conventions to be held in the City of Miami Beach.

We understand that your bureau submits a weekly report to Chief R. Pomerance, City of Miami Beach, concerning intelligence gathered by your agents. Although Chief Pomerance has been named as the coordinator for security activities at the conventions, it should be noted that as Public Safety Department Director, I am entrusted with the constitutional responsibility as Chief Law Enforcement Officer of Dade County.

It is felt that if disturbances do arise in conjunction with the conventions, they will not be restricted to the corporate limits of the City of Miami Beach but that the bulk of activities will occur in other areas of the county. Consequently, it is requested that the Federal Bureau of Investigation furnish us with the information contained

Task force named for 2 conventions

By RICK EYERDAM
Miami News Reporter

Gov. Reubin Askew today announced a 19-member Dade County Community Coordinating Task Force for the Democratic and Republican national conventions to be held at Miami Beach this summer.

Earnie Seiler, executive vice president of the Orange Bowl Committee, was named chairman of the group, which will represent all racial and political elements involved in the preparations for the conventions.

The other members are Alvah Chapman Jr., president of The Miami Herald; Rep. Gwenn Cherry; Herbert Cunningham, a student at Miami-Dade Junior College; Joyce Diffenderfer, a past president of the League of Women Voters; Harry Douglas, deputy secretary of the State Department of Community Affairs; Lester Freeman, executive vice president of the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce; Jorge Luiz Fernandez, publisher of the Spanish-language newspaper Regresso; the Rev. Theodore Gibson, a Miami city commissioner.

The Rev. Edward Graham, a Metro commissioner; Barbara Golden, a Miami student at the University of Virginia; Dr. Leonard Haber, a Miami Beach city councilman; Jay Janis, chairman of the Community Relations Board; Jim McKillups, Metro commissioner; Sylvan Meyer, editor of The Miami News; and Dr. Joseph Poitier, a local pharmacist.

Also, Athalie Range, secretary of the Department of Community Affairs; Julius Shepard, manager of the Dupont Plaza Hotel, and Hal Spaet, a representative of the Miami Snowplow Company, a coalition making arrangements for convention "non-delegates."

The first meeting of the committee will be announced in a couple of days, Askew said.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
JULY, 1972

DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION
AUGUST, 1972

I. ORGANIZATIONS PLANNING PROTEST DEMONSTRATIONS

A. YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely-knit, anti-Establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968. The Zeigtgeist International Party (Zippies) is the political wing of the YIP.

YIP activist JERRY RUBIN spoke at an anti-war rally held in the park in front of the State Building, Morristown, New Jersey, on April 21, 1972. In his speech he discussed the Democratic and Republican Conventions to be held this summer at Miami Beach, Florida, and he urged everyone present to come to the conventions and participate in the protest activities. He said if someone other than Senator GEORGE MC GOVERN is nominated or if President NIXON is renominated, "We will dump the convention into the sea and use other methods than the electoral process to change the U.S.A." He said some people in the movement fear that the actions at the conventions will turn into a "Woodstock" where people will be using drugs and not thinking seriously about politics. He said a "Woodstock" is good as long as there are masses of people.

MM T-1
April 28, 1972

YIP activist ABBIE HOFFMAN on May 11, 1972, at Detroit, Michigan, held a press conference. He said he was en route to Florida where he would launch plans for demonstrations to be held at the political conventions similar to those held in Chicago in 1968.

MM T-2
May 11, 1972

ABBIE HOFFMAN and JERRY CLYDE RUBIN, on February 18, 1970, were found guilty of Antiriot Law violations that arose from activities during the Democratic National Convention, Chicago, Illinois, August, 1968. Pending an appeal, they were released on bond by the U. S. Court of Appeals, Chicago.

YIP activities originally planned for Washington, D. C. were canceled and rescheduled for Miami, Florida. The rescheduled actions, designed to gain support for YIP activities to coincide with the Democratic and Republican National Conventions, are as follows:

1. May 26-28, 1972 - YIP "National Congress", Center for Dialogue, 2175 N. W. 26th Street, Miami, Florida.

2. July 9, 1972 - YIP "Third Annual Independence Day Smoke-In".

On the following day, May 13, 1972, the above YIP activists visited the Miami Beach Convention Hall, scene of the forthcoming conventions, and inspected local parks and golf courses in the Miami Beach area for use as possible camp sites.

(U) MM T-5
May 13, 1972

STEWART ALBERT is one of the original founders of YIP in 1968 and is a long-time associate of JERRY RUBIN.

On May 15, 1972, ABBIE HOFFMAN, JERRY RUBIN and STEWART ALBERT, identifying themselves as national YIP representatives, met with officials of the Miami Beach Police Department. They expressed a desire for peaceful conventions and requested the use of the Bayshore Golf Course, Miami Beach, as a camp site. They indicated the Yippies will stage a ten-day festival during the convention period.

B. FLORIDA PEOPLE'S PLATFORM COALITION (FPPC)

FPPC, also known as the Florida People's Coalition (FPC), is a statewide organization established as a pressure group to demonstrate at the Democratic National Convention in Miami Beach, Florida, July, 1972.

The FPPC held a statewide meeting, May 5 and 6, 1972, at the University of South Florida, Tampa, Florida. Demonstrations, to take place at the forthcoming Democratic and Republican conventions in Miami Beach, were discussed. It was agreed they should focus on the Republican rather than the Democratic convention.

[redacted] gave the impression he was at odds with [redacted] the Anti-War Union and the Indochina Information Center. [redacted] fears [redacted] and the national groups will gain control.

At the meeting a program was stressed calling for (1) An end to all air, naval and ground operations in Indochina within 24 hours of the inauguration of the President; (2) Withdrawal of all United States personnel from Indochina by April 23, 1973, based on release of prisoners of war and guarantee of safe exit of American personnel; and (3) Announcement on Inauguration Day of end of financing to any Saigon Government whose political prisoners are in jail and who denies its people basic rights.

It was also decided that Democratic National Convention activity should be "low key" to prevent backlash from community people and from police, considered harmful to Republican National Convention actions.

It was decided that during the interim between conventions, intensive planning should be made, based on the outcome of the Democratic National Convention, experience learned, and goals obtained. Also that local community support should be developed by furnishing information to the community of FPPC plans at the Republican National Convention.

It was also decided that activities at the Republican National Convention should be designed to show rage and reasons for this rage. The FPPC feels the media at the Democratic National Convention will focus on the convention and the confrontation between candidates HUMPHREY and MC GOVERN. However, at the Republican National Convention President NIXON is considered a "shoo-in" and thus the media will turn to the demonstrations outside the Convention Hall. The FPPC plans massive publicity on the current administration's record, both foreign and domestic, by means of street demonstrations and coordination of underground media publications. A massive rally will be planned in the Miami area prior to the Republican National Convention to present feelings of a united front among the demonstrators. It was also decided the FPPC would consider condoning civil disobedience and "May Day tactics" at the Republican National Convention inasmuch as civil disobedience better expresses their outrage at President NIXON's policies.

An FPPC office is being established at 805 Fifth Street, Miami Beach, Florida. (U)

D. SAN DIEGO CONVENTION COALITION (SDCC)

The SDCC is a group comprised of representatives of various radical organizations in San Diego which was formed for active opposition to the United States Government through "serious, determined, and longterm social upheaval".

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The SDCC has for all practical purposes discontinued its operations at San Diego. At a meeting on May 6, 1972, it was decided that none of the funds of this group would be allocated for organizational activities in Miami Beach. As of this time there is no indication of any mass movement of people from San Diego to Miami Beach for the Republican National Convention, and it appears that no more than about 20 of the active participants in SDCC will relocate to Miami Beach. SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From a stance of "participatory democracy", the SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position. It maintained a national office at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, until February, 1970. Internal factionalism during 1969 produced three main factions: Weatherman, Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), and Worker Student Alliance (WSA). The Weatherman and RYM no longer consider themselves associated with the SDS. The WSA faction continues to use the name SDS.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

WSA, a faction of SDS, was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and, in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois, where it opened the SDS National Office at 1225 South Wabash Street.

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and Mao Tse-tung thought.

E. VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

The VVAW is a national veterans organization with a national clearinghouse located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina".

The VVAW National Steering Committee will meet sometime in July at Gainesville, Florida, rather than Milwaukee, Wisconsin, as previously announced. After the meeting, those in attendance will proceed to the Miami, Florida, area for the Democratic and Republican National Conventions.

F. NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO)

The NWRO is a civil rights group headquartered in Washington, D. C., which has sponsored protest marches and demonstrations in the past resulting in the arrest of members and leaders.

The NWRO is planning its annual conference at Miami Beach from July 5 through July 9, 1972. The conference is expected to attract twelve hundred welfare recipients from all over the nation. One of the objectives of the conference, according to [redacted] who recently arrived in Miami to coordinate arrangements, is to "use the physical presence of poor poeple on the Beach to challenge the Democratic leadership from the exclusion of poor people from the political process". In addition, NWRO hopes to promote what they call the "Poor People's Platform" as part of the Democratic platform through

H. BLACK PANTHER PARTY (BPP)

The BPP is a black extremist organization started at Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

A representative of the BPP during a recent trip to New York City obtained an estimate of $75,000 to rent and operate a train for a two-week period. It was planned that this train, to consist of nine railroad cars and to be referred to as the "Freedom Train", would run from the west coast to Miami, Florida, during the period of the conventions. After obtaining the above estimate, the BPP leaders decided that this plan would cost too much money and indicated the idea may be given up.

A BPP representative was scheduled to travel from New York City to Los Angeles, California, on May 6 or 7, 1972, to discuss possible BPP activities at the Republican National Convention in Miami Beach.

I. SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC)

The SCLC is a civil rights organization primarily of black membership with headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia, formerly led by the late Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING.

SCLC has scheduled a planning meeting for SCLC and other local groups in Miami on May 12-14, 1972, to work out details of a "Poor People's Convention" to be held at the same time as the Democratic National Convention at Miami Beach. SCLC efforts will be entirely peaceful and not directed at causing violent demonstrations. Further details concerning this activity are not available at this time.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION (80-1353)
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION (80-1374)

ReBucalls, 5/17/72, to Radio Engineering Section and Domestic Intelligence Division, concerning additional equipment needed.

As the Bureau is aware, the DNC is scheduled at Miami Beach from 7/10 - 14, 1972, and the RNC at Miami Beach from August 21 - 23, 1972.

The following additional requests are made of the Bureau in order to adequately handle both Conventions so far as communications equipment is concerned:

(1) Radio Engineering Section install two STS terminals in the present Miami crypto vault as a permanent installation. There are at present no definite approved plans to provide any other STS space within the present office.

(2) Radio Engineering Section coordinate plans with Files and Communications Division, and issue orders for telephone lines and additional telephone company data equipment for two terminals to be installed prior to, or by, July 1, next. These additional lines and data sets may be removed after the Conventions.

Secure and forward to Miami all necessary teletype and crypto equipment for the two complete permanent terminals, with radio switching facilities, to be installed in the Miami vault. Shipment should include special hook-up wiring used in installations of terminals. Special wire used in AC power runs and Belden wire with Beldfoil shield is not readily available in Miami.

(3) Send to Miami a Laboratory technician to assist at the above installation, and provide a technician to be available in the Miami Office during both Convention dates, who will assist Miami techincians in solving any problems which might arise with teletype or crypto equipment.

At the completion of the Republican Convention, the Laboratory technician remain in Miami to assist in removal of the present two STS terminals in the CW radio room, as well as the proper disposition of this eqiupment.

(4) Prior to, or by, July 1, next, it is requested the Bureau set aside a separate terminal and data phone number at the SOG which will be for use of the Miami Office only, to handle all STS communications between Miami and the SOG.

(5) Bureau requested to allow Miami, during both Conventions and the period between the Conventions, to handle all outgoing teletypes to Bureau and other offices regardless of whether Nitel or urgent, at any time of day. This would spread the traffic and alleviate the problem of having a great number of nitels to handle immediately after 5:00 p.m. each day.

For the Bureau's information, this office presently has one teletype machine being used only for tape cutting. We also have one spare KWX-11 and one spare KW-7 without permutor adaptor.

Laboratory, please coordinate above suggestions with Files and Communications Division and advise Miami of the time and plans to implement.

(6) We presently have on hand 17 miniature transceivers. If available, please send ten additional, together with rechargers and ear pieces.

The Miami Office anticipates an unusual high increase in telephone traffic to the Miami Office switchboard during both the Democratic and Republican Conventions which are to be held in Miami Beach.

The Miami Office telephone trunking capabilities are now being used to capacity during peak periods of traffic. Consequently, it is expected that prior and during the conventions the current telephone facilities will not be sufficient to handle the demands.

In view of the above, the Bureau is requested to authorize the Miami Office to add the following telephone trunks to the existent system:

1) An additional attendant two-way trunk line. (Incoming and outgoing calls through operator)

2) Two combination trunk lines. (Incoming through operator and outgoing calls on a Step 9 level)

Demonstrations During the Democratic and Republican National Conventions, Miami, Florida, July and August, 1972, Sponsored by Vietnam Veterans Against the War

On May 18, 1972, a source advised that [redacted] of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW), as well as the [redacted] of VVAW, has withdrawn his offer of providing VVAW members to serve as marshals at the Miami, Florida demonstrations.

VVAW is an anti-war organization organized in 1967 and headquartered in New York City. Its published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and the withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina." VVAW has participated in several demonstrations, including massive demonstration in Washington, D. C., April 19-23, 1971.

b7C

Source advised that [redacted] and VVAW will be in Miami, Florida, in great numbers to participate and according to [redacted] they will organize into four main cells to perform acts of civil disobedience in wide spread areas of Miami. [redacted] will act as coordinator so that the groups will be spread out and no duplication of efforts will occur.

Source advised that [redacted] thinks that the fact that no cell will know what the other cell is doing will contribute to security.

CONVENTION PLANS - STAFF MEETING, 5/19/72

On 5/19/72, a staff meeting was held in the training classroom across from the Miami Beach Police Department headquarters. Following subjects discussed by persons indicated:

LEAA Assistance - [redacted] of LEAA, Washington -

[redacted] informed federal government now committed to assist, in addition to Miami Beach PD, other local, county, and state agencies performing enforcement work in connection with DNC and RNC. Funds will be channeled through the State, primarily Florida Bureau of Law Enforcement.

Meetings Between JERRY RUBIN and ABBIE HOFFMAN with Miami and Miami Beach PDs

ROCKY POMERANCE, Chief, Miami Beach PD, informed RUBIN and HOFFMAN met with him 5/15/72. They were mainly interested in looking around for place suitable as an encampment. They contemplate their encampment would begin on June 20, at present undecided point. Incidental to it there would be a "festival", whose main subjects would be "politics and culture".

Both were almost paranoid over being infiltrated by police informants. POMERANCE assured them they would not be infiltrated by the Miami Beach PD, but, of course, he could not speak for anybody else.

They were warned by POMERANCE that law enforcement generally in Dade County would not be able to protect them and their followers should they incite or aggravate the large Cuban community by display of placards of FIDEL CASTRO or "CHE" GUEVARA.

RUBIN and HOFFMAN had a tape recorder with them to record their conversations. It was speculated this was for the purpose of defense in the event they were charged in the future with conspiracy for possible anti-riot law violations.

Colonel LARRY COTZIN, Miami Beach PD - ABBIE HOFFMAN, on 5/18/72, telephoned the Miami Beach PD and requested he be permitted to have an armed body guard accompany him during his presence in this area. He was concerned over his personal safety and said he had canceled several speaking engagements since the assassination attempt upon Governor WALLACE. It was suggested that if he contemplated necessity for a body guard he (1) contact PSD and make the usual application for a license to carry a gun, or (2) that he hire an already licensed private detective to act as body guard.

Captain [redacted] Miami PD - RUBIN and HOFFMAN also contacted Miami PD re possibility of acquiring campsite in Miami proper to be used for "over-flow" from Miami Beach. b6 b7C

RUBIN displayed a poster inviting the youth culture all over the country to be present during the DNC and RNC. He said 40,000 of these posters are being distributed all over the country. RUBIN speculated he believed he could attract as many as 100,000 followers. When this figure was questioned, he pointed out a rock festival in the past has attracted this number, or more. RUBIN and HOFFMAN indicated they were desirous of having their followers here mainly during the week of the DNC, getting them away from South Florida area in the interim between the two Conventions, and then having them back for the RNC.

[redacted] said Secret Service has material available for use of any interested agency re this matter.

Stink Bombs

[redacted] said research reflects a solution of lead acetate used in conjunction with a vacuum cleaner would be effective in neutralizing. Large flow-type fans directed toward air outlets may also be effective in dissipating stench.

Secret Service Surveillance Teams

[redacted] said 50 FBLE officers, who have state arrest powers, were being supplied to work with similar number of Secret Service agents or Treasury men in the City of Miami Beach to follow the movement of demonstration groups. They will report directly to the Secret Service Command Post, and make same information available to police command post.

Federal ~~Groups~~ TROOPS - [redacted] Internal Security Division, Department of Justice, Washington, has been designated by the Attorney General to be present in Miami in connection with conventions to report to him. [redacted] said his interest is basically oriented toward estimating for the benefit of the AG, and/or the President, whether federal troops would be necessary at any time during the course of the conventions. b6 b7C

FBI Operation - Supervisor [redacted] and I gave the conference a general report covering the extent of the cooperative functions of the FBI in intelligence gather - ing and reporting to the interested agencies, as well as the current plans of several of the more important organizations which intend to be present in this area, such as the VVAW, FPPC, and Yippies.

The status of FBI investigation re thefts of arms from armories at Chipley and Lake City, were furnished.

Cuban Community - Chief POMERANCE informed he will attempt to widely disseminate in Cuban Community the fact that law enforcement does not oppose demonstrations by Cubans, as long as they are peaceful and do not result in counter demon- strations and confrontation with opposing groups.

Staff Headquarters - Chief POMERANCE advised Police Benevolent Building, 9th Street and Alton Road, Miami Beach, being prepared and will be suitable for occupancy within one week.

RE: NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO) ANNUAL CONFERENCE, MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA, JULY 5 THROUGH 9, 1972
EXTREMIST MATTERS - NWRO

DEMONSTRATION AT DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, JULY, 1972

On May 10, 1972, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, reported that the National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO) is planning an annual conference to take place on Miami Beach, Florida, July 5 through 9, 1972.

The NWRO is a civil rights group headquartered in Washington, D.C., which has sponsored protest marches and demonstrations in the past resulting in the arrest of members and leaders.

On May 12, 1972, an article appeared in the "Miami Times", a weekly Miami, Florida, newspaper published in the Liberty City section of Dade County, a predominantly Negro community, relating to the NWRO annual conference. This article, captioned "National Welfare Rights Plan Convention Here" is quoted in part as follows:

"Twelve hundred welfare recipients from all over the nation will gather on Miami Beach July 5-9 for the National Welfare Rights Organization's (NWRO) annual conference, according to WILBUR COLOM, an NWRO staff member who arrived here last week from Washington, D.C., to coordinate arrangements for the event.

RE: NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO) ANNUAL CONFERENCE, MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA

"The conference, which will end the day before the Democratic Convention begins, has two objectives says COLOM. First, it will be an educational program with over 50 workshops planned for the participants. In addition, NWRO hopes to use the physical presence of poor people on the beach to challenge the Democratic leadership for the exclusion of poor people from the political process.

"'We don't want people to come here at great expense and leave with just a whole lot of rhetoric. We want them (the participants) to take skills and knowledge back with them and that's why there will be so many substantial workshops instead of a bunch of speeches', says COLOM.

"Workshops on federal regulations for Early Screening and Diagnosis Care for children, day care, Title I regulation, Poor people and the political process, and other important issues are planned.

"These workshops will deal not only with problems and issues, but also with how local groups can implement programs, achieve results in specific areas, and organize stronger groups around immediate issues.

"According to COLOM, this is basic to the organizing approach of NWRO; 'we don't talk about some pie in the sky, but about how you can get a bigger welfare check now, how you can get a fair food stamp allotment, how you can get a fair hearing when your check gets cut off, that's what NWRO is all about-meeting the needs of the poor as much as possible here and now while we work on the longer term objectives.'

"'Poor people have always been excluded from the Democratic Party process even though the party claims to appeal to the poor,' says Mrs. GLADYS TAYLOR, a local welfare rights "'leader, and we're going to be ready for them here in Miami, we're going to let the politicians know that poor people will not be overlooked.'

"NWRO recently sponsored the 'Children: March for Survival' that brought 50,000 young people and their parents to Washington, D.C. to highlight the problems of children. There were 17 smaller simultaneous marches held in other cities across the nation in support of the Washington March. 'We're going to bring that theme to Miami with us,' says COLOM, 'children, more than others, suffers from the evils of poverty and we are not going to allow the politicians to overlook that fact.'

"According to COLOM, the convention delegate selection procedures have been reformed but they have not been reformed to assure representation of poor people. 'What you have with the democrats,' says COLOM, 'are reforms to include middle class white woman, young people and blacks. And when the democrats say they have such-and-such percentage of blacks, young people, and women, they don't bother to say that they're middle class.'

"In addition, NWRO hopes to be able to push what they call the 'Poor Peoples Platform' as part of the democratic platform with the few poor delegates and their sympathizers that will be inside the convention hall. The Poor Peoples Platform calls for the defeat of President NIXON's welfare plan and the adoption of a guaranteed annual income plan of $6500 for a family of four. The figure is considered the minimum on which a family can live decently by the Federal Bureau of Labor Statistics.

RE: NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO) ANNUAL CONFERENCE, MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA, JULY 5 THROUGH 9, 1972

"Local persons involved in coordinating the event include:

"MARY BANKER, and EVELYN BLACKMAN, Liberty City Community Council;

"GLADYS TAYLOR, Dade County Welfare Rights Organization;

"BEN COWINS, Opa-Locka Recreational, Educational, Community Action Program (RECAP);

"DAISY DAVIS, Dade County Community Action Agency;

"EUPHALA FRAZIER, Florida Tenants Organization;

"ANNIE CUTLER, South Miami Welfare Mothers Club;

"ELIZA MAXWELL, Brownsville Welfare Rights;

"MATILDA CHRISTIAN, Homestead Welfare Rights

"NWRO has opened an office in the Salem Baptist Church, 151 NW 60th Street, Rev. ALFONZA MOZELL, pastor of the church, says that he welcomes the welfare group's presence in the youthful and rapidly growing church. Rev. MOZELL says that Salem will be an activist element for social change in the community and that their involvement with NWRO is only a beginning.

"Volunteers are being sought to help put the conference together; the phone number is 693-1995.

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION (80-1374)

ReBucalls, 5/18/72, requesting (1) assessment concerning additional manpower requirements, and (2) organizational set-up for handling our responsibilities during DNC, scheduled from July 10 - 14, 1972, and RNC, scheduled from August 21 - 23, 1972.

It is conservatively estimated we should have assigned to Miami on a temporary basis between July 1 and August 31, 1972, ten additional Agents. It is recommended these Agents be especially oriented toward penetration of subversive groups. The Bureau may desire to canvass northeast offices for such Agents, especially those offices which are origin with respect to protest organizations planning to be in Miami during the conventions, and in the interim between the conventions. It is believed such Agents would be most helpful and productive.

It is suggested that these Agents arrive in Miami by July 1, 1972, in order that they may become properly oriented in this area, remain to assist in covering residual activities between the conventions, and be released during the latter part of August, following completion of Republican National Convention.

A strike, rally and march were held at Drew University, Madison, New Jersey on Friday, April 21, 1:00 p.m. A student strike was called at Drew University on Friday, April 21st which was, according to [redacted] 50 percent effective. A rally was held at 1:00 p.m. in front of Great Hall. Approximately 300 people were present. There were various speakers who discussed the Vietnam escalation and the spring anti-war actions. One of the speakers was JERRY RUBIN. He said that everyone must work to stop the war. He said that everything people do within the anti-war movement counts. He urged everyone to do something.

This rally was over at approximately 2:30 p.m. and it was announced that there would be a march to Morristown for a rally in front of the State building. The march was along Route 24 to Morristown. There were approximately 200 people participating. b6 b7C

At approximately 3:15 p.m., a rally was held in the park in front of the State building, Morristown. There were approximately 450 people present, the majority of which were white. There were five blacks present. There were a number of speakers. One of the speakers was [redacted] He said that people must be serious about their politics. He said the anti-war movement is a serious movement, and that people should not only protest and demonstrate in the spring when the weather is mild, but should demonstrate and protest all year round, all the time, day and night.

The next speaker was JERRY RUBIN. He discussed the Democratic and Republican conventions. He urged everyone to come to the conventions and participate in the protest activities. He said if someone other than MC GOVERN is nominated or if NIXON is renominated we will dump the convention into the sea and use other methods than the electoral process to change the USA. He said the power structure in the USA must be changed. He discussed the escalation in Southeast Asia and said that NIXON is using the automated battlefield because GIs are not responding to combat. He knows many GIs are using drugs and morale is very low in the Armed Services. He stressed the closing of campuses until the war is ended. He said that some people in the movement fear that the actions at the Democratic and Republican conventions will turn into a woodstock where people will be using drugs and not thinking about serious politics. He said a woodstock is good as long as there are masses of people.

Another speaker was [redacted] Drew Theological School. He discussed Vietnam and said it is basically a racist war. He said the US Government has no conscience about killing nonwhite people as in Southeast Asia. He said the white racist attitude in America must be changed.

Another speaker was [redacted] member of YSA-SMC Atlanta, Georgia. He urged all colleges to have a continued strike until the end of the war. He discussed the escalation in Vietnam and said that mass demonstrations must be built to pressure the government. He said the anti-war move pressured the government to withdraw troops and the anti-war movement can pressure the government to stop the bombing. b6 b7C

The rally ended at approximately 5:30 p.m. Some of those present were:

Undercover Agents Already Peeking Along the Beach

CLOAK AND SWAGGERSTICK: U.S. military intelligence, as it did in Chicago during the Democratic National Convention of 1968, already is operating extensively in Miami in preparation for the two conventions this summer. The Pentagon got burned by Congress for spying on such civilians as Adlai Stevenson III in 1968, so intelligence is more subtle this year. Agents are being "borrowed" by the Justice Department, the Secret Service and other federal agencies. "The Defense Department will be reimbursed by the other agencies for our manpower," said a Pentagon colonel.

Yippies, Police Hold 'Summit' On Conventions

By FRED BARGER
Herald Staff Writer

The Yippies and the police held a closed-door summit conference Monday in Miami Beach and said they hoped it would be a prelude to peaceful protests at this summer's national political conventions.

"It was a reasonable meeting. It was conducted in a good atmosphere," said Stew Albert, 32, one of nine Youth International Party members who attended the 90-minute session with Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance in a police gymnasium.

Pomerance said the YIP members had described their plan for demonstrating at the conventions. "We'll explore those needs in terms of having a peaceful convention," he said, adding that there probably would be an announcement "in two or three weeks."

ALBERT said that 00,000 (demonstrators) would be a minimal figure. "I'm not saying that to frighten people."

Forecasting a "massive demonstration," Albert said that the Yippies had suggested a site for a demonstrators' rest area, but he declined to specify the site, explaining that "there are some very delivate negotiations going on."

Among the participants were Abbie Hoffman and Jerry Rubin, who were convicted of inciting a riot at the 1968 Democratic National Convention demonstrations in Chicago.

Albert, who said he also was in Chicago, said he did not expect more of the violence that erupted there between demonstrators and police. "We are very optimistic that we can have a very peaceful, very constructive demonstration," he said.

HOFFMAN AND RUBIN remained silent as Albert and Gabrielle Schang answered reporters' questions. Asked about a prediction by Rubin several months ago that there would be 10,000 nude marchers on Collins Avenue, Albert replied:

"The nude march will not occur. Jerry's been chastized (over) that."

Asked for details of the "event" they said is scheduled for July 4-14, Miss Schang said, "We'll be all working to collectively demonstrate our culture."

"This will be a massive demonstration; this will be a militant demonstration; this will be a demonstration aimed at influencing the Democratic party and the American people," said Albert peaceful.

Conventions need help of all

It is now only 60 days before the Democratic National Convention opens its sessions on Miami Beach and the county government is still without complete detailed plans to meet all the contingencies of the two-convention summer.

We assume security arrangements are proceeding rapidly under the direction of Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance with support and aid from the FBI, state forces and LEAA funds. But we also hope that Chief Pomerance is in touch with Chief Bernard Garmire in Miami and Dade's Public Safety Director E. Wilson Purdy. Coordinated, central communications countywide will be essential.

County Manager Ray Goode recognizes the county's obligation to provide services for the protesters who will be here. But information coming from his office has been quite general in nature, not sufficiently specific to guarantee public confidence.

Thus far, his staff has been entirely dependent upon internal recommendations and discussions. County people will handle any spending of funds for this project as they should. However, the county could use outside advice concerning a myriad of details involved in accommodating masses of demonstrators.

This is what the Miami Snowplow Company is all about. This private, volunteer group has been organizing since January. It has established long lists of priorities and questions that must be answered. These concern such matters as communications and rumor control, drug overdose problems, effective contact with demonstration leaders and the definition of policies regarding the strictness of application of county ordinances on loitering, vagrancy, etc.

The Snowplow people do not have all the solutions. But they have been doing their homework; they have been in touch with official and private groups in other cities that have encountered and handled large demonstrations. They have tapped these resources diligently while hammering away at the county to take some positive steps toward solutions.

Snowplow cannot implement plans. It has barely enough money to maintain its headquarters, though it is getting some help therein. But the community cannot expect Snowplow to perform specific logistical services nor to create and maintain complex supply operations. It is a coordinator, seeking a willingness from officialdom to be coordinated.

Figures on the number of "non-delegates" expected here are hypothetical at best. So are estimates of the cost of providing total security and logistical services. The point is that the machinery must be mobilized to meet the most demanding forecasts.

Snowplow's accumulated information can help with preparing these contingency plans. Its excellent contacts and the impartial, non-ideologically-based confidence it has generated are community assets which should be employed immediately by official and establishment agencies who have the capacity to perform needed functions and the authority to commit people, funds, equipment and territory with certainty and finality.

Concern for Protesters Replaces Billy Clubs

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

The portable toilet has replaced the police club as the symbol of Miami's planning for protest at the Democratic and Republican national conventions.

And Richard Nixon — the very man many of the dissenters are expected to denounce most loudly — may help pick up the tab for their stay in South Florida.

There's no lack of police planning for the possibility things will get out of hand. But there's also a big push to prevent trouble, by facing in advance, the questions raised by predictions that thousands of non-delegates will flock here to do their thing in the streets.

CONVENTION COUNTDOWN

IF THEY DO come, where are these people going to sleep? How are they going to eat? Where will they find bathrooms and Band-Aids and drug-overdose talk-downs?

And above all, who's going to pay for it?

Increasingly, convention planners are pointing to the same source for answers — the federal government.

Gov. Reubin Askew and his staff met in Washington Friday with acting U.S. attorney General Richard Kleindienst and his staff. There was no announcement afterwards, but an Askew aide confirmed that the subject was more federal money for convention preparation. (One federal grant already is paying for police training.)

Meanwhile, Dade County Manager Ray Goode made it clear that while local government may place the order for such necessities as portable "johns," it isn't planning to pay for them.

"I DON'T SEE us using local tax dollars for this purpose," Goode said. "It appears to me there is a sufficient commitment on the part of federal agencies to provide us supportive facilities and funds."

For example, Goode said, there is the federal Office of Emergency Preparedness:

Who'll Pick Up Tab for Dissenters' Conveniences?

"They provide anything you need if they make the determination this is a role they should play.

"And I think they probably will."

The implication, some officials are saying privately, is that the U.S. Army may provide C-rations as well as riot control, and that it's all part of a trade-off that gave the Republican Party a new home in Miami Beach when its original plans fell apart in San Diego.

"The one advantage of having both conventions here," says a local planner, "is that the federal agencies are a lot more responsive."

ALL THIS could mean the party in power will end up using federal funds to implement a philosophy advocated by the Miami Snowplow Company, a private volunteer group that has been the loudest advocate of planning for the physical needs of non-delegates as well as delegates.

Snowplow already has endorsements, if not dollars, from the Democrats. "We're behind Snowplow," Philip Seib, special assistant to Democratic National Chairman Larry O'Brien, said last week. "Their concerns are our concerns."

Clifford O'Key
. . . invites talks

Gov. Askew
. . . opens doors

Some inside observers now believe the outlook is for Snowplow to get just enough private money to pay office expenses and stay alive as an idea source and a bridge between public officials and protest leaders.

Actual physical facilities — and the money to pay for them — probably will flow through normal government channels.

AND SO while Gov. Askew opens doors in Washington, city and county officials, as quietly as possible, are making daily decisions about nitty-gritty details.

Yes, there will be camping areas. No, the county will not build tent cities as such. Yes, arrangements will be made for low-cost food. No, Dade tax dollars won't subsidize free food for demonstrators.

Coordinating the logistical planning is County Manager Goode, who has two desks in his office and spends little time at either, operating instead at a low, round coffee table — which at any given moment may contain no fewer than a dozen telephone call-back slips.

Goode starts with the philosophy:

"We should recognize that peaceful dissent, nonviolent demonstrations and parading are rights that we are obligated to protect.

"THE BASIC health and welfare of everyone, including dissenters, must be protected."

That gets translated into specifics as officials quietly survey "15 or 18" potential campsites, on both sides of Biscayne Bay. The possibilities, Goode says, include "the obvious places — the major county parks and the major city parks, the beaches themselves."

Goode is careful to point out that the county is not the only jurisdiction involved: "We've obviously got to defer to the judgment of the city of Miami Beach on activities that affect their city."

On the other side of the bay, Beach City Manager Clifford O'Key is talking the same kind of diplomacy.

WHEN ANTI-WAR activists announced last week that they'll negotiate for campsites on golf courses, O'Key responded: "I'd be more than pleased to discuss it with them."

Other possibilities, according to Goode, include Lummus Park, Haulover, Greynolds, Watson Island, the Interama site, and "the whole section of county and city-owned areas of Key Biscayne."

But nothing has been finally nailed down, Goode says, because the idea is to let the demonstrators themselves have a voice in the planning:

"It has to come through communication with the people involved. If you try to preplan it all," Goode says, the movement people won't accept it. "I wouldn't either," he adds.

THE SAME approach — what Goode calls "keeping your options open" — extends to planning for other facilities.

When a baseball manager reported last week that his team had been rescheduled out of Miami Stadium to make room for riot troops in July, Goode didn't deny it. He didn't confirm it, either.

There may be a need for "staging areas," he said. There could be a need for "supplemental detention space" — the language officials are using to talk about overflow jails. And, best of all possible worlds, places like Miami Stadium just might sit there empty.

What's the worst that could happen? No one's saying.

But the planners are not overlooking the possibility Miami might have a hurricane on top of everything else. To cover that contingency, an organization called "Concerned Clergy" and the School Board are exploring the use of churches and schools as emergency shelter.

IRONICALLY, the establishment is well ahead of the movement in getting it all together. San Diego had a well-financed, well-organized coalition of protest groups. This could be transplanted to Miami along with its target, the GOP convention. But it hasn't happened yet.

Instead, self-appointed spokesmen have begun arriving in town, raising the question of just who they speak for.

One of the loudest voices has been that of Jerry Rubin, who along with fellow-Yippie Abbie Hoffman and others was convicted of inciting riots at the 1968 Chicago convention.

A reporter asked Rubin who the movement's leaders are. His answer: "Everyone who's determined to humiliate and defeat Richard Nixon is a spokesman and spokeswoman for the people's movement."

THE PROBLEM, of course, is that not everyone in the movement agrees — even with each other. Along with Rubin's Yippies, another group, who call themselves Zippies, have an advance man in town.

Says a Zippie circular: "we consider Jerry Rubin a publicity hound."

The one thing the various counter-culture folk agree on at this point is a stated intention to negotiate peaceful protest.

The establishment's reply, as phrased with characteristic directness by Ray Goode:

"Right on."

Convention protests by Cubans predicted

By LOUIS SALOME
Miami News Politics Writer

A leading member of Miami's Cuban community warned yesterday of possible anti-Communist demonstrations by Cubans at the Democratic and Republican national conventions this summer at Miami Beach.

Jorge Luis Hernandez, editor of the Spanish-language newspaper Regreso and a member of Gov. Reubin Askew's community task force overseeing convention preparations, said anti-Vietnam War demonstrations might spark counter-demonstrations by Cubans.

"I anticipate potential problems with the Cuban American community," he said.

"Already there are rumors and talk about counter-demonstrations at Miami Beach," he said and added that if the issue of communism versus anti-communism is raised, "I assure you there will be thousands of Latin Americans on Miami Beach in counter-demonstrations."

After a task force meeting at the Dupont Plaza Hotel, the group's first since being formed last week, Hernandez said, "That's an issue we cannot ignore. The issue of communism is a hard issue for Cubans."

He said counter-demonstrations might be avoided if Cubans are given a voice at each convention.

Hernandez said allowing Cubans to speak for a "free Cuba" at the conventions would be a "safety valve" that would relieve pressure.

He also said another safety valve would be to give Cubans their share of jobs at the convention.

At the task force meeting, Miami Commissioner Theodore Gibson said all cities in Dade County should be involved in preparing the entire county for the conventions.

Indications were, as a result of the meeting, that Harry Douglas, deputy secretary of the State Community Affairs Department, would be a full-time staff worker for the task force.

Douglas' job will be to obtain information on what all local governments and agencies are doing to prepare for the conventions.

The Democratic convention is scheduled for July 10-13, the Republican for Aug. 21-23.

February 4, 1972

The Honorable Robert Dole, Chairman
Republican National Committee
310 First Street, SE
Washington, D.C.

Dear Senator Dole:

As you may know, the Senate Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure, of which we are Chairman and ranking minority member respectively, has for the past several years been undertaking a continuing study of the federal procedures for handling mass demonstrations. Our inquiry has included an extensive hearing on the Washington demonstrations of May 1970, and, with the cooperation of federal and local authorities, the designation of official observers at various mass gatherings over the past two years, including extensive observation and study of the events of April and May 1971 in the capital.

We join you in the fervent hope that this year's political conventions will be totally free of any confrontations or conflict -- other than those of ideas and opinions -- but, like you, we want to be prepared for any eventualities. Especially since federal investigatory and enforcement agencies, as well as federal financing, are so heavily involved in the contingency planning for the national conventions, we intend to maintain a close interest in the preparations and plans for handling any mass demonstrations and related security problems, and the implementation of those plans. As the first step in that process, the Chief Counsel and Minority Counsel of the Subcommittee will be visiting Miami and San Diego this month to make a preliminary survey of the preparations and facilities, and to establish liaison with appropriate federal, state and local officials.

80-B53-437

We would appreciate it if you could inform the relevant members of your staff of our plans and designate suitable liaison officers in Washington and in the convention city with whom our staff can establish contact.

They informed their main purpose in Miami is to establish liaison with [redacted] in charge of Secret Service convention operations; E. WILSON PURDY, Director, Dade County Department of Public Safety; and ROCKY POMERANCE, Chief of Police of Miami Beach, and to determine in general their preparations and plans for handling protest demonstrations and security problems in connection with the upcoming conventions.

They were courteously referred to the Deputy Attorney General for full information concerning FBI operations in connection with the conventions. They were, however, given a general account of the FBI's cooperative functions with agencies having law enforcement responsibilities in connection with the conventions. Upon their request, information concerning the general size of the Cuban community in this area was furnished, as well as public material relative to what might be expected in the way of confrontations between these basically anti-CASTRO - anti-communist Cubans in the event protest groups publicly engage in any activity which the Cubans consider pro-CASTRO or pro-communist. b6 b7C

Snowplow Loses Its Business And 'Voice'

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

When the Miami Snowplow Company disbanded Monday, the announcement came from Lynn Slavitt, the dark haired housewife who had served as Snowplow's voice throughout its colorful, controversial four-month history.

Snowplow had been less institution than idea: the idea that Miami can cope peacefully and creatively with hippies, Zippies, Yippies, poor people, gay people and other assorted counter-culture folk who flock in for the twin-convention summer.

FRUSTRATED BY what they saw as lack of preparation, Snowplow's leaders played their final card. They went out of business, challenging public officials to take the effort from there.

And for Lynn Slavitt it was a final act in a scenario of "tugging at the sleeve of the community" to make a point.

All of which raised a question which more than one public official has found himself asking lately:

WHAT WAS a young matron from Ludlam Road doing in the midst of a furor about who's going to provide portable johns, if several thousand street people plop down their back-packs and decide to spend several weeks sleeping on Miami Beach?

Appearances, in Mrs. Slavitt's case, did little to answer that question.

Behind the wheel of her white station wagon, wearing wire-rimmed tinted glasses, Lynn Slavitt looks precisely like what, among other things, she is -- a comfortably well-off wife and mother.

At 36, she has a successful husband (author David Slavitt, better known under the nom de plume Henry "VOICE' of Snowplow. Lynn Slavitt, has tossed the problems of an influx of visitors during the political conventions back into the hands of city and county officials.

Sutton), three children (ages 14, 11 and 9), a poodle (age six months) and a black kitten named Angela (for Davis).

Lynn Slavitt has a house with a pool. She has a maid. She has an indoor-outdoor garden with an ailing ginger plant.

But she also has a history of getting involved.

She grew up in Manhattan. High school was Fieldston, a progressive country day school that "makes you feel you've got to go out and do something for the world."

Instead of class rings and senior proms, Fieldston required a year of community service; she worked in a day care center. "I was very shy about children," she recalls. "So I worked in the kitchen making them their dinner."

THESE DAYS two decades later, no one finds Lynn Slavitt shy. When Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance was named convention security chief, Mrs. Slavitt invited herself over to size up the top cop. She cooly shrugs off the encounter as "a friendly non-objective rap."

But that was after Vassar, a year of law school and two years of teaching public high school.

Her teaching stint was hectic. "I let 'damn' in the literary magazine and nearly got fired." But she supported the family on $5,000 a year while they lived on Cape Cod in "a wonderful falling into the earth old house" complete with slave closet from the underground railroad.

All this time David Slavitt had been home baby-sitting and writing. When his books began selling, the Slavitts vacationed in Miami, liked it, and bought a house. Now they're in the process of moving to Cambridge, Mass., after making Miami home since 1968. "David's restless," Lynn explains.

THE SIGNIFICANT thing about Lynn Slavitt's Miami years has been that if Henry Sutton made her financially free of the humdrum chores that occupy some housewives, he did not smother her social conscience.

"I was relieved not to have to mop and scrub and all that stuff. But that didn't mean I could stand puttering. I'm not interested in lunch with the girls."

At first, she eluded idleness by trying to teach illiterate migrants to read and write. It was, for her, a noble cause that flooped: "Just as you get started with somebody, they gotta go out and pick beans."

IN THE FALL of 1969, Lynn Slavitt found an outlet for her energies in the Center for Dialogue.

Since then she has been its associate director, working five five-hour days a week with abortion counseling, a free medical clinic and other social services aimed at Miami's youth sub-culture.

Snowplow grew out of the Center's philosophy of responding to needs that fall between the cracks of establishment efforts.

An Snowplow coordinator ("chairman is a sexist word, chairwoman is dopey and chair person sounds like a piece of furniture") Mrs. Slavitt pounded away at her point: better preparations now than riots later.

And what are her plans now that Snowplow has decided the best way to make that point was to go out of business?

Lynn Slavitt just smiles when people ask.

She's not saying.

County Manager Denies Accusations

Snowplow Bows Out, Citing Disorganization

Goode Seeks Aid .. 14A
Program Urged ... 14A
Lynn Slavitt 1D

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

The Miami Snowplow Company Monday disbanded its volunteer effort to cool Miami's twin convention summer by planning for the physical needs of demonstrators and other nondelegates.

It accused city and county officials of using Snowplow as a "cat's-paw and scapegoat" to cover lack of planning, a charge immediately denied by County Manager Ray Goode, who is coordinating nondelegate services.

With the accusation, Snowplow presented a $6-million budget that it said will be needed to cover everything from portable toilets to Spanish and Yiddish language interpreters.

"There will be tens of thousands of nondelegates coming to Miami this summer," the group said in a formal statement. "The authorities have not even begun to make any practical, sensible plan for this influx."

THE VOLUNTEER planners charged that "the County Manager's Office has yet to produce a viable plan or even an estimate of the support services which it has been Snowplow's mission to urge as a preferable alternative to riot."

Commenting on Snowplow's announcement, Goode praised the group as having been "extremely useful" but flatly rejected the allegation that nothing is being done.

"Most of our effort is being devoted to planning for the supportive services for nondelegates," the county manager said.

"We will have a plan that is acceptable to this community ready to be implemented by the time the conventions arrive."

GOODE SAID Snowplow may have already accomplished its most important function, that of "alerting the community." He added:

"They may have completed the most important part of their business, because the community is alerted, we are responding and I think appropriate plans will evolve."

"If (Snowplow) drops out at this point, I think it indicates they would never have survived the summer anyway," said Dr. Eugene Nagel, who warned last week that emergency medical care needed for the conventions is a "mind-boggling" prospect.

"IF THEY'RE doing it to dramatize the need by a kind of self-immolation, that's something else, and I have no comment on it," he said.

Without any official credentials, Snowplow's self-appointed planners had been working since January, bringing police and other public officials face to face in weekly meetings with representatives of groups that plan demonstrations.

In addition, Snowplow members had met with the official planners, urging preparations for the needs of "the Movement."

SNOWPLOW claimed 423 volunteers, and 98 other persons attended its last meeting Thursday night at the Center for Dialogue.

The group's decisions were made by a seven-member steering committee headed by Lynn Slavitt, associate director of the Center for Dialogue, and Hal Spaet, chairman of the Metro Youth Relations Board.

Other members of the steering committee were the Rev. Don Olson, a Lutheran minister and director of the Center for Dialogue; Allen Margolis, owner of radio stations WBUS and WMBM; Monna Lighte, housewife and volunteer civic worker; Bradford Rubin, a drug program analyst; and Sissie Edwards, a staff member of the Center for Dialogue.

PHILOSOPHICALLY, Snowplow was an outgrowth of the Center's attempt to furnish social services to various subcultures. The Center, housed in St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church at 2175 NW 26th Street, furnishes a free medical clinic and abortion counseling and houses Switchboard, a volunteer drug overdose treatment program.

Lynn Slavitt
... Snowplow leader

It has also served as meeting place for such groups as BAMM (Black Afro Militant Movement) and Vietnam Veterans Against the War.

Some public officials had seen these links with nonestablishment groups as Snowplow's greatest resource. Without formally serving as a coalition, Snowplow listed 32 separate organizations as affiliates.

SNOWPLOW'S original aims had been spelled out in a position paper released April 15. At that time, the Republican Convention was slated for San Diego and only the Democratic Convention was expected in Miami Beach.

But even a single convention, Snowplow predicted, would be "a natural and legitimate occasion for the expression of political aspiration of all manner of Americans — including Youth, Blacks, Chicanos, women, American Indians, Gays and Third World Individuals."

Snowplow's basic argument was that by accepting the role of convention city, "Dade County and the city of Miami Beach have extended their invitation to these people as surely as to any others."

Without endorsing the political aims of any protest group, Snowplow set itself up as "a nonpartisan service agency . . . to meet these basic needs: medical care, legal aid, child care, information service, emergency food and special preparatory training for public servants and citizens.

"We will," Snowplow's original statement said, "coordinate these services for whoever needs them."

BUT SNOWPLOW'S requests for public funds were turned down, and such public officials as County Manager Goode and Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance made it clear they — not Snowplow — would do the coordinating. They praised Snowplow's volunteer efforts, however, and sent representatives to the weekly meetings.

By the time Miami Beach invited the Republicans to hold their convention here, Snowplow already was expressing alarm that the plans for coping with nondelegates were either nonexistent or so secret as to preclude citizen and community in-put. For that reason, Snowplow publicly urged against the invitation to the GOP.

Snowplow and public officials also disagreed about the wisdom of making plans public. The official planners maintained that too much talk would in effect serve as an invitation to additional crowds. Snowplow argued that "tens of thousands" were coming anyway, and the best strategy would be for the city and county to spell out the ground rules for everyone to understand.

SNOWPLOW'S final statement, read by Mrs. Slavitt at a noon press conference Monday at the Center for Dialogue, was in effect a last sharp goad to push public officials into making the kinds of preparations Snowplow considered necessary.

The statement criticized local officials for relying on federal funding to do the job:

"The City Council and the County Manager are waiting in effect upon (acting U.S. Attorney General) Richard Kleindienst who presumably is waiting on God with prayers for rain," it said.

"No branch of government has dared make the few phone calls required in order to assemble estimates of costs for minimal services . . . Instead there have been vague and ostensibly friendly references to Snowplow . . .

"The Miami Snowplow Company will not be a party to such fraud."

By presenting its own $6-million cost estimate, the group said, "we hope to alert the citizens of Miami Beach and Dade County to the package their representatives have bought for them and to help those representatives with their long overdue homework."

The group members refused to answer questions about their decision to disband.

"It's all up to the county now," one member said.

AS A PRIVATE volunteer group, Snowplow could not have done a job that belongs to government, Goode said.

Nor, he said, could Snowplow have served as the city's "negotiator" with groups planning convention demonstrations.

"Without exception, the advance representatives of the various organizations wish to deal directly with people in a position to make decisions," he explained.

Goode said he hopes the individuals who formed Snowplow will continue to make their help available to him and other public officials.

"I REGRET IT very much if the implication is that they are not going to be active even as individuals," he said. "They can be helpful."

April 7, 1972 Session

The April 7, 1972, session was held during the afternoon at the Band Shell located in Municipal Park, Houston. About 30 persons attended. This session was entirely devoted to "rap" sessions and absolutely nothing was accomplished.

A "Boogie" was held at the place called the Dove's Nest which is located near the University of St. Thomas in Houston and is connected with the University of St. Thomas. About 75 persons attended. There was much dope smoking and drinking going on. There was much talk about the fact that the afternoon session was a waste of time, and many talked about what to do about [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] from New York City, mentioned that the National Steering Committee Meeting that had been held in Denver, Colorado, during February, 1972, had not legally given authority to the formation of the National Clearing House that had been operating in the old National Office of the VVAW in New York City, during March, 1972. The three pointed out that the only function of the Clearing House was to publish the paper, "First Casuality" and that its publication was to be a communal affair and not merely the work of [redacted], a non-veteran. According to [redacted] had told [redacted] that although he had been assigned to the National Clearing House, he did not believe in it, wanted the National Executive Committee re-established and had come to New York City to make sure that the National Clearinghouse did not work. "Rap" sessions continued until early morning hours.

April 8, 1972 Sessions

The April 8,1972, sessions were held in an auditorium, at the University Center at the University of Houston, [redacted] and [redacted] shared chairmanship of this session. The morning session was concerned with reports from the National Clearinghouse. There were attacks from the floor against the stewardship of [redacted] and [redacted] at the National Clearinghouse. [redacted] and [redacted] who had worked at the National Clearinghouse, accused [redacted] and [redacted] of not doing any work at all. [redacted] and [redacted] argued that their functioning at the Clearinghouse was hampered in that they were not allowed to take charge of the office.

The greater part of the session was a Financial report given by [redacted].

The following pertinent remarks were made by [redacted] with respect to the finances of the VVAW:

Received from the sale of the VVAW book "New Soldier"	$16,935.12
Salaries paid subsequent to January 1, 1972	5,455.55
Cash loans outstanding from National Office to Regions and individuals and other organizations	3,647.43
Bank balance as of August 1, 1971	20,416.95
Amounts deposited between August 1, 1971 and March 15, 1972	57,012.00
Disbursements made between August 1,1971 and March 15, 1972	76,905.82
Bank balance as of March 31, 1972	521.13

b6
b7C

[redacted] was questioned concerning the identities of some of the contributors to the VVAW. He stated he would not divulge this information at this time.

At this time a discussion was held on the status of the National Clearing House and the National Executive Committee. A motion was passed to abolish the National Clearing House and the Executive Committee, and to start anew.

During this session a great deal of time was spent discussing the security of the meeting. Many seemed to be paranoid over the matter of security. Guards were posted at the doors of the auditorium. Each Regional Coordinator had to identity those persons from his region with him in order that everyone in attendance could be identified.

At the end of the afternoon session [redacted] showed a film which he stated he had brough back from his recent trip to Japan and Hanoi, North Vietnam.

The meeting was continued in a small side room near the auditorium. At this session discussions were held on the responsibilities of Regional Coordinators and guide lines for strengthening the Steering Committee. These discussions were followed by "rap" sessions.

April 9, 1972 Sessions

The April 9, 1972, session was held in a room at the University Center at the University of Houston, from about 10:00 a.m., until mid-afternoon. The session was taken up with what is known as "round robins", that is, a representative from various regions, in most cases the regional coordinators, spoke on activities, and problems of their respective regions. Also, during this session [redacted] and others interrupted the discussions to announce movements by military and naval units of the United States in response to the escalation of the warfare in Vietnam. Among such announcements were that the carrier "Midway" had left for Vietnam, the "Kearney" was on station in Vietnam, Lowry Air Force Base in Colorado and Hanscomb Field in Massachusetts were on the alert. b6 b7C

[redacted] of Texas Region mentioned that a demonstration was being planned for April 22, 1972, at Killeen, Texas on behalf of [redacted]

[redacted] who stated that he had gone to Cuba with the Venceremus Brigade (VB) spoke on setting up a VB made up of veterans to start up hospitals in Cuba. He mentioned that similar type brigades should be set up to travel to North Vietnam.

[redacted] of the Oklahoma - Arkansas Region spoke in general of possible actions at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, the starting up of a GI underground newspaper and the holding of more actions to aid [redacted] He mentioned the starting of a paramedical group in Arkansas, and that the VVAW is pusing voter registration forArkansas in an attempt to influence the national election in 1972.

An unidentified black man spoke on the VVAW involvement in the Cairo Project.

[redacted] Regional Coordinator from Louisiana, b6 b7C spoke on things that the VVAW should attempt to accomplish which included that the organization should attempt to broaden its base and not concentrate solely on hard core leftists. He mentioned that the Louisiana Region was small in number and that it is associated with Southern Regional Conference of the VVAW.

[redacted], Regional Coordinator for Kansas and Western Missori spoke on the difficulty of recruiting and of raising funds. He mentioned that his VVAW Regional has a contact in Military Intelligence who has proof of government surveillance of the VVAW. This information will soon be brought out by the VVAW.

[redacted] of the Illinois- Eastern Missouri VVAW stated that one [redacted] from that region had "ripped off" $300 from the region and $300 from the National Office of the VVAW. He mentioned that the VVAW can have desks in Veterans Administration Hospitals which can be used to help the veteran patients and to recruit members.

A representative of the Chicago area VVAW advised that the VVAW has been working with organizations called Rising Up Angry and the Black Peace Stone Community. The Chicago Area VVAW have about 450 members most of whom are "dead wood." This region plans Armed Forces Day demonstrations at area military bases on May 20, 1972. It was mentioned that one [redacted] from [redacted] is a "pig" and that [redacted] is probably a "pig". He mentioned that the Chicago VVAW has been working with unidentified people in Canada concerning the amnesty issue and that the Chicago VVAW has made tentative plans to conduct a demonstration on July 4, 1972, on the amnesty issue.

[redacted] of the Wisconsin Region stated that the Wisconsin Region is small and that recruitment was difficult because in Milwaukee or Madison, the people are generally not hassled by the authorities. The Wisconsin VVAW has a front group called the Wisconsin Vets Union which has obtained state funds. [redacted] mentioned that a "protective reaction" demonstration would be held in either Milwaukee or Madison during May 1-5, 1972.

[redacted] stated that it is important that the VVAW "get going" in Wisconsin to counteract the heavy Trotskyite activity in that area. b6 b7C

[redacted] then spoke on the VVAW and its international relations. He mentioned the following:

In the Far East the VVAW has contacts in an organization called Gensuiko in Japan which [redacted] described as a major collective of anti-imperialist peace forces in Japan. This organization has financed most of [redacted] trips to Japan and the Far East.

The Stockholm Peace Conference has invited the VVAW to become a member of its ruling board.

[redacted] has been asked to join the Executive Committee of the Paris Peace Conference.

The VVAW has contacts with an organization in Paris, France, called, "French 48" which [redacted] described as a group made of 48 units in France which is dominated by the Communist Party.

In Hanoi, North Vietnam, the VVAW has connections with an organization called the Algerian Correspondence Association.

The VVAW of Australia, a new organization of Australian Vietnam War veterans has requested the VVAW to send people to Australia to help organize the VVAW there.

The FLN of Denmark have made a card game which is aimed at the United States imperialism which it wants reproduced in the United States by the VVAW.

The Soviet Peace Committee is an organization in the Soviet Union which has provided travel to Europe including the Soviet Union.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that all international anti-imperialist organizations consider the VVAW as the most potent anti-imperialist group in the United States, and most want to set up better means of communication with the VVAW.

[redacted] then spoke of the affiliation of the VVAW with other peace groups in the United States. The VVAW still maintains close affiliation with the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ). [redacted] is a member of the Steering Committee of the PCPJ. [redacted] is an alternate member of the Executive Committee of the PCPJ. [redacted] is a member of the Executive Committee of the PCPJ.

[redacted] spoke against the close association of the VVAW with the PCPJ, because of the connection of the PCPJ with the Communist Party (CP). She described the PCPJ as a Communist front. [redacted] denied that the PCPJ was a communist front.

[redacted] stated that the VVAW is attempting to develop close relations with the National Student Association (NSA). He pointed out that the NSA have offices in many colleges throughout the country, and that the VVAW should attempt to obtain a desk in these offices which can be obtained from the student government. It is in the new NSA charter that the VVAW can have a desk in NSA offices in colleges.

On the evening of April 9, 1972, a meeting of the Southern Regional Caucas was held at the motel room of [redacted] In attendance were [redacted] of Florida VVAW, [redacted] of Texas VVAW, [redacted] and [redacted] of Arkansas VVAW, [redacted] from El Paso, Texas, representing the New Mexico VVAW and [redacted] from the Colorado VVAW.

The group wanted to limit the power of the National Office with the intent to consolidate power in the National Steering Committee. Everyone there expressed concern about the maneuverings of [redacted] The group decided to hold meetings prior to National Steering Committee meetings in order to decide on strategy.

April 10, 1972 Sessions

The sessions of April 10, 1972, were held at a Unitarian Church in Houston located one block off the main street of Houston. The session lasted from 9:00 a.m. until 10:00 p.m.

b6

The session began with more announcements by [redacted] and [redacted] about more United States military and naval bases that have been alerted due to the escalation of the military operations in Vietnam. [redacted] and [redacted] urged that everyone stay in touch with New York because there may be actions that would need VVAW support.

[redacted] from Detroit, stated that the VVAW must take up the matter of an "alternate government" to take over the running of the government in the event of its collapse. He did not specify as to what would cause it to collapse. He mentioned that the VVAW must be in a position to assume this responsibility. [redacted] mentioned that such discussions have been held throughout the "Movement" by various groups. He mentioned that the "Movement" can send a certain number of people to sit in with the DRV representatives to the Paris Peace Talks concerning this matter.

[redacted] suggested that the "Hanoi 6", that is the six VVAW members to be selected to visit Hanoi in the near future, should act as a forerunner of better relations between the people in the United States and the people in Vietnam. He suggested that the VVAW set up a group of people in Saigon, South Vietnam, to represent the people of the United States in the expectation that the "revolution" in South Vietnam, will succeed.

[redacted] mentioned that there is a TDA located in New York City which is prepared to act in case of an offensive by the United States government in Vietnam. He mentioned that this organization will take part in anti-war demonstrations in Washington, D.C., on April 15, 1972.

Discussions were held on the structure of the VVAW. The following are the results of the discussions:

1. National Clearinghouse to be abolished.

2. National Office to be re-established in New York City

3. Six officers to be appointed to National Office who will be part of the National Steering Committee. Their names will appear on a new charter of incorporation in New York State. b6 b7C

4. The offices to be created will be a Liaison Officer, who will be in charge of inter-communications in the VVAW, a Treasurer, a Communications Officers, who will be in charge of films, speeches, and press releases, a Projects Director, a Membership Director, and a Legislative Officer.

The persons elected to the National Office were the following: (Specific office for each not decided)

[redacted] (phonetic)

"Trouble Shooters" who will travel about the country handling regional problems were elected. They were [redacted] who will operate out the National Office in New York City, and [redacted] who will operate out of Colorado.

[redacted] continued to attempt to create a feeling of paranoia over the matter of security. He spoke in favor of an elaborate "security section" to seek out infiltrators. It was voted down.

It was learned that [redacted] will be in charge of security for the east coast and [redacted] currently of the California Region, who had formerly worked out of the National Office, will be in charge of security for the west coast. The two will chose people to aid them in their investigation of suspicious persons and groups.

One (First Name Unknown) [redacted] was elected to be in charge of intelligence matters. [redacted] He will be working on intelligence matters with unidentified persons and groups in Canada. He also has contacts in the military. b6 b7C

During this session there was a Panel Discussion with guest speakers who had been provided by [redacted] and his group. There were speakers from the Workers World Party, Venceremos Brigade (two), Black Panther Party (two), Workers Action Movement, and an organization believed to be called Palestinian Freedom Fighters.

April 11, 1972 Session

The April 11, 1972, session was held in an area of the University of Houston between the swimming pool and the tennis courts. This session lasted from about 10:00 a.m. to the early evening. This session dealt mainly with the journey of VVAW members to Hanoi and future actions.

Some in attendance spoke in favor of having the VVAW travelers to Hanoi discuss the Prisoner of War problems with the North Vietnamese. The Southern Regional Conference group were particularly in favor of this. [redacted] stated that the North Vietnamese will decide on what is to be discussed.

It was decided that the VVAW visitors to Hanoi will attempt to bring back to the United States one or two North Vietnamese children who have been severely injured by United States bombing of North Vietnam who are in need of medical attention. It was felt that this activity would result in considerable publicity in the media in the United States unfavorable to the bombing policy of the United States. This activity is to be called a "sortie" by those going to Hanoi. The trip to Hanoi will take place sometime between the first and third weeks of May, 1972, and the travelers will return before mid-July. Those chosen to travel to Hanoi were instructed to immediately obtain passports and to have them indicate that the traveler is to visit France. The travelers will reach Hanoi by way of Paris and Moscow. According to [redacted] a part of the cost of the transportation will be paid by the Soviet Peace Committee. [redacted] also stated that the North Vietnamese desires that the VVAW delegation include members of minority groups.

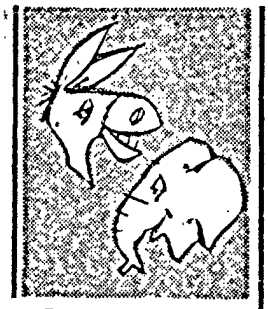
Snowplow Leaves Market List From Diapers to a Helicopter

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

Fifty million plastic forks and $1.7 million worth of canned beef stew. A thousand aspirin, 50 street medics and $1,632 worth of disposable diapers and bottles.

That's the kind of supplies and services that make up the $6 million budget the Miami Snowplow Co. handed Dade County before it disbanded Monday, closing down a volunteer effort to prepare for street people and other nondelegates at the Democratic and Republican conventions.



CONVENTION COUNTDOWN

New Alliance? 10B
Summit 10B
U.S. Aid 10B

AND WHETHER or not any of it ever gets incorporated in the official planning, Snowplow's estimate did not go unnoticed. County Manager Ray Goode, the man who sits where the buck stops, read the Snowplow budget before he went to Washington Tuesday to shop for federal aid.

Snowplow was a volunteer nongovernment effort, and its projection admittedly is the work of amateurs. In addition, the Snowplow planners readily admit they got their cost figures from normal commercial sources — and that the same supplies, furnished through government channels, might well carry lower price tags.

In addition, public officials are skeptical of Snowplow's prediction that 100,000 nondelegates will flock to Miami and remain for an eight week period including both the Democratic Convention July 10-14 and the GOP Convention Aug. 21-23.

WITHOUT COMMITTING themselves to public estimates, some of the official planners place the crowd size much lower. They point out, for example, that at the height of the demonstrations during the 1968 Democratic Convention in Chicago, police estimated the number of out-of-towners as no more than 5,000.

A big chunk of the Snowplow cost figure — $2.8 million — would be spent for food. This would be at least partly offset by a 25-cent charge for each meal served in the four portable field kitchens the budget would provide.

DIAPERS and baby bottles would be used in child care centers for the children of nondelegates. The transportation section of the budget includes one medium transport helicopter at $500-a-day rental, for a total price of $1.5 million for the one aircraft, which would be used as an emergency vehicle.

Snowplow also included the services of five full-time lawyers, at a cost of $28,000, and six physicians at $27,692. The medical budget includes such particulars as 500 instant ice packs at 75 cents each, and 100 used Army blankets at $4.98 each.

Goode has already made it clear he will look to Third U.S. Army headquarters in Atlanta for some of the field equipment needed to care for convention crowds.

THUS there is the prospect that anti-war demonstrators may line up to eat in military field kitchens.

Snowplow Volunteers Consider New Alliances

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

The Miami Snowplow Co.'s volunteer planners will meet for the last time Thursday to discuss attaching themselves to other groups such as Switchboard and Tribal Council, Lynn Slavitt, Snowplow coordinator, said Tuesday.

A nongovernment effort to plan for the needs of demonstrators and other nondelegates at the Democratic and Republican conventions, Snowplow announced Monday that it was disbanding.

SNOWPLOW said it will dismantle its group of 423 volunteers because of what it called lack of cooperation from public officials. County Manager Ray Goode countered Snowplow's criticism by saying nondelegate planning is now his first priority. Goode met with federal officials in Washington Tuesday, seeking aid for medical care, sanitation and other services.

The final Snowplow meeting will be at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Center for Dialogue, 2175 NW 26th St.

MRS. SLAVITT said the purpose will be to "answer any questions" about the decision to disband, and to assist individual volunteers in finding other groups with which to work.

As possible examples, she mentioned Switchboard, a volunteer drug treatment program, and Tribal Council, a group which has assumed sponsorship and peace-keeping duties for Sunday rock concerts at Virginia Beach.

Her personal plans, Mrs. Slavitt said, are to move with her husband and children to Cambridge, Mass., on June 2 — and then return for both conventions as a consultant to the Center for Dialogue.

The effect of Snowplow's demise will be discussed at 10 a.m. Thursday at a meeting of the Dade County Alliance for Safer Cities, a coalition of 40 civic and social organizations including the American Jewish Committee, the League of Women Voters, the American Civil Liberties Union and others.

That meeting will be at the Greater Miami Coalition, 902 SW 2nd Ave.

Metro must invent another Snowplow

Miami Snowplow's sudden and voluntary tent-folding will catch local government lacking in an important area — ongoing and empathetic communications with the so-called non-delegate groups coming here for the national political conventions.

Snowplow's leaders became convinced that local government, particularly Dade county, had no intention of using their organization as they had envisioned it, as a genuine coordinating agency — not supplying services directly, but working to see that services were available and that the visitors knew of them.

There are overtones of the typical frustrated liberal in Snowplow's self-imposed collapse. Metro did not seem to be responding in precisely the manner Snowplow wished, Snowplow was frustrated in its attempts to deal with the county and so Snowplow said, "We quit. If you won't believe what we tell you and you won't work our way, go your own." And bad cess to ye, to boot, the message seems to imply.

Snowplow's people really are too sophisticated in the ways of government to have caved in as they did, in a manner that suggests some petulance on their part.

Indeed, local government's awareness of the preventative and service measures necessary for the convention season has only now begun to blossom. County Manager Ray Goode's "war room" at the courthouse has been collecting information for several weeks. The magnitude of the task ahead is just pushing its bulk across the horizon of official consciousness, as though the sun were rising an hour late on a foggy morning.

Officialdom still is piecing the scene together. The Governor's local coordinating council has held but one meeting. Snowplow's selfless dedication might have dictated one or two more weeks' of patience with the bureaucratic process.

Meanwhile, the public is beginning to mutter also, in tones that presage the roar to come. People are beginning to say out loud that they are not interested in making uninvited visitors feel welcome or comfortable, or renting portable toilets for them, or picking up their garbage or suffering their camping in parks, alongside golf courses or in school parking lots.

Mention of emergency food supplies or medical attention brings scowls. "Why should we take care of them?" is the immediate and obvious question.

If these visitors are treated inhospitably, the theory goes, they'll go away.

That's what Chicago thought in 1968.

Snowplow wasn't broadcasting invitations. It hoped to stimulate preparations for the inevitable and avoid a Chicago, 1968. It felt, in the end, that local agencies were assuming, and so informing questioners, that Snowplow was the operative responsible agency for handling the total non-delegate problem.

Snowplow's explanation for its pulling the cork on itself is that it was being cast as a pretender and scapegoat, set up as the responsible organization but given neither tools nor cooperation to produce.

Be that as it may, neither local government nor the community at large can adopt the attitude that a lack of toilets or a blissful obliviousness to the situation will send the uninvited guests away. We can be prepared for the severest test and have a chance of making good grades, or we can just gamble. Metro wants to prepare, all right, but it did not want to work hand in glove with what it considered, and may still consider, a group more sympathetic with the demonstrators than with the establishment.

Whatever Snowplow's motives for quitting, and whatever Metro's silent hopes and fears, something along the order of Snowplow will be necessary. In the absence of this Snowplow, Ray Goode may have to invent another one.

Parties Seeking Liaison

The chief planners of the Democratic and Republican conventions will hold a friendly summit conference Thursday to explore areas of cooperation in their convention preparations.

Richard L. Herman, operating head of the GOP's Arrangements Committee, and Robert P. Knowles, the party's convention coordinator, will be among the Republican planners at the session.

Knowles said the GOP staff members "hope to establish liaison" with their Democratic counterparts, headed by Richard J. Murphy, convention manager.

The Democrats are months into planning for their July 10-13 convention, but the GOP is just getting started on local arrangments for its Aug. 21-23 conclave, which was switched from San Diego.

For delegates, non-delegates

Health officials lay plans for conventions

By MIKE WEINSTEIN
Sun-Reporter Staff Writer

Top community health planners put their heads together yesterday in an effort to assure ample medical services during and between this summer's two national political conventions.

At the conclusion of a 90-minute session called by the Health Planning Council of South Florida at Mt. Sinai Hospital, a seven-member steering panel composed of various local health leaders was formulated to serve as an information clearinghouse for all health-related convention activities.

Alvin Goldberg, director of Mt. Sinai Hospital and vice chairman of the medical subcommittee of the Democrats Florida Host Committee, said the new board possesses no formal power but will coordinate medical planning for the conventions and designate responsibility to each local health organization.

Meanwhile the Democratic National Committee is moving ahead with supplying its own medical staff and facilities. Jim Teague, assistant to convention manager Richard Murphy, said DNC will provide several types of medical aid for both delegates and non-delegates including:

—A mobile van to be located at Convention Hall during the day which can be sent to any area DNC deems necessary.

Teague held open the possibility of renting extra medical vans if the situation warranted such action.

A special medical facility at the Playboy Plaza Hotel manned by doctors and volunteer nurses throughout the convention period.

—Utilization of existing medical facilities at the Americana, Fontainebleau, Eden Roc and other major hotels and supplementing these staffs with additional personnel.

—staffing of free speech areas in Flamingo Park and the Youth Center at Bayfront Auditorium with volunteer workers.

However Teague stressed DNC is short of volunteer help and is summoning two nurses to Miami Beach for the sole purpose of recruiting medical volunteers.

Dr. Eugene Nagel of Jackson Memorial Hospital said the Democrats' efforts

Milton Saslaw ... prepares health units were aimed more toward the party's entourage, not an estimated 50,000-10,000 non-delegates expected to inhabit the community.

We must divide health services between those in hotels and non-delegates who will be camped out throught Dade County," Nagel cautioned. "If we assume the worst and think in terms of 50,000 or more then let's start talking about 500 to 1,000 paramedics—not a dozen or so."

He urged the established health organizations to support concerned groups such as Miami Snowplow and Switchboard of Miami in their efforts in training volunteers to handle drug emergency cases.

Heading the effort to prime both Dade County's and the state Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services units is Dr. Milton Saslaw, director of the Public Health Department.

Saslaw said nine centers scattered throughout the county would serve as health treatment areas primarily for four categories of sickness.

—routine accidents

—Drug-related problems.

—Gas contamination.

—Trauma cases.

Three special equipment units, including one at 6th Street and Collins Avenue, will also treat all comers, Saslow added.

A strict program of water quality surveillance will be instructed, Saslow pointed out, to prevent contamination of the water supply.

An extensive plan, pinpointing nominal medical services to accommodate 100,000 visitors, was offered by the Health Student Consortium, a band of University of Miami medical students.

The proposal calls for five primary aid stations (two large and three small) situated at "hot spots" such as Convention Hall or Flamingo Park; a secondary medical aid site presumably at Watson Island; mobile units including fire rescue vans and primary care vehicles to trasport patients between various aid stations.

Dr. David Rosenberg said the plan would forestall overcrowding in hospital emergency rooms with "its attendant result of inefficiency."

Representatives of Snowplow and Switchboard — two groups striving to minimize problems for uninvited visitors — criticized local health agencies for "passing the buck" in readying suitable health care for non-delegatesand pleaded for financial support.

Switchboard, an emergency phone service for those in distress, has 50 trained volunteers for the conventions to treat emergency cases and is hoping to have 200 on hand by July, but is suffering from a shortage of funds.

"We're currently handling 3,600 distress calls a month and anticipate it will rise to 10,000 by convention time," a Switchboard official explained. "But we just don't have the money to upgrade our system."

Goode, After Washington Talks, Says He Expects Federal Help

County Manager Ray Goode made strategic rounds in Washington Tuesday and reported that federal help probably will be forthcoming as needed to meet non-delegate needs during the Miami Beach national political conventions.

Goode conferred with White House aides and with representatives of the Office of Economic Opportunity and the Labor Department on the possibility of getting facilities to handle the expected influx. No specific requests were made, he said.

"I think we'll see a receptivity on the part of federal agencies when we specify our requests," Goode said.

"I tried to give them a new perspective on the local problem. They have been relating to security aspects. We already have a handle on that through the attorney general's department and the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration.

"But we are likely to need such things as communications equipment, vehicles, portable water and sanitation facilities which could be furnished by the Office of Civil Defense, Office of Emergency Preparedness and the armed forces.

"I think Miami Beach is developing good rules that peaceful demonstrators can live by. Of course, the situation is one that will extend far beyond the Beach itself. It's countywide."

Goode said planning will have to be on a basis that can allow for varying volume of non-delegate convention-goers. "It's important to maintain local flexibility," he said.

Convention plans clearer; Goode seeks aid in D.C.

By RICK EYERDAM
Miami News Reporter

Preparations for the Democratic National Convention to be held in Miami Beach July 10-13 are beginning to come into focus.

The picture had been blurred by inadequate information in some areas, a lack of clearly delineated responsibility and efforts to keep quiet as many of the preparations as possible.

But yesterday the Miami Snowplow Company disbanded operations, County Manager Ray Goode said he would be designated to take over certain preparations for non-delegates, and things began coming clearer.

At present the situation looks this way:

The county

Goode was designated by Gov. Reubin Askew to coordinate the providing of services for non-delegates for both the Democratic and Republican conventions. Until now that role had not been officially designated.

Goode was in Washington today seeking equipment, financing, supplies and manpower to handle non-delegate needs.

The Miami Snowplow Company was a loose coalition of 22 local groups. In disbanding yesterday, it cited what it called a lack of cooperation from government authorities in its efforts to provide services to non-delegates expected in Miami during the period from July 9 through Aug. 24. (The GOP convention is set for Aug. 21-23.)

"The authorities have not begun to make any practical sensible plan" for the influx of non-delegates, Mrs. Lynn Slavitt, a Snowplow leader, told a press conference.

Goode countered the charge, saying his office already was "giving the non-degelate aspects of the convention more broadbased attention than security measures."

Goode said he had intentionally kept the county's plans quiet because there were too many variables.

But now, he said, the county has modified its strategy and decided the benefits of letting the community know what is planned outweigh the potential problems.

Therefore, Goode said, information on the number of people planned for, what they would eat and where they would stay will be available "early in June."

The police

Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance was still not willing to talk about specific details of police preparations for the Democratic convention.

Pomerance is in charge of security outside the convention hall and will have crowd control as his prime responsibility.

"We do not want to seem too lenient nor do we want to challenge people with the threat of undue force," he said. "Historically, police prepare for the worst and hope for the best."

Pomerance was willing to talk in generalities and about his philosophy.

"The fellas will be tough but fair. Our motto is the effective and humane policing of a political convention," he said.

He said there will be between 500 and 1,000 police directly involved in convention-related duty. Of these the largest single contingent will be state troopers. The rest of the force will be made up of equal parts of Metro, Miami and Miami Beach police.

Pomerance said the police were being trained in sensitivity and would be fully prepared to handle any eventuality.

He also said that all police would wear identification at all times.

Pomerance said that in the case of arrests, an alleged violator will be taken to the Metro Justice Building where a magistrate will be on duty 24 hours a day.

He said public defenders and prosecutors will also be on constant call.

The Secret Service is in charge of security within the convention hall. It does not discuss its plans.

In addition to regular police, Pomerance will be able to call on the First Battalion, 124th Infantry of the Florida National Guard.

That 600-man force has canceled plans for summer maneuvers in Panama and will remain ready if needed.

Pomerance stressed that only as many police as necessary would be used in handling the convention goers and non-delegates.

Democratic Party

Richard Murphy, the Democratic Party convention manager has three major problems: money, space and time.

Faced with a multi-million dollar campaign debt from the last presidential election including a massive phone bill, Murphy is finding out that his credit is not so good.

"We have to pay for everything in advance," he complained from a borrowed office near the Miami Beach Convention Center.

Murphy has already found housing for 50,000 Democrats including 5,000 delegates and their families. He has also helped find space for an estimated 7,000 media personnel. But the calls keep coming in.

Another worry is — of all things — the chairs on which the delegates are going to sit. "They are six different colors and would look awful on television," he said.

Murphy is trying to find money to have all 15,000 chairs recovered in the same color — if he can find someone to do it in time.

Other preparations in and around the convention hall include:

- The $62,000 security fence surrounding the convention complex is complete and obscured by pink hibiscus bushes.
- The television broadcast booths hanging from the ceiling of the south hall are in place.
- Every radio and television network will have a broadcast studio. They are located in the north hall and are under construction.
- The $15,000 podium has been pre-fabricated and is ready to be set up.
- 25 caucus rooms for the state delegations are under construction.
- The most sophisticated system of communication equipment ever assembled is now being installed by Western Electric under tight 24 hour-a-day security. The installation will accommodate simultaneously scores of live, remote television and radio broadcasts.

It will take more than 600 employes working three shifts to install the 7,000 telephones, 340 teletypes, 40 switchboards and the 600 portable pre-packaged phone systems that will be used.

An estimated 423 million feet of cable will be used for the convention.

From tents to toilets

Salt tablets, more than a million of them; 12 or 15 vans that can hold 40 or 50 prisoners each; portable toilets, tents, mobile kitchens.

These will be some of the things on County Manager Ray Goode's shopping list today when he sees White House aides and others on what Dade County needs to handle the non-delegates expected here for the Democratic and Republican conventions this summer.

Goode also has asked Gov Askew to back Metro's re quest for federal help to provide the necessary health and medical services, sanitary facilities, water and other needs.

Metro is making the request to Jerris Leonard, administrator of the Justice Department's Law Enforcement Assistance Administration.

Goode said before leaving for Washington to confer with federal officials that he also will be "discussing clarification of federal contact points."

He explained that the contact points will be the federal agencies or personnel "who will be coordinating the federal activities to assist us in supplying supportive services to the non-delegates."

Goode had his request to Askew hand-delivered last Friday. He said he expected no problem in obtaining the governor's endorsement.

In his letter to Askew, Goode said he didn't see how the supplies and equipment could be reasonably and economically bought on the open markets, even if Metro was given federal funds to do so.

But, he added, "We understand that the federal military establishment is staffed and equipped to provide assistance in most of these areas."

Goode said it would be difficult to estimate what quantities of supplies should be made available because no one knows how many non-delegates will come. He said estimates run from 50,000 to 250,000.

He said there should be alternate plans, with related supplies and personnel, for varying numbers.

"Thus," he said, "we will require a very large local inventory of supplies and equipment, much of which, hopefully, will not have to be used."

Goode added that the local communities cannot really be expected to financially support what is, in effect, a part of the national political process.

FD-350 (Rev. 7-16-63)

(Mount Clipping in Space Below)

Thanks To Snowplow, But . . .

TO THE volunteers who put together the Miami Snowplow Company and called attention to the need for coping with the crowds of non-delegates and demonstrators expected here this summer, the community owes a vote of thanks. Hopefully there will be no hurt feelings among these concerned citizens now that local government has moved in and taken over the leadership of the effort. This is as it should be.

Only the people with the power to make official decisions should be at the helm this summer during and between the two conventions. And it is clear now that local public officials are sufficiently aware of all possible eventualities to begin laying the proper plans.

Their task will be aided by federal funds and by a noticeable new trend in demonstrations. There isn't as much violence as there used to be, a fact confirmed by Dr. John Spiegel of the Center for the Study of Violence at Brandeis University. This is partly because most demonstrators themselves have decided it is counter-productive and partly because police are more sophisticated in handling demonstrations.

This is not to say that Dade County can take a complacent approach to the summer events, but the chances of violence breaking out are less today than they were, say, four years ago.

Whether there is violence or not, if large crowds are attracted here then the community should be prepared to deal with them in the humanitarian aspects, such as emergency medical care. The community conscience, raised by Snowplow, will not be ignored now that government has moved in.

It remains to be seen how many people will come and how much it will cost to control and accommodate them. These are unpredictables.

But there should have to be no conjecture about the community laying the best plans possible to handle the crowd.

RE: YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY

The Youth International Party (YIP), also known as Yippies, is a loosely knit, anti-establishment revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

RUBIN, HOFFMAN and ALBERT, while in Miami, stayed in Apartment 36-A of the University of Miami student quarters. On the evening of May 12, 1972, they attended a private party.

RUBIN, HOFFMAN and ALBERT, accompanied by their "groupies", on May 13, 1972, drove to Miami Beach, Florida. There they visited the Miami Beach Convention Hall, the site of the forthcoming national political conventions. They inspected possible campsites, such as parks and golf courses.

In the evening they planned to attend a "Goose Creek Symphony" Rock Concert at the Sportatorium, Hollywood, Florida.

JERRY RUBIN, ABBIE HOFFMAN and STU ALBERT met with the Chief of Police at the Miami Beach Police headquarters. During the meeting, they stated it was their desire that the conventions be peaceful. They requested the use of the Bayshore Golf Course as a camping site during the time of the conventions when they will stage a ten-day festival from July 4 through the 14th. They were advised that decision would have to be made by the Miami Beach City manager. RUBIN requested a meeting with the city manager for May 23, 1972. All stated they hoped no attempt would be made to infiltrate their organization. They advised that they represented the Youth International Party.

Following the meeting, RUBIN and ALBERT held a press conference in front of the Miami Beach Police Department headquarters. They had alerted the local press to their meeting with the Chief of Police.

HOFFMAN did not participate in the press conference since he was leaving Miami on a noon flight. RUBIN and ALBERT stated they were leaving Miami later that day.

WORKING PAPER OF THE MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION

May 20, 1972

On May 19 and 20, 45-50 people met in Washington to discuss what actions the movement should take at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions in Miami this July and August. The meeting was called by members of the San Diego Convention Coalition and the Florida Peoples' Coalition.

One third of the people at the meeting were from New York and D.C., the rest were from areas including Boston, Philadelphia, Texas, Ohio, Vermont, and upstate New York. Many of the people at the meeting had already decided to work in Miami as organizers for the Miami Conventions Coalition. Others plan to return to their cities/towns and report on the meeting, and begin discussions about the actions. After a day and a half of good pointed discussion, the group came to the following consensus:

1. THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION SHOULD BE THE MAJOR FOCUS OF ANTI-WAR ACTIVITY THIS SUMMER. (August 21-24) There will be a call for a three day national action including massive and dramatic demonstrations. The short term goal is to expose the criminal acts of the Nixon administration, particularly the continued escalation of the war in Indochina; and to demonstrate with marches and civil disobedience that the re-election of Nixon will cause continued resistance and confrontation in this country. We support the national liberation struggles of the Indochinese peoples. Our actions at the Republican Convention will be in full support of the 7-point peace proposal of the P.R.G.

2. WE FEEL THAT THE TONE SHOULD BE ONE OF CONFRONTATION, SERIOUS RESISTANCE, AND NON-VIOLENT CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE. Because of the present situation in the U.S., we know that the convention and the demonstrations may take place in the atmosphere of an armed camp. We will not use inflated rhetoric designed to provoke an overreaction by the repressive forces in Miami. However, what Nixon stands for is so oppressive to the American people and the people of the world that we must actively oppose Nixon's domestic and foreign policies.

3. OUR ORGANIZING FOR THE CONVENTION WILL ATTEMPT TO BUILD ALLIANCES WITH DIFFERENT GROUPS (e.g. THIRD WORLD PEOPLE, WOMEN, GAY PEOPLE, STUDENTS AND YOUTH, VETS, LABOR, AND THE MILITARY). At the least, we will develop a program and scenario for the convention that will speak to the needs of a broad cross-section of people.

80-13531-465

4. OUR STRENGTH DEPENDS ON PEOPLE COMING SELF-ORGANIZED TO THE CONVENTION ACTIONS FROM DIFFERENT REGIONS AND CITIES. Local organizations will develop program, do their own propaganda, and bring people in groups/brigades to the Convention. Beginning this week about 20 people in Miami are laying the groundwork for the c[illegible] setting up an office and media center, raising money [illegible] organized groups in the Miami area, and developing in [illegible] scenario and tactics.

5- FOR THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION (JULY 12-15) WE WILL EMPHASIZE SUPPORT FOR CONSTITUENCY ACTIONS, SPIRITED, BUT LOW-KEY ANTI-WAR STREET PRESENCE, LOBBYING AND PROPAGANDA AND EXPOSE.

The Miami Conventions Coalition will not, however, put out a call for massive street demonstrations at the Democratic Convention. We agreed to wage an intensive propaganda campaign at the Dem. National Convention around the war, with at least a partial focus on lobbying the delegates to the convention. The seven point peace proposal of the PRG would be key education tool in terms of talking both to McGovern supporters and to people in general. However, care would be taken to respect the attempts to make the 3-point peace plan a floor fight inside, and the PRG proposal would not be used to undermine that attempt.

6- IT WAS EXPRESSLY STATED AND AGREED THAT THE MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION WOULD NOT PUBLICLY SUPPORT ANYONE FOR THE OFFICE OF PRESIDENT.

OUR DISCUSSION

We felt that we participated in a fruitful discussion about the role of the left at the Republican and Democratic Conventions, and the direction that the movement could take. This section is an attempt to give a sense of the flow of those discussions.

1. Many people felt that the primary objective in this period was to defeat Richard Nixon and the forces he represents within the ruling class. Other people wanted to concentrate more on issues than on Nixon himself. We all felt that the combination of the continuing Vietnamese offensive and the political climate in America makes the defeat of Nixon possible. There was a general feeling that our actions around the conventions could significantly affect the course of the war. We discussed how an anti-imperialist movement could relate to the issue of defeating Nixon, and specifically how other issues (racism, sexism, corporate capitalism) related to that.

2. We felt that any national demonstration or action is where the left states its politics, and has an opportunity to say things which relate to people's anger or disillusionment. That is why we felt that our call must be more than just to defeat Nixon. The demonstrations themselves are not a substitute for politics. We do not want to allow our presence to become the issue at the Republican convention; our demonstrations must dramatize the real issues.

3. We discussed the militancy of the demonstrations, the use of civil disobedience as a tactic and specifically the problem of the large Cuban population in Miami. Since the Miami police force has only 650 officers, the federal government will be responsible for protection, and the national guard will probably be present. People felt that the convention atmosphere could turn into that of an armed camp. Some people felt that the portions of the Cuban community which are right-wing were not that menacing, and that the policing forces would be relatively well disciplined. We felt that the seriousness of the world situation meant that we could not compromise the necessity to be there. Some people felt that it would be best if the onus of confrontation was placed on Miami police, so that Nixon might try to cool the situation and not [illegible] would be placed on us to remain militant.

4. We had long discussions about Fonda and his possible role, if he were nominated and as he were not. Some people felt that for the first time since the beginning of the war we had indeed a possible candidate whose election could affect the end of the war. Some people felt that all should be done to insure McGovern's nomination, with the exception of outright endorsement. Others felt that we should primarily be trying to push the Democrats and the country to the left. We discussed how the events inside of the Democratic convention might affect the tactics and militancy of the people on the street outside, and vice versa. Because of the possibility of McGovern as a real alternative for ending the war, we felt it was important for the outside demonstrations to be low key. Some people felt that demonstrations might have an adverse effect, and this was especially felt by most people if the demonstrations were in any way violent.

We discussed our strategy in [illegible] elected, and that our position should be [illegible]. We discussed tactics such as a march against [illegible] of a candlelight march calling out the names of dead Vietnamese, quiet vigil. We all felt the need of strong support [illegible] already planned -- NWRO, SCLC, Gay groups, and other [illegible].

We realized that whoever would be nominated at the Democratic Convention would have a significant effect on the tone of the Republican Convention. We discussed whether or not anti-imperialist, pro-PRG demonstrations would be appropriate at the Democratic convention. We concluded that we should have an educational presence at the Democratic Convention to [illegible] press delegates to understand the true criminal nature of the war.

We realized that all Democratic Convention organizing would be hampered by lack of time.

5. We had intensive discussions of the 3 point and 7 point peace proposals. We felt that lobbying around the 3 point proposal inside the Democratic Convention was very important, and had the possibility of producing floor fights. Most people concluded that the 3 point proposal was appropriate for organizing internally inside the Democratic convention, but that the mass propaganda line, especially for the Republican Convention, should be support of the 7 points.

We felt that a strong, independent women's presence would be a crucial part of the convention activities and the Miami Conventions Coalition.

We discussed the question of coalitions and united fronts, and agreed that we should try to make the demonstrations more broad-based than in the past.

We will emphasize the seriousness of these demonstrations, and our serious committment.

6. In terms of relations between local and national activities, we felt strongly that well organized local groups should define their own activities for the Republican Convention. We felt that the Conventions Coalition in Miami would probably be defining the scenario, but would do so in a way which was responsive to, and depended on, the participation and existence of local groups. We urged people to go back to where they lived and organize Conventions Coalition offices or centers which would distribute propaganda, discuss and organize among themselves, so that at the Republican Convention itself people would be able to participate in regional or city groups.

7. We felt that convention organizing would be very important this summer, because the offensive in Vietnam would continue, and because Nixon would continue to escalate. We felt that the major contradictions would intensify over the summer, and that the left could play a very significant role at both conventions; at the Republican in militant, strong, confrontational demonstrations of all forms, and at the Democratic by expressing strong anti-war sentiment.

EXPOSE '72

Expose '72 was only discussed briefly at the meeting, but we all felt it would be a very important part of convention organizing. The following is a synopsis of the Expose '72 proposal put forward by the San Diego Convention Coalition:

We want to create an atmosphere where people can come to understand more about the specific nature of [illegible], and the world we live in, and have some fun. Expose '72 would be a large exposition, and also a base for organizing [illegible] other actions

Exhibits: (a partial list)
--the air war, with weapons display
--people's art
--the economy
--Chicano and Black movements
--Women
--China, Vietnam, Cuba, Africa, Latin America

Continuous showing of movies, i.e. Milhous, Burn, Inside North Vietnam, Etc.
Workshops
Video--messages from other countries, the findings of the People's Panel of Inquiry on the Nixon Administration. People's news broadcasts of the days events and reactions from around the country and the world.
Entertainment
--music, guerilla theatre, etc.
Publishing a daily newspaper or street wall journal.

We are hoping that regions will organize Expose 72 groups and exhibits in their regions and bring them to Miami. Expose is seen as one more tool in being able to organize nationally and internationally. It is a creative and new way that even more organizations, groups, constituencies and nationalities might be persuaded to participate in the Convention actions.

PRINCIPLES OF UNITY

THE FOLLOWING SEVEN PRINCIPLES OF UNITY WERE BROUGHT TO THE MEETING BY THE PEOPLE FROM FLORIDA AND SAN DIEGO. THEY WERE NEITHER ACCEPTED NOR REJECTED BY THOSE AT THE MEETING FOR A VARIETY OF GOOD REASONS. THEY ARE INCLUDED HERE TO PROVOKE DISCUSSION:

1. We support an end to the U.S. government's domestic policies of political, economic, racial, and sexual oppression as currently reflected in the Nixon Doctrine, e.g. Wage-Price Freeze, the use of the Taft-Hartly Act, the attack on secondary boycotts, right to work laws, welfare cuts, TAP, veto of the child care bill, use of grand juries as a tool of political repression, nomination of right wing judges, attacks on prisoners, and the racist use of the bussing issue.
2. Building alliances with Third World communities by creating the following relationships between Third World communities and the Miami Conventions Coalition and other convention organizing groups: non-interference in the leadership of Third World communities; technical and economic assistance to groups organizing around the conventions in Third World communities; emphasis by white organizers on the issue of racism; and the probelms of working people in their own communities. These relationships are central to creating an on-going national united front to oppose the common enemy: the forces of repression, racism, and imperialism.

3. We oppose all social, political, and economic forces which perpetuate domination and exploitation based on sex roles. We support the right of all women and gay people to define their own identities and societal roles.

4. We demand an immediate end to all US aggression and involvement in Indochina, and support the PRG 7 point plan for peace in Vietnam. The major points of which are:

a. The US must set a date for the total withdrawal of all US troops, military personnel, weapons and war materials, and those of its allies.

b. The US must end its intervention in the internal affairs of South Vietnam, and end its support of the regime of Nguyen Van Thieu.

We also demand that the US government respect the 1962 Geneva Accords guaranteeing independence and neutrality for Laos. We support the Front Uni National du Kampuchea as the only legitimate government of Cambodia.

5. We oppose all US [illegible] in the internal affairs of other nations, and we support struggles for national liberation.

6. The demonstrations we are [illegible] and not be violent.

7. No party or presidential candidate will be marked through the use of slogans or the speakers' platform in the demonstrations. In addition, we will not support any presidential candidate.

Re: MIDEM

Bureau anticipates that they will engage in demonstrations during the time the above-mentioned conventions are held to influence the delegates so that Cuban exiles will be permitted to use the U. S. as a base for attacks against Cuba and to influence them so that the U. S. will not take steps to improve relations between Cuba and the U. S.

In view of the unpredictable and emotional nature of the Cuban exiles, it is absolutely essential that your office on a continuing basis target all logical sources and informants to promptly report pertinent information concerning Cuban exile activities directed towards the conventions including demonstrations, violence and other militant undertakings. Of interest also would be Cuban exile efforts to thwart and attack extremist groups demonstrating at the conventions. Miami should continue to improve its coverage of anti-Castro exile groups and individuals so that the Bureau and other interested agencies will be aware of the plans of Cuban exiles directed against the conventions before such activities take place in order that effective countermeasures can be instituted.

Pertinent information must be furnished the Bureau by the most expeditious means warranted so that appropriate and timely dissemination can be made to the White House, Secret Service and other interested agencies.

In addition, pertinent data concerning Cuban exile activities must be included in the bi-weekly memorandum being submitted by your office under the MIDEM caption. The anti-Castro data should be included under the caption "Possibility of Disturbances in the Ethnic Communities During the Conventions" as instructed in the Personal Attention letter dated 3/14/72 captioned "MIDEM."

The St. Petersburg Chapter of the Florida Peoples Coalition (FPC) took place [redacted] The meeting occurred [redacted]

The purpose of the meeting was to allow [redacted] to explain to those in attendance what the meeting of FPC was. Before the meeting ended [redacted] announced that there would be another meeting at the same place and same time.

Those who attended the meeting are:

[redacted] white male, [redacted]

[redacted] white female, [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] employed

[redacted] white female, [redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted] a white female, who accompanied

[redacted] a friend of [redacted] white male, [redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted] LNU, [redacted] years old, [redacted] white male, [redacted]

[redacted] called the meeting to order, and explained the FPC three point peace program, and thereafter allowed [redacted] to take complete charge of the meeting, and he was the main influence in the meeting thereafter.

The principal importance of [redacted] remarks was the fact that he said that while FPC had originally thought that demonstrations would be concentrated on the Democratic National Convention in Miami this summer that the plans of FPC have been changed. He explained by saying that the main thrust of all FPC activities would now be concentrated against the Republican National Convention in Miami. He pointed out that there are strong peace advocates inside the Democratic Party and will be able to make their positions known at the Democratic National Convention and so it will not be nearly so important to influence the Democratic National Convention as it will the Republican National Convention. He pointed out that FPC will not support any Democratic nominee except Senator George McGovern. He pointed out that even though Senator HUMPHREY is considered for an even chance at the nomination that FPC and the other peace advocates in Miami will not accept him.

[redacted] remarked at one point that the peace advocates at Miami did not want a reoccurence of a situation that happened in Chicago in 1968, giving the impression that he did not want any violent activity in Miami. He announced that [redacted] (ph), an individual from Washington, D. C. who teaches methods of non-violence to groups planning demonstrations, is in Miami now teaching the various groups his techniques. He said that [redacted] may proceed to Tampa in order to give some instructions to the peace groups here on methods of non-violence.

[redacted] remarked that there still are plans for demonstrations and teach-ins in Miami, and that the participants are to meet at Loomis Park on Miami Beach. He said this is the staging area, and from this park various peace groups will march to the convention.

[redacted] was overheard saying that FPC has representatives in Miami now, and that they have seven houses in that area for the purpose of accommodating representatives. He was overheard saying that the main headquarters of FPC in Miami can be reached at telephone number 444-0962.

[redacted] was overheard remarking that the various peace groups who had originally been concentrating their efforts in San Diego when it was thought the Republicans were going to have their convention there, will now proceed to Miami. He was overheard saying that the Peoples Committee for Peace and Justice(PCPJ) will be represented in Miami. He described this as an anti-war union whose principal member is [redacted]

[redacted] announced that there would be a National Conference of peace advocates in Washington, D. C. on 5-15/16-72. He said that there will be delegates attending this conference who are representatives of peace groups throughout the U. S. including those now working in Miami and those individuals who worked in San Diego prior to the Republicans changing the site of their convention. He did not indicate whether or not anyone is to attend from Tampa.

It was learned that the statewide FPC conference was held [redacted] It was learned that the main point of discussion at the conference was the fact that FPC was going to direct its main emphasis toward demonstrating at the Republican National Convention in Miami.

At one point during the meeting [redacted] while discussing activities to take place in Miami at the conventions this summer [redacted] exclaimed something to the effect that the demonstrators in Miami were really going "to let them have it." The implication in his remark was that perhaps the demonstrators would commit some violence in Miami. It was a spontaneous exclamation rather than a plan put forward by [redacted] Immediately after he made the remark, he retracted it by saying that perhaps he should not have used language so strong.

Chiefs, Cubans Share Strategies for Peace

By ROBERTO FABRICIO
Herald Staff Writer

Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance happily munched on a large Cuban sandwich and spoke Spanish as his Miami counterpart, Chief Bernard Garmire looked on wistfully.

Community Relations Board Director Robert Simms looked on from the back of the room waiting dutifully for consecutive translations when the speakers spoke Spanish.

Representatives of Miami, Miami Beach and Metro governments jotted down impressions and comments as the speakers addressed themselves to possible problems demonstrators would face during this summer's upcoming political conventions.

THIS MEETING Wednesday was with Miami's Cubans, a faction that many authorities know could clash with anti-establishment demonstrators.

"The thing is that the other side is just as afraid of you as you are of them," Chief Pomerance told the Cubans. "Both sides are ignorant of the other and they fear what the other's reaction will be."

The chief said he has talked to many of the anti-establishment groups planning demonstrations during the conventions and said "their greatest fear is what the Cubans could do."

"We have traditionally behaved when faced with problems, and we vow here to continue to behave," answered Fausto Lavilla, dean of Cuban Journalists in Exile. "We only want the right to demonstrate in favor of the freedom of our enslaved country."

CHIEF GARMIRE admitted to part of the blame for the incidents surrounding the visit of a Russian ship to Miami in March where some Cubans were injured in clashes with police while demonstrating.

"Our fault was of lack of communications, of not knowing what was on the demonstrators' minds, and so we had a bad incident," Garmire told the Cubans. "We will not let that happen again. We want to know what is on your minds and what you intend to do."

Both Pomerance and Garmire suggested a committee of those present be formed to keep in touch with authorities. The idea was picked up by the organizers of the meeting, and a group was formed to inform police of demonstration plans.

Attorney Luis Botifol, head of the organizing group, the Council for the Advance of Cuban Americans, said an ad hoc group would host Spanish language news media, political organizations and any others interested in planning for demonstrations.

THE MEETING seemed to create rapport between the authorities and the Cubans. At several points the almost 50 Cubans present applauded both police chiefs after remarks.

"If we could create some avenues of communication between the different groups of demonstrators I think we will be a long way towards avoiding undesirable incidents," said Pomerance.

"It is not the police that we fear," attorney Alfredo Garcia Menocal told Pomerance. "We feel we will be provoked by professional agitators who will want to clash with us to make us look as aggressors."

Garcia Menocal and Virgilio Perez attended as representatives of the Coordinating Liberation Committee, a group which encompasses 57 Cuban organizations, among them Abdala, which was one of the organizers of the Russian ship demonstrations.

PEREZ QUESTIONED the preparations to house and feed visiting demonstrators and said it was "an invitation to bring in even more criminal demonstrators of the hippie-type."

John Von Wezel, assistant to County Manager Ray Goode, answered that the intention is not to provide quarters and food, but to develop resources so demonstrators can pay for their own services.

Chief Pomerance explained the permits to demonstrate must be obtained from his office. He said demonstrations would be allowed during eight days prior to and during the conventions, from 18th to 19th streets and from 19th to 20th.

"We are having two different demonstration areas to keep different demonstrating philosophies separate, and we are also hoping to schedule them at different days, but definitely at different hours," the Chief said.

BANKER BERNARDO Benes, who hosted the meeting at the Washington Federal Savings and Loan Association in Miami Beach, said he hoped all factions would find a common ground to avoid violence.

Attorneys Luis Figueroa and Alfredo Duran explained in Spanish legal restrictions on demonstrators. They emphasized arrests should not be resisted.

Sociologist Ed Cooke passed around a set of "Guidelines for Permits, Picketing, Marches" which has 10 suggestions.

Demonstrators are told keep moving, to keep their language clean and to ignore hostile bystanders, among other suggestions.

Chief Promerance had a suggestion of his own. In Spanish he said: "violencia trae violencia," which means that violence brings on more violence. Everyone agreed.

Possible Disruptions Have the Public Uneasy

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

Public officials planning for the national conventions came face to face Wednesday with a fact the man in the street has known all along:

Some Miami residents are not overjoyed at the prospect of protest demonstrations that are expected to come to town with the politicians.

MIAMI BEACH Police Chief Rocky Pomerance conceded the concern: "If a vote were taken," he said, "I don't know that we would have an overwhelming 99 per cent approval of the conventions coming here."

The admission came in an exchange between public officials and private citizens. And while most of the citizens were from the Cuban community, they expressed concerns which are also being aired by other Miamians.

The troubled questions were the the same that are being:

Are the people who live here really going to find themselves confronted by "10,000 hippies?"

Are these people coming to do damage to the town we live in?

Are local taxpayers going to pay for their food and shelter?

IN THEIR answers Wednesday, Pomerance and other public officials spelled out the philosophy with which they are seeking answers.

From Miami Police Chief Bernard Garmire came an admission that Miami may indeed be in for a long hot summer.

There will be, Garmire said, "two months of times within our community when tempers could flare . . . We are well aware of the fact there can be some violent confrontations."

But, both police chiefs said, the goal is peace — with protection of everyone's rights — including those of local people.

Pomerance put the issue in perspective:

"The police are responsible for the peace and tranquility of the entire community . . . for protecting the rights of the delegates to the two conventions . . . and third, to protect the rights of the dissenters."

TO PREPARE for that job, Pomerance explained, his officers are receiving a 96-hour training course which carries four college credits. With that preparation, he said, "We believe we can police this convention in an effective and humane manner."

The police are meeting with representatives of groups that plan demonstrations, Pomerance said. So far, those meetings have been encouraging.

"The leaders, if they are leaders, have told us they are interested in peaceful demonstrations. I think they have learned violence is counter-productive."

Public officials at the meeting also addressed themselves to community concern that local residents might end up footing the bill for feeding and housing demonstrators — a prospect which has alarmed some taxpayers.

John van Wezel, assistant to County Manager Ray Goode, answered that concern:

"IT IS NOT the county manager's intention to provide food or shelter free for anyone," he said.

"What we are trying to do is develop the resources whereby they can provide and pay for their own needs."

Goode has previously said that while such basic services as medical care, water and sanitation will be provided for everyone, he's planning to foot the bill with federal aid, not local tax dollars.

Meanwhile Ellis Rubin, a Miami Beach lawyer announced that he and 13 other persons have formed a group that will oppose protest demonstrations and use of public property by "hippies, Yippies, Zippies" and others.

Rubin said the group will be called "Operation Backbone."

Groups tell why they'll protest here

● Miami News Editorial Writer Stephen Karnas talks to leaders of counter culture groups expected at the presidential nominating conventions here, and records how they feel about the right to demonstrate, and to be received hospitably by the community.

By STEPHEN KARNAS
Miami News Editorial Writer

Ever since the Constitution was written, the American people have claimed the "right to peaceably assemble and petition the government for a redress of grievances." With the Vietnam War and a host of other domestic issues still festering in our public consciousness, thousands of protesters are likely to come here throughout the political convention period in July and August.

And a sizable element of the community does not want that. The fears of what these counter-cultural movement people might do to South Florida amounts to a quiet undercurrent of antipathy and tenseness, probably built upon years of hearing about massive demonstrations in other cities erupting into violence.

Analysis

This uneasiness has obscured what the movement has been saying, preventing the local community from understanding what the movement is all about. What is the reasoning of protesters and how do they view demonstrations? What do they expect from the local community?

The counter-cultural movement groups who will be encouraging young and old people across the nation to participate in the Democratic and Republican national conventions do not always agree on protest tactics and objectives. This often causes confusion within their ranks that spills over into the community involved.

However, leaders of the groups which The Miami News interviewed by telephone agreed they have to utilize their constitutional right to participate in the political processes that determine how the government will be run, including the national political conventions.

"The American people have always had, and always will have, the right to petition and demonstrate a particular point of view to their government," said Barbara Webster, spokeswoman of the Peoples' Coalition for Peace and Justice. "Political conventions have always been targets for this policy."

She justified her position as a "cherished right" essential to the continuation of our system of democracy. The increasingly voiced feelings of Americans against the war, she said, add to Americans' understanding of this motivation of anti-war activists.

What about preparations in Dade for the protesters? The announcement Monday by the Miami Snowplow Company that it had disbanded came as a surprise to those who hoped the organization would continue hammering away at the county until it was satisfied with the county's plans for the anticipated thousands of protesters.

On hand for the announcement was Zipple leader Thomas King Forcade, who told newsmen that "If there is no Miami Snowplow, if there is no government cooperation, we will still come down 'cause we have the right of assembly and we intend to exercise that right." The Zippies organized earlier this year to put some "zip" back into the movement and pick up the banner of the Youth International Party.

Many specific actions at Miami Beach this summer have not yet been formulated within the movement. But movement groups from across the country will be holding a series of meetings soon to formulate plans for the mobilization of people headed towards the conventions.

One such group is the National Student Association. Marjorie Tabankin, NSA president, indicated that demonstrations are one way to "use our rights as citizens to make the political process relevant to us." (Nonviolent sit-ins and sending out literature or petitioning the President with thousands of signatures, are specific tactics seen as uses of this right).

A major issue is making the national political conventions part of the process of establishing political control for the next four years, aware that the war in Vietnam is seen by some as the cause of many domestic problems — unemployment, inflation, social unrest.

The movement also views the last two national elections as mandates from the American people showing overwhelming disillusionment with the war. "And with the recent escalation, it is apparent the electoral process is not working," said Lynn Rossman, staff member of the Vietnam Peace Parade Committee based in New York City. "To me, the Democratic convention is to be given notice that Americans will not vote for candidates who are not opposed to the war."

The war will be the primary focus of the demonstrations and protesters, especially at the Aug. 21-23 Republican National convention, which represents to the movement an administration failing to pull through on promises to end the war. However, there will be other groups here who see the war as only part of a whole gamut of domestic problems.

The Gay Liberation Front, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, National Organization of Women, Vietnam Veterans Against the War, National Welfare Rights Organization are a few of the sub-cultural views that will be represented at both the Republican convention and the July 10-12 Democratic convention.

Some of their members do have ideological arguments on behalf of their right to demonstrate beyond a simple statement of constitutional rights. But others also claim that the System, the government power brokers, have an obligation to make this participation possible.

Many of these dissenters do not have large sums of money with which to pressure a candidate or party; they are not sufficiently confident in the structure of political parties. Others cannot accept the rhetoric of campaigns and political maneuvering, which they view as hypocrital posturing. So, even those with strong political views, try choose not to work within structured politics.

Probably the most widespread argument among member of movement groups is that conventional participation in the political process is no longer effective, that it caters to "the fat cats with money." And this argument applies both to the actual conventions as well as to the continuing slew of primaries.

"A lot of people don't feel the primaries have much effect," Barbara Webster said. "Many counter-cultural people are working through the primary road, sure; but that is clearly not enough."

Some movement people find it hard to accept that element of the Miami Beach community might regard them as "uninvited guests." Thus, there is an assumption that the local government is obligated to provide housing and services to demonstrators. "It is a duty of the American people to express their feelings," Barbara Webster said. "It is also the duty of the government to make that possible."

Local and federal government agencies made it possible for the political parties to hold their caucuses here — by allowing them use of the Miami Beach Convention Hall facilities, by putting up funds for security and other arrangements. Following this argument through, the movement feels the government also should make the political process available to the protest movements locally, in geographical proximity to the actual political conventions.

This translates into housing, feeding, transportation and other services that would make it possible for demonstrators to remain here throughout both conventions. Beach hotels will be near capacity no doubt, and prices are likely to be high. So, again these demonstrators might not have the money necessary to plug into the System. They think they should not be denied "participation" because they can't afford the trappings.

Most of the movement people contacted by The News said they did not expect an unfavorable reaction from the local community. The demonstrations are being planned as "peaceful and responsible," and movement members say they will attempt to organize and monitor any marches, rallies or demonstrations.

"We don't expect any unfriendly reaction. Miami is a tolerant community," suggested Bradford Lyttle, national coordinator of Campaign End the Air War in New York City. "I know of no tradition in this country that Americans go only where they are invited. We have no reason to expect an adverse reaction."

Many movement spokesmen expressed the belief that whatever inconvenience Miami Beach and neighboring areas experience will be brought on by the communities themselves. Considering the volatile nature of the Vietnam War and the widespread passions it evokes at home, demonstrations are a natural phenomenon, bound to occur whether there is active planning for it or not, they feel.

With that view in mind, Scott Camill, Gainesville spokesman for the Vietnam Veterans Against the War, said, "The more they (local governments) help us, the easier it's going to be on everyone involved." If the community does not supply enough portable toilet facilities, that means that the thousands of demonstrators will be crowding into gas stations and motels to use those facilities, for example.

"Movement people are no different than tourists," said Camill, adding: "We will be spending money down there."

Since demonstrations are seen as a natural part of the political process, movement sources claim Miami Beach is most responsible for any of its own fears and upcoming "problems." Camill put it this way: "If people are upset, they should be upset with their community leaders who had the conventions come down in the first place to make all sorts of money from the delegates."

A similar view claims the security forces of both conventions should likewise be looked upon as an "invasion" caused by this fear of demonstrators. This inconvenience, it is felt by some, is offset by the greater good of forcing American politicians to extricate ourselves from an immoral, pointless war. "I realize it seems like we are invading their cities," said Lynn Rossman. "I think we have to think about what the Vietnamese have been going through for the last 27 years. Business as usual in Hanoi or Haiphong is not permitted."

One group that understands much of the local community's general reluctance to welcome and provide for mass demonstrations is the San Diego Convention Coalition. The group faced the same situation starting last August when the Republicans chose that city as its convention site. The coalition received much flack from the local establishment that it was not wanted, that it would only have a damaging effect upon the city.

The coalition was actively inviting protesters to San Diego as an anti-war action. And it attempted to convey that reasoning to the community. "We tried to explain that the Republican convention was not invited," said a representative of the coalition who identified himself as Vince. "It's the power structure, not the people, that wanted the convention here. And when the people have legitimate concerns, we have a right to demonstrate."

Vince admitted his group generated a real fear in the community. Even though it has a local group organizing a national action, it focused on local issues of wage controls, unemployment, race relations, court and prison reforms. After the convention, the coalition had planned to continue working with the community to solve its problems. Instead, now it is having difficulty maintaining interest in the original plans; movement activists have their eyes on the conventions at Miami Beach.

For those who don't go to Miami Beach, the coalition hopes to carry out a protest action in San Diego at the same time as actions immediately outside the Miami Beach Convention Hall.

Planning for a concurrent demonstration on the West Coast is evidence that the target of protests and demonstrations is not the community here. It follows that because the political parties will be here, the greater number of demonstrators will also be here. (Just as in the initial campus protests against the war, the university was not the target of protesters; the U.S. war policy was).

"People who go down there never view it as going down to disrupt Miami," emphasized Marjorie Tabankin. "Our presence at Miami will be to exert pressure to make this country the kind of country we want it to be and feel it should be."

Lynn Rossman gives a persuasive argument for plans to demonstrate at Miami Beach. "I feel that I have to do it, to put myself out," she said. "That is the only moral and political response to the absolute revulsion I feel for our Vietnam policy. I need to go out and demonstrate my feelings to the people." She hopes that type of sincerity will convince all the doubting residents of this community that protesters do indeed have the moral and constitutional right to place themselves in the community for several weeks.

Time to cool pre-convention jitters

Maybe we'd better cool some of the apprehensions developing about the national political conventions coming here in July and August.

It is possible the community already needs a central clearing house for information and one all-inclusive rumor control center.

Since Ellis Rubin got into the act via television, with his radar-accurate instinct for identifying public worries and placing himself solidly on the side of the most hysterical viewpoint, I've grown more concerned that the press, the talk shows and officials close to the possible problems may have helped generate unwarranted fears.

No doubt substantial numbers of people will come here for the conventions; no doubt thousands will have something to say through parades, placards and street corner gatherings.

Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance has been speaking to leaders of assorted groups who feel obligated to express themselves in geographic proximity to the oficial gatherings of the Republicans and the Democrats.

All this does not necessarily mean that there will be rock battles in the streets, molotov cocktails flying through the air or even assorted head-knockings at the intersections. Indeed, we may assume that our visitors have no more interest in getting bashed alongside the head than we.

Most areas of this community thrive on visitors and accommodate them as a matter of course. At any given time there are thousands of non-local human beings in Greater Miami enjoying facilities and climate and not bothering a soul. We should be careful not to work up a state of mind that by early July will psyche us into regarding every stranger as an interloper aiming to make trouble for the gratification of his own ego.

Preparations for the conventions and their peripheral activities have begun to move. We are familiar by now with the range of police training sessions, discussions of communications networks, convention hall security and so forth. A lot of this planning is essential for the conventions themselves, non-official activities notwithstanding.

The courts and the court system, following through on planning programs devised more than a year ago, have developed a working committee that will set up safeguards for everyone's rights and swift processes for handling anyone detained or arrested.

They even have separate systems for handling juveniles as opposed to handling adults, assurances of bond hearings on a 24 hour a day basis, short forms for the usual paperwork involved in police and court actions and a dispersal of holding facilities in case there is a high volume of business.

Except for a few wild men of the Jerry Rubin ilk who have far fewer genuine followers than they would like us to believe, leaders of extra curricula groups want no violence. Their effectiveness was shown at a demonstration in Washington last weekend in which 10,000 remained attentive to speeches and totally aloof from trouble while a handful of deliberate provocateurs in the back of the crowd raised cain, got themselves gassed and forcibly removed. The rowdies were ignored by the vast bulk of the protestors.

Certainly official agencies must be prepared for any contingency. That doesn't mean the very worst they prepare for will come to pass. Much of the preparation, as a matter of fact, has to do simply with remaining cool. After all, we have hosted much larger conventions than either of those gathering and the place still stands.

February, 1970, of violation of Federal anti-riot laws arising out of his participation in the riots during the Democratic National Convention, Chicago, in August, 1968. [redacted] was sentenced, but was released on $25,000 bond by the United States Court of Appeals, Chicago.

PCPJ

The PCPJ has described itself as being headquartered at 1029 Vermont Avenue, N.E., Washington, D.C., and as consisting of over 100 organizations which are using massive civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repression, and war.

b6

Source stated that [redacted] advised a meeting has been tentatively planned at Miami, Florida, to be held on an undisclosed date during the first two weeks in June, 1972. The purpose of the meeting is to unite various PCPJ factions and to outline plans for demonstrations during the Republican National Convention in August, 1972. [redacted] indicated that this meeting will not be made known to the public.

Regarding the above-mentioned meeting, [redacted] indicated that he plans to attend this meeting and expects other nationally-known New Left type leaders such as ABBIE HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN to attend. [redacted] also stated that representatives of the Vietnam Vets Against the War, the New York people, and the Washington people would also attend the meeting as well as representatives from the Trotskyists in Washington, D.C. Source advised [redacted] did not identify these representatives further.

ABBIE HOFFMAN

ABBOTT HOFFMAN, also known as Abbie Hoffman, one of the founders of the Youth International Party (YIP), was found guilty in the United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois, Chicago, Illinois, during February, 1970, for violation of the Federal anti-riot statute arising out of his participation in the riots during the Democratic National Convention, Chicago, in August, 1968. During February, 1970, HOFFMAN was sentenced to five years' imprisonment and fined $5,000. Same month, the United States Court of Appeals, Chicago, ordered HOFFMAN released on $25,000 bond.

YIP

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely-knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

JERRY RUBIN

RUBIN, a founder of YIP, was found guilty in the United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois, Chicago, Illinois, during February, 1970, for violation of the Federal anti-riot statute arising out of his participation in the riots during the Democratic National Convention, Chicago, in August, 1968. During February, 1970, RUBIN was sentenced to five years' imprisonment and fined $5,000 and court costs. That same month, the United States Court of Appeals, Chicago, ordered RUBIN released on $25,000 bond.

RE: DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE
DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
JULY, 1972

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION
AUGUST, 1972

Source advised [redacted] stated that he is aware of plans concerning the duplication of legitimate political convention credentials for the purpose of infiltrating both of the political conventions and disrupting them from within. [redacted] stated that these plans are the work of "the Florida people" whom he did not further identify. [redacted] indicated he was opposed to these plans, stating that "all the action should take place in the streets". Source advised [redacted] expressed his personal view that disruption of the forthcoming conventions should be in the form of street demonstrations involving mass confrontation by the demonstrators and law enforcement personnel. Source stated [redacted] did not describe the extent to which he proposed carrying violent tactics, but did indicate that actions of demonstrators would be designed to force police reprisals, thus bringing national criticism and embarrassment upon the administration of President NIXON and the Republican Party.

b6
b7C

In this regard, [redacted] advised tactics of those accepting his leadership would be directed primarily against the Republican National Convention rather than the Democratic National Convention.

[redacted] also expressed disappointment over the fact that the Republican National Convention had been relocated from San Diego, California, to Miami, Florida, inasmuch as [redacted] does not feel that geographical factors favor the demonstrators in Miami to the same degree as existed in San Diego.

[redacted] further indicated that [redacted] of the Movement Speakers Bureau in Washington, D.C., not further identified, had departed San Diego in late April, 1972, where he was working on plans for disruption of the Republican National Convention and is now in Miami, exact address unknown, to continue the same work there.

SESSIONS WERE TO FORN A GENERAL BACKGROUND FOR THE CONFERENCE SCHEDULED FOR MAY NINETEEN AND MAY TWENTY.

THE MAIN CONFERENCE WAS HELD MAY NINETEEN AND MAY TWENTY AT THE FRIENDS MEETING HOUSE, TWO ONE ONE ONE FLORIDA AVENUE, N.W., WASHINGTON, D.C., WITH APPROXIMATELY FORTY-FIVE PEOPLE IN ATTENTANCE. SECURITY WAS UNUSUALLY TIGHT, AMONG THOSE IN ATTENDANCE WERE [redacted] ANTI-WAR UNION MEMBERS [redacted] ANTI-WAR ACTIVISTS, AND ON FRIDAY ONLY [redacted] b6 b7C

THE PLANS FOR THE CONVENTIONS WERE KEPT IN VERY BROAD TERMS, WITH THE DISCUSSIONS BEING BROKEN DOWN INTO TWO PHASES; THE FIRST PHASE DEALT WITHE THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION AND THE SECOND WITH THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

DURING THE DEMOCRATIC PHASE THERE EVOLVED BASICALLY TWO CONCEPTS OF ACTION; ONE TO APPROACH THE CONVENTION WITH A

THE CONFERENCE WANTED TO ACTIVELY SUPPORT SENATOR GEORGE MC GOVERN BUT DECIDED NOT TO AS THEY BELIEVED THIS WOULD HURT HIS CANDIDACY. GENERALLY, THEY AGREED TO SUPPORT ANY DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE THAT WOULD NOT CONTINUE THE QUOTE NIXON LINE UNQUOTE. THE CONFERENCE HOPED TO HAVE THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION SUPPORT THE THREE POINT PROGRAM OF THE ANTI-WAR UNION (AWU).

ALLEGEDLY, THE AWU WAS FORMED BY [redacted] TO CONTINUE MASSIVE PUBLIC PROTESTS AGAINST UNITED STATES MILITARY POLICY IN SOUTHEAST ASIA AND FOR INPLEMENTATION OF PLANS TO DISRUPT THE NATIONAL POLITICAL CONVENTIONS IN MIAMI.

Since captioned organization is heavily involved with other groups planning possible disruptive activities in Miami Beach, and is the apparent coordinator for the planned demonstrations, it is imperative that all individuals and activities of this organization be afforded intensive investigative attention.

Tampa, as office of origin, immediately prepare a detailed or LHM identifying the location of the headquarters and all branch offices since it appears that one was recently opened at 805 5th Street, Miami Beach, Florida. Set forth identities of all key individuals leaders, and membership if any exists, of this organization as well as identities of all affiliated groups that may take part in demonstrations or other activities during the conventions.

Miami and Jacksonville insure that Tampa is in possession of all current information regarding captioned organization and individuals involved so its LHM will be complete and comprehensive. If characterizations of key leaders are available they should be furnished to Tampa for inclusion in the LHM.

Recipient offices are requested to advise Bureau of identity of informants furnishing coverage in this group.

Dear Mr. Gerstein: [redacted]

This is in response to your letter of April 3, 1972.

Your first question is as to whether the City of Miami Beach has authority to deputize police officers of another jurisdiction to serve with full arrest powers for a specific purpose and for a stated time period.

Viewed in isolation, with reference to the Florida Mutual Aid Act (Part VII of Chapter 23, Florida Statutes), an answer to this question would probably require resort to the special legislative acts and ordinances relating to the City of Miami Beach as well as those relating to the other "jurisdiction" mentioned by you (if it be a municipality).

However, it is not necessary to go that route because Section 23.127(1), which is found in said Part VII, says:

80-1353-504A

"(1) Whenever the employees of any political subdivision are rendering aid outside and pursuant to the authority contained in this part, such employees shall have the same powers, duties, rights, privileges, and immunities as if they

Official: Police plan to go easy on minor crimes at convention

By ROBERT B. STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

Miami Beach Councilman Robert Goodman said today that city and county police officials have decided to temper enforcement of certain misdemeanors during the Democratic and Republican national conventions this summer.

Goodman said police officials of Miami, Miami Beach and Metro have told him they will not attempt to strictly enforce minor laws such as loitering, hitchhiking, trespassing and littering during the conventions.

"They have told me that they will be adopting a policy of loosening up on the arresting and jailing of people for minor infractions," Goodman said. "That's the word I've gotten from everyone involved in the convention."

He said police told him they will not strictly enforce many minor statutes, in part because they have neither the manpower nor the space to arrest and detain those who might be charged with such offenses.

In addition, he said, the police realize that strict enforcement of such statutes could "cause a confrontation and may spark off bigger things without meaning to."

He said people should realize that such police action has become routine in cities such as New York and Washington, where large numbers of protesters frequently assemble for demonstrations.

Chief Harold Barney, executive assistant to Metro Public Safety Director. Wilson. Purdy, said: "Our policy during the conventions will not substantially change from what it has been at other times when large numbers of people are in the community.

"If there is a large number of people here during the convention, there will have to be at least some recognition of the problems, some relaxation of enforcement of certain laws."

At the City of Miami Police Department, Bob Parkins, administrative assistant to Police Chief Bernard Garmire, said Miami Police will adopt a policy of "cool tempers and conservative enforcement" during the convention.

Parkins said the City Commission will have final authority to ease enforcement of minor laws such as curfews or loitering statutes. But he said he expects that the commission and the police will approve the policy outlined by Goodman.

A spokesman for the Miami Beach Police Department, who asked that he not be identified, said Beach police — like their colleagues in the Miami and Metro departments — have not adopted a firm policy on the matter. He said the Beach department will probably end up following the guidelines described by Goodman.

Miami police grant

Miami police are getting a $95,410 federal grant for training and equipment to help control crowds during the Democratic National Convention in July, according to Miami Mayor David Kennedy.

Assistant Miami Police Chief Kenneth Fox said some Miami officers will be assigned fulltime to the Miami Beach convention, and others will be sent in if needed.

Kennedy said the grant is coming from the federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, and is in addition to an earlier grant for special training of both Miami Beach and Miami police.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION;
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

CONVENTION PLANS - STAFF MEETING, 5/26/72

For the Bureau's information, on 5/26/72, a staff meeting was held in the training classroom adjacent to the Miami Beach Police Department headquarters. Following subjects were discussed by the persons indicated.

Cuban Community

Chief of Police ROCKY POMERANCE informed during past week he had attended meeting called at his request by [redacted] which other leading members of the Cuban community attended. The discussions concerned avoiding confrontations between the generally anti-communist Cuban community and protest groups which may be active in this area in connection with the conventions. The Cuban leaders generally, on the surface, expressed interest in avoiding such confrontations, and will make known their feelings throughout the Cuban community.

LEAA Assistance

[redacted] LEAA, who has now established an office on Miami Beach, announced that a grant of $95,410 had been made to the Miami Police Department for training and equipment necessary in connection with the DNC. This is in addition to an earlier grant for such training, to the Miami Beach Police Department.

[redacted] LEAA, Washington, announced the availability of certain military equipment from the Army, which can be used in connection with civil disturbances. He said the Army has two programs under which equipment may be supplied: b6 b7C

(a) - Emergency program, in which the desired equipment may be used for a period not exceeding 15 days;

(b) - Anticipatory program, in which equipment is available for use until supplies, already on order by the interested law enforcement agency(s), arrive.

In order to obtain supplies and equipment under the latter program, the interested law enforcement agency has been required in the past to accompany its request with copies of purchase orders, reflecting that these supplies have, in fact, been ordered from civilian suppliers.

LEAA has approached the Army for supplies and equipment under this latter program, stating that Miami's law enforcement requirements are well above normal, and asking that they waive the requirement for copies of purchase orders. The Army has not yet agreed, but, on the other hand, they have not turned down this request.

The Army has pre-positioned stocks of supplies and equipment for use in civil disturbance situations. Generally, they do not want to move any of these stocks unless it is absolutely necessary. They want to know at the earliest possible time what is needed. They say they can move the desired equipment and supplies into the affected area within six to eight hours. LEAA requested that all law enforcement agencies having responsibilities in connection with the conventions and desiring such equipment and supplies, make a consolidated list of needs by the close of business, 5/31/72.

Items available for use are as follows:

Group No. 1 - Personnel, arms, ammunition, aircraft. Such items can only be released upon authority of the Under-Secretary of the Army.

Group No. 2 - Riot control resources, such as chemicals, Concertino wire.

Group No. 3 - Fire fighting resources, such as helmets, body armor, clothing, communications equipment.

Items mentioned in the latter two groups can be obtained from the Army upon authority, not specifically mentioned, lower in the chain of command than the Under-Secretary of Army.

Some of the more logical equipment which will be available in the latter two groups would be such things as the following:

A communications package, consisting of a base station and 20 satellite stations; portable transmitters and receivers;

Searchlights, and equipment necessary for confinement facilities;

M-9 gas protection masks;

M-106 gas disburser, which does not require a compressor;

40mm gas cartridge with own propellant, made to be fired by hand, with range of 50 yards;

M25A - 2 round tear grenade, which contains powder, not gas;

M7A3 gas container, size of shaving-cream box, a small burning container which, however, can be thrown back.

It was not recommended that the tear powder, known as CS, be used in any place where innocent persons or delegates might be contaminated, since it is extremely persistent.

PS (public address) system.

AM/EIQ 5A, flak vest, which is light in weight, nylon laminated in construction;

M-1 helmet, with plastic face shield.

Communications

[redacted] Federal Communication Commission, Miami, requested that in order to avoid radio communications confusion, each agency should furnish to FCC the frequency on which it will be operating during the conventions.

b6
b7C

Secret Service Operations

[redacted] in charge of Secret Service operations, informed they now have established an office in the north hall of the convention complex.

Identification Badges, Law Enforcement

Secret Service will not, under any circumstances, issue identification badges to anyone not connected with law enforcement. Any other credentials must be obtained from the DNC.

Any officer whose presence may be necessary in the north hall, will be issued a distinctive badge. This badge will enable the officer to move in any area of the convention complex. The number issued will, therefore, be severely limited. Final approval will be at the pleasure of the DNC.

Arrest Powers

Chief POMERANCE advised Florida Attorney General ROBERT L. SHEVIN, on May 23, 1972, had rendered an opinion that under the Florida Mutual Aid Act, police officers from other jurisdictions who serve in Miami Beach during the National Political Conventions, pursuant to Section 23.125(e), Florida Statutes, would have arrest powers.
